REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS was presented by the Rev. R. F. Sloop, Chairman. The Report was adopted by a standing vote, and follows:

The Synod of North Carolina in its one hundred and forty-fifth Session gives thanks to Almighty God for the manifest presence of the Holy Spirit upon all our Sessions.

We are grateful for the cordial welcome given us by President Grier Martin and the Rev. Samuel W. Newell, Jr.; for the efficient way in which our physical comforts were cared for by Robert A.

Currie, Business Manager; Robert J. Sailstad, Assistant to the President; Mrs. J. B. Moore, Supervisor of Dormitories; Mr. J. O. Gant, Supervisor of Janitors; Mr. Ralph Poteat, Director, Food Services; Dan S. LaFar, Jr., Public Relations; Prof. Brooks McLane and Rev. Denver S. Blevins, Recordings; Herbert A. Russell, Jr., Organist; Miss Letitia Currie and her assistants in carefully registering this large assembly, and to the Women of the Davidson College Presbyterian Church, the Calvary Presbyterian Church, and the Quadranglers Club for the delightful reception for the new members of Synod.

We also want to take note of the beauty of this campus, and to thank those responsible for the care and concern that is evident in the maintenance of the buildings and grounds.

We would thank those who have given us moments of inspiration: Rev. Sam W. Newell, Jr., and Rev. Vance Baucom for leading us in a worshipful observance of the Lord's Supper; Rev. Ross MacKenzie, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Rev. Hubert L. Black for the thought-provoking devotionals; Thomas L. Covington, Jr. for his inspiring solo on Tuesday evening.

We would record our gratitude to the Moderator of the General Assembly, the Honorable Philip F. Howerton, for the way in which he enlarged our vision and challenged us to positive action; to Rev. George T. Brown, for reminding us of our Lord's Commission to "Disciple All Nations"; to Mrs. B. Frank Hall for her most inspiring address; to Dr. I. S. McElroy, Jr., Mr. Charles J. Currie, and to Mr. Fred Ohl, we extend our appreciation, for appropriate addresses.

Our thanks to our retiring Moderator for the splendid way in which he has led our Church in North Carolina during the past year. We appreciate his stirring message and are confident that we will profit by it.

We have been aware of the presence of the Press and are grateful for their careful reporting of all our deliberations.

To our Moderator we extend hearty thanks for the manner in which he has presided over the Sessions and the dispatch with which he has kept us in hand.

The thanks of Synod are due to our Executive Secretary, Rev. Harold J. Dudley, and his staff for the tireless energy with which the affairs of Synod are transacted and for the careful attention that is given to every detail of this large body. To our Permanent Clerk, Rev. C. M. Gibbs, and the Assistant Clerk, Rev. L. B. McKeithen, Jr., we also express our appreciation for their untiring efforts on our behalf.

To all those who have shared in making this a profitable meeting we are grateful. It is our prayer that this shall not go down in our minutes as just another meeting, but one that has inspired each representative to become a more dedicated member of the Body of Christ.

Respectfully submitted:

R. F. Sloop, chairman

1. MEMORIALS TO DECEASED MINISTERS

REV. EUGENE ALEXANDER

The Reverend Eugene Alexander was the son of Cornelius Pharr Alexander and Marjorie Query Alexander. He was born in Mecklenburg County, N. C. on September 23, 1890 and died at his home near Sanford, N. C. on June 7, 1958.

In 1919 he was married to Miss Ruth Campbell Withers, who shared his life and work for many fruitful and useful years, and who survives him. His body was laid to rest in the old Buffalo Church Cemetery, in Sanford.

Between the dates of his birth and death, 1890 and 1958, there stretches a life of unusual usefulness.

In 1912 he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Davidson College, and in 1916 the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia.

He was ordained to the ministry by Fayetteville Presbytery on June 25, 1916, and installed as Pastor of the Bethel group of Churches in Hoke County, N. C. In these churches and communities he endeared himself to the people as a faithful pastor, and wise and trusted friend. Here he served until 1923. However, in 1918 and 1919 he was absent on leave and served as a Chaplain in the United States Army in World War I.

In 1923 he become pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Salisbury, N. C. which he served also for a period of seven years. That Church made great progress during his pastorate.

In 1930 he came back to Fayetteville Presbytery as Pastor of the Church of the Covenant and other churches in that group. Here he served for ten years, until the outbreak of the Second World War in Europe. In 1940, when the National Guard was inducted into Federal Service in preparation for our entry into that war. Mr. Alexander reported for duty, and was assigned as a Chaplain in the 30th Division, Army of the United States. During all the years between the first and second World Wars, he had remained a member of the Officers Reserve, and had taken training annually or oftener, and so was quickly available for service.

His service was a distinguished one from the years 1940 to 1946. He served as Chief Chaplain of Camp Wheeler, Georgia; at the National Guard Hospital at Tuscaloosa, Alabama; and at Lawson General Hospital, Atlanta, Georgia.

He retired from the Army in 1946, with the rank of Colonel.

Later, he was made a Brevet Bridgadier General by the Governor of North Carolina, in recognition of his long and useful service with the National Guard of North Carolina, and in other capacities. We have heard that he is the only Chaplain who has ever been honored in this way.

In 1946 he entered upon his last pastorate, at Victoria and Kenbridge, Virginia. There he served with devotion and success until his retirement in 1955. He then returned to Fayetteville Presbytery, and supplied many vacant churches. He and Mrs. Alexander built a home in Sanford, their home until his passing.

We think of him as an able and useful minister. He was a man's man, who made friends easily and naturally. One of his outstanding characteristics was an abundance of practical common sense. His judgment of people and things was solid and dependable. His friendliness was warm and cheerful. As a consecrated minister, always true to what he believed were the best interests of his church, as a friend and counsellor of those in trouble, we shall cherish his memory, and shall miss him from the fellowship and work of the Presbtyery.

W. S. Golden.

CHARLES MORGAN BOYD

Charles Morgan Boyd was born in Cayce, Miss., April 25, 1875. In his sudden death on February 25, 1958, the Presbyterian Church, U. S., lost from the earthly roll, by translation, one of her most honored and faithful ministers. He literally slipped away into the presence of the Savior Whom he loved and Whom he served with sincere devotion throughout a long ministry. Dr. Boyd received his collegiate training at Erskine College, S. C., winning both the B.A. and M.A. degrees from that well known institution of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. At Erskine Theological Seminary he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1902. He was ordained by the Second Presbtyery of the A.R.P. Church on November 13, 1902. He served in this branch of the Presbyterian Church, in which he was reared, over a period of eight years, with pastorates in Prosperity, S. C., 1902-1906, and in Anderson, S. C., 1906-1910.

In 1910 Dr. Boyd began his service in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. and continued in this connection until the close of his life. He was pastor of First Church, Tuscaloosa, Ala., 1910-1931, during six years of which period he was also instructor in Church History in the University of Alabama. In 1920 he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Davidson College, and in that same year he was moderator of the Synod of Alabama. In 1931 he accepted a call to the Westminister Church of Charlotte, N. C. and served this church until his retirement from the active pastorate in 1945, when he reached the age of seventy. In his several pastorates Dr. Boyd's work was characterized by his adhering to a forward looking program, with particular emphasis upon the training and development of the youth of the Church. During his entire ministry he was deeply and especially concerned for the Home Mission Work of the Church, and gave it his full support. He was a successful administrator, a faithful and sympathetic pastor, an earnest preacher of the "glorious gospel of the Son of God."

Soon after his retirement in 1945 Dr. Boyd was called by the Mecklenburg Presbytery to be its first Minister to the Hospitals of Charlotte. Here he found a large field of service as he visited continuously in these three institutions, giving special attention to Presbyterians within the bounds of the Presbytery, tenderly ministering to their spiritual needs in the name of the Great Physician. Many expressions of appreciation from these patients came to Dr. Boyd and, after his going, to Mrs. Boyd also. One of the valuable features of his ministry in the hospitals was the information he sent the ministers of the Presbytery concerning patients from their respective churches. In many cases this was the first and only information received, and was much appreciated. These so-called retirement years were filled with activity, for in addition to his busy hospital schedule Dr. Boyd frequently supplied pulpits throughout the Presbytery.

On November 4, 1904, Charles M. Boyd and Ella Jane Lee were united in marriage. She survives him, having been his devoted companion and helper for more than fifty years. He is also survived by a brother, William Boyd, of Covington, Tenn. The furneral service on February 27 was conducted by Rev. M. S. Bell, pastor of the Seigle Avenue Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Boyd holds her membership, by Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence, Executive Secretary of Mecklenburg Presbytery, and Dr. R. H. Stone of Greensboro, former Executive Secretary. The service, simple and comforting, was largely attended, many of his brethren of the Presbytery being among those present. The interment was in the Forest Lawn Cemetery. We know he has entered "into the joy of His Lord."

REV. JEREMIAH STEPHEN CROWLEY

Few men have served the church longer and none more faithfully than J. S. Crowley, who was born in County Cork, Ireland, on Christmas day 1863, and died at his home in Wilmington on May 13, 1958. He saw most of the changes of the most portentious century in human history, and met all with the wisdom and serenity of firm and intelligent faith.

Brought to America as a child of only three months, he grew up in the turbulent post-war years. As a young man, he taught school briefly in Texas, then worked as a construction laborer. At the age of 30 he felt the call to the ministry, attended college and seminary, and was ordained in 1896. His first field of labor was the Congo, and when the door to foreign mission service was closed to him by Providence he became a home missionary and a builder of churches throughout Virginia, the Carolinas, and Florida. Eastern Carolina was his especial love and the field of his most constant labors, and in its warm and kindly soil his mortal clay rests. But across the rich fields of the lowlands and the rolling hills of the Piedmont his spirit still walks, building churches and men to the glory of God. Modest and unassuming, he sought no place of prominence or preferment, yet who can say what treasures such a man will bring to the final reckoning? Few of earth's wealthy and powerful can display so magnificent a return on the investment of life.

He was a faithful sower of the seed of righteousness, who planted neither ambition nor greed, but quiet graciousness and humble beauty and sturdy faith and good humor and gentle wisdom. The harvest of his sowing rolls on year after year and decade after decade in ever burgeoning richness. Such men are life's real successes, and their lives are inspiring,

The Presbytery of Orange pauses in loving memory and to do honor to one of the best known, best loved and most used of God of the many of her sons. At the meeting of the General Assembly in 1949 the past moderator of the Assembly was asked to unveil a portrait of this son of Orange—Dr. Ernest Eugene Gillespie, whom he declared to be "the most beloved man within the Synod."

The name "Gillespie" of Scottish derivation and taken from the Gaelic means "attendant or servant of the bishop." Historically, the Gillespies have been noted for thier resourcefulness, initiative, integrity, piety, perseverance, forcefulness, fortitude, patience, courage, loyalty and leadership. Each one of these traits is epitmoized in the subject of our memorial.

Dr. Gillespie was born October 4th 1869 in Greensboro, N. C. and was the son of Daniel Denniston and Catharine Woodburn Gillespie—members of the Buffalo Church in which the father was an elder and was mustered out of the Army of the Confederacy on May 2, 1865. His great grandfather was Col. Daniel Gillespie, a member of the Buffalo congregation, twice a member of the House of Commons and later for five years a State senator. He was a proponent of freedom being a participant in the Battle of the Regulators on May 16, 1771 and was a commanding officer throughout the Revolutionary War.

In his ancestry beginning in Scotland there are three ministers including Rev. George Gillespie (1613-1648), who lived during the period of the Westminster Assembly and it is thought that he led the prayer which gave the definition of God.

When Dr. Gillespie received infant baptism in the Buffalo Church he was dedicated to the Gospel ministry. At the age of seventeen he made a public profession of his faith in Christ and united with the First Presbyterian Church. The next year —1887—he became a charter member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

He attended the local schools, studied Greek privately, and in 1893 received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Guilford College. In 1894 he received a similar degree from the University of North Carolina where he so distinguished himself in his scholastic work that he was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

The young University gradaute did Home Mission work in Stokes County in 1894 and there he organized Sunday Schools and conducted religious activities. That Fall he entered Union Theological Seminary in Virginia and in 1897 was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

At that time Orange Presbytery wanted a man full of tact and energy and wisdom and consecration to be a pioneer Home Missionary and open a new work in Ashe County. He volunteered and made his home in Jefferson. The First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro paid his salary of $50.00 per month. With this he maintained himself and his horse—the mode of travel until he possessed a small organ, and then a buggy became necessary. He made lasting friends for Christ and Presbyterianism. During his stay there he through evangelistic meetings and personal work won enough people to organize a church. Then Orange Presbytery organized the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church and the young minister helped to cut the trees, manufacture the lumber and construct the church. Groups of people in Jefferson and Obids were also won to Christ, and his successor organized churches there. All this was done with phenomenal rapidity for within two years the Synod of North Carolina elected him to be Superintendent of Home Missions—a movement that had been leading and challenging the Assembly in evangelistic, soul winning and church erection endeavors. For six years he again lived in Greensboro as he directed and inspired others in winning souls to Christ.

From 1905 until 1924 he lived without the Synod and was in his one happy and fruitful pastorate—the First Presbyterian Church of York, S. C. A splendid growth in many ways was manifest—organization, buildings, equipment, services, stewardship, spirituality and membership. The Church grew from 321 to in excess of 680. He rendered outstanding service to Bethel Presbytery and to the Synod of South Carolina.

During his sojourn in South Carolina his prince-of-the-pulpit abilities were known and a number of larger churches were calling him to their pastorates. His organizing and administrative gifts were similarly recognized and he was overtured again and again to become the administrative head of our Church institutions. But God was apparently saving him for the crowning work of a ministry of over fifty years—and that within his home Synod where he could have his home town and home Presbytery as a base of operations.

In 1924 he was recalled by the Executive Committee of Home Missions in the Synod of North Carolina to become for the second time the Superintendent of Home Missions. For the next twenty four years, until his retirement in 1948 his great gifts and powers of mind and heart were used without stint in Evangelism, Home Missions, Stewardship, Negro Work, Defense Service, Council, and Educational Institutions; and he was the leading spirit in the building and operation of the William Black Home at Montreat, of which he was the president of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Gillespie has been greatly loved and honored. He has been moderator of Presbyteries and of the Synod of South Carolina and the Synod of North Carolina. Again and again he has been a commissioner to the General Assembly. The Presbyterian College of South Carolina conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinty.

He was loved and honored and adored in his home. In 1905 he was married to Miss Mattie Lee McIver, of Gulf, N. C. This union was blessed with four children—two of whom survive, Mrs. Lois Gillespie (Mrs. Clarence, Jr.) Ford and Mr. John McIver Gillespie.

After a long, busy, and fruitful ministry in which he was loved by thousands, and his influence felt across the Assembly, at the close of the day on February 22, 1958 he peacefully fell asleep to be awakened in heaven by the deserved plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant . . . . . Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

REVEREND ANGUS R. McQUEEN

Rev. Angus R. McQueen was a greatly beloved member of Fayetteville Presbytery for 50 years, from 1907 to 1957. He was pastor of the Dunn Church from 1907 to 1946, at which time he became Pastor Emeritus.

Dr. McQueen was born and reared within the bounds of this Presbytery and served his entire ministry there. He was born near Carthage where his father, Rev. Martin McQueen, was for 24 years pastor of the Union and Carthage Churches. In 1899 he entered Davidson College, graduating in 1903. The next fall he went to Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, graduating in 1907, and was immediately called to the only pastorate he ever held, at Dunn, N. C. While there, he was also stated supply of the Godwin, Bluff, and McMillan Churches from 1907 to 1920, and also of the Grove Church for many years. His active ministry continued here until 1946 at which time he was made Pastor Emeritus of the Dunn Church. He was a faithful and effective preacher, continually lifting up Christ and Him crucified before the eyes of men.

Many people and many churches owe their spiritual birth and growth to the labors of this consecrated man of God. He knew the Lord and loved Him and, as a result of his life and work, a multitude of other people came to know Him and love Him. He was a good preacher, an able leader and an effective, all-around minister, serving with quiet dignity and complete dedication in the work to which he had been called. We will miss him in the Presbytery—miss his genial fellowship and his fine counsel. We sorrow over his loss; but we do not sorrow as those have no hope. For we are sure that all the trumpets were sounding as he crossed over the river; and that he has already received the accolade which the King gives to those who have stood the test, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Thou has been faithful in a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of the Lord." His memory will live long in the Presbytery, but especially in that field where he served faithfully for a half a century.

Dr. McQueen is survived by a sister, Miss Margaret McQueen of Dunn and by an adopted son, Jack McQueen, who was a student and is now a teacher in the University of North Carolina.

W. W. ARROWOOD.

Lacy Irvine Moffett was born in Churchville, Va., February 10, 1878, the eldest son of Rev. Alexander Stuart Moffett and Carrie Lena Crawford Moffett. His early boyhood was spent in Virginia, his father later moving to Kentucky where he grew up.

He entered Westminster College in Missouri in 1895 and transferred to Central University (now Center College) in Kentucky in 1897. He was graduated there with the degree of B.A. in 1898. He entered Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and later transferred to Union Theological Seminary, graduating there with the B.D. degree in 1902. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Westminster College in 1923.

He had already felt the call to service on the Foreign Mission field. This interest he had inherited from his parents. They had years before offered themselves for foreign missionary service but had been prevented by circumstances from going. During his senior year at the Seminary, together with two other seminary seniors and a young business man, he attended a meeting of the Student Volunteer Movement in Canada where these four young men caught a vision of a Forward Movement for Foreign Missions in the home Church where missionary interest at that time was at a low ebb. During the next two years these four, traveling and speaking over the Assembly, gave the Church a new vision of its missionary opportunity and responsibility. As a result there was a great response in the offering of life and service for the foreign field and a great increase in missionary giving throughout the Church.

Dr. Moffett was married to Miss Kate Hall Rodd of New Orleans, La., November 17, 1904, and sailed immediately for China. There for thirty-six years he and Mrs. Moffett rendered an outstanding service for Christ, often in imminent danger and more often in exceedingly trying circumstances. The first four years of their life in China was spent at Soochow where the study of the Chinese language and adjustment to new conditions occupied much of their time. Here also they learned to know and love the Chinese people. From Soochow they were transferred to Kiangyin, a walled city on the bank of the Yangtse River. Here Dr. Moffett gave himself whole-heartedly to the work of evangelism throughout the Kiangyin District, living for a large part of the time on a native Chinese boat, preaching, teaching the Chinese Christians and inquirers and visiting in the homes of the people as well as making friends with the merchants, farmers and all wherever he went. The most fruitful feature of his country evangelistic work was the gathering together each month of all the evangelistic workers in the district for a period of three days of prayer, Bible study and conference, the whole group going out in the afternoons to preach in the nearby villages, in the chapels, tea shops, on the streets and everywhere opportunity offered. The workers went away from these monthly meetings refreshed, encouraged and with new zeal.

All of his missionary work was marked by a keenness of insight, a soundness of judgment, an unflagging devotion to his work and to the people among whom he lived, and always by a sweetness and gentleness of spirit which no amount of disappointment or annoyance ever seemed to change. One of his co-workers for many years said of him, "He never forgot for a minute what he was in China for—to witness to the love of God in Christ, and to build His Church." His counsels were listened to by his fellow missionaries. God always seems to provide a few men in a group who are able to see and to say the right thing in times of perplexity. Lacy Moffett was one of these.

Dr. Moffett was a man of broad interests. His home was always a delightful place to visit. One of his friends said the Moffett family was one of the most polite families he ever knew, always polite to each other and to all who came within their acquaintance. He was interested in his own children and in children and young people everywhere he went. He enjoyed hunting and was an ornithologist of note, collaborating in the writing of two books on the birds of the China coast and the lower Yangtse Valley. He maintained always a wide interest in world affairs and was a discerning observer.

When the outbreak of the war made his return to the United States necessary, he took his place in the work of the Church at home with as keen interest as he had manifested on the Foreign Field, though never forgetting that the great aim of the whole Church of Christ is to carry the Good News to the ends of the earth. He served as temporary supply of the First Church in Lynchburg, Va., for three years, the First Church in St. Joseph, Mo., and as Stated Supply of the Banner Elk Church. The family moved to Taylorsville, N. C., in 1951. There he served for a time as temporary supply of the A. R. P. Church.

Dr. Moffett was called home after a period of increasing weakness on October 2, 1957. The funeral was conducted by Rev. L. V. McPherson, Pastor of the Taylorsville Presbyterian Church, with Dr. Moffett's nephew, Rev. Harry Moffett, D. D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Gastonia, N. C., offering prayer at the grave. His body was laid to rest in the Taylorsville cemetary. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate Rodd Moffett, three sons, Robert B. Moffett of Burlington, N. C., L. Irvine Moffett, Jr., and Dr. Alex S. Moffett of Taylorsville, and three daughters, Mrs. J. R. Snell of Haslett, Mich., Mrs. Griswold Forbes and Mrs. E. J. Conway both of Washington, D. C.

Truly it can be said of him that he was a man, greatly beloved.

George Powell was born at Mt. Olive, N. C., on July 12th, 1928. After graduating from Guilford College in 1952 he entered Columbia Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia, from which institution he received his B.D. degree in June 1955. After graduation he began work in the Helen and Nacoochee churches in Athens Presbytery of the Synod of Georgia, and was ordained and installed as pastor of this group of churches in July of 1955. In December of 1956 he began work in the Pleasant Hill church of Mecklenburg Presbytery and was installed as pastor on January 26, 1957, the fourth Sabbath of that month. On January 27, 1958, just one year after his installation at Pleasant Hill, he died of an heart attack.

The Rev. Mr. Powell quickly became known as a man of deep spirituality, great energy and untiring evangelistic zeal. He loved people and made many friends. This passage of scripture seemed to be one of the directing principles of his life: Romans 12:11—"Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord."

R. A. Young.

REVEREND CHRISTOPHER KREUTZER TAFFE
(1886-1957)

Christopher Kreutzer Taffe was born in Louisville, Ky., on May 15, 1886. Early in life he united with the Stuart Robinson Presbyterian Church of Louisville, and dedicated his life to the work of the ministry. He earned the degree of Bachelor of Arts in three years, and the Master of Arts degree the following year, at Southwestern Presbyterian University, Clarksville, Tenn.

For the next four years he was principal of a high school at Columbus, Miss. In 1916 he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity and the Hoge Fellowship at Union Theological Seminary in Virginia. After a year of postgraduate study there, he was licensed by East Hanover Presbytery, and later ordained by East Alabama Presbytery.

He served as pastor of the following churches, Union Springs, Alabama; Carthage, Union and Eureka Churches, North Carolina; First Church of Henderson, North Carolina; Memorial Presbyterian Church, West Palm Beach, Florida; White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia; Mount Hermon and Danielsville Churches, Ila, Georgia; and finally, Union, Vass and Cameron Churches, in North Carolina. This was the second time he had served as pastor of the Union Church.

For a year he served, in 1932-33, as professor of English at Hampden-Sydney College. He did post graduate study at the University of Michigan, the Bibical Seminary in New York, Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, and the University of Georgia.

In 1955 he was honorably retired by Fayetteville Presbytery, and continued to make his home in Cameron, where he had many friends. After retirement he served as Stated Supply for the following churches: Spring Lake, N. C.; Newnan, Georgia; and the First Presbyterian Church of Anniston, Alabama.

He was a patient in the Moore Memorial Hospital, Pinehurst, N. C., suffering with a heart condition, in May of 1957. In June he entered the State Hospital at Butner, N. C., for treatment of a distressing nervous condition, and was much benefited so, that the hospital authorities wrote his relatives that he would be ready to go home by August 15. However, his heart trouble suddenly became much worse, and he passed away on August 14. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. S. Golden and Rev. B. E. Dotson in the old Union Church, which he loved so well, and where he was greatly beloved. His body was laid to rest in a spot which he had selected, near the old church which he had twice served as pastor, once in his youth and again in his old age.

Mr. Taffe was never married. He took all the people round about into the circle of those whom he loved, and was a pastor who helped many in many ways. In his eyes money was only made to be given away or used where it could do much good. All his churches made great improvements in their buildings and grounds during his last pastorate, and every fund raising effort was headed by a liberal gift from him.

Mr. Taffe was a man of unusual scholarship. On three weeks' notice he took over the chair of English after the death of the former professor, at Hampden-Sydney College. One who knew him well said that he might have taken, with equal distinction the chair of Latin, or Greek or Psychology.

Being a man of jovial disposition, he made friends everywhere. He was a talented musician. A friend whose home he loved to visit tells us how sometimes he would come and say, "I don't want to talk, I just want to be here." And then he would often sit down at the piano and play and sing some hymn which he loved.

He faithfully visited the sick, comforted the bereaved, and counselled the troubled people, whom he loved so well. His sermons were ably prepared and delivered. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ.

Of what is called church politics, and the arts of self-advancement, he knew little, and cared nothing. But he tried to do his work faithfully and well, wherever he was. As a result of this, he reaped the richest harvest which can come to a minister from men, the love of those who knew him best. The better people came to know him, the better they loved him, and that was all he wanted.

Now his work on earth is done. His sorrows are ended. The promise of Christ, which he often tried to share with others, are now his to claim. As one who knew him well for forty-four years, the writer would like to bear this testimony in closing this tribute: He was a good man, an earnest Christian, and a faithful minister of Jesus Christ, "who allured to brighter worlds, and led the way."

Reverend Charles Graves Vardell, D. D. was born in Charleston, South Carolina, on February 12, 1860, a son of Reverend William Gildersleeve Vardell and Jane Dickson Bell.

As a child and youth, he attended the Glebe Street Presbyterian Church of which the famous Dr. John L. Girardeau was the pastor. As the use of musical instruments was not allowed in the church, the congregational singing was led by three male voices—young Charles Vardell, his brother, and their father, who was known as Major Vardell.

At the age of 16, he secured employment on an experimental tea plantation near Charleston, and, when this governmental operation was closed, he went with his previous boss, Mr. Jackson, to St. Paul, Minnesota. During his two years in this city, he attended the House of Hope, whose pastor was Dr. David Breed. During this period, he experienced a genuine call to the gospel ministry. Without money and with only a limited educational background, the prospects appeared bleak. Encouraged by Dr. Breed, the church offered to send him to college and seminary. After attending Oberlin College for two years, he entered Davidson College, graduating from that institution in 1888. His seminary work was taken at Princeton, graduating with a B. D. degree in 1891.

He married Linda Lee Rumple, the talented daughter of Dr. Jethro Rumple, the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Salisbury, North Carolina, in October, 1891.

From this union was born one son, Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr., and five daughters, Elizabeth (Mrs. W. B. McNett), Jane Dickson (Mrs. J. J. Murray), Margaret (Mrs. Alexander Sprunt, Jr.), Ruth (Mrs. Gaston Gage), and Mary Linda (Mrs. Ellison A. Smyth).

In May, 1891, Dr. Vardell was licensed by New Brunswick Presbytery (U.S.A.), and received his ordination at the hands of Albemarle Presbytery (U.S.) on July 21, 1891; at which time he began his only pastorate, in the historic Presbyterian Church of New Bern, North Carolina, where he continued most successfully for five years.

In 1896, upon the founding of Flora Macdonald College, he was called to become its first President. For a period of 34 years, he served with devotion and distinction until his retirement in 1930, when he became President Emeritus.

Under his inspiring leadership, the institution grew from a small school in a frame building into a strong, vigorous, and influential college with commodious brick buildings. All the buildings, except a small prayer chapel, which now grace the campus were erected by him. He designed the buildings, supervised their construction, and raised the funds required for their erection. In addition, he developed the lovely college gardens which have become one of the beauty spots in the Carolinas, attracting countless hundreds of visitors to enjoy their color and fragrance.

Yet his life's work is not to be measured in terms of college buildings or in exquisite gardens. His great work was the training of Christian womanhood, and from the college have gone 5,000 alumnae whose lives bear testimony to the values they received by their association with this sainted educator, his charming and talented wife, and the dedicated band of men and women they assembled as faculty and staff.

Year by year, February 12 has been observed on the campus as Dr. Vardell's birthday, and on these happy occasions great numbers of people have gathered to honor this humble servant of Christ and to pay grateful homage to the splendor of his unselfish and sacrificial service.

On Saturday, May 3, Dr. Vardell died in a nursing home in Morganton, North Carolina, having reached the glorious age of 98. His funeral was conducted on May 5 by Dr. Robert Hall, pastor of the Red Springs Church, assisted by Dr. Henry G. Bedinger, the former President of the college, and Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, the present President. The following day, he was buried near his wife, who had preceded him in death, in the church yard of the Second Presbyterian Church of Charleston, South Carolina.

Dr. Vardell was a man of strong determination, of amazing energy, of great personal imagination, a man of faith and prayer, wholeheartedly devoted to his Lord, and possessed by a consuming passion to train women in Jesus Christ. He has demonstrated what one man—with God—can accomplish in the face of hardships, privations, and almost insurmountable odds. His work abides and his influence endures.

II. REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY, STATED CLERK AND TREASURER

REV. HAROLD J. DUDLEY

The Reports to Synod of the Council, the Executive Committees of Church Extension and Higher Education, including financial statements, the Reports of the Permanent Committees on Annuities and Relief, Homes, Inter-Church Relations, Minister and His Work, Nominations, and Standing Rules, and the Ad Interim Committee on Ministers' Salaries, reflect in part the work of Synod's Office. In addition, are financial statements on campaigns and other causes which fairly well cover the total program of Synod as it relates to the Office.

Annual statistics compiled in the Office reveal a Synod membership as of January 1, 1958, of 138,993, which represents a net gain of 2,410, or 1.77% (2.16% in 1956). The Sunday School enrollment increased by 2,035 in 1957 (4,774 in 1956). This was 1.61% in contrast to 3.91% the previous year.

Total gifts for 1957 were $11,595,360, an increase of only $85,233 in contrast to $1,173,145 the year before. Of this amount $3,084,174 was for benevolences which showed an increase of just $3,467, as compared to $352,868 in 1956. This was only .112% as compared to 12.94% during 1956. Per capita giving decreased for benevolences from $22.65 to $22.19; increased for Current Expenses from $41.62 to $43.52; decreased for Building Expenses from $20.15 to $20.09; increased for Current Expenses and Building Expenses from $61.96 to $63.61; and total gifts increased from $85.23 to $85.80. The number of ministers increased from 533 to 549; Ruling Elders from 4,922 to 5,119; Deacons from 5,941 to 6,038.

Income to the several agencies of Synod for the past two years is compared as follows:

	1956	1957	Increase	Percentage
Campus Christian Life	$ 19,622	$ 27,072	$ 7,450	37.97
Christian Education	34,640	32,360	—2,279	—6.58
Church Extension	54,255	44,835	—9,420	—17.36
Educational Institutions	210,795	228,991	18,196	9.06
Orphans' Home[1]	230,111	181,921	—48,190	—20.94
Presbyterian Home	33,270	37,410	4,140	12.44

In their proper places may be found approved summaries of Audited financial statements of all accounts handled in Synod's Office. (See Auditor's Report.) During 1957 the Synod's Office handled 22 accounts in excess of $1,600,000, including approximately fifty loans.

All of the accounts have been audited by the firm of A. T. Allen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, N. C., and have been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Finance and Auditing and the Synod's Council. (Copies of the audits are available for perusal.) Also in your hands are the financial statements for other agencies of Synod, as well as proposed 1959 budgets for all the agencies and causes of Synod. These have been approved by the agencies, and are recommended to Synod by the Council for adoption.

[1] There is some doubt about this difference due to the fact that the Orphans' Home changed its fiscal year in 1956-1957, and the figures are compiled from half-years.

The Report of the Council deals with the new items in the Budget, namely the Revolving Salary Fund and the Equalization Fund.

As far as I know, all of the assignments of the 1957 Synod have been fulfilled. Six issues of the Presbyterian News of more than 50,000 copies each issue have been published, and approximately 46,000 are mailed directly into Presbyterian Homes.

The Office continues to serve agencies of Synod which avail themselves of the public relations services of the Office. Releases to the daily press have been prepared for the Synodical, the Men's Program, the Directors of Christian Education Association, the Negro Women's Training School, the Negro Youth Conference, and the Synod itself. Assistance has been rendered in connection with Television programs, sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches.

Campaigns

The Higher Education Campaign of 1956 was projected over a thirty-six months period. Two-thirds of the time for payments on pledges has elapsed. Of the approximately 8,000 pledges made during the campaign, 3,375 have been paid up. Following is a summary of the Campaign through June 30, 1958:

Regular Pledges	$1,721,369.98[1]
Anonymous Pledges	300,000.00
Unconfirmed Pledges	62,477.41
TOTAL PLEDGES	$2,083,847.39

[1] Includes $329.92 interest on investments.

[2] Pledges in the Laurinburg Campaign are not included; many churches of that area pledged in that campaign.

[3] $100,000 from the Reynolds Foundation; the percentage for the churches without this gift should be 94%.

Designated Pledges as of June 30, 1958, total $573,705.18. Pledges designated specifically for the Consolidated Presbyterian College total $553,204.80, including Anonymous Gifts—$300,000; Memorials—$59,176.50; and non-Memorials—$194,028.30. Those designated for Campus Christian Life total $20,500.38; broken down as follows:

East Carolina College	$ 5,261.90
University of N. C., Chapel Hill	2,202.50
N. C. State	1,996.07
Duke	200.00
General (including Memorials)	10,839.91

These figures are subject to change by virtue of new pledges, cancellations, and even some late requests to designate pledges, originally made without designation.

Barring further cancellations and assuming full payment of the balance due on pledges, the maximum which may be expected for the two beneficiary causes from funds pledged to date is as follows:

Campus Christian Life	$ 211,093.60
Consolidated Presbyterian College	1,696,764.15
TOTAL TO CAUSES	$1,907,857.75
TOTAL ESTIMATED EXPENSES	175,989.64
TOTAL PLEDGES	$2,083,847.39

By order of Synod, the Campus Christian Life Campaign for funds to supplement the anticipated $200,000 from the 1956 campaign, was conducted during the first five months of the year, with Mr. Gerry Disney, of the firm of Ward, Dreshman, and Reinhardt, as director. Strenuous efforts were made to penetrate every area of the Synod in hopes of raising the $300,000 needed to meet the obligations of the Synod to the Centers where capital improvements are in prospect. Because more than fifty percent of the churches of the Synod have failed to respond to the appeal for the cause, the expense of conducting the campaign has been greater than it should have been.

Funds from the Campus Christian Life Campaign have made it possible for the Committee on Campus Christian Life to purchase a Campus Christian Life Center at East Carolina College, Greenville, and to provide initial funds for the building program at Chapel Hill. Plans are under way for purchasing a Center at Woman's College in Greensboro.

On February 22, 1958, Dr. Ernest Eugene Gillespie, distinguished Presbyterian statesman, who served as Superintendent of Home Missions in the Synod of North Carolina for a total of more than twenty-five years, died, at the age of 88. An appropriate recommendation is being brought in his memory by the Executive Committee of Church Extension. Also on May 3, 1958, Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Sr., distinguished educator and minister in the Synod for 67 years, died at the age of 98. Dr. A. R. McQueen, who like the other two served as Moderator of the Synod, passed away on December 7, 1957, at the age of 81. Appropriate Memorials to each of these servants of the Church appear elsewhere. The names of other ministers who died during the past year appear under Necrology.

III. REPORT OF SYNOD'S COUNCIL

J. NEVELAND BRAND, Chairman

Your Council met twice during the past year, and we report that, so far as we know, all of the assignments of Synod have been carried out.

The Synod was again represented at the Annual Area Stewardship Conference held in Charlotte in May. Those who attended report that it was one of the best conferences yet held.

The last Synod ordered the dissolution of the Synod's Foundation, and the legal aspects of this transaction have been completed. The balance of $257.72 in the Foundation was transferred to the Office account by order of the Council.

Synod instructed the Council to schedule the Campus Christian Life Campaign in relation to other pending campaigns, and the period of January 1-April 30 was designated as the best time possible, under the circumstances. The Campaign was launched during that period.

The Revolving Salary Fund operated for the first time in 1957, and $17,614.74 was received on the $28,655.00 anticipated in the budget. However, the wisdom of establishing the fund is demonstrated by the fact that had it not been for the fund several agencies of the Synod would have been compelled to borrow money at interest both last year and thus far this year. Apparently the fund will build up during 1958 to approximate the amount set by Synod in 1956 when the fund was ordered established.

Equalization Fund

The Equalization Fund also operated in 1957 for the first time. At least to the agencies of Synod which were subsidized by the Fund, it proved a blessing. Seven of the ten agencies were beneficiaries. The total amount paid into the fund by the ten agencies and disbursed by the Council to seven agencies was $31,665.18. The Revolving Salary Fund received the lowest percentage of its budget, 62.215%. The funds were distributed by raising the lowest to the level of the next to the lowest by subsidizing from the Fund, and repeating this successively up the scale until the entire Fund was exhausted. This resulted in seven agencies of Synod each receiving 77.2596% of their budget askings of Synod. The Orphans' Home, the Presbyterian Home, and Inter-Church Relations did not benefit from the Fund since their percentage of income of budget-askings was higher than 77%.

Two problems confronted the Council in connection with dispensing the Equalization Fund. The first arose from the fact that some contributions were sent directly to treasurers of agencies of Synod, rather than through the Central Treasurers of Presbyteries and the Central Treasurer of Synod. This procedure entails added expense resulting from additional correspondence, telephoning, conferences, and bookkeeping. Your Council is bringing a recommendation to Synod which, if adopted, it trusts will help to correct this deficiency. The other problem relates to properly defining gifts as either for capital expenditures or operational use. Only the latter is included in the Equalization Plan. Some further study of this matter is imminent.

The Council would call attention of Synod to the fact that in 1957 Synod's Office handled twenty-two different financial accounts totalling $1,672,008.70. The magnitude of this operation is enhanced by the fact that some 40 to 50 separate loan accounts constitute a part of this labor.

During the year Mr. Zack H. Bacon of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Beane, Raleigh, graciously provided some thousands of copies of "Yours To Give", a pamphlet encouraging giving in terms of tax dollars. These were made available to Stewardship Chairmen in the several Presbyteries.

Early in December Mr. C. E. Beman of Laurinburg called to the attention of the General Secretary that certain allowances for ministers who pay utilities of manses are deductible in reporting Federal Income taxes, and the official references were brought to the attention of all ministers of the Synod.

Campaigns

The Campus Christian Life Campaign was conducted under the auspices of the Campus Christian Life Committee and the Synod's Office. The firm of Ward, Dreshman, and Reinhardt was engaged to conduct the campaign with Mr. Gerald Disney as Director. The Synod's Office is entrusted with the follow-up of this campaign, including some promotion and collections on pledges. The Office has also served as the clearing-house for the 1956 Campaign for Higher Education, and handles all of the collections on pledges, disbursing the funds according to the formula adopted at the beginning of the campaign.

Long Range Planning

The Long Range Planning Committee, with Voit Gilmore as Chairman, considered all requests submitted for campaigns, and the Council approved recommendations from the Committee (1) to instruct the Board of Trustees of the Consolidated Presbyterian College to explore with expert advice and by conference with the committee the possibilities of a campaign in 1960; (2) and similarly the Board of Trustees of Union Theological Seminary, a campaign in 1962; (3) to advise the Board of Trustees of Davidson College that their request has been received, and that it will be held in abeyance for scheduling at a later date; and (4) to encourage the Executive Committee of Church Extension to stimulate fund-raising campaigns on the Presbytery level for support of the Church Extension program.

During the year 1958 increased gifts have been received from the L. Richardson Trust Fund. Those coming to Synod's Treasurer for several of the Synod's Causes totalled $1,910. Last fall the General Secretary was advised of a bequest in the will of the late Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton, member of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. The amount of the bequest will not be known until the fall of 1958 when the probotion of the will is completed.

Stewardship Offensive Urgent

For some years the Council has endeavored to recommend to Synod realistic budgets, meaning those which meet minimum requirements of Synod's agencies. Progress was being registered in the direction of adequate support by churches and Presbyteries, evidenced by the acceptance of full Askings of Assembly and Synod causes by Presbyteries for the first time in many years. However, for the past three years there has been a recession in both Acceptances of Askings and gifts to causes.

The situation has become acute for some of the agencies of Synod, particularly Campus Christian Life, which agency ended 1957 in debt and currently reports indebtedness. The fact is that Synods approve budgets, Presbyteries reduce these budgets by an average of approximately 15%; then, the churches pay only approximately 70% of the Acceptances. A similar situation seems to obtain over the General Assembly since it was reported by the General Council to the General Assembly that for 1957 "a smaller percentage of the budget (for Assembly's causes) was received than for the previous year."

Some of the reasons for the recession in the Synod's giving to its agencies follow: (1) Lack of assurance on the part of some Presbyteries and churches of the real need of the agencies of the Assembly and Synod; (2) Failure in some Presbyteries of Stewardship Committees and Councils to emphasize the responsibility of Presbyteries and churches to meet their obligations, approved by courts in which they were represented; and failure of these churches and Presbyteries to consider seriously the necessity of supporting the Agencies of the Assembly and Synod; (3) the new Pre-Budget Canvass, which lays stress upon realistic budgets and has a tendency to overlook the need of Benevolence Agencies, the ability of individuals and churches to meet that need, and above all the importance of faith in God to develop the grace of liberality as a means of meeting that need; (4) the tendency of churches to participate in campaigns by accepting quotas which are included in the benevolence budget of the church, rather than as over and above regular benevolences and (5) the acceleration of non-budgeted giving, which in 1957 was one-third of all benevolences in the Synod of North Carolina.

What seems to be needed is aggressive presentation of the benevolence causes of the Assembly and Synod in all of the courts of the church, in Stewardship Committees, and Councils, and to every church in Presbyteries which promote the Every-Church Canvass. Special attention should be given to the accelerating non-budgeted benevolences. In the Synod the ratio is one-third of the total benevolences. Some Presbyteries of the Synod in 1958 report in excess of 50% of benevolences as non-budgeted. (See Table II, "Stewardship Statistics".) It would seem to your Council that this is a danger-signal. Your Council feels that it is wise to urge Presbyteries and churches which engage in the Every-Church-Canvass and the Pre-Budget Canvass to prayerfully consider the needs of all Agencies of the Church, their own ability to improve their stewardship year by year, and to conscientiously endeavor to meet in full benevolence obligations. The Pre-Budget Canvass Plan and the budgeting of campaigns result in the large percentage of non-budgeted gifts reported in the Synod. In the case of the former, many churches raise more for benevolences than they anticipate, and the residue at the end of the year is channeled into causes not a part of the regular budget. In the case of the latter, while the campaigns are included in the budget at the beginning of the year, the funds contributed are reported, not as a part of the budgeted benevolences at the end of the year, but of the non-budgeted.

Presbyteries and churches which may be concerned about the suggestion of increasing their benevolences are reminded that, conservatively estimated, the 139,000 members of Synod last year withheld $9,000,000 of what would be a part of a tithe of their overall income.

Synod's Office

Your Council has given serious consideration to the wisdom of merging the Synod's Account and Presbyterian News Account under the one head of Synod's Program Account, and to bring to the Synod its conviction that the Synod's Program be supported by a per capita assessment. The reasons for this are (1) that the Synod's Office is the official agency of the Synod, and as such is worthy of equal support by its constituent members; (2) Equal support by all churches and Presbyteries should result in greater pride of Presbyterians in the Office, and should assure the Synod of a better and more effective program of work; and (3) the consolidation of the three accounts into one and their support by per capita tax will increase efficiency in bookkeeping and other operations.

Location Permanent Office

The time seems auspicious for establishing Permanent Headquarters of the Synod in Raleigh. The reasons for this are: (1) Raleigh is the Capital City; (2) Other denominations have established headquarters in Raleigh, including the Roman Catholics, Baptists, Episcopalians, and more recently, the Methodists; (3) Location of the Office in Raleigh should enhance the prestige of the Presbyterian Church in this area, not generally regarded as the stronghold of Presbyterians.

Recently, several events have persuaded your Council to take a strong stand in favor of erecting a building in Raleigh as the headquarters for Synod's Office. The Executive Board of the Synodical has approved a recommendation to the Synodical, meeting in Wilmington in September, to raise $10,000.00 towards the proposed structure in 1959. There is assurance of financial support from several foundations, from the City of Raleigh, and from interested individuals. It is estimated that a suitable lot can be purchased and a building erected, of sufficient area to care for present needs, not to exceed $100,000.

Public Relations

Public Relations everywhere has become quite an enterprise. Today nearly all periodicals regard religious news as important. The Synod can ill afford to neglect the use of the media of the printed word for propagating the faith, especially in view of the fact that it has been demonstrated that today the press has greater influence in molding public opinion than the pulpit.

The Office has used its facilities to give as broad coverage as possible to the agencies of Synod. Possibly all of the agencies might utilize the services of the Office to greater advantage.

Synod and Assembly Compared

The Synod of North Carolina, though the largest of the Synods, does not rank at the top either in communicant growth or in giving. For the first time in recent years, if not in the history of our church, our Synod dropped from first place in total giving to all causes, superceded by the Synod of Texas.

The Synod asked the Presbyteries to give a total of $1,947,523 to Assembly and Synod Causes during 1957. Total gifts reported were $2,198,414 (in contrast to $2,259,513 the previous year), or 113%, reflected is follows:

	Apportionment		Gave
	1957	1956	1957		1956
Assembly	$1,163,348	($1,186,563)	$1,078,818	(93%)	($1,088,265)	(92%)
Synod	784,175	(692,160)	1,119,596	(143%)	(1,171,243)	(169%)
Total	$1,947,523	$1,878,693	$2,198,414	(113%)	$2,259,508	(120%)

Though Synod's apportionment to Assembly's causes was less in 1957 than in 1956, the Synod gave $9,446 less in 1957 than in 1956; however, percentage-wise, the Synod remained approximately the same (93%). Synod's apportionment to Synod's causes was greater in 1957 than in 1956, but gifts dropped off by $51,651. In 1956 Synod gave 169% of Askings to Synod's Causes, but dropped to 143% in 1957. North Carolina stood 11th in 1957 (sixth 1956) among the Synods in the percentage of gifts made to Assembly's causes in relation to the apportionments.

Five Presbyteries accepted in full the Askings for the Assembly and the Synod for 1958. For 1957 eight accepted in full and three met the quota in full. In this respect, the Presbyteries ranked as follows for 1958:

	% Accepted
Winston-Salem	112%
Orange	104%
Kings Mountain	101%
Fayetteville	97%
Mecklenburg	91%
Albemarle	86%
Concord	82%
Wilmington	63%
SYNOD	93%

Other statistics show Total Gifts at $11,925,360 in 1957: Benevolences, $3,084,74 (budgeted—$2,072,151; non-budgeted—$1,012,023); and Current Expenses, including Building Expense, $8,841,186. Total per capita giving was the best in history, but benevolence per capita giving declined by 46¢. Following is a summary:

	1957	1956
Benevolences	$22.19	$22.65
Current Expenses	43.52	41.62
Building Expense	20.09	20.15
Current Expense and Bldg.	63.61	61.96
Total	85.80	85.23

The Synod of North Carolina ranked 12th among the Synods in total per capita giving in the General Assembly in 1957 (13th in 1956); 6th in per capita giving to benevolences (fifth 1956); 11th in per capita gifts to Assembly's Causes (5th the past two years). The Presbyteries ranked as follows in per capita benevolence gifts among all the Prebyteries of the General Assembly in 1957:

Synod		Assembly
1	Winston-Salem	3rd	($34.20)
2	Kings Mountain	7th	(26.77)
3	Orange	18th	(24.05)
4	Mecklenburg	23rd	(23.42)
5	Concord	35th	(21.09)
6	Fayetteville	36th	(21.03)
7	Granville	49th	(19.36)
8	Albemarle	53rd	(18.87)
9	Wilmington	78th	(14.00)

Standings of Presbyteries, showing percentage-wise the churches conducting Every-Member-Canvasses, follows:

Albemarle	95.96%
Orange	95.45%
Mecklenburg	94.56%
Winston-Salem	93.88%
Wilmington	92.84%
Granville	92.38%
Concord	92.03%
Kings Mountain	91.11%
Fayetteville	83.58%

It is conservatively estimated that the members of Synod withheld approximately $8,923,590 (42.80%) of their tithe in relationship to income in 1957. It is estimated that the income in 1957 was a minimum of $208,489,500. It is also estimated that 86% of the income was withheld in 1940 and 57.62% in 1950.

Attached to this report are the following documents: (1) Summary of 1959 Proposed Benevolence Budget for Assembly and Synod Causes, together with the proposed distribution of same (Apportionments to Presbyteries); (2) Audit of all accounts handled in Synod's Office for 1957 (these are listed in the Audit); (3) 1959 Budget for Synod's Program; and Statistical Data.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod accept the apportionment of the General Assembly for 1959, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,493,822, broken down as follows: (See page 101).

2. That Synod accept the following budget for Synod's Causes for 1959, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $948,840, broken down as follows. (See page 101).

3. That the total benevolences of Synod for Assembly and Synod Causes for 1959, amounting to $2,442,662, be apportioned to the several Presbyteries on the basis of the following factors: 1/3 for membership; 1/3 for benevolence contributions to Assembly's and Synod's Agencies for the last three years; and 1/3 for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years, as follows. (See page 102).

4. That beginning January 1, 1959, the Synod's Office, the Synod's Account, and the Presbyterian News be merged under the one budget of Synod's Program, and be supported from the Presbytery per capita assessment.

5. That the proposed budget for Synod's Program for 1959 in the amount of $49,966 be approved, and that the Council be empowered to revise it as a "Spending Budget" in 1959. (See page 103).

6. That a per capita assessment of 34¢ for 1959 for support of Synod's Program be approved. (See page 103).

7. That Synod approve of erecting a permanent Office Building in Raleigh, not to exceed $100,000, from funds to be raised privately and from ordinary budgeted rental; financing and implementation of plans, construction, etc to be primarily the responsibility of Synod's Council, but where necessary and feasible in co-operation with the Executive Committees of Church Extension and Higher Education.

8. That Synod instruct its Trustees to borrow as needed an amount not to exceed $45,000 against current pledges to Campus Christian Life, said amount to be made available to the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church.

9. That the Council recommends to Synod that the Agencies of Synod transmit benevolence funds received directly from local churches for budget support, to Presbytery treasurers, advising local treasurers of the practice of the Synod to operate its benevolence program through Central Treasurers; and that Synod requests Chairmen of Presbyteries' Councils to present to their own Presbyteries the plan of Synod for dispensing its funds.

10. That the C.P.A. audited financial statements of institutions and agencies of Synod which have been examined and approved by the Committee on Finance and Auditing, be approved by Synod, and the Committee be empowered to complete the examination of the remainder of the audits for record as soon as they are available.

11. That Synod express appreciation to Mrs. A. T. McCallum for income from the estate in 1958.

12. That Synod extends its thanks to the trustees of the L. Richardson Trust Fund for contributions to agencies of Synod in 1958.

13. That all churches of the Synod be urged to meet in full their quotas in the campaigns for Campus Christian Life, Queens College, and the Presbyterian Home.

14. That the separate Report by the sub-committees of the Council on Records, be adopted.

15. That the following be elected as members of the Committee on Nominations, Class of 1961: Albemarle: Rev. R. Murphy Williams; Concord: Rev. Malcolm Murchison; Fayetteville: Rev. Albert N. Wells; and that Rev. L. A. Taylor be elected to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. William B. Hood, Class of 1960, Wilmington.

16. That, recognizing that the benevolence budgets, as adopted by the Assembly, Synods, and Presbyteries are based on the operational needs of the Boards and Agencies of these Courts, all campaigns for capital funds approved by Synods and Presbyteries, be undertaken by congregations as additional gifts, rather than as regular budgeted benevolences.

17. That Presbyteries and local churches endeavor to implement the pre-budget canvass in order that it may prove a boon and a blessing to the over-all benevolence program.

18. That Presbyteries, Presbytery Councils, Diaconates, and all Stewardship Committees give special emphasis during the fall of 1958 and through 1959 to the full benevolence program of the church, in order to restore the Synod of North Carolina to its rightful place of leadership in the program of Stewardship in the General Assembly.

19. That in the light of the action of the General Assembly relating to changes affecting the Council and the Division of Christian Relations, Synod abolish the existing sub-committee on Christian Relations, effective this meeting of Synod, and the functions of this committee be transferred to a new Permanent Committee on Christian Relations; and that the Nominating Committee and Committee on Standing Rules define the membership of the Committee.

20. That Synod approve of setting in motion plans for observing the sesqui-centennial of the organization of the Synod in 1963.

21. That Synod suspend the Standing Rules (Rule 28:1) in order to accept the invitation of Queens College to meet there June 16-17, 1959.

22. That the calendar of special days and seasons recommended by the General Assembly for observance by the Church, be adopted, and likewise that the customary emphases for the Orphans' Home (Thanksgiving) and the Presbyterian Home (Mother's Day), with special offerings, be approved.

23. That Recommendations 1,2,3,5,6,7, 10, and 11 in the Report of the General Council to the 1958 General Assembly be adopted.

24. That pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear the Honorable Philip F. Howerton, Moderator of the General Assembly, who will speak on the subject, "Who Is My Neighbor?"

J. NEVELAND BRAND, Chairman

A. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. REPORT OF AUDITOR

Committee on Finance and Auditing
Synod of North Carolina
Presbyterian Church In The United States
Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

As instructed by Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary and Treasurer of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, we have audited the books and records maintained by him as treasurer of the following funds:

Church Extension Fund
Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Funds
Synod's Designated Funds
Educational Institutions Fund
Synod's Office Account
Synod's Account
Inter-Church Relations Account
"Presbyterian News" Account
Permanent Reserve Fund
Campus Christian Life Account
Presbyterian Synod Foundation
Revolving Salary Fund
Equalization Fund
Synod's Office General Fund
Christian Higher Education Campaign Account
Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund

and herewith submit our report covering the period January 1, 1957 through December 31, 1957.

EXHIBITS AND SCHEDULES

In presenting to you our findings, as the result of the audit, we have prepared twenty-two Exhibits and two Schedules, as enumerated in the Index, which are attached as part of this report, in addition to the following comments:

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION:

We tested the recorded transactions to the extent of tracing the receipts to the depositories and verifying the amounts recorded by appropriate transmittal papers and correspondence, and verifying the contributions from the presbyteries by direct confirmation. Church loans were also verified directly. Expenditures were supported by endorsed cancelled checks and invoices or signed receipts. These were found to be authorized in the minutes of committees and Synod's Council. Bank balances, which were confirmed by correspondence, were reconciled with balances shown on the books. We also ascertained from our analyses that disbursements were properly allocated.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS—CONSOLIDATED

January 1, 1957 to December 31, 1957

Exhibit "A"

A consolidation of receipts and disbursements for all funds is shown in this Exhibit. Inter-fund transfers, in most cases, have been eliminated where practical. Details for various funds are presented as enumerated in the Index. Receipts totaled $1,188,263.22, of which $528,775.90 was contributed by the presbyteries for support of Synod's causes. Some other presbytery receipts were received and are shown as designated gifts. Disbursements totaled $1,210,-

202.03. The receipts plus cash in banks and savings associations December 31, 1956 of $163,134.94, less the disbursements, leave a balance of $141,196.13 in cash on hand and on deposit and U. S. Treasury Notes. The cash on hand and in depositories totaled $66,792.38 as shown in Schedule—1. The U. S. Treasury Notes are investments of the Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund at a cost of $74,403.75 which matured February 20, 1958 for $75,000.00.

Synod's Causes funds were handled through Synod's Office General Fund except for the loan funds, campaign and savings accounts. The fund balances are shown on Schedule—1.

The Board of Trustees of the Consolidated Presbyterian College received a grant of $15,000.00 from the Fund for the Advancement of Education, New York, N. Y. This was used to make a liberal arts college study for the College's curriculum and the funds were disbursed from the Synod's Office General Fund at the instructions of Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, Chairman of the study. The disbursements through December 31, 1957 totaled $13,704.73, leaving a balance of $1,295.27. Subsequent to this date expenses of $141.25 were paid and the residue of $1,154,02 was returned to the donor. A separate audit of this fund has been presented.

Dividends accruing on capital stock were received and accounted for according to prescribed rates. All securities were examined during the audit. These securities are part of the Permanent Reserve Fund and the income derived from them was apportioned directly to the Church Extension Fund.

All transactions of the Church Extension Committee Loan Funds were examined. At December 31, 1957 the total of the unpaid balance of all loans and accrued interest to that date was $122,002.43 as compared with $130,153.47 as of December 31, 1956. The cash on deposit was $9,599.01. The total unpaid balance of the loans and cash is $131,601.44. We examined all notes and deeds of trust and found them on hand and apparently properly executed. Details of the loans are shown on Schedule—2.

The Permanent Reserve Fund and Educational Institutions Fund have loans to churches not included above. The details of the Permanent Reserve Fund loans are shown on Exhibit "L" where they total $54,136.36. Proceeds from a gift received from Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Stultz in 1955 have been loaned to churches from the Educational Institutions Funds. The balance of the loans at the end of the year was $22,697.86. They are listed on Exhibit "F".

The total of all unpaid loans by funds was as follows:

Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Fund—Schedule—2	$122,002.43
Permanent Reserve Fund—Exhibit "L"	54,136.36
Educational Institutions Fund—Exhibit "F"	22,697.86
TOTAL	$198,836.65

Support of the Synod's Educational Institutions and agencies was based on a net of $218,231.03 for distribution. The amounts and percentages are shown on Exhibit "E". These distributions include designated gifts from presbyteries and churches. A contingency fund—part of Educational Institutions Fund—was established in 1957 for the purpose of assisting the three institutions involved in the consolidation of the colleges. Its share of the funds available was $23,578.64 and $16,000.00 was appropriated, leaving a balance of $7,578.64. The Consolidated Presbyterian College's share was $5,367.67. After paying $2,838.68 for trustees' expenses a bauance of $2,528.99 was left. The Educational Institutions Fund had $4,369.48 undistributed from the Equalization Fund's support of $8,651.23 after absorbing $2,140.87 of the Synod's office deficit and $2,140.88 of the "Presbyterian News" deficit.

Synod's office was supported by presbytery receipts in 1957 rather than being shared between the Educational Institutions Fund and the Church Extension Fund as has been the policy in previous years. However, the following contributed to the support of the office in order to absorb the deficit for the year:

Church Extension Account	$ 132.25
Educational Institutions Account	675.65
Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund	3,714.62
TOTAL	$4,522.52

The balance in Synod's Foundation Account at December 31, 1957—$257.72—was transferred to the Office account. In lieu of rent, heat, lights, water, new equipment, maintenance of equipment and salaries. Synod's Account, Church Extension Account and Christian Higher Education Campaign paid the office $5,640.93. This has been credited to the various expense accounts of Synod's Office, as shown on Exhibit "G".

Synod's Designated Funds represents an amount contributed by members of the Belk Family to pay for the cost of publishing Rev. O. V. Caudill's Church and Manse Planning Book. The cash balance at the end of the year was $3,809.95 after earning $191.32 interest on the savings account as shown on Exhibit "D".

Synod's support of the North Carolina Council of Churches was disbursed from Presbyteries' benevolence receipts. These funds were received and disbursed by Inter-Church Relations Account—Exhibit "I". The pledged amount paid in 1957 was $2,000.00.

"Presbyterian News" was supported from presbytery receipts in 1957. These receipts were inadequate to meet the cost of printing and expenses. The deficit was absorbed by the following accounts:

Church Extension Account	$ 705.87
Educational Institutions Account	3,606.10
TOTAL	$4,311.97

The Campus Christian Life Account—Exhibit "M"—operated at a deficit in 1957 of $919.87. This was made up by a loan from the Revolving Salary Fund. Included in Support of Campus Christian Life Work disbursements is a payment to East Carolina College of $960.00, which covered a 1956 budgeted item approved by the Campus Christian Life Committee. The amount paid the Presbyterian Church, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, for a building project came from designated funds on savings for this purpose.

No funds were received from the A. T. McCallum estate in the year 1957.

The Presbyterian Synod Foundation Account received $337.60 from the presbyteries in 1957. The expenses were $79.88. The balance of $257.72 in the fund was transferred to the Office Account by action of Synod's Council February 6, 1958.

The Revolving Salary Fund was established in 1957 to maintain a balance of not less than twenty percent of salaries, rent, and traveling expenses in the current budgets of the following agencies of Synod: Synod's Office, Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, and Christian Education. Referring to Exhibit "O" the total net receipts for the year were $17,614.74 and after a loan of $919.87 to Campus Christian Life Account the balance was $16,694.87.

Following the instructions of Synod an Equalization Fund was established in 1957. All agencies of Synod were to share in the fund and five percent (5%) of the budgets of each agency was reserved for the fund. The fund's share of the presbyteries' designated gifts was $25,860.49 as shown on Exhibit "P". Agencies which received funds directly from churches and presbyteries reported the following amounts as available for distribution:

Educational Institutions	$2,264.04
Presbyterian Home, Inc.	476.04
Presbyterian Orphans Home	2,890.02
Christian Education	174.59
TOTAL	$5,804.69

The total amount available was $31,665.18 and this was distributed as shown on the Exhibit. The overdraft represents the amounts due from the agencies above and was either paid into the fund or withheld from 1958 distributions. Distributions were made by the Committee on Audit and Finance according to instructions by Synod and Synod's Council.

Synod's Office General Fund received and disbursed designated receipts for Christian Education, Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Presbyterian Home, Inc., and Catechism awards. The details of these are shown on Exhibits "Q", "R", "S", and "T", respectively.

The Christian Higher Education Campaign was begun in 1956 and the records have been maintained in Synod's Office. On Exhibit "U" the current year receipts and disbursements are shown and the totals to December 31, 1957. Our audit of receipts was made from summaries of subscriptions and payments. The individual pledge cards have not been added completely and compared with the general book totals. The total subscriptions through December 31, 1957 totaled $1,710,607.01, per the book summaries. Of this amount $849,948.30 had been paid in cash and $59,446.57 in securities—a total of $909,394.87. Thus the unpaid subscriptions were $801,212.14.

Synod allowed the Campus Christian Life Committee to conduct a campaign to raise $300,000.00 which was the amount unpledged in the Christian Higher Education Campaign and needed to implement the program of work initiated by the Committee. The campaign is supervised by the firm of Ward, Dreshman and Reinhardt, New York, New York. No campaign receipts had been received through December 31, 1957. Campus Christian Life's share of the Christian Higher Education Campaign was received. The disbursements included campaign expenses of $2,240.18 and the purchase of a Campus Christian Life Center at East Carolina College, Greenville, North Carolina. The fund's balance of Cash on Deposit and U. S. Treasury bonds at December 31, 1957 was $110,632.68. The details of the year's transactions are shown on Exhibit "V".

The statements of Receipts and Disbursements contained in this report are based on the amounts as shown in the books and records of the Synod's Office. The books were not closed until all funds for the year were received from the presbyteries in order that all receipts for the year January 1, 1957 to December 31, 1957 could be included. Likewise, some expenses for the year were paid after December 31, 1957, and the cash balances shown herein are after including these in the disbursements.

GENERAL COMMENTS

We have prepared this report to show only the cash receipts and disbursements of the funds handled in the office of the Synod of North Carolina. However, for your information we list below the assets in the funds at December 31, 1956 and December 31, 1957:

We found a depositor's forgery bond in force for $10,000.00; fire insurance on contents of the office $10,000.00; blanket position bond for $25,000.00, and open stock safe burglary.

We found the books and records in balance and accurately kept.

We wish to express our aprpeciation for the courtesies extended us and the assistance and cooperation rendered by the entire personnel, which greatly facilitated our work.

We examined the minutes of the Secretary and found the approved procedures currently adhered to.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY that, we have audited the books and records of Dr. Harold J. Dudley, Treasurer of the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States, Raleigh, North Carolina, for the period January 1, 1957 to December 31, 1957, and, in our opinion, the within statements show the receipts and disbursements for the twelve months ended at that time correctly classified, according to information and explanations given us and as shown by the books.

Respectfully submitted,

IV. REPORTS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rev. James E. Fogartie, Chairman

Your Executive Committee of Christian Education, in submitting its annual report, is keenly conscious that such a review hardly relates in full the plans and purposes of a year's work. The Synod has laid upon us a responsibilitiy of magnitude of which we are aware, and we are grateful to God for His countless blessings to us in our labors. We express to the Synod our appreciation for the splendid support given to this phase of the Church's endeavor. Our hope is that this summary will serve to acquaint the Synod with the Committee's functions, plans, and accomplishments.

In carrying out our responsibilities, the Committee has met several times during the past year as a whole; and has worked through sub-committees and councils charged with particular areas of work.

Regional Director

The Reverend Robert Turner has completed his first year as Regional Director for the Synod of North Carolina, and his enthusiastic undertaking of his tasks has delighted your Committee, for he gives evidence of a knowledge of the work and a dedication to the tasks that should undergird the foundation of this enterprise. We commend Mr. Turner to the Synod and ask for him that encouragement and support due our Regional Director.

Children's Work

Responding to a request made by your Committee, the Board of Christian Education authorized an Area Laboratory School for the Synod, to be held at Davidson College July 28-August 1, 1958. Classes for leaders in Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, and Junior Departments will be available, and the several Churches of the Synod are urged to send representatives to this school.

Through the efforts of the Area Directors of Christian Education, Vacation Church School Institutes have again been held in every Presbytery. Your Committee is encouraged by the successful demonstration classes conducted during these Institutes, since they enable those in attendance to observe the use of curriculum materials in a classroom setting. Moreover, the increasing number of Vacation Church Schools conducted through our Synod is encouraging.

Attention is called to the several training centers with teacher consultants located within the bounds of our Synod. Churches are invited to make use of these centers as means for better preparing their own leadership. The locations of these centers are as follows:

Teacher Consultant	Training Center
Mrs. R. S. Abernethy, Jr. 1047 Queens Road, West Charlotte, North Carolina	Sr. High Fellowship (Experimental) First Church Charlotte, North Carolina

Miss Frances E. Bulla 2607 Fort Bragg Road Fayetteville, North Carolina	4th-Grade Junior Department First Church Fayetteville, North Carolina
Mrs. Ben Campen, Jr. Red Springs, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department Red Springs Church Red Springs, North Carolina
Mrs. Douglas C. Cheyne 228 West Council Street Salisbury, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department First Church Salisbury, North Carolina
Mrs. B. S. Howell 250 Cherokee Road Charlotte, North Carolina	Adult Women's Class First Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. W. F. Masten, Jr. 1043 East Morehead Street Charlotte, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department First Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. H. J. Oosting 2642 University Drive Durham, North Carolina	Primary, 1st and 2nd Grades First Church Durham, North Carolina
Mrs. Herbert C. Hawthorne Box 206 Statesville, North Carolina	3rd-Grade Primary First Church Statesville, North Carolina
Miss Maude Rea Route #2, Box 119-A Charlotte 3, North Carolina	Adult Department Sharon Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. J. R. Crook Route 5, Box 469 Charlotte, North Carolina	2nd & 3rd Grade Primary Dept. Mulberry Church Charlotte, North Carolina

In view of the new curriculum study being made by the Board of Christian Education, your Committee strongly encourages Presbytery Committees of Christian Education and local Churches of our Synod to engage in a study of this report.

Youth Work

That Young Peoples' rallies, camps, and conferences have a vital place in the life of the Church is obvious to any thoughtful churchman. Every Presbytery through its own Committee of Christian Education, is seeking to provide thorough training for our young people. These media of training are effective, however, only as the several Churches encourage participation of their own young people.

During the past year, a meeting was held for adult advisers of Presbyteries' young people for the purpose of strengthening young work in each Presbytery of our Synod. In some of our Presbyteries, efforts have been made to render service to the advisers of local youth groups through conferences in which youth work in the local Church has been discussed.

Your Committee was greatly encouraged at the response of the young people of our Synod to the Quadrennial Youth Convention on the World Mission of the Church held on the campus of the University of Kentucky in Lexington in December of 1957. With a quota of two hundred, more than three hundred young people from the Synod of North Carolina were in attendance at the Lexington meeting.

Plans are being made for a Synod-wide conference for young people in the last two years of high school and the first two years of college, to be held on the Davidson College campus in June of 1959. Further information relative to this conference will be forthcoming from the office of the Regional Director.

Men's Work

The work of the men in our Synod may be seen through the effectiveness of the planning and program of the men's councils. In both Synod and Presbyteries, there are well-organized councils, concerning themselves with the activity of men in their local Church. Excellent rallies have been conducted throughout the Synod.

During the past year, the attention of the Men of the Church was focused upon the convention held in Miami, Florida. One thousand forty-one men from the Synod of North Carolina were registered for that convention, and many expressions relative to the splendid program have been heard on every side.

During the past year, the Christian Youth Conference, for Negro youth, was sponsored by the men of the Synod at the State Teachers' College in Fayetteville. A similar conference was held this year during the month of June.

Adult Work

There is an ever-increasing awareness on the part of your Committee of the need for an adequate program of work for Adults. Especially are we concerned with the need for formulating definite policies relative to young adult work as to age, organization, and program.

In some of our Presbyteries, through the impetus of men's work, emphasis has been laid upon family camping; and this endeavor has proved highly successful. It is commended for consideration to the Churches of the Synod.

LEADERSHIP EDUCATION AND AREA WORK: The increasing number of leadership schools gives evidence of a consciousness of the need for trained leaders. That the Churches of the Synod are conscious of this pressing need is obvious from the requests that come to the Synod's office of Christian Education. The following statistical report indicates the work that has been done during the past year.

Leadership Schools		26
Leadership Classes		49
Clinics		35
Demonstration Classes		4
Camps and Conferences:
Junior	15
Pioneer	20
Senior	10
Pioneer Conclaves	7
SHF Presbytery Councils	16
		68
Church School Administration Conferences		3

Vacation Church School Institutes:
Directors	5
Teachers	11
		16
Young Adult Rallies		6
Other Conferences, Workshops, and Significant Meetings		5

Through the Synod's Office of Christian Education, a list of persons who have taught in Leadership Schools in recent years and the courses they have taught may be obtained by interested Churches.

Your Committee would be remiss if it did not express appreciation for the outstanding work of our Area Workers. They are: Miss Helen Cole, Orange Presbytery; Miss Dot Lynch, Albemarle and Wilmington Presbyteries; Miss Virginia Morris, Mecklenburg Presbytery; Miss Eloise Wells, Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries; and Miss Dorothy Ray, Kings Mountain Presbytery. That their work is essential is evidenced by the many calls that come to them from local Churches.

Your Committee calls the attention of the Synod to a conference jointly sponsored by our Committee and the Church Extension Committee of Mecklenburg Presbytery on Church Architecture held during the past year in Charlotte. Invited to this meeting were building committees and Churches contemplating the erection of educational builidngs. The response to this conference indicated the growing awareness on the part of Churches of the necessity for careful planning for Christian Education.

Audio-Visual Department

Your Committe commends to the Synod the Audio-Visual Department of the Committee of Christian Education which is under the competent direction of Miss Beatrice Kiser. It is gratifying to note that the monthly circulation of this department is increasing. Approximately 150 Churches in the Synod used the services provided by the library during the past year, with 2,716 pieces of audio-visual material being used. Membership in this department may be secured by any Church in the Synod at an annual fee of $10.00.

Finance

The attention of the Synod should be called to the annual audit of the Financial Statement attached to this report. The Committee recognizes its stewardship of substance, and seeks to expend the funds entrusted to it in a careful manner. Copy of this audit was placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod.

It was with real regret that your Committee accepted the resignation of C. E. Beman of Laurinburg as Treasurer of the Committee. Mr. Beman has served in a highly efficient manner for a number of years, and has contributed greatly to the progress of the work in our Synod. Mr. Henry Niven of Charlotte has been elected and is now serving as Treasurer of our Executive Committee.

1. That Churches make every effort to send representatives to the Area Laboratory School to be held at Davidson College, July 27-August 1, 1958.

2. That Presbytery Committees of Christian Education and the Churches of our Synod join in the new curriculum study made by the Board of Christian Education. (The April, 1958 edition of Presbyterian Action gives an excellent summary of the study which is commended to the several Churches.)

3. The the Rev. Robert Turner be elected for the next twelve months as Regional Director of Christian Education.

4. That the Financial Statement of the Executive Committee of Christian Education hereto attached be adopted.

5. That the Synod express its appreciation to C. E. Beman of Laurinburg for his effective service during his tenure as Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Christian Education.

6. That, pending the adoption of this report, the Reverend Robert Turner, Regional Director for the Synod of North Carolina, be presented to the Synod and heard briefly.

B. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Ralph Scott, Chairman

The full Committee met June 3-4, 1958, and the Finance Committee met January 20. The Executive Committee also convened on June 4 as a Corporation as is required by the Charter.

Your Committee regrets to report the death on February 22, 1958, of Dr. Ernest Eugene Gillespie, who was 88 years old on his last birthday, October 4, 1957. A native of Greensboro, he spent most of his life in the service of the Synod of North Carolina. After graduation from Union Theological Seminary in 1897, he served briefly in the western area of the Synod as an evangelist, but soon was elected Superintendent of Home Missions for the Synod. This position he filled with honor for six years, following which, in 1905, he became minister of the First Presbyterian Church, York, S. C. Here he served with distinction until the Synod of North Carolina again called him in 1924 to become Superintendent of Home Missions. This position he filled with marked success until his retirement in 1948. Much of the program and work of the Synod of North Carolina are the result of foundations laid by Dr. Gillespie, particularly in the division of Church Extension. However, his influence was felt in all areas of the Synod's activities. On February 23, Dr. Gillespie's funeral was conducted from the First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, with the Rev. William M. Currie, the Rev. R. H. Stone, and the Rev. Harold J. Dudley, participating. Appropriate tributes were paid to his memory during the funeral and also in the April issue of the Presbyterian News, an organ founded by Dr. Gillespie in September, 1935. The Committee of Church Extension, in the name of the Synod took proper cognizance of the event.

Several years prior to and including 1955 your Committee gave serious consideration to the need of funds for assisting the Home Mission program of Presbyteries in times of emergency. Studies were made in the several Presbyteries which revealed that opportunities for strengthening existing work and beginning new churches called for a minimum of three million dollars. The Committee twice recommended to Synod that a campaign be undertaken to raise funds for Church Extension, and twice Synod approved of the Campaign, though not too enthusiastically. For this reason, and also as a result of the imminent request of the Executive Committee on Higher Education to undertake a campaign in that area, the Church Extension Committee temporarily withdrew its request to conduct a campaign, awaiting a more suitable time. Last year the Synod's Council overtured the Committee to ascertain its intentions regarding a campaign. After mature consideration of the matter, your Committee replied to the communication from the Council in the negative; that is, that it will not at this time request the Synod to approve a Synod-wide Campaign for Synod's Church Extension, for the reason that in the interim since a campaign was first contemplated, at least three Presbyteries have undertaken campaigns at the Presbytery level, and a fourth, Winston-Salem, is planning to inaugurate one beginning in the fall. In lieu of the Synod-wide Campaign, your Committee has recommended to the Council through the Long-range Planning Committee that the year 1960 be kept free of Campaigns at the Synod level, in order that Presbyteries which have not already undertaken campaigns by that time, be encouraged to conduct them that year.

Your Committee wishes to call to the attention of Synod that the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, originally made possible by gifts of individuals, including the late W. H. Belk, F. O. Hawley, Lunsford Richardson, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Robinson and family, is now valued at approximately $132,000, and that the earnings on loans go to build up the fund, the goal being $200,000, which when attained will provide annual income for grants-in-aid. Your Committee would urge individuals, churches, and foundations to contribute towards the fund in order to hasten the time when it may be useful for assisting in emergency situations.

The Committee is pleased to report that a new up-to-date map of the Synod is just off the press. The draftsmanship is the work of the Rev. William H. Chappell, of Durham, graduate of Duke in engineering, and currently minister of the Presbyterian Church at Pamplin, Virginia. Mr. Chappell has been working in collaboration with the General Secretary of Synod.

The Committee wishes to report also that a Manual, based primarily on Standing Rules of Synod, was adopted by the Committee at its recent meeting.

During the year the General Secretary was notified by N. G. Fonville, a Raleigh attorney and a member of the First Presbyterian Church, that a member of the church had died, leaving in her will a fairly substantial bequest for Church Extension, but that it would be some time before the estate could finally be settled, and the income be made available. The General Secretary and the Synod's Attorney, Mr. James K. Dorsett, have the matter on their agenda for pursuance.

Your Committee has given careful consideration to the growth and development of the responsibilities and work of Synod's Office, which serves as agent for the Executive Committee of Church Extension. We are cognizant of the service the Office renders all agencies of the Synod under difficult circumstances, and sometimes even embarrassing, due to the inadequate and deficient facilities. Furthermore, we are concerned for the security of valuable documents now housed in a non-fire-proof building. We further feel that the time has come for the Synod to express its prestige, as has been done, not only by other denominations in the State of North Carolina, but by some Presbyteries and Synods of the General Assembly, by the erection of a Presbyterian Office Building. To that end, your Committee has gone on record as voting unanimously to recommend to the Synod's Council that immediate steps be taken "looking towards the remedying of the situation of Synod's Office by providing adequate office space."

General Finances

We wish to call to the attention of Synod that gifts by the Presbyteries to the cause of Synod's Church Extension have diminished in the past several years, to the point that the Committee found itself faced with a deficit in December. Had it not been for the Equalization Fund, the Committee would have ended the year in debt. Your Committee has endeavored each year to present to the Synod a realistic budget, setting forth the exact needs for operation. However, the contributions by the churches of the Synod for the past five years range from 68% of the budget askings in 1953 to 88% in 1955, including the $8,000 gift from the Stultz Fund. Last year the Presbyteries gave 70% of the budget askings of Synod. The amount received from the churches was $44,835 and the budget by Synod was $64,496.

The Committee disbursed to four aid-receiving Presbyteries in 1957, $34,154 which was $787 less than for 1956. For the first time in several years the aid-receiving Presbyteries have reduced their total askings for 1959. For 1958, $43,793 was approved by Synod, but the same Presbyteries are requesting only $36,643 for next year. This reduction is reflected in the askings by Granville and Winston-Salem Presbyteries, both of which Presbyteries are to be commended for this consideration.

The aid-receiving Presbyteries reversed their record of a year ago, when we reported that they had given more to Synod's Church Extension in 1956 than in 1955. In 1957 they gave $3,526 less than in 1956, and all four Presbyteries gave less. Their total gifts were $12,577. Synod paid in sustentation-aid $34,154, or a differential of $21,577. (The differential last year was $18,838.87.)

Only Albemarle and Concord failed to accept the full askings of Synod for 1957; however, not a single Presbytery met its obligation in full. Orange had the best record, paying 93% of the asking. The amounts paid percentage-wise by other Presbyteries range downward as low as 49%. The difference between the amounts asked of the Presbyteries by Synod, and the amount paid was $19,661. (The differential last year was $17,715.)

Gifts to Assembly's Church Extension showed an increase from $182,641 in 1956 to $203,610 in 1957 (gain of $20,969). Congregational Missions received $132,286 in 1957, which was $1,008 less than for 1956. Gifts to Presbyteries' Church Extension increased by $11,217, from $327,787 to $339,004.

Synod's Gifts to all Church Extension work for the past two years is compared as follows:

	1957	1956
Congregational Missions	$132,286	$133,394
Presbytery Church Extension	339,004	327,787
Combined	$471,290	$461,081
Assembly's Church Extension	203,610	189,591
Combined	$674,900	$650,672
Synod's Church Extension	44,835	54,255
Grand Total	$719,735	$704,927

This grand total contrasts with $159,807 given in 1940 and $482,692 in 1950.

Assembly Aid

During the year the Board of Church Extension has rendered assistance to the Synod by donations for special projects to the extent of $14,500 in three Presbyteries, as follows:

Morton Church Building, Rocky Mount (Albemarle)	$ 2,000.00
Negro Missions Project Bldg., Greenville (Albemarle)	1,000.00
Circle Court Church Bldg., Fayetteville (Fayetteville)	2,000.00
Village Church Bldg., Fayetteville (Fayetteville)	7,000.00
Meadowview Church Bldg., Lexington (Winston-Salem)	2,500.00
Total	$14,500.00

In addition, the Board approved of financial assistance to three aid-receiving Persbyteries in the amount of $31,631 for the year 1958, as follows:

Albemarle	$ 9,940.00
Wilmington	6,700.00
Winston-Salem	14,991.00
	$31,631.00

We wish to express our appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for these gifts, and at the same time to call to the attention of Synod, the following paragraph in a letter from Dr. Claude H. Pritchard, Secretary of the Division of Home Missions and Negro Work of the Board of Church Extension:

> "Our Board's total receipts from the Synod of North Carolina for the church year ending December 31, 1957, were $177,438.09. Your Synod's full proportionate share of the Assembly's minimum askings for the support of our Board for 1957 was $253,843.00. Our Board's receipts were 69.90% of the minimum asked. Our total receipts from all the Synods amounted to 73.77% of the total asked by the General Assembly for the support of our Board. For the church year 1956 we received from the Synod of North Carolina 80.16% of the amount asked by the General Assembly as compared with the 69.90% for 1957. If our receipts from your Synod for 1957 had approached more nearly the amount asked by the General Assembly, our Board would have been able to grant more of the donation requests which were presented for its consideration at its February 12-13 meeting."

HOME MISSIONS

Department of Sunday School Extension

The Committee has been without the services of a Sunday School Extension Worker for the past twelve months. However, Dr. James M. Carr, Secretary of the Town and Country Church and the Sunday School Extension Department of the Board of Church Extension, writes that he is endeavoring to secure a successor to Miss Mildred Mallard. We wish to call to the attention of Synod that the salary of the Sunday School Extension worker is paid by the Board of Church Extension.

It should be gratifying to the Synod to learn that a number of the projects established under this department during the past seven years are now thriving churches. The churches at Jacksonville and Havelock, near which places are located large government Marine bases, are especially worthy of consideration. The Jacksonville Church has grown since 1940 from approximately 45 members to more than 300 and the congregation has just completed a new sanctuary and the first unit of an educational building on a new site at a cost of nearly $200,000. The Jacksonville Church was assisted financially by both the Synod and the General Assembly. The Sunday School enrollment is 425. The Trinity Church at Havelock was organized in 1953, following a survey. Today the membership numbers 120 and the Sunday School enrollment is 174. This congregation has erected a fellowship hall and Sunday School rooms, and looks towards the construction of a sanctuary. The manse, which is free of debt, is one of the finest in the Synod.

Financial

1) Sustentation of Salaries: There are currently 43 ministers and 7 lay workers serving in four aid-receiving Presbyteries. In addition, there are 11 vacant fields, which when supplied, receive aid from your Committee. In all there are 61 fields, representing a total of 96 churches which are served by the workers aided by Synod. The Synod subsidized the salaries of ministers of these churches in 1957 to the amount of $34,154, which is $788 less than in 1956.

2) Grants-in-Aid: There was only a limited amount of money available for grants-in-aid in 1957. Actually only one grant was made—$700 to Jacksonville. However, there were a number of requests, and these are still pending. Several years ago your Committee was compelled to limit the maximum grant to $500, except under extraordinary circumstances. There are a number of churches whose applications have been approved but which have received either nothing to date or only a part of the full amount approved. It is the hope of your Committee that this situatin may be improved during 1958.

3) Loan Funds: There are currently 42 loans to churches with building programs, ranging from $1,500 to $25,000. The loan funds are from two sources, the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund and the Permanent Reserve Fund. The former was valued at $131,601.44 as of December 31, 1957, and the latter at $58,868.67 as of the same date. All funds are lent at 4% interest and are properly secured. Income from the Church and Manse Loan Fund is returned to the corpus, and when the fund reaches $200,000 the interest earned will provide for the support of work of Church Extension. The income from the Permanent Reserve Fund is already providing support for the work of Church Extension. All of the money in the two funds are made available for loans.

4) McCallum Estate: The estate did not yield income for benevolences in 1957. The estate is valued at approximately $250,000.

5) Home Missions in the Presbyteries: The most significant event to report is the approaching campaign by Winston-Salem Presbytery to raise $500,000 for Church Extension. The work in all Presbyteries seems to be in a healthy state.

Evangelism

During the year the Director of Evangelism, Dr. H. Howard Thompson, cooperated with Visitation Evangelism Programs at New Bern in Albemarle Presbytery; Marion in Concord; Lillington, Carthage, Red Springs, and Fayetteville in Fayetteville; Warrenton and Durham in Granville; Rutherfordton and Kings Mountain in Kings Mountain; and Winston-Salem in Winston-Salem.

Strenuous efforts were made to bring ministers of the Synod to the Pre-Assembly Conference on Evangelism April 23-24, and, according to the Director of Evangelism for the General Assembly, the Rev. Al Dimmock, the attendance at the conference was half as large again as attendance at previous conferences. The General Assembly has established as an objective of the Centennial in 1961, "centering our emphasis on Evangelism in order to strengthen our sense of obligation and fulfill our mission to the unreached", with a specific goal of a million members by the end of the year. The "Billy" Graham Crusade in Charlotte during the fall should prove a stimulus to our evangelistic efforts.

Growth

The net gain for the Synod in 1957 was not as great as 1956—1.71% in contrast to 2.16%. The net increase was 2,409 in contrast to 2,891 in 1956 and 3,766 in 1955. The annual rate of increase was less than the average of 2.05% for five years. Since 1940 the Synod has increased by 48,048 or 52.86%.

The number added on profession of faith in 1957 was 4,525, an increase of 131 over the previous year. The number of churches reporting no professions of faith in 1957 increased from 142 the year before to 158; however, a majority of these churches were under 100 members or without a minister or both. January 1, 1958, there were 85 vacant churches in the Synod in contrast to 101 a year before. (643 churches in the Synod.) The number of baptisms of both infants and adults decreased in 1957.

The Synod of North Carolina is not growing as rapidly as the General Assembly—21% since 1950 in contrast to 25% for the General Assembly. The General Assembly grows percentage-wise faster than the Baptists of North Carolina, but the Synod is two percentage points below the Baptist for the period 1950-1957. However, the Synod is growing faster than the Methodists of North Carolina, who show an increase of only 9% since 1950. Among the sixteen Synods North Carolina ranks seventh for 1957. The Synod of Florida ranks first with an increase last year of 6.45% in contrast to the 1.76% for North Carolina.

For Spiritual Birthrate, the growth on professions of faith, the Synod ranked seventh also, 3.33% as compared to 4.05% for Florida. In the Soul-Winning Ratio (the number of members required to win a person on profession of faith), the Synod ranked sixth, 30 members in contrast to 25 for Florida.

Among the Presbyteries, Winston-Salem stood first in net gain during 1957, 4%, and for the period 1940-1957 Albemarle continued to lead, 97.91%. For Spiritual Birthrate, Albemarle led for both 1957 and for the ten-year period 1949-1957, 4.17% and 4.69%, respectively. Likewise for the Soul-Winning Ratio, Albemarle led in both categories, 23.96 members and 22 members.

Sunday School

The Sunday School enrollment increased in 1957 by 2,035, 1.61%. This is less than the communicant growth, 1.76%. Granville Presbytery had the best record, 5.15% increase, for 1957, and Albemarle, usually at the top, stood at the bottom, with a —2.33% loss. However, for the period since 1940 Albemarle continued to lead the Synod at 115% in contrast to a Synod average of 69%.

Christian Relations

During the year the book, The Louisville Story, recounting the program of integration in the public schools of Louisville, was brought to the attention of Presbytery Chairmen. The Synod's Chairman attended the Churchmen's Washington Seminar. The recent General Assembly took action to replace the Council on Christian Relations by the Permanent Committee of Christian Relations, and to replace the Division of Christian Relations by the Division of Christian Action in the Board of Christian Education, with the Secretary of the division serving as an ex officio member of the Permanent Committee of Christian Relations. Your Committee has recommended to the Synod's Council appropriate action to parallel at the Synod level the changes at the Assembly level.

Your Committee feels that the Churchmen's Washington Seminar is of such importance as to merit the continuation of the practice of the Synod to send a representative each year. The Committee hopes that the functions of the Christian Relations Committee, as it nas existed as a division of this Committee, will be continued in the new setting.

Radio

We wish to call to the attention of Synod that the sub-committee on Radio and Television of the North Carolina Council of Churches is promoting an inter-denominational program, and that during the past twelve months several programs have been aired under the sponsorship of the NCCC. The Synod was represented on at least two of the programs which emphasized higher education.

Financial Statements

Attached to this Report are financial statements, based on the CPA audit, for Church Extension, including the regular account, the Loan Funds, the Designated Funds, and Papers and Securities.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod express appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for the grants made to the several churches of the Synod and for the sustentation aid provided for ministers in three aid-receiving Presbyteries.
2. That Synod take cognizance of the death of Dr. Ernest Eugene Gillespie by standing for a moment of silence and prayer, and by an appropriate communication to his widow.
3. That churches and individuals be acquainted with the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, and that they be urged to contribute to the Fund, looking towards the attainment of the goal of $200,000.
4. That Synod express its keen satisfaction to the Trinity Church, Havelock and the First Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville, over the progress made to this date, and urge any interested persons or churches to contribute to the capital funds of these churches.
5. That Synod consider favorably the recommendation of Synod's Council to abolish the sub-committee on Christian Relations and to transfer its functions to the appropriate Committee of Synod.
6. That Synod commend the Presbyteries of Granville and Winston-Salem for taking steps in the direction of self-support.
7. That Synod earnestly request Presbytery Stewardship Committees and Councils to give serious consideration to Askings by Synod for Church Extension, and that all churches and Presbyteries be called upon to meet their full obligations to this cause.
8. That Synod encourage all Presbyteries which have not already conducted campaigns for capital funds for the Church Extension program, to do so as soon as it is expedient.
9. That Synod endorse the recommendation of Synod's Council to erect a Synod's Office Building in Raleigh.
10. That Synod send a representative to the Churchmen's Washington Seminar in 1959.
11. That each local church provide a committee on Evangelism.
12. That the Sessions of local churches check on opportunities for evangelism in the community.

13. That churches have a particular period each year, dedicated to winning people to Christ.

14. That appropriate literature on witnessing be made available to local congregations.

15. That the reception of members into the church be made more impressive, and that more consideration be given to integrating new members into the fellowship and service of the congregation.

16. That the Synod, Presbyteries, and local Sessions appoint Centennial Committees for promoting of the Centennial Celebration in 1961.

17. That Synod urge its churches to observe October 12-19 as a Week of Prayer and Self-denial for Church Extension.

18. That Synod endorse the Board of Church Extension's Campaign for $1,000,000 through a "One-Day's Pay" Special Offering, or its equivalent, to be received on Sunday, October 19, 1958. (Churches are reminded that 80% of these funds will be used within the boundaries of their own Presbytery and that the remaining 20% will be administered by the General Assembly's Board of Church Extension.)

19. That, in view of the fact that the Rev. H. Howard Thompson has reached the age of retirement, he be elected to serve for one year (second one-year term) as Director of Evangelism of Synod.

20. That pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear the following: Mr. Fred Ohl, Secretary of Radio, Board of Church Extension, Atlanta; Rev. H. Howard Thompson, on Evangelism; and the Rev. I. Howard Chadwick on the Churchmen's Washington Seminar.

[1] –SOUL WINNING RATIO: Number of members required to win one soul to Christ in a year. Determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith at the end of the year into the total number of communicants at the beginning of that same year. The result is in persons, not percentage, and the lower the figure the better the standing.

[2] –SPIRITUAL BIRTHRATE: Growth by professions of faith, expressed in percentage. Determined by dividing the number of members at the beginning of a church year into the number of accessions on profession of faith during that same year. The higher the percentage, the better the standing.

C. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

REV. CHARLES LYNN BROWN, Chairman

The cause of Christian Higher Education continues to occupy the forefront of our thinking. It is more than a score of years now since Synod felt so deeply the need of careful study and preparation for the challenge which the post-war world set before our Church and our schools. What was begun as a sobering study, made possible by the Ford Foundation grant in 1953, issued in the inspiring challenge to Synod by the Study Committee's Survey Report of 1955. Synod in that year and in the two successive years, 1956 and 1957, gave wholehearted support to the findings of the study and to its determination to act according to the Recommendations set forth in the Report.

After three years the wisdom of Synod in adopting the Recommendations of the Report is becoming increasingly apparent. The needs of our schools are more apparent and more urgent today than they were when the Study was first undertaken. Presbyterians of the Synod have responded to the program set forth in a way unmatched in the history of the Synod. In support of this statement we cite the fact that Presbyterians within the Synod pledged more money to the Consolidated College than had ever been pledged to any appeal made by our Synod in its entire history.

The Issues Are Defined

As we continue to carry out the well-defined wish of Synod in the area of Higher Education, the issues before us are clearly defined.

First, the unity of the Presbyterian family within the boundaries of Synod is being strengthened. The responsible freedom, which is one of the foundations of Presbyterian polity, and which excludes capricious individualism or sectional priortity, has been vigorously demonstrated as Presbyterians from the mountains to the sea have joined together in a major display of Synod loyalty. We cannot doubt the united concern and loyalty Synod has shown to this area of responsibility which belongs peculiarly to Synod.

Secondly, the total area of concern which must be ours in Higher Education has been more sharply defined. The Church's ministry to Presbyterian students in non-church schools under Campus Christian Life has aroused wide concern. The role of our church-related colleges in serving Presbyterian students has been re-examined. Factual studies in both areas show us our weakness and our strength and we can proceed to plan with more assurance.

Thirdly, the relation of our Church to Presbyterian colleges is being closely examined. In the past this relationship has been one of tradition and mutual concern. The Boards of our Presbyterian schools have included members appointed by Synod who have been the Synod's representatives in concern and advice. The strength of our connection to our schools has been that of good will and cooperation in mutual concern and in the number of alumni who are loyal both to the school and to the Church.

The weakness of this relationship has been shown, however, in the apparent readiness of a minority group within the Boards and Alumni of two of our schools (included in the plan for Consolidation) to sever an historic Church relation and pursue an independent course backed by proposed Foundations.

Presbyterians of the entire Synod should examine very clearly the wisdom of such a course and the place of their prior allegiance.

Our Needs Are Apparent

Two needs come to our attention. First, the need of our Church for strong schools. We believe that the Church requires for her undergirding schools which will present to our students a consistent Christian interpretation of life and learning, in which the challenge of Christ to all life may be constantly offered and in which Christian witnesses in every field of learning may be trained. The Church must depend upon the Church School to produce able and learned scholars fho can witness for Christ in the secular colleges and universities as well as in the Church.

Secondly, we must continue to interpret to our schools the needs of the Church. What can the Church expect from her schools? How can the church-related school serve the Church in her redemptive ministry to a lost and divided society.

There Is Much To Give Us Confidence and Hope

We are much encouraged by the response of our total Synod to the bold and courageous undertaking we have agreed upon. Our plan to concentrate our resources in the four-year college field as the one most acceptable to our Presbyterian families and most productive of good for the whole church is a wise and good one. Presbyterians in the century past have been moving steadily in this direction. The position of Davidson and Queens, financially and academically, as well as in the affection of the people, although not yet what it can and ought to be, are proof of the direction our Synod wishes to to take.

We have, in conclusion, every ground for hope that we shall continue to undergird our schools for our mutual task, that we shall discover new and more vital ways to assist one another and that there will be forged in the years ahead a more enduring bond between Church and School. Together let us minister to our boys and girls as they learn in the Christian Home and Church and Christian school, to grow always in "wisdom and in statue and in favor with God and man."

Recommendations

1. That, in view of the fact that the cause of Campus Christian Life received only 74% of the amount accepted by the Presbyteries for 1957, and ended the year with a deficit of $920; and further, that the Presbyteries reduced the askings of Synod for 1958 by 13%, which leaves the Committee without adequate expectation of income to meet the basic needs of salary for personnel employed, and the likelihood of a large deficit; Synod urges its members and churches to support this cause in full.
2. That, Synod adopt a budget for Campus Christian Life in the total amount of $65.120, and urge the constituent Presbyteries to give the full amount requested to this cause. (Schedule attached).
3. That, in view of the fact that the Campus Christian Life Campaign for capital funds is incomplete, and many churches have promised to consider the matter in the fall, Synod urge those churches which have not taken action to support this cause, to do so at the earliest possible moment, and notify the Office of the General Secretary thereof.

4. That Synod approve of the Manual for Campus Christian Life Committees as a basis of operation for this Synod's Committee, and further approve of the attached sheet concerning Campus Christian Life policies on Program and Property.
5. That Synod create a Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts, numbering seven, in the interest of the Educational Institutions supported by the Synod.
6. That Synod express its appreciation to the Boards of Trustees and Administrative Personnel of its Educational Institutions.
7. That the Synod of North Carolina, sensible of the interests of foundations, local groups, and municipalities in education in the localities where corporations are now merged into the Consolidated Presbyterian College, hereby expresses its purpose, while safeguarding the interests of Synod, to give full consideration to the proposals of responsible agencies to acquire the properties of these institutions if and when they are no longer utilized in the program of the Synod, and authorizes the Board of Trustees of the Consolidated Presbyterian College to negotiate with such interested parties at the appropriate time.

1. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

LAWRENCE I. STELL, Chairman

At its last meeting, the Synod of North Carolina authorized a campaign for $300,000.00 additional money for capital outlay in the centers served by Synod's Sub-Committee on Campus Christian Life. During this year most of the efforts of this Committee have been directed to the prosecuting of that campaign. As yet, the issue is in doubt. It is to be hoped that a sufficient number of the Churches which have not as yet committed themselves will do so in such amounts as will guarantee the securing of the entire amount necessary for this amount. Actually more is badly needed.

Because of the mushrooming of the work of this Committee in its attempt to meet the needs presented by the increasing number of Presbyterian students at state and independent colleges and universities, every resource of the committee has been taxed to the limit. During 1957, this Committee received only 70% of the money that it requested and desperately needed. This, after all possible economies had been made, left the Committee with a deficit for the operations of 1957 in the amount of $920.00. During the year 1958, we are confronted with the fact that the acceptances by the Presbyteries are far below the amount requested by the Synod and the gifts are far below the amounts requested. If this trend be continued, despite all possible economies by the Committee, we will be confronted by a large deficit or by the necessity of terminating employment of many of our workers.

The money used by this Committee goes almost entirely into salaries and is therefore not subject to easy curtailment. The work of this Committee is a tremendously important one. It provides the growing edge for the Synod in many ways. It can be termed the Synod's greatest evangelistic opportunity with much justification. However, the workers in the institutions cannot do their work without adequate financial support. Your Committee would lay the cause upon the hearts of every minister, officer and member of the Presbyterian Church in the Synod of North Carolina.

a. CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE POLICIES ON PROGRAM AND PROPERTY

A. Direction of Local Campus Christian Life Work

1. The Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee recognizes that the work with the students and faculties of our Colleges and Universities is properly under the supervision of the local Campus Christian Life Committee. Reports and requests must be made annually to, and of, the Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee through the local Campus Christian Life Committee. The local Campus Christian Life Committee shall regularly report to and consult with the Session of the Church or churches involved.
2. Campus Christian Life workers are to be called by Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee on the nomination and approval of the local Campus Christian Life Committee, and the Session or Sessions of Church or Churches related to the work, and where ministers are involved, with the approval of the Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work.
3. When a Campus Christian Life situation is without a worker, the monthly payments from the Campus Christian Life Committee will be proportionately reduced by the amount of the salary item.

B. Property Ownership and Improvement

1. Funds may be invested by Synod for capital improvement of the property of the local Church serving a University Center. It is expected that the local Campus Christian Life Committee, through the Session of the local Church, will be alert to the wise use of such properties for Campus Christian Life Work. The Session of the local Church will enter into a written agreement with the Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee concerning proper use of facilities provided by the Synod.
2. Where property is provided by Synod specifically and completely for student work or housing of CCL workers, title to the property should be vested in the Campus Christian Life Committee of the Synod of North Carolina for the Synod, with the General Secretary acting as Trustee.
3. The Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee will provide funds for the housing of workers.

C. Maintenance and Repairs of Property

1. Where Campus Christian Life use of the property necessitates, the local Campus Christian Life Committee may make requests of the Synod's Committee for such funds as it feels justified. The Synod's Committee will examine all such budget requests. Where Synod makes contribution to the property of a designated church serving a University or College Center, the maintenance and operation of the property will be subject to written agreement between the officers of that Church and Synod's Committee.
2. Where title to specific Campus Christian Life property resides in a Trustee for Synod, the local Campus Christian Life Committee through the Session of the local Church or Churches should make requests for necessary funds to maintain and keep in repair the property involved. The local Campus Christian Life Committee shall be responsible for the care of the property.

2. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Rev. Warner L. Hall, Chairman

Davidson College

Outstanding among the significant events which have taken place at Davidson College during the past year was the election by the Board of Trustees of the Treasurer of the college, Mr. D. Grier Martin, as President. Mr. Martin has manifested great loyalty to the college. Hs has made important contributions to its forward progress. We have reason to expect a continuation of the progress of Davidson under his leadership.

Two large gifts have been received: a gift of $100,000 from the Irene Heinz Given and John LaPorte Given Foundation, the income of which is to be used for faculty research, study and travel. The second was a $400,000 challenge gift offered by Mr. Charles A. Dana, president of the Charles A. Dana Foundation, on the condition that the college would provide necessary additional funds to build a new science building and dormitory and other facilities in order to bring the student body to 1,000. The Trustees accepted the conditional gift and ordered that the new science building to be erected shortly will be named THE CHARLES A. DANA SCIENCE LABORATORIES.

The tuition was raised by order of the Trustees in the amount of $100 per year. Scholarships and grants-in-aid were likewise increased to prevent hardship being inflicted on any student. The increased funds, thus realized, are to be used to increase faculty salaries. But even this increase has left them much below what should be. It is to be hoped that increased giving by the Synod will make another increase possible.

Queens College

Queens has been engaged in an intensive campaign to increase its capital funds. To date, the city of Charlotte and Mecklenburg county have responded in very fine fashion, $1,400,000 having been pledged by the friends of Queens in Mecklenburg county. This large sum manifests the concern and esteem which Queens' neighbors have for the school. Some $200,000 additional has been pledged by the Presbyterians of North and South Carolina. It is hoped that during the remaining months of 1958 other churches in the two Synods will undertake serious responsibilities for Queens, and that the full amount of $2,000,000 will be made available.

Not only does Queens have a capacity enrollment in its regular college operations; it continues to have a tremendous response to its evening classes. Some of these are for credit. Many of them are not. In offering these classes to the people of the Charlotte area, Queens fulfills a very valuable function in the life of the community.

Queens, as all our other colleges, faces a serious problem. Faculty salaries must be increased. Yet this must await the increased liberality of the Synod.

The Consolidated College

The projected study of the curriculum of a Christian college which was announced at the last meeting of Synod was held during the summer of 1957. Those participating in the study felt that this undertaking was probably the most important one in their educational experience. It is to be hoped that out of this study Christian higher education has come to see itself and its function more clearly. It is within the realm of possibility that all Christian higher education will be helped by this study.

Progress has been made. The trustees have employed the firm of A. G. Odell and Associates as the designing architest; and the firm of Englehardt, Leggett and Cornell, Educational Consultants. Studies are being carried on now and preliminary drawings should be forthcoming in the near future. It is expected that plans and specifications for the new buildings at Laurinburg will be ready for bids in the spring of 1959.

Many impediments have been placed in the way of the realization of the plan for Higher Education which the Synod has adopted and re-affirmed over the past several years, but in spite of delaying court actions and other hindrances, the work has gone forward, pledges are being paid, and soon there should be at Laurinburg tangible evidence of the power of a dream.

Union Theological Seminary

When Union successfully completed its Mid-Century Campaign it had secured resources to deal with a student body of 200. Since that time the enrollment has climbed steadily year by year until the student body numbers almost 300. As an increasing percentage of the student body consists of married students and as the families of married students continue to grow larger, the burden of housing which this places upon the Seminary grows daily more acute. If the Seminary is to have adequate resources to meet its present situation, additional funds both current and capital must be made available.

Annual Support

Year by year the committee has asked the Synod for increased support. Year by year the Synod has responded by increasing its contribution to Christian Higher Education slightly. The increases achieved year by year have not kept pace with the increasing costs which colleges are required to bear. Moreover, as the competition for competent faculty becomes keener, the salaries of faculty members will be driven up to the place where they should have been all along. Most of our colleges are not prepared to pay the kind of salaries that will be required unless far more adequate support is forthcoming. The Synod therefore must make every effort to increase the amount given to Higher Education as rapidly as possible.

a. MONOGRAPHS OF INSTITUTIONS

SENIOR COLLEGES

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, Davidson, North Carolina, Dr. Clarence J. Pietenpol, Acting President. The College is owned and controlled by the Presbyteries composing the Synods of North Carolina and Florida, plus Asheville Presbytery of Appalachia Synod. Founded 1837. Men.

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; the Southern University Conference; the National Conference of Church-Related Colleges; the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; and is on the list of colleges approved by the Association of American Universities. Davidson has a Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. (Size of College: 890 students, 65 Professors, 12 Officers of Administration.)

Financial: Book value of property, $5,446,000; General and Scholarship Endowment, $8,579,182; For the college year ending June 30, 1958 the suporting churches of the Synod of North Carolina will have contributed $31,780 or 3.3% of the educational budget of the College according to an estimate based on payments so far plus final two payments of same period last year. Since the last annual report, a total of $174,108 has been added to the endowment funds of the College.

It is anticipated that the enrollment will be held to approximately 890 students for the 1958-59 college year. The College has received more than 700 applications for enrollment this year. Out of this number it is necessary for the Admissions Committee to confine itself to 250 students for the incoming Freshman Class.

The Trustees of Davidson College have authorized a gradual increase in enrollment to 1000 students, and they have specified that such an increase will be made only as the resources of the college are enlarged to guarantee the quality of the instructional program. To support this effort, a multi-million dollar Ten-Year Plan of Development has been charted by the Trustees and Faculty to organize, on a long-range basis, the planning, curricular studies, and financial expansion that will bring added strength, vigor, and effectiveness to Davidson during the next decade.

Included, as an important initial step in this program, is the immediate erection of an addition to the college library which has been made possible by a $250,000 grant from an anonymous North Carolina Foundation. It is anticipated that this construction will be completed by September, 1958.

In addition, a $400,000 challenge grant has been made to Davidson by Mr. Charles A. Dana, president of the Charles A. Dana Foundation and chairman of The Dana Corporation, manufacturers of automotive parts. The gift is conditioned on the provision by the college of the additional funds required to construct a science building and dormitory which with existing facilities will be adequate for a student body of 1,000 students.

This gift, which is the largest ever received by the college from a living person, was announced April 27 by Acting President C. J. Pietenpol and Treasurer D. Grier Martin, following a second visit to the campus by Mr. Dana and several trustees of his Foundation.

FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE, Red Springs, North Carolina, Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, President. Owned and operated by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States. Founded in 1896. Women. (Men enrolled as day students.)

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member of the National Association of Schools of Music; member of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, North Carolina College Conference, and the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South.

Size of College: 342 Students, 6 Administrative Staff, 33 Faculty Members.

Property and Finances:

1. Value of property—$419,613.35
2. General Endowment—$436,539.00
3. Scholarship Endowment—$129,329.19

For 62 years, Flora Macdonald College has been loyal and faithful to its aim and task of bringing young people to a disciplined living under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. During this long period the college has been served by only three presidents. The first president, Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Sr., served the college from its beginning until 1930. At the age of 70 he retired, after his 34 years in office, but continued to give to the college, as President Emeritus, his loving prayers and watchful concern. On May 3, after a period of declining health, Dr. Vardell died at Broadoaks, a private sanatorium at Morganton. His funeral service was held at four o'clock on the afternoon of May 5, conducted by Dr. Robert G. Hall, Dr. Henry G. Bedinger, and Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson. Throughout the day, previous to the hours for the service, his body lay in state in the college parlors. The next day, his remains were conveyeed to Charleston, South Carolina, and lovingly laid to rest in the grave yard of the Second Presbyterian Church, near the body of his beloved wife, Linda Rumple Vardell, who founded the Conservatory at Flora Macdonald College and served as its Dean until her last illness and death in 1948.

Dr. Vardell was a master builder. He erected all of the buildings which now stand on the campus, except a small Prayer Chapel. All of these buildings were completed before 1910. He designed the buildings and drew their floor plans. He personally supervised their construction. He raised the money to purchase the materials which went into the buildings. As often said, "Every brick was laid in prayer and tears."

Dr. Vardell laid out the lovely gardens for which the college is famous and secured from the gardens of Charleston and elsewhere many of the trees and shrubbery which blossom with such profusion. Dr. Vardell found in the gardens, as he supervised and worked in them, a release from his worries and anxieties and tensions and also a renewal of his physical strength and personal courage.

Dr. Vardell's chief work was not in building college buildings, nor was his highest joy found in the creation of a lovely garden. The major aim of his entire life was building into the lives of young women Christian standards and ideals and his supreme joy was watching them blossom into Christian maturity.

The laborer, who labored so valiantly in the face of stupendous difficulties and under endless discouragements, rests from his labors, but his work goes on in a greatly enlarged sphere in the Consolidated College into which Flora Macdonald College has been merged.

A Time of Transition

A period of transition for an institution is always attended by the challenge of new opportunities and new problems. The Trustees of the college approved the plan for the consolidation before the approval of the Educational Institutions Survey Report and the adoption of its recommendations by the Synod in July 1955. Since then the administration of the college has had but one unwavering aim, and that has been to carry out the wish and the will of the Synod.

At the same time, the administration has sought to strengthen and improve the life and work of Flora Macdonald College. The buildings and grounds are now in the best condition they ever have been; the quality of the student body is excellent, with many honor high school graduates among its number; the faculty is a strong one and is serving the college and its students with commendable fidelity; year by year the budget has grown and will reach an all time peak in a budget of $397,741.34 which has been adopted for the 1958-59 session.

The majority of the faculty members have pledged their support to the Synod's plan to consolidate, and throughout the year the President, the Dean, and faculty members have given many hours from their busy schedules in thinking through and working over the proposed curriculum and also space requirements.

Flora Macdonald College is doing a splendid job academically, and year by year the standards are being raised. The acid test of any educational institution is to be found in the record of its graduates. Fortunately, we have ample evidence of the success of our students in teaching, in Christian Education, in church music, and in business from letters which have been written by people who are grateful to have their services. A real measure of the work of a college is the success of students in graduate school. In recent years, we have had students go to The University of North Carolina, The University of South Carolina, The University of Illinois, The University of Indiana, The University of Colorado, Vanderbilt University, Duke University, Rochester University, Columbia University, Peabody College, and Union Theological Seminary in New York for graduate courses. Without exception they have done well, and some have achieved distinction in their work.

The President of the Student Body during 1957-58 has been awarded a $2,100 fellowship at The University of North Carolina. Another student will have a teaching assistantship at Illinois Wesleyan University. We can well be proud of the record our students are making in academic pursuits beyond the fourth year at Flora Macdonald College. Dr. H. R. Totten, of the Department of Biology at The University of North Carolina, recently wrote without solicitation that he had watched with pride the high caliber of work done here.

Guidance and Counseling Center

The services of the Center have been expanded with the passage of time. Since the first of January, Mr. Decker has had a whole-time secretary, a greatly needed help. Six students assist on a part-time basis. There are eight adult consultants in adidtion to the Dean of the College.

Two full days are now devoted to each group which comes from a local church. These groups are limited to six in size, so that the Director is able to have at least two interviews with each boy or girl. Individual, typed reports for each person are mailed to the minister or Director of Christian Education.

During the first eight months of the current academic year, fifty-seven different churches have sent high school students to the Center. Sixteen more groups are currently scheduled. In addition, a large number of churches sent in their request too late to be served this year.

Some 378 young people have used the facilities of the Center during 1957-58. The average cost per counselee is $25.00, about half the amount charged by private guidance services. But the people who have been here have not had to pay anything except transportation, meals, and in the case of boys, lodging.

The Center also serves the student body of Flora Macdonald College. There were 201 counseling appointments for this group during the past year.

The plan is to add an Associate Director next year. This will give us for the firfist time a balanced professional group, able to operate with a high degree of efficiency, making use of modern methods for testing and counseling. We are gratified by the rewarding experience of aiding young people to understand the doctrine of Christian vocation and apply it in their own lives. God has richly blessed this venture, and your prayers for the continued success of the Center are earnestly solicited.

Miss Harriet and Miss Hazel Morrison

With the close of the college year, Miss Harriet Morrison will retire as Head of the Department of Foreign Languages, and her sister, Miss Hazel Morrison, is retiring as the Dean of Admissions and Registrar, with her resignation taking effect on July 1. Miss Harriet Morrison has taught at Flora Macdonald College since 1909 except for one period of three years, and Miss Hazel Morrison has served as a member of the staff since 1926. Both Miss Harriet and Miss Hazel Morrison have served Flora Macdonald College with distinction and have given to it an unmatched devotion. Across the years, they have been faithful in the discharge of every obligation, and their zeal for the college has shown no weariness.

In speaking of Miss Harriet Morrison and Miss Hazel Morrison in his report to the Trustees, the Dean of the College said, "No words of praise that I might put in this report can begin to tell of the character and integrity that they have built into one generation of students after another over the years. Their Christian influence and fidelity to duty have played a large part in giving to this institution its distinctive atmosphere and charm. In fact, they belong to that small select group who can never be replaced."

Finances

Flora Macdonald College is deeply grateful to the Synod of North Carolina for the increasing financial support it is receiving, and particularly for emergency gifts during the college year of $11,780.32.

The Trustees of Flora Macdonald College are grateful for the encouraging increase in the appropriation to the college which is being proposed in the 1959 budget of the Synod. It is fervently hoped that the Synod will enthusiastically endorse the proposed increase and will raise the full budget amount set aside for the college.

QUEENS COLLEGE, Charlotte, North Carolina, Edwin R. Walker, Ph.D., President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synods of North and South Carolina. Founded 1857.

Academic Standing: Four-year, fully accredited liberal arts college for women. College is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, the American Council on Education, the Presbyterian Education Association of the South, the Association of American Colleges, the American Association of University Women, the National Commission on Accrediting, and the College Entrance Examination Board. Music Department is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Evening College is a member of the National Association of University Evening Colleges.

Size of the College: Enrollment in regular college session, 452; Evening College, 1198; non-college music enrollment, 162; summer session of 1957, 161; total 1973.

Financial Status: Value of property $3,000,000. General and scholarship endowment $1,261,000. The contributions from the two supporting Synods during 1956-57 were $46,858 (North Carolina $32,791) which is 7.4% of budgeted operating expenditures.

General Informotion: During 1957-58 the college has been conducting its Centennial Fund Campaign for $2,000,000. The national fund raising organization of Ketchum, Inc. has directed the campaign plans and activities. The campaign has been divided into three general phases: Advanced Gifts, Synods of North and South Carolina, and Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. Numerous informational meetings were held with church officers and alumnae throughout both Synods, and efforts have been concentrated in Charlotte and Mecklenburg during the months of March and April.

The fund is to be used to increase the endowment of the college and to erect a library and an additional residence hall. A full report of the success of the effort is not available as the campaign is still in progress. As of April 30 total pledges are $1,640,000.

An administrative officer with the title of provost has been added to the college staff. He will continue the fund effort and will coordinate all of the external relations of the college.

In keeping with the constant improvement of the physical plant, new sorority lodges are now under construction and will be ready for use in the fall of 1958. The three duplex structures will include a living room or lounge, a chapter room, a powder room, a kitchen and serving area, and adequate closet space for coats and storage. These buildings have been financed jointly by the sorority groups and the college.

Contracts will soon be let for the Irwin-McKay Infirmary presented by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Belk, honoring the physicians in their families. The building will include facilities for a student health center, four hospital rooms, a diet kitchen, and living quarters for the college nurses.

Architects are now completing plans for the library and for the new residence hall.

A large residence directly across the street from the campus will be used to house 30 additional students for the 1958-59 session. The property was the gift to the college of Irwin Belk. After the construction of the new residence hall, the permanent use of the property will be determined.

The Queens-Charlotte Leadership Program, a joint project of Queens College and the churches of Charlotte, continues to be one of the outstanding contributions made by the college to the religious life of the community. Several schools are held each year to train lay workers. The schools include a large Fall School of Religion and a workshop for vacation school staffs.

Queens students are encouraged to participate in the work of local churches while in college; and, through such work, they gain experience valuable to their home communities. A number of Queens graduates each year continue their studies in training schools and enter full-time church positions.

The Queens Evening College, an adult education program established in 1951, serves the people of Charlotte and the surrounding area by offering regular college credit courses and special non-credit professional and cultural courses. Courses planned with business and industrial leaders offer an adidtional educational service. During the past year special emphasis has been put upon recreational and cultural courses for professional men and women. In a management development program, a two-year terminal course in traffic and transportation was successfully completed, and the first industrial health seminar program to be held in any college was inaugurated.

The curriculum of the college is constantly being studied by the faculty to determine how it can best be administered to meet the needs of the students. This year the faculty has been strengthened by the addition of several new well-qualified instructors, and course offerings in their respective fields have been added to the cirruculum.

THE CONSOLIDATED PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, Laurinburg, North Carolina, Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, Acting President, Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, Vice President. Owned and supported by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Since 1951, the Synod has been moving towards improving and strengthening its work in the field of Higher Education. In that year, at the annual meeting of the Synod, the Council addressed an overture to the Sub-Committee on Educational Institutions requesting a thorough investigation and survey of the colleges of the Synod "in order that the whole educational program of the Synod may be promoted in the most efficient and business-like manner." In 1952, acting upon a recommendation by the Committee, the Synod directed that a comprehensive study be made of each of its colleges and that, to finance the program, the Committee be authorized to seek a grant from the Ford Foundation. A grant of $50,000 was made by the Ford Foundation and, in 1953, the Synod, by formal action, accepted the grant and in doing so expressed "the earnest hope that the study may prove to be a prototype for higher education among religious institutions in America."

In accepting the Ford Foundation grant in 1953, the Synod acted in the light of a strong and binding resolution which was adopted by the Synod the preceding year, as follows: "The Synod, however, should not commit itself to action on this matter (the making of a request for and the acceptance of a grant from the Ford Foundation) unless it is prepared to enter wholeheartedly into the study and to implement the findings of the study, as they will strengthen the educational arm of the Synod." (1952 Minutes, p. 100)

It must be kept clear that the study was not made by the Ford Foundation or by any of its agencies or staff members. The Foundation supplied the funds and the entire study, from beginning to end, was carried on as a project of the Synod.

As the first step in its study, the Commission selected an Advisory Council composed of five outstanding educators of proven competency and ability. In addition, they selected a full-time director of the survey, together with an assistant. Both of these men were selected because of their unique fitness for this particular task. They were not only educators but also men of strong belief in the place and importance of Christian higher education. After an eighteen months period of investigation and study, the staff and the Council made their report to the Synod's Commission in April 1955. The Commission gave unhurried consideration to the findings and recommendations of the staff and the Council. They held altogether three meetings, occupying the better part of fifive days in all, and drew up a carefully worded report to be presented to the Synod of North Carolina. Representatives of the Synod's Commission met with the Trustees of Flora Macdonaud, Peace, and Presbyterian Junior Colleges and gave to them copies of the full report prepared for the Synod and also outlined to the Trustees the details of the proposal for forming a consolidated college.

At the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, held in the Little Joe's Church of Barium Springs, North Carolina, July 12-14, 1955, the report of the Educational Institutions Survey Committee was presented, and after the Synod had given the better part of a day to the consideration of the report, together with its recommendations, both were adopted almost unanimously.

Trustees for the Consolidated College were appointed by the Synod, and within the next year the Board of Trustees chose Laurinburg as the location, selected a college site of some 800 acres, and promoted a campaign for funds within the Synod.

After interviewing representatives of some thirty-seven architectural firms, among them leading architects from the whole eastern section of America from Boston to Miami, the Committee on Buildings selected A. G. Odell, Jr. and Associates of Charlotte as the prime architects. As educational consultants, they engaged the services of Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell of New York City.

During August, 1957, under a $15,000 grant from the Fund for the Advancement of Education, a panel of prominent educators, together with sixteen consultants, spent the entire month in drafting an ideal curriculum for a church-related college. The curriculum is unique. It makes the Christian faith the very warp and woof of the entire college curriculum. One of the interesting proposals is the use of the method of team teaching. Careful planning of the curriculum has avoided proliferation of courses and at the same time makes it possible for every student to receive a thorough grounding in basic subjects and also to fulfill requirements for majoring in a variety of fields. The entire curriculum moves toward comprehensive examinations in the senior year together with a major thesis.

Using the curriculum as the basis of their work, Engelhardt, Engelhardt, Leggett and Cornell, the educational consultants, have been working since the first of the year and have worked out a Program of Basic Requirements in terms of space and arrangement. In their work, the consultants have sought and received valuable assistance from the Joint College Committee on Curriculum of which Dr. Price H. Gwynn, Jr. is the Chairman.

Mr. A. G. Odell and his associates are now busily engaged in designing and planning the buildings in keeping with the requirements which have been recommended by the educational consultants. The Chairman of the Board of the Consolidated College has announced that construction work on the new campus will most likely begin early in 1959. The target date for opening the college is September, 1960. The original enrollment being planned for is 600, with an ultimate goal of 1,000 students.

It is estimated that it will require $5,000,000 to erect the initial buildings and an additional $5,000,000 for endowment.

On May 28, the Articles of Agreement, signed by a majority of the Trustees of the three merging institutions, were filed with the Secretary of the State of North Carolina and the consolidation is now an accomplished legal fact.

JUNIOR COLLEGES

MITCHELL COLLEGE, Statesville, N. C., John Montgomery, M.A., President; J. Howard Allen, P.E.D., Dean. The College is owned and controlled by Concord Presbytery. Established in 1856. Coeducational.

Academic Standing: Accredited by North Carolina State Department of Education; member of Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; Member of the American Association of Junior Colleges; member of North Carolina College Conference; and the Presbyterian Educatinal Association of the South.

Size of College: 281 students, 16 teachers. Seven on the Administrative Staff.

Financial: Plant assets $288,480.00; General and Scholarship Endowment, $51,248.00. The contributions from the Synod of North Carolina during 1956 were $18,740.87.

Activities of the Student Christian Association this year include weekly vespers, planning chapel programs, sponsoring Religious Emphasis Services, fall retreat, and various social and recreational events for the entire student body.

Mitchell College funded by Concord Pdesbytery is dedicated to the Christian education of youth. The ideals of academic integrity and religious influence have been an essential part of the college tradition for over a century. Mitchell believes it can best fulfill these functions today by making itself as much as possible a community of learners, both teachers and students, who are committed to faith in God as revealed in Jesus Christ. Within this setting Mitchell College encourages every one of its members to share in the important tasks of academic life. To this end the whole educational program, with its preparation for advanced academic work, specific vocational training, and informal student activities, strives to cultivate in all Mitchell College students a growing sense of personal responsibility, civic responsibility, and vocational responsibility.

PEACE COLLEGE, Raleigh, North Carolina. Dr. William C. Pressly, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina with two Trustees appointed from each of the nine Presbyteries and two from the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, and with sixteen Trustees appointed at large. Founded 1872. Women.

Academic Standing: Member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, North Carolina College Conference, the American Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Associatin of Colleges for Women, and the Presbyterian Education Association of the South.

Size of the College: 316 students; 15 ful-time, 6 part-time Faculty, 10 Staff (8 full-time, 2 part-time).

Financial: 1957 value of property $750,000; General Scholarship Endowment $250,000. The contributions from the churches for operating budget were $20,406.60, which is 8 per cent of the total operating budget.

Peace College completed its 86th year on June 2, 1958.

The quality of academic work was good. In admitting a student, in addition to her scholastic record, proper consideration is given to her general background, as well as to her seriousness of purpose, church interest, and general promise of growth.

Peace is awarding annually five competitive scholarships totaling two thousand dollars, granted largely on the basis of scholarship, achievement, character, and need.

Peace is constantly striving to secure a faculty of outstanding academic ability, who appreciate thorough scholarship, and who have a certain sympathy with and understanding of student problems, most of whom are Presbyterians, and all of whom are members of some evangelical denomination and genuinely interested in promotion of the cause of Christianity.

Peace College is striving to promite a real program of Christian education. The Administration and Faculty are planning such a program largely by means of Chapel, Bible, and the classroom in general. An additional Bible course, "Christian Beliefs," was added this year. Also since student cooperation is essential, the Peace Student Christian Association takes the lead in encouraging student participation in all religious programs in the school and in the local church fellowship groups which students are urged to attend. Ten or fifteen students are thinking seriously of entering active Christian service. Consideration is given in planning the religious program at Peace to the fact that a large number of Peace girls will be home-makers, and will have an opportunity of training their children in the Christian fiath as well as serving themselves in the many phases of the local church work.

The Religious Emphasis services this year were led by Dr. Robert McNeill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Chyrch of Columbus, Georgia.

A Meditation and Prayer Room in memory of the late Miss Lucy Steele, Mary McNair Professor of Bible at Peace from 1933 until her death in 1954, has meant much in the religious life of the College.

The Peace College Women's Advisory Committee is composed of five representatives from the Women of the Church of each of the nine Presbyteries, including their presidents. Mrs. Charles Grier of Carthage, N. C., is chairman of the Advisory Committee.

Peace College appreciates fully the financial support of the Presbyteries of N. C. and asks for their continued support and prayers as the College attempts to fulfill its purpose as a Church College.

PRESBYTERIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE FOR MEN, Maxton, North Carolina. Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina, founded 1929. Men.

Academic Standing: Accredited by the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction for University of North Carolina; member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member American Association of Junior Colleges; member of North Carolina College Conference; member the Presbyterian

Educational Association of the South; Associate member of the commission on Christian Higher Education of the Association of American Colleges; approved by United States Office of Education for the admission of foreign students.

Size of College: 226 in regular session; 105 in Summer School; total of 331. If part-time students are reduced to equivalent of full-time students, the total of full-time equivalent students served is 222. Of these 129 were Freshmen; 41 Sophomores; 37 Preparatory; and 19 special or adult students. There were sixteen teachers, three of whom were part-time. Nine served on the administrative staff.

Financial: Value of Property $629,101.76; General Endowment $337,797.62, including Scholarship Endowment $77,984.20. Total assets $992,716.81. From June 1, 1957 to March 31, 1958 the contributions from all sources including Synod were $17,382.22. This is 8.9 percent of estimated total budget for the financial year.

The financial year of Presbyterian Junior College ends May 31st. We are grateful to God for what the college has been allowed to accomplish so far this year in rendering a service to young people. This report for Synod's Minutes is being written on May 23, 1958, before the end of the financial year.

Summer School was conducted in 1957 for ten weeks for college students and twelve weeks for preparatory students with good results. The college was represented at the Conference for Trustees held at Lake Junaluska, N. C, and at the meeting for faculty members held in Montreat. Progress was made toward carrying out Synod's program for the Consolidated Presbyterian College. Our college personnel took part in the preparation of the "Report To Presbyterians" presented to Synod, and in the hearings upon the attempted injunction. Without delay our Board met on September 6th and thirty-one trustees signed the consolidation agreement according to the directions of Synod. The president of the college, serving as vice-president of the Consolidated Presbyterian College, and other members of the faculty, have sought to carry out all assigned tasks and cooperate fully in developing Synod's program for Consolidated Presbyterian College. Our faculty curriculum-study committee reported to the month-long study held at Chapel Hill. The college executive met with the Building Committee of the Consolidated Presbyterian College as they selected an architect. He met with the Executive Committee and with the Board of the Consolidated Presbyterian College as they developed other plans. He has served as acting public relations officer for the Consolidated Presbyterian College.

There were 40 preparatory students at the opening of the fall semester as compared with 26 in 1956. This points up the need for a preparatory department. There were 24 expecting to graduate from the preparatory department. There were 110 freshmen as compared with 94 the previous fall, and 41 sophomores as compared with 40 the previous September, and 5 night class students as compared to 27 the previous fall. The total opening enrollment was 196 as compared to 187 in 1956. We declined eight applications from foreign students because our quota was filled. Forty new students enrolled for the second semester

There was an influenza epidemic in the fall but classes were not closed. It cost us over four hundred dollars for extra nurses. A new resident physician has built a medical clinic adjoining our campus.

The Reverend John N. Miller conducted the fall devotional services, and Dr. John H. McKinnon the spring religious emphasis week. The Student Christian Association has been active and The Christian Service Fellowship, composed of ministerial students, was organized. Several candidates have supplied vacant puulpits and the three ordained ministers on the faculty have preached somewhere regularly each Sunday. A weekly radio Sunday service and a weekly radio educational program are carried on.

A film strip project, introduction of a new test series, revision of entrance requirements, expansion of the Adult Education program, and work on the curriculum for the Consolidated Presbyterian College have been educational achievements. The first Middle East College Credit Tour was announced as part of the 1958 Summer School program. Founders' Day, Alumni Homecoming, the meeting of the Women's Advisory Board, and the meeting of Fayetteville Presbytery were successful special events. Dr. Barney Ellis Maclean, the first student to enroll in Presbyterian Junior College, who is now pastor of Southampton Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, is to preach at commencement and Dr. John R. Cunningham is to deliver the commencement address. We expect to graduate 54 in college and high school.

In athletics we were fourth in the basketball tournament and second in conference baseball.

HIGH SCHOOL

GLADE VALLEY SCHOOL, INC., Glade Valley, N. C. Mr. E. B. Eldridge, Superintendent. Owned and controlled by Presbyteries of Orange and Winston-Salem. Founded in 1909. Co-educational.

Academic Standing: Accredited high school by North Carolina State Department of Education. Member of Presbyterian Educational Association of the South. Member of Southern Mountain Workers Council.

Size of School: 78 students enrolled in 1957-58; seven teachers including Music teacher, 2 on administrative staff.

Financial: Value of property $430,250.00; General Endowment $24,000.00; Scholarship $5,000.00; Contributions of churches including gifts from Synod's Funds $16,090.00. Received from students $13,455.00. Auxiliary enterprises: Sales of used clothing, farm, and rents of buildings during summer, $6,148.00.

Enrollment: Seventy-six students our full capacity and a number turned away for want of space. Nine girls and one boy graduated. Two girls plan to enter Flora Macdonald College and three others plan higher education.

Improvements: Twenty acres of land adjoining the school property have been purchased, ten acres of woodland along with twenty acres of the original land have been leased to Winston-Salem Presbytery for the purpose of building a lake and summer camp. A five room cottage is under construction on the campus which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Mr. Johnson is a teacher and director of the Choir. The Johnsons have been living in two rooms in one of the dormitories.

GRADUATE SCHOOLS

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Richmond, Virginia, is owned and controlled by the Synods of North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, and Appalachia through a board of 28 trustees nominated by the Synods. One half of the trustees are ministers, and one half are church officers. The President, Dr. James A. Jones, is a 29th trustee ex officio. Founded in 1812. Men.

The Board of Trustees of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia submits the following report for the session of 1957-1958 to the Synod of North Carolina.

1. Student Affairs

The most important part of the life of the Seminary concerns the welfare of the students. The Trustees judge that this has been a year with no excessive difficulties in any direction in so far as student morale, academic progress, and spiritual development are concerned.

During the session 295 students were enrolled, 273 students being undergraduates and 58 students being graduates. There are 70 candidates for the Bachelor of Divinity Degree, 20 for the Master of Theology Degree, and six for the Doctor of Theology Degree. Two members of the Senior Class, not taking the Biblical language course required for the awarding of the degree, will receive diplomas. The students come from 20 states, from 7 foreign countries, and from 126 literary institutions. Fifty-five of the 85 Presbyteries of the Church, five other Presbyterian bodies and three other denominations are represented in the Student Body.

It is interesting to note again the lowering of the median age of the Seminary students. Shortly after World War II the average age of the entering classes was about twenty-eight years. Now the median age is nearer twenty-three years. At the present time 53.3 per cent of the regular students are married.

The graduates of the Seminary this year will continue to go into the mainstream of service as ministers inu local churches, as chaplains in the military services, as missionaries at home and abroad. Of the graduating class approximately ten will continue in graduate studies.

2. Faculty and Administration

The addition of two members to the Faculty during the year has been of immeasurable benefit to the Seminary. The Reverend James Luther Mays, Ph.D. has begun his work as Associate Professor of Biblical Studies. The Reverend William Bean Kennedy, Ph.D. has assumed his responsibilities as Assistant Professor of Christian Education on "The Robert and Lucy Reynold Critz Foundation".

Once again the Alumni of the Seminary have made it possible to bring to the Campus a Visiting Professor. The Reverend Dr. John A. T. Robinson, Dean of Clare College, Cambridge University, England, has taught two courses during the Spring Quarter in New Testament studies. He has an international reputation as a biblical scholar, and has made a genuine contribution to the life of the whole Seminary family.

The Trustees would again remind the Church of the anticipated growth in Seminary enrollment and of the responsibility for providing additional faculty members. In this context the Seminary is constantly in search of competent churchmen and scholars who can provide a distinguished teaching ministry and should be called to such service. The Trustees would also remind the supporters of the Seminary that each additional Faculty member demands that additional funds be put at the disposal of the Seminary. For each man added to the Faculty there should be in hand not less than $200,000 endowment.

The Seminary believes that it has an obligation to assist its Faculty in maintaining the excellence of its scholarship. To that end the Seminary follows a carefully proscribed schedule of sabbatic leaves. The Trustees note with pride that durnig the year Dr. Donald G. Miller, Professor of New Testament, has been the beneficiary of a grant from the American Association of Theological Schools which has afforded him the opportunity of a year's study at the University of Basel, Switzerland. Dr. Robert W. Kirkpatrick, during his sabbatic leave, has been engaged in a survey of the effective use of radio and television as teaching techniques and as means for the proclamation of the Gospel by the pastors of churches and by the Church as a whole.

3. Special Activities

The Reverend Claude R. Welch, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Theology, Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Connecticut, was the Sprunt Lecturer for the academic session of 1957-1958. His lectures were on the general theme, "The Reality of the Church." Auxiliary lecturers during Sprunt Lecture Week were The Reverend George A. Buttrick, D.D., Plummer Professor of Christian Morals in the Harvard Divinity School and Preacher to Harvard University; and the Right Reverend Rajah B. Manikam, D.D., Bishop of the Tamil Lutheran Church of South India. These lectures brought inspiration and challenge to the large company of students, faculty, alumni, and friends who participated in the activities of the week.

For several years the Seminary has sponsored conferences on Christian vocations. This year a conference for university and college students emphasized the importance of commitment to Christ in all forms of vocations. The conference for seniors in high school held forth the various types of vocations which are open to young people within the life of the Church. Seeing that the recruiting of able young men and women for church vocations is a matter of first-rate importance, the Seminary is constrained to believe these conferences are significant enterprises. Approximately 175 young people participated in these two weekend conferences.

4. Continuing Education

More and more the Seminary is convinced that it has a responsibility to make available to its alumni, and pastors generally, throughout the Church some of the continuing benefits that can be found only in the life of an educational institution. A minister cannot get enough "theological education" in three years to last him a lifetime. Therefore, the Seminary is offering to pastors of its constituency, to its alumni, and to churchmen generally a program of "Continuing Education".

One aspect of this program involves courses of directed study on many aspects of the Church's life. Some thirty specific courses, prepared by members of the Faculty, are administered by a member of the Seminary staff known as the Director of Continuing Education, and are available for "at home study." The response to this program has encouraged us to believe that it is rendering a real service.

On the basis of a generous grant from a Foundation the Seminary inaugurated this year a program which is known as "The Tower Room Scholar Program". Four ministers, active in their local churches, are brought to the Seminary for a twelve-day period of residence. These men are given private studies in the Library; they meet daily with members of the Faculty to review recent developments in theological literature. Each man prepares an outline of a course of study which will be for his benefit; and each man follows his course of study with the facilities of the Library at his disposal during the time of his residence. Without exception the Seminary has been encouraged to continue this program in the conviction on the part of the men who have shared in it that it meets a real need for the busy pastor, who gets release for this period of time from the complexities incident to his own work in order to deepen his spiritual life and ministry by careful study.

Another aspect of the Program of Continuing Education involves the "Alumni Conference". This year the Classes of 1948 and 1953 were invited to return to the Campus for three and a half days at the conclusion of the academic term. Essentially this conference is designed to inform these graduates of the Seminary of what has transpired in the last decade in biblical and theological thought. We are convinced that the prospects for this program are good, accomplishing in a brief compass some of the benefits that are accomplished by the Tower Room Program.

The Graduate School of the Seminary is examining its program in the belief that by enhancing its excellence it can serve the Church in the development of a theological school of a very high order. Fifty-one students are now enrolled in the Graduate Department: 31 are candidates for the Master of Theology Degree; 20 are candidates for the Doctor of Theology Degree.

5. Concerning Finances

The Seminary at the end of its fiscal year March 31, 1958 had an operating deficit of $938.66. For the fiscal year church contributions from the four Synods were off $808.00.

The Synod of North Carolina comparison is:

Church Year		Fiscal Year Ending
1956	$28,087.42	3/31/57	$28,680.96
1957	26,915.88	3/31/58	28,603.39
Decrease	$ 1,171.54		$ 77.57

It is imperative that current contributions increase as the load of students snowballs in the years just ahead. The amount projected in Synod's budget for 1958 ($60,000) is really needed. And $5,000 increase should be made for 1959.

A complete audit of the Seminary's finances is annually put at the disposal of the proper officers of the Synods as soon as it is received.

Throughout the nation there is a mounting concern with respect to the educational stability and prospects of our institutions. This same concern belongs to the discerning churchman. The Seminary is dependent upon the liberality of churchmen to undergird and expand its important functions in the total life of the Church. From the regular benevolence funds of the church courts supporting the Seminary only 16% of the necessary operational funds are received.

Approximately 28% of the funds necessary are received from student fees. In this connection it must be remarked that the Seminary itself must provide scholarship funds for approximately one-half of the funds collected from the students. These statistics make apparent the dependence of our institution upon current contributions from individuals and churches and for additions to our capital funds.

The Trustees express their deep appreciation to all who have made possible its work during the past year. They commend themselves and the Seminary to your continuing interest, and to the intercession and assistance of all who are interested in the training of men to herald the wonderful Gospel of Christ.

(2) Comparisons

The Synod sent down as Presbytery budget apportionments for educational institutions the amount of $355,000 for the year 1957. The total gifts received by Synod's Treasurer of Educational Institutions for the year 1957 from Presbyteries to the Cause of Educational Institutions were $228,990.83.[1] The funds received by Synod's Treasurer represent 65% of the Apportionments, as compared to 65% for the previous year.

A summary of Synod's seven institutions appears as Chart I. For 1957-1958 the percentage of Presbyterian students in Synod's seven institutions was 50.6% as against 48.9% for 1956-1957.

Gifts as reported by the General Assembly Statistics to Educational Institutions and as reported by Synod's Treasurers for the years indicated, follow:

Year	General Assembly Minutes	Unified Budget

e. INFORMATION

The Director is endeavoring to make his office a channel for distributing information about the Schools for which Synod has a responsibility. He is available for presenting the cause of Christian Education to Presbyteries, Presbyterials, local Churches, Men's and Women's organizations.

Four schools have motion picture films which they make available to interested groups: Davidson College, Queens College, Glade Valley School, and Presbyterian Junior College.

[1] The General Assembly Minutes annually report a figure larger than that reported by the Synod's Treasurer. This is explained by the fact that all funds contributed to Higher Education do not pass through the hands of the Synod's Treasurer such as some gifts made directly to institutions on Campaign pledges and gifts to Assembly's educational institutions: the Assembly's Training School, Stillman College, and Montreat College, though the latter is not officially an institutions of the Assembly.

[2] The General Assembly Statistics are reported differently since 1955 and the information on total gifts to Higher Education is not available.

BEQUESTS AND MEMORIALS

According to Webster, a memorial is anything intended to "preserve the memory" of a person or event. Granite preserves a name; influence preserves a memory. A memorial dedicated to the service of Christian Education is truly an everlasting memorial since it lives on generation after generation. This type of memorial is not only possible to people of large wealth but to the average man. Buildings and gifts for endowments are appropriate for people of means. Gifts of equipment for gymnasiums, offices, and music departments; audio-visual materials, furniture, and outdoor improvements are within the reach of average people. Information on specific needs will be furnished to interested persons.

FORM OF GENERAL BEQUEST

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at.., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given)."*

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR INDICATED PURPOSE

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at.., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given), with the direction that the same be used for the support and operation of the (Library, Infirmary, etc., etc.)."*

3. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN GUIDANCE CENTER

SAMUEL W. NEWELL, JR., Chairman

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College was established in September of 1952. Its purpose is to aid young people as they seek God's will for their lives. The Center specifically seeks to help young people know themselves better through personal interviews, tests, and vocational information. It further helps young people to know exactly what is involved in the various occupations they might consider. The final goal of the Center is to help young people realize that any worth-while work can become a Christian vocation as a person seeks to find and to use his talents where God needs them most and can use them best in the work of the world.

The Center is housed in a separate frame building on the campus of Flora Macdonald College. This facility, while neither extravagant nor lavish, is adequate for the size of the present staff. This past year has seen a marked increase in the ability of the Center to keep abreast of the newest testing materials. The following compose the present staff of the Center: Prof. Rodger Wayne Decker, Director; Dr. Price H. Gwynn, Jr., Dean of Flora Macdonald; Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr., Music; Prof. Larry Skinner, Music; Prof. John E. Williams, Organ; Dr. Leslie Bullock, Religion; Prof. Thomas Johnson, Journalism; Dr. Jack Beverly, Optometry; Dr. Charles Johnson, Medicine; Dr. George Stephenson, Dentistry.

A major effort is being made to up-grade the quality of services rendered by the Center. It has been found necessary to limit the size of the counselee group to six, which limitation allows the Director to have at least two interviews with each counselee. Individual reports are written to the local church of each counselee. During the current academic year, a total of 57 different groups have been tested at the Center, and as of May 1, 1958 16 additional groups have appointments Twenty groups desiring to use the facilities of the Center had to be turned down. Some 378 young people have used the facilities of the Guidance Center during the current academic year.

The Center operates on an annual budget of $10,000, $7,500 of which is the obligation of the Synod and $2,500 of Flora Macdonald College. Failure of some Presbyteries and local churches to contribute the full amount of Synod's askings is resulting, during the current year, in a default of a substantial portion of the Synod's $7,500 commitment. The current cost per counselee is approximately $25—about half the amount charged by high quality private guidance services.

In addition to the number of counselees given above, the Center furnished guidance to 201 students at Flora Macdonald College. In addition to his responsibilities for the direction of the Center, Mr. Decker also teaches nine semester hours in the college. He also filled 33 speaking engagements on behalf of the Center.

Plans for the coming year include the adidtion of another staff member to work as Associate Director of the Center. This is felt to be the best means of increasing the efficiency of the Center. The employment of an Associate Director should make possible a lower cost per counselee and the improvement of the quality of the services which are rendered.

Despite the increase in staff anticipated for the year 1958-59, no increase in the budget is requested of the Synod. The added expense of the new staff member will be absorbed by Flora Macdonald College.

It has been the policy of the Center from its beginning to make no professional charges of any kind. Any person recommended by a Presbyterian minister can use the services of the Center. It is hoped that there will be no change in this policy. Looking toward the future, the Director of the Center makes this statement: "The staff of the Center looks forward to the coming year with eagerness and enthusiasm. . . . We rejoice in the rich and rewarding experience of aiding young people to seek God's will in their lives. God has richly blessed this endeavor and your prayers for the continued success of the Center are earnestly solicited."

4. REPORT OF REPRESENTATIVE ON THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S ADVISORY COUNCIL ON HIGHER EDUCATION

By HALBERT M. JONES, Synod's Representative

Long-range studies of all of our Presbyterian colleges have been urged by the Advisory Council for several years. All of our colleges have now made these studies projecting needs and programs for the period through 1972. The plans for our North Carollina institutions and for all the Presbyterian colleges challenge our Synod to undertake heroic measures for its colleges and seminaries. Only by united effort will our Church measure up to the program in secular and private education and to its responsibilities and opportunities to exert a significant influence on our young people for the future through church-related education of the highest quality.

A program for bequests and deferred gifts for Presbyterian educational institutions was begun in 1957. Thirty-four laymen of the Church have been organized into a committee to promote bequests and deferred gifts throughout our membership. The Synod of North Carolina may wish to give consideration to the appointment of a Synod's Committee to implement and enlarge the work of the Assembly's Committee.

The Presbyterian Church is committed to a full responsibility in the total work of Christian higher education. A vital part of this work is the Christian ministry to the students and faculties on non-Presbyterian campuses through our Campus Christian Life program. This ministry must also move forward vigorously and with greatly enlarged support to meet the current needs of our young people.

The Vocation Guidance Program of the Church is increasing in scope and effectiveness. All local churches are urged to participate in these program and assist their young people to obtain professional guidance at our guidance centers.

V. REPORTS OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

Rev. R. T. Baker, Chairman

Your Committee on Annuities and Relief reports that it has distributed to the retired and infirm ministers of the Synod of North Carolina the following amounts from the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

September 23, 1957	$15,786.55	to 56 ministers
March 23, 1958	18,230.00	to 60 ministers
	$34,016.55

Your committee has made diligent effort to distribute these funds where the need is greatest among our retired and infirm ministers.

Your committee would call to the attention of the ministers of the Synod and to committees on Annuities and Relief in the Presbyteries the following recommendation adopted by the Synod in 1947 relating to the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

> "No minister, regardless of age, shall participate in the fund so long as he is employed in the regular exercise of the ministry." (Section 4/c, Minutes of Synod, 1947, page 544.)

The following report has been received from Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief:

Presbytery	No. Annuitants Receiving Grants	Amount	No. Beneficiaries Receiving Grants	Amount	Total No. Receiving Grants	Total Amount of Grants	Benevolence Received in 1957

♦–Total receipts from Synod of North Carolina 1956—$93,732.49

The present policy of making grants is as follows: to ministers who are members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund and their wives $2400.00, all income being considered; for widows or widowers, $1,500 on the same basis. For those who are not members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund, a minister and his wife may receive $2200.00, all income being considered; for widows and widowers, lay missionaries and orphans $1400.00 on the same basis.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod urges every Church of the Synod to take steps to see that each full-time lay employee be enrolled in the Employees' Annuity Fund.
2. That Synod urges all ministers and full-time employees to enroll in the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance Plan.
3. That Synod requests Presbyteries to include the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance Plan in each call of new ministers.
4. That in view of the vital importance of the Joy Gift to the beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief, churches be urged to place greater emphasis on the Joy Gift.
5. That the Synod engage in prayer for our retired ministers and their wives, remembering especially those who are sick.
6. That, pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief for twenty-five minutes.

B. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES

Rev. John G. Parks, Jr., Chairman

The reports and recommendations of all eight of our Assembly's General Fund Agencies have been received. Each report reflected real progress during the past year.

An examination of the work of each Agency and Institution reveals this important fact: Each invaluably contributes to making Presbyterians more intelligently informed about the heritage of their faith and more deeply committed to their task. The General Council does so through its stewardship promotion (this year it has a splendid new manual on the Pre-Budget Canvass); General Assembly Training School through training Directors of Christian Education; Stillman College through its fine ministry to future Negro leaders; Mountain Retreat Association through summer conferences; and the Historical Foundation through its collection of records.

In the bounds of this Synod, The American Bible Society has presented the means and the challenge to carry the Gospel to the non-church goer through Wayside Gospel Dispensers, has passed on to you from the Southern Baptist Men's Brotherhood a plan which was adopted by our Assembly's Men's Council, called "Laymen Witnessing Using A Handmarked New Testament," has offered to every church an evangelistic plan to provide a readable Bible in every home at no expense to the church, and has offered tools for leading the entire community in a period of Bible reading.

For our workers in Mission areas, The American Bible Society offers the Scriptures at less than the cost of production and distribution in order to advance the Kingdom by the churches' distribution of the Scriptures. Let us realize, however, the seriousness of the growing needs of the foreign field which, together with the emergencies which have arisen, have necessitated the spending for each of the last five years more than was received in contributions by the Bible Society.

We urge therefore, that the interest, support and prayers of our people be enlisted and encouraged by the use of the Society's free films and film strips, by presenting to the congregations from the pulpit and through church bulletins the work and the needs which the Society is meeting, with the constant reminder that this is the only official agency of our church in this worldwide missionary task.

Perhaps the most consistent challenge faced by our Board of Women's Work in 1957 had to do with the Women's Study of the Church-wide emphasis, "Christian Citizenship." The response to this challenge was very encouraging. Though some groups failed to see the challenge, choosing to use study material on some other theme, the number who followed this course was surprisingly small, even in those areas where had been heard the most vocal objections. On the part of the large majority, there was a very positive response: "A wider awakening to community responsibilities;" "aroused deep thought;" "more thoughtful and prayerful;" "wider concept of the Bible."

The Presbyterian Foundation (its greatly improved title due to the action of our Synod in dissolving its North Carolina Foundation) is slowly but definitely impressing Presbyterians with the fact that even after they have broken all earthly ties they can continue to have a part in the work of their church. There is a stewardship obligation not only for what we have now but for that which we cannot take with us.

MONTREAT

A very significant change in the charter of Montreat was effected during the past year. This has to do with making all trustees also directors, thereby "greatly broadening the base of interest and responsibility and bringing the entire personnel of the trustees into active participation in the affairs of the Association". Moreover, in keeping with the new plan, the trustees of the college are to be comprised of the trustees of the Association.

Even though Montreat is being carefully and efficiently managed, it is greatly handicapped by debts, and thus needs the financial support of our people.

Certainly our Assembly's General Fund Agencies deserve our full support through our benevolence giving.

Recommendations:

1. That all pastors be urged to recognize the important service that can be rendered for our benevolent causes by acquainting their people with the services of the Presbyterian Foundation and by inviting them in the making of wills to contribute to the ongoing work of their church.
2. That, in the light of the fact that the Women of the Church are making their financial reports through the Church Treasurer, local church Committees on Budget and Finance include at least two women.
3. That, pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. I. Stuart McElroy, District Secretary of the American Bible Society; Dr. John R. Cunningham, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Foundation; and Dr. Roy E. Watts, trustee of the Mountain Retreat Association.

JOHN G. PARKS, JR.

C. COMMITTEE ON HOMES

George McMillan, Chairman

Preamble

Your Committee on Homes convened May 26, 1958, in the Presbyterian Home at High Point, with six members present. A written report with a financial statement and comparative budgets for 1957, 1958, and 1959, on the Presbyterian Home were received by the Committee. Similar reports were recieved on the William Black Home. R. L. Corbett, a member of the Board of Regents of the Orphans' Home, made an oral report for that Agency of Synod and a 1959 budget was presented and received as information.

Your Committee trusts that all nine Presbyteries of the Synod will endorse and support the pending Campaign for the Presbyterian Home beginning September 1, 1958, with a goal of $750,000.00.

The William Black Home operates without benevolence support from the Synod, and in 1957 operated without a deficit.

It is the feeling of your Committee that greater use might be made for publicizing the Homes by the appearance of representatives of the Homes before meetings of Presbyteries and other bodies in the Synod. We, therefore, commend to all the churches and Presbyteries, not only the heads of the Homes, but the Chairmen of the Boards of Trustees and other leaders who might be invited to speak on behalf of the Homes.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod urge all Presbyteries to endorse the Campaign of the Presbyterian Home for capital funds in the amount of $750,000.00.
2. That Synod commend Regents and Trustees of the Homes and the administrative personnel for their leadership and conduct of the Homes.
3. That Synod urge Presbytery Committees on Homes to avail their Presbyteries of the services of representatives of Homes by inviting them to appear before Presbyteries and other church bodies.
4. That Synod urge Presbytery Committees on Homes to visit the Homes periodically.
5. That pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear W. H. Sullivan, president of the Presbyterian Home and the Rev. Albert B. McClure, Superintendent of the Orphans' Home.

George McMillan, Chairman

1. Presbyterian Orphans' Home

M. C. Benton, President

Under the providence of the Heavenly Father, another twelve-months period in the life of the Home has been completed. For nearly seven decades this place has been particularly blessed of God. Each member of the present Board would give thanks to Him for His abiding presence and watch-care which He has given to the boys and girls at Barium Springs.

The Regents have held the two regular meetings, one in the fall and one in the Spring. Good attendance was recorded at each of these meetings, with the members of the Board manifesting keen interest in the operations of the Home and devotion to the task assigned them by the Synod of North Carolina.

The Board determines all the policies of the Home and commits the carrying out of them to the Superintendent and his staff. The Board is organized in sub-committees which explore every phase of the life of the Home and with an Executive Committee with the power of decision when this is necessary between Board Meetings. It is the concept of the Board that an adequate organizational structure exists for the carrying on of the program of this child-caring institutoin.

The two new buildings mentioned in last year's report are now a reality and have been occupied since September. The occupants of these buildings have been delighted to live in them and they find them very homelike. The Home has been highly commended by all who have seen these buildings for their quality and the service which they render. Some outstanding leaders in the field of Child Care have nominated these buildings as being the most satisfactory that they have seen in recent years. The special gifts which made these possible are a real source of thanksgiving to God.

The admissions to the Home during the year have been less than normal. This, together with the opening of the two new buildings, has left some room on the campus. For the first time in years the buildings were not overcrowded and there is now room for intake for a large number of children during the coming year.

The high school completed its first full year at Troutman and the seniors were part of a graduating class of seventy-one. Of the fourteen honor students, six of them were from Barium Springs. Also, the Home had the Co-Valedictorian and the Co-Salutatorian. Thus, the conviction of the Board is sustained in the wisdom of having the high school moved to the Troutman consolidated school for the good of the boys and girls. The varsity athletic prgram will be maintained on the campus for another year, though it seems that inevitably there must be some blending of the athletic program with the full school program. The ten graduates, five boys and five girls, have spent, all told, ninety-two and one-half years on the campus. Their plans for next year include two business courses, one beautician's course, one X-ray technician's course, one Air Force enlistment, one Army volunteer, and three to college for sure, with the possibility of a fourth going also.

Special interest of the Board in addition to the general program of the Home centers in the realm of finance, farming, and faith. The Home has a tremendous operation on its farm, dairy, orchards and gardens. At the present time there are 60 Holsteins in the milking herd and approximately 75 Whiteface and Black Angus in the beef herd, with about twenty in the grade herd for beef. There are fifteen hundred fruit trees in a forty-acre orchard, plus the pecan grove. There are 90 acres improved pasture, 550 acres in cultivation. Mr. J. F. Stinson, faithful manager of the farm for many years, has reached the age of retirement. The Home feels exceedingly fortunate in having secured Roger Murdock, a college-trained County Agent, with practical experience and intense interest in Barium Springs, to head up this program. It is anticipated that under his leadership the already successful program of farming can be greatly enhanced.

As to finances, the Board would again register to the Synod its genuine concern and earnestly request the Synod to make necessary recommendation to the Presbyteries and local churches to insure reaching the goal for the Thanksgiving Offering. The Home is faced with the rising cost of living and is obligated to provide for the children who are accepted. It is, therefore, indispensable that the money for the budget be received if the work is to be carried on. On behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to commend the Superintendent and his staff for the fine job which is now being done with the funds available. In this area, as in all other phases of the work of the Home, they are doing a most outstanding job.

The third major point was the matter of Faith. Since the Synod of North Carolina met, the pastor of Little Joe's Church, the Reverend Robert Collins, felt led of the Lord to accept a call to Mexico, Missouri, and left the campus at the first of January. The members of the Board and the administration of the Home felt that the Hand of God has been particularly manifest in the securing of a successor for Mr. Collins. The Reverend Hugh B. Carter has been called from the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in South Boston, Virginia, and began his work at Barium Springs the last part of June. It is the expectation of the congregation, the campus, and the Board of Regents that his years will be fruitful in the leadership of the Church. As the Home has reached out into the community for school activities and social activities, so also it is anticipated that the Church may now become a community center, not only for the Home but for others in and around Barium Springs, thus fortifying the heart and life of the campus through the service and worship at Little Joe's Presbyterian Church.

One closing word about the Memorial Fund which continues and which is now made applicable to the education or training of boys and girls after graduation at the Home. The Home can now, with confidence, say that a way will be provided and for those who need special training in some chosen field that adequate resources will be available. Thus, the friends of the Home who continue to send in Memorial gifts are investing in these boys and girls after Barium and also serving as an inspiration to them while they are in the Home, as they look forward to their years after graduation.

2. The Presbyterian Home, Inc.

W. H. SULLIVAN, President

The Board of Trustees respectfully reports the major activities of the Home during the past year:

The Board met for two regular sessions and the Executive Committee met five times for the transaction of business during the year 1957.

The books of the Home were audited by A. M. Pullen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, and the audit showed capital worth of $747,448.75 as of December 31, 1957. This report shows a gain in capital for the year of $61,502.98.

Ten apartments were constructed and donors started occupying these in May 1957. Apartment residents enjoy the privacy and convenience of this facility, and yet have the full protection of all services in the Home. These members pay the regular monthly cost of care.

Every effort has been made by our Board of Trustees to make The Presbyterian Home truly a home and not an institution; that it be a comfortable and attractive haven for those persons who live here so that pleasant surroundings will inspire happiness, congeniality along with security for those in their summit years of life. Every room in the Home has been furnished as a memorial.

There was an average of 71 members in the Home and there were nine deaths during the year. During the 6½ years that the Home has been in operation, 110 persons have come to know the security of this Home.

At the present time, there are over 50 applications in our file from persons who need the Home. Every day we see the ever-increasing need of additional facilities to care for our elderly people. Your Board of Trustees in trying to keep pace with the ever-increasing need requested authorization to put on a campaign for $750,000, and the Synod at its 1957 meeting approved this campaign request. This money is to be used to build (1) a new wing to house 46, (2) a 40 to 50 bed infirmary, (3) a chapel if there be sufficient funds. This campaign is to be completed by May 1, 1959.

The Board feels that you must visit the Home to see the Members and the service being rendered here to fully appreciate the Home. Won't you please take every opportunity to see for yourself the wonderful service that is being rendered our elderly people.

The Executive Director R. A. Short or any member of the Board is readily available at any time to show colored slides and tell the story of the Home.

The Board of Trustees owes a debt of gratitude to all who have had a part in making the Home what it is today. The challenge of meeting our growing needs depends on each one of us.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. SULLIVAN, President

3. William Black Home

REV. R. H. STONE, President

The William Black Home has sustained a great loss in the passing of Dr. E. E. Gillespie, for many years the president of the Board of Trustees and the moving spirit in its operation and administration. Plans for the coming season were made with his approval. His active and vital interest continued up to within a few days of his passing on February 22nd.

The Home will be open for guests for the 1958 season on June 14th. Mrs. Ray H. Waltman, our reservation clerk, has announced that for several of the conferences the Home has been reserved for its capacity. Mrs. Arthur H. Moore, of Rock Hill, S. C., an experienced person for this type of service, has been secured for manager. Her desk assistant is Mrs. Catoe. Mrs. Lille Cansler Yount and her assistant, Mrs. Dixie Beard Forbis, who gave such splendid dietetical service last year, will be with us again.

From time to time improvements are being made. Gracious gifts from the Women of the Churches and individuals makes this possible. Our big problem of more parking space has not been met, though often considered, because of lack of space.

Last season with the income from the J. Harvey White Fund and a supplement from our earnings eighteen guests, two from each Presbytery, were entertained for the week of the Church Extension Conference.

Your Board feels that the Home is rendering the fine service for which it was planned. God has been blessing its yearly operation.

D. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

The Reverend John R. Cunningham, Chairman

The Committee on Inter-Church Relations met at the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, on May 13, 1958. At that time the entire work for which the Committee is responsible was reviewed. Since most of the duties of the Committee on Inter-

Church Relations center in the work of the North Carolina Council of Churches, major attention was given to a message from the Reverend Morton R. Kurtz, Executive Director; and reports from the Christian Rural Overseas Program, Mr. E. Reginald Price, Chairman; Migrant Work, the Reverend Thomas T. Traynham, Chairman; and the Rural Church, the Reverend R. T. Baker, Chairman.

All of these agencies are cooperative ones bespeaking the active interest of our churches in the Synod in these causes which need and secure, to a certain extent, the cooperation of all of our Protestant churches. It is gratifying, though not surprising, to see the extent to which Presbyterians have taken leadership in the whole inter-church field and have rendered outstanding service.

With regard to the Allied Church League, Mr. R. D. Grier, Chairman, the Committee took the following action by unanimous vote: "That in view of the fact that the Allied Church League is a denominational agency rather than inter-denominational, and, further, in view of the fact that the North Carolina Council of Churches now has a committee in the general field of alcoholism, the Committee on Inter-Church Relations recommends to the Stewardship Committee of Synod that an appropriation of $1,000.00 be added to the appropriation for the North Carolina Council of Churches fr 1959 to be used for promoting the study of and the educational program of the Committee on alcoholism."

Plans are now being made for the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the North Carolina Council of Churches in 1961.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod approve of the item in the 1959 Benevolence Budget, to be presented by the Council, in the amount of $4,000 for the North Carolina Council of Churches; $1,000 of which be designated for promoting the alcohol study and educational program of the Council.
2. That the Synod approve of affiliation of the Inter-Church Relations Committee with the North Carolina Family Life Council.
3. That the Synod express its keen interest in the proposed 25th anniversary celebration of the North Carolina Council of Churches in 1961.
4. That, pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear the Rev. Morton R. Kurtz, Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches, and Mrs. B. Frank Hall, Chairman of the Department of United Church Women of the NCCC.

John R. Cunningham, Chairman

1. Highlights of 1957-1958
North Carolina Council of Churches' Program

The Council's Annual Meeting, held January 28-29, 1958 at High Point, was one of the best in its history. The First Presbyterian Church served as host to the Council's department of United Church Women. Presbyterians elected to office in the NCCC were: Dr. Harold J. Dudley, Raleigh, first vice-president; Mrs. B. Frank Hall, Wrightsville Beach, fourth vice-president and chairman of the Women's Department; Mrs. P. Hunter Dalton, High Point, secretary; Mr. Voit Gilmore, Southern Pines, and Dr. Harry M. Moffett, Jr., Gastonia, members-at-large on the Executive Committee for three-year terms.

Highlights of the Council's 1957-1958 program include:

Christian Education:

An excellent Family Life Conference, limited to invited ministers was held April 21-22, 1958, in Durham. A similar conference has been set for April 27-28, 1959.

The College Work Committee sponsors the N. C. Student Christian Council, composed of college students of all denominations. The Council holds a conference for students each Spring.

The Department on the Use and Understanding of the Bible work lost its staff member, the Rev. Carl E. Key, at the end of 1957, but this Bible emphasis program continues through the Council of Churches office. A Bible Study one-day conference was held in Greenville last October.

Weekday Bible teaching continues to reach over 33,000 boys and girls in our high schools and elementary schools. A new program begins next Fall in Belmont. Dean Price H. Gwynn, Flora Macdonald College, is the new chairman of this Committee.

A new Youth Work Committee has been formed this year to coordinate the program of UCYM (United Christian Youth Movement). Dr. Boyd Daniels, Duke University, heads this committee.

Christian Social Action:

A new committee on Alcoholism, headed by Roy Barham, Chaplain at the Alcohol Center, Butner, has been formed to work for an educational program designed to strike both at the causes and the effects of the alcohol traffic.

A conference for Troubled Persons, sponsored by the Institutiona Ministry Committee, was held at State Hospital, Raleigh, this April 30th.

The Council's Public Affairs Committee reports to the Churches on matters of moral and spiritual interest emanating from the legislature in Raleigh as well as from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Harold J. Dudley serves on this committee, along with Dr. William C. Bennett.

The committee on National and World Affairs serves as co-sponsor for the World Affairs Conference held annually in Chapel Hill, and also for the Blue Ridge Conference taking place this Summer.

A four-page documentation on progress in Human Relations in the South was presented and approved by a sub-committee of this Commission at the Council's Annual Meeting.

Ecumenical Relations:

The Radio-TV Committee for the third year produced a television series over WUNC-TV, Channel 4, running from February 10th through May. Among the programs was one on Christian Higher Education, featuring Rev. Charles Lynn Brown, Chairman of the Synod Committee in that field.

Pastoral Ministry:

An excellent Pastors Conference with over 200 in attendance was held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting in High Point. Dr. Andrew W. Blackwood and Dr. Waldo Beach were the speakers. A similar conference has been planned January 7, 1959, in Durham.

Migrant Ministry:

1957 saw the most extensive ministry to our 15,000 migrants since the Council's program began in 1951. Ten staff workers, plus supervisors, were employed to reach the camps in Camden, Currituck, Pasquotank, Carteret, Tyrrell, and Henderson Counties, and to serve the Child Care Centers in Elizabeth City and Hendersonville. The Elizabeth City Child Care Center was formally opened in June. The ministry in Carteret County was the first held in that area. Albert G. Harris, Jr., Minister of First Presbyterian Church, Morehead City, was among those instrumental in launching the new program.

A special ministry to the victims of the tragic highway accident near Fayetteville where twenty-eight migrants lost their lives was carried out for the Council of Churches by Robert A. Massey, minister of College Hill Church, Fayetteville.

Plans this year call for carrying forward all of last year's program, and in addition, exploring the possibilities of yet another new ministry in the Mount Olive area, where up to 1,000 migrants are employed in peak periods.

Miss Ada McRackan, a member of West Raleigh Presbyterian Church, is rendering outstanding service as chairman of the Migrant Work Committee. The Council's Department of United Church Women has raised several thousand dollars in the past three years to purchase a station wagon and to launch the two child-care centers. More is needed to adequately support and extend this vital Christian ministry of preaching, Bible teaching, counselling, planned recreation, and child care.

Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP)

CROP in North Carolina lost its staff director, Ralph Jacks, in June, 1957 when he returned to the pastorate. Since costs were considered too high in proportion to receipts, the program is now being continued on a volunteer basis for 1958, with the Council of Churches office serving as CROP headquarters. A goal of $15,000—approximately the same as received in 1957—has been set for this year.

CROP consistently is able to send up to three hundred (300) pounds or more of food overseas for every dollar collected. This is distributed by church workers in every part of the world where people are hungry. Refugees from Communism, victims of war, those temporarily rendered homeless by flood, earthquake, or hurricane, and the millions who live in lands where inadequate food supply causes perennial starvation, are all given help as well as hope through CROP.

The Council office has films, materials, and help to offer any church or group interested in assisting this program.

Sundry:

Other Council activities included collection of 68,000 lbs. of clothing for overseas relief, listing of foreign students in the state, and holding of a Rural Church Institute at Elizabeth City April 25, 1958.

E. COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Rev. J. R. McAlpine, Chairman

Twenty years ago this year the General Assembly of 1938 took an official action creating Commissions on the Minister and His Work in the presbyteries, and Committees on the Minister and His Work in the synods and in the General Assembly. During this time a great deal of progress has been made in the way these Commissions and Committees have discharged their responsibilities in this area of the life of our Church. Therefore, at this Synod meeting your Committee would like to convey to Mr. Graham White, Secretary of the Assembly's Committee, its gratitude for the tremendous help and cooperation which have been given through his office.

At the invitation of the Chairman, Mr. J. B. Brewer, your chairman attended the first meeting of the committee appointed by Synod to study the whole question of salaries being paid to the ministers of our Synod. More will be said further in our report about the work of this committee. Your chairman also attended the annual meeting of the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work which was held in February of this year. We met in Louisville in order that part of our time might be spent in joint session with the Department of Ministerial Relations of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. Synod's Committee met in May. To this meeting were invited both members of Presbyteries' Commissions, Executive Secretaries, and chairmen of Committees of Annuities and Relief. Since there is some overlapping in the duties of Commissions on the Minister and His Work, Annuities and Relief Committees, and Executive Secretaries, we invited Mr. Charles Currie of the Board of Annuities and Relief and Mr. White to meet with us to discuss these matters. We feel that this conference was very worthwhile and hope to continue such conferences in the future.

On the basis of these meetings and conferences, your Committee makes the following recommendations:

(1) That the action of the 1941 General Assembly (page 110, G. A. Minutes) be called to the attention of each Commission on the Minister and His Work, and that the Commissions observe the practice of keeping separate minutes; (a) when they serve as committees and (b) when they serve as commissions.

(2) That the Commissions make a careful study of the DIGEST OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY ACTIONS for Commissions and Committees on the Minister and His Work, which has been prepared by Mr. White and recently placed in the hands of the chairmen of Commissions and Committees.

(3) That Presbyteries consider very carefully the proposed changes in the Book of Church Order, which will limit the functions of the present Commissions on the Minister and His Work.

(4) That Sessions of churches be urged to comply with the action of the 1958 General Assembly concerning the reading of the statement, THE FREEDOM OF THE PULPIT.

(5) That we call attention to the fact that any changes in the official call, which is the contract between the minister and the church, must be approved by the congregation and the Presbytery. These changes must be presented directly to the Presbytery for approval or to it through the Commission on the Minister and His Work.

(6) That the Synod commend Mr. J. B. Brewer and the members of the Committee appointed by Synod to study ministers' salaries for their diligence and dedication to this task, and urge the cooperation of all churches and Presbyteries in carrying out their recommendations.

(7) That Synod continue the Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries, requesting and empowering the Committee to continue its work towards the accomplishment of recommendations adopted; and requesting the Committee to consider including a study of the salaries of the ministers employed by the institutions and agencies of Synod; and also to make any additional investigations the Committee may deem necessary.

G. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Harold J. Dudley, Chairman

Recommendations:

1. That Rule 24:1a., relating to Term of Office of members of Committees be amended to read as follows:

   No member of the Executive Committee or of the Synod's Council shall serve more than two consecutive terms, without a year elapsing; no member of any other Committee shall serve longer than one three-year term, without a year elapsing. In case of Presbytery representatives, where the rule would be violated, such as by a Class representative being elected a Presbytery representative at the expiration of the full limit of his service, he shall be ineligible to serve until one year has elapsed, and the Presbytery should name another representative in his place. Part of a term shall not be considered as a term unless the unexpired term being filled shall be for more than one-half of that term.

2. That Rule 24:3d., relating to Reports to Synod, be amended to read as follows:

   Committees, except the Council and the Committee on Nominations, shall place, through their chairmen, copies of their Reports to Synod, in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod, not later than thirty days before the meeting of Synod.

3. That Rule 28:1 be amended to read:

   The annual Stated Meeting of Synod shall be held as early in June as practicable, and with the concurrence of Synod's Council, the first session to begin at 2 p.m. on a Tuesday, unless otherwise ordered. The Synodical year shall end April 30.

4. That Rule 32:3 be amended to read:

   The names of the Ministers of Synod who have died during the Synodical year shall be read in connection with the annual Communion Service, and an adequate memorial of each, not to exceed approximately 500 words, shall be printed in the Minutes of Synod.

5. That a new Standing Rule be added to define the new Permanent Committee on Christian Relations, as follows:

   Membership to comprise the Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:7d)., and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

   Functions:

   To observe and study the society of our day, and report to Synod such conditions and customs, movements and trends therein as are properly matters for consideration and witness-bearing of a Church Court, with recommendations as to what action should be taken, or witness borne by Synod concerning them.

6. That a new Standing Rule be added to define a new Permanent Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts as follows: Membership: There shall be seven members of the Committee, one of whom shall be nominated as Chairman, to serve a term of three years, but eligible for re-election. As a rule, though not necessarily, members shall be laymen, preferably persons familiar with the whole area of wills, bequests, and deferred gifts. Functions: The functions of the Committee shall be to funish information to the Synod and to advise individuals, churches, and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to educational institutions and other agencies of the Synod.
7. That a new Standing Rule be added, as follows:
   No new matter may be introduced to Synod later than recess for supper on the second day of the meeting of Synod.
8. That we answer in the affirmative an overture from the Committee on Nominations to amend Rule 4:2 by adding the words, "except Boards of Institutions which have no limited tenure of office", after the words, "vacancies occurring in any office of Synod".
9. That the portion of the Report which was placed on the docket for final adoption at this meeting of Synod, and not affected by the Report of the Committee at this meeting, be finally adopted.
10. That the Standing Rules of Synod be suspended in order that the recommendations in this Report may become effective at this meeting of Synod.

H. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK

JAMES R. CROOK, Chairman

It has been a privilege to work with the Women of the Church in our Synod during the past year. The Women have always furnished leadership and inspiration in the work of the Presbyterian Church from the local church through Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly. We note with interest that the past year has been no exception to this brilliant record.

We are happy to report that there seems to be a growing desire on the part of the leaders of Women of Synod to integrate their program very closely with the program of the Church at large, and to coordinate with Sessions, Presbyteries and the Synod.

We recommend that the Women of the Synod be commended for their faithful and diligent service to Christ and His Church, and that we hear the report of the Women of the Church, Synod of North Carolina as presented by Mrs. R. A. Willis, President.

JAMES R. CROOK, Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE WOMEN-OF-THE-SYNOD

MRS. R. A. WILLIS, President

The 1957 program of the Women of the Church is based on the Assembly approved emphasis, Christian Citizenship, using the plans and materials prepared by the boards and agencies of the General Assembly. Through the programs of the general meetings, the circle Bible study, the circle "Let's Talk About" period using Presbyterian Women and Presbyterian Survey as source publications, and the special Bible study, women were led to think of their citizenship as part of their total life as Christians. Members are realizing that Christianity is a way of life that is not only practical but a way of life that must be practiced.

Through the committee plan under the direction of committee chairmen Spiritual Growth and Stewardship, World Missions and White Cross, Church Extension and Christian Education, Intergroup Work, the Joy Gift and work with older people, and General Fund Agencies, the total program of the church is included in the program of the Women of the Church.

During January the following groups met for one day conferences to plan the year's work: The Synodical Executive Committee; The Presbyterian Presidents; and the Synodical Committee Chairmen. The Program Committee beginning its work as a prayer group met throughout the year.

The Birthday offering was larger this year but the per capita giving was still at the bottom of the Synodical list. Benevolence giving increases and the membership gain is substantial.

Officer training and leadership education has advanced through attendance at Montreat Training School and conferences, Synodical Training School and Presbyterial-wide and local training classes. The Synodical Training School had the largest attendance in the history of the school and necessitated finding larger quarters for the 1958 school.

By sponsoring the Interdenominational Christian Conference at Teachers College, Winston-Salem, and through Presbyterial sponsored One Day Christian Conferences, and our work with the Department of Church Women of the North Carolina Council of Churches, we are privileged to work with other Christian women.

Spiritual Retreats, Missions Institutes, planned itineraries of World Mission and Church Extension speakers have widened our spiritual horizons. Through visitation evangelism and work with unorganized groups many have been enlisted for Christ.

Members of the Women of the Church are privileged to serve on Synod's council, boards, and committees. The entire membership is encouraged to prepare for service on local, Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly boards, committees, and councils.

Family attendance at Sunday School and Church services and participation in church programs and activities increases. Christion Vocational Guidance and Campus Christian Life work are challenging church families with need for support. There is need for a willingness on the part of women to serve in places of leadership with youth in the local church. Parents and leaders of youth are challenged to present church vocation its wide choice of service to the young people of the church.

Our goal for 1958 is to reach and inspire every woman in the church for a more responsible church membership as we study the Nature and Mission of the Church realizing "The foundation is laid, namely, Jesus Christ, and no one can lay any other."

There are 578 local Women of the Church organizations having 2,213 circles with 54,005 members in the Synod.

I. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD MISSIONS

Rev. S. C. Farrior, Chairman

"Our Foreign Mission work has been fruitful beyond the fondest hopes of our early pioneers. Ninety-seven years is but a fleeting moment in the long span of history. There are people living today who have seen the whole development of our mission enterprise from its beginning until now. An unbelievable transformation has taken place. The unbroken darkness which confronted our missionaries ninety-seven years ago is today punctuated by a thousand points of light, as the Gospel has set the lamps aglow all around the world. Where Christ was absolutely unknown, there now stand strong national churches with their sessions, presbyteries, synods, and general assemblies."

With these words, Rev. C. Darby Fulton, D.D., Executive Secretary of the Board of World Missions, began, in March, a brief review of the work of our Board at that time.

In our report last year it was pointed out that one of the great objectives of all foreign missionary endeavor is the establishment in each country of strong national churches which are able to take on the responsibilities of their own support, and government and the members of which shall be fired with the same zeal to make Christ known that has moved the church down the ages to proclaim the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ. Jesus said, "I will build my Church." Evidence increases through the years that He is doing just that in our time. In practically every one of our fields indigenous churches have come into being, numbering thousands of members, self-supporting, self-governing and self-propagating. The Church in the Congo with a communicant membership of 70,000 is moving steadily toward ecclesiastical maturity. It is growing not only in size but in leadership as well and is today organized in ten presbyteries. This church last year sent its first official representatives to this country when Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Kanyinda spent nearly four months in this country, being present at a number of conferences and visiting churches in different parts of the Assembly.

Another example of the growing indigenous church is the recent transfer by our West Brazil Mission of a group of seven churches with their pastors, congregations and property to the Presbyterian Church of Brazil, thus forming an entirely new presbytery. It was only a few years ago that our missiionaries began work in this territory.

In Korea the Presbyterian Church is fully organized with tis own General Assembly and presbyteries. Our missionaries in Korea are working entirely within the framework of the national church. The church in Japan has been, for many years, entirely independent of the Foreign Missions and the foreign missionaries. The Church in China carries on though the missionaries have been out of China for a number of years now. Reports constantly come of new baptisms and new churches being built, even though in many places the church suffers from Communist pressure. So Christ is building His church throughout the world.

He is building His Church but He is doing it with men and women as His instruments, we men and women here at home and those who represent us on our mission fields. Figures may be dull but they do help to bring home to us our responsibilities in this connection. We, as a Church, have assumed the responsibility for making Christ known to some 40,000,000 people on the foreign field. This responsibility is ours alone, unshared by any other denomination. This is about the same as the total population of the Southern States. Many other denominations work in the Southern States, so it is estimated that the responsibility of the Presbyterian Church U. S. is not over 10,000,000. "Yet, last year our Church spent $23.00 on the 10,000,000 at home for every one dollar that she spent on the 40,000,000 abroad," ninety-two times as much on every individual at home as on an individual abroad. Is this a right proportion, when we remember that scarcely anybody in this country is out of walking distance of a church, and hardly anybody walks any more, while in Mexico recently a delegation rode twelve hours on horseback to invite an evangelist to visit their village? Only one minister serves 15 towns in the Rio Balsas Valley.

In 1954 the General Assembly, in the Forward With Christ Program, set a goal of a net gain of 168 missionaries by the end of 1957. The actual net gain was 85, exceeding half the number asked for by 1. Where are the 83 who did not answer the call? In 1956 our Synod gave almost a hundred thousand dollars more to World Missions than it did in 1954. Last year we gave almost $20,000.00 less than we did the previous year. Seven Presbyteries out of the nine in the Synod gave less in 1957 than they did in 1956. The Board this last year had a budget of a little more than $3,500,000.00 with a total missionary force of 504. Dr. Fulton states that "On the basis, not of fantastic estimates but of urgent and realistic calls from the field, our Church should be looking forward to a force of 750 missionaries and a budget of $5,500,000 a year for foreign missions."

Not only does the supreme need of Christless millions of people challenge us to all possible endeavor to carry the Gospel to them. The response to our efforts challenges us to greater effort. Apart from additions to the national churches, for those figures are not included in the report of the Board, in the churches and congregations still under missionary care, additions on professions of faith last year reached the record figure of 11,866. Almost 55,000 students were enrolled in the 1,184 schools, and 161,381 patients were treated in our 15 hospitals. The largest woman's school in Japan is the Southern Presbyterian related Kinjo Gakuin in Nagoya with over 5,000 girls enrolled in its six departments.

These forty million people without Christ confront us today with the challenge to examine our loyalty to Christ and our willingness to obey His command to go and make disciples of all nations, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever He has commanded us.

The Department of Overseas Relief and Inter-Church Aid reports administering aid in the amount of $251,414.77, of which $104,046.47 was received in the special Easter Offering. In addition 160-928 pounds of clothing and some 30,000,000 pounds of food was distributed.

Recommendations:

1. That all of our churches and church members be urged to engage in earnest prayer that God may deepen our concern for those who, out of our sight and contact, are allowed to be born into this world, live and die without the saving knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

2. That pastors and sessions be on the alert for well-qualified prospective missionaries and that the names of such persons be sent to the Candidate Secretary, Rev. Eugene Daniel.
3. That Prebytery and Presbyterial Chairmen be urged to cooperate with the Division of Itineration of the Board of World Missions in making the widest possible use throughout the year of missionaries on furlough; also that members of the Board and others with special knowledge of missions be used as widely as possible in churches, schools and conferences.
4. That each pastor be urged to preach on World Missions and to keep this obligation constantly before his people.
5. That each church be urged to put into effect an adequate program of missionary education, especially during the World Mission Season.
6. That, pending the adoption of this report, the Synod hear an address by the Reverend George Thompson Brown of our Korea Mission.

VI. REPORTS OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEES

A. LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERS' SALARIES

J. B. Brewer, Chairman

It was my pleasure and honor to address the Synod of North Carolina on June 25, 1957 at its meeting at Montreat, N. C. on the subject of Ministers' Salaries. At that time I pointed out to the Synod of North Carolina certain facts which I was able to obtain by making a study of Ministers' salaries in Albemarle Presbytery during the year 1955. These facts were as follows:

1. Our Presbyterian Ministers are the most highly educated class in our Society and at the same time they are the most underpaid of all the professions in the world.

2. Our Book of Church Order clearly points out the duty of the Church to provide salaries which would in a reasonable manner free our Ministers from worldly care. Therefore, a living wage for our Ministers is not only a necessity, but an obligation of the Church.

3. We in the Church make a mockery of the thing we call our Ministers' Salaries. We establish a minimum salary for our Ministers and then require our Ministers to pay many costs of conducting their ministry out of their salaries. Only in the Church is this ever done. Our Ministers are certainly entitled to have their established salaries and this principle of requiring them to pay the expenses of the Church should be stopped immediately.

4. At the same time, I furnished to the Synod of North Carolina a study of the salaries of other business and professional men, as well as workers in all types of construction and industry, in order that you could have a definite picture of exactly where our Ministers stand in the economic picture of our country.

At the meeting of Synod on June 25, 1957, after my address to you, I was appointed Chairman of a Special Committee of Laymen to make a Synod-wide study of our Ministers' salaries. On this commitete the following were appointed:

Albemarle—Dan Mizelle, W. S. Clark & Son, Merchants, Tarboro.

Concord—David Andrews, Insurance Executive, Statesville.

Fayetteville—R. D. McMillan, Automobile & Farm Equipment Dealer, Red Springs.

Granville—A. P Hassell, Jr., Chief Administrative Section, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Raleigh.

Kings Mountain—William A. Mason, Attorney, Bank Building, Belmont.

Mecklenburg—Tom Ruff, Attorney, Charlotte.

Orange—Steve White, Furniture Manufacturer, Mebane.

Wilmington—George I. Mitchell, Purchasing Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, Wilmington.

Winston-Salem—Paul Blackwelder, Farmer, Mocksville.

We held our organizational meeting in August 1957 at the First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C., with one hundred per cent attendance, and our committee has been meeting from time to time with most all meetings fully attended. Your committee was interested in and most disturbed about the financial problem of our Ministers. We prepared a questionnaire, and these were mailed to every Minister in the Synod of North Carolina, together with a letter of explanation, both from this committee and a letter from the Committee on the Minister and His Work. We received approximately 365 completed Questionnaires, and we decided to omit from our study the Questionnaires of Executive Secretaries, Professors in Seminaries and Colleges, Retired Ministers, etc., so that we could actually study the financial problem of the Minister in the pastorate. Our report, therefore, is made to the Synod of North Carolina based upon the actual study of the salaries of 339 Presbyterian Ministers in the Synod of North Carolina.

Our committee arranged all Questionnaires according to Presbyteries. After preparing a uniform basis of study for all Presbyteries, the Questionnaires of the Ministers of each Presbytery were delivered to the ay Member of our committee representing that Presbytery. It was his job to get all the facts, which we had decided we should know. We determined the number of Churches served, total Membership served, dependent children and other dependents, children in college, salaries, fees, allowances, mileage for driving cars, money spent for books and periodicals, Minister's Annuity, and other known expenses, and from this study we arrived at the average net take-home pay. A work week of 58 hours was established for our Ministers and from this we arrived at the hourly rate based upon their net salary. We also made a study of the yearly cost per member served, net earnings per church served, and annual cost for the purchasing of automobiles, life insurance carried and the premiums they paid on life insurance. You can therefore understand that our study was in great detail and very comprehensive. A copy of the printed form is attached hereto and a copy furnished to the representatives of the Synod of North Carolina present here today.

We also made a study of comparative compensation of other business, professional, and working men, and a copy of this study is also attached and has been delivered to the representatives of the Synod present today.

We now request you to look at the printed report of our committee and turn to the heading "Home Mission Minister". You will note that this is based upon a study of 82 Home Mission Ministers, and it is the average of these Ministers. Some are better off and a great number of them are much worse off than this report shows. You will see that we have included all items of income and allowances, and to this we have added $480.00 for Manse rent, in order to get their total gross income. There were questions in our committee concerning the use of the figure of $480.00 for Manse rent. We realize that many new Manses have been built and that this figure would be too low for some of them. There are many laymen with homes comparable to the Manses whose monthly house payments are approximately $40.00. Our idea was to make this study by placing the Minister on the same financial basis as the average business, professional or working man. Immediately underneath this figure you find that the average expenses of the 82 Home Mission Ministers was $1,094.59. This is the sum of money which they must take from their own salaries in order to conduct their ministry, and when this is deducted from their gross income, including the Manse, they have a take-home pay for $3,586.79. Based upon the 58-hour week it figures only $1.19 per hour, whereas the minimum Federal Wage Law requires $1.00 per hour for common labor in Interstate Commerce. This is what we pay our Presbyterian Ministers in the Home Mission Field with four years of College and three years of Seminary education. You will note also the other figures concerning the earning per Church Member served, net earnings per Church served, and his own personal status.

Our committee took this figure and worked with the purchasing power of this amount of money in relationship to the purchasing power of the dollar in 1940. Our Ministers in 1940, earning $1,774.00 including his Manse could buy the same materials and goods which he could buy in 1957 for $3,586.00. This points out very graphically how inflation has passed our Ministers by and the terrible position in which they find themselves. They are entitled to be able to dress decently, educate their children, provide for a reasonable amount of life insurance, and certainly we are not making it possible for them to do these things under the present salary and allowance schedule, when they must pay heavy expenses of the Church from the salary which is given to them. By no stretch of the imagination can we say that we do, in a reasonable manner, free them from worldly care.

Look again at the net figure of $3,586.79. Take off the $480.00 for the Manse, and you have then $3,106.79. All of our Ministers tithe, though this is not shown in our report. Take another $400.00 off for their tithe and you have a net figure of $2,706.79, which figures $229.57 a month or $52.05 a week. This actually is what they have to live on. If we compare this with the purchasing power of the dollar in 1940, a Minister having $25.00 a week in 1940 was able to buy the same goods and materials which he can purchase today with actually what he has left in money, but not including his Manse.

Look with me at the study of Ministers of small self-supporting Churches which pay salaries up to $5,000.00. His status, including his Manse, (allowance for Manse based upon fifteen per cent of salary) gives him a net figure of $4,246.83 or $1.41 per hour. A Minister in 1940 receiving $2,101.35, including the Manse, could buy the same goods which the average of these 173 Ministers can buy with money available for them today. Note also that they, on the average, must pay $1,086.75 out of their salaries and allowances for professional expenses which should be paid as a part of the current expense budget of their Churches. This is really a very terrible thing and should and must be stopped as a policy of our Churches.

You will also note that we have broken down the study of the Home Mission Minister by Presbyteries and you will note the other two groups of Ministers which we studied. I shall not take time to try to comment upon these last two groups because the facts speak for themselves.

From last March until the meeting of Synod here today, our committee of Laymen have been talking to the Men's Organizations of many of our Presbyteries and to the Men's Group of individual Churches. We have spent our time giving these facts to our people for our committee sincerely believes that the Laymen and Laywomen of our Church will not permit this condition to exist any longer. We have also requested places on the program of the Women of the Presbyteries and also at the annual meeting of the Women of the Synod. It is our purpose to continue to speak for our Ministers because we realize that they cannot say one word in their own behalf. We have also requested the Men of the Synod to adopt this as their major project for the year 1958-1959.

For all the reasons mentioned in this report, the committee of Laymen appointed by Synod to study Ministers' salaries makes the following recommendations to the Synod of North Carolina: (Recommendations 1-4 be recommendations to Presbyteries of the Synod of North Carolina.)

1. That all salaries of Ministers be considered in the future on a net basis. That all expenses of Ministers be taken care of by the Churches they serve through their current expense budget. That steps be taken by the Presbyteries to reimburse the Home Mission Minister for his professional expenses in the conduct of his ministry.

2. That it would take approximately $1,100.00 a year, on the average, to reimburse the Home Mission Minister for professional expenses. That a start be made immediately on this undertaking. Because of the large sum involved the Presbyteries be given three years to work this out, with one-third of the professional expenses of the Minister being assumed the first year, two-thirds the second year and then the final third during the third year.

3. That each Minister in our Synod be allowed by the Church or Presbytery the sum of $75.00 per year for books and periodicals for the purpose of continued study and improvement.

4. That each Minister in the Synod of North Carolina be provided with hospitalization insurance for themselves and their families at Church or Presbytery expense.

5. That a copy of the Study of Ministers' Salaries in the Synod of North Carolina together with the study made of corresponding salaries in other professions be sent to each officer of each church in the Synod of North Carolina and also to the President of the "Women of the Church" in each Church in the Synod.

6. That the Synod of North Carolina request the Presbyterian Survey to print the "Study of Ministers' Salaries" together with the report of this committee to the Synod.

7. That a deeper understanding on the part of Laymen and Laywomen of the work of the ministry is basic to the study of Ministers' salaries. That each Presbyterian be urged to understand that our Ministers are entitled to be reasonably free from worldly care and that our church immediately take all steps necessary to accomplish this requirement as outlined in our "Book of Church Order".

Our entire committee thanks you for the privilege of serving the Synod of North Carolina.

B. REPORT ON PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY CAMPAIGN

Rev. Harold J. Dudley, Chairman

Mr. Ted Pratt, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Survey, Richmond, Virginia, reports that through July 8, 1958, there were 175,632 paid subscriptions. This represents an increase of approximately 125,000 during the past twelve months.

Thirty-seven per cent of the churches of the Synod of North Carolina are enrolled in the Every-Family Plan. By Presbyteries, the standing is as follows:

Kings Mountain	57.7%	Mecklenburg	33.3%
Wilmington	47.0%	Orange	33.3%
Albemarle	45.0%	Winston-Salem	26.0%
Concord	44.0%	Fayetteville	20.0%
Granville	36.0%

The Synod of North Carolina is organized with ministerial and lay chairmen in each Presbytery. The Committee members attended the regional meeting last September for setting up the campaign in North Carolina, and there will be another regional meeting held in Charlotte, September 11-12. The chairmen in each of the Presbyteries worked faithfully in promoting the campaign.

The major emphases for the coming year will be (1) the renewal of the 1,700 churches now enrolled; (2) the enrollment of new churches; and (3) "putting the magazine to work at all levels".

Recommendation:

1. That the Synod again endorse the Presbyterian Survey Campaign, the goal being to enroll every church in the Every-Family Plan.

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

VII. MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

A. REPORT AND MINUTES OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE A. T. McCALLUM ESTATE

The Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate submit the following to the Synod of North Carolina, meeting in Davidson on July 15, 1958.

The Trustees received the Audit of the Estate made by Archibald K. Lovin, Certified Public Accountant, Red Springs, North Carolina, showing the income and the expenses of the Estate during the year, January 1, 1957 through December 31, 1957. The balance available for distribution in accordance with Item VI (G) of the will of A. T. McCallum was $99.70. A check for this amount hase been given Harold J. Dudley, Treasurer of the Synod of North Carolina.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Estate is being well handled.

W. B. HEYWARD, Chairman

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECORDS

REV. ROY E. WATTS, Chairman

Your Committee on Records received copies of the Minutes of Presbyteries as follows: Albemarle—January and October, 1957; Concord—July, 1957 through April, 1958; Fayetteville—May, 1957 through April, 1958; Granville—July, 1957 through January, 1958; Kings Mountain—July, 1957 through April, 1958; Mecklenburg—July, 1957 through July, 1958; Orange—April, 1957 through January, 1958; Wilmington—April, 1957 through January, 1958; Winston-Salem—June and September, 1957.

The Minutes have been examined, and your Committee found them in good order and proper form, with one exception—page 9, Minutes of Granville Presbytery, failure to record the terms of a minister's call. (See requirement of Synod, 1956 Minutes, page 162.)

The Stated Clerks of our Presbyteries are to be commended on the efficiency with which they have kept the records of their Presbyteries.

Recommendation:

1. That Synod express appreciation to the Clerks of the several Presbyteries for their efficiency and completeness in recording Minutes.

ROY E. WATTS, Chairman

VIII. STANDING RULES OF SYNOD

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

SECTION I

GOVERNMENT

Rule 1:1. The Rules of Parliamentary Order adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and printed in the Book of Church Order, and the Standing Rules hereinafter provided, shall be the Rules of Order for the guidance of the Synod.

1:2. To rescind, adopt or amend a Standing Rule, the suggested change shall be introduced at a regular meeting, and adopted by a majority affirmative vote of those present at the next, or a subsequent, regular stated meeting.

1:3. To suspend a Standing Rule shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present.

1:4. Any Standing Rule, or appointment of the Synod in conflict with these Standing Rules, is hereby rescinded.

SECTION II

REPRESENTATION

Rule 2:1. Each Session shall be represented at a meeting of Synod by one representative, except as otherwise provided for in the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 80 (as revised by the 1956 General Assembly). Sessions are urged to elect Ruling Elders who will plan to attend the whole session of Synod, and to register the principal and the alternate with the Stated Clerk not later than ten days before the meeting of Synod.

SECTION III

OFFICERS

Rule 3:1. The officers of the Synod shall be a Moderator, a General Secretary, a Permanent Clerk, and an Assistant Clerk.

A. MODERATOR

Rule 4:1. The Moderator shall be elected each year, to serve until his successor is elected. A Moderator may be nominated at each Synod, to be elected at the next meeting of Synod; however, such a nomination shall not preclude other nominations from the floor at the meeting of the Synod when the new Moderator is elected. The ordinary duties of the Moderator are set forth in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 53 and 82, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 1-19.

4:2. The Moderator shall have power, in the interim of the meetings of Synod, to fill, at his discretion, vacancies occurring in any office of the Synod, except Boards of Institutions which have no limited tenure of office, by appointment until the next annual meeting.

B. GENERAL SECRETARY

Rule 5:1. The duties of the General Secretary shall be as follows: To perform the duties of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod;

to serve as Central Treasurer of Synod; to act as Treasurer of sub-committee of Educational Institutions, and of Campus Christian Life, to promote by co-ordinated publicity the total work of the Synod (See Rule 8); to serve as an agent of the Committee on Church Extension (See Rule 9) and the sub-committee on Educational Institutions (See Rule 10); and to urge a program of Christian Stewardship upon the constituency of the Synod. (See Section II, Item I, Reorganization Plan 1951 Minutes of Synod.)

1. As Stated Clerk

Rule 6:1. The duties of the Stated Clerk are set forth in general in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 54, 82, and 84, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 20 and 21.

6:2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk, when he is elected and enters upon the duties of his office, at the opening of the Synod immediately succeeding that at which he is elected, to report to the Synod in writing and in full, whatever he has received from his predecessor, in the way of Books, Papers, Records, Documents, Furniture, etc., and the condition of the same when received.

6:3. The Stated Clerk shall conduct the correspondence of the Synod and shall publish a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Synod at least once, a month before the appointed day. He shall sign all necessary certificates for the same, or for other official purposes of the Synod or its members.

6:4. He shall mail, in advance of Synod, copies of Reports, together with copies of the Program, to all Commissioners to Synod.

6:5. He shall have at each meeting of Synod accessible to the Moderator a sufficient number of copies of the printed reports of the Program Committee, a copy of the last printed Minutes of the General Assembly, and a copy of Alexander's Digest.

6:6. He shall edit the Minutes of the Synod for the printer, after their approval by the Synod, and shall transmit the Records annually to the General Assembly for review. (The word "edit" here is used to refer to corrections in spelling, punctuation, etc.) He shall cause to be published annually in pamphlet form, at least one thousand copies of the Minutes, as soon as practicable after adjournment, and distribute these among the members of the Synod and Church Sessions.

6.7. He shall cause to be published in the Appendix to the printed Minutes, the reports of the Presbyteries on Statistics, the reports of the Executive and Permanent Committees, and such reports of Trustees and Regents as may be required.

6:8. He shall forward a copy of the printed Minutes annually to the libraries of Union Seminary, Davidson College, the Presbyterian Historical Society of Philadelphia, and the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and he shall file at least three copies in the archives of Synod.

6:9. He shall be charged with the further duty of reporting to the Moderator any vacancies to be filled by his appointment, and any deaths in the Ministry that may occur, and of reporting to the Synod the expiration of the term of service of its officers and members of its committees, according to the Standing Rules. He shall present to the Synod the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries. He shall collect and cause to be preserved all historical matter relating to the life of the Synod.

6:10. The Stated Clerk shall also serve as Treasurer of the Synod for the Office of Stated Clerk. As Treasurer it shall be his duty to keep a strict and accurate account of all funds received and disbursed, showing what Presbyteries have paid or have not paid their assessments, and for what purpose the funds have been disbursed. He shall submit to the Synod annually his books, together with a report of receipts and expenditures, presenting vouchers for the same.

6:11. The Stated Clerk shall act as Secretary to the Committee charged with the distribution of the income from the Mrs. Kate Bitting Reynolds Fund for Aged Ministers of the Synod of North Carolina, and shall keep a record of all transactions connected therewith. He shall make a distribution as provided for in this Trust Fund, and the plan of distribution as adopted by Synod.

6:12. The term of office of the Stated Clerk shall be three years.

2. As Central Treasurer

Rule 7:1. The Central Treasurer shall distribute all benevolence income received from various sources to the proper Agencies of the Synod, according to the actions of the Synod, governing its benevolence program.

3. As Public Relations Clerk

Rule 8:1. It shall be the duty of the Public Relations Clerk:

8:2. to prepare a daily account of the proceedings of the Synod for the daily papers;

8:3. to make the account as full, complete and vigorous as possible, stressing those matters of interest to the general public;

8:4. to act as the representative of the Synod during the interim between its meetings in endeavoring to secure through the secular press adequate account of occurrences in the life of the Churches of Synod which are of significance and interest.

4. As Secretary of Church Extension

Rule 9:1. The Secretary of Church Extension shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee of Church Extension, have supervision of the Synod's home mission work, including that of its evangelists. He shall seek to develop and coordinate all phases of home mission work within the bounds of the Synod.

9:2. He shall serve as Treasurer of Synod's Church Extension Funds. Disbursements of such funds, payment of all salaries, grants, loans, and authorized expenditures, shall be made by the Treasurer as directed by the Committee.

5. As Secretary of Educational Institutions

Rule 10:1. Acting under the direction of the Sub-Committee on Educational Institutions, the Secretary of Educational Institutions shall promote the interest of the educational institutions of the Synod, and seek to make them more effective in training the youth of the church for a greater usefulness in Christian service.

10:2. He shall receive and disburse such funds as are contributed for the Cause of Educational Institutions.

C. PERMANENT CLERK

Rule 11:1. It shall be the duty of the Permanent Clerk to engross with the aid of the Assistant Clerk, the daily Minutes of the Synod; to read said Minutes as required by the Synod for information, correction, and approval; and to deliver such Minutes to the Stated Clerk.

11:2. The term of office of the Permanent Clerk shall be three years and his compensation shall be fifty dollars ($50) per annum.

D. ASSISTANT CLERK

Rule 12:1. The duties of this office are implicit in its name. The Assistant Clerk shall be elected annually, to serve during the Session of Synod, and his compensation shall be twenty-five ($25) dollars.

E. DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 13:1. Acting under the general direction of the Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education, the Director of Christian Education shall be charged with the special supervision and direction of the Synod's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to promoting, developing, and coordinating all departments and phases of Christian Education within the bounds of Synod.

F. DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

Rule 14:1. The Director of Evangelism, whose term of office shall be three years, shall conduct his work under the direction of Synod's sub-committee on Evangelism, of the Committee on Church Extension, making annual report to the Synod through this Committee.

SECTION IV

TRUSTEES

A. OF THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

Rule 15:1. The Trustees of the Synod shall be six in number, two to be elected annually, and shall serve each for a term of three years.

15:2. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees as the Synod's agency in all matters requiring the aid or use of the civil law, to receive, take charge of, and manage to the best advantage, and account to the Synod for, according to law, all property and estate belonging, or which may accrue and enure to this Synod. They shall hold in trust, subject to the order of Synod, the said property, and all legacies and bequests which may be willed to the Synod in behalf of charitable and other objects under its control. They shall make a full report, in the premises, whenever occasion or circumstance shall require.

B. OF INSTITUTIONS

Rule 16. The Synod shall elect annually

16:1. Two members of the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary, whose term of office shall be five years.

16:2. Five members of the Board of Regents of the Orphans' Home, whose term of office shall be four years. It is further provided that no regent shall serve more than two successive terms.

16:3. Nine (9) members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Junior College for Men, Inc., whose term of service shall be three years; and three Trustees nominated by the Women-of-the-Synod; and three Trustees nominated by the Alumni Association whose term of office shall be one year.

16:4. Five members of the Board of Trustees of the William Black Home for Religious Workers, whose term of service shall be for three years, and four members of this Board shall be women. (See Rule 23:9d.) (See 1950 Minutes of Synod, pg. 393).

16:5. Seven members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Home, whose term of office shall be three years. Of these members at last two shall be women, and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times by at least one male member. The President of the Women-of-the-Synod and the Chairman of Church Extension of the Women-of-the-Synod shall be members ex-officio.

16:6. Twelve members of the Board of Directors of the Consolidated Presbyterian College, whose term of service shall be for three years; and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times on the Board by at least two members.

16:7. The Synod shall elect ten members of the Board of Trustees of Queens College for a term of four years each. Nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to the nominees submitted by the Board of Trustees. These Trustees shall be divided into four classes and shall be eligible for re-election.

16:8. The Synod shall triennially elect a Trustee of the Mountain Retreat Association.

16:9. The Synod shall elect twenty members of the Board of Trustees of Peace College, two of whom shall be members of the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, North Carolina, and two Trustees shall be elected from each of the nine Presbyteries; nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to these nominees; Trustees shall be elected for a term of three years each, and shall be divided into three classes; all Trustees shall be eligible for reelection. ("Articles of Incorporation", 1953 Minutes of Synod, pp. 132-134.)

16:10. The Synod shall elect three Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate Trust Fund, two laymen and one minister, one of whom shall be a resident of Fayetteville Presbytery, who shall serve for terms of four years. (See Section X of the Will.)

SECTION V

SYNOD'S COUNCIL

A. MEMBERSHIP AND DUTIES.

Rule 17:1. The Council shall consist of 26 members, including the Moderator, the Chairmen respectively of the three Executive Committees and of the Nominating Committee, the President of the Men-of-the-Church, the President of the Women-of-the-Church ex officio; one other woman (see Rule 23:9d); the Chairman or representative of the Stewardship Committee, or its counterpart, of each of the nine Presbyteries; nine members-at-large of three classes of three members each, whose term of office shall be for three years.. At least seven members shall be lay persons. The General Secretary shall be the Clerk of the Council.

17:2. It shall be the duty of the Council to nominate the members of the Nominating Committee.

17:3. The Council shall be the agent of Synod to confer with the General Secretary about the duties of his office.

17:4. The Council shall elect its own Chairman and a vice-chairman, who shall be of a different term of office.

17:5. The annual Report of the Council shall be presented to the Synod on the evening of the first day of meeting.

B. SUB-COMMITTEES

17:6a. Stewardship and Budget: (1) To prepare the benevolence budget of the Synod, based on the Budget Askings submitted by the General Assembly and the Synod's Agencies (Synod's Office; Church Extension; Christian Education; Higher Education, including Educational Institutions and Campus Christian Life; Homes including the Orphans', William Black, and the Presbyterian Homes; Inter-Church Agencies such as the North Carolina Council of Churches, etc.); (2) To report such budgets, with recommendations, for approval of the Synod via Synod's Council before obligations shall be contracted by such agencies and institutions of the Synod; (3) To recommend to Synod apportionments to the Presbyteries; to promote the Every-Member Canvass; and to supervise all matters pertaining to the financial goals of the Synod.

17:6e. Finance and Audits: (1) To prepare the Budget for Synod's Office and for Synod's Account; (2) To review all audited reports of the foregoing agencies and institutions of the Synod and of the McCallum Estate, with recommendations to the Council. (Minutes of the General Assembly, 1931, p. 143, require printing of a digest of these audits in Synod's Minutes); to supervise the distribution of the Equalization Fund.

17:7. FUNCTIONS: The functions set forth above shall be performed by corresponding committees elected by the Council.

17:8. Miscellaneous: To perform other functions of the Synod which are not specifically assigned to other committees.

SECTION VI

COMMITTEES

A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES:

Rule 18:1. The Executive Committees of Synod are clothed with authority, within certain well-defined limits, to execute and conclude the business entrusted to their care. They shall be divided into sub-committees to which shall be assigned the particular divisions of their respective programs, and the Executive Committees shall determine the method both of division into sub-committees and the naming of Chairmen of these committees. The sub-committees, with the approval of their respective committees, may choose to serve with them in an advisory capacity such persons as shall be deemed suitable and qualified for such service, without voting power.

18:2. Each of the Executive Committees triennially shall recommend to the Committee on Nominations an additional member-at-large for Chairman of the Committee, for nomination to the Synod.

1. CHURCH EXTENSION

Rule 19:1. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 23 members (including the Chairman), as follows: The Chairman of Church Extension in the Synodical ex officio; nine Chairmen of corresponding Committees in Presbyteries; twelve at large including one woman (Rule 23:9d) from the Synodical (three classes of four members each whose term of office shall be for three years). At least eight members shall be lay persons.

19:2. Committees: This Committee, charged with the promotion of Home Missions, Evangelism, Radio, Christian Relations, and Negro Work, shall be divided into sub-committees, the Church Extension Committee as a whole to determine the organization of the Committee.

19:3. Functions: This Committee shall function as follows:

19:3a. Through Home Missions: In cooperation with the Presbyteries, survey the Home Mission fields, needs, and opportunities and in general devise plans for promoting larger interest in Home Missions in the Synod; promote church and manse planning and erection; and church extension.

19:3b. Through Evangelism: Supervise the Synod's Evangelist(s), coöperate with the Presbyteries in conducting evangelistic campaigns, and foster the spirit of evangelism and developing the spiritual life of the Synod by bringing to the Synod such information and recommendations as seem pertinent and prudent.

19:3c. Through Radio and Television, in cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to promote the spreading of the Gospel by use of the Radio and Television.

19:3d. Through Negro Work: In cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to encourage the Presbyteries and churches to support and promote this phase of the Church's work.

2. HIGHER EDUCATION

Rule 20:1. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 22 members (including the Chairman) as follows: President of the Synodical, Chairman of Christian Education in the Synodical, ex officio; a representative of the Men's Council; nine chairmen of the corresponding Committees in the Presbyteries; nine members-at-large (three classes of three members each whose term of office shall be for three years), elected for their knowledge of and interest in higher education. At least seven members shall be lay persons.

20:2. Organization: The Committee shall have the authority to divide itself into sub-committees for the furtherance of its work.

20:3. Functions: In the conduct of the work, the Committee shall cooperate with the Presbyteries in their programs. The functions of the Committee shall be performed through the following sub-committees:

20:3a. Campus Christian Life: The Committee shall supervise the work among Presbyterian students in State and other non-Presbyterian institutions. In cooperation with the churches near these institutions, assistance shall be given to promote the spiritual welfare of Presbyterian students in these institutions. Further, the Committee shall develop and promote this cause throughout the bounds of Synod.

20:3b. Educational Institutions: The Committee shall promote the general educational work of the Synod; cooperate with the Presidents and Boards of Directors of all the schools and colleges within the bounds of the Synod, with the Board of Directors of the Seminary; and receive the reports from these institutions and report upon them to Synod. In general, this Committee shall study all the problems involved in the work of educational institutions and make recommendations to Synod.

20:3c. Vocational Guidance: The composition of this committee may include coopted members from the Guidance Center(s).

3. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 21.1. Memberships The Committee shall be composed of 23 members (including the Chairman) as follows: President of Synod's Men's Council, Chairman Christian Education in the Synodical, President Synod's Youth Council, President of Synod's Sunday School Superintendents Association, ex officio; nine Chairmen of Christian Education from the Presbyteries; nine members at large (three classes of three members each whose term of office shall be for three years). At least seven members shall be lay persons.

21:2. Organization: The Committee shall have the authority to divide itself into sub-committees for furtherance of its work.

21:3. Functions: In the conduct of the work, the Committee shall cooperate with the Presbyteries in their programs. The duties of the Committee shall be to supervise and direct the Church's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to the promotion and development of all the departments and phases of this cause throughout the bounds of Synod.

21:4. The Committee shall annually recommend to the Committee on Nominations a Director of Christian Education for nomination to Synod.

B. PERMANENT COMMITTEES:

Rule 22:1. The duties of the several Permanent Committees shall be in general such as their names indicate and custom has fixed. Their membership shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations, except as elsewhere provided.

Rule 23:1. ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION:

23:1a. Functions. The functions of the permanent Advisory Committee should be advisory in nature.

(1) It should be the responsibility of the Advisory Committee to consult with the Synod's Committee on Higher Education in the evaluation of the educational program of the Synod and the planning of overall strategy for this program and to make recommendations for its improvement.

(2) The Advisory Committee shall also consult with the administrations of the colleges concerned in assisting them in the development of their own programs.

23:1b. Responsibility. The Advisory Committee should be responsible to the Executive Committee on Higher Education.

23:1c. Nomination of Members: The membership of the permanent Advisory Committee should be recommended by the Executive Committee on Higher Education to the Nominating Committee of the Synod which should have the final responsibility of nominations before Synod.

23:1d. The number on the permanent Advisory Committee should be not less than five nor more than nine. It is suggested that the number be set at nine for the initial appointment.

23:1e. Term of Office. The initial appointment should be on a staggered basis for one, two and three year terms with a regular appointment thereafter for a three-year term.

23:1f. Compensation. Compensation for service on the Advisory Committee should be on a per diem basis, plus expenses from the funds of the Higher Education Committee.

Rule 23:2a. ANNUITIES AND RELIEF: To promote the welfare of the cause within the Synod, membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:2b. It shall be the duty of this Committee to promote the work of enlisting and preparing those entering the service of the church.

23:2c. The Committee shall administer the Reynolds Trust Fund for Aged Ministers as provided in the plan of distribution adopted by the Synod. (Minutes 1947, pp. 543-545)

Rule 23:3. ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES: To inform the Synod concerning the Board of Women's Work, the Bible Cause, Montreat, Stillman College, the Historical Foundation, the General Council, and the Assembly's Training School, together with other Assembly work assigned to it from time to time; membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on Assembly's General Fund Agencies in each Presbytery, one Woman, (Rule 23:9d), and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman.

Rule 23:4. BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS:

23:4a. Membership: There shall be seven members of the Committee, one of whom shall be nominated as Chairman, to serve a term of three years, and eligible for re-election. As a rule, though not necessarily, members shall be laymen, preferably persons familiar with the whole aea of wills, bequests, and deferred gifts.

23:4b. Functions: The functions of the Committee shall be to furnish information to the Synod and to advise individuals, churches, and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to educational institutions and other agencies of the Synod.

Rule 23:5. CHRISTIAN RELATIONS:

23:5a. Membership: to comprise the Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:5b. Functions: To observe and study the society of our day, and report to Synod such conditions and customs, movements and trends therein as are properly matters for consideration and witness-bearing of a Church Court, with recommendations as to what action should be taken, or witness borne by Synod concerning them.

Rule 23:6. HOMES: To promote the work of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, the William Black Home, and the Presbyterian Home; membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on Homes within the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman.

Rule 23:7a. INTERCHURCH RELATIONS: To inform the Synod of the work of the North Carolina Council of Churches and other interdenominational programs.

23:7b. Membership is to consist of 15 members, including at least one woman. At least five of the members shall be lay persons.

23:7c. The Nominating Committee triennially shall nominate to Synod a Chairman, who shall serve as the representative of Synod on the corresponding Committee of the General Assembly.

23:7d. There shall be such sub-committees as are necessary.

23:7e. Except as may be otherwise prescribed in these Rules (See DIRECTORY and Rule 24:1a), representatives to the North Carolina Council of Churches (commensurate with and proportionate to the number of representatives allowed by the Council of Churches) shall be elected for a term of three years, eligible for one additional term, and arranged according to classes.

23:7f. Three members of the Inter-Church Relations Committee shall be named by that Committee to serve respectively as representatives of Synod on the Committees on CROP, Migrant Work, and Rural Church of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

23:7g. Synod shall annually elect three representatives from the membership of the Inter-Church Relations Committee, nominated by the Committee on Nominations, to officially represent the Synod at the annual meeting of the Council, expenses to be borne by the Synod; and these representatives shall report to the Synod at its subsequent meeting through the Committee on Inter-Church Relations.

Rule 23:8. MINISTER AND HIS WORK. To render assistance by interchange of information as to open fields, ministers open to change, and as to Directors of Religious Education and other lay persons available for church employment, and by facilitating the transfer of ministers between the various Presbyteries. Membership to consist of the Chairman of the corresponding committees in the several Presbyteries, and a member-at-large who will serve as Chairman.

(For the duties and functions of this Committee, see Chapter XIX, of The Book of Church Order.)

Rule 23:9a. NOMINATIONS: The Committee shall be composed of 10 members, one from each of the Presbyteries, and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. Members of the Committee shall be nominated by Synod's Council.

23:9b. It will be the function of the Committee to make nominations to the Synod of all members-at-large on the several Committees; of all other committee members and Chairmen not otherwise provided for elsewhere in these Standing Rules; and of all Trustees elected by Synod.

23:9c. In making nominations for membership on the several Boards and Committees, the Committee shall confer with the proper representatives of Institutions, Boards, or Committees, relative to persons with suitable qualifications to serve on Boards or Committees.

23:9d. Except as otherwise specified, women members of Boards, the Council, or Committees of Synod shall be nominated by the Executive Board of the Women-of-the-Synod of North Carolina, to the Nominating Committee of the Synod.

23:9e. Where membership on Synod's Committees is determined by action of other bodies, the Nominating Committee shall submit to the Stated Clerk at each meeting of the Synod, the full list of Committee membership.

23:9f. All such nominations referred to above, however, shall not preclude nominations from the floor by any member of Synod.

Rule 23:10. STANDING RULES: The Committee shall be composed of the Stated Clerk as Chairman, the Moderator, and the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations. The functions of the Committee will be to review the STANDING RULES for consistency and correctness, and to bring in recommendations for amendment when and where needed.

Rule 23:11. WOMEN'S WORK: To inform the Synod of the work of the Women of the Synod and General Assembly; membership to be composed of three members, one of whom shall be named as chairman on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee; and the President of the Women of the Synod ex officio.

Rule 23:12. WORLD MISSIONS: To promote the welfare of World Missions and Overseas Relief within the Synod, membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on World Missions within the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 239d), and one member-at-large, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee.

C. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING COMMITTEES:

Rule 24:1a. Term of Office. No member of the Executive Committees or of the Synod's Council shall serve more than two consecutive terms, without a year elapsing; no member of any other Committee shall serve longer than one three-year term, without a year elapsing. In case of Presbytery representatives, where the rule would be violated, such as by a Class representative being elected a Presbytery representative at the expiration of the full limit of his service, he shall be ineligible to serve until one year has elapsed, and the Presbytery should name another representative in his place. Part of a term shall not be considered as a term unless the unexpired term being filled shall be for more than one-half of that term.

24:1b. The terms of office of members of Boards, the Council, or Committees, who fail to attend meetings for a period of twelve months for reasons other than being providentially hindered shall be terminated automatically and the vacancies shall be filled by the Synod on recommendation of the Nominating Committee.

24:2. Meetings. The Synod's Council and the Executive Committees shall meet at least once annually, and Permanent Committees should meet at least once annually.

24:3a. Reports. To all committees respectively shall be referred without vote, unless there is objection, all reports, documents, communications, and other matters pertaining to the several subjects upon which they are appointed, and it shall be their duty to formulate reports upon the matters referred to them, and present the same to Synod for action.

24:3b. All actions and reports of all the sub-committees of Executive and Permanent Committees and of the Council are subject to the approval of the parent Committee of which they are a part, and ordinarily the Chairman, or some appointed member of the parent Committee, shall make the combined report to Synod of all approved actions of the sub-committees.

24:3c. Committees shall make their reports as brief as is consistent with clarity, avoiding quotations from Board Reports, and such other matters as are elsewhere available in printed form, and to present orally only essential data from Reports and Recommendations.

24:3d. Committees, except the Council and the Committee on Nominations, shall place, through their chairmen, copies of their Reports to Synod, in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod, not later than thirty days before the meeting of Synod.

24:4. Nominations. Committees shall recommend to the Permanent Committee on Nominations persons to fill vacancies occurring on Boards of Institutions, or persons assigned to them as Executives of their work.

D. STANDING COMMITTEES:

Rule 25:1. Standing Committees of five or more members shall be appointed by the Moderator, at an early hour in the proceedings of the regular meetings of Synod as follows:

(1) Bills and Overtures

(2) Judicial

(3) Resolutions

E. SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES

Rule 26:1. Synod may appoint Ad-Interim and Special Committees whenever deemed necessary, for the consideration of special matters, or the performance of designated duties.

26:2. The Synod's representative on the General Assembly's Council on Higher Education shall serve a term of three years, and be eligible for one additional term.

SECTION VII

FINANCIAL RULES OF AGENCIES OF SYNOD

Rule 27:1. All agencies of Synod shall clear through the Stewardship Committee and Council all requests for funds, including campaigns.

27:2. All Treasurers of Synod's Funds (Office, Church Extension, Education, Homes, and other Agencies and Institutions) shall be bonded in an approved surety company for such amounts as the Finance and Audit Committee shall determine; and these several accounts shall be audited annually by an approved accountant; and annual reports shall be rendered to Synod.

27:3. All agencies of Synod seeking benevolence support from the Synod shall present annually to the Stewardship Committee at its meeting to formulate a budget, together with their requests for support: (1) a two-year comparison financial statement; and (2) a two-year comparison of budgets.

27:4. All Agencies of Synod shall share in an Equalization Fund, as follows: 5 percent of the budget income of each agency shall be reserved for the fund; at the end of each Church Year, Synod's Central Treasurer, under the supervision of the Committee on Finance and Auditing of Synod's Council, shall distribute the Fund to participating Agencies so that each will receive an equal percentage of its budget; any surplus remaining in the Fund shall be divided among all contributing Agencies in the same percentage as contributed; all income of Agencies of Synod sharing in the Equalization Fund are to be reported to the Central Treasurer.

SECTION VIII

MEETINGS AND STANDING ORDERS

Rule 28:1. Time. The annual Stated Meeting of Synod shall be held as early in June as practicable, and with the concurrence of Synod's Council, the first session to begin at 2 p.m. on a Tuesday, unless otherwise ordered. The Synodical year shall end April 30.

Rule 29:1. Enrollment. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall constitute a Committee on Enrollment, which shall meet at the place at which Synod is to convene at an hour just before the opening of the session.

29:2. Each member shall, on arrival, report to this Committee for enrollment. The roll thus prepared according to Presbyteries shall be reported to the Synod at the opening of Synod, at which time additional enrollment shall be made.

Rule 30:1. Entertainment. Synod's Program Committee shall arrange for the entertainment of Synod in accordance with the following regulations, namely:

30:1a. An institution entertaining Synod shall be paid at the rate of $3.50 for each representative (See SECTION II) for the first forty-eight hours, beginning with the first meal served, and at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents for each meal thereafter. This rate shall also apply to those guests of Synod who are approved by the Program Committee. All visitors of Synod shall make arrangements for their own entertainment, and shall be charged for meals at the prevailing rate, by the host institution or church.

30:1b. A church entertaining Synod shall be paid an amount not exceeding seventy-five cents a meal for each member of Synod and for guests, when such church shall be serving one or two meals at the church building or other central place.

30:1c. Official representatives of Synod and guests shall be furnished with meal tickets when registering, which shall be collected at the dining-room; and the host institution or church shall be reimbursed by Synod on the basis of the meals served, as verified by the tickets, and as otherwise provided by the Standing Rules, and no institution or church is to sustain a loss in the entertainment of Synod.

Rule 31:1. Expenses. Per capita assessment for Synod's expenses shall be of sufficient amount to meet the expenses of the Stated Clerk's office and such appropriations as are made by Synod to be paid from this fund.

31:2. All salaried officers of the Synod, or any of its agencies, shall be elected by the Synod, and the term of office and compensation shall be fixed by the Synod.

31:3. The necessary expenses of the Executive Committees shall be paid from the funds available for the work conducted under the supervision of these Committees.

31:4. The expenses of the Council shall be borne by Synod's Office.

31:5. The necessary expenses of Permanent Committees shall be paid by the Synod from its Treasury, unless otherwise provided for.

31:6. When travel of committee members is by public transportation, the expense shall be the actual cost. When travel is by car, the mileage shall be figured at seven cents per mile.

Rule 32:1. Orders. Following the enrollment at the opening session of Synod, the Moderator shall introduce to the Synod all ministers who have been received into its constituent Presbyteries since the last Stated Meeting.

32:2. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be held on the first day of the Synod's meeting during the afternoon session and following the retiring Moderator's sermon.

32:3. The names of the Ministers of Synod who have died during the Synodical year shall be read in connection with the annual Communion Service, and an adequate memorial of each, not to exceed approximately 500 words, shall be printed in the Minutes of Synod.

32:4. The Program Committee shall provide the services of a stenographer for Committees of Synod.

32:5. The Minutes of Agencies under the control of Synod shall be made available to Synod or Synod's Council upon request.

32:6. No new matter may be introduced to Synod later than recess for supper on the second day of the meeting of Synod.

[1] -Not Reported in Minutes of General Assembly after 1952-1953.

[2] -Inclusive of Ministers.

[3] -The Federal per capita income for 1956 was $1,847. The North Carolina per capita income for 1956 was $1,236. However, for computing the Total Income for the Synod of North Carolina in 1957, the amount of $1,500 was used ,and is regarded as a conservative estimate of per capita income for Presbyterians, since the per capita income in North Carolina for whites alone in 1956 was $1,465.

[1] Spiritual Birthrate is determined by dividing the membership at the beginning of the Church year into the accessions on profession of faith during the year and is measured in percentage, the higher the percentage the better the standing. Soul-winning ratio is determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith during the year into the total membership at the beginning of the year and represents the number of church members required to win one person to Christ. The lower the number the better the standing.

Resolutions: The Report was presented by the Rev. Thomas B. Ruff, Chairman, and was adopted by a standing vote as follows:

The Synod of North Carolina in its 146th Session hereby gives thanks to our God for His gracious presence in its fellowship, inspiring messages, careful planning for the meeting with all the details of Committees' reports well organized.

We thank the Myers Park Church, pastors, staff, and score of workers for registrations, information, basement refreshments that had quite a healthy attendance most of the time.

We are grateful for the coverage given our Synod by newspapers, radio, and television.

We commend the fine service of the pages under the supervision of our Assistant Clerk, Rev. Denver S. Blevins, to handle this, one of the largest meetings of Synod.

We wish to thank Queens College who was so heavily loaded with the feeding and housing of so large a body, which was done so efficiently. We thank the President and staff in this heavy undertaking.

We are very grateful to the Church-of-the-Covenant for the Tuesday night service in their most elegant church and for the inspiring, uplifting communion service, including the program of music presented by the choir.

We thank most heartily our efficient Moderator, Dr. Chester Alexander, for his kind, careful, and accurate dispatch of so full a program.

To the great number who made contributions to the efficiency of the Synod, we are greatly indebted.

May the good Lord bless the Church of the Synod of North Carolina through the fruits of this inspiring 1959 Session.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS B. RUFF, Chairman

1. MEMORIALS TO DECEASED MINISTERS

REVEREND WATSON S. BOYCE

The Reverend Watson S. Boyce was born in Mecklenburg County on March 7, 1872, son of the late Hugh and Mary Thompson Boyce. He was a graduate of Erskine College and the United Presbyterian Seminary at Pittbsurgh, Pennsylvania.

Before retirement, he served as Pastor of the Parkwood Avenue Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, the First Presbyterian Church at Baldwin, Mississippi, the Presbyterian Church at Edwards, Mississippi and the United Presbyterian Church at Springdale, Pennsylvania. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Emma Gillard Boyce, two daughters, Mrs. H. O. Roberts of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania and Mrs. R. C. Bryson of Statesville, and a son, David G. Boyce, a student at the Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia.

Watson Boyce served his Lord and his Church faithfully and well. During his years of retirement among us, his life was a benediction to all who knew him. On January 19, 1959, he was called to hear the commendation of his Lord. Well done, good and faithful servant. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

Raymond Howard Ratchford, beloved pastor of Goshen Church for the past thirteen years, and member of Kings Mountain Presbytery since 1939, was promoted to heavenly service April 7, 1959. A man of vigorous Christian faith, humility of mind and heart, he greatly loved his Lord and his fellow man.

In many daily deeds of loving service, Raymond Ratchford showed that he was mindful of the words of the Lord Jesus how He said it is more blessed to give than to receive. One of the sons of Goshen Church stated, in the service April the ninth, that a most fitting description of his former pastor's life is found in Mark 10:45: "For even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister". No task was too lowly to engage his whole being if in the doing of it God was glorified and some person blessed. It was his joy to do the Master's will.

The Christian radiance of his life was reflected in the faces of loved ones and friends who gathered at Goshen Church and New Hope Cemetery where his body was laid away in God's acre to await the trump of God and the resurrection body of glory.

II. REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY, STATED CLERK AND TREASURER

REV. HAROLD J. DUDLEY

The Reports of the Council, the Executive Committees of Church Extension and Higher Education, including financial statements, the Reports of the Permanent Committees on Annuities and Relief, Bequests and Deferred Gifts, Christian Relations, Homes, Inter-Church Relations, Minister and His Work, Nominations, and Standing Rules, and the Ad Interim Committee on Ministers' Salaries, reflect in part the work of Synod's Office. In addition, the financial statements on campaigns and other causes add up to fairly well covering the total program of Synod, as it relates to the Office of Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

Annual statistics may be ascertained from the Tables which follow this Report, or those in the back, or from the Reports of the Council, and the Executive Committees.

Income to the several agencies of Synod for the past two years may be compared, as follows: (Figures represent adjustment after Equalization distribution):

	1957	1958	Increase Decrease
Campus Christian Life	$ 28,755	$ 28,304	$ —451
Christian Education	33,577	26,815	—6,762
Church Extension	49,200	43,921	—5,279
Educational Institutions	269,257	274,813	5,556
Orphans' Home	164,580	185,203	20,623
Presbyterian Home	38,492	32,496	—5,996
Inter-Church Relations	2,277	2,463	186
Synod's Office	20,874	17,604	—3,270
Presbyterian News	11,486	9,372	—2,114

Though Presbyteries accepted in 1957 85% of Synod's Askings for Synod's causes in 1958, they paid only 69.37% of what Synod asked; but 88% of what they accepted. This was, according to the reports of treasurers of Synod's causes, only $633,889, in contrast to $636,112 in 1957, a decline of $2,222.

The practice remains of constituent members of Synod approving budgets for agencies of Synod, and at lower levels, the Presbytery and local church, giving approval to reducing the apportionments of Synod. Sometimes the percentage ratio is changed at lower levels, thus seriously affecting the income for some of the causes of Synod. The Synod's Council gave earnest consideration to this matter, and is presenting a recommendation to Synod, which if adopted, should pave the way for eventually correcting this discrepancy.

In their proper places may be found approved summaries of Audited financial statements of all accounts handled in Synod's Office. (See "Auditor's Report".) During 1958 Synod's Office handled 22 accounts, totaling more than one and a half million dollars.

All accounts have been audited by the firm of A. T. Allen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, N. C., and have been reviewed and approved by the Committee on Finance and Audits and the Synod's Council. (Copies of the audits are available for perusal.) Also in your hands are the financial statements for other agencies of Synod, as well as proposed 1960 budgets for all the agencies and causes of Synod. These have been approved by the agencies, and are recommended to Synod by the Council for adoption.

All assignments of the 1958 Synod have been fulfilled.

Six issues of the Presbyterian News (58,000 per issue) have been published, and more than fifty newspaper articles released.

The Office continues to serve the agencies of Synod in such ways as they avail themselves of its services.

Campaigns

The Higher Education Campaign of 1956, projected over a thirty months period, was scheduled to end last December 31, except for those who pledged for a longer period.

The following data summarizes the Campaign as of that date:

Total Pledged	$1,742,916.41
Total Paid	1,215,947.67
Less all Expenses	165,623.61
Balance to be distributed	1,050,324.06
To Campus Christian Life—1/7	132,818.00
To Consolidated College—6/7	906,441.11
Balance in Bank	11,064.95

By May 12, 1959 the situation was as follows:

Total Pledged	$1,739,702.43
Total Paid	1,264,220.57
Balance Unpaid Pledges	$ 475,481.86
Church (corporate) Pledges Unpaid	260,501.47
Individuals Pledges Unpaid	214,980.39

The Campus Christian Life Campaign of 1958 may be summarized at December 31, 1958, as follows:

Total Pledged	$225,532.63
Total Paid	51,096.72
Expenses to date	40,450.89

TOTAL PLEDGED TO CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

1956 Campaign	$206,157.78
1958 Campaign	204,200.09	(after expenses)
MAXIMUM EXPECTED	$410,357.87
Short of Goal	89,642.13

Through April 30 this had altered as follows:

Pledged in 1956 Campaign	$206,311.07
Pledged in 1958 Campaign	217,322.76	(after expenses)
MAXIMUM ANTICIPATED	$423,633.83
Short of Goal	76,366.17	(Not counting cancellations)

Through May 31, 1959, the following receipts and disbursements obtained:

Total Receipts on 1956 Campaign		$1,270,707.91
To Campus Christian Life	$144,039.77
To Consolidated College	959,159.66
Expenses	167,508.48

UNC-Chapel Hill	172,367.33
East Carolina College, Greenville	14,313.50[2]
N. C. State, West Raleigh Church	40,000.00[3]	$247,080.83
TOTAL DISBURSEMENTS		$289,165.78
Balance		$ 2,018.88

Actions of Synod approving of loans respectively for Chapel Hill and West Raleigh for $200,000 and $45,000 have been carefully scrutinized by the Campus Christian Life Committee and the Trustees of Synod, in relation to income for capital investments at these two Centers, and a loan for Chapel Hill has been negotiated in the total amount of not more than $73,000, and for West Raleigh for not more than $20,000. However, it is likely that the latter loan may be precluded by income from payments on pledges in the 1958 Campaign.

Since Synod last met property in Greensboro, across the street from the Campus of Woman's College, has been purchased with campaign funds for the Campus Christian Life Center, and the first payment has been made on the Center to be erected at Duke University.

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, General Secretary

III. REPORT OF SYNOD'S COUNCIL

VOIT GILMORE, Chairman

Your Council has met twice during the past year, and full records have been preserved of all proceedings.

Program

The 1959 Program of Synod has been prepared with diligence, under the auspices of the sub-committee, with the retiring Moderator as Chairman. We count ourselves fortunate again this year to have as our speaker the Moderator of the General Assembly, Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson.

Our recommendations indicate that Synod has an invitation to meet in Greenville in 1960 and in Raleigh in 1961. Synod met in Raleigh in 1861, and it is fitting that the centennial of Synod should be celebrated there. We wish to remind Synod that 1963 will mark the 150th anniversary of the organization of the Synod in the Alamance Church, Greensboro.

Synod's Office and Program of Work

When Synod reorganized in 1951, the Council set as a goal the banishment of the idea of Synod being a "Fifth Wheel". Considering the fact that today the Synod has a communicant membership of 142,000, a total of a dozen agencies, including all educational institutions, employing more than 300 persons, not including pastors and church staffs, with an over-all operating annual budget in excess of $3,000,000, and fixed assets totalling approximately $30,000,000, it would hardly be accurate to call the Synod of North Carolina, the largest of the sixteen synods, "a Fifth Wheel". During the years since World War II the Agencies of the Synod, including Union Theological Seminary, have raised for capital funds in excess of $10,000,000 in campaigns. In 1958 Synod's Office handled 22 different accounts totalling $1,515,717. One account alone handles fifty separate loan accounts.

All of these facts add up to "Big Business".

The colleges of Synod employ nearly 300 persons and do business in excess of two and a half million dollars annually, not including fixed assets. Campus Christian Life employs half a dozen or more persons to labor among 6,000 Presbyterian students on non-Presbyterian campuses, and spends approximately $40,000 per annum for support of this cause. Christian Education has a staff of from six to eight persons at an annual expenditure of $40,000 or more. The Orphans' Home employs a staff of more than sixty, and operates on an annual budget of approximately $300,000. The Presbyterian Home requires a staff of more than thirty for the 85 guests in the home, and operates on an annual budget of $170,000. Church Extension at the Synod level invests in support of nearly fifty workers to the extent of approximately $40,000 per annum. Synod's Office has a staff of four and operates on a budget of $49,000, including the annual meeting of Synod and the Presbyterian News. If the cost of operating Presbyteries and local churches were included and the value of all properties owned by the Synod, including churches and manses, were added to the overall investments, there is little doubt that the total figure would approximate well over one hundred million dollars.

Synod's Office is the agent of Synod for its official business. The Office is headquarters for the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod, who is Secretary of the Council, Secretary of Higher Education and agent for the Executive Committee of Higher Education, Secretary of Church Extension, and agent for the Executive Committee of Church Extension, and Publicity agent of the Synod, including Editor of the Presbyterian News.

Synod's Office handles a loan fund for the Committee on Church Extension in the total amount of approximately $200,000. There are more than 50 loans currently ranging from $1,000 to $25,000. The Office, as agent for the Executive Committee of Church Extension, makes appropriations to four aid-receiving presbyteries to support Home Mission ministers. Grants-in-aid are appropriated when funds are available. The Catechism Fund is also dispensed from the Office, and annually between 300 and 500 checks are written as awards.

The Office serves most of the agencies of the Synod in one way or another, as well as the 637 churches of the Synod, Presbyteries, Synodical, and the Westminister Fellowship.

The Higher Education study of 1953-1955 was promoted from the Office, including the editing of the materials and the promotional work, which resulted in thousands of articles on higher education appearing in the newspapers of the state.

The Office was headquarters for the Higher Education Campaign of 1956 and for the Campus Christian Life Campaign of 1958. Much of the materials used in these campaigns and for the Presbyterian Home campaign were processed in Synod's Office at a great saving in printing cost. The publicity for the campaigns was prepared and distributed by the General Secretary and his staff. More than 10,000 individual pledge cards have been processed in the Office, and the collections on these, including bookkeeping and continuing correspondence, have been a part of the labors of the staff of the Office.

The Office prepares statistical Tables annually on Extension, including Evangelism, Higher Education, and Stewardship, as well as vital statistics.

The staff publishes an average of nearly 100 newspaper articles per annum, bearing on the program of Synod. In addition, six issues of the Presbyterian News of 58,000 copies per issue are published by the staff.

Annually the Office staff serves not only Synod's Council and two of the Executive Committees secretarily, but also nine of its Permanent Committees, and often some other committees. In preparation for the annual meeting of nearly 600 commissioners, the Office prepares entirely several of the Reports for the Blue Book, and processes all of the twenty-five or more reports for the printer. This includes budgets and financial statements for all of the Agencies of Synod. The work of advance registrations, arrangements, program, entertainment, etc. devolve on the Stated Clerk's Office. Expenses of entertaining the large group attending Synod, at the rate of $3.50 for two days, is borne from the "Assessment", as are all other costs for operating the Office to support the program which has thus far been outlined, including the Blue Book and the annual Minutes of Synod, both edited in the Office.

Cost of Operating Synod's Office

It has already been intimated that the Office is a catch-all for nearly every activity of two Executive Committees, the Council, and all the Permanent Committees. The number of tasks which are assigned to the Office from these agencies are legion. As has been pointed out, the Office renders service in one way or another to every one of the agencies of Synod.

A regular staff of four persons has been employed from the beginning to accomplish the tasks belonging to the work of Synod. At times additional help has been necessary. This is particularly the case each year before the meeting of Synod. It was necessary also to add a person to the staff after the 1956 campaign to handle a part of the work entailed by collections. The average annual cost of operating the Office, not including the printing of the Presbyterian News, the annual meeting of Synod, and the Campaigns, is $27,000. As the Budget will show, this covers the salaries of the General Secretary, the bookkeeper, the secretary, and one clerk; the rent, the utilities, insurance of various kinds, travel, equipment, supplies, etc.

From the beginning it has been the policy of the Council to minimize the printing of promotional materials, and actually, apart from the paper, the Blue Book, and the Minutes of Synod, the Office has printed only one piece of literature in eight years, namely a leaflet on the proposed new headquarters building . The Council authorized purchase of a multilith in 1951 which has made it possible for the Office to produce all of its letter-heads and other stationery, and the major part of the materials which were used in the two campaigns for higher education and the Presbyterian Home, literally saving the Synod thousands of dollars.

Permanent Office Headquarters Building

Last year the Synod of North Carolina, as a result of actions taken by the Executive Committee of Church Extension and the Synod's Council adopted a recommendation approving "of erecting a permanent office building in Raleigh, not to exceed $100,000, from funds to be raised privately and from ordinary budgeted rental", and placed the responsibility for implementing this action upon Synod's Council, working co-operatively with the Executive Committees of Church Extension and Higher Education.

Your Council named a Committee to prosecute this matter composed of Dr. Charles Lynn Brown, Mr. William F. Mulliss, a Charlotte attorney, and Mr. Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines. During the year the Committee has met several times, and wishes to report to Synod that the following progress has been made: (1) securing of a lot in the Cameron Village section of Raleigh appraised at $40,000, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. York of Raleigh and his associates; (2) the promise of $10,000 in 1959 from the Synodical; (3) gifts and pledges from individuals in the Synod totaling approximately $10,000; (4) approval by the Executive Committee of Church Extension of a loan, if necessary, without interest, and to be paid back from the rent item in the budget of Synod's Office; (5) approval of the Committee of construction of a building containing approximately 3,700 square feet of space for Synod's Office, and possibly an additional 400 square feet for a suite of offices to be rented to Granville Presbytery; (6) cost of building, not including the suite of offices, but allowing for equipment and furnishings and a contingency for unexpected costs, not to exceed $60,000; and (7) approval of floor plans by the architect.

There are available for your perusal architect's drawings of the proposed floor plan and elevation.

It is hoped that considerable interest, manifested in a financial way, will emerge during the next several months in order that ground may be broken for construction of the building before Synod next convenes.

Publicity

Your Council has given serious consideration to the whole program of publicity. The Executive Committee of the Council, composed of the Chairman, the Rev. Charles Lynn Brown, Attorney Wm. F. Mulliss, of Charlotte, banker Archie W. McLean of Rocky Mount, Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, president of Synodical, and the Rev. James L. Fogartie, called into a meeting in Raleigh on March 30 the following experts in business, public relations, and the press, to counsel with us in this matter: Bluford Hestir, Atlanta, Director of Publicity for the General Assembly; Herbert O'Keefe, editor of the Raleigh Times, and an elder in the West Raleigh Church; Carl Hudson, of Hudson-Belk, Raleigh, an elder in the White Memorial Church, Raleigh; and Braxton Flye, a printer, publisher, and advertising executive, and a deacon in the White Memorial Church. Mr. Flye had been requested to make thorough study of the Synod's paper, the Presbyterian News, and Mr. Hestir had been asked to give expert opinion regarding the publication of a Synod's paper.

A summary of a study of the several Presbytery papers of the Synod, other denominational papers of the state, and the other two Synodical papers published in the Assembly revealed that the Synod of North Carolina paper, the Presbyterian News, was being published on a unit basis cheaper than any of the papers studied. It was also learned that the Synod of Texas has an annual amount of $32,000 in their Synod budget for publicity, in contrast to the $15,000 of the Synod of North Carolina. Another fact revealed was that all other denominations publish papers only at that level which corresponds to the Synod.

As a result of the reports and the information before us, the Executive Committee of the Council, unanimously passed the following action:

> "The Special Committee on Publicity recognizing the great value and importance of the Presbyterian News, congratulates the editor and his staff on the excellence of their product under extremely modest circumstances, and wishes to emphasize the increasing significance of the paper as a unifying force of the Synod, and a most important means of increasing and enlarging the work of the Church; further, the Committee recommends to Synod's Council the following action as the policy for Synod, subject to the ratification of Synod at its June, 1959, meeting:
> (1) That the frequency of the Presbyterian News be increased to twelve issues per year.
> (2) That an editorial assistant be employed to give full-time assistance to the editor.
> (3) That a revised format be adopted."

Assessment

In 1958 Synod authorized that the Office be supported by a per capita assessment of 34¢. All Presbyteries except one endorsed the action of Synod, and that one has provided what it hopes will be the equivalent of the assessment.

Equalization Fund

The Equalization Fund produced in 1958 $31,694.17 which was distributed by the same formula as last year. Six agencies of Synod benefited from the Fund. Three contributed but failed to receive returns from it since the percentage of income of their budget exceeded the 65.1937%, the percentage of their budgets the other agencies received. Christian Education barely missed participating, and contributed a net of $807.95. The Presbyterian Home contributed $1,710.31 and the Orphans' Home $9,747.54.

Campaigns and Long-Range Planning

A full account of the Higher Education Campaign of 1956 and the Campus Christian Life Campaign of 1958 are to be found in the Report of the General Secretary. The sub-committee has wrestled with the program of projected campaigns from the standpoint of what is wisest and best for the Synod. The recommendations attached to this report are made after careful and prayerful consideration of all contingencies.

Revolving Salary Fund

One of the major problems which confronted your Council, and it is perennial, was that of expenses of some of the agencies of the Synod in excess of income. The agencies operate within their budgets, which have been approved by Synod, but because approximately 60% of income for support of these agencies is received during the last month of the year, it is difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate how much may be expected for support. Those agencies which have no other support than the gifts of the churches discover about January 10 of each new year that the churches have failed to provide their budgets by approximately from thirty to thirty-five percent, which means that they are confronted with a deficit. This was the case at the end of 1958 with several agencies of the Synod, including the Office, Campus Christian Life, Christian Education, and Inter-Church Agencies. The total amount short for these agencies was approximately $30,000. Perhaps, we wrestled with no other problem more conscientiously than this one, and we would call to your attention that on the Council are able representatives of the bar, accounting, and banking, as well as other business and professional personnel. We believe that as a result of both work and prayer that we have arrived at an eventual solution to the problem, and we trust that the Synod will encourage our efforts towards resolving the matter by adopting the recommendations which are appropos.

Synod and Assembly Compared

The Synod of North Carolina regained first place in the Assembly in total giving, replacing Texas. The amount was $12,811,548, the largest amount ever given by the Synod and the largest ever given by any Synod.

The Synod asked the Presbyteries to give a total of $2,400,023 to Assembly and Synod causes during 1958. Total gifts reported were $2,263,615 (in contrast to $2,198,414 the previous year), or 94.32%, reflected as follows:

	Apportionment		Gave
	1958	1957	1958	1957
Assembly	$1,486,184	$1,163,348	$1,155,916 (77.777%)[1]	$1,078,818 (93%)
Synod	913,839	784,175	1,107,699 (121.21%)	1,119,596 (143%)
	$2,400,023	$1,947,523	$2,263,615 (94.32%)	$2,198,414 (113%)

[1] Based on reports of churches as given in the 1959 General Assembly Minutes. The percentage of budgeted receipts received by Synod's Treasurer was only 56.04% of Synod's askings.

Though the percentage of giving to the askings for 1958 for the Assembly was less than that of the previous year, the gifts exceeded those for that year by $77,098. Synod's apportionment for Synod's causes in 1958 exceeded the previous year but gifts declined by $11,897. In 1957 Synod gave 143% of askings to Synod's causes but dropped to 121.21% in 1958. North Carolina stood 8th in 1958 (11th in 1957) among the Synods in the percentage of gifts made to Assembly's causes in relation to apportionments.

Three Presbyteries accepted in full the Askings for Assembly and Synod causes for 1959. For 1958 five accepted in full. Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, and Orange gave more than 100% to the two causes combined in 1958. The Presbyteries ranked as follows:

1	Orange	110.28%
2	Kings Mountain	104.78%
3	Mecklenburg	100.90%
4	Winston-Salem	97.17%
5	Fayetteville	93.06%
6	Granville	88.01%
7	Albemarle	84.08%
8	Concord	83.12%
9	Wilmington	62.95%
	SYNOD	94.32%

Other statistics show total gifts of $12,811,548 in 1958; Benevolences—$3,238,987 (budgeted—$2,207,083; non-budgeted—$1,031,904); and Current Expenses, including Building Expense, $9,572,561. Total per capita giving was the best in history, and benevolence per capita giving increased from $22.19 to $22.95. Following is a summary:

	1958	1957
Benevolences	$22.95	$22.19
Current Expenses	45.95	43.52
Building Expenses	21.87	20.09
Current Expense and Bldg. Expense	67.83	63.61
Total	90.77	85.80

The Synod of North Carolina ranked 11th among the Synods in total per capita giving in the General Assembly in 1958 (12th last year); 6th in per capita giving to benevolences (same as last year).

It is conservatively estimated that the members of Synod withheld a minimum of $8,358,852 or 39.48% of their tithe in relationship to income in 1958. It is conservatively estimated that the income of Presbyterians in 1958 was at least $211,704,001.

Attached to this report are the following documents: (1) Summary of 1960 Proposed Benevolence Budget for Assembly and Synod Causes, together with proposed distribution of same (Apportionments to Presbyteries); (2) Audit of all accounts handled in Synod's Office for 1958 (listed under the Audit); (3) 1960 Budget for Synod's Office and Program of Work; and (4) Statistical Data.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod accept the apportionment of the General Assembly for 1960, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,485,350, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 94.

2. That Synod accept the following budget for Synod's Causes for 1960, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,041,406, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 94.
3. That the total Benevolence Budget of Synod for Assembly and Synod Causes for 1960, amounting to $2,526,756, be apportioned to the several Presbyteries on the basis of the following formula: 1/3 for membership; 1/3 for benevolence contributions to Assembly's and Synod's Agencies for the last three years; and 1/3 for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years, as indicated in the Table on page 95.
4. That the proposed budget for Synod's Office and Program for 1960 in the amount of $49,151.00 be approved. (See page 97.)
5. That the Council reiterates to Synod the importance of the 1958 action of the Synod, relating to support of its program of work, by per capita assessment; and that a per capita assessment of 34¢ for 1960 for support of Synod's Office and Program be approved. (See page 97).
6. That the C.P.A. audited Financial Statements of institutions and Agencies of Synod which have been examined and approved by the Committee on Finance and Audit, be approved by Synod, and the Committee be empowered to complete the examination of the remainder of the audits for record as soon as they are available.
7. That the separate Report by the sub-committee on Records, be adopted.
8. That Synod accept the invitation to meet in the First Presbyterian Church, Greenville, N. C., June 14-15, 1960, 11 a.m.
9. That Synod accept the invitation of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, Peace College, and the other Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, to meet in the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, in 1961. (The Synod convened in the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, in 1861.)
10. That the Rev. Richard R. Gammon be elected as Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Nominations, Class of 1962.
11. That the following be elected as members of the Committee on Nominations, Class of 1962: Granville—Rev. Joseph H. Lansinger; Kings Mountain—W. A. Mason; Mecklenburg—Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence.
12. That Synod express appreciation to J. Neveland Brand, who has served on Synod's Council for six years and for three years as its Chairman, for his excellent leadership.
13. That Synod express appreciation to the Rev. Roy E. Watts, who has served faithfully as Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Nominations, and as a member of Synod's Council, where he was chairman of the sub-committee on Records.
14. That Synod express its appreciation to Dr. Dudley for his economical and efficient management of the Presbyterian News, and that the Council recommends an augmented program for Synod's newspaper and Synod's Press Relations.
15. That Synod acknowledge by a communication its gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. York and others associated with them for the generous gift of property in the Cameron Village section of Raleigh for the erection of Synod's permanent Office Headquarters Building.

16. That Synod express its gratitude to the Trustees of the L. Richardson Trust Fund for generous gifts to the Synod's agencies.
17. That all indebtedness of Synod's Agencies (Synod's Office, Campus Christian Life, and Christian Education) to the Revolving Salary Fund be cancelled as of December 31, 1958.
18. That an item, to be known as the Contingent Salary Fund, to replace the Revolving Salary Fund, be placed in the budget of Synod, beginning in 1960, sufficient in amount to provide each year not less than 20% of salaries, rent, and traveling expense in the current budgets of the following agencies of Synod: Synod's Office, Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, Christian Education, and the Guidance Center, to be administered by the Executive Committee of the Council, and to be disbursed without re-payment.
19. That Synod authorize a special committee, to be appointed by the Synod's Moderator in consultation with the Chairman of Synod's Council, to study the matter of devising a plan for bringing about a better system of relating Assembly's and Synod's budgeted and anticipated receipts to actual appropriations to and expenditures by the said Agencies of our Church, with authority to employ outside professional help, if necessary; and further, that a Certified Public Accountant with experience in budget accounting be designated as Chairman; and that the cost of said study be borne either by private sources or by Synod, if said private sources do not materialize.
20. That Synod approve of campaigns for capital funds as follows: (1) Consolidated Presbyterian College—1961; (2) Union Theological Seminary—1963; Davidson College—1965; and that payments for each of the campaigns ordinarily shall be for not more than two years; and that Synod further recommend to each of these institutions that in November prior to the year of their respective campaigns Synod furnish, upon the request of the local church, the approximate amount which that local church will be asked to contribute in the campaign.
21. That the Presbyteries be requested to endeavor to avoid conflicts of meetings of camps and conferences with the meeting of Synod.
22. In answer to the overture from Mecklenburg Presbytery that Synod amend her Rules to conform with Rules of the Board of Christian Education for employment of Regional Directors of Christian Education, that the overture be answered in the affirmative, and that Standing Rule 13:1 be amended to read:

> "The Director of Christian Education, whose term of office shall be for three years, acting under the general direction of the Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education . . ."

23. That Standing Rule 25:1 be amended by the addition of a Standing Committee on Attendance; and that the functions of the Committee be to consider and to recommend to Synod disposition of all requests to be excused from attendance of Synod for a part of or the full proceedings of the meeting.

24. That Standing Rule 32:6 be amended to read: "No new matter of business may be introduced to Synod later than lunch on the second day of the meeting of Synod."
25. That the amendment to the Manual of Synod's Council, to wit, adding a sub-committee on Nominations be approved.
26. That Synod be reminded that the sesquicentennial of the Synod occurs in 1963, and that Synod last year ordered that plans be set in motion for proper observance of the celebration.
27. That recommendation #17 from the Report of the General Council of the General Assembly of 1959, calling to the attention of Synods and Presbyteries an Assembly-wide campaign for capital funds for Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly in 1963, be received as information.
28. That the calendar of special days and seasons recommended by the General Assembly for observance by the Church, be adopted, and likewise that the customary emphasis for the Orphans' Home (Thanksgiving) and the Presbyterian Home (Mother's Day), with special offerings, be approved.
29. That recommendations 1-6, 11, 13-19 in the Report of the General Council to the 1959 General Assembly, be adopted.
30. That pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson, Moderator of the General Assembly, who will speak on the subject, "John Calvin and His Legacy for Today".

A. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. REPORT OF AUDITOR

Committee on Finance and Auditing
Synod of North Carolina
Presbyterian Church In The United States
Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

As instructed by Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary and Treasurer of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, we have audited the books and records maintained by him as treasurer of the following funds:

Church Extension Fund
Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Funds
Synod's Designated Funds
Educational Institutions Fund
Synod's Office Account
Synod's Account
Inter-Church Relations Account
"Presbyterian News" Account
Permanent Reserve Fund
Campus Christian Life Account
Revolving Salary Fund
Equalization Fund
Synod's Office General Fund
Christian Higher Education Campaign Account
Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund
Presbyterian Office Building Fund

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

We tested the recorded transactions to the extent of tracing the receipts to the depositories and verifying the amounts recorded by appropriate transmittal papers and correspondence, and verifying the constributions from the presbyteries by direct confirmation. Church loans were also verified directly. Expenditures were supported by endorsed cancelled checks and invoices or signed receipts. These were found to be authorized in the minutes of committees and Synod's Council. Bank balances, which were confirmed by correspondence, were reconciled with balances shown on the books. We also ascertained from our analyses that disbursements were properly allocated.

Our examination included such tests of the accounting records and other auditing procedures we considered necessary in the circumstances, the books having been maintained on a cash basis. We did not verify the records of the Christian Higher Education Campaign Account and the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund beyond the recorded receipts and disbursements.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying statements show the cash balances at December 31, 1958 and the receipts and disbursements for the twelve months then ended correctly classified, according to information and explanations given us and as shown by the books.

EXHIBITS AND SCHEDULES

In presenting to you our findings, as the result of the audit, we have prepared twenty-two Exhibits and two Schedules, as enumerated in the Index, which are attached as a part of this report, in addition to the following comments:

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS—CONSOLIDATED

January 1, 1958 to December 31, 1958

Exhibit "A"

A consolidation of receipts and disbursements for all funds is shown in this Exhibit. Inter-fund transfers, in most cases, have been eliminated where practical. Details for various funds are presented as enumerated in the Index. Receipts totaled $1,030,-329.08, of which $553,721.76 was contributed by the presbyteries for support of Synod's causes. Disbursements totaled $1,042,437.-23. The receipts plus cash in banks, savings associations and U. S. Treasury Notes December 31, 1957 of $141,196.13, less the disbursements, leave a balance at December 31, 1958 of $129,087.98 available from all sources as shown in Schedule—1.

Synod's causes funds were handled through Synod's Office General Fund except for the loan funds, campaign and savings accounts. The fund balances are shown on Schedule—1.

In 1957 the Board of Trustees of the Consolidated Presbyterian College received a grant of $15,000.00 from the Fund for the Advancement of Education, New York, N. Y. This was used to make a liberal arts college study for the College's curriculum and the funds were disbursed from the Synod's Office General Fund at the instructions of Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, Chairman of the study. The disbursements through December 31, 1957 totaled $13,704.73, leaving a balance of $1,295.27. During 1958 expenses of $141.25 were paid and the residue of $1,154.02 was returned to the donor.

During the year the Synod received $99.07 from the estate of A. T. McCallum. This represented the balance available for distribution for the year 1957. The funds were received and disbursed by the General Fund in accordance with instructions of the trustees. Of this amount the Church Extension Fund received $16.61. The balance of $82.46 was forwarded to the Board of World Missions and institutions in the mountains, according to the will.

Dividends accruing on capital stock were received and accounted for according to prescribed rates. All securities were examined during the audit. These securities are part of the Permanent Reserve Fund and the income derived from them was apportioned directly to the Church Extension Fund.

All transactions of the Church Extension Committee Loan Funds were examined. At December 31, 1958 the total of the unpaid balance of all loans and accrued interest to that date was $135,145.15. The cash on deposit was $6,587.38. The total unpaid balance of the loans and cash was $141,732.53. At December 31, 1957 the funds' assets totaled $136,601.44. We examined all notes and deeds of trust and found them on hand and apparently properly executed. Details of the loans are shown on Schedule—2 and the funds' transactions are shown on Exhibit "C".

The Permanent Reserve Fund and Educational Institutions Fund have loans to churches not included above. The details of the Permanent Reserve Fund loans are shown on Exhibit "L" where they total $37,479.97, Cash In Savings, $15,646.32, a total of $53,126.29, not including securities valued at $2,405.00.

Proceeds from a gift received from Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Stultz in 1955 have been loaned to churches from the Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account. The balance of the loans at the end of the year was $14,599.20. They are listed on Exhibit "F". The total fund assets were $25,751.47.

The total of all unpaid loans by funds was as follows:

Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Fund—Schedule—2	$135,145.15
Permanent Reserve Fund—Exhibit "L"	37,479.97
Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account—Exhibit "F"	14,599.20
TOTAL	$187,224.32

The Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account had a loan of $10,000.00 due from the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund at December 31, 1958, without interest.

Support of the Synod's Educational Institutions and other Higher Education agencies was based on a net of $252,083.01 for distribution. The amounts and percentages are shown on Exhibit "E". These distributions include designated gifts from presbyteries and churches. A contingency fund—part of Educational Institutions Fund—was established in 1957 for the purpose of assisting the three institutions involved in the consolidation of the colleges. Its share of the funds available in 1958 was $21,200.16. At December 31, 1957 there was a balance of $7,578.64. During 1958 $24,078.64 was appropriated, leaving a balance of $4,700.16. A Permanent Advisory Committee on Higher Education was established by the Synod of 1955. The Committee's share of funds available in 1958 was $2,873.78. This was not disbursed in 1958. The Educational Institutions Fund balance of $7,573.94 at December 31, 1958, represents amounts held for the two causes named above.

Synod's Office was supported by presbytery benevolence receipts in 1958. However, the following contributed to the support of the office in order to absorb the deficit for the year:

Revolving Salary Fund	$ 5,092.03
Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund	5,092.03
TOTAL	$10,184.06

Synod's Designated Funds represents an amount contributed by members of the Belk family to pay for the cost of publishing Rev. O. V. Caudill's Church and Manse Planning Book. The cash balance at the end of the year was $3,500.00. Interest accumulated on the savings account was transferred to the Church Extension account to be used for grants-in-aid to churches. This was done at Mr. Thomas M. Belk's direction.

Synod's support of the North Carolina Council of Churches and Allied Church League was disbursed from presbytery benevolence receipts. These funds were received and disbursed by the Inter-Church Relations Account—Exhibit "I". The pledged amounts paid in 1958 were $1,000.00 to the Allied Church League and $2,500.00 to the North Carolina Council of Churches. The fund deficit was made up by support from the Revolving Salary Fund in the amount of $1,036.65.

"Presbyterian News" was supported from presbytery benevolence receipts in 1958. These receipts were inadequate to meet the cost of printing and expenses. The deficit was absorbed by the Educational Institutions Account in the amount of $5,404.53.

The Campus Christian Life Account—Exhibit "M"—operated at a deficit of $12,647.37 in 1958. This was made up by a loan from the Revolving Salary Fund. At December 31, 1958 a total of $13,567.24 was due the Revolving Salary Fund. This represents deficits for the years 1957 and 1958.

The Revolving Salary Fund was established in 1957 to maintain a balance of not less than twenty percent of salaries, rent, and traveling expenses in the current budgets of the designated agencies of Synod. Referring to Exhibit "N" the total net receipts for the year were $15,017.80. During 1958 the fund supported the following causes:

Loan to Campus Christian Life Account	$12,647.37
Support of Synod's Office	5,092.03
Support of Inter-Church Relations Account	1,036.65
TOTAL	$18,776.05

The Fund had a balance of $12,936.62 at December 31, 1958.

An Equalization Fund was established in 1957. All agencies of Synod were to share in the fund and five percent (5%) of the budgets of each agency was reserved for the fund. The fund's share of the presbyteries' designated gifts for 1958 was $27,310.15, as shown on Exhibit "O". Agencies which received funds directly from churches and presbyteries reported a total of $4,384.02 as available for distribution from 1958 receipts. These are shown on Exhibit "O" and were deducted from the December distributions by Synod's Office. The total amount available was $31,694.17 and this was distributed as shown on the Exhibit. The overdraft at December 31, 1957 represents the amounts due from the agencies at that date and was either paid into the fund or withheld from 1958 distributions. Distributions were made by the Committee on Audit and Finance according to instructions by Synod and Synod's Council.

Synod's Office General Fund received and disbursed designated receipts for Christian Education, Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Presbyterian Home, Inc., and Catechism awards. The details of these are shown on Exhibits "P", "Q", "R", and "S", respectively.

A fund was established during the year to receive contributions for a proposed Presbyterian office building. The details of receipts and disbursements for the year are shown in Exhibit "T". Gifts totaled $3,100.00. Land for the building valued at $40,000.00 was donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. York, except that the Synod must pay $3,500.00 for improvements and incidental costs. A part payment of $1,400.00 was paid to the donor in 1958. The balance in the fund at the end of the year was $1,726.25 with interest in the amount of $26.25 having been credited to the account during the year.

The Synod received in 1958 $4,400.75 which represented residue from the estate of the late Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton, widow of the late C. P. Wharton. This was deposited with First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Raleigh, North Carolina. The estate also included a deed for properties in Raleigh, North Carolina, which were valued at $16,500.00. These were bequests to the Home Mission Committee of the Executive Committee of Church Extension. The income from the properties is to be a perpetual fund to be applied to the salary and support of Home Mission and Evangelistic Work in the Synod of North Carolina.

The Christian Higher Education Campaign was begun in 1956 and the records have been maintained in Synod's Office. On Exhibit "U" the current year receipts and disbursements are shown and the totals to December 31, 1958. Our audit of receipts was made from summaries of subscriptions and payments. The individual pledge cards have not been added completely and compared with the general book totals. The subscriptions through December 31, 1958 totaled $1,742,916.41, per the book summaries. Of this amount $1,151,354.97 had been paid in cash and $66,345.93 in securities—a total of $1,217,700.90. Thus the unpaid subscriptions were $525,215.51.

Synod allowed the Campus Christian Life Committee to conduct a campaign in 1958 to raise $300,000.00 which was the amount unpledged in the Christian Higher Education Campaign and needed to implement the program of work initiated by the Committee. The campaign was supervised by the firm of Ward, Dreshman and Reinhardt, New York, New York. 1958 Campaign receipts have totaled $54,470.92. Campus Christian Life's share of the 1956 Christian Higher Education Campaign gifts was $132,818.00 to December 31, 1958. The disbursements included 1958 campaign expenses of $40,450.89. Capital expenditures in college areas totaled $99,713.50. The fund's balance of Cash on Deposit and on hand at December 31, 1958, was $60,405.38. Details of the year's transactions are shown on Exhibit "V".

The statements of Receipts and Disbursements contained in this report are based on the amounts as shown in the books and records of the Synod's Office. The books were not closed until all funds for the year were received from the presbyteries in order that all receipts for the year January 1, 1958 to December 31, 1958, could be included. Likewise, some expenses for the year were paid after December 31, 1958, and the cash balances shown herein are after including these in the disbursements.

GENERAL COMMENTS

We have prepared this report to show only the cash receipts and disbursements of the funds handled in the office of the Synod of North Carolina. However, for your information we list below the assets in the funds at December 31, 1958 and December 31, 1957.

a. 1960 PROPOSED BENEVOLENCE BUDGET APPORTIONMENTS TO PRESBYTERIES

(For Assembly and Synod Causes Only)

The formula used for determining apportionments to Presbyteries follows: 1/3 for membership; 1/3 for contributions to Assembly and Synod benevolences for last three years; and 1/3 for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years.

IV. REPORTS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rev. James E. Fogartie, Chairman

Your Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education is keenly conscious in submitting its annual report, that a review of the year's work hardly relates in full all of the plans and proposals considered. We are conscious of the magnitude of the responsibility laid upon us, and we are grateful to God for His unceasing blessings. Your Committee desires that Synod be aware of its appreciation for the splendid support given to this phase of the Kingdom's enterprise. It is our hope that this summary account will serve to acquaint Synod with the Committee's functions, plans, and accomplishments.

To facilitate the carrying out of our responsibilities, your Committee has met several times during the past year as a whole; and has worked through Sub-Committees and Councils with particular areas of work.

Regional Director

Of real significance in Christian Education in the Synod of North Carolina is the work of the Rev. Robert Turner, our Regional Director. Your Committee is delighted with Mr. Turner's knowledge of the work and his dedication to the tasks with which he is confronted. Under his able leadership, the total program of Christian Education has been enhanced; and we are delighted to commend Mr. Turner to the Synod and ask for him that encouragement and support necessary to the fulfilling of his responsibilities.

Children's Work

The growth of the Church is predicated in large measure upon the foundations which are laid in the area of Children's Work. The Sub-Committee on Children's Work has throughout the past year endeavored to make available to the several Churches of the Synod a program calculated to render every possible help to those working in this particular field.

Through the efforts of the Area Directors of Christian Education, Vacation Church School Institutes have again been held in each Presbytery. Workshops for Directors for Vacation Church Schools held prior to these Institutes have proved helpful. During 1958, 456 Vacation Church Schools were held in our Synod with an enrollment of 35,934 pupils and 7,087 adult workers. The increasing number of Vacation Church Schools conducted within the bounds of Synod is encouraging.

The attention of Synod is called to the several Training Centers with teacher consultants located within our bounds. At the present time, there are thirteen Centers in the Synod, six new Centers being established during 1958. Churches are invited to make use of these Centers as means for better preparing their own leadership. The locations of these Centers are as follows:

Teacher Consultant	Training Center
Mrs. Quinton Holton CMR 806, Box 1139-L Charlotte, North Carolina	Nursery, Three-year-olds Paw Creek Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. Marvin M. Wynne 1005 Jefferson Road Greensboro, North Carolina	Nursery, Three-year-olds Starmount Presbyterian Church Greensboro, North Carolina

Mrs. R. S. Abernethy, Jr. 1047 Queens Road, West Charlotte, North Carolina	Sr. High Fellowship (Exp.) First Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. B. S. Howell 2500 Cherokee Road Charlotte, North Carolina	Adult Department First Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Miss Maude Rea Route 2, Box 119-A Charlotte, North Carolina	Adult Department Sharon Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina

A Training Camp for Junior Camp Leaders was held during the month of April at Camp New Hope under the direction of Miss Helen Cole, Area DCE for Orange Presbytery. Every Presbytery with the Junior Camping Program was represented. The development of Junior Camps throughout our Synod necessitates the conducting of such Training Camps, and the attention of leaders in this field is called to this program.

The Children's Work Council of the Assembly will meet in Montreat, June 17-19; and Synod will be represented by the Rev. James D. Womack, Jr., Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Children's Work, and Miss Dorothy Ray, Area DCE, Kings Mountain Presbytery.

During the past year, conferences were conducted in each Presbytery under the direction of Mr. Roy Hogrefe, Director of Children's Work for the Board of Christian Education, and the Regional Director.

The cooperation of the Churches of the Synod is encouraged in reporting promptly to Synod's Office activities taking place in the area of Children's Work. Such reports at times may seem tedious, yet they enable your Synod's Committee to do more thorough planning in this field.

Youth Work

That Young Peoples' rallies, camps, and conferences have a vital place in the life of the Church is obvious to any thoughtful churchman. Every Presbytery through its own Committee of Christian Education is seeking to provide thorough training for our young people. These media of training are effective, however, only as local Churches encourage the participation of their own young people.

Your Committee rejoices in the reception throughout the Synod of the Young Peoples' Conference planned at Davidson College, June 22-27, 1959. This Conference is planned for young people who are members of the high school graduating classes of 1957, '58, '59, and '60. Further information relative to this Conference may be obtained from the office of the Regional Director, or from any of the Area Directors of Christian Education.

A Training Retreat for Pioneer Leaders and Senior High Presbytery Advisers and Conference Directors is being planned for the fall of 1959, looking forward to the program for 1960.

Men's Work

That men are at work in our Synod is obvious from the effectiveness of the planning and programs of the Men's Councils. In both Synod and Presbyteries there are well-organized councils, concerning themselves with the activity of men in their local Churches. Splendid rallies have been conducted throughout the Synod.

During 1958, a Christian Youth Conference for Negro Young People was sponsored by the Men of the Synod at State Teachers' College in Fayetteville, with 100 in attendance. A similar Conference is being planned for this year.

A highlight in Men's Work is the annual Synod Men's Conference at Montreat. Last year, 600 men were in attendance, and a splendid crowd is anticipated at Montreat June 26-28, 1959.

Adult Work

The need for an adequate program of work for Adults is of ever-increasing importance. Especially is your Committee concerned with the need for formulating definite policies relative to Young Adult Work as to age, organization, and program.

Of special interest to the Synod will be a planning retreat for Adult Leaders conducted during the past year in the Presbyteries. Your Committee was fortunate in having the Rev. Arthur M. Field, Jr., of the Board of Christian Education attend our most recent meeting. Mr. Field, Director of Leadership Education and Adult Education for our Board, met with the Chairmen of the Sub-Committees on Adult Work of the several Presbyteries. The enthusiastic response of the leaders present evidenced a widening opportunity in the area of Adult Work.

Leadership Education and Area Work

The increasing number of leadership schools gives evidence of a consciousness of the need for trained leaders. That the Churches of the Synod are aware of this pressing need is seen in the many requests that come to Synod's Office of Christian Education. The following statistical report indicates the work that has been done during the past year.

Leadership Schools		21
Clinics		19
Demonstration Classes		2
Camps and Conferences:
Junior	12
Pioneer	19
Senior	10
Pioneer Conclaves	5
SHF Presbytery Councils (Training)	9
		55
Church School Administrative Conferences		3
Vacation Church School Institutes:
Directors	11
Teachers	11
		22
Young Adult Rallies		5
Other Conferences, Workshops, and Significant Meetings		16
New Training Centers (Accredited)		6

Through the Synod's Office, a list of persons who have taught in Leadership Schools in recent years and the courses they have taught may be obtained by interested Churches. Your Committee would be remiss if it did not express appreciation for the outstanding work of our Area Directors. They are: Miss Helen Cole, Orange Presbytery; Miss Eloise Wells, Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries; and Miss Dorothy Ray, Kings Mountain Presbytery. On June 1st, Miss Helen Jackson began her work as Area Director of Granville Presbytery; and on July 1st, Miss Mary Catherine McCormick will assume her responsibilities in Fayetteville Presbytery.

During the past year, three of our Area workers have given up their work to be married. They are Miss Dorothy Lynch, Miss Virginia Morris, and Miss Dorothy Williams. We wish for them God's blessings and rich happiness in the days ahead.

Audio-Visual Department

Your Committee commends to the Synod the Audio-Visual Department of the Committee of Christian Education which is under the competent direction of Miss Beatrice Kiser. It is gratifying to note that the monthly circulation of this department averages 236 audio-visual aids. Approximately 150 Churches in the Synod used the services provided by the library during the past year, with 2,835 pieces of audio-visual material being used. Membership in this department may be secured by any Church in the Synod at the annual fee of $10.00.

Finance

The attention of the Synod should be called to the annual audit of the Financial Statement attached to this report. The Committee recognizes its stewardship of substance, and seeks to expend the funds entrusted to it in a careful manner. A copy of this audit was placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod.

Your Committee would urge that the several Churches of the Synod make every effort to fill their benevolent quotas for the year. Failure to do so will hinder the work of Christian Education not only in the Synod, but in every Church also.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Reverend Robert Turner be commended and re-elected as Regional Director of Christian Education for the Synod of North Carolina for a term of three years.
2. That pending the adoption of this report, the Reverend Robert Turner, Regional Director for the Synod of North Carolina, be presented to the Synod and heard briefly.
3. That pending the adoption of this report, the Rev. Ernest Albert Andrews, Jr., Director of Men's Work for the Board of Christian Education, be heard to address the Synod.

B. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Ralph Scott, Chairman

The Committee convened at Wrightsville Beach May 19-20. Subcommittees held separate meetings. In keeping with the charter of incorporation, the Committee also convened as a corporation on May 20.

Resignation: Dr. H. Howard Thompson, Secretary of Evangelism since July, 1956, resigned, effective June 1, 1959, in order to accept a call to the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, as Associate Minister. The sub-committee on Evangelism, in its Report to the Executive Committee, said of Dr. Thompson,

> "On his leaving, we would pay high tribute to him and thank God for his labors among us, for his Christ-like spirit, and for his promotion in our various Presbyteries of Visitation and Personal Evangelism. We pray for him Godspeed in his new work as Associate Minister of the First Presbyterian Church, of Raleigh."

We endorsed this word of commendation, and further commend it to Synod in a recommendation.

Presbytery Programs: Our Committee heard reports from each of the nine Presbyteries, and is happy to report to Synod that there is general progress throughout the Synod. Winston-Salem Presbytery in particular is to be congratulated on the successful campaign to raise $600,000 for extension work, primarily the establishment of several new churches in the City of Winston-Salem.

Wharton Bequest: A year ago we called attention to a bequest in the will of the late Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton, originally a part of the will of her husband, the late C. P. Wharton, members of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C. The bequest has been delivered to our Committee, and consists of three houses on Tilden Street, in Raleigh, valued at $16,500.00; Cash amounting to $4,405.28; 23 80/100 shares of stock in Patten Package Company, Calypso, N. C. (regarded as worthless since the company is extinct), and title to a cemetery lot in Oakwood Cemetery, Raleigh.

The will specifies that the income from the bequest "shall be a perpetual fund to be applied to the salary and support of a minister to do Home Mission and Evangelistic work in the Synod of North Carolina. Presbyterian Church, U.S., Raleigh, N. C." Your Committee is renting the property, and all income will be used in compliance with the will. Some disposition will doubtless be made of the cemetery lot.

Maps of Synod: Since we last met the new maps of the Synod of North Carolina have been completed and distributed to all ministers and vacant churches of the Synod. Additional copies are available for those who desire them.

Office Building: Last year our Committee sent an overture to the Synod's Council. urging that the time had arrived, in the opinion of the Committee, for steps to be taken to erect a permanent office headquarters building in Raleigh. We are pleased to note that much progress has been made to that end, and the Committee stands ready to provide up to $25,000.00 as a loan without interest, if this is needed, in order to hasten the realization of this project.

Public Relations: At the request of the executive committee of Synod's Council our Committee gave considerable attention to the program of public relations of the Synod, including the Presbyterian News. We are of the opinion that the Synod is spending a modest amount of money on this phase of its program, and that the Presbyterian News needs to be implemented in and by such ways as will accelerate the whole program of public relations conducted by the Synod; therefore, we have offered to share during 1960 with the Synod's Council, in its program through the Synod's Office, support of the program of public relations, and have requested the Council to continue its study of the public relations program of the Synod in an endeavor to more effectively interpret the whole program of work of our great Synod.

Sustentation of Salaries: One of the most encouraging developments we have to report is the trend of the aid-receiving Presbyteries to assume a greater part of self-support. For 1960 the four-aid-receiving Presbyteries have requested $6,162.00 less than for 1959. Of course, this trend is subject to reversal, depending on new opportunities or unprecedented financial set-back in a geographical area. However, for the moment, at least, the situation is encouraging.

General Finances

Regular Account: Income from the Presbyteries during 1958 was $2,424 less than the previous year. Total income for 1958, including $1,509 net received from the Equalization Fund, was $44,850.00 in contrast to $50,400 in 1957, or a decrease of $5,-550.00.

We disbursed to four aid-receiving Presbyteries for salary sustentation of Home Mission pastors in 1958, $33,396.00, in contrast to $34,154.00 the previous year, or $758.00 less. We received from those same Presbyteries $12,380.00 in contrast to $12,578.00, or $198.00 less.

Our total disbursements for the two years compare as follows: for 1958, $46,307.00, in contrast to $48,055 in 1957, or $1,748.00 less in 1958 than the year before.

For 1958 five Presbyteries (Granville, Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, Wilmington, and Winston-Salem) accepted Church Extension askings in full, but none paid 100%. For 1959 four (Granville, Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, and Wilmington) have accepted the full askings.

Church Extension percentage of income received in comparison to Askings for 1958 was 60.05 in contrast to 69.52 the previous year. By Presbyteries this is reflected for each of the two years as follows:

1957 Rank	1957 Percent	1958 Rank	1958 Percent
1—O	93	1—KM	76
2—W-S	85	2—A	68
3—K-M	81	3—WS	66
4—A	77	4—G	65
5—C	73	5—O	64
6—W	67	6—C	58
7—M	62	7—M	56
8—G	53	8—F	51
9—F	49	9—W	50
SYNOD	69.52%	SYNOD	60.05%

Church Extension is the only agency of Synod which for the past several years has consistently received less each year than the previous year, and had it not been for the Equalization Fund in 1958, the Committee would have ended the year with a deficit instead of a balance of $910.41.

Gifts to Assembly's Church Extension increased last year over the year before from $203,610 to $251,185, a gain of $47,575. Congregational Missions received $123,653 in 1958 and $132,286 in 1957, a decrease of $8,633. Gifts to Presbyteries' Church Extension increased by $75,793, or from $339,004 to $414,797.

Synod's Gifts to all Church Extension work for the past two years is compared as follows:

	1958	1957
Congregational Missions	$123,653	$132,286
Presbyteries' Church Extension	414,797	339,004
Combined	$538,450	$471,290
Assembly's Church Extension	251.185	203,610
Combined	$789,635	$674,900
Synod's Church Extension	42,410	44,835
Grand Total	$832,045	$719,735

This Grand Total contrasts with $159,807 given in 1940 and $482,692 in 1950. No doubt, the "One Day's Pay" Campaign in 1958 had a good deal to do with the increase in the over-all Church Extension program, amounting to $112,310 above 1957.

Assembly Aid

During the year the Board of Church Extension has rendered assistance to the Synod by donations for special projects to the extent of $10,000 in three Presbyteries, as follows:

Albemarle	$2,500
Granville	3,000
Wilmington	4,500

In addition, the Board approved of financial assistance to three aid-receiving Presbyteries in the amount of $28,637 for the year 1959, as follows:

Albemarle	$ 8,478
Wilmington	6,600
Winston-Salem	13,559

We wish to express appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for this assistance, and at the same time call attention of Synod to the following excerpt in a letter from Dr. Claude H. Pritchard, Secretary of the Division of Home Missions and Negro Work:

> "Our Board's total receipts from the Synod of North Carolina for the church year ending December 31, 1958, were $195,003.62. Your Synod's full proportionate share of the Assembly's minimum askings for the support of our Board for 1958 was $327,704.00. Our Board's receipts were 59.52% of the minimum asked. Our total receipts from all the Synods amounted to 60.40% of the total asked by the General Assembly for the support of our Board. For the church year 1957 we received from the Synod of North Carolina 69.90% of the amount asked by the General Assembly as compared with the 59.52% for 1958. If our receipts from your Synod for 1958 had approached more nearly the amount asked by the General Assembly, our Board would have been able to grant more of the donation requests which were presented for its consideration at its February 1959 meeting."

HOME MISSIONS

Department of Sunday School Extension

The Committee is still without a Sunday School Extension worker. The Board of Church Extension provides such workers, but we are advised that it has been impossible to secure the right person for the work. Most of the Sunday Schools which were organized under the leadership of Miss Mildred Mallard, the last worker, are blossoming into full-grown churches.

Financial

1) Sustentation of Salaries: There are currently 37 ministers, 5 lay workers, and 2 Executive Secretaries in four Presbyteries on whose salaries the Synod shares support. In addition, there are a number of vacant fields in the four Presbyteries, which when supplied, receive aid from your Committee. In all there are 58 fields (61 last year), representing a total of 90 (96 last year) churches, which are served by the workers who are aided by Synod. Synod subsidized salaries of these workers in 1958 to the amount of $33,396, which was $758.00 less than in 1957.

2) Grants-in-Aid: We appropriated only the amount that was available for grants-in-aid, which amounted to $950. Had the money been available we could have used it wisely on a number of other projects.

3) Loan Funds: There were 46 loans to churches at the end of 1958, ranging from $1,500 to $25,000. Loans are made from (1) The Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, which was valued at $141,732.53 on January 1, 1959; and (2) The Permanent Reserve Fund which was valued at $55,531.29 on the same date. Loans are made at 4% interest, and are properly secured. Income from the Church and Manse Loan Fund is returned to the Corpus, and when the fund reaches $200,000 the income will be used in a manner to be determined by the Committee, probably support of the work through grants-in-aid. The income from the other Fund is currently used for grants.

4) McCallum Estate: We received only $99.70 income from the estate in 1958 (from 1957 earnings), and this was distributed among the various causes, according to the requirements of the will, which means that the Synod received only a few dollars for its agencies. The Estate showed excess of cost of operations over income in 1958 of $1,603.30; therefore, there will be no income for the year 1958.

5) Home Missions in the Presbyteries: Reference has already been made to the apparent healthful situation prevailing in all of the Presbyteries.

Evangelism

Attention has been called to the fact that the Secretary of Evangelism, Dr. H. Howard Thompson, resigned early in May, in order to accept the call to the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh.

Unfortunately, during the year the Chairman of the sub-committee on Evangelism, the Rev. George Riddle, was replaced on the Committee by virtue of his term of office expiring. While this left the committee without leadership temporarily, the Secretary carried on the work with the assistance of the Chairman of Evangelism in the several Presbyteries.

At our meeting in May, the retiring Secretary of Evangelism, Dr. Thompson, appealed to the Committee for a vigorous program of evangelism, implemented by and through Presbytery Chairmen. He also called attention to the availability of excellent materials on Evangelism, and urged the Committee to heartily endorse and support the program of Evangelism being projected at the Assembly level for the Centennial of our Church.

Growth

Communicants

The net gain for the Synod in 1958 was below that of 1957—1.54% in contrast to 1.71% (and 2.16% in 1956). The net increase was 2,143 in contrast to 2,409 in 1957 and 2,891 in 1956. The annual rate of increase was less than the average for the previous five years, 2.23%. Since 1940 the Synod has increased by 49,679 or 54.65%.

The number added on profession of faith in 1958 was 4,758, an increase of 233 over the previous year in contrast to 131 last year.

The number of churches reporting no professions of faith in 1958 was 124 in contrast to 158 in 1957. Many of these were without ministers. As of January 1, 1959, there were 67 vacant churches in the Synod in contrast to 85 the year before (637 churches in the Synod—643 in 1957). The number of baptisms of adults increased from 2,514 to 2,591, while those of infants decreased from 2,843 to 2,831; however a net gain of 65.

The Synod of North Carolina continues to grow more slowly than the average for the General Assembly—2.45% for the Assembly in 1958 in contrast to 1.54% for the Synod; and 28.72% for the Assembly since 1950 in contrast to 22.85% for the Synod.

The General Assembly grows percentage-wise faster than the Baptists of North Carolina, 28.72% since 1950 for Presbyterians and 26.68% for Baptists. (Methodists for the same period only 18.94%). The Synod rate is 3.83% below the Baptists since 1950 but 3.91% better than the Methodists. Among the sixteen Synods, North Carolina ranks twelfth for 1958 (seventh in 1957) and tenth since 1950. The Synod of Florida led the Synods at 6.13%. Since 1950 Florida also has the best record at 65.32%.

For Spiritual Birthrate, the growth on professions of faith, the Synod ranked eighth, 3.44% as compared to 3.33% last year, and to 4.16% for the Synod of Florida. In the Soul-Winning Ratio, the number of members required to win a person on profession of faith, the Synod ranked seventh, 28.1 in contrast to 28.8 for the General Assembly and 24 for the Synod of Florida. Actually the Synod improved in both these areas, nevertheless, lost rank because some other Synods improved.

Among the Presbyteries Winston-Salem again led the Synod in net gain, 4.21%, and for the period 1940-1958 Albemarle continued to lead with a net gain of 100%, against the Synod increase of 54.65%. Mecklenburg is the closest competitor with an increase of 74%. For Spiritual Birthrate Albemarle led both for 1958 and for the period 1950-1958, 4.25% and 4.64%, respectively. The Synod figures were 3.41% and 3.32%. Likewise for the Soul-Winning Ratio, Albemarle led in both categories, 23.55 members and 22.18 members. The Synod figures were 29.31 and 30.79.

Sunday School

The Sunday School enrollment increased in 1958 by 2,704, 2.06%. This was greater than the communicant growth, 1.54%, and showed a reversal of form over last year. Orange Presbytery had the best record, 945 increase—4.60% against Mecklenburg's 984 for 3.18%. Only Kings Mountain reported a loss. For the period since 1940 Albemarle continued to lead with an increase of 117% versus 72% for the Synod and 101% for runner-up Mecklenburg.

Radio-Negro Work

The Committee reports no accomplishments in these departments during the past year.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod express appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for the grants made to the several churches of the Synod and for the sustentation aid provided for ministers in three aid-receiving Presbyteries.

2. That churches and individuals be acquainted with the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, and that they be urged to contribute to the Fund, looking towards the attainment of the goal of $200,000.

3. That Synod earnestly request Presbytery Stewardship Committees and Councils to give serious consideration to Askings by Synod for Church Extension, and that all churches and Presbyteries be called upon to meet their obligations in full to this cause.

4. That Synod show acknowledgement of and gratitude for the bequest from the Wharton Estate by the adoption of this recommendation, and thereby commend to all Presbyterians the worthiness of bequests and deferred gifts, as was exemplified by Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wharton of Raleigh, and as has been elsewhere commended to the Synod by the Permanent Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts.

5. That Synod commend the aid-receiving Presbyteries' emphasis on self-support, reflected in their reduced askings.

6. That Synod hereby takes recognition of the services of Dr. H. Howard Thompson, Secretary of Evangelism since July, 1956, and expresses its gratitude for his leadership in the program of Evangelism; further, Synod expresses its gratitude to God for having sustained Dr. Thompson through his illness in 1958; also that Synod be led in prayer on behalf of Dr. Thompson as he goes to his new work.

7. That local Presbytery Committees on Evangelism take the initiative in planning and promoting Soul-winning efforts within the bounds of their Presbyteries.

8. That Synod whole-heartedly commit itself to the Centennial Program of Evangelism as outlined and planned by the Division of Evangelism of the Board of Church Extension. (In presenting this recommendation, we wish to present also the new Chairman of Evangelism in the Synod, the Rev. Wm. D. McInnis, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Henderson.)

9. That pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear the Rev. George A. Chauncey, Associate Secretary of Evangelism, Board of Church Extension, Atlanta, Ga.

RALPH SCOTT, Chairman

[1] SOUL-WINNING RATIO: Number of members required to win one soul to Christ in a year. Determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith at the end of the year into the total number of communicants at the beginning of that same year. The result is in persons, not percentage, and the lower the figure the better the standing.

[2] SPIRITUAL BIRTHRATE: Growth by professions of faith, expressed in percentage. Determined by dividing the number of members at the beginning of a church year into the number of accessions on profession of faith during that same year. The higher the percentage the better the standing.

C. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

Reverend Charles Lynn Brown, Chairman

The responsibility of Synod in the area of Higher Education continues to challenge our best thought and concerted action. A major portion of the responsibility is for the colleges which have been a source of great pride in the past. Since World War II our concern for students in non-Presbyterian schools has been greatly enlarged. Some idea of the extent of our responsibility can be gained from the fact that this year we have 6,632 Presbyterians pursuing college training in all institutions. This is an increase of 1,362 in three years. A conservative estimate is that there will be approximately 11,000 Presbyterian students in college by 1970. There are 1,245 Presbyterian students in our own schools with a total student body of 2,436.

We are greatly encouraged by the response of the Church to the Queens' Centennial Fund, to the Davidson's Dana Challenge Fund, and by the recently reported Dana Challenge Fund offered to Queens. The willingness of our constituency to contribute to these appeals in addition to our regular benevolent offerings and in addition to the campaigns for the Consolidated College and Campus Christian Life indicates very clearly that Church-related education still holds a very strong place in the loyalty of Presbyterians.

As we make our report this year your committee would call to the Synod's attention the vital issue of the relationship between our Church and our Church-related schools. In the rapidly changing educational picture we must work very closely together in exploring to the fullest the responsibility of the schools to the Church and the responsibility of the Church to the schools. This cannot be defined merely in terms of financial support or even control. But there must be a common aim in the Christian nurture of our students and a common loyalty deeply felt and adequately supported to our Lord and Saviour.

The solution to many of our problems and the Christian ministry of both school and Church depend upon our success in answering these questions.

The continuing study of the needs of our colleges and the bilateral responsibility of schools to Church and Church to schools will be made by the Permanent Advisory Committee on Higher Education, authorized by the Synod in 1957. The Committee will hold its initial meeting in Charlotte June 29.

Recommendations:

1. That the Synod of North Carolina hereby express its deep appreciation for the services of Dr. Warner L. Hall, retiring from membership on the Executive Committee on Higher Education, and as Chairman of the sub-committee on Educational Institutions, after a period of approximately seven years, during which he has guided the program of Christian Education, as it relates to educational institutions, in a statesmanlike manner, to the end that the program of Christian Education for educational institutions as adopted by this Synod has become a pilot plan for the nation.

2. That the Synod express appreciation to the Reverend Malcolm McIver for his outstanding service as Director of Campus Christian Life with the Board of Christian Education in the Presbyterian Church in the United States.
3. That in view of the fact that Union Theological Seminary provides one-half of tuition expenses for educating its students, we therefore call upon all churches which have candidates for the ministry to endeavor to assist these candidates in their education in order that they may not be a charge against the seminaries; and secondly, that we suggest that our seminary consider increasing its tuition.
4. That the Committee on Higher Education recommends to Synod the establishment of an Executive Committee on Campus Christian Life, to consist of 18 members, classes, etc., and functions to be defined by the Standing Rules Committee of Synod, in accord with the Rules of Synod.
5. That Campus Christian Life be given an opportunity to participate in the long-range plans of Synod for Campaigns for capital gifts.
6. That all individuals and churches which have pledged to the cause of Campus Christian Life be requested to meet their pledges as promptly as possible in order that Synod may honor its obligations for capital improvements at the various Centers.
7. That the prayers of Presbyterians of the Synod of North Carolina be earnestly solicited for the continued progress of the Presbyterian Guidance Center Program in the Synod of North Carolina.
8. That the Synod express gratitude to Professor Rodger Wayne Decker, Director; to Professor Ernest H. St. Jacques, Associate Director; and to Mrs. Lavalae Simmons, Secretary, of the Presbyterian Guidance Center.
9. That the Synod express gratitude to Dr. Marshall S. Woodson and the Administration of Flora Macdonald College for providing the physical facilities and a large part of the financial support of the Guidance Center.

1. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

Rev. Archie G. McKee, Chairman

Campus Christian Life is an integral and vital part of the total ministry of the Synod of North Carolina. It is the task of the Campus Christian Life ministry to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the academic community. To minimize the importance and magnitude of this ministry is to fail to view realistically the frontier and growing edge of the Church.

Anyone remotely related to the campus ministry is aware that the culture of America is transplanted to the academic community. The CCL ministry addresses itself to the presentation of the truth of the Christian Faith amid conflicting viewpoints on the campus and many changes within the campus scenes.

As the Synod views the responsibility of the CCL ministry, it must become aware of certain changes within the academic scene. First, the population explosion which indicates an unprecedented increase in students on the campuses of colleges and universities during the next ten years. There are presently more than three million students enrolled in the colleges and universities of America. In 1970, it is expected that the enrollment will be at least six and one-half million. Undoubtedly the greater percentage of the increase in student enrollment will become the responsibility of the colleges and universities operated by the state. This consideration alone signally emphasizes the fact that the ministry of the Gospel within the State College and University campus is of paramount importance to the Church. Secondly, the Church is responsible to recover in a fragmentary community the concept of the pursuit of knowledge for the "Glory of God." Much of the attitude of the campus today reflects the idea that knowledge is power and therefore the student is motivated to a large degree by the desire to earn money. Thirdly, the Church must be aware of the ideological conflicts in an age of revolution. Patterns of life are being changed and uprooted. The Church must not fail within the framework of the academic culture and community to proclaim, interpret, and share the great "event" —the love of God made known in Jesus Christ.

The inevitable result of a vigorous CCL ministry will be the outpouring of a stream of graduates who will go forth in life to lead and to serve in the Church and in the community as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Through the Committee of CCL, the Synod seeks to conduct a ministry through the lives of university pastors and CCL workers on the following campuses:

Duke University, Durham, N. C., Reverend Charles E. Johnson, Jr.; East Carolina College, Greenville, N. C., Reverend Sheldon F. Koesy; Fayetteville State Teacher's College, Fayetteville, N. C., Reverend Robert A. Massey; N. C. State College, Raleigh, N. C., Rev. T. Hartley Hall, IV (will assume the responsibility for this ministry in July, 1959); University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C., Reverend Harry E. Smith; Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, N. C., Mrs. Faye Phillips.

These full and part-time CCL workers are assisted ably by the local committees of CCL and by the ministers in the Churches of the academic community. To these ministers and laymen, the committee expresses its heartfelt gratitude for the vision and zeal of their leadership in this important phase in the Church's life and ministry.

At the present time the Campus Christian Life ministry is responsible for 6,632 Presbyterian students. The rising tide of student population indicates that we must plan to minister to not less than 11,200 Presbyterian students in the next decade.

The committee is making every effort to provide competent staff personnel for each campus situation and to furnish the CCL workers with adequate salary and housing accommodations. The present student enrollment and the impending increase in enrollment places upon the Synod the serious responsibility of providing sufficient funds to maintain a ministry that will be adequate both in terms of personnel and facilities.

The financial picture is a checkerboard of bright and dark spots. In order to provide more adequate physical equipment, the Synod has authorized two campaigns for capital gifts for the ministry of CCL. The results of these campaigns are as follow:

	Amount Pledged	Amount Received
1958 Campaign	258,994	75,265

The monies received from these campaigns have enabled the Synod's Committee to purchase housing for use as Student Centers at East Carolina College and at Woman's College in Greensboro—$29,313.50. In addition to these purchases, the construction of the Student Center at the University of N. C., for which $200,000 of Synod's Fund have been allotted, is expected to be completed and in operation by the opening of the school year in September, 1959. The West Raleigh Presbyterian Church has begun the expansion of the facilities which will include a Student Center for the work at N. C. State College. $45,000 of Synod's funds have been advanced for this center. Duke University has purchased with $5,400 of Synod's capital funds a lot and is now developing plans for a Student Center in the religious quadrangle between the East and West Campuses. These physical developments are a real sign of encouragement and a symbol that the Church means business in its ministry to the academic community.

The operation of the program, which is dependent upon the benevolence contributions to the Synod, is somewhat discouraging. In 1957, the work incurred a deficit of $919.87. In 1958, a deficit of $12,647.37 was incurred. This means that a total of $13,567.24 is due the Revolving Salary Fund for the 1957-58 ministry. For the current year—1959—the Synod budgeted $65,120.00 for the ministry of CCL. The Presbyteries accepted 87% of the Synod's budget. Based, however, on previous experience in connection with the receipts from the Church, the work can expect to receive approximately 60% of the original request. With this in mind, the committee of CCL requested all the Centers to submit a revised budget, cutting the program and requirements to an absolute minimum. The committee then studied in detail the total financial structure and authorized a spending budget, including committee expense, of $39,799.00 for the year 1959, exclusive of $2,600.00 in Challenge Funds from the Board of Christian Education, $500.00 from the U.S.A. Presbyterian Church, and $400.00 from Duke University for the work at Duke University. The committee expects to complete the current year without additional deficit. This approach to the financial problem has been made in the hope that the budget may be balanced and the program placed on a sound financial basis. However, it must be noted that in arriving at the current spending budget, the committee is $25,000.00 short of the original askings, and has curtailed the program and its expansion to this limit. Also it must be noted that this curtailment could be made because of the absence of a University pastor at N. C. State College, the failure to fill the vacancy of the Associate worker at the University of N. C.; the deletion of all appropriations for student programs at the Centers; and the use of all the reserves and Contingent funds at the Centers. Such a circumstance is not conducive to the development of the necessary program on this vital frontier in the Church's ministry. These are the hours for action—we must not arrive with "too little, too late." The ministry of CCL is on the threshold of a great advance, and with the full support and encouragement of the Synod, will be able to meet the challenge of the ever-increasing student population with an adequate and effective program under the direction of competent CCL workers.

The committee recognizes the importance of the tasks to which it is commissioned by the Synod, as well as the demands and problems of the CCL ministry. A long-range program, which was begun in the capital-gifts campaigns, must be carefully thought out and executed.

Because the ministry of Campus Christian Life is greatly expanding in the Synod, it is most important that careful attention be given to the make-up, function, and real purpose of the Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee. We note the following problems:

(1) Lack of continuity in the membership of the Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee.

(2) The need for additional first-rate lay leadership in the Committee.

(3) The limitation of personnel and the lack of time provided at the meetings of the Committee to deal adequately with the problems on particular campuses and long-range planning for the work in the Synod.

(4) Need for a more permanent type of organization.

It is our belief that the work of the Synod's Campus Christian Life Committee should be transferred to an Executive Committee of Campus Christian Life. This group would be similar to a Board of Trustees of one of our church colleges or seminaries. It would have 18 members, who would be elected by the Synod.

This Executive Committee would be responsible for:

(1) Long-range planning for the Campus Christian Life ministry in the Synod.

(2) A vigorous promotion program.

(3) Careful consideration of adequate funds to finance the work, including a bequest and deferred gifts program.

(4) Cooperating with the Department of Campus Christian Life to seek out the most able university pastors and Campus Christian Life workers.

(5) Studying carefully the total programming needs for the Campus Christian Life ministry.

(6) Organizing the committee in such a way as to insure continuity of leadership.

2. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

REV. WARNER L. HALL, Chairman

The year 1958-59 has been one of genuine progress for our educational institutions. This advance has been noticeable in a number of areas.

[3] Of this amount $960.00 applies on the 1956 budget (see minutes of C.C.L. Committee October 16, 1956, page 1, and March 19, 1957, page 3.)

Davidson and Queens have added significantly to their resources. Davidson received a $400,000 challenge gift from the Dana Foundation. This gift was to provide the Dana Science Laboratory. Davidson was to provide additional funds sufficient to erect those other facilities needed to provide for an enrollment of 1,000 students. The Laboratory is now in process of construction, and should be ready for use by the beginning of 1960. Over $575,000 of the matching funds are already in hand. When the total amount is in hand, it will add $1,100,000 to Davidson's plant funds. In May Queens announced that the Dana Foundation had offered them $360,000 as a challenge gift, to be matched during the school year 1959-60. This will provide much needed instructional facilities. Prior to the announcement of the Dana gift, Queens had pronounced its $2,000,000 campaign a success. These splendid additions to Queens' fund will make possible the intention of the college to bring the enrollment up to 600 students and to provide first class facilities.

Progress has been made in all schools in raising faculty salaries. This is a matter of utmost moment. Our schools must be brought into a competitive position. A more adequate response must be made to those whose loyalty has kept them faithful in the past. As would be expected, Davidson with its large endowment of more than $9,000,000 is in a position to do more than the others for its faculty. The average salary there has been $6,475. This will be raised 5% next year. The administration and trustees are agreed that this must be substantially increased in the near future. Queens has made substantial progress in the last few years, but recognizes that it still has far to go. Their median salary for the past year was $5,100. They must find funds to increase this substantially and soon. The Consolidated College, having the smallest endowment of the three and charging the smallest tuition fee, pays the smallest salaries. While in some instances salaries exceed $5,000, the average salary is less than the starting salary for an instructor at the University of North Carolina, and the whole range of salaries is below that paid by the public schools of Charlotte. Those who teach under such circumstances do so out of a sacrificial loyalty to the institution. We honor them. But we ought also to pay them. This is a situation which must be remedied with all dispatch. This can only be done in two ways: One is by increasing the tuition; the other by increased gifts of the Synod. We must have as our goal, as soon as our operation can be reduced to three locations, at least $125,000 for each from the funds of the Synod.

Another and needed approach to this problem is a more realistic tuition fee. To many it appears to be more sensible to charge approximately the operating costs (as distinguished from capital costs) of an education, giving scholarship wherever needed, than to charge anywhere from one-fourth to one-half of this cost. It has been reliably estimated that one-half of the college students of today spend more for their personal automobiles than they spend for tuition. Many obviously can afford to pay their own way. Just as obviously, many cannot. It is here that the Synod must provide the resources to provide scholarships so as to enable any worthy student to attend our schools.

A third approach is the provision of scholarship funds by each local church so as to enable their own young people to attend our colleges. This is money that is easy to raise. It ties the church, the young person, and the college together in a profitable relationship.

After serious delays, occasioned by unfortunate lawsuits, the Consolidated College is making significant progress. Preparation for the new curriculum is being made. In this a grant from the Danforth Foundation has been most helpful. The building committee is moving forward. The site with its 70 acre lake is now being made ready for the beginning of the construction of the new buildings. It is expected that construction will begin within the near future. A vast amount of study and planning has gone into this preparation, so that the college, when it is built, should be one of the most beautiful and most interesting in the country. We are now moving into the final phase of the realization of a vision. Seen by the Synod years ago, it is now beginning to come to fruition. It has as its main features: 1. A balanced program—a coeducational college, a college for women and one for men. 2. Four-year, quality, Christian education. 3. Worthy support by the Synod. 4. A scholarship program by local churches to enable our Presbyterian students to attend our own colleges. 5. Adequate facilities on each campus. 6. Substantial endowments.

There is yet much that needs to be done. And to that we must renew our commitment. There is much that has been done and for that we give thanks. We have come a long way. We have a plan. We know where we are going. We are moving towards a great goal. It may well be that the present decade will prove to have been the most significant in the history of higher education in the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina.

a. MONOGRAPHS OF INSTITUTIONS

SENIOR COLLEGES

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, Davidson, North Carolina, Dr. D. Grier Martin, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Presbyteries composing the Synods of North Carolina and Florida, plus Asheville Presbytery of Appalachia Synod. Founded in 1837. Men.

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; the Southern University Conference; the National Conference of Church-Related Colleges; the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; and is on the list of colleges approved by the Association of American Universities. Davidson has a Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. (Size of College: 910 students, 70 Professors, 12 Officers of Administration.)

Financial: Book value of property, $6,400,000; General and Scholarship Endowment, $9,000,000; For the college year ending June 30, 1959 the supporting churches of the Synod of North Carolina will have contributed $35,000 or 3.2% of the educational budget of the College according to an estimate based on payments so far plus final two payments of same period last year.

It is anticipated that the enrollment will be held to approximately 900 students for the 1959-60 college year. The College has received more than 1,000 applications for enrollment this year to fill a freshman class of 250 students.

The Trustees of Davidson College have authorized a gradual increase in enrollment to 1000 students, and they have specified that such an increase will be made only as the resources of the college are enlarged to guarantee the quality of the instructional program. To support this effort, a multi-million dollar Ten-Year Plan of Development has been charted by the Trustees and Faculty to organize, on a long-range basis, the planning, curricular studies, and financial expansion that will bring added strength, vigor, and effectiveness to Davidson during the next decade.

Already completed are a $270,000 Library addition; $250,000 E. H. Little Dormitory; and $500,000 Fraternity Court.

The $675,000 Dana Science Building is in the process of construction, and a new $350,000 dormitory will be started this summer.

Next on the list of construction is a $400,000 Fine Arts Building to be named in honor of President Emeritus, John R. Cunningham.

Increased endowment for faculty salaries, research, study and travel remains a continuing goal.

FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE, Red Springs, North Carolina, Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, President. Owned and operated by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States. Founded in 1896. Women. (Men enrolled as day students.)

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member of the National Association of Schools of Music; member of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, North Carolina College Conference, and the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South.

Size of College: 368 Students, 6 Administrative Staff; 34 Faculty Members.

Property and Finances:

1. Value of property—$424,637.61
2. General Endowment—$436,726.21
3. Scholarship Endowment—$130,694.48

The Board of Trustees has charged the administration with the challenging task of constantly endeavoring to improve the college in every phase of its work. To this undertaking the administration has given itself with resolute determination. It can be truthfully reported that the college has made definite progress and is now in the finest condition of any time in its history.

A recent issue of the Red Springs Citizen carried a front-page feature story pointing out a number of impressive improvements on the campus and buildings. The article commended the administration for the successful effort which is being made to improve and maintain the physical facilities of the college so as to make them even more attractive and to increase their functional effectiveness.

The gardens begun by Dr. Vardell, have become one of the showplaces in eastern North Carolina. This spring, when thousands of azaleas, hundreds of dogwood trees, and numerous other flowering plants were in bloom, the entire campus was breathtaking in its loveliness and fragrance.

Visitors who come to the campus and see the grounds and buildings and sense the atmosphere of the college say that they are reminded of the gracious living which characterized a plantation home of the Old South.

While we have a right to be proud of the lovely setting in which the college does its work, Flora Macdonald College is not content to glory in its past or to enjoy its present achievements with complacency. A progressive spirit marks the aims and the activities of the college. Staff and faculty are constantly working to improve and enrich the academic program of the institution. The goal is to offer Christian education at its finest, and real strides have been made in realizing that goal.

Flora Macdonald College has a strong faculty of gifted and skilled teachers who love the college and give themselves with devotion and dedication to their tasks. The effectiveness of the teaching program is manifested in the quality of graduates who go forth from the college. Numerous cases can be pointed out where Flora Macdonald College graduates have made brilliant records in professional and business careers. The contribution of the college in training teachers, pastor's assistants, and wives and mothers has been outstanding.

The Conservatory of Music, made famous by the wife of the first president and now being further strengthened by her son, the present Dean, enjoys increasing prestige because of the high quality of its work.

The Vardell Scholarships, now in the fifth year of its operations and offering generous amounts to recipients of these scholarships, has attracted to the campus a large number of students of exceptional promise.

With increased gifts from the Synod, the college has been able to keep the quality of its work high in the face of inflationary threats to a successful business operation.

The total enrollment for the year is the largest in the history of the institution, and the indications are that the numbers enrolled next year will be even larger.

The religious life on the campus during the year has been exceptionally fine. The program sponsored by the Student Christian Association has been most effective and the students and faculty alike have contributed to the maintenance of the spiritual vitality which has always been one of the marked characteristics of the college. As a student has said, "It is the popular thing to be a Christian on this campus."

The Synod's Guidance Center continues to serve the church, but we are unable to take care of all the groups who have been requesting appointments. The Synod would be wise in providing additional funds to add to the staff of the Center.

QUEENS COLLEGE, Charlotte, North Carolina, Edwin R. Walker, Ph.D., President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synods of North and South Carolina. Founded 1857.

Academic Standing: Four-year, fully accredited liberal arts college for women. College is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, the American Council on Education, the Presbyterian Education Association of the South, the Association of American Colleges, the American Association of University Women, the National Commission on Accrediting, and the College Entrance Examination Board. Music Department is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Evening College is a member of the National Association of University Evening Colleges.

Size of the College: Enrollment in regular college session, 487; Evening College, credit courses 220, non-credit courses 481, total, 701; non-college music enrollment, 169; summer session of 1958, 162; total 1519.

Financial Status: Value of property, $3,500,000. General and scholarship endowment $2,000,000. The contributions from the two supporting Synods during 1957-58 were $46,458 (North Carolina $31,433) which is 6.6% of budgeted operating expenditures.

General Information: The physical plant has been materially enlarged and improved during the past year. During the summer of 1958 three duplex sorority lodges and a maintenance shop building were completed, and a small classroom-office building was renovated and resurfaced with brick to match adjacent buildings.

In January the Irwin-McKay Infirmary was completed and dedicated. It was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Belk, honoring physicians in their families. A residence hall to house 140 students at a cost of $490,000 is now under construction, and will be ready for use in September of this year. Use of all temporary dormitory space will be discontinued with the opening of the 1959-60 term, and Carol Hall will be devoted to academic purposes.

Bids for the new library will be opened and contracts let early in the summer. The kitchen which serves the entire campus will be completely remodeled and re-equipped during the summer.

The Queens-Charlotte Leadership Program, a joint project of Queens College and the churches of Charlotte, continues to be one of the outstanding contributions made by the college to the religious life of the community. Attendance at two schools during the past year numbered 1600.

Queens students are encouraged to participate in the work of local churches while in college; and, through such work, they gain experience valuable to their home communities. A number of Queens graduates each year continue their studies in training schools and enter full-time church positions.

The Queens Evening College, an adult education program established in 1951, serves the people of Charlotte and surrounding area by offering regular college credit courses and special non-credit cultural and recreational courses. Courses planned with business and industrial leaders offer an additional educational service.

The curriculum of the college is constantly being studied by the faculty to determine how it can best be administered to meet the needs of the students. For the first time this year a bachelor's degree in music has been offered. Additional strength has been given to the faculty by the appointment of unusually well qualified instructional personnel.

THE CONSOLIDATED PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, Laurinburg, North Carolina, Dr. Marshall Scott Woodson, Acting President, Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, Vice President. Owned and supported by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Wednesday, April 15, was a "red letter" day, with groundbreaking exercises taking place on the new campus in Laurinburg. Before a large gathering, a very impressive ceremony was held. Acting President Woodson presided, with the invocation led by Vice President Louis C. LaMotte. Stirring addresses were made by Mr. Hector MacLean, the Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Halbert M. Jones, Chairman of the Building Committee. A prayer of dedication was offered by Dr. Albert N. Wells, pastor of the Laurinburg Presbyterian Church. Greetings were conveyed to the Assembly by President William Pressly of Peace College. The service was closed with Bishop W. W. Peele pronouncing the benediction.

The buildings on the new campus are to be built around a seventy-acre lake, and it is believed that the new campus will be one of the prettiest in America.

The Consolidated College will have a unique curriculum, which was drawn up by a group of outstanding educators summer before last at Chapel Hill. Recently, the Danforth Foundation has given the college a sizeable grant of money with which to finance the preliminary work in preparation of the key course on Christianity and Culture.

Last summer, President Woodson took part in a workshop on General Education at Teachers College, Columbia University. Upon his return home, Dr. Karl W. Bigelow of Teachers College, who conducted the workshop, wrote, saying, "Yours is one of the most exciting opportunities in higher education that I know of, and the way in which planning is being carried out is really remarkable.

The architects are busy drawing up plans for the buildings, and it is hoped that bids can be sought for some of these units within the very near future.

The Board of Trustees is still hoping to be able to open the college to students in the fall of 1960. At the beginning, two programs will be provided. One of these will be for freshmen entering college for the first time, who will follow through on the curriculum for the new college which has been called a new concept in Christian higher education. The second program will be for students transferring from one of the three institutions to the new campus It will be possible for a student from one of the three colleges to move into the Consolidated College and continue to completion the same curriculum under which he entered any one of the three institutions.

The Consolidated College, with its exciting and fresh curriculum, has already attracted the attention of educators across America.

Mr. Silas M. Vaughn, a young man of wide training and experience, has been secured as the Business Manager for the Consolidated College and has opened up a new office for the college on the second floor of the State Bank of Laurinburg.

JUNIOR COLLEGES

PEACE COLLEGE, Raleigh, North Carolina. Dr. William C. Pressly, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina with two Trustees appointed from each of the nine Presbyteries and two from the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, and with sixteen Trustees appointed at large. Founded 1872. Women.

Academic Standing: Member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, North Carolina College Conference, the American Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, and the Presbyterian Education Association of the South.

Size of the College: 318 students; 15 full-time, 8 part-time Faculty, 10 Staff (9 full-time, 2 part-time).

Financial: 1958 value of property $750,000; General Scholarship Endowment $250,000. The contributions from the churches for operating budget were $21,829.93, which is 8.5 per cent of the total operating budget.

Peace College completed its 87th year on June 1, 1959.

The quality of academic work was good. In admitting a student, in addition to her scholastic record, proper consideration is given to her general background, as well as to her seriousness of purpose, church interest, and general promise of growth.

Peace is awarding annually five competitive scholarships totaling two thousand dollars, granted largely on the basis of scholarship, achievement, character, and need.

Peace is constantly striving to secure a faculty of outstanding academic ability, who appreciate thorough scholarship, and who have a certain sympathy with and understanding of student problems, most of whom are Presbyterians, and all of whom are members of some evangelical denomination and genuinely interested in promotion of the cause of Christianity.

Peace College is striving to promote a real program of Christian education. The Administration and Faculty are planning such a program largely by means of Chapel, Bible, and the classroom in general. A course in "Christian Beliefs," was added recently. Also since student cooperation is essential, the Peace Student Christian Association takes the lead in encouraging student participation in all religious programs in the school and in the local church fellowship groups which students are urged to attend. Ten or fifteen students are thinking seriously of entering active Christian service. Consideration is given in planning the religious program at Peace to the fact that a large number of Peace girls will be home-makers, and will have an opportunity of training their children in the Christian faith as well as serving themselves in the many phases of the local church work.

The Religious Emphasis services this year were led by Dr. Margaret Shannon of the United Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and Dr. William Bennett, pastor of Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church, Durham.

A Meditation and Prayer Room in memory of the late Miss Lucy Steele, Mary McNair Professor of Bible at Peace from 1933 until her death in 1954, has meant much in the religious life of the College.

The Peace College Women's Advisory Committee is composed of five representatives from the Women of the Church of each of the nine Presbyteries, including their presidents. Mrs. Charles Grier of Carthage, N. C., is chairman of the Advisory Committee.

Peace College appreciates fully the financial support of the Presbyteries of N. C. and asks for their continued support and prayers as the College attempts to fulfill its purpose as a Church College.

PRESBYTERIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE (Division of Consolidated Presbyterian College), Maxton, North Carolina. Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina, founded 1929. Co-educational.

Academic Standing: Accredited by the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction for University of North Carolina; member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member American Association of Junior Colleges; member of North Carolina College Conference; member the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; Associate member of the commission on Christian Higher Education of the Association of American Colleges; approved by United States Office of Education for the admission of foreign students.

Size of College: 282 in regular session; 135 in Summer School; total of 417. In the regular session 170 were Freshmen; 58 Sophomores; 27 Preparatory; and 27 special or adult students. There were fourteen teachers, some of whom were part-time, equal to 12 2/5 full-time teachers. Nine served on the administrative staff.

Financial: According to audit May 31, 1958, the value of property was $664,569.00; general endowment $338,982.46, including scholarship endowment. Total assets $1,050,637.10. Gifts received in the financial year June 1, 1957, to May 31, 1958, were: Individual gifts $492.00, Synod of North Carolina $32,806.63, Women-of-the-Church and specials from churches $705.00, other $5,886.43. Gifts from the Synod were fifteen per cent of total expenditures.

In the regular session there were 121 Presbyterians, U.S., 1 Presbyterian United, 1 Presbyterian Associate Reformed, 60 Baptists, 3 Christians, 11 Episcopalians, 3 Lutherans, 48 Methodists, 27 members of other denominations, mostly Roman Catholics, and 7 without church membership.

In 1958 there were fifty-three graduates, of whom twenty-two were from the preparatory department. The commencement preacher in 1959 was Dr. Sidney A. Gates of Salisbury, and the address was by Dr. R. T. L. Liston, president of King College, Bristol, Tenn. Summer School will be held the coming summer beginning June 8 in Preparatory courses, and June 15 in Collegiate subjects. In 1958 there were 135 enrolled in both terms of Summer School, an incerase from 105 the previous year. The third floor of the dormitory was equipped for occupancy by twenty-four students during the summer. The Middle East College-Credit Tour, conducted in cooperation with Lafayette College, had an enrollment of eleven, who spent forty-three days in Bible Lands studying archaeology and the present-day political situation. Slides taken on the tour have been showed at some fifty churches, civic clubs, and other groups, and have provided worthwhile public relations for the college. Mr. Hector MacLean, chairman of Consolidated Presbyterian College, was the speaker at the formal opening of college. The enrollment at the opening of college compared with the previous year as follows:

Preparatory and special students	40	32
Freshmen	110	154
Sophomores	41	34
Night Class students	5	10
Total	196	230

Pre-session faculty conferences and orientation program were elements in the opening of college. The Reverend William T. DuBose conducted Fall Devotionals. Several outstanding speakers visited the campus during the fall. Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr. was presented in a concert. In the spring the Program of Distinguished Visitors proved most stimulating. Dr. Ernest Lee Stoffel led Religious Emphasis Week. The Student Christian Association and the Christian Service Fellowship gave organized leadership to religoius activities. There are twelve ministerial candidates and two others planning full-time religious vocations. Three ordained and several lay faculty members have supplied vacant pulpits, as have ministerial students.

The North Carolina College Conference, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the North Carolina Conference of Church-Related Colleges, and many state and regional educational conferences were attended by faculty members or students. The college participated in the program of The North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges. Two radio programs have been conducted each week. College Days in North Carolina and South Carolina High Schools have been largely attended. The Woman's Advisory Board, Wilmington Presbytery, and several church committees have met on our campus. American Education Week, Founders' Day, Homecoming Day, National Christian College Day, and the Junior-Senior Banquet were observed. Students activities have been promoted. The International Relations Club has been more active than in former years. Basketball, tennis, and baseball have been intercollegiate sports, with a second place in the conference in baseball.

The National Defense Loan Fund has been established.

Considerable attention and effort have been given to the development of the program of Consolidated Presbyterian College. The president is serving as vice-president and secretary of the Consolidated Presbyterian College. Faculty committees have met an average of at least once each week with committees from Flora Macdonald College. All matters referred to Presbyterian Junior College personnel have been given priority handling, and faculty and staff have participated in curriculum planning, consultation with the architects and educational consultants, cooperation in the setting up of the Laurinburg office, planning for the construction of the lake, public relations, financial planning, legal concerns, and other developments.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Richmond, Virginia, is owned and controlled by the Synods of North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, and Appalachia through a board of 28 trustees nominated by the Synods. One half of the trustees are ministers, and one half are church officers. The President, Dr. James A. Jones, is a 29th trustee ex officio. Founded in 1812. Men.

The Board of Trustees of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia submits the following report for the Session of 1958-1959 to the Synod of North Carolina:

1. Student Affairs

The most important part of the life of the Seminary concerns the welfare of the students. The Trustees judge that this has been a good year with regard to student morale, academic progress, and spiritual development.

During the session 289 students were enrolled, 235 students being undergraduates and 54 students being graduates. There are 73 candidates for the Bachelor of Divinity degree, 12 for the Master of Theology degree, and 7 for the Doctor of Theology degree. Two members of the Senior Class, not taking the Biblical language courses required for the awarding of the degree, will receive recognition at Commencement. The students come from 21 states, from five foreign countries, and from 134 literary institutions. Fifty-six of the 85 Presbyteries of the Church, three other Presbyterian bodies, and nine other denominations are represented in the student body.

The incoming class this year brought some interesting surprises, and a reversal of the recent tendency toward a lowering of the average age of the entering students. Less than half of this class came to Seminary direct from college, 40 of the 77 having had experience in business or military service in the interim. The proportion of our students who are married continues to move upward, now representing over 58 per cent of all undergraduates.

The graduates of the Seminary this year will again go into the mainstream of service as ministers to local churches, as chaplains in the military service, as missionaries at home and abroad. Of the graduating class, approximately ten will continue in graduate studies.

2. Faculty and Administration

The addition of a new member of the Faculty during the year has significantly strengthened our teaching corps. The Reverend John Haddon Leith, Ph.D., began his work as Professor of Historical Theology with the Spring Quarter.

The generosity of the Alumni has again made it possible to bring to the campus a Visiting Professor. The Reverend Dr. Bo Ivar Reicke, Professor of New Testament Studies, University of Basel, Switzerland, is teaching three courses during the Spring Quarter. Dr. Reicke received his theological education in his native Sweden and in Germany, and brings to the life of the whole Seminary community a stimulating contribution.

The Trustees would again remind the Church of the anticipated growth in Seminary enrollment and of the responsibility for providing additional Faculty members. In this context, the Seminary is constantly in search of competent churchmen and scholars who can provide a distinguished teaching ministry and should be called to such service.

The Trustees would also remind the supporters of the Seminary that each additional Faculty member demands that additional funds be put at the disposal of the Seminary. For each man added to the Faculty there should be in hand not less than $200,000 endowment.

The Seminary believes that it has an obligation to assist its Faculty in maintaining the excellence of its scholarship. To that end a carefully prescribed schedule of sabbatic leaves is followed. During the present academic session a special Foundation grant made it possible for three of our professors to pursue unusual and highly significant projects in this country and abroad.

Dr. J. Howard Macrae concluded his sabbatic leave at the end of the Winter Quarter, after having conducted an extensive survey of developments in the field of elementary language study in educational centers in various parts of this country and Canada.

Dr. Balmer H. Kelly, and Dr. Henry M. Brimm are currently in Europe, with Dr. Kelly studying some of the significant developments in the field of adult education which have arisen there, especially since World War II. Dr. Brimm is visiting university centers with a view to the further strengthening the Seminary Library's book collection for graduate and undergraduate study.

Dr. John Newton Thomas and Dr. Brimm will represent our denomination at the meeting of the World Presbyterian Alliance in Rio de Janeiro this summer.

3. Special Activities

The Reverend Otto A. Piper, Th.D., Professor of New Testament, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey, was the Sprunt Lecturer for the academic session 1958-1959. His lectures were on the general theme, "The Christ of the Gospels." Auxiliary lecturers during the Sprunt Lectures were the Reverend Charles Tudor Leber, Th. D., General Secretary, Commission on Ecumenical Missions and Relations, United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the Reverend Paul Louis Lehmann, Th. D., Professor of Divinity, Harvard Divinity School. These lectures brought inspiration and challenge to the large company of students, faculty, alumni, and friends who participated in the activities of the week.

For several years the Seminary has sponsored a conference on Christian Vocation. This year a new program was initiated with regard to college and university students whereby small groups were invited to the Seminary campus for planned weekends, in order to have a firsthand view of what is involved in preparation for the ministry, and the opportunities open in the church vocations.

During the year some fifteen college campuses were visited by two or more Seminary students for the purpose of presenting information about and the challenge of the church vocations to Westminster Fellowship groups of college students.

The Conference on Church Vocations for senior high young people this spring brought 93 young people to the Seminary campus, representing all 23 of the Presbyteries in our four supporting Synods. This conference seeks to inform and challenge young people about the church vocations and the urgency of their task in our time. Feeling that the recruiting of able young men and women for these vocations is a matter of first-rate importance, the Seminary is constrained to believe these efforts are significant enterprises.

4. Continuing Education

More and more the Seminary is convinced that it has a responsibility to make available to its alumni and to pastors generally throughout our Church some of the on-going benefits that can be found only in the life of an educational institution. Therefore, the Seminary is offering to pastors of its constituency, to its alumni, and to churchmen generally a four-fold program of "Continuing Education."

The Guided Reading Plan has been used by more than 800 pastors who request one of the 28 study guides and receive books by mail on a regular schedule from the library.

A generous grant from a Foundation made possible the first two years of the Tower Room Scholars and the Alumni Return programs. The Trustees gratefully report that the continuation of these efforts, and a broadening of the scope of our Continuing Education endeavors has been underwritten by a corporate Foundation, governed by dedicated churchmen.

The "Summer Scholar" plan will be inaugurated this year, bringing twenty pastors and their families to the campus for a month of study, two weeks of their residence coinciding with the Summer Preaching Clinic and Counseling Workshop.

In all of these endeavors, a key factor is the encouragement and cooperation of the churches in releasing pastors for periods of concentrated study.

The Graduate School of the Seminary has altered its program in the belief that by improving its excellence it can serve the Church in the development of a theological school of a very high order. Forty-six students are now enrolled in the Graduate School; twenty-six are candidates for the Master of Theology degree; twenty are candidates for the Doctor of Theology degree.

5. Concerning Finances

The Seminary, at the end of the fiscal year, March 31, 1958, had an operating condition of $677.76 surplus.

For the fiscal year, Church contributions from the four Synods were up $8,511.94. It is imperative that current contributions increase as the load of students snowballs in the years just ahead.

Our records show the following receipts from the Synod of North Carolina:

Church Year

1955	1956	1957	1958
$35,511.36	$28,087.42	$26,915.88	$34,380.13

Fiscal Year Ending

3-31-56	3-31-57	3-31-58	3-31-59
$27,296.88	$28,680.96	$28,603.39	$34,938.55

Throughout the nation there is a mounting concern with respect to the educational stability and prospects of our institutions. This same concern belongs to the discerning churchman. The Seminary is dependent upon the liberality of churchmen to undergird and expand its important functions in the total life of the Church. From the regular benevolence funds of the church courts supporting the Seminary only 16 per cent of the necessary operational funds are received. Approximately 28 per cent of the funds necessary are received from student fees. In this connection it must be remarked that the Seminary itself must provide scholarship funds for approximately one-half of the funds collected from the students. These statistics make apparent the dependence of our institutions upon current contributions from individuals and churches and for additions to our capital funds.

The Trustees express their deep appreciation to all who have made possible its work during the past year. They commend themselves and the Seminary to your continuing interest, and to the intercession and assistance of all who are interested in the training of men to herald the wonderful Gospel of Christ.

Respectfully submitted for the Board of Trustees,

Wyndham B. Blanton, Chairman
M. W. Norfleet, Jr., Secretary

(2) Comparisons

The Synod sent down as Presbytery budget apportionments for educational institutions the amount of $440,000 for the year 1958. The total gifts received by Synod's Treasurer of Educational Institutions for the year 1958 from Presbyteries to the Cause of Educational Institutions were $252,335.[1] The funds received by Synod's Treasurer represent 51.1% of the Apportionments, as compared to 65% for the previous year.

A summary of Synod's six institutions appears as Chart I. For 1958-1959 the percentage of Presbyterian students in Synod's five institutions was 51.1% as against 50.6% for 1957-1958.

[1] The General Assembly Minutes annually report a figure larger than that reported by the Synod's Treasurer. This is explained by the fact that all funds contributed to Higher Education do not pass through the hands of the Synod's Treasurer such as some gifts made directly to institutions on Campaign pledges and gifts to Assembly's educational institutions: the Assembly's Training School, Stillman College, and Montreat College, though the latter is not officially an institution of the Assembly.

Gifts as reported by the General Assembly Statistics to Educational Institutions and as reported by Synod's Treasurers for the years indicated, follow:

Year	General Assembly Minutes	Unified Budget

e. INFORMATION

The Director is endeavoring to make his office a channel for distributing information about the Schools for which Synod has a responsibility. He is available for presenting the cause of Christian Education to Presbyteries, Presbyterials, local Churches, Men's and Women's organizations.

Three schools have motion picture films which they make available to interested groups: Davidson College, Queens College, and Presbyterian Junior College.

BEQUESTS AND MEMORIALS

According to Webster, a memorial is anything intended to "preserve the memory" of a person or event. Granite preserves a name; influence preserves a memory. A memorial dedicated to the service of Christian Education is truly an everlasting memorial since it lives on generation after generation. This type of memorial is not only possible to people of large wealth but to the average man. Buildings and gifts for endowments are appropriate for people of means. Gifts of equipment for gymnasiums, offices, and music departments; audio-visual materials, furniture, and outdoor improvements are within the reach of average people. Information on specific needs will be furnished to interested persons.

FORM OF GENERAL BEQUEST

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at..., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given)."*

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR INDICATED PURPOSE

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at..., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given), with the direction that the same be used for the support and operation of the (Library, Infirmary, etc., etc.)."

3. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN GUIDANCE CENTER

Samuel W. Newell, Jr., Chairman

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College, established in 1952, has enjoyed since its inception the leadership of Professor Rodger Wayne Decker, Director. Through the Presbyterian Guidance Program of the Board of Christian Education, the Center at Flora Macdonald is related to other such guidance centers in the various Synods of our General Assembly. The Center seeks to help young people know themselves better through personal interviews, tests, and vocational information. The goal of the Center is to help young people realize that any worth-while work can become a Christian vocation as a person seeks to find and to use his talents where God needs them most and can use them best in the work of the world.

The Center is housed in a frame building on the campus of Flora Macdonald. During the past year Professor Ernest H. St. Jacques has been added to the staff as Associate Director. Twelve persons in various professions serve the Center as consultants without pay.

During the school year 1958-59 the Center was host to 453 counselees from 89 Presbyterian churches and 57 students of Flora Macdonald College.

The Center is operating this year on a budget of $10,000, $7,500 of which is the obligation of the Synod, and $2,500 the obligation of Flora Macdonald. Because of the difference between "askings" and actual receipts, the prospect is that the Synod will actually contribute only an amount slightly in excess of $4,000. It seems likely, therefore, that the College will have to be called on for support considerably in excess of its proportionate share.

The Center has recently engaged in a very courageous program of self-evaluation, the results of which have been highly encouraging. The study reveals that in the seven years since the Center was begun the effectiveness of pre-testing counseling done in the local churches has been considerably upgraded; but there is still need for increased orientation of counselees at the local church level. The study also indicates that counselees serviced by the Center have been greatly helped by this experience. The following are some rather typical comments by counselees in regard to their experiences at the Center: "I am extremely grateful for the opportunity I had." "I thoroughly enjoyed my testing and interviews at the Guidance Center . . . I only wish the Presbyterian Church could appropriate more money for better facilities and a larger program." "I am very sure that I benefitted greatly from the tests and counseling that I received at the Center . . . it seems to me that more of this should be carried on. I am sure that if even half the students received as much help as I did from this program it would be worth-while." One hundred per cent of those interviewed at the Center indicated that the counseling experience had been "helpful" or "very helpful," and 100% indicated that they would recommend this program to their friends.

The cost per counselee during the current year was $16.53, as compared with a $25.00 to $50.00 per-counselee cost in other similar programs. New policies are being instituted as follows: (a) all counselees are to be charged $1.00 per night for lodging at the Center; (b) out-of-Synod counselees are to be charged $10.00 each for the service; and (c) non-Presbyterians who are not part of the program of the local Presbyterian Church are to be charged a fee of $25.00 for the first part of the program and $5.00 for each added interview.

The budget compares with a budget of $10,000 for the preceding year. The principal increases are in the $4,000 salary for an Assistant Director, a new person to be employed in an effort to up-grade the quality of the counseling, and also to help satisfy the increased demand for the services of the Center by young people of the local churches. The $1,800 salary for a second secretary also looks toward the employment of a new person.

4. REPORT OF REPRESENTATIVE ON THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S ADVISORY COUNCIL ON HIGHER EDUCATION

Halbert M. Jones

The Advisory Council on Higher Education meeting at Montreat on August 25-26, 1958, initiated a program to explore areas of cooperation between our church colleges. As a result, two activities have been inaugurated which can accomplish much for our program of Higher Education.

Through the Challenge Fund for Presbyterian Colleges the Board of Education has established on a trial basis a plan for intercollege visitation for the purpose of developing closer cooperation and liaison, sharing constructive procedures and practices, and improving the quality of education. It is expected that such visitations will enrich the programs of all our colleges.

A program has also been proposed to assist the colleges in the recruiting of able faculty members. This cooperative endeavor to encourage able young men and women to prepare for teaching in our church colleges can, if successful, meet one of the serious problems facing our schools.

Long range studies have been completed in every college in our Church, and plans are in process of being worked out for implementation of these studies. Campus Christian Life continues to develop. Emphasis is being placed upon the training of personnel for campus work, and an intern training program is helping to recruit able men for this vital activity of our Church. The Presbyterian Guidance Program grows in service to our Church as it meets a genuine and expanding need.

V. REPORTS OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

Rev. R. T. Baker, Chairman

Your Committee on Annuities and Relief reports that it has distributed to the retired and infirm ministers of the Synod of North Carolina the following amounts from the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

September 23, 1958	$18,000.00 to 59 ministers
March 23, 1959	19,800.00 to 62 ministers
	$37,800.00

Your Committee has made diligent effort to distribute these funds where the need is greatest among our retired and infirm ministers.

Your Committee would again call to the attention of the ministers of the Synod and to the Committees on Annuities and Relief in the Presbyteries the following recommendation adopted by the Synod in 1947 relating to the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

> "No minister, regardless of age, shall participate in the fund so long as he is employed in the regular exercise of the ministry." (Section 4/c, Minutes of Synod, 1947, page 544.)

Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief, reports that there were 82 beneficiaries and annuitants of Ministerial Relief in the Synod of North Carolina to whom was distributed a total of $89,946.51 in 1958. Total receipts from the Synod were $90,476.82.

The Board of Annuities and Relief appreciates very much the liberal support of the Synod of North Carolina.

The present policy of making grants is as follows: to ministers who are members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund and their wives, $2400.00, all income being considered; for widows or widowers, $1,500.00 on the same basis. For those who are not members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund, a minister and his wife may receive $2,200.00, all income being considered; for widows and widowers, lay missionaries, and orphans, $1,400.00 on the same basis.

We are grateful that the General Assembly at its 1959 session approved the recommendation made by the Board of Annuities and Relief that the Board be permitted to write Major Medical insurance for our retired ministers, their wives, widows and retired lay-employees who were members of the Employees' Annuity Fund. The maximum amount is $2,500.00 with $100.00 deductible, that must be accumulated within a 90-day period; after that the Board pays 75% of the bill and the insured pays 25%. For this the Board will charge the insured $50.00 annually per person and the cost of coverage to the Board will be $151.20 annually. The Board will be subsidizing this program per person $101.20. The plan is to be effective July 1, 1959.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod urge all churches, ministers, and full-time employees to enroll in the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance Plan.

2. That retired ministers, their wives, widows, and retired lay-employees who were members of the Employees' Annuity Fund be urged to enroll in the Major Medical Insurance Plan.
3. That in view of the vital importance of the Joy Gift to the beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief, churches be urged to place greater emphasis on the Joy Gift.
4. That the Synod engage in prayer for our retired ministers and their wives, remembering especially those who are sick.

R. T. Baker, Chairman

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES

Rev. John G. Parks, Jr., Chairman

Your Committee would like to encourage greater support of the important causes of the General Fund by briefly describing a few of the highlights of the past year.

Fifty-five men and women who studied at our Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers, now to be called "The Presbyterian School of Christian Education", began serving the Church in at least 14 Synods and on 4 mission fields. The study of missions has been greatly strengthened with the addition to the faculty of Dr. Bruce A. Cumming, former missionary to Korea.

Congratulations are in order for Stillman College which was admitted into membership of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It was the attainment of a goal to which the Trustees and Faculty have been striving for several years. For the second successive year, the enrollment has broken all previous records. The registration for 1958-59 was a 27% increase over the preceding year and 52% over 1956-57. The spirit of the students is good despite the fact that physical facilities are taxed to the limit.

Newest member of the General Fund Agencies is the Permanent Committe on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals (TRAV) which was established by the 1958 General Assembly to use effectively these communication facilities for portraying to the world the truths of the Gospel of Christ. The Committee cooperates with all the Boards and Agencies in the Church in the production of materials in its field. Dr. Ernest J. Arnold, who is President of the Protestant Radio and Television Center, has been elected Executive Secretary of the Committee.

A 1559 edition of the French Version of Calvin's Institutes was presented to our Communion by The Reformed Church of France. This has been received at The Historical Foundation and assigned a place in the vault for safe keeping. This past year at least eight graduate students worked in the archives and library and 14 authors engaged in research at the Foundation. A fine set of slides relating to the Foundation and its work is available for showing to church groups.

In brief: Twenty-five different conferences were held at Montreat. Montreat-Anderson College (new name) is to become a junior college, hoping for accreditation; almost three and a half million copies of stewardship materials were mailed by the General Council to churches at their request and without cost to them; the Board of Women's Work reports younger women increasingly attending training conferences and assuming responsibilities; The Presbyterian Foundation records an increase in the value of bequests handled by it over a three year period from $814,074.14 to $2,336,433.36; and The American Bible Society, an increase in publication and distribution of Bibles, New Testaments, and Bible portions, of which military chaplains requested and received a total of 1,079,391 Scriptural volumes for free distribution among service personnel.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That since only 15% of the General Assembly's Benevolent Budget goes to the General Fund for the support of its nine important Agencies and Institutes, the churches of Synod be urged to contribute generously to the Fund and vigorously promote the causes it supports.
2. That pastors and sessions, either through a Committee on Wills or through other organized means (working in cooperation with the Presbyterian Foundation) impress their congregations with the importance of making a will, and making that will give further evidence of a concern for Christian stewardship by the inclusion of the church for amounts large or small.
3. That pending the adoption of this report Synod hear Dr. Roy E. Watts on Montreat and Dr. Ernest J. Arnold, Executive Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals.

JOHN G. PARKS, Chairman

a. Report On Montreat

REV. ROY E. WATTS, Representative

Under the leadership of Dr. Frank L. Jackson, Acting President, Montreat has been operated as efficiently as circumstances permit. Though it is all too true that a more generous financial support of this important agency of the church is urgently needed, Montreat is doing an excellent job on an inadequate income. We are hopeful that a president will soon be secured.

It is with regret that we have to report that the college is to operate as a junior college, beginning 1959-1960, due to a lack of funds for continuing it as an accredited senior college. It has been recommended that Montreat College request the Synod of Appalachia to accept it as an affiliated institution, with no financial obligations. Steps have also been taken toward making Montreat College a coeducational junior college and changing its name to Montreat-Anderson College in recognition of the support and loyalty of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson. This fine institution that is sending out Christian graduates to take their places in a world that desperately needs their efforts and influence is worthy of our support.

If Montreat is to command the place in our church of tomorrow that it should, here are some of the immediate needs that must be provided:

1. Refurbishing of Assembly Inn; 2. Erection of a group of efficiency apartments—motel style; 3. New building sites for homes; 4. Expansion of roads, water, lights and sewerage facilities; 5. Additional parking areas; 6. Better lighting of walks and roads; 7. A social and business center; 8. A new administration building with conference rooms; 9. Endowment for conference programs to eliminate gate charges.

C. REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS

The Permanent Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts established by Synod in July, 1958 held its first meeting on October 29, 1958 in Raleigh. All seven members were present.

After hearing from Dr. Hunter B. Blakely and Messrs. George S. Crouch and Charles G. Rose, Jr., members of the Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts for Presbyterian Educational Institutions for the General Assembly, the Committee spent some time in a general discussion of the purposes of the Committee and of ways to accomplish them.

It was agreed that the Committee should seek ways to apprise Presbyterians within the Synod of the continuing need for bequests and deferred gifts to all the causes of the Church, and at the same time to avoid as far as possible any confusion that might arise between this total goal and the purposes of the Assembly Committee and Presbytery Committees for such gifts for Presbyterian Educational Institutions.

The Committee authorized the issuance of a brochure, "The Gift That Lives After You," to each Church and to a selected list of attorneys, trust officers and insurance executives. This was mailed together with a letter inviting them to call upon the Committee for any further information we could furnish them. Several acknowledgements indicated that the information was cordially received.

This first effort, which stressed particularly the needs of Presbyterian Educational Institutions, is considered by the Committee as one of a series of steps designed to impress upon our people the challenge offered by the Church in all its causes. By such methods the Committee hopes that, neither too rapidly to be absorbed, nor too slowly to be effective, it may be successful in accomplishing its mission, as stated in the Standing Rules of Synod, "to furnish information to the Synod, and to advise individuals, churches and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to Educational Institutions and other agencies of the Synod."

E. B. Crow, Chairman

D. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, Chairman

In its first year as a Permanent Committee, the Committee on Christian Relations of the Synod has held two meetings: the first on November 10, 1958 at the White Memorial Presbyterian church in Raleigh, N. C., and the second on April 7, 1959 at the Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N. C. where a portion of the membership of the committee was in attendance upon the first Institute on Human Relations and Intergroup Understanding.

The first meeting was devoted principally to a discussion of the purposes and objectives of Synod's Committee as this Committee is related to the General Assembly and the Presbyteries of our Synod, and to a pattern of organization which could be recommended to individual Presbyteries.

Two additional subjects occupied the remainder of the time of this first meeting: the relation of this Committee to efforts of various groups in our State to meet the growing problem of Alcoholism, and possible courses of action with reference to the increasing dissemination in our communities of obscene literature, pictures, and movies.

The second meeting was consumed with reports from several Presbyteries of progress to date, a discussion of the relationship of the Committee on Christian Relations to the Executive Committee of Christian Education of the Synod, the preparation of a report to Synod and of a proposed budget to be submitted to the Stewardship Committee, a discussion of plans for the coming year, and the selection of a next meeting date.

During the year Dr. Joseph M. Garrison has represented the Synod and this Committee at the annual Churchmen's Washington Seminar, February 3-6. The Chairman has represented the Synod on the Sub-Committee on Alcoholism of the North Carolina Council of Churches, at the Churchmen's Raleigh Seminar, and at the Institute on Human Relations and Intergroup Understanding at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N. C.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod recommend to Presbyteries the following pattern for organization of Permanent Committees on Christian Relations: A chairman who will be a member of Presbytery's Council and a member of Synod's Permanent Committee; one additional minister, and three laymen as follows: from the Men of the Church, from the Women of the Church, and one local Sessional chairman.
2. That Presbyteries strongly urge local churches to establish such a committee organized along similar lines.
3. That Synod commend to all churches for serious study the pamphlet, "Speaking for God: the Prophetic Role of the Church", the report of the Council on Christian Relations approved by the 1958 General Assembly, which report represents an outstanding statement of the Biblical and historical bases for the Church's assumption of her God-assigned prophetic role in our day and which lists those areas to which the Church ought to address her message.
4. That Synod also approve and commend for further study and interpretation the report of the Council on Christian Relations to the 1959 General Assembly.
5. That Christians throughout the Synod be called to penitence, humility, and prayer that they may truly know the mind of Christ and proclaim courageously and demonstrate personally the transforming and reconciling power of the Gospel in those areas of human relation torn by strife and misunderstanding.
6. That wherever possible or desirable Presbyteries and local churches make use of those who have attended the Churchmen's Washington Seminar to speak to Men's Clubs, Rallies of Men of the Church, etc. to bring to the attention of our members the responsibilities of the individual citizen to his State and Government. This would apply particularly to Dr. Joseph M. Garrison who attended the most recent Seminar, and to the Rev. Howard Chadwick and Dr. Harold J. Dudley who also have attended in recent years.
7. That the following representatives to 1960 Seminars be approved: Churchmen's Washington Seminar: Rev. Philip M. Cory, principal; Rev. W. C. Neill, alternate; Rural Churchmen's Seminar: Columbus Mayo, Tarboro, principal; Charles Hunter, Charlotte, alternate; World Affairs Seminar: Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, principal; Rev. Ray E. King, alternate.
8. That pending the consideration of this report, Synod hear Dr. Joseph M. Garrison on the 1959 Churchmen's Washington Seminar.

E. PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON HOMES

JERRY C. MCCANN, Chairman

Preamble

Your Committee on Homes met April 20, 1959 in the Fellowship Hall of Little Joe's Church at Barium Springs with seven members present. Richard A. Short, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Home reported that the Forward Fund Campaign was in progress in all of the nine Presbyteries. Your Committee trusts that this Campaign will be promoted until the goal of $750,000.00 is reached. Mr. Short also presented a three-year comparison of budget and income and disbursements showing the budget request for 1960.

M. C. Benton, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Regents of the Orphans' Home gave an informal report on the Orphans' Home showing the current financial picture. A written report and financial statement on the William Black Home was received as information. It is the hope of your Committee that the work of our various Homes will be promoted in every way possible throughout the Synod.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Synod urge Presbyteries to consider including women on Presbytery Committees on Homes.
2. That Synod commend the Superintendent of the Orphans' Home, the Executive Director of the Presbyterian Home, and the President of the Board of Trustees of the William Black Home for their splendid work with the Homes.
3. That pending the adoption of this Report Synod hear R. A. Short, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Home, and M. C. Benton, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home.

1. Presbyterian Orphans' Home

M. C. BENTON, President

First of all, I would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation to the individual Board members who have been so keenly interested and devoted to their duties and responsibilities connected with the Home. We have held the two regular meetings plus many committee meetings throughout the year with good attendance on all occasions.

Secondly, the superintendent and his staff should be commended for the excellent job that is being done in providing for the physical and spiritual needs of the children. The operation of the Home and the care of the children requires dedicated people for successful results and we are indeed fortunate that so many of our people fill this requirement.

Children Cared For

As of this date, there are 14 cottages with an aggregate bed capacity of 225, while we have only 180 children on the campus. This is somewhat less than our average and is less than the number expected for this fall. Total days of child care during the fiscal year ended September 30, 1958 amounted to 64,022. Based on the average space noted above, this means we operated at approximately 78% of physical capacity during this period.

Operating Receipts and Expenditures

The Home received a total of $286,016 during the year, with $166,791 of that amount coming from Presbyteries. We are most grateful for the interest of the individual churches for this wonderful support. We are also grateful to the Duke Endowment for their support amounting to something over $11,000. Approximately $20,000 was received from interest and dividends on investments, while contributions from individuals, organizations, parents, relatives and others amounted to approximately $39,000. The remaining amount, $49,000, was received from the farm and various other sources. Total expenditures during this period amounted to $290,297, which means the Home operated at a slight deficit, $4,281, for the year. Fortunately, this deficit was covered by an adequate surplus at the beginning of the period.

The total cost per child per day amounted to $4.53, including an average of 42¢ per day for education. This compares with a similar cost for the year ended September 30, 1957 of $4.08. When compared with other institutions supported by the Duke Endowment, this Home is neither at the head of the list nor at the bottom from an operating standpoint. Our main purpose is to provide a home for the growing child plus the ordinary necessities and other needs for a normal family life. There are no real frills involved—yet no attempt is made to cut expenses to the point that only a minimum existence is provided.

Your attention is especially called to the fact that operating expenses during the year exceeded revenues by $4,281. This should dispel any thoughts, if they exist, that we are receiving more than is needed or can be spent wisely, and we earnestly solicit the prayers and financial help of all our churches in the Synod. For a more complete operating statement, we refer all who are interested to the Audit Report for the year ended September 30, 1958.

Administrative Staff and Employees

As of this date the Home employs, including farm employees, 62 people. The various classifications of personnel follow: Administrative, 6; Household, 35; Health, 2; Education, 5; Plant Operation and Maintenance, 4; Extra-institutional Service (Case Work), 1; Productive Enterprises, 8; Religion, 1. It is of interest to note that the length of service for the above 62 people ranges from one year to 32 years. Three have more than a quarter of a century, with a very large number more than 15 years.

School

We are experiencing another very successful year in our relationship with Troutman High School. Our children have been accepted as a part of the community and from a scholastic standpoint measure up in every respect. Full and complete participation and cooperation is provided in connection with extracurricular activities and Dickie McKenzie, one of our Rising Seniors is President of the Student Body. We are sure it will also be of interest that one of our students, Buddy Cochran, has been awarded a full scholarship at Phillips' Exeter Academy at Exeter, New Hampshire. Buddy is an "A" student and appears certain to make an outstanding record for himself which will reflect credit for the Home.

Following recommendations from the Superintendent and the Committee on "Education" and "Religion," the Board, at its meeting on May 14, adopted a resolution approving the transfer of Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 to the Troutman School as soon as the way be clear for the Iredell County Board of Education to accept these additional students.

Christian Life and Church Related Activities

It is the intent of the Home to continue to stress its program of Christian nurture. The leadership of the present minister, the Reverend Hugh B. Carter, Jr. is very effective in the life of the students and staff. It is the expressed intent of the Home and the church for Little Joe's Church to serve the whole community, thus enlarging its services and relationships of the children. Christian nurture in the cottages and through the church school is of supreme importance in the mind of the Board and the administration.

Summary and Conclusion

The work of the Home has been evaluated within the last year by highly trained persons competent to render such a service, pointing out the needs of the Home and the staff. Where these were apparent, this appraisal gave the Home a good grade in the program of group child care. For that we are grateful and shall continue to try to meet the needs of the boys and girls who come under the care of the church through ministering to them in the most wholesome manner at Barium Springs. It is an expensive process but so is any redemptive program that ministers to the needs of people in the name of Christ.

2. The Presbyterian Home, Inc.

W. H. Sullivan, President

The Board of Trustees respectfully reports the major activities of the Home during the past year:

The Board met for two regular and one call sessions, and the Executive Committee met five times for the transaction of business during 1958.

The books of the Home were audited by A. M. Pullen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, and the audit showed capital worth of $899,331.88 as of December 31, 1958. This report shows a gain in Capital for the year of $151,883.13 (Of this amount, $148,896.11 was increase in appraised value).

There were eight new admissions and eight deaths during 1958, and a total of ninety-five persons served during the year.

The construction of an eight bedroom house was authorized by the Board of Trustees at their October 1958 meeting. It was built at a cost of $40,000. Building was completed in March 1959 and immediately put into use as a part of the Infirmary. The normal capacity of the present Infirmary is twelve; however, for the last six months of 1958 the average load was sixteen, and during the holiday season, nineteen, which necessitated the erection of this new house for Infirmary use until such time as the proposed new Infirmary is completed. After this, the house will be used as a Staff House.

At the October Board Meeting, a portrait of the late R. Murphy Williams, who almost single handedly raised the first $250,000 to make the Home a reality, was presented to the Board by his family.

In September Mr. Milton Faszholz of the American City Bureau (Fund raising firm) came to work at the Home and began making preparations for the Forward Fund Campaign for $750,000. During the last four months of 1958 no money was solicited, but preparations, publicity, leaders, were planned in order to kick off the campaign presbytery by presbytery during the first five months of 1959.

The Board of Trustees approved the first preliminary drawings by the architect for a new residence wing housing 46 bedrooms and an Infirmary wing housing 39 hospital beds.

During the year more and more people have been inquiring for and submitting applications for admission to the Home. This points up more vividly than ever the urgency of providing additional space to help take care of those who need the Home.

The Board of Trustees feel that you cannot appreciate the services that are being rendered by the Home unless you make a personal visit. Please arrange to come.

The Executive Director, R. A. Short, or any member of the Board is waiting for your call to tell the story of the Home. Also, there are a 16mm film entitled, "A Place to Live", and color slides of the Home, available for your use.

The Board of Trustees is most appreciative and proud of the interest and support given the Home so far and wish to challenge each one to have a part in providing for the growing need of a place to live for our elderly people.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. Sullivan, President

3. William Black Home

Your Trustees of the William Black Home consider it a privilege to have under its direction the affairs of your Home for Christian Workers at Montreat. It is rendering a unique service to the Church in providing a splendid service at a low cost set in an atmosphere of the Christian spirit. An appointed leader conducts a brief devotional before breakfast each morning. The Home is a place where the weary find rest, the troubled find peace, and where all find inspiration and Christian fellowship.

For this year the entire Home is reserved as usual for the women of the Synod during the Women's Conference and for the first time it is used exclusively during the Church Extension Conference, August 6-12, by the eighteen White Fund guests (two from each Presbytery) and thirty eight nominated by the Church Extension officials across the Synod.

We are pleased to report that we operated last year with an appreciable margin of profit even though it was considered an off year at Montreat. The Home is again under the efficient management of Mrs. A. H. Moore of Rock Hill, S. C., who was so cordially received last year. She has employed a capable, experienced staff. The prospect is fine for a good season in 1959. Mrs. R. H. Waltman, our reservationist says as of March 31st "Reservations are coming in fine. Several conferences are filled and others are filling rapidly."

Our report to the Audit Committee of the Synod shows that our assets are $147,134.43. Of this, $117,000.00 is land, buildings, furniture and equipment. Money in checking and savings accounts, in notes and in bonds amounts to $30,134.43. The building is insured for $60,000.00 and $15,000.00 is carried on its contents. On the house provided for the cook and maids there is a $5,000.00 policy. The treasurer is bonded. Owners' Liability and Workmen's Compensation Insurance is in force. We are incorporated under the laws of North Carolina.

Our perennial problem is for more parking space. Several plans have been suggested but they proved to be impractical or too expensive.

The rates are from $3.50 to $4.50 per day fòr room and board. The difference is in the location of the rooms. We can entertain 56 sleeping guests and can serve a larger number in the dining room.

It is the purpose of the Trustees to maintain the same high standard of service and to keep the equipment modernized and the building in good repair.

Respectfully submitted,

R. H. Stone, President,

F. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INTERCHURCH RELATIONS

REV. JOHN R. CUNNINGHAM, Chairman

The Committee met at the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, May 5, 1959. In the absence of the Chairman, the Rev. Lawrence I. Stell served as Chairman.

The General Secretary of Synod made a brief statement on the recent initial Churchmen's Raleigh Seminar, of which he served as chairman, and attended by approximately 100 representatives of churches of the state. The Seminar, patterned after the Washington Seminar, has as its goal to acquaint churchmen with the problems of government, in an attempt to better interpret government at the grass roots. Several Presbyterians appeared on the program, including Attorney General Malcolm B. Seawell, Dr. Ellen Winston, Commissioner of Welfare, and the Rev. Morton R. Kurtz, Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches. The Secretary also called to the attention of the Committee that there are 21 committees of the NCCC which make up the five Commissions of the Council, and that a Presbyterian representative on each of the committees of the Council should be approved by the Inter-Church Relations Committee.

The Rev. Morton R. Kurtz gave a summary report of the activities of the Council, particularly stressing the 1959 meeting of the NCCC at Duke University in January.

He called attention to the fact that the 1960 meeting of the Council will be held in the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, January 26-27, and that the 25th Anniversary of the Council will be celebrated May 1-2, 1961, in Greensboro. Your Committee would remind the Synod that Presbyterians had an important part in the organization of the Council, and it is hoped that as far as possible the Synod will take cognizance of the observance, especially in regard to avoiding conflicts of dates by lower courts and agencies.

More than a dozen Presbyterians were present for the two-day sessions, and the following Presbyterians are currently serving on the Council: Rev. Harold J. Dudley, First vice-president, Mrs. B. Frank Hall of Wilmington, Chairman of the Division of United Church Women, Mrs. P. Hunter Dalton of High Point, Secretary, William H. Neal, Winston Salem, Voit Gilmore, Southern Pines, Dr. Harry M. Moffett, Jr., Dr. B. Frank Hall, Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, Dr. John R. Cunningham, Dr. Kelsey Regen, all members of the Executive Committee. Mr. Kurtz is a member of Granville Presbytery.

The Synod of North Carolina has 37 official representatives on the North Carolina Council of Churches. Each member of the Committee on Inter-Church Relations is a member, and others serve terms of three years, and are listed in the "Directory" of the Synod's Minutes. Some of the representatives of Synod on the Council serve as representatives on the 21 committees of the Council. Other members are appointed by your Committee.

The Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, Chairman of Synod's Permanent Committee on Christian Relations, and Synod's representative on the Alcohol Committee of the NCCC, reported favorably on the progress being made by the Committee to date.

Recommendations:

1. That the following persons be approved as the official representatives of Synod to the annual meeting of the North Carolina Council of Churches, meeting in Raleigh, January 26-27: the chairman of the Permanent Committee on Inter-Church Relations; Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin; and the Rev. I. Howard Chadwick.
2. That, pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear the Rev. Morton R. Kurtz, Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches; and the Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, in a report on the progress made by the Committee on Alcohol Study.

1. Highlights of the 1958-1959 Program of the North Carolina Council of Churches

The Council's Annual Assembly was held January 26-28, 1959, at Duke University, Durham. The largest list of speakers and probably the largest number of delegates made this an outstanding meeting. The following Presbyterians were among general officers re-elected to serve another term; Dr. Harold J. Dudley, Raleigh, First Vice-President; Mrs. B. Frank Hall, Wilmington, Fourth Vice-President & General Chairman of the Women's Department; Mrs. P.

Hunter Dalton, High Point, Secretary; Morton R. Kurtz, Durham, Executive Director.

Newly elected as members at large on the Executive Board were: Mrs. R. A. Willis, Monroe, Past President of the Women of the Church and Dr. B. Frank Hall, Wilmington, Minister of Pearsall Memorial Church.

Holdover members on the Executive Board are: Voit Gilmore, Southern Pines; Harry M. Moffett, Jr., Gastonia, N. C.; William H. Neal, Winston-Salem; John R. Cunningham, Charlotte; Kelsey Regen, Durham.

Dr. E. G. Homrighausen, Dean of Princeton Seminary, spoke at the luncheon on the opening day.

Some outstanding features of the Council's 1958-1959 program were:

Christian Education

The annual Family Life Conference for Ministers held in Durham, April 20-21, 1959; the splendid growth and development of the Council's Youth Department (UCYM) which organized a number of local youth councils and which employed the services of a Youth Associate, The Reverend Mark Kase; continuation of the program of week-day Bible teaching which reached over 33,000 students of high school and elementary school age; sponsorship of the N. C. Student Christian Council for College Youth.

Christian Social Action

The Committee on Alcoholism sponsored an Institute for Ministers and Social Workers at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, and was active in cooperating with several local groups sponsoring similar institutes under other auspices. The Council's Public Affairs Committee continued its excellent work of reporting to the churches on matters of moral and spiritual interest in Raleigh. For the first time this year, the Committee sponsored a Churchman's Raleigh Seminar which brought together Ministers and lay persons with members of the General Assembly and also heads of State Government Departments. The meeting was held April 14, 1959, in First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. Dr. Harold J. Dudley was General Chairman. An excellent conference on World Affairs co-sponsored by the Council's Committee on National and World Affairs was held last June at Blue Ridge Assembly and a similar conference is planned for the summer of 1959. The Committee also took an active part in sponsoring and planning the Annual World Affairs Conference held each February in Chapel Hill. An institute on Human Relations held in Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, April 6-7, 1959, was co-sponsored by the Council's Human Relations Committee. The Council Director was among those taking part on the program.

Ecumenical Relations

The Council's Committee on Evangelism in cooperation with the National Council of Churches is sponsoring for the first time this year a summer Ministry in Doughton National Park on the Blue Ridge Parkway. This will be one of the first such projects held East of the Rocky Mountains. The Radio-TV Committee is sponsoring the production of the television program "Talk Back". This program, which runs for half an hour and includes both a film and a live studio panel was scheduled in the Spring of 1959 over both WRAL Channel 5, Raleigh, and WFMY Channel 2, Greensboro. Plans are under way for showing on other television stations in the State. Leslie Page now serves as Radio-TV director of the Council.

Pastoral Ministry

The Pastors' Conference held in association with the annual meeting in Durham drew over 200 persons. Dr. J. V. L. Casserley, Dr. E. G. Homrighausen, and Bishop Hazen G. Werner were the speakers. At an evening service, the speaker was Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg.

Migrant Ministry

During 1958, the Council's Ministry to our 15,000 migrants continued to grow. Twelve staff workers ministered in six counties over the State and in Child Care Centers at Elizabeth City and Hendersonville. Alvis M. Daniel, Minister of the Presbyterian Church at Wildwood, North Carolina, is Chairman of the Carteret County Committee. A used station wagon was purchased in the Spring of 1959 to assist the station wagon already being used by the Council to serve the territory covered. Additional Child Care Centers to reach the hundreds of children still uncared for in the camps and additional staff who reach new areas not now covered are of prime importance in this ministry. Samuel A. Snyder is Migrant Work Supervisor.

CROP—Church World Service

During 1958, the CROP work carried on through the Council office without the services of a Staff Director. As a result of expenses being reduced to virtually nothing through the efforts of the Council of Churches, the net returns from CROP in North Carolina were increased by over $1,500.00 in 1958. A similar program is planned for 1959 with a minimum goal of $15,000.00. CROP is still urgently needed to send food, medicine and farm equipment to the millions over the world who are refugees from communism and who live in areas where an adequate food supply has not been achieved. The Council continued to carry on its program of collecting clothing for overseas relief with 86,000 pounds reported in 1958, an increase of 18,000 pounds over the previous year. For 1959, a goal of 100,000 pounds has been set to meet minimum needs in the world.

Miscellaneous

The Rural Church Committee sponsored a one-day conference in Raleigh September 30, 1958, and has now set plans for a state-wide convocation August 9-11, 1960, at North Carolina State College. An Institute for Pastors was co-sponsored for the second year by the Council at Elizabeth City Teachers College April 29th, 1959. Attendance increased for the second year and similar programs are planned for the year ahead. The Council continued to compile and publish information on foreign students in the State's colleges and institutions of higher learning. A total of 779 students were listed in the fall of 1958, the largest number since these reports were begun. Churches in various groups within the Church, particularly United Church Women, have been active in arranging hospitality for these students.

United Church Women had another fine year of service. There are now 50 local councils in the state cooperating with this department of the Council.

Summary

Your state council of churches stands at its highest point of influence in our state. It is rendering an effective, and in many cases, unique Christian service for a cost of less than four cents a year per constituent member. Your growing support and dedicated interest will make the Council an even greater, more effective instrument for Kingdom service in North Carolina.

G. COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

REV. J. R. MCALPINE, Chairman

In many ways this has been a significant year for the work of Synod's Committee on the Minister and His Work. Realizing that our purpose is accomplished only in the Presbytery and the local church, we feel that we have made real progress both in serving as a liaison between the Assembly's Committee and the Presbyteries' Commissions on the Minister and His Work, and in providing an interchange of information concerning churches wishing to call ministers, and ministers who may be available for calls. Recognizing that good ministerial relations depend to a large extent on adequate information at the local level, this year we gave special emphasis to pertinent matters relating to commissions in an effort to help them better understand their duties and responsibilities.

Your Chairman attended the annual meeting of the Assembly's Committee which met in Atlanta during February of this year, and Mr. Graham White, Secretary of the Assembly's Committee, graciously accepted our invitation to meet with the Synod's Committee this year. The invitation was extended also to members of Presbyteries' Commissions, and to Mr. J. B. Brewer, Chairman of the Special Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries. This meeting and conference was well attended, and proved to be very helpful, especially to members of commissions who were attending such a conference for the first time. Mr. White reported the actions of the Assembly's Committee, and discussed with us matters suggested by the Assembly's Committee for the attention of Synod Conferences. He also discussed the possibility of making available to Commission Chairmen each sixty days a list of pastoral changes. Mr. Brewer presented a very encouraging report in regard to the laymen's study which will be presented to Synod. At this meeting the Reverend R. Murphy Williams was elected Vice-Chairman. Your Committee met once again prior to this meeting of Synod.

On the basis of these meetings and conferences, your Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That members of Presbyteries' Commissions be urged to read the report of the Assembly's Committee to the 1959 General Assembly, and also the actions taken by the 1959 General Assembly relating to the Minister and His Work.

2. That the Synod again commend the Chairman and members of the Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries for their continued diligence and devotion to this task; and
   a. That all churches be urged to cooperate with this Committee by furnishing promptly information requested for study in providing the results of this study;
   b. That the status of the Laymen's Committee be retained for another year, in order to provide information concerning this study to other Synods;
   c. That, in view of the fact that this Committee did not deem it wise for said Committee to include a study of the salaries of both the laymen and ministers employed by institutions and agencies of Synod, another special committee of laymen be appointed by Synod to make such a study.

3. That Presbyteries study the advisability of requiring physical and psychological examinations of candidates for the ministry.
4. That the attention of those ministers who have elected to come under Social Security be called to the fact that they should check at least once every three years with the Social Security Board, to see if they are being credited with their payments. (Forms for this purpose may be obtained from the local Social Security Board or by writing the Social Security Administration, Candler Building, Baltimore 2, Md.).
5. That Synod approve the proposed Bylaws for the Committee on the Minister and His Work.

H. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

Rev. Roy E. Watts, Chairman

1. That the various vacancies occurring at this meeting of Synod on the several agencies of Synod by virtue of the creation of new committees or offices, or because of the expiration of terms of office, or by resignation, death, moving from the Synod, or otherwise, be filled as follows: (See DIRECTORY.)
2. That interim appointments of the Moderator since Synod last met, be approved. (All included in the DIRECTORY.)
3. That Synod express appreciation to those who have served faithfully as members of Boards, Committees, etc., especially those whose terms of office expire with this meeting of Synod.
4. That Synod authorize the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, together with the Moderator, the Chairman of the Executive Committee on Higher Education, the Chairman of the Campus Christian Life Committee, and the Stated Clerk to nominate to the 1960 Synod the membership of the new Executive Committee on Campus Christian Life.
5. That Synod dissolve the Ad Interim Committee on the Presbyterian Survey Campaign, and at the same time express its gratitude for the service rendered by the Committee.
6. That Synod amend the Standing Rules by establishing a Permanent Committee on Presbyterian Survey, and that Synod elect a Chairman every three years, other members to be the corresponding Presbytery Chairmen; duties to be defined by the Standing Rules Committee.
7. That the attention of Synod is called to recommendation #20 of the Synod's Council Report to Synod in 1958 (page 83) and Recommendation #26 of the 1959 Report to Synod (page 73), urging that plans be set in motion for observing the sesquicentennial of Synod in 1963; and that Synod authorize this Committee, in cooperation with Synod's Council, to establish a Sesqui-Centennial Committee for the purpose stated.

Roy E. Watts, Chairman

I. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Harold J. Dudley, Chairman

Recommendations:

1. That, concurrent with Recommendation #4 of the Executive Committee on Higher Education (page 125), the Standing Rules of Synod be amended, beginning with Rule 20:1, as follows: (See Rule 20, Standing Rules.)

2. That, in answer to the overture from the Permanent Committee on Homes, asking Synod "to define more exactly the duties of the permanent Committee on Homes", the overture be answered in the affirmative; and Synod amend its Standing Rules, specifically Standing Rule 23:6, as follows: (See Rule 23:6 of Standing Rules.)
3. That, in answer to the communication from the Office of the General Assembly, calling attention to a request of the General Assembly that a Permanent Committee on Presbyterian Survey be established, and concurrent with recommendations Nos. 5-6 of the Report of the Committee on Nominations, Synod amend the Standing Rules of Synod by adding a Permanent Committee on Presbyterian Survey as follows: (See Rule 23:10 of Standing Rules.)
4. That only such portions of the By-Laws of the Synod's Committee on the Minister and His Work, as are essential to summarizing the membership, organization, and functions of that Committee, be incorporated in the Standing Rules of Synod. (See Standing Rules, Rule 23:8.)
5. That the Standing Rules of Synod be amended in regard to Rule 23, as follows: 23:5c. The Chairman of the Committee on Christian Relations shall serve as an Advisory member of the Committee on Christian Education.
6. That Synod suspend Standing Rule 1:2 in order to make effective immediately Recommendations Nos. 22, 23, and 24 of Synod's Council (pages 72-73), and Recommendations Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this Report.
7. That the portion of the Report which was placed on the docket for final adoption at this meeting of Synod, and not affected by the Report of the Committee at this meeting, be finally adopted.

J. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK

REV. J. MURPHY SMITH, Chairman

One of the joys of serving on this committee is that there is not much work to do. The Synodical is so well organized, and its leaders are so efficient in, and dedicated to, their tasks, that little help is needed from members of this committee.

One impression that has been made upon this committee is the fact that those who lead our Women's program are spiritually strong, unselfishly dedicated, and remarkably wise. This has been seen especially in the lead and initiative of the Executive Officers on Synod's level. We are grateful to the Lord for such dedicated women, and for the wisdom of the Synodical in being able to recognize and elect them to places of leadership.

Another lesson we have learned with amazement is the wide range of subjects with which the women on Presbytery and Synod levels deal, and the large number of service projects on which they work. They certainly concern themselves with the whole program of the Church. They study, and become interested in, the actions of the meetings of our Presbyteries and the Synod, with a view to integrating their program with that of the Synod. Many members of Synod would do well to imitate them in the diligence with which they study and try to carry out the program of the Church at large.

Recommendation: That the Women of the Synod be thanked and commended for their faithful work and service in Christ's Kingdom, and that the Synod now hear the report of the Women of the Church, Synod of North Carolina, as presented by its president, Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin.

J. MURPHY SMITH, Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE WOMEN OF THE SYNOD

By ZULEIKA J. GODWIN, President

The Women of the Church, through related studies on the Assembly-approved emphasis, The Nature and Mission of the Church, has sought to confront each member with her responsibility as a part of the Church. Through Circle Bible study and conversation members studied to know what the Church and its mission in the world is, and what they should become if its mission is to be carried out through them. The emphasis has been on the individual woman's understanding of and endeavor to become a member of the body of Christ and to enlist others in its fellowship.

Through the committees on Spiritual Growth, World Missions, Church Extension, Christian Education, Stewardship, General Fund Agencies, Annuities and Relief, White Cross, and Intergroup Work, the total program of the Church is included in the program of the Women of the Church.

The 1958 program, materials, and plans for the Women of the Church were presented at the annual meetings of Synodical and the nine Presbyterials. In the late fall Officers Training Classes were held. At the spring District Conferences, the calendar of special days, program and ways of using the study materials were considered. During the summer, conferences and training schools afforded special opportunities for study. More young women attended the Synodical Training School, Interdenominational Christian Conference, Presbyterial-wide Officers Training Classes, and One-Day Christian Conferences. Group discussion periods, and shared worship experiences were noted by the delegates as features most helpful and enjoyed. The Montreat Conferences were well attended. There is a growing interest of the Women in the Area Laboratory Schools for leadership training.

The following met in January at the home of the president for one day conferences to plan the year's work: The Synodical Executive Comimttee, the Presbyterial Presidents, the Synodical Committee Chairmen of Causes, and the Program Committee. The Program Committee met throughout the year.

Women are urging attendance of families at church services, family worship in the homes, families visiting other families and inviting them to take part in the church's activities, and family reading and discussion groups on subjects of concern as ways to combat broken homes.

Plans used in reaching unenlisted women are: woman to woman evangelism, "one to win one," visitation evangelism, organizing outpost Sunday School and Bible classes, and visiting churches that do not have organized women's work and encouraging them to begin women's Bible study groups using materials of the Women of the Church. Local radio and television stations and the local press have been encouraged in the use of the church programs.

Women have reported calling on families of industrial groups moving into their area and telling them of the church services and program and inviting them to attend. Foreign students in our colleges have been entertained in homes and welcomed in churches.

Programs that enlist the wisdom and thinking of retired and older members have enriched many local groups.

Young people were encouraged to attend the Sixth Quadrennial Youth Convention and funds were provided by the women in many instances. More women are needed as advisers and leaders with youth groups, and need to be confronted with the need for understanding confused young people and meeting their needs in love. Youth are encouraged to prepare for church vocations serving at home and on the world field. Scholarship for students at Assembly's Training School provided by the Alice Johnson Scholarship Fund is substantially increased. We are pleased to have Miss Carolyn Cathey receive this scholarship in 1958-59.

Overseas Relief has been stressed and a fine response for funds, clothes, and supplies resulted. White Cross quotas are larger and members are enthusiastic in making the articles and giving to this cause. World Missions speakers, films, and study books have been used during the year, and especially during the season of World Mission emphasis.

General Fund Agencies was promoted by use of the film strip "Eight in One" and special days of the agencies were noted. Stillman College news received wide-spread attention and interest.

The Joy Gift was presented in gratitude to the servants of the Church who have given so generously of themselves.

The Synodical has supported the program of the United Council of Church Women. The experiences of service shared with other women have contributed to a oneness in fellowship with other Christian women. A special joy has been the work with migrants and the child care centers.

Two women joined the caravan sponsored by the Board of Women's Work to visit Oklahoma Presbyterian College and Chinese Presbyterian Church and Mission. Thirty-seven joined a Synodical-sponsored caravan to Chinese Mission in the interest of the Birthday objective. These women were available for programs during the Birthday season.

Women are privileged to serve on Synod's Council, Boards, Agencies, and as trustees of Synod's institutions. The Women of the Church work with Synod in supporting its program and financial responsibilities. Members are active in Synod's Campus Christian Life Campaign.

The Synodical supports the North Carolina unit of Mission Court, furlough home of foreign missionaries, at Richmond, Virginia.

In the fall a clothes dryer was donated and installed. The insurance on the building increased and substantial improvements made.

The Synodical Project—a love gift for refurnishing rooms in Rumple Hall and Howard Cottage at Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Barium Springs, reached $28,000.00.

The Assembly-approved emphasis for the current year "World-Wide Witness." Synodical Project—"A $10,000.00 contribution toward Synod's Permanent Office Building."

With these objectives ever before us, we continue our march as Heralds of Christ, bearing our King's command.

Zuleika J. Godwin, President

K. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD MISSIONS

Rev. S. C. Farrior, Chairman

"The General Assembly desires distinctly and deliberately to inscribe on our Church's banner as she now first unfurls it to the world, in immediate connection with the headship of her Lord, His last command, 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature; regarding this as the great end of her organization, and obedience to it as the indispensable condition of her Lord's promised presence'."

So spoke our first General Assembly in 1861. The General Assembly of 1959 could not honestly repeat those words. There is no place where money talks any more effectively than in the Church. Thirty years ago Southern Presbyterians gave twelve cents to World Missions out of every dollar contributed to the Church for all causes. In 1957 they gave four and one tenth cents. The Board of World Missions was compelled just recently to give notice to all our missions abroad that no increase in funds could be expected for the next two years, this in spite of desperate needs for capital funds on every one of our fields, and in spit of the growth of the work for which 473 young men and women have dedicated their lives and been sent to the field since the end of World War II; and in spite of the fact that the whole church has been urged to pray for this growth. Judged by the way we are spending our money we must conclude that the great end of the Church's organization is to take better care of ourselves, for we are now spending more than three fourths of every dollar on current expenses and building, air-conditioning many of our churches when our missionaries on the field cannot get enough money to build the simplest kind of structure in which to worship.

How can we appeal to young men and women to give their lives to missionary work when we do not give them adequate support for that work? Last year we did not have enough new missionaries to make up for the losses by death, retirement and other causes, closing the year with a net loss of three. We need to ask ourselves in all seriousness whether we have not lost our right sense of proportion in this matter of obedience to our Lord's command.

Some years ago the late Dr. Harris E. Kirk, speaking at Princeton Seminary commencement said, "We are living in a disturbed age, but the disturbed ages have always been the ages of opportunity for the Church when it had a right leadership." No one is more keenly aware of the disturbed condition of the world today than are the missionaries, who so often are at the very center of these disturbances. Dr. C. Darby Fulton, Executive Secretary of the Board of World Missions, said recently, "The Board never meets but it confronts some aspect of the problems and opportunities arising from the nationalistic and racial awakening around the world."

The world's attention is on Africa today because the whole continent is in a state of national and racial ferment. Not a one of our mission fields is free from it, and the preaching of the Gospel is in no small measure the cause of it. Christ's statement that He came to send fire on the earth is being enacted before our eyes. The Chinese word for crisis means "Dangerous Opportunity". That accurately describes the opportunities confronting our Church on her mission fields today. It is no time to draw back but to press forward with all the strength and courage that our faith can give us.

One of the notable events in the realm of World Missions this year will be the celebration of the Centennial of the Presbyterian Church of Brazil. This Church is in part the fruit of our missionary endeavor. Ashbel Green Simonton, the first Presbyterian missionary, landed in Brazil on August 12, 1859. The Presbyterian Church of Brazil today is an autonomous ecclesiastical body with its General Assembly, six Synods, and forty-one Presbyteries, and more than one hundred thousand communicant members, having doubled its membership within the past ten years. The membership of our church here at home has increased by about one third in that time.

If a comparison of the needs of our various fields can be made, Mexico would hold first place. Losses of missionary personnel from sickness and other causes have been very heavy. The following from a report of Dr. Fulton gives a picture of conditions there. Speaking of the evangelistic work he says: "The Mission has been greatly handicapped in this important endeavor by the loss of three evangelistic couples within the past two years. Howver, the force which remains has done a remarkable work. One missionary, for example, has held 51 institutes on stewardship during the year, traveling 24,000 miles by jeep, encouraging the scattered congregations toward self-support. Another presented 79 programs of an evangelistic nature in 43 churches in 1958. Still another makes regular visits through his parish of 22 villages, traveling by plane wherever possible, but reaching the remoter places by jeep, horse, or on foot. Yet, there is a large area in Southern Mexico in what is known as the 'hot country' where Presbyterianism has its greatest rural concentration, where for lack of workers many of the congregations are now entirely without pastoral oversight.

"Mexico desperately needs more missionaries. This is an insistent call which we lay once more upon the heart of the dedicated young men and women of our own Church."

Progress is reported on all of our fields except Iraq where a complete turnover of the government has brought all mission work to a practical standstill for the time being. The future there will doubtless be uncertain for some time. After a long wait and many changes the work in Equador gives promise of real growth. A young missionary couple from our church has recently gone to that field.

The Department of Overseas Relief and Interchurch Aid reports that during 1958 a total of $250,000.00 was administered for various projects. $121,395.66 was received from the Easter Offering. In addition more than three and a quarter million dollars, estimated, worth of clothing, food and CROP contributions were distributed. Our church people have cooperated in all three of these enterprises.

Recommendations:

1. That all our churches and we as Christians pray earnestly that God will keep us conscious of the need of men for the Gospel, the great opportunities open for its proclamation, and the obligation resting upon us to proclaim it.
2. That pastors and sessions study the 1959 Want List for new missionaries and then search their church rolls for well-qualified prospective missionaries, sending the names of all such to the Candidate Secretary of the Board of World Missions by September 1, 1959, if possible.
3. That the World Mission Season, February 1-March 6, 1960, be observed in all our churches as a time for church-wide dedication to the world task of Christian missions; that ministers be asked to preach on such subjects as will increase the sense of responsibility and privilege in the world-wide mission of the church; and that the whole church be called to earnest prayer for this effort.

4. That all churches be encouraged to engage in a study of Africa, the interdenominational theme for 1959-60. A special emphasis will be given to the work of our Mission in the Belgian Congo.
5. That Presbytery Chairmen of World Missions urge upon the pastors and churches in their Presbyteries all possible use of missionaries on furlough, through the Department of Itineration of the Board, of Board members and others with special knowledge of missions, and of material in the Presbyterian Survey.
6. That all pastors and churches be urged to keep before their members the continuing need for material relief and spiritual assistance in the distressed areas of the world, and that to this end collections of used clothing, blankets, etc., be made at least twice a year, and sent as contributions of the Presbyterian Church US, to Church World Service, Windsor, Maryland, plus 8¢ per pound to help defray processing expenses; and that there be full cooperation with the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP).
7. That the Stewardship Committees of our Presbyteries be requested to study the benevolent giving of constituent churches and congregations during the past twenty-five years, especially with reference to their contributions to Assembly's Causes and the steady decline in the percentage of benevolences allotted to the work of the Assembly, and that the results of these studies be communicated to the churches for their serious examination.
8. That, pending the adoption of this report, the Synod hear an address by the Reverend David A. McLean of the Africa Mission.

S. C. Farrior, Chairman

VI. REPORTS OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

FRONTIS W. JOHNSTON, Chairman

The Synod Centennial Committee is just beginning to plan for the celebration of this event in the Synod of North Carolina. The theme of the Centennial, previously approved by the General Assembly, is "Our Presbyterian Heritage and Mission." Plans for the Synod observance of the Centennial will be based on the conception already agreed upon by the Assembly. This conception stresses the fact that, although the enduring values of our heritage from the past should be recognized and deepened, the Centennial program, at all levels, should be designed primarily to point the church forward, to clarify our vision as to the future role the church should perform, enlarge our horizons, and challenge us to undertake enterprises of abiding value to the cause of our Lord

The Centennial goals as adopted by the General Assembly are the goals of this Synod Committee, and their adoption has committed the church to endeavor to form both a deepened awareness of our common historical heritage and mission, and to consider the distinctive contribution we can make as a member of the Presbyterian family in the world today. These goals commit us to strengthen and revitalize the spiritual life of our people through emphasis on rededication and evangelism, and through voluntary offerings for the cause of Christ throughout the world.

A year from now this Committee will make definite recommendations to the Synod concerning the program of the 1961 meeting of the Synod, and will ask the Committee on Program and Worship to set an order for at least one outstanding speaker on the Centennial theme. The Committee urges that at the time of the Synod observance particular attention be given to the Presbyterian heritage and to the opportunities and challenges that are before the church in North Carolina, especially in such matters as are relevant to the level of the Synod itself.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. That the Synod authorize the Synod's Centennial Committee to plan a special program on the theme of "Our Presbyterian Heritage and Mission" for the 1961 meeting of the Synod of North Carolina.

FRONTIS W. JOHNSTON, Chairman

B. LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERS' SALARIES

J. B. BREWER, Chairman

During the past year your committee has been very active in trying to get all Presbyteries and Churches to adopt the recommendations passed by Synod in July 1958. Your Committee members have attended meetings of the Presbyteries and it is our understanding that all Presbyteries have adopted all recommendations made by this Committee to Synod. All Presbyteries cannot be mentioned by name but mention should be made of certain unusual actions taken. Winston-Salem Presbytery has appointed two laymen to work with our Committee member from that Presbytery to help carry out the approved recommendations. Concord Presbytery had their own Laymen's Committee which made recommendations to Concord Presbytery considerably beyond Synod's Laymen's Committee. Concord Presbytery is entitled to the thanks of Synod for the manner in which they are successfully meeting the challenge of a living wage for their Ministers.

Orange Presbytery has set a minimum Minister's salary of $4500.00 per year plus a car allowance of $800.00 per year. The car allowance of $800.00 per year is to be paid over a three year period. My own Presbytery of Albemarle did not change its minimum Minister's salary of $4,000.00, but is paying a car allowance of $400.00 in 1959 and the Church Extension Committee is recommending an additional $400.00 a year car allowance for 1960.

During the year your Committee members have appeared before the Women of the Church of the Presbyteries and before the Women of the Church, Synod of North Carolina, at their meeting in Wilmington. We have been making a great effort to enlist the support of the Women of the Church of the Synod of North Carolina in this movement to secure a living wage for our Ministers and we believe that our efforts have met with a great deal of success. We wanted to enlist their support in trying to make this movement effective. A constant reminder by the Women and their enthusiastic interest will be tremendously helpful.

Our efforts have been directed toward giving them the facts and requesting them to constantly ask the question in their own churches of whether or not the officers were properly taking care of the professional expenses of their Ministers and providing for them and their families hospitalization insurance and books and periodicals.

Your Committee would like to again remind Synod that the major effort of the Committee has been toward changing a policy of our church which is basically wrong and unfair. Professional expenses of our Ministers should be paid by the church or Presbytery so that their salary will be net. We have concentrated on correcting this injustice rather than an increase in salary. This Committee believes that salary increases will quickly follow the correction of a policy that is wrong.

Your Committee believes that the Committee on the Minister and His Work should take all steps possible to inform our people of the work of the Ministry, since this is basic to the problem of Ministers' salaries. The Minister must be Student, Scholar, Orator, Business Man, Spiritual Guide, Family-relations expert, Psychologist, Welfare Worker, and Community Leader. The Reverend James A. Pike of the Cathedral of St. John The Divine of New York has expressed it as follows:

> "Laymen these days expect their Minister to be a Hydra-Headed Figure, holding all portfolios (Manager, Public Relations Director, Educator, Personal Director, Public Speaker, Psychologist, Social Lion, and a Mr. Fix-It), and expect him to be eminently successful in all spheres. He really tries to do it and can't. A business organization would employ half a dozen or more people to perform these various functions."

When more and more of our Laymen and Laywomen realize and understand the work performed by our Ministers, the problem of salaries will soon disappear.

We believe that the work of this Committee should be continued from year to year until all recommendations approved by Synod in July, 1958, are substantially accomplished. We also believe that the personnel of this Committee should continue without change, but that the Synod's Laymen's Committee on Ministers' salaries should have some additional help from the Presbyteries; therefore a recommendation, bearing on this, is being made to Synod at the end of this Report.

This Committee wishes to sincerely thank the Board of Annuities and Relief, Presbyterian Church in the United States, for their tremendous assistance in the group insurance program in the Synod of North Carolina.

This Committee also wishes to acquaint Synod with the fact that other Synods in the Presbyterian Church in the United States have become aware of the work being done by this Committee in the Synod of North Carolina. Our Committee sincerely wishes that this movement might extend into the other Synods of our Church and we would gladly assist any other Synod starting such a movement. We believe that our work cannot be considered successful, unless it extends all over our Church. We therefore are making a recommendation in connection with this point.

The Committee of the National Council of Churches, in their study of Ministers' salaries on a nation-wide basis, has mentioned this work of the Synod of North Carolina in many sections of the United States. They have suggested that other Synods contact the Synod of North Carolina for information about the work and methods of your Committee.

We report that we were asked to consider the study of salaries of Ministers employed by institutions and agencies of Synod, and that this matter was seriously considered. We think our Committee should deal only with the Ministers in the Pastorates. If Synod thinks that something should be done about the salaries of the Ministers in the Seminaries, Colleges, etc., we think that they should set up a special Committee to consider these salaries without discrimination between Ministers and Laymen working in these institutions. Your Laymen's Committee wishes to concentrate all of its efforts on its present work.

Your Committee attempted to get proper information and facts so that we could give Synod a definite report on the progress made during the past year. We found that it was impossible to report in a very factual manner from the information at hand, and, therefore, we simply report to Synod that substantial improvement has been made in the salaries and expenses of many ministers in the Synod of North Carolina. The action of Presbyteries paves the way for great relief for our Home Mission Ministers who have the lowest salaries, and at the same time often have the highest professional expenses, which must be paid out of their own salaries. Many of our Ministers have received hospitalization insurance for themselves and their families and an allowance for books and periodicals for the first time in their ministry.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Synod urge Churches of the Synod of North Carolina to establish the policy of an annual review of their Ministers' salaries and professional expenses.
2. That this program of the Synod of North Carolina be continued until the general objective of the program is accomplished.
3. That a communication be directed in the Fall of 1959 and in the Fall of 1960 by the Synod of North Carolina to the Clerk of the Session of each church, with a copy for the Chairman of the Board of Deacons, requesting that in the preparation of the church budget for the church year, (1) the Minister's salary and professional expenses be reviewed; (2) that the program of the Synod requesting the payment of the Minister's professional expenses by the Church or Churches served, be followed, and that the Church budget of each Church make adequate provision for this expense.

4. That each Presbytery be requested to establish a Committee of Laymen on Ministers' Salaries, with Synod's Committee members from each Presbytery acting as Chairman of this special Presbytery Committee, provided the Presbyteries do not already have such a Committee.
5. That the Synod of North Carolina offer the services of this Committee to any other Synod in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, which might desire its assistance in starting a similar work.
6. That, pending adoption of this Report, Synod hear Mr. Ralph Scott.

J. B. Brewer, Chairman

C. REPORT ON PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY CAMPAIGN

Rev. Harold J. Dudley, Chairman

Members of the Committee joined with representatives from other Synods in a regional meeting in Charlotte last Septembr, to re-evaluate the status of the Campaign. The report at that time was encouraging. Since then the paid circulation has passed the 200,000 mark. In April this was 205,811. Though the drop-out record for the first three months of 1959 was 7%, the total circulation increased rapidly enough to offset this loss.

For the first three months of 1959 the Synod of North Carolina led the other Synods of the General Assembly in the enrollment of new churches in the Every-Family-Plan, 77. Texas was the nearest competitor with 40. In the Synod the Rev. R. E. Hildebrandt and the Rev. James E. Bearss in Winston-Salem reported 13 new churches. The Rev. Leighton McKeithen, Fayetteville Presbytery, ranked second, with 12.

The General Assembly is requesting that a Permanent Committee be established on Presbyterian Survey, and this matter is being handled by the Committees on Nominations and Standing Rules.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod endorse the program to enroll churches in the Every-Family-Plan.
2. That Synod request Presbyteries to establish Permanent Committees on Presbyterian Survey.
3. That Synod express appreciation to the Committee which has so faithfully performed during the past two years in promoting the Presbyterian Survey Campaign.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

A. REPORT AND MINUTES OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE A. T. McCALLUM ESTATE

The Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate submit the following to the Synod of North Carolina, meeting at Queens College in Charlotte on June 16, 1959.

The Trustees received the Audit of the Estate made by Archibald K. Lovin, Certified Public Accountant, Red Springs, North Carolina, showing the income and the expense of the Estate during the year, January 1, 1958 through December 31, 1958. During the year there was an excess of expense and annuities over receipts amounting to $1,603.30. Thus there are no funds for distribution in accordance with Item VI (G) of the will of A. T. McCallum.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Estate is being well handled.

W. B. Heyward, Chairman

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECORDS

Rev. Roy E. Watts, Chairman

Your Committee on Records received copies of the Minutes of Presbyteries as follows: Albemarle, January 1958 through October 1958; Concord, July 1958 through April 1959; Fayetteville, September 1958 through April 1959; Granville, July 1958 through October 1958; Kings Mountain, July 1958 through November 1958; Mecklenburg, July 1958 through April 1959; Orange, April 1958 through January 1959; Wilmington, January 1958 through September 1958; Winston-Salem, January 1958 through January 1959.

The Minutes of the Presbyteries have been examined; and your Committee found them in good order and proper form, with the exception of failing to record the terms of a minister's call in the following instances: page 23, Granville Presbytery, August 1958; pages 8, 17, 26, Kings Mountain Presbytery, July 1958; and page 18, Wilmington Presbytery. (See requirements of Synod, 1956 Minutes, page 162.)

The Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries are to be commended on the efficient and attractive way in which they have kept the records of our Presbyteries.

Recommendation:

1. That Synod express appreciation to the Clerks of Presbyteries for the orderly and capable manner in which they have kept the records of their Presbyteries.

Roy E. Watts, Chairman

C. REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF SYNOD

By W. E. Price, Chairman

Your Trustees held two meetings during the fiscal year, attended by four Trustees, including your Chairman.

Chapel Hill Loan

Following the order of the Synod of 1957, "to borrow as needed an amount not to exceed $100,000 against current pledges to Campus Christian Life, said amount to be made available to Chapel Hill Church", the Trustees, after due deliberation, which took into consideration all current facts relating to the Chapel Hill building program and the financial status of Synod's Campaign funds for Higher Education, authorized and instructed the Chairman to proceed with plans to borrow from the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, according to a schedule furnished by the Chapel Hill Church, funds totalling $73,000.00, as follows:

April 10, 1959	$22,000
May 10, 1959	18,500
June 10, 1959	23,000
July 10, 1959	9,500
	$73,000

Funds are being borrowed according to the schedule except that the first installment was reduced by $1,500.00, in view of the fact that campaign pledges had yielded sufficient by April 10, to reduce the amount needed on that day by said amount.

West Raleigh Loan

The 1958 Synod authorized the Trustees to borrow, if necessary, an amount not to exceed $45,000.00, to implement the building program in connection with the Student Center for North Carolina State College on the property of the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church. At the time of the meeting of the Trustees in March, it appeared that sufficient funds would be received from the 1958 Campus Christian Life Campaign by the time the full amount of $45,000.00 would be needed; hence, preclude the necessity of borrowing. However, should the income be insufficient to meet the needs of the West Raleigh Church building program, which is underway, the Trustees will proceed to borrow the amount which is short of the maximum approved when the need for the appropriation is presented to the Trustees.

Bequests and Gifts

The Trustees would remind the Synod that in due time the McCallum Estate, bequest of the late A. T. McCallum of Red Springs, valued at in excess of $250,000.00, in the latest audit report, will accrue to the Synod for stewardship in terms of the will.

The Trustees would also call to the attention of Synod that during 1958 and early 1959, the Synod came into possession of the residue of the Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton Estate of Raleigh, in the form of real estate valued at approximately $16,000, a cemetery lot without value, and $4,400.75, in cash. The Executive Committee of Church Extension is reporting more exactly on this bequest since the gift was for the cause of missions and evangelism.

The Trustees would further call attention of Synod to the fact that during 1958 and early 1959, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. York, of Raleigh, deeded to the Synod of North Carolina approximately one-half-acre of land in the Cameron Village section of Raleigh, as the site for the Synod's Permanent Office Building. The value of the property has been appraised at $40,000.00.

The Trustees commend to Synod the wisdom of encouraging its new Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts, whose purpose is to enlighten and inform Presbyterians on their opportunities to remember the Presbyterian Church and its Agencies in their wills. The examples cited above serve as an incentive to the Presbyterians in North Carolina to prayerfully consider the wisdom of including bequests in their wills for worthy causes of the church. We would particularly urge that Presbyterians consult with those who are capable of advising them intelligently regarding the needs of the Agencies of Synod and a wise stewardship of their bequests.

Respectfully submitted,

W. E. Price, Chairman

VIII. STANDING RULES OF SYNOD

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

SECTION I

GOVERNMENT

Rule 1:1. The Rules of Parliamentary Order adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and printed in the Book of Church Order, and the Standing Rules hereinafter provided, shall be the Rules of Order for the guidance of the Synod.

1:2. To rescind, adopt or amend a Standing Rule, the suggested change shall be introduced at a regular meeting, and adopted by a majority affirmative vote of those present at the next, or a subsequent, regular stated meeting.

1:3. To suspend a Standing Rule shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present.

1:4. Any Standing Rule, or appointment of the Synod in conflict with these Standing Rules, is hereby rescinded.

SECTION II

REPRESENTATION

Rule 2:1. Each Session shall be represented at a meeting of Synod by one representative, except as otherwise provided for in the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 80 (as revised by the 1956 General Assembly). Sessions are urged to elect Ruling Elders who will plan to attend the whole session of Synod, and to register the principal and the alternate with the Stated Clerk not later than ten days before the meeting of Synod.

SECTION III

OFFICERS

Rule 3:1. The officers of the Synod shall be a Moderator, a General Secretary, a Permanent Clerk, and an Assistant Clerk.

A. MODERATOR

Rule 4:1. The Moderator shall be elected each year, to serve until his successor is elected. A Moderator may be nominated at each Synod, to be elected at the next meeting of Synod; however, such a nomination shall not preclude other nominations from the floor at the meeting of the Synod when the new Moderator is elected. The ordinary duties of the Moderator are set forth in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 53 and 82, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 1-19.

4:2. The Moderator shall have power, in the interim of the meetings of Synod, to fill, at his discretion, vacancies occurring in any office of the Synod, except Boards of Institutions which have no limited tenure of office, by appointment until the next annual meeting.

B. GENERAL SECRETARY

Rule 5:1. The duties of the General Secretary shall be as follows: To perform the duties of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod;

to serve as Central Treasurer of Synod; to act as Treasurer of sub-committee of Educational Institutions, and of Campus Christian Life, to promote by co-ordinated publicity the total work of the Synod (See Rule 8); to serve as an agent of the Committee on Church Extension (See Rule 9) and the sub-committee on Educational Institutions (See Rule 10); and to urge a program of Christian Stewardship upon the constituency of the Synod. (See Section II, Item I, Reorganization Plan 1951 Minutes of Synod.)

1. As Stated Clerk

Rule 6:1. The duties of the Stated Clerk are set forth in general in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 54, 82, and 84, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 20 and 21.

6:2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk, when he is elected and enters upon the duties of his office, at the opening of the Synod immediately succeeding that at which he is elected, to report to the Synod in writing and in full, whatever he has received from his predecessor, in the way of Books, Papers, Records, Documents, Furniture, etc., and the condition of the same when received.

6:3. The Stated Clerk shall conduct the correspondence of the Synod and shall publish a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Synod at least once, a month before the appointed day. He shall sign all necessary certificates for the same, or for other official purposes of the Synod or its members.

6:4. He shall mail, in advance of Synod, copies of Reports, together with copies of the Program, to all Commissioners to Synod.

6:5. He shall have at each meeting of Synod accessible to the Moderator a sufficient number of copies of the printed reports of the Program Committee, a copy of the last printed Minutes of the General Assembly, and a copy of Alexander's Digest.

6:6. He shall edit the Minutes of the Synod for the printer, after their approval by the Synod, and shall transmit the Records annually to the General Assembly for review. (The word "edit" here is used to refer to corrections in spelling, punctuation, etc.) He shall cause to be published annually in pamphlet form, at least one thousand copies of the Minutes, as soon as practicable after adjournment, and distribute these among the members of the Synod and Church Sessions.

6.7. He shall cause to be published in the Appendix to the printed Minutes, the reports of the Presbyteries on Statistics, the reports of the Executive and Permanent Committees, and such reports of Trustees and Regents as may be required.

6:8. He shall forward a copy of the printed Minutes annually to the libraries of Union Seminary, Davidson College, the Presbyterian Historical Society of Philadelphia, and the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and he shall file at least three copies in the archives of Synod.

6:9. He shall be charged with the further duty of reporting to the Moderator any vacancies to be filled by his appointment, and any deaths in the Ministry that may occur, and of reporting to the Synod the expiration of the term of service of its officers and members of its committees, according to the Standing Rules. He shall present to the Synod the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries. He shall collect and cause to be preserved all historical matter relating to the life of the Synod.

6:10. The Stated Clerk shall also serve as Treasurer of the Synod for the Office of Stated Clerk. As Treasurer it shall be his duty to keep a strict and accurate account of all funds received and disbursed, showing what Presbyteries have paid or have not paid their assessments, and for what purpose the funds have been disbursed. He shall submit to the Synod annually his books, together with a report of receipts and expenditures, presenting vouchers for the same.

6:11. The Stated Clerk shall act as Secretary to the Committee charged with the distribution of the income from the Mrs. Kate Bitting Reynolds Fund for Aged Ministers of the Synod of North Carolina, and shall keep a record of all transactions connected therewith. He shall make a distribution as provided for in this Trust Fund, and the plan of distribution as adopted by Synod.

6:12. The term of office of the Stated Clerk shall be three years.

2. As Central Treasurer

Rule 7:1. The Central Treasurer shall distribute all benevolence income received from various sources to the proper Agencies of the Synod, according to the actions of the Synod, governing its benevolence program.

3. As Public Relations Clerk

Rule 8:1. It shall be the duty of the Public Relations Clerk:

8:2. to prepare a daily account of the proceedings of the Synod for the daily papers;

8:3. to make the account as full, complete and vigorous as possible, stressing those matters of interest to the general public;

8:4. to act as the representative of the Synod during the interim between its meetings in endeavoring to secure through the secular press adequate account of occurrences in the life of the Churches of Synod which are of significance and interest.

4. As Secretary of Church Extension

Rule 9:1. The Secretary of Church Extension shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee of Church Extension, have supervision of the Synod's home mission work, including that of its evangelists. He shall seek to develop and coordinate all phases of home mission work within the bounds of the Synod.

9:2. He shall serve as Treasurer of Synod's Church Extension Funds. Disbursements of such funds, payment of all salaries, grants, loans, and authorized expenditures, shall be made by the Treasurer as directed by the Committee.

5. As Secretary of Educational Institutions

Rule 10:1. Acting under the direction of the Sub-Committee on Educational Institutions, the Secretary of Educational Institutions shall promote the interest of the educational institutions of the Synod, and seek to make them more effective in training the youth of the church for a greater usefulness in Christian service.

10:2. He shall receive and disburse such funds as are contributed for the Cause of Educational Institutions.

C. PERMANENT CLERK

Rule 11:1. It shall be the duty of the Permanent Clerk to engross with the aid of the Assistant Clerk, the daily Minutes of the Synod; to read said Minutes as required by the Synod for information, correction, and approval; and to deliver such Minutes to the Stated Clerk.

11:2. The term of office of the Permanent Clerk shall be three years and his compensation shall be fifty dollars ($50) per annum.

D. ASSISTANT CLERK

Rule 12:1. The duties of this office are implicit in its name. The Assistant Clerk shall be elected annually, to serve during the Session of Synod, and his compensation shall be twenty-five ($25) dollars.

E. DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 13:1. The Director of Christian Education, whose term of office shall be for three years, acting under the general direction of the Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education shall be charged with the special supervision and direction of the Synod's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to promoting, developing, and coordinating all departments and phases of Christian Education within the bounds of Synod.

F. DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

Rule 14:1. The Director of Evangelism, whose term of office shall be three years, shall conduct his work under the direction of Synod's sub-committee on Evangelism, of the Committee on Church Extension, making annual report to the Synod through this Committee.

SECTION IV

TRUSTEES

A. OF THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

Rule 15:1. The Trustees of the Synod shall be six in number, two to be elected annually, and shall serve each for a term of three years.

15:2. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees as the Synod's agency in all matters requiring the aid or use of the civil law, to receive, take charge of, and manage to the best advantage, and account to the Synod for, according to law, all property and estate belonging, or which may accrue and enure to this Synod. They shall hold in trust, subject to the order of Synod, the said property, and all legacies and bequests which may be willed to the Synod in behalf of charitable and other objects under its control. They shall make a full report, in the premises, whenever occasion or circumstance shall require.

B. OF INSTITUTIONS

Rule 16. The Synod shall elect annually

16:1. Two members of the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary, whose term of office shall be five years.

16:2. Five members of the Board of Regents of the Orphans' Home, whose term of office shall be four years. It is further provided that no regent shall serve more than two successive terms.

16:3. Nine (9) members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Junior College for Men, Inc., whose term of service shall be three years; and three Trustees nominated by the Women-of-the-Synod; and three Trustees nominated by the Alumni Association whose term of office shall be one year.

16:4. Five members of the Board of Trustees of the William Black Home for Religious Workers, whose term of service shall be for three years, and four members of this Board shall be women. (See Rule 23:9d.) (See 1950 Minutes of Synod, pg. 393).

16:5. Seven members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Home, whose term of office shall be three years. Of these members at least two shall be women, and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times by at least one male member. The President of the Women-of-the-Synod and the Chairman of Church Extension of the Women-of-the-Synod shall be members ex-officio.

16:6. Twelve members of the Board of Directors of the Consolidated Presbyterian College, whose term of service shall be for three years; and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times on the Board by at least two members.

16:7. The Synod shall elect ten members of the Board of Trustees of Queens College for a term of four years each. Nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to the nominees submitted by the Board of Trustees. These Trustees shall be divided into four classes and shall be eligible for re-election.

16:8. The Synod shall triennially elect a Trustee of the Mountain Retreat Association.

16:9. The Synod shall elect twenty members of the Board of Trustees of Peace College, two of whom shall be members of the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, North Carolina, and two Trustees shall be elected from each of the nine Presbyteries; nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to these nominees; Trustees shall be elected for a term of three years each, and shall be divided into three classes; all Trustees shall be eligible for reelection. ("Articles of Incorporation", 1953 Minutes of Synod, pp. 132-134.)

16:10. The Synod shall elect three Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate Trust Fund, two laymen and one minister, one of whom shall be a resident of Fayetteville Presbytery, who shall serve for terms of four years. (See Section X of the Will.)

SECTION V

SYNOD'S COUNCIL

A. MEMBERSHIP AND DUTIES.

Rule 17:1. The Council shall consist of 26 members, including the Moderator, the Chairmen respectively of the three Executive Committees and of the Nominating Committee, the President of the Men-of-the-Church, the President of the Women-of-the-Church ex officio;

one other woman (see Rule 23:9d); the Chairman or representative of the Stewardship Committee, or its counterpart, of each of the nine Presbyteries; nine members-at-large of three classes of three members each, whose term of office shall be for three years.. At least seven members shall be lay persons. The General Secretary shall be the Clerk of the Council.

17:2. It shall be the duty of the Council to nominate the members of the Nominating Committee.

17:3. The Council shall be the agent of Synod to confer with the General Secretary about the duties of his office.

17:4. The Council shall elect its own Chairman and a vice-chairman, who shall be of a different term of office.

17:5. The annual Report of the Council shall be presented to the Synod on the evening of the first day of meeting.

B. SUB-COMMITTEES

17:6a. Stewardship and Budgets (1) To prepare the benevolence budget of the Synod, based on the Budget Askings submitted by the General Assembly and the Synod's Agencies (Synod's Office; Church Extension; Christian Education; Higher Education, including Educational Institutions and Campus Christian Life; Homes including the Orphans', William Black, and the Presbyterian Homes; Inter-Church Agencies such as the North Carolina Council of Churches, etc.); (2) To report such budgets, with recommendations, for approval of the Synod via Synod's Council before obligations shall be contracted by such agencies and institutions of the Synod; (3) To recommend to Synod apportionments to the Presbyteries; to promote the Every-Member Canvass; and to supervise all matters pertaining to the financial goals of the Synod.

17:6b. Program: The arrangement of the daily devotional services, the Sacramental service, stated addresses, and the entire program of business at the meeting of Synod in conformity with the Standing Rules.

17:6e. Finance and Audits: (1) To prepare the Budget for Synod's Office and for Synod's Account; (2) To review all audited reports of the foregoing agencies and institutions of the Synod and of the McCallum Estate, with recommendations to the Council. (Minutes of the General Assembly, 1931, p. 143, require a printing of a digest of these audits in Synod's Minutes); to supervise the distribution of the Equalization Fund.

17:6f. NOMINATIONS: To nominate to the Council all nominees to fill vacancies as they arise.

17:7. FUNCTIONS: The functions set forth above shall be performed by corresponding committees elected by the Council.

17:8. Miscellaneous: To perform other functions of the Synod which are not specifically assigned to other committees.

SECTION VI

COMMITTEES

A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES:

Rule 18:1. The Executive Committees of Synod are clothed with authority, within certain well-defined limits, to execute and conclude the business entrusted to their care. They shall be divided into sub-committees to which shall be assigned the particular divisions of their respective programs, and the Executive Committees shall determine the method both of division into sub-committees and the naming of Chairmen of these committees. The sub-committees, with the approval of their respective committees, may choose to serve with them in an advisory capacity such persons as shall be deemed suitable and qualified for such service, without voting power.

18:2. Each of the Executive Committees triennially shall recommend to the Committee on Nominations an additional member-at-large for Chairman of the Committee, for nomination to the Synod.

1. CHURCH EXTENSION

Rule 19:1. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 23 members (including the Chairman), as follows: The Chairman of Church Extension in the Synodical ex officio; nine Chairmen of corresponding Committees in Presbyteries; twelve at large including one woman (Rule 23:9d) from the Synodical (three classes of four members each whose term of office shall be for three years). At least eight members shall be lay persons.

19:2. Committees: This Committee, charged with the promotion of Home Missions, Evangelism, Radio, Christian Relations, and Negro Work, shall be divided into sub-committees, the Church Extension Committee as a whole to determine the organization of the Committee.

19:3. Functions: This Committee shall function as follows:

19:3a. Through Home Missions: In cooperation with the Presbyteries, survey the Home Mission fields, needs, and opportunities and in general devise plans for promoting larger interest in Home Missions in the Synod; promote church and manse planning and erection; and church extension.

19:3b. Through Evangelism: Supervise the Synod's Evangelist(s), cooperate with the Presbyteries in conducting evangelistic campaigns, and foster the spirit of evangelism and developing the spiritual life of the Synod by bringing to the Synod such information and recommendations as seem pertinent and prudent.

19:3c. Through Radio and Television, in cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to promote the spreading of the Gospel by use of the Radio and Television.

19:3d. Through Negro Work: In cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to encourage the Presbyteries and churches to support and promote this phase of the Church's work.

2. CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

Rule 20:1a. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 19 members, including the Chairman. There shall be three classes of six members each, whose term of office shall be for three years (except the original Committee which shall be arranged by classes to serve respectively for one, two, and three years, and otherwise subject to Rules governing terms of office of committee members). Members shall be chosen for their knowledge of and interest in the program of Christian Higher Education. At least six members shall be ministers, and both laymen and women should be included in the membership. Each Presbytery should be represented at all times by at least one representative, who shall endeavor to promote the cause in his presbytery.

Rule 20:1b. Organization: The Committee shall have the authority to establish such sub-committees as may be necessary for the furtherance of its work, including (1) Program and (2) Finance.

Rule 20:1c. Functions : In cooperation with the church or churches near educational institutions within the bounds of Synod, the Committee shall develop and promote the cause of Campus Christian Life, including the spiritual welfare of students in these institutions; and further, shall supervise the work of Campus Christian Life, in cooperation with the local Campus Christian Life Committees. In general, the Committee will be governed by the Manual on Campus Christian Life. The Committee shall report annually to Synod.

3. EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Rule 20:2a. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 19 members, including the Chairman. There shall be three classes of six members each, whose term of office shall be for three years (except the original Committee which shall be arranged by classes to serve respectively for one, two, and three years, and otherwise subject to Rules governing terms of office of committee members). Members shall be chosen for their knowledge of and interest in the cause of Christian Higher Education. At least six members shall be laymen, including women. Each Presbytery should be represented at all times by at least one representative who shall endeavor to promote the cause in his presbytery.

Rule 20:2b. Organization: The Committee shall have authority to establish such sub-committees as may be necessary for the furtherance of its work, including (1) Synod's Educational Institutions and (2) Vocational Guidance. The functions of these Committees are set forth in general, as follows:

(1) Synod's Educational Institutions: The Committee shall promote the general educational work of the Synod; cooperate with the Presidents and Boards of Directors of all the schools and colleges within the bounds of the Synod, and with the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary; and receive the reports from these institutions and report upon them to Synod. In general, this committee shall study all the problems involved in the work of educational institutions and make recommendations to Synod.

(2) Vocational Guidance: The Committee shall supervise the program and work of the Guidance Center(s), and report upon same to Synod.

3. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 21.1. Memberships The Committee shall be composed of 23 members (including the Chairman) as follows: President of Synod's Men's Council, Chairman Christian Education in the Synodical, President Synod's Youth Council, President of Synod's Sunday School Superintendents Association, ex officio; nine Chairmen of Christian Education from the Presbyteries; nine members at large (three classes of three members each whose term of office shall be for three years). At least seven members shall be lay persons.

21:2. Organization: The Committee shall have the authority to divide itself into sub-committees for furtherance of its work.

21:3. Functions: In the conduct of the work, the Committee shall cooperate with the Presbyteries in their programs. The duties of the Committee shall be to supervise and direct the Church's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to the promotion and development of all the departments and phases of this cause throughout the bounds of Synod.

21:4. The Committee shall annually recommend to the Committee on Nominations a Director of Christian Education for nomination to Synod.

B. PERMANENT COMMITTEES:

Rule 22:1. The duties of the several Permanent Committees shall be in general such as their names indicate and custom has fixed. Their membership shall be nominated by the Committee on Nominations, except as elsewhere provided.

Rule 23:1. ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION:

23:1a. Functions. The functions of the permanent Advisory Committee should be advisory in nature.

(1) It should be the responsibility of the Advisory Committee to consult with the Synod's Committee on Higher Education in the evaluation of the educational program of the Synod and the planning of overall strategy for this program and to make recommendations for its improvement.

(2) The Advisory Committee shall also consult with the administrations of the colleges concerned in assisting them in the development of their own programs.

23:1b. Responsibility. The Advisory Committee should be responsible to the Executive Committee on Higher Education.

23:1c. Nomination of Members: The membership of the permanent Advisory Committee should be recommended by the Executive Committee on Higher Education to the Nominating Committee of the Synod which should have the final responsibility of nominations before Synod.

23:1d. The number on the permanent Advisory Committee should be not less than five nor more than nine. It is suggested that the number be set at nine for the initial appointment.

23:1e. Term of Office. The initial appointment should be on a staggered basis for one, two and three year terms with a regular appointment thereafter for a three-year term.

23:1f. Compensation. Compensation for service on the Advisory Committee should be on a per diem basis, plus expenses from the funds of the Higher Education Committee.

Rule 23:2a. ANNUITIES AND RELIEF: To promote the welfare of the cause within the Synod, membership to be composed of the

Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:2b. It shall be the duty of this Committee to promote the work of enlisting and preparing those entering the service of the church.

23:2c. The Committee shall administer the Reynolds Trust Fund for Aged Ministers as provided in the plan of distribution adopted by the Synod. (Minutes 1947, pp. 543-545)

Rule 23:3. ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES: To inform the Synod concerning the Board of Women's Work, the Bible Cause, Montreat, Stillman College, the Historical Foundation, the General Council, and the Assembly's Training School, together with other Assembly work assigned to it from time to time; membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on Assembly's General Fund Agencies in each Presbytery, one Woman, (Rule 23:9d), and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman.

Rule 23:4. BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS:

23:4a. Membership: There shall be seven members of the Committee, one of whom shall be nominated as Chairman, to serve a term of three years, and eligible for re-election. As a rule, though not necessarily, members shall be laymen, preferably persons familiar with the whole area of wills, bequests, and deferred gifts.

23:4b. Functions: The functions of the Committee shall be to furnish information to the Synod and to advise individuals, churches, and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to educational institutions and other agencies of the Synod.

Rule 23:5. CHRISTIAN RELATIONS:

23:5a. Membership: to comprise the Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:5b. Functions: To observe and study the society of our day, and report to Synod such conditions and customs, movements and trends therein as are properly matters for consideration and witness-bearing of a Church Court, with recommendations as to what action should be taken, or witness borne by Synod concerning them.

23:5c. The Chairman of the Committee on Christian Relations shall serve as an Advisory member of the Committee on Christian Education.

Rule 23:6. HOMES. a. Membership: To be composed of the Chairmen of corresponding committees in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. b. Functions: To cooperate with the official Boards and Directors of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, the Presbyterian Home, and the William Black Home; to promote the program and work of these institutions within the bounds of Synod; to receive the Reports of these institutions, studying all the problems involved in their work; and to report upon them to Synod, making necessary recommendations.

Rule 23:7a. INTERCHURCH RELATIONS: To inform the Synod of the work of the North Carolina Council of Churches and other interdenominational programs.

23:7b. Membership is to consist of 15 members, including at least one woman. At least five of the members shall be lay persons.

23:7c. The Nominating Committee triennially shall nominate to Synod a Chairman, who shall serve as the representative of Synod on the corresponding Committee of the General Assembly.

23:7d. There shall be such sub-committees as are necessary.

23:7e. Except as may be otherwise prescribed in these Rules (See DIRECTORY and Rule 24:1a), representatives to the North Carolina Council of Churches (commensurate with and proportionate to the number of representatives allowed by the Council of Churches) shall be elected for a term of three years, eligible for one additional term, and arranged according to classes.

23:7f. Three members of the Inter-Church Relations Committee shall be named by that Committee to serve respectively as representatives of Synod on the Committees on CROP, Migrant Work, and Rural Church of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

23:7g. Synod shall annually elect three representatives from the membership of the Inter-Church Relations Committee, nominated by the Committee on Nominations, to officially represent the Synod at the annual meeting of the Council, expenses to be borne by the Synod; and these representatives shall report to the Synod at its subsequent meeting through the Committee on Inter-Church Relations.

Rule 23:8. MINISTER AND HIS WORK.

Rule 23:8a. Membership shall consist of the Chairmen of the corresponding Commissions in the several Presbyteries, and four members-at-large, including the Chairman of the Committee, at least three of whom shall be Ruling Elders, to serve a term of three years each. The Stated Clerk of Synod shall serve ex officio as Secretary of the Committee.

Rule 23:8b. Functions: (1) To render assistance to Presbytery Commissions by (a) Exchange of information as to open fields, ministers open to change, and as to Directors of Christian Education and other lay persons available for church employment; and (b) Facilitating the transfer of ministers between various Presbyteries; (2) To render assistance to the Assembly's Committee and Presbyteries' Commissions in sponsoring the proper position of the minister, and the relationship of the minister and the church, as set forth in Scripture and interpreted in the Book of Church Order; (3) To report annually to Synod, making appropriate recommendations, (a) On actions taken by the General Assembly affecting the Committee and Commissions; and (b) On progress of the Committee and Presbytery Commissions; and (4) To sponsor Synod Conferences on the Minister and His Work, and to cooperate in Regional Conferences.

[For further duties and functions of this Committee, see Chapter XIX (Revised, Chapter 10) of The Book of Church Order.]

Rule 23:9a. NOMINATIONS: The Committee shall be composed of 10 members, one from each of the Presbyteries, and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. Members of the Committee shall be nominated by Synod's Council.

23:9b. It will be the function of the Committee to make nominations to the Synod of all members-at-large on the several Committees; of all other committee members and Chairmen not otherwise provided for elsewhere in these Standing Rules; and of all Trustees elected by Synod.

23:9c. In making nominations for membership on the several Boards and Committees, the Committee shall confer with the proper representatives of Institutions, Boards, or Committees, relative to persons with suitable qualifications to serve on Boards or Committees.

23:9d. Except as otherwise specified, women members of Boards, the Council, or Committees of Synod shall be nominated by the Executive Board of the Women-of-the-Synod of North Carolina, to the Nominating Committee of the Synod.

23:9e. Where membership on Synod's Committees is determined by action of other bodies, the Nominating Committee shall submit to the Stated Clerk at each meeting of the Synod, the full list of Committee membership.

23:9f. All such nominations referred to above, however, shall not preclude nominations from the floor by any member of Synod.

Rule 23:10. PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY. Membership: To be composed of Chairmen of corresponding committees in Presbyteries, and one member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. Functions: (1) To encourage and facilitate enrollment and renewal in the Every-Family-Plan; (2) To encourage the widest possible use of the magazine in all churches and homes of the Synod; and (3) To report annually to the Synod.

Rule 23:11. STANDING RULES: The Committee shall be composed of the Stated Clerk as Chairman, the Moderator, and the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations. The functions of the Committee will be to review the STANDING RULES for consistency and correctness, and to bring in recommendations for amendment when and where needed.

Rule 23:12. WOMEN'S WORK: To inform the Synod of the work of the Women of the Synod and General Assembly; membership to be composed of three members, one of whom shall be named as chairman on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee; and the President of the Women of the Synod ex officio.

Rule 23:13. WORLD MISSIONS: To promote the welfare of World Missions and Overseas Relief within the Synod, membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on World Missions within the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee.

C. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING COMMITTEES:

Rule 24:1a. Term of Office. No member of the Executive Committees or of the Synod's Council shall serve more than two consecutive terms, without a year elapsing; no member of any other Committee shall serve longer than one three-year term, without a year elapsing. In case of Presbytery representatives, where the rule would be violated, such as by a Class representative being elected a Presbytery representative at the expiration of the full limit of his service, he shall be ineligible to serve until one year has elapsed, and the Presbytery should name another representative in his place. Part of a term shall not be considered as a term unless the unexpired term being filled shall be for more than one-half of that term.

24:1b. The terms of office of members of Boards, the Council, or Committees, who fail to attend meetings for a period of twelve months for reasons other than being providentially hindered shall be terminated automatically and the vacancies shall be filled by the Synod on recommendation of the Nominating Committee.

24:2. Meetings. The Synod's Council and the Executive Committees shall meet at least once annually, and Permanent Committees should meet at least once annually.

24:3a. Reports. To all committees respectively shall be referred without vote, unless there is objection, all reports, documents, communications, and other matters pertaining to the several subjects upon which they are appointed, and it shall be their duty to formulate reports upon the matters referred to them, and present the same to Synod for action.

24:3b. All actions and reports of all the sub-committees of Executive and Permanent Committees and of the Council are subject to the approval of the parent Committee of which they are a part, and ordinarily the Chairman, or some appointed member of the parent Committee, shall make the combined report to Synod of all approved actions of the sub-committees.

24:3c. Committees shall make their reports as brief as is consistent with clarity, avoiding quotations from Board Reports, and such other matters as are elsewhere available in printed form, and to present orally only essential data from Reports and Recommendations.

24:3d. Committees, except the Council and the Committee on Nominations, shall place, through their chairmen, copies of their Reports to Synod, in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod, not later than thirty days before the meeting of Synod.

24:4. Nominations. Committees shall recommend to the Permanent Committee on Nominations persons to fill vacancies occurring on Boards of Institutions, or persons assigned to them as Executives of their work.

D. STANDING COMMITTEES:

Rule 25:1. Standing Committees of five or more members shall be appointed by the Moderator, at an early hour in the proceedings of the regular meetings of Synod as follows:

(1) Attendance: Functions of the Committee are to consider and to recommend to Synod disposition of all requests to be excused from attendance of Synod for a part of or the full proceedings of the meeting.

(2) Bills and Overtures

(3) Judicial

(4) Resolutions

E. SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES

Rule 26:1. Synod may appoint Ad-Interim and Special Committees whenever deemed necessary, for the consideration of special matters, or the performance of designated duties.

26:2. The Synod's representative on the General Assembly's Council on Higher Education shall serve a term of three years, and be eligible for one additional term.

SECTION VII

FINANCIAL RULES OF AGENCIES OF SYNOD

Rule 27:1. All agencies of Synod shall clear through the Stewardship Committee and Council all requests for funds, including campaigns.

27:2. All Treasurers of Synod's Funds (Office, Church Extension, Education, Homes, and other Agencies and Institutions) shall be bonded in an approved surety company for such amounts as the Finance and Audit Committee shall determine; and these several accounts shall be audited annually by an approved accountant; and annual reports shall be rendered to Synod.

27:3. All agencies of Synod seeking benevolence support from the Synod shall present annually to the Stewardship Committee at its meeting to formulate a budget, together with their requests for support: (1) a two-year comparison financial statement; and (2) a two-year comparison of budgets.

27:4. All Agencies of Synod shall share in an Equalization Fund, as follows: 5 percent of the budget income of each agency shall be reserved for the fund; at the end of each Church Year, Synod's Central Treasurer, under the supervision of the Committee on Finance and Auditing of Synod's Council, shall distribute the Fund to participating Agencies so that each will receive an equal percentage of its budget; any surplus remaining in the Fund shall be divided among all contributing Agencies in the same percentage as contributed; all income of Agencies of Synod sharing in the Equalization Fund are to be reported to the Central Treasurer.

SECTION VIII

MEETINGS AND STANDING ORDERS

Rule 28:1. Time. The annual Stated Meeting of Synod shall be held as early in June as practicable, and with the concurrence of Synod's Council, the first session to begin at 2 p.m. on a Tuesday, unless otherwise ordered. The Synodical year shall end April 30.

Rule 29:1. Enrollment. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall constitute a Committee on Enrollment, which shall meet at the place at which Synod is to convene at an hour just before the opening of the session.

29:2. Each member shall, on arrival, report to this Committee for enrollment. The roll thus prepared according to Presbyteries shall be reported to the Synod at the opening of Synod, at which time additional enrollment shall be made.

Rule 30:1. Entertainment. Synod's Program Committee shall arrange for the entertainment of Synod in accordance with the following regulations, namely:

30:1a. An institution entertaining Synod shall be paid at the rate of $3.50 for each representative (See SECTION II) for the first forty-eight hours, beginning with the first meal served, and at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents for each meal thereafter. This rate shall also apply to those guests of Synod who are approved by the Program Committee. All visitors of Synod shall make arrangements for their own entertainment, and shall be charged for meals at the prevailing rate, by the host institution or church.

30:1b. A church entertaining Synod shall be paid an amount not exceeding seventy-five cents a meal for each member of Synod and for guests, when such church shall be serving one or two meals at the church building or other central place.

30:1c. Official representatives of Synod and guests shall be furnished with meal tickets when registering, which shall be collected at the dining-room; and the host institution or church shall be reimbursed by Synod on the basis of the meals served, as verified by the tickets, and as otherwise provided by the Standing Rules, and no institution or church is to sustain a loss in the entertainment of Synod.

Rule 31:1. Expenses. Per capita assessment for Synod's expenses shall be of sufficient amount to meet the expenses of the Stated Clerk's office and such appropriations as are made by Synod to be paid from this fund.

31:2. All salaried officers of the Synod, or any of its agencies, shall be elected by the Synod, and the term of office and compensation shall be fixed by the Synod.

31:3. The necessary expenses of the Executive Committees shall be paid from the funds available for the work conducted under the supervision of these Committees.

31:4. The expenses of the Council shall be borne by Synod's Office.

31:5. The necessary expenses of Permanent Committees shall be paid by the Synod from its Treasury, unless otherwise provided for.

31:6. When travel of committee members is by public transportation, the expense shall be the actual cost. When travel is by car, the mileage shall be figured at seven cents per mile.

Rule 32:1. Orders. Following the enrollment at the opening session of Synod, the Moderator shall introduce to the Synod all ministers who have been received into its constituent Presbyteries since the last Stated Meeting.

32:2. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be held on the first day of the Synod's meeting during the afternoon session and following the retiring Moderator's sermon.

32:3. The names of the Ministers of Synod who have died during the Synodical year shall be read in connection with the annual Communion Service, and an adequate memorial of each, not to exceed approximately 500 words, shall be printed in the Minutes of Synod.

32:4. The Program Committee shall provide the services of a stenographer for Committees of Synod.

32:5. The Minutes of Agencies under the control of Synod shall be made available to Synod or Synod's Council upon request.

32:6. No new matter of business may be introduced to Synod later than recess for lunch on the second day of the meeting of Synod.

[1] –Not Reported in Minutes of General Assembly after 1952–1953.

[2] –Inclusive of Ministers.

[3] –The Federal per capita income for 1956 was $1,847. The North Carolina per capita income for 1956 was $1,236. However, for computing the Total Income for the Synod of North Carolina in 1958, the amount of $1,500 was used, and is regarded as a conservative estimate of per capita income for Presbyterians, since the per capita income in North Carolina for whites alone in 1956 was $1,465.

[1] Spiritual Birthrate is determined by dividing the membership at the beginning of the Church year into the accessions on profession of faith during the year and is measured in percentage, the higher the percentage the better the standing. Soul-winning ratio is determined by dividng the number of accessions on profession of faith during the year into the total membership at the beginning of the year and represents the number of church members required to win one person to Christ. The lower the number the better the standing.

[2] Includes 2,374 communicants merged into other Synods from Snedecor Memorial (Negro) Synod, now extinct.

MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING

GREENVILLE, N. C.

June 14, 1960

The Synod of North Carolina of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, met in its One Hundred Forty-Seventh Stated Session, in McGinnis Auditorium, East Carolina College, Greenville, North Carolina, at 2 P.M., June 14, 1960, and was called to order by the Reverend Chester Alexander, Moderator, who led Synod in a worship service, preparatory to the Memorial Service and the Communion Service.

MEMORIAL SERVICE: The names of Ministers and Ruling Elders who died during the last year were presented to Synod by the Stated Clerk, after which the Rev. Marion S. Huske offered a prayer of thanksgiving for their lives and services and on behalf of their bereaved loved-ones. (Appendix, page 49).

COMMUNION SERVICE: The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Rev. Richard R. Gammon, host pastor, and the Rev. Thomas M. Davis, of Greenville, assisted by Ruling Elders of the First Presbyterian Church, Greenville.

ROLL: The following were present or were enrolled during the sessions of Synod.

A. B. MONTGOMERY, Chairman

The Report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures was presented by the Chairman, Rev. R. F. Sloop. The Report was adopted as follows:

Only one communication was placed in our hands, the letter from Dr. J. G. Patton, Executive Secretary of the General Council of the General Assembly, regarding the Assembly-Wide Capital Funds Campaign for 1963.

Since this, in our opinion is not an overture but a matter of stewardship, we recommend that, in view of the fact that Synod has committed to Synod's Council the matter of recommending the schedule for Capital Funds Campaigns, the communication from the General Council be referred to Synod's Council.

R. F. SLOOP, Chairman

The Report of the Standing Committee on Resolutions was presented by the Chairman, Rev. C. K. Ligon. The Report was adopted as follows:

We, the commissioners of the 147th session of the Synod of North Carolina, hereby express our deep appreciation to those persons who have provided for our comfort and entertainment. We thank the President and staff of East Carolina College for permitting us the use of their excellent facilities, and for housing and feeding us in an excellent way. We thank the pastor of the Greenville First Presbyterian Church, and the members who have served most graciously as hosts and hostesses. As Synod moved through its proceedings, it grew increasingly evident that they had prepared for our coming with careful planning and detailed organization.

We express our appreciation to the moderator, Mr. Joseph Brewer, for his fair and accurate dispatch of Synod business, and to the clerks and pages for their efficient service. We thank all speakers for their instructive and inspirational messages, and convey special thanks to the moderator of the General Assembly, Dr. Marion Boggs, for his making a distant journey under the pressure of a very tight schedule to be present. We, further, thank the members of Synod's committees for preparing clear, concise, interesting, and challenging reports.

We know that God has been present during this Synod meeting, and we pray for His continued blessing of our churches.

CHEVES K. LIGON, Chairman

TIME AND PLACE OF THE NEXT MEETING: Synod confirmed acceptance of the invitation to meet in Raleigh, June 13-14, 1961, hosts, the First Presbyterian Church and the other churches of Raleigh, the hour to be set by Synod's Council.

MINUTES READ: Minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

ADJOURNMENT: Synod adjourned with prayer by Rev. John Miller.

JOSEPH B. BREWER, Moderator

C. M. GIBBS, Permanent Clerk

ATTEST: HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Stated Clerk

I. MEMORIALS TO DECEASED MINISTERS

REVEREND JONAS BARCLAY

Jonas Barclay was born in Peewee Valley, Ky., January 28, 1865, and entered into the presence of his Lord on January 15, 1960, within 13 days of reaching his 95th birthday. He was the son of Rev. Thomas P. and Louisa R. Barclay. For some years Mr. Barclay had been the only surviving member of a family of eight children. In the long life allotted him he gave a good account of his stewardship, and to no one can the words of the apostle Paul be more fittingly applied: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

Before entering college Mr. Barclay turned for a few years to business in Louisville, Ky., and for one year, '85-'86, was secretary of the Y.M.C.A., Steubenville, Ohio, where he gave special attention to the training of young boys and men in athletics, a pursuit he followed later as a side-line in some of his pastorates. On leaving Steubenville he entered Collegiate Institute, Princeton, Ky., and after a year's study there was enrolled in Center College, Ky. He had his theological training in what was then Danville Theological Seminary. He was licensed by Transylvania Presbytery, Ky., in 1891, and was ordained by Mecklenburg Presbytery in May of the same year, his first work being with this Presbytery as evangelist, '91-'92. Later on, '99-'00, he served the Presbytery again in the same capacity. He always manifested a special interest in Evangelism and Home Missions, and led in the organization of Marshville and Beulah churches in this Presbytery.

During his ministry Mr. Barkley served two Presbyteries, Enoree in South Carolina and Cherokee in Georgia, as Superintendent of Home Missions. With the exception of four years, 1902-1906, as pastor of the Highland, Md., Presbyterian Church, his entire ministry was in the Presbyterian Church, U.S.

The churches served by Mr. Barclay, either as pastor or as stated supply, were the following: Goldsboro, Williams Memorial, Mulberry, Mt. Holly and Stanley, Mallard Creek, Hawfields and Group, all of these in the Synod of N. C.; Euharlee, McDonough, and Eastman in the Synod of Georgia; and Blackville in South Carolina. His last and longest pastorate was in Pittsboro and group, N. C., 1921-1941. After retiring in 1941, he had a short residence in Stanley, N. C., and then removed to Charlotte, where opportunities came to him to do what he loved to do, preach the "glorious gospel of Christ". During this period he supplied on one or more Sundays 86 churches, most of them in this Presbytery. He was denied further activity by serious illness that overtook him in the fall of 1954.

On October 31, 1895, he was married to Miss Edna Pegram, of Stanley, N. C., and for nearly 65 years they labored together as devoted companions and true servants of God. To this union were born two sons and three daughters, all of whom with Mrs. Barclay, survive him.

Of our brother it may truly be said that he measured up to the three requirements on an acceptable servant of God, as set forth by the prophet Micah: "To do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

REVEREND CLARENDON WITHERSPOON ERVIN

(1882-1959)

Clarendon Witherspoon Ervin was born at Indiantown, South Carolina, April 4, 1882. He was a son of Gotea Elizabeth Wilson and John Witherspoon Ervin. He graduated from Davidson College in the fall of 1905 with an A.B. degree and from Columbia Theological Seminary where he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1908, he did postgraduate work at Duke University in 1926 and at the University of North Carolina in 1932.

Mr. Ervin was married in 1906 to Gessner Lizetta Carson, a niece and foster daughter of the late Dr. J. B. Shearer, a former president of Davidson College. To this union was born one son and four daughters. Mr. Ervin's first wife preceded him in death and he was married again in 1929 to the former Miss Ruth Cox of Stratford, N. C., daughter of Laura Maxwell and W. E. Cox.

Mr. Ervin was licensed by Harmony Presbytery of South Carolina in 1907 and ordained by Concord Presbytery of N. C. in 1908. He was pastor of the Cannonville and Patterson Mill churches in Concord Presbytery from 1908 until 1910; he was pastor of Mulberry and Amity churches, Mecklenburg Presbytery from 1910 until 1913; his most outstanding work was done in Home Mission churches in Stokes and Surry counties. While serving pastorates there he was primarily responsible for organization of the Hills and Collinstown churches. He taught at Barium Springs Orphanage from 1918 pntil 1919. Coming to Alleghany county in 1919 he served the churches of Glade Valley, Carson Memorial (now Sparta), and Rockyridge. In 1925 he became teacher and principal of the Glade Valley High School from which position he honorably retired April 4, 1947. (During the years of 1933 and 1934 he served, in addition to his teaching, the Glade Valley, Sparta and Rockyridge churches.)

Mr. Ervin was considered one of the best educated and informed men of Alleghany county. He was an interesting conversationalist, many knew him for his dry wit and humor. One of Mr. Ervin's most outstanding abilities was evidenced in his dealings with boys and young people. Many of them were led into lives of useful service by his influence.

Mr. Ervin's sermons showed careful preparation, unusual knowledge of the Bible, and fundamental truth of the Christian religion. He was a kind and sympathetic pastor of all the people whom he served and will long be remembered for his steadfast faith, his genial manner, for his kindness and generosity to those in need. He passed to his eternal reward on Monday evening, September 14, 1959.

REVEREND HENRY G. BEDINGER

(1889-1960)

Dr. Henry G. Bedinger, 71, passed away on January 29, 1960, at Florence, S. C. after a brief illness. He was born on June 1, 1889, the son of the late Henry C. and Alice Graybill Bedinger of Boone County, Ky. and Salem, Virginia. He was graduated from Davidson College in the year 1911 and from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, in 1916. For a time he served as Assistant Superintendent of Home Missions and Evangelist for Asheville Presbytery and in 1918 he entered the armed forces as a Chaplain serving at Fort Moultrie and with the American Expeditionary Forces in France during World War I. From 1919 to 1930 he was pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Hartsville, S. C., and from 1930 to 1948 he served as President of Flora Macdonald College at Red Springs, N. C. In 1948 he became pastor of the Pineville Presbyterian Church in Mecklenburg Presbytery and served that church until his retirement in 1957. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. H. W. Hall of Florence, S. C., and Mrs. J. A. Taylor of Washington,D.C.; two sons, H. G. Bedinger, Jr. of Columbia and Tucker G. Bedinger of Charlotte; two sisters, Mrs. R. B. Echols of Olympia, Washington, and Mrs. Fred Fiedler of Ottumwa, Iowa; two brothers, W. E. Bedinger of Atlanta, Georgia and R. D. Bedinger of Asheville, N. C.; and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian Church of Florence conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. G. Foster, and interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Dr. Bedinger was a faithful pastor, a good minister and a good Presbyterian. He assumed his Presbytery assignments willingly and discharged his duties faithfully.

We cherish his memory and are confronted by the blessed assurance that he is with his Lord whom he served so acceptably while here on earth.

We commend all the members of his family to the God of all comfort and record our gratitude to God for his Ministry in our midst.

REVEREND CHARLES C. HAMILTON

(1896-1959)

The Rev. Charles C. Hamilton was born in Walker County, Georgia, July 10, 1896, son of the late Samuel S. Hamilton and Eula H. Roark Hamilton. He was a graduate of Tennessee Wesleyan College, Atlanta Theological Seminary, and did graduate work at the University of Chicago. He was ordained as a minister in the Congregational Church but after a few years of service he was received as minister in the Mecklenburg Presbytery. He served faithfully and well as a pastor of Troy Presbyterian Church, St. Andrews, Covington, Ga., Conyers, Ga., Benton Heights, Monroe, N. C. His last pastorate was as assistant pastor of Plaza Presbyterian Church in his beloved Charlotte where he quickly won the hearts of the people by his warm and friendly spirit of devotion and service.

For many years Mr. Hamilton rendered distinguished service through the Lions Club Program for the Blind, pioneering and establishing the Mecklenburg Association for the Blind. In this work he was responsible for bringing the first "talking book" into Mecklenburg county. During World War II he was active in the North Carolina State Guard and was instrumental in organizing Boys Club work in Concord, North Carolina.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Hooper Hamilton, and two brothers, the Rev. William S. Hamilton of Youngstown, Ohio, and H. Hudson Hamilton of Waycross, Georgia.

His life was a blessing to all who knew him and especially to those to whom he ministered in the name of his Lord. He was an outstanding pastor who understood and loved people. "He went about doing good." On July 28, 1959, he answered the call of his Lord to move on up higher into the "land that is fairer than day."

DAVID E. WILKINSON

(1873-1960)

Thomas Louis Kluttz, the son of Mathias Kluttz and Mary Sprinkle Kluttz, was born near Concord in Cabarrus County, N. C., April 23, 1873. He died March 22, 1960, in Marion, N. C. The funeral service was held in the First Presbyterian Church where he had been faithful in attendance during the latter years of his life.

The story of the life of this faithful servant of God is full of interest. Both of his parents died before he was three years of age. As an orphan he lived with relatives until he was fourteen, then went forth to earn his own living.

At the age of 21 he began work with the Salvation Army and was made a Captain in that organization where he served for seven years laboring especially in Ohio and Kentucky. In 1901 he left the Salvation Army to work his way through school. After finishing High School at Grand River Institute, he entered the University of Chattanooga, where he received a Bachelor's degree in Theology in 1908.

On July 2, 1908, he married Miss Laura Gourley of Harrisburg, N. C., who died on August 30, 1950. They had four sons: Robert Louis and James Boyd, who live in Marion; Freeman Bovard died in infancy, and Samuel Erwin died as a young man during the second World War.

Mr. Kluttz was licensed to preach in the Methodist Church in 1905, and while in the Seminary he served as a student supply of churches in Kentucky and Tennessee. After graduation he was ordained to the Methodist ministry and was pastor at Oldsburg, Kansas 1908-12; Goffs, Kansas 1912-13; Seenie, Iowa 1913-14; Sergeants Bluff, Iowa 1914-15; Eau Gallie, Fla. 1917-18; New Smyrna, Fla. 1918-19; Lake Como, Fla. 1919-21; Elmwood, N. C. 1921-22. He was received into Concord Presbytery in 1922, and was pastor of Clinchfield and Conley Memorial Presbyterian Churches 1922-25. He continued to serve as temporary supply in vacant churches near Marion until he became infirm in 1930.

God honored Brother Kluttz with a long life. It was the cherished privilege of the writer to be closely associated with him after his retirement. In his sunset years there were fulfilled in his life the words of the Psalmist concerning the righteous that "they shall bring forth fruit in old age." In the church and community where he spent the evening of his life, he wrought a gracious ministry and endeared himself to all who knew him. He was always about the Father's business in a ministry of prayer and faithful witness. In a real sense he never retired. His abiding interest and unabating zeal for the cause of Christ was an inspiration to all and especially to the young men of the church and community.

To the end of his life, God blessed him with a clear and vigorous mind through which he often gave expression to sublime thoughts in the most choice and beautiful language. Even when his frail body was almost too weak to stand, his impromptu public prayer reflected the abiding strength and vigor of his mental faculties and his devout spirit.

We will remember him as a man in whom the Spirit of God had wrought the grace and gentleness and kindness of the richest and rarest quality.

CARL W. McMURRAY

REVEREND CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN McNEILL

(1879-1960)

Charles Chamberlain McNeill, a native of Fayetteville, N. C., served the Kingdom in many different functions as a minister of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Born September 25, 1879, Dr. McNeill graduated from Washington and Lee University with the B.A. degree in 1903 and attended Princeton Theological Seminary for one year before a brief term of service as state student secretary for the YMCA. He returned to Seminary at Louisville and graduated there in 1913. Charles McNeill was ordained by Columbia Presbytery October 25, 1913, and served churches at Spring Hill, Port Royal, and Gallatin, Tennessee. This last pastorate was interrupted by war work for the YMCA from 1917 to 1919.

Dr. McNeill's next pastorate was in East Dallas Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Texas, and was the last pastorate he held. From this church he went into work as an agent for the Christian Education and Ministerial Relief Committee of the Assembly. Other later service was as a professor in Columbia Theological Seminary (1925-27); educational work for Converse College; evangelist with the A. Earle Kernahan team for Religious Survey and personal Evangelism; and stated supply work for a large number of churches until his retirement because of ill health in 1946. His last work as a minister was home mission work in Mecklenburg Presbytery.

Dr. McNeill was granted an honorary D.D. degree by Washington and Lee University in 1926. After his retirement he lived with his daughter in Pompano Beach, Fla., where he died February 29, 1960.

Dr. McNeill was possessed of a most attractive personality, and was most effective in his work with young people.

Mecklenburg Presbytery knew Dr. McNeill only in the last years of his service, but wishes to record its gratitude to God for having shared in the life and work of a man of God who brought to his work a love of his Lord, a delight in people, and a constant readiness to help those in need.

REVEREND NATHAN ELMER OPLINGER

The Rev. Nathan Elmer Oplinger was born in Wadsworth, Ohio, August 11, 1893. He attended the American College of Physical Education and was a Sergeant in the U. S. Army Infantry. He attended Theological Seminary in Richmond from 1919 to 1922.

He was licensed to preach by North Alabama Presbytery and served as evangelist in Caldwell County from 1922 to 1924. His pastorates include the Stony Point and Shiloh churches in Concord Presbytery, the Unity Church group at Woodleaf, the St. Elmo Church, Chattanooga, Tennessee, and the Turner and Lee Park Churches, Monroe, N. C., where he was serving at the time of his death September 30, 1959.

Mr. Oplinger is survived by his wife, the former Sadie Somers; a daughter, Miss Phoebe Oplinger of Charlotte; a son, Nathan Oplinger of Chattanooga; brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence on October 1 at the McEwen Chapel in Monroe and graveside services at Stony Point.

Mr. Oplinger was a diligent worker in the church, a faithful Presbyter, and one of God's noblemen.

REVEREND JACQUELIN PLUMMER TAYLOR

(1897-1959)

Jacquelin Plummer Taylor, son of Jacquelin Plummer and Sarah Marshall Taylor, died at home in Winston-Salem on the morning of July 30, 1959. He was born in the same city on December 15, 1897. His survivors are his wife, Anna Deane; two sons Jacquelin Plummer, III, and Wallace Deane; and one daughter, Sarah Ashley.

He attended the schools of his native city, having the unique distinction of being a member of the first high school football team. He was a graduate of Davidson College, class of 1921, and of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, 1928. His college career was interrupted by the First World War in which he became a first lieutenant. While a student in college he felt the call to the Gospel Ministry, but deferred going to the Seminary for four years that he might be sure he had been truly called of God. These years were spent in business with his brothers in Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. Taylor served churches in North Carolina, Alabama, Florida and Kentucky. His last pastorate was at the Sharon Church in Lexington, Ebenezer Presbytery, and his first pastorate was in Winston-Salem Presbytery at Elkin, Yadkinville and Wilkesboro.

Jacquelin Taylor was incapacitated physically and unable to carry on the active work of the ministry for the last nine years of his life, retiring in 1950. There was never any doubt about his Calvinistic convictions. He stood up for what he believed to be right whether it was popular or not, and believed his long illness to be in the purpose and plan of God. Those who knew him best were inspired by his patience and fortitude in suffering. He was uncomplaining, cheerful, and possessed of a keen sense of humor. He loved his friends and was loyal to them.

REVEREND JOHN PHILIP HANCOCK McNATT

Reverend John Philip Hancock McNatt was born December 5, 1903, at Parkton, North Carolina. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dobbin McNatt.

After graduating from Parkton High School in 1922, he entered the University of North Carolina, where he recveived the Bachelor of Arts degree in 1928. In 1931, he graduated from Oberlin Graduate School of Theology and was given the Bachelor of Divinity degree. He was licensed by Fayetteville Presbytery, July 21, 1931, and ordained by Mecklenburg Presbytery, February 14, 1932.

His first pastorate was at Morven, North Carolina, where he served for twelve years, September 1931 to November 1943. His second pastorate was at the Brentwood Presbyterian Church of High Point, North Carolina. He served most faithfully from 1943 to the day of his death, which was February 3, 1960. When Mr. McNatt came to High Point, the membership of the church was very small. However, under his consecrated and aggressive leadership, the church began to grow and experienced a steady growth throughout his ministry. Under his leadership, a beautiful church and manse were built. In both of his pastorates, he was beloved by the people and did a most creditable work for the ongoing of the Kingdom.

He is survived by his wife, who faithfully upheld his hands in his work. Mrs. McNatt was the former Miss Sarah Kathrine Brown of Oberlin, Ohio. The four surviving children are Pvt. Ralph McNatt of Fort Jackson, South Carolina; Dobbin, a graduate student and assistant instructor at Michigan State University; Katharine and Edward of the home, who are attending High Point College.

The funeral was conducted at the Brentwood Presbyterian Church, February 6, 1960, by the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of High Point. Interment was at Fayetteville, North Carolina, with Reverend J. Rupert McGregor and Reverend Hubert L. Black conducting the service.

Reverend Philip McNatt was a minister by the grace of the Lord of broad sympathies and deep consecration. He was diligent in the performance of his duties and worked unremittingly for the glory of the Master. He preached the Gospel with uncompromising convictions and practiced what he preached in his daily living. Mr. McNatt was a faithful pastor and unwittingly endeared himself to those who came within the scope of his ministry. He was a good Presbyter, which was evidenced in his regular attendance at our church courts and the faithfulness with which he served on church committees. Truly, God used this Servant of His to cast a healing shadow and to advance the Kingdom by what he was, by what he said, and by what he did. In the passing of this minister, we are reminded of these farewell words which David once spoke to his dear friend Johnathan: "Thou shalt be missed, because thy place will be empty."

WILLIAM WADDELL ARROWOOD

(1883-1960)

William Waddell Arrowood, D.D., was born in Norwood, N. C., on June 12, 1883. He was the son of the Rev. William Butler Arrowood and Mrs. Mary Virginia Pharr Arrowood. He passed away in Florida on February 16, 1960, at the age of 76. In this long span of years there was a good and useful life.

Dr. Arrowood was the son of a Presbyterian minister. As a child of the Covenant he was early dedicated to the Lord, and came to manhood as a worthy son of devoted Christian parents, whose faith he imbibed from his earliest years.

He graduated from Davidson College with the A.B. degree in 1903, and from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia in 1908 with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. In 1908-09 he was Hoge Fellow in the same Seminary. At that time the Seminary had only one graduate fellowship, which was awarded each year to the student who, in the judgment of the Faculty, showed greatest promise of usefulness in the ministry. Their judgment was well confirmed in the long career as a minister which Dr. Arrowood carried out. In 1924 he was awarded the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Washington and Lee University. In 1926 he was Moderator of the Synod of Appalachia.

He was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Bethel in 1908, and was ordained to the ministry by the Presbytery of Abingdon in 1909.

During the interval between his graduation from Davidson College and his entrance into the Seminary, he was a teacher in Rowland, N. C., where he came to know Miss Florence McQueen, who became his wife in September, 1910. Their long life together was a happy one.

He was teacher in Grundy, Virginia, and evangelist of Abingdon Presbytery from 1909 to 1913. The writer of this sketch has a clear recollection that during this time Dr. Arrowood preached in the Davidson College Church, where this writer was a student, and that his sermon was clear, forceful and memorable; and stands in memory to this day above most of the many sermons that were preached in that historic church during those four college years.

From 1913 to 1937 he was Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Tazewell, Virginia, and also served the Burke's Garden and Cedar Bluff Churches during all or part of this long period.

From 1937 to 1945 he was Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pulaski, Virginia.

From 1945 to 1951 he was Professor of Bible in King College, Bristol, Tennessee.

From 1951 to his retirement in 1957 he was Pastor of the Rowland Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville Presbytery. After his retirement he continued to preach as opportunity offered.

Dr. Arrowood was a strong, clear, well-informed advocate of the historic theology of the Presbyterian Church. For him the Bible was the authoritative Word of God, the "only infallible rule of faith and practice." His leadership was recognized among the conservative leaders of our church.

This writer's outstanding impression of Dr. Arrowood was that of an able and successful evangelist. His trumpet sounded with no uncertain sound. With manly courage and forthrightness he called upon people wherever he went to receive and surrender to the "Lamb of God Who taketh away the sin of the world." People heard him gladly, and responded to his message, for he proclaimed to them the Saviour for Whom their hearts were longing. We think of him as one of those to whom our Lord gave His Great Commission: "Ye are the light of the world."

II. REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY, STATED CLERK, AND TREASURER—1960

REV. HAROLD J. DUDLEY

Reports of the Council, the Executive Committees of Church Extension, and Higher Education, including Financial Statements; the Reports of the Permanent Committees on Annuities and Relief, Assembly's General Fund Agencies, Bequests and Deferred Gifts, Christian Relations, Homes, Inter-Church Relations, the Minister and His Work, Nominations, Standing Rules; and the Centennial Committee and the Sesqui-Centennial Committee reflect in part the work of Synod's Office. In addition, the Reports and the financial statements on campaigns and other causes presented in the Blue Book fairly well summarize the total program of work of Synod.

Annual statistics have been prepared in the Office, and may be found by reference to the Index.

Budgeted Giving

Benevolence income to the several agencies of Synod for the past two years may be compared as follows:

	1958	1959	Increase Decrease
Campus Christian Life	$ 28,304	$ 38,444	$ 10,140
Christian Education	26,815	31,890	5,075
Church Extension	43,921	65,428	21,507
Educational Institutions	274,813	275,203	390
Orphans' Home	185,203	206,821	21,618
Presbyterian Home	32,496	37,743	5,247
Inter-Church Relations	2,463	2,549	86

Presbyteries accepted in 1958 82% of Synod's Askings for Synod's Causes in 1959, but paid only 71% of what Synod asked, though 87.9% of what they accepted. This was, according to audited reports of treasurers of Synod's causes, $674,105 in contrast to $633,889, an increase of $40,216.

It should be noted that this study relates to budgeted contributions to Synod's Causes. Non--budgeted gifts to Synod's causes in 1959 total $578,706. The information showing what causes received the non-budgeted gifts is not available, but it is assumed that it primarily constitutes capital funds gifts. It should be kept in mind that Christian Education, Church Extension, and Inter-Church Relations received no capital gifts income.

Audits

In their proper places may be found approved summaries of Audited financial statements of all accounts which are handled in Synod's Office. (See "Auditor's Report") and also the Report of Synod's Council.

All accounts have been audited by the firm of A. T. Allen & Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, N. C., and have been officially approved. Copies of the audits are available for perusal. Also there have been placed in your hands financial statements of other agencies of Synod, as well as proposed 1961 budgets for all the agencies and causes of Synod. These have been approved by the agencies and by the Stewardship Committee, and are recommended to Synod by the Council for adoption.

We believe that all of the assignments of the 1959 Synod have been fulfilled.

Campaigns

The Higher Education Campaign of 1956 was to have closed December 31, 1958; however, collections from January 1, 1959, through December 31, 1959 totalled $135,374.25, and from January 1, 1960 through April 30, 1960, $30,620. This indicates that there remain a number of open accounts. Part of these are pledges which were made on a delayed basis, while others are delinquent accounts. The following is a brief summary of this Campaign through April 30, 1960:

Total Pledges	$1,728,684.12
Total Receipts	1,379,117.79
Total Expenditures	170,605.00
To Consolidated College	1,049,574.13
To Campus Christian Life	157,938.66
To Peace College	1,000.00
Total Disbursements	1,379,117.79

Since January 1, 1960, 663 pledges in amounts up to $100, on which nothing had been paid, have been cancelled. The amount involved is approximately $22,304.79. There are several hundred additional pledges in larger amounts on which nothing has been paid, and in view of the fact that the Consolidated College Campaign will be inaugurated in 1961, it is likely that all such pledges will be cancelled by December 31. All active accounts will be continued indefinitely.

The Campus Christian Life Campaign of 1958 was projected on a thirty months basis, and is scheduled to close by October 31, 1960. This Campaign through April 30 stood as follows:

Pledges	$265,664.85
Receipts	147,480.48
Expenses	47,299.60

A summary of the two Campaigns in relation to Campus Christian Life follows:

Amount Pledged:
1956 Campaign	$204,169.00
1958 Campaign	265,664.85
	$469,833.85
Campaign Receipts:
1956	$157,938.66
1958	147,480.48
	$305,419.14
Balance Anticipated	164,414.71
TOTAL RECEIPTS:
From Pledges	$305,419.14
Interest	3,330.85
Challenge Fund Gifts	23,000.00

Loan: Stultz Fund	15,000.00
Loan: Synod's General Fund	15,000.00
	$361,749.99
Less Expenses through 4-30-60	47,299.60
Balance	$314,450.39
Disbursed to Institutions	314,213.50

Summary of Allocations

	Original Goals	Disbursed as of 4-3-60	Balance Due 100% Allocation	Balance Due 85% Allocation
UNC	$265,000.00	$200,000.00[1]	$ 65,000.00	$ 10,256.00
NCS	90,000.00	74,500.00	15,500.00	2,000.00
DUKE	85,000.00	5,400.00	79,600.00	66,850.00
ECC	30,000.00	14,313.50	15,686.50	11,187.50
WCUNC	30,000.00	15,000.00	15,000.00	10,500.00
	$500,000.00	$309,213.50	$190,786.50	$100,787.00

The Trustees borrowed $57,000 in 1959 to complete the $200,000 guaranteed by Synod for the Chapel Hill Capital gifts program. The note was liquidated in January of this year. Thus far it has not been necessary to borrow other funds at interest since there have been up to this time available funds in Synod's accounts which are being lent at no interest.

Decade

This is the tenth Synod that I have reported as Stated Clerk and General Secretary of Synod. During these years the Synod has grown from 114,840 members, including ministers, to 143,066, an increase of 38,226, or an average of 3,823. The total gifts have increased from $6,788,602 to $14,230,955. Benevolences have increased from $1,638,212 to $3,566,149. Per capita giving to total gifts has advanced from $59.11 to $99.47. Benevolence per capita increased from $14.27 to $24.93. The number of ministers has increased from 425 to 599 and the number of churches from 599 to 641. The Sunday School enrollment has increased from 95,258 to 131,677.

It has been a privilege to serve the great Synod of North Carolina, and I wish to thank the Synod for the wonderful support which has been given me. I should like also to express deep appreciation to the Committees, present and past members included, with whom it has been my privilege to work. And I should especially like to pay tribute to the Office Staff who have so faithfully and cheerfully assisted me, as together, we have endeavored to serve the Synod.

Our earnest prayer is that during the next decade God's blessings may be as abundant upon our Synod as during the past ten years.

HAROLD J. DUDLEY General Secretary

III. REPORT OF SYNOD'S COUNCIL

VOIT GILMORE, Chairman

Your Council has met twice during the past year, and Minutes of its proceedings, including meetings of sub-committees, have been preserved.

Program

The 1960 Program of Synod was prepared by the sub-committee on Program, and approved by the full Council. We were successful in securing as speaker in connection with our report, Dr. Marion A. Boggs, Moderator of the General Assembly. Synod has already approved of holding the Centennial meeting of the Presbyterian Church in the United States next year in the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, where Synod met in 1861. Plans for the meeting will be developed by the Centennial Committee, headed by Dr. Frontis W. Johnston, and Synod's Program Committee.

An invitation has been received by Synod to hold the Sesqui-Centennial meeting of Synod in the Alamance Church, Greensboro, where the Synod was organized, October 7, 1813. Following the instructions of Synod, the Sesqui-Centennial Committee was established on April 21, with 21 members. Dr. Joseph H. Carter was elected Chairman of the Committee. Sub-Committees have been named by the Chairman, and have been in the process of organizing. A separate report will be made to Synod by the Chairman of the Committee.

Blue Book

Following the instructions of Synod that the "Council study the possibility of earlier date of mailing for the Blue Book, and take such action as it deems wise", we wish to advise that strenuous efforts were made to mail the Blue Book by June 2, the earliest possible date this could be done if the Report of the Council was to be included. Special care was given to the mailing classification, in order to assure prompt delivery.

Special Stewardship Study

Last year Synod authorized that a special committee be appointed by the Moderator in consultation with the Chairman of Synod's Council for the purpose of devising "a better system of relating Assembly's and Synod's budgeted and anticipated receipts to actual appropriations to and expenditures by the said Agencies of our Church, with authority to employ outside professional help, if necessary".

We wish to report that the Committee was appointed, consisting of S. Preston Douglas, Lumberton, Certified Public Accountant, as Chairman, as designated by Synod; J. Neveland Brand, Wilmington; Archie McLean, Rocky Mount; and Reverend Charles Lynn Brown.

The Committee met on November 2, 1959, and discussed the basic philosophy of stewardship, ways and means of resolving the problem, and engaged Mr. John Williams of the firm of Williams, Urquhart, and Ficklen, Public Accountants, Raleigh, and a member of the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, as the person to guide the study. Mr. Williams assured the Committee that he would gladly donate his own time to the study, and that expenses involved would be confined to necessary personnel engaged to assist in research.

It was the opinion of the Committee and Mr. Williams that the study should not be made in haste. It was also thought that possibly the philosophy underlying the policy relating to reserve funds might need to be restated in new form.

Synod's Office and Program of Work

It is not necessary to set forth in detail again this year the extensive operations of the Synod through its official Office and Program. Suffice it to refer the Synod to pp. 17ff. in the 1959 Minutes of Synod. We would remind you, however, that the Synod ministers to its 143,000 members through a dozen different agencies, including the Council, Committees, and institutions, and that these Agencies employ more than 300 persons, with an over-all operating budget in excess of $3,000,000 per annum. Furthermore, the fixed assets of these agencies exceed $30,000,000.

Last year the Office handled 19 different accounts, totalling $1,304,584. One account alone involves 40 loans.

Synod's Office is not only official headquarters for Synod through the Stated Clerk, but the headquarters for Public Relations, Higher Education, including Educational Institutions and Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, and most of the Permanent and Special Committees.

The volume of work in the Office has steadily mounted, requiring a staff of from three to seven persons, including the Public Relations Department.

Permanent Office Headquarters Building

In accordance with the instructions of the Synods of 1958 and 1959, the Council, through its Building Committee, composed of Reverend Charles Lynn Brown, Voit Gilmore, and William F. Mulliss, has proceeded with plans to erect an office building for the Synod. As was previously reported, a gift was made of property in Cameron Village, Raleigh, North Carolina, by Mr. J. W. York and Associates. During the past year the property lines have been extended, thereby increasing the size of the lot.

The architectural firm of Leif Valand and Associates was employed, and the plans were approved by the Building Committee. The building is to contain approximately 5,100 square feet, and will cost approximately $73,000. Construction was begun on May 6, and Davidson and Jones of Raleigh were employed as contractors. A ceremony was held on the site by the Council on May 26. The building will be ready for occupancy by the early fall.

Again we express our gratitude to the Women-of-the-Synod of North Carolina for the gift of $10,250.40 on the Building Fund Other gifts and contributions as of May 25 totalled $10,800, making a total income of $21,050.40. There are outstanding pledges totalling in excess of $10,000. In addition, several Presbyterians have volunteered contributions of some of the materials to be used in the building.

Of particular interest to the Synod is the fact that the family of the late Dr. E. E. Gillespie, Superintendent of Home Missions of the Synod of North Carolina for thirty years, is establishing a memorial in the building, which will probably be the interior decorating and furnishing of the office of the General Secretary. This is an appropriate gesture to honor the memory of the man who so faithfully served this Synod as the great Home Mission Apostle of our Church.

We are continuing to solicit contributions and memorial donations for the building, and a full report will be made of these at a later date. We recommend to churches and individuals within the Synod the appropriateness of such gifts and donations.

Public Relations

The Council has established an aggressive and capable sub-committee on Publicity, headed by Mr. S. Preston Douglas of Lumberton. The Committee is serving in an advisory capacity to the Synod's Staff in charge of Public Relations. The Council, at its February meeting, endorsed the following recommendation of the Committee:

> "That a study of Presbyterian Publicity activities in the Synod be made with the assistance of a professionally qualified Committee, with the objective of possible action by Synod to improve the total program of Publicity."

In order to make it possible to publish Synod's paper every month and stay within the Public Relations Budget of $20,000, the Committee has approved of ten issues of 12 pages of the paper, and 2 issues of 8 pages. The paper is being mailed into approximately 58,000 homes.

During the year Ernestine Godfrey, of Selma, and a graduate of Atlantic Christian College, was employed by the Committee, as assistant to the General Secretary in the program of publicity. Mrs. Godfrey is serving as assistant editor of the Presbyterian News, and has rendered effective service in the statistical department and newspaper reporting.

The Executive Committee of Church Extension has twice overtured the Council by way of encouraging it to continue its forward-looking program in the field of Public Relations. We observe that this Committee is itself moving forward in the program of mass media, and is recommending that Synod establish a department of Radio-TV, located in Raleigh, under the supervision of the Office of Synod. It is our judgment, after consultation with Dr. Ernest J. Arnold, Secretary of TRAV, that it would be wise for the immediate future to combine the whole field of Public Relations, including Radio, TV, and the press, in the same program and office; therefore, we concur with the Executive Committee of Church Extension in this program, and endorse the recommendation of that Committee to Synod, bearing on this matter.

Financial

We bring a brighter picture to Synod regarding finances than a year ago. Financial Statements and Comparative Studies (Stewardship Tables) reveal that as a whole the Agencies of Synod enjoyed a good year. We note that Church Extension and Campus Christian Life, which reported adversely in 1959, both ended 1959 in the black. Increases were reported for all agencies of Synod, ranging from 3.21% for Educational Institutions to 49.75% for Church Extension. Christian Education ended the year with a balance of $300 only by virtue of a loan from the Revolving Salary Fund in the amount of $7,000, which the Council is recommending Synod to cancel. The Presbyterian Orphans' Home, including gifts sent direct, received $11,529 more than the year before, and the Presbyterian Home at High Point $3,537 more. Inter-Church Relations received $421 short of the full amount promised to the North Carolina Council of Churches.

In view of the fact that the Agencies of Synod ended 1959 in relatively good financial shape, the Council remitted full amounts which had been contributed to the Equalization Fund.

Percentage-wise the Agencies of Synod ranked in the following order as regards income in relation to Synod's Askings and also Presbyteries' Acceptances:

	Askings—%	Acceptances—%
Orphans' Home	94.00	118.43
Inter-Church Relations	89.48	112.09
Presbyterian Home	83.94	105.58
Christian Education	76.30	94.75
Church Extension	63.06	75.14
Educational Institutions	63.77	78.43
Campus Christian Life	59.64	59.72
	72.33	88.72

The Revolving Salary Fund served a worthy purpose, and we anticipate that its successor, the Contingent Salary Fund, likewise will prove invaluable in helping Committees of Synod to remain solvent.

Synod and Assembly Compared

The Synod of North Carolina again led the General Assembly (16 Synods) in total gifts, in total to benevolences, and total to Current Expenses. The total gifts were $14,230,955, the largest on record by any Synod, and $1,419,407 more than the year before.

The Synod asked the Presbyteries to give a total of $2,442,662 to Assembly and Synod causes combined during 1959. Total gifts reported were $2,430,640 (in contrast to $2,263,615 the previous year), or 99.51% (94.32% the year before). This may be compared as follows:

	APPORTIONMENT		GAVE
	1959	1958	1959		1958
Assembly	$1,493,822	$1,486,184	$1,209,995	(81.00%)	$1,155,916	(77.777%)
Synod	948,840	913,839	1,220,645	(128.65%)[1]	1,107,699	(121.21%)
	$2,442,662	$2,400,023	$2,430,640	(99.51%)	$2,263,615	(94.32%)

Assembly Causes received 3% more of the askings than the year before, or an increase of $54,079. Synod's causes received 7% more of the askings than the year before, or an increase of $112,946. The two causes together received $167,025 more than in 1958.

North Carolina stood 8th in 1959 among the Synods in the percentage of gifts made to Assembly's Causes in relation to apportionments. This was the same standing as for 1958.

Only one Presbytery, Granville, accepted 100% of Askings for both Assembly and Synod causes for 1960. Kings Mountain accepted in full Assembly's Askings for 1960, but not Synod's. Three Presbyteries accepted in full in 1958. Fayetteville, Mecklenburg, and Orange gave more than 100% to Assembly's and Synod's causes combined in 1959. The Presbyteries ranked as follows:

---

[1] Based on reports of churches as given in the 1960 General Assembly Minutes. The percentage of budgeted receipts receivd by Synod's Treasurer and directly by agencies was 70.777% of Synod's Askings for Synod's Causes.

1. Orange	120.61%
2. Mecklenburg	104.22%
3. Fayetteville	103.26%
4. Concord	93.92%
5. Kings Mountain	93.90%
6. Winston-Salem	93.17%
7. Granville	84.83%
8. Albemarle	82.77%
9. Wilmington	69.38%
SYNOD	96.20%

Other stewardship statistics show total gifts of $14,230,955 in 1959; Benevolences—$3,566,149 (budgeted—$2,352,555; non-budgeted—$1,213,594); Current Expenses—$7,123,664; Building Expenses—$3,541,142; Combined—$10,664,806. These figures compare with the previous year as follows:

	1959	1958	Increase
Benevolences	$ 3,566,149	$ 3,238,987	$ 327,162
Budgeted	2,352,555	2,207,083	145,472
Non Budgeted	1,213,594	1,031,904	181,690
Current Expenses	7,123,664	6,485,758	637,906
Building Expenses	3,541,142	3,086,803	454,339
Combined	10,664,806	9,572,561	1,092,245
TOTAL GIFTS	14,230,955	12,811,548	1,419,407

Total per capita giving was the best in the history of the Synod, and benevolence per capita giving increased from $22.94 to $24.93, an increase of $1.99. Following is a summary and comparison with 1958:

	1959	1958	Increase
Benevolences	$24.93	$22.94	$1.99
Current Expenses	49.79	45.95	3.84
Building Expenses	24.75	21.87	2.88
Combined (Current & Building)	74.54	67.83	6.71
Total	99.47	90.77	8.70

The Synod of North Carolina ranked 8th among the 16 Synods in total per capita giving in the General Assembly in 1959 (11th in 1958). Texas was first at $111.25. In Benevolence per capita, North Carolina ranked 4th (6th in 1958). Appalachia was first at $35.35.

It is conservatively estimated that the members of the Synod of North Carolina withheld a minimum of $11,520,925 or 44.73% of their tithe in relationship to income in 1959. The income of Presbyterians in 1959 is conservatively estimated at $257,518,800.

Asking and Spending Budgets

Your Council wishes to share with Synod its experience during the past ten years in the matter of preparing the annual benevolence budget to present to Synod. For approximately seven years the Council strictly adhered to a policy of presenting to Synod rigid budgets, based exactly upon minimum needs of the Committees and at least some of the institutions of Synod. The record bears out that in spite of this realistic program, Presbyteries and churches on an average across the Synod reduced the Askings by their acceptances and gifts by approximately 30% per annum. This trend resulted in serious consequences for some of the agencies of Synod, reflected by deficits in their financial accounts. Three years ago the Council undertook to present for part of the agencies of Synod an Asking Budget which was projected on a ratio that was estimated to produce sufficient to meet the minimum needs of the Agencies of Synod. Though the Presbyteries and churches still consistently reduced the Askings for the Synod's causes, nevertheless, those agencies whose Asking Budgets were presented, received sufficient income to operate in the black.

Sometimes this method of stewardship has been called "padding the budget." Your Council wishes to suggest that if the reference is intended to imply dishonesty, then it is the Synod itself which is dishonest, for the Agencies of the Synod are the Synod itself projected through its duly elected representatives. Furthermore, the question is pertinent: Are not courts of the church which morally obligate themselves to support its agencies equally dishonest in violating those promises? After all, no one benefits from contributions beyond investments in the Synod's program of work. Also, it should be borne in mind that until the Synod actually gives 100% to an Asking Budget, it cannot be determined that the budget of any agency is inflated excessively. Actually, it has been shown repeatedly that if the Synod did give the full amount of the Asking Budget, the full income could be used effectively in enlarging the program of work in meeting ever-wating opportunities.

We beg the Synod to bear with its agencies and the Council as they endeavor to lengthen the cords and strengthen the stakes.

Attached to this Report are the following documents: (1) Summary of 1961 Proposed Benevolence Budget for Assembly and Synod Causes, together with proposed distribution of same (Apportionments to Presbyteries); (2) Audit of all accounts handled in Synod's Office for 1959 (listed under the Audit); (3) 1961 Budget for Synod's Office and Program of Work; and (4) Statistical Data.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod accept the apportionment of the General Assembly for 1961, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,509,958, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 97.

2. That Synod accept the following budget for Synod's Causes for 1961, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,111,751, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 97.

3. That the total Benevolence Budget of Synod for Assembly and Synod Causes for 1961, amounting to $2,621,709, be apportioned to the several Presbyteries on the basis of the following formula: ⅓ for membership; ⅓ for benevolence contributions to Assembly's and Synod's Agencies for the last three years; and ⅓ for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years, as indicated in the Table on page 97.)

4. That the proposed Budget for Synod's Office and Program of Work for 1961 in the amount of $55,085 be approved. See page 100).

5. That the per capita assessment of 37.9895¢ for 1961 for support of Synod's Office and Program of Work be approved.

6. That the C.P.A. audited Financial Statements of institutions and Agencies of Synod which have been examined and approved by the Committee on Finance and Audits, and endorsed by the Council, be approved by Synod, and the Committee be empowered to complete the examination of the remainder of the audits for record as soon as they are available.

7. That the loan of $7,000 from the Revolving Salary Fund to the Executive Committee of Christian Education be cancelled in order to erase the deficit in the account of the Christian Education Committee, incurred in 1959.

8. That the Trustees of Synod be authorized to borrow up to $65,850 for erecting a Student Center at Duke University.

9. That Synod express appreciation to Presbyteries and churches for the improvement in contributions to the support of its Agencies and institutions, and prayerfully requests them to continue their concern for these arms of the Church.

10. That churches and individuals of the Synod be encouraged to give to the Synod's Office Building Fund, and that consideration be given to establishing appropriate memorials in the Building.

11. That churches and Presbyteries be urged to vigorously stress stewardship programs in order to improve the stewardship habits of Presbyterians and thereby to raise the standing of the Synod of North Carolina among the Synods in its giving to benevolence causes.

12. That Synod express appreciation to Mr. John A. Williams, Jr. of Raleigh for his generous offer to contribute his services to make the study of the Synod's Stewardship program.

13. That Synod express its gratitude to the Trustees of the L. Richardson Trust Fund for generous gifts to the Synod's agencies.

14. That a Department of Public Relations be established in Raleigh under the supervision of the Council through Synod's Office, combining the whole mass media program; and that Dr. Ernest J. Arnold be heard in connection with this recommendation.

15. That the separate Report by the sub-committee on Records be adopted.

16. That the 148th Sessions of the Synod be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, June 13-14, 1961.

17. That Synod accept the invitation from the Session of the Alamance Church, Greensboro, to hold the Sesqui-Centennial meeting in 1963 in that Church.

18. That the Rev. Harold J. Dudley be reelected for a term of three years as General Secretary of Synod.

19. That the following be elected as members of the Committee on Nominations, Class of 1963: Orange—Dr. Chester Alexander; Wilmington—Charles Brindell; Winston-Salem—Rev. W. R. Smith, Jr.

20. That Synod express its appreciation to Mr. J. W. York and Associates for increasing the size of the lot in Cameron Village, Raleigh, given to Synod.

21. That the Council concurs with and endorses the Recommendation of the Executive Committee of Church Extension that the Standing Rules of Synod be amended to provide for Presbytery representatives on Committees and the Council serving terms which coincide with the annual meetings of Synod.

22. That the amendments to the Manual of Synod's Council, relating to membership (26 instead of 27), and the number of sub-committees (three or more members), be approved.

23. That the calendar of special days and seasons recommended by the General Assembly for observance by the Church, be adopted, and likewise that the customary emphasis for the Orphans' Home (Thanksgiving) and the Presbyterian Home (Mother's Day), with special offerings, be approved.

24. That the appropriate recommendations from the Report of the General Council to the 1960 General Assembly, be approved, specifically, Nos. 1-6, 12-17. 19, 23-24.

25. That pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. Marion A. Boggs, Moderator of the General Assembly, who will speak on the subject, "Issues Before the Church in the Centennial Year."

A. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. REPORT OF AUDITOR

Committee on Finance and Auditing
Synod of North Carolina
Presbyterian Church In The United States
Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

As instructed by Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary and Treasurer of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, we have audited the books and records maintained by him as treasurer of the following funds:

Church Extension Fund
Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Funds
Synod's Designated Funds
Educational Institutions Fund
Synod's Office Account
Inter-Church Relations Account
Permanent Reserve Fund
Campus Christian Life Account
Revolving Salary Fund
Equalization Fund
Synod's Office General Fund
Presbyterian Office Building Fund
Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund
Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

We tested the recorded transactions to the extent of tracing the receipts to the depositories and verifying the amounts recorded by appropriate transmittal papers and correspondence, and verifying the contributions from the presbyteries by direct confirmation. Church loans were also verified directly. Expenditures were supported by endorsed cancelled checks and invoices or signed receipts. These were found to be authorized in the minutes of committees and Synod's Council. Bank balances, which were confirmed by correspondence, were reconciled with balances shown on the books. We also ascertained from our analyses that disbursements were properly allocated.

Our examination included such tests of the accounting records and other auditing procedures we considered necessary in the circumstances, the books having been maintained on a cash basis. We did not verify the records of the Christian Higher Education Campaign Account and the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund beyond the recorded receipts and disbursements.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying statements show the cash balances at December 31, 1959, and the receipts and disbursements for the twelve months then ended correctly classified, according to information and explanations given us and as shown by the books.

EXHIBITS AND SCHEDULES

In presenting to you our findings, as the result of the audit, we have prepared twenty-one Exhibits and two Schedules, as enumerated in the Index, which are attached as a part of this report, in addition to the following comments:

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS—CONSOLIDATED

January 1, 1959, to December 31, 1959

Exhibit "A"

A consolidation of receipts and disbursements for all funds is shown in this Exhibit. Inter-fund transfers, in most cases, have been eliminated where practical. Details for various funds are presented as enumerated in the Index. Receipts totaled $1,033,438.68, of which $642,045.04 was contributed by the presbyteries for support of Synod's causes. Disbursements totaled $1,053,667.18. The receipts plus cash in banks and savings associations at January 1, 1959, in the amount of $129,087.98, less the disbursements, leave a balance at December 31, 1959, of $108,859.48 available from all sources as shown in Schedule—1.

Synod's causes funds were handled through Synod's Office General Fund except for the loan funds, campaign and savings accounts. The fund balances are shown on Schedule—1.

Dividends accruing on capital stock were received and accounted for according to prescribed rates. All securities were examined during the audit. These securities are part of the Permanent Reserve Fund and the income derived from them was apportioned directly to the Church Extension Fund and used for grants-in-aid.

All transactions of the Church Extension Committee Loan Funds were examined. At December 31, 1959, the total of the unpaid balance of all loans and accrued interest to that date was $130,901.99. The cash on deposit was $15,334.74. The total unpaid balance of the loans and cash was $146,236.73. At December 31, 1958, the funds' assets totaled $141,732.53. We examined all notes and deeds of trust and found them on hand and apparently properly executed. Details of the loans are shown on Schedule—2 and the funds' transactions are shown on Exhibit "C".

The Permanent Reserve Fund and Educational Institutions Fund have loans to churches not included above. The details of the Permanent Reserve Fund loans are shown on Exhibit "K" where they total $28,024.76, Cash in Savings, $27,024.84, a total of $55,049.60, not including securities valued at $2,405.00.

Proceeds from a gift received from Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Stultz in 1955 have been loaned to churches from the Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account. The fund had a loan of $15,000.00 due from the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund at December 31, 1959. The total fund assets were $26,201.79, and are detailed on Exhibit "G".

The total of all unpaid loans by funds was as follows:

Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Fund—Schedule—2	$130,901.99
Permanent Reserve Fund—Exhibit "K"	28,024.76
Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account—Exhibit "G"	9,717.74
TOTAL	$168,644.49

Support of the Synod's Educational Institutions and other Higher Education agencies was based on a net of $274,282.18 for distribution. The amounts and percentages are shown on Exhibit "F". These distributions include designated gifts from presbyteries and churches. A contingency fund—a part of Educational Institutions Fund—was established in 1957 for the purpose of assisting the three institutions involved in the consolidation of the colleges. Its share of the funds available in 1959 was $20,763.17. At December 31, 1958, there was a balance of $4,700.16. During 1959 $15,000.00 was appropriated, leaving a balance of $10,463.33. A Permanent Advisory Committee on Higher Education was established by the Synod of 1955. The Committee's share of funds available in 1958 was $2,873.78. This was not disbursed in 1958; however, committee expenses amounted to $132.20 in 1959, leaving a balance of $2,741.58 undistributed at the end of 1959. The Educational Institutions Fund balance of $13,204.91 at December 31, 1959, represents amounts held for the two causes named above.

Beginning January 1, 1959, The Synod's Office, the Synod's Account, and the "Presbyterian News" were merged under one budget of Synod's program, and was supported from a Presbytery per capita assessment. The per capita assessment was thirty-four cents each communicant. The consolidation of the three accounts into one and their support by per capita assessment increased the efficiency in bookkeeping and other operations. The details of the receipts and disbursements of the combined funds are shown in Synod's Office Account—Exhibit "H".

Synod's Designated Funds represents an amount contributed by members of the Belk family to pay for the cost of publishing Dr. O. V. Caudill's Church and Manse Planning Book. Dr. Caudill refunded the amount advanced to him plus interest after becoming ill and could not complete the writing. The cash balance, in a savings account, at the end of the year was $4,564.00. Interest accumulated on the savings account was transferred to the Church Extension Account to be used for grants-in-aid to churches. Mr. Thomas M. Belk had directed this in years past.

Synod's support of the North Carolina Council of Churches was disbursed from presbytery benevolence receipts. These funds were received and disbursed by the Inter-Church Relations Account—Exhibit "I". The budgeted amount for support to the Council was $4,000.00; however, only $2,548.68 was available and paid. The account owed the Revolving Salary Fund $1,036.65 at December 31, 1959, for the 1958 deficit.

The Campus Christian Life Account operated at a deficit during the years 1957 and 1958. At December 31, 1958, the deficit had accumulated to $13,567.24. This was made up by loans from the Revolving Salary Fund. Synod's Council canceled this debt in 1959. The account realized an excess of receipts over disbursements during 1959 in the amount of $2,966.44. The details are shown on Exhibit "L".

The Revolving Salary Fund was established in 1957 to maintain a balance of not less than twenty percent of salaries, rent and traveling expenses in the current budgets of the designated agencies of Synod. This fund was not included in Synod's budgets for 1959. Two presbyteries forwarded some 1958 funds to the fund in 1959. A loan was made to Christian Education in the amount of $7,000.00, as shown on Exhibit "M". The fund had a cash balance of $6,044.04 at the end of the year. There was due a total of $8,036.65 from Christian Education for the loan of $7,000.00 and a loan of $1,036.65 made to the Inter-Church Relations Account in 1958.

The Equalization Fund which was established in 1957 received five percent (5%) of the presbyteries' designated gifts for 1959. This totaled $29,705.00. No distributions were necessary to meet the budget-askings of the agencies of Synod; therefore, all funds received were refunded.

Synod's Office General Fund received and disbursed designated receipts for Christian Education, Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Presbyterian Home, Inc., and Catechism awards. The details of these are shown on Exhibits "O", "P", "Q", and "R", respectively.

A fund was established during the year 1958 to receive contributions for a proposed Presbyterian office building. The details of receipts and disbursements for the year are shown in Exhibit "S". Gifts to December 31, 1959, totaled $19,105.02. Land for the building valued at $40,000.00 was donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. York, except that the Synod must pay $3,500.00 for improvements and incidental costs. A part payment of $1,400.00 was paid to the donor in 1958. The balance in the fund at the end of the year was $15,990.99.

The Synod received in 1958 and 1959 $4,406.03 which represented residue from the estate of the late Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton, widow of the late C. P. Wharton. This was deposited with First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Raleigh, North Carolina. The estate also included a deed for properties in Raleigh, North Carolina, which were valued at $16,500.00. These were bequests to the Home Mission Committee of the Executive Committee of Church Extension. The income from the properties is to be a perpetual fund to be applied to the salary and support of Home Mission and Evangelistic Work in the Synod of North Carolina. Net rents and interest on the savings account amounted to $1,152.47 and was received by the Church Extension Fund.

The Christian Higher Education Campaign was begun in 1956 and the records have been maintained in Synod's Office. On Exhibit "T" the current year receipts and disbursements are shown and the totals to December 31, 1959. Our audit of receipts was made from summaries of subscriptions and payments. The individual pledge cards have not been added completely and compared with the general book totals. The subscriptions through December 31, 1959, totaled $1,737,508.67, per the book summaries. Of this amount $1,269,470.15 had been paid in cash and $80,278.44 in securities—a total of $1,349,748.59. Thus the unpaid subscriptions were $387,760.08.

Synod allowed the Campus Christian Life Committee to conduct a campaign in 1958 to raise $300,000.00 which was the amount unpledged in the Christian Higher Education Campaign and needed to implement the program of work initiated by the Committee. The campaign was supervised by the firm of Ward, Dreshman and Reinhardt, New York, New York. Campaign receipts have totaled $133,113.65. Campus Christian Life's share of the Christian Higher Education Campaign gifts was $153,856.71 to December 31, 1959. Interest earned on savings has totaled $3,330.85. The Board of Christian Education contributed $23,000.00 from its challenge fund. The disbursements include 1958 campaign expenses of $40,450.89. Capital expenditures in college areas totaled $289,213.50. The Fund's balance of Cash on Deposit and on hand at December 31, 1959, was $3,215.43. Details of the year's transactions are shown on Exhibit "U". The fund owed the Educational Institutions Savings Account $15,000.00 and Wachovia Bank and Trust Company $9,500.00.

The statements of Receipts and Disbursements contained in this report are based on the amounts as shown in the books and records of the Synod's Office. The books were not closed until all funds for the year were received from the presbyteries in order that all receipts for the year January 1, 1959, to December 31, 1959, could be included. Likewise, some expenses for the year were paid after December 31, 1959, and the cash balances shown herein are after including these in the disbursements.

GENERAL COMMENTS

We have prepared this report to show only the cash receipts and disbursements of the funds handled in the office of the Synod of North Carolina. However, for your information we list below the assets in the funds at December 31, 1959, and December 31, 1958:

We found a depositor's forgery bond in force for $10,000.00; fire insurance on contents of the office $10,000.00; blanket position bond for $25,000.00, and open stock safe burglary.

We found the books and records in balance and accurately kept.

We wish to express our appreciation for the courtesies extended us and the assistance and cooperation rendered by the entire personnel, which greatly facilitated our work.

We examined the minutes of the Secretary and found the approved procedures currently adhered to.

Very truly yours,

IV. REPORTS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rev. James E. Fogartie, Chairman

In submitting this annual report, your Executive Committee of Christian Education is keenly aware that such a review hardly relates in full the plans and undertakings of the year's work. We are conscious of the magnitude of the responsibility laid upon us by Synod, and we are grateful to God for His ceaseless blessings. Your Committee desires that Synod be aware of its appreciation for the splendid support given to this phase of the Kingdom's endeavor. It is our hope that this summary account will serve to acquaint Synod with the Committee's functions, plans, and accomplishments.

To facilitate the carrying out of our responsibilities, your Committee has met several times during the past year as a whole; and has worked through sub-committees and councils charged with particular areas of work.

Regional Director

Under the able leadership of the Reverend Robert Turner, the total program of Christian Education is ever being enhanced. Mr. Turner's knowledge of this work and his dedication to the task commend him to the Synod. Confronted with ever-increasing responsibilities, Mr. Turner has sought to make good stewardship of his time and talents and has served capably wherever he has been called. We ask for our Regional Director continued encouragement and support.

Children's Work

Recognizing that the growth of the Church is predicated in large measure upon the foundations which are laid in the area of Children's Work, the Sub-Committee on Children's Work has endeavored to make available to the Synod a program calculated to render every possible aid to those engaged in this field.

Vacation Church School Institutes have again been held in every Presbytery through the efforts of the Area Directors of Christian Education. Workshops for directors of Vacation Church Schools held prior to these Institutes have been of inestimable value. During 1959, 533 Vacation Church Schools were held in the Synod with an enrollment of 33,544 pupils and 7,527 adult workers. The increase in the number of Vacation Church Schools conducted during 1959 is significant.

Attention is called to the several Training Centers with teacher consultants located within the bounds of our Synod. Churches are invited to make use of these Centers as means of better preparing their own leadership. The locations of the Training Centers are as follows:

Consultant	Training Center
Mrs. Quinton Holton 116 Woodlyn Drive Charlotte, North Carolina	3-Year-Old Nursery Department Paw Creek Church Paw Creek, North Carolina
Mrs. W. F. Masten, Jr. 1043 East Morehead Street Charlotte, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department First Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina
Mrs. Ben Campen, Jr. Red Springs, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department Red Springs Presbyterian Church Red Springs, North Carolina
Mrs. William L. Shoffner 708 West Willowbrook Drive Burlington, North Carolina	2nd-Grade Primary Department First Presbyterian Church Burlington, North Carolina
Mrs. H. J. Oosting 2642 University Drive Durham, North Carolina	Primary, 1st and 2nd Grades First Presbyterian Church Durham, North Carolina
Mrs. Norman E. Warren 507 Mount Vernon Drive Wilson, North Carolina	5th Grade Junior Department First Presbyterian Church Wilson, North Carolina

Mrs. Lorne D. Grant 2307 Princess Anne Street Greensboro, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department First Presbyterian Church Greensboro, North Carolina
Mrs. Ted Eurey 807 South Poplar Street Lincolnton, North Carolina	Kindergarten Department First Presbyterian Church Lincolnton, North Carolina

The development of Junior Camping throughout our Synod has necessitated the conducting of Training Camps for Junior Camp Leaders; and the attention of leaders in this field is called to this program.

The attention of the Synod is called to an Area Laboratory School to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Wilson, North Carolina July 10-15. Classes for leaders in nursery, kindergarten, primary, and junior departments will be available and the several Churches of the Synod are urged to send representatives to this school.

The cooperation of the Synod is encouraged in reporting promptly to Synod's Office activities taking place in the area of children's work. Such reports at times may seem tedious, yet they enable your Synod's Committee to do more thorough planning in this field.

Youth Work

That Young Peoples' rallies, camps, and conferences have a vital place in the life of the Church is obvious to any thoughtful churchman. Every Presbytery through its own Committee of Christian Education is seeking to provide thorough training for our young people. These media of training are effective, however, only as local Churches encourage the participation of their own young people.

Again this year, a Synod's Youth Conference has been planned for Davidson College, June 27-July 2. Reports from the 1959 conference at Davidson gives your Committee reason to believe that such a venture is meeting a real need. Information relative to this conference may be obtained from the office of the Regional Director, or from any of the Area Directors of Christian Education.

A Training Retreat for Pioneer Leaders and Senior High Presbytery Advisors and Conference Directors was conducted during the year and plans are being made for a similar retreat during the ensuing year.

The Seventh Quadrennial Youth Convention will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Dallas, Texas, December 27-31, 1960. Every effort should be made to fill our Synod's quota of 125, and information will be forthcoming relative to details for this Convention.

Men's Work

The work of the men in our Synod may be seen through the effectiveness of the planning and program of the Men's Councils. In Both Synod and Presbyteries, there are well-organized councils concerning themselves with the activity of men in the local Church. Splendid rallies have been conducted throughout the Synod.

A valuable service is being rendered through the Men of the Synod by their sponsorship of the Christian Youth Conference for Negro Young People. This Conference will take place this year at State Teachers' College in Fayetteville June 27-July 2.

The annual Synod Men's Conference at Montreat is always a significant event. A splendid conference was conducted in 1959, and the 1960 conference was concluded just prior to this meeting of Synod.

Adult Work

In recent years, Christian Education has recognized the need for an adequate program of work for adults. Working through the sub-committees in this field, your Synod's Committee has sought to formulate definite policies and programs for adults. The Reaching-Teaching materials being promoted by the Men of the Church are an effort in this direction. Local Churches are encouraged to form Adult Education Councils as a means whereby greater emphasis can be laid upon adequate and relevant adult education.

Leadership Education and Area Work

The increasing number of leadership schools gives evidence of a consciousness of the need for trained leaders. That the Churches of the Synod are aware of this pressing need is seen in the many requests that come to Synod's Office of Christian Education. The following statistical report indicates the work that has been done during the past year:

Through the Synod's Office, a list of persons who have taught in Leadership Schools in recent years and the courses they have taught may be obtained by interested Churches.

Your Committee desires to express publicly appreciation for the outstanding work of our Area Directors. They are: Miss Eloise Wells, Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries; Miss Dorothy Ray, Kings Mountain Presbytery; Miss Helen Jackson, Granville Presbytery; Miss Mary Catherine McCormick, Fayetteville Presbytery; and Miss Sue Ruddock, Mecklenburg Presbytery.

We are delighted that Miss Helen Cole has returned from a leave of absence to resume her work in Orange Presbytery. The appreciation of your Committee is expressed to Mrs. W. L. Shoffner for her capable services to Orange Presbytery during Miss Cole's absence.

In February of this year, a one-day meeting was held in Asheboro for Presbytery Committee Chairmen, and Sub-Committee Chairmen of Children's Work and Leadership Education. This venture proved to be of such aid that plans are being made for a similar meeting during the ensuing year. In addition to the group already mentioned, the next meeting would include all Presbytery Committee members.

Finance

The attention of the Synod is called to the annual audit of the Financial Statement attached to this report. Your Committee recognizes its stewardship of substance, and seeks to expend the funds entrusted to it in a careful manner. A copy of this audit was placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod.

Your Committee urges the several Churches of the Synod to make every effort to meet their benevolent responsibilities for the year. Failure to do so will hinder the work of Christain Education, not only in the Synod, but in every Church.

Recommendations

1. That the Seventh Quadrennial Youth Convention to be held in Dallas, Texas December 27-31, 1960, be called to the attention of Synod, and that Churches be encouraged to assist their youth in attendance.

2. That all Churches of the Synod be reminded of the urgent need of relating the Christian Faith to life, and that Christian Action be given special emphasis during the month of January.

3. That Area Directors, Advisors on Men's Work, and all who plan Conferences under the direction of the Christian Education Committee seek to incorporate in these conferences a study or discussion of the deliverance of the several Church Courts in the field of Christian Relations.

4. That attention be called to the Assembly-wide Conference on Christian Action to be held in the summer of 1961.

5. That Synod approve an Institute on Christian Action at the Synod level to be set up by the Christian Education Committee for 1961-62.

6. That the attention of Synod be directed toward the recognition of an increasing need for greater emphasis on the Presbytery and local Churches' program for adults.

7. That attention be called to the necessity of Adult Education Councils, especially on the local Church level.

8. That local Education Councils assume the responsibility for putting into effect the Reaching-Teaching materials being promoted by the Men of the Church.

9. That the Adult Education Council should coordinate the Reaching-Teaching program with the 1961 Mission-to-the-Nation Emphasis.

10. That, pending the adoption of this report, the Reverend Robert Turner, Regional Director for the Synod of North Carolina, be presented to the Synod and heard briefly.

11. That, pending the adoption of this report, the Reverend James T. Womack, Jr., Minister, First Presbyterian Church, Lincolnton, be heard to address the Synod on the White House Conference on Children's Work; and that the Rev. Wm. P. Anderson, Jr., be heard on "Covenant—Life Curriculum."

B. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION TO THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

RALPH SCOTT, Chairman

The Committee convened at Wrightsville Beach May 17-18, 1960. Sub-committees held separate meetings, some of them several times. In keeping with the charter of incorporation, the Committee also convened as a corporation on May 18, 1960.

The most encouraging single message we can present Synod is information that 1959 support by Presbyteries permitted your Committee to provide the largest total grants-in-aid since 1951, and still to close the year without a deficit.

Presbytery Programs: The Chairman of our Sub-committee on Home Missions has compiled a record of activities in the several Presbyteries which indicates that the Synod is through Presbytery Church Extension, launching a large and effective program of advance, in anticipation of the population explosion of the 1960's. Encompassed in these several programs is new Negro work, specifically in Albemarle and Kings Mountain Presbyteries. All the Presbyteries are undertaking new work in the suburbs of the growing towns and cities. This is particularly the case in Granville, Mecklenburg, Orange, and Winston-Salem Presbyteries. Raleigh is undertaking to raise $120,000 as the first step towards providing a new church in the direction of the Research Triangle, and Durham is reported to be moving similarly. Mecklenburg and Winston-Salem Presbyteries continue with effectiveness their Negro work programs, and both are taking statesmanlike steps in Charlotte and Winston-Salem to meet the rapidly developing suburban opportunities. The Greater Greensboro Council continues to locate new chapels in new communities, and Winston-Salem, by virtue of the successful campaign to obtain $600,000 in capital gifts, has organized several new churches, not only in the City of Winston-Salem, but at Kernersville and Clemmons.

Personnel: We regret to inform Synod that our Committee is losing five valuable members: two because they are leaving the Synod, two by virtue of relinquishing the Chairmanship of Presbytery committees, and one whose term of office expires at this meeting of Synod. These are respectively Dr. A. Clarke Dean and Dr. B. Frank Hall; Rev. E. P. Moye and Rev. R. E. Hildebrandt; and Mr. Tom M. Belk. Because of the seriousness of the contingency of losing valuable committee members each January prior to the meeting of Synod, members who are Presbytery representatives, we are bringing a recommendation to Synod to amend the Standing Rules to permit Presbytery representatives on Synod's Committees to hold office until the annual meeting of Synod.

Wharton Bequest: The Wharton Bequest consists of three houses on Tilden Street in Raleigh, valued at a total of $26,612, and $4,400 on savings. We received $986.00 from rent in 1959 and $167 interest, a total of $1,153, all of which was transferred, in terms of the will, "to the salary and support of a minister to do Home Mission and Evangelistic work in the Synod . . ."

Office Building: This Committee has taken a deep interest in the plans to erect a new Synod's Office Building in Cameron Village, Raleigh, though we recognize that the primary responsibility in accomplishing the goal is the work of Synod's Council. Your Committee has provided for a loan, at no interest, towards the construction of the building.

Public Relations: In our 1959 Report to Synod, we expressed it as our conviction that the Synod is spending a modest amount of money on public relations, and that we had requested the Council "to continue its study of the public relations program of the Synod, in an endeavor to more effectively interpret the whole program of work of our great Synod". In reiterating this, we report that we are heartened by the fact that the Council has studied this contingency, and is recommending implementation of the Synod's public relations program. We endorse with enthusiasm the program which the Council envisions.

Church Extension implies Public Relations; hence, it is fitting that this Committee should have a part in the program of Synod which promotes publicity through the Synod's paper and the media of the free press; therefore, we again urge Synod to approve our support of the department of publicity. We recognize that there is great potential for the propagation of the Gospel through mass media, and therefore, this year our Report also encourages a forward step in the field of Radio and Television.

Radio-Television: The Sub-committee on Radio-TV has met numerous times during the past year, twice with Dr. Ernest J. Arnold Executive Secretary of TRAV and President of the Protestant Radio Center, and several times with Mr. Fred Ohl of TRAV. In cooperation with TRAV and the North Carolina Council of Churches a Radio-TV Workshop has been planned for July 18-21 at Chapel Hill. Outstanding people in the field will give four days to instructing representatives to the Workship. The Synod quota is 15.

The Executive Committee has heard Dr. Arnold in regard to a pilot plan for establishing the first full-time Synod department of Radio-TV in the Synod of North Carolina. He has informed us that TRAV is prepared to provide $5,000 a year for three years on a suggested budget of from $12,000 to $15,000, in order to inaugurate the program. TRAV will train a key person for the position of Director of a Synod TRAV program.

Your Committee, in general, as well as in anticipation of the approaching sesqui-centennial celebration of the Synod, feels that it would be a wise decision for the Synod to make, in accepting the proposal of TRAV. We feel that this also would be implementation of the action of Synod's Council to study ways and means of improving the total program of publicity.

The attention of Synod is called to the prominence of the service of Dr. John A. Redhead, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, in the field of Radio and Television. Dr. Redhead has appeared on forty programs of the Presbyterian series of the Protestant Hour, on the National Radio Pulpit program four different summers, and on thirteen Television programs in the series, "Man to Man". He has been heard by untold millions of people. His message, "The Problem of Grief", has been requested in printed form by over 26,000 listeners. It is no exaggeration to say that Dr. Redhead has had more far-reaching influence than any minister of our church, and possibly more than any living Presbyterian. We are both proud and thankful that he is a member of our Synod.

Assembly Support: The Board of Church Extension approved of Salary Sustentation Aid during 1960 for three Presbyteries as follows:

Albemarle	$ 7,315
Wilmington	6,400
Winston-Salem	14,500
	$28,215

The Board made no appropriation to Synod this year by way of grants-in-aid. There were 83 requests made by the Presbyteries of the Assembly of the Board, totalling $744,500; however, the Board had only approximately a third of this amount available for distribution.

Synod's gifts to the Board of Church Extension declined in 1959, leading Dr. Claude H. Pritchard, Secretary of the Division of Home Missions, to write:

> "Our Board's total receipts from the Synod of North Carolina for the Church year ending December 31, 1959, were $192,499.61. Your Synod's full proportionate share of the Assembly's minimum askings for the support of our Board for 1959 was $300,706. Our Board's receipts from North Carolina were 64.02% of the minimum asked by the General Assembly. Our total receipts from all the Synods during 1959 amounted to 62.97% of the total asked by the General Assembly for the support of our Board. For the Church year 1958, we received from the Synod of North Carolina, 59.52% of the amount asked by the General Assembly as compared with the 64.02% for 1959."

GENERAL FINANCES

Regular Account: Income from the Presbyteries during 1959 was $21,098 more than the previous year. Total income for 1959 was $63,509 in contrast to $44,850 in 1958.

We ended 1959 with a balance of $10,512.51, after making distribution of $18,800 as Grants-in-Aid, not including an additional $1,600 appropriated for new Negro work at Shelby, or a total of $20,400 in Grants.

The tertiary report for 1960 reveals that we have received $340.22 less than for the same period last year. We have paid the four aid-receiving Presbyteries for the first quarter of 1960, and on May 1, 1960 reported a balance of $11,517.86.

We disbursed to the four aid-receiving Presbyteries for salary sustentation of Home Mission pastors in 1959 $27,922.22, in contrast to $33,396 the previous year, or $5,474 less than the previous year. We received from these same Presbyteries $17,669 in contrast to $12,380 in 1958, or an increase of $5,287. The net appropriations to those Presbyteries was $10,255.

The four aid-receiving Presbyteries are asking for $3,231 more for 1961 than for 1960 (including MAF). Otherwise, it is to be noted that Albemarle and Winston-Salem are requesting larger amounts than for 1960 and Granville alone remains exactly the same.

Our total disbursements for the two years compare as follows: for 1959, $56,235 ni contrast to $46,307 in 1958, or $9,928 more than in 1958.

For 1959 Granville, Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, and Wilmington accepted Askings in full, and for 1960 only Granville. However, none gave in full. Albemarle led percentage-wise, giving 73.54% of the amount asked.

The percentage of Church Extension income received in comparison to Askings for 1959 was 62.08% in contrast to 60.05% the previous year. By Presbyteries this is reflected for each of the two years as follows:

1958		1959
Rank	Percent	Rank	Percent
1—KM	76	1—A	73.54
2—A	68	2—O	69.44
3—W-S	66	3—KM	66.83
4—G	65	4—W	66.67
5—O	64	5—C	62.92
6—C	58	6—M	61.69
7—M	56	7—W-S	56.50
8—F	51	8—F	52.85
9—W	50	9—G	49.06
SYNOD	60.05	SYNOD	62.08

Gifts to Assembly's Church Extension decreased last year from $251,185 in 1958 to $199,848 in 1959, or by $51,337. Congregational Missions received $105,914 in 1959 and $123,653 in 1958, a decrease of $17,739. Gifts to Presbyteries' Church Extension increased by $140,822, or from $414,797 in 1958 to $555,619 in 1959.

Synod's gifts to all Church Extension work for the past two years is compared as follows:

	1959	1958
Congregational Missions	$105,914	$123,653
Presbyteries' Church Extension	555,619	414,797
Combined	$661,533	$538,450
Assembly's Church Extension	199,484	251,185
Combined	$861,381	$789,635
Synod's Church Extension	63,509	42,410
GRAND TOTAL	$924,890	$832,045

This Grand Total contrasts with $159,807 given in 1940 and $482,692 in 1950.

ASSEMBLY AID

In 1959 the Board of Church Extension gave the three aid-receiving Presbyteries $26,183; and as has been pointed out, approved for 1960 $28,637.

We express our appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for its continued interest in the Extension program of our Synod.

HOME MISSIONS

Department of Sunday School Extension

For several years we have been without a Sunday School Extension worker; therefore, this part of our progress has been more or less dormant. However, during the past year when a request came for a worker, we succeeded in obtaining help from the Board of Church Extension, as a result of which a new work was begun at Swansboro in Wilmington Presbytery.

Financial:

1) Sustentation of Salaries: There are currently 41 ministers, 6 lay workers, and 2 Executive Secretaries in four Presbyteries on whose salaries the Synod shares support. These represent 44 fields and 82 churches. In addition, there are four vacant fields in the four Presbyteries, which when supplied, receive aid from your Committee. In all there are 48 fields (58 last year), representing a total of 86 churches (90 last year), which are served from time-to-time by the workers who are aided by Synod. Synod subsidized salaries of these workers in 1959 in the amount of $27,922, which was $5,474 less than in 1958.

Grants-in-Aid: For the first time since 1955 the Committee found itself in position to make substantial grants-in-aid at the close of 1959. Grants were made to churches in every Presbytery, as follows:

Albemarle	$ 2,750	Mecklenburg	$ 2,000
Concord	1,000	Orange	500
Fayetteville	5,500	Wilmington	2,500
Granville	1,500	Winston-Salem	3,000
Kings Mountain	1,600
			$20,400

The following table presents the Committee's grants-in-aid program since 1950:

	Gave		Gave
1950	$21,550	1955	$ 9,800
1951	30,730	1956	1,600
1952	5,380	1957	798
1953	2,246	1958	950
1954	5,134	1959	20,400

Loan Funds: There were 35 loans to churches at the end of 1959, ranging from $2,000 to $25,000. Loans are made from (1) The Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund which was valued at $146,237 on January 1, 1960, in contrast to $141,733 the year before, a gain of $4,504; and (2) The Permanent Reserve Fund which was valued at $55,050 on the same date. Loans are made at 4% interest, and are properly secured. Income from the Church and Manse Loan Fund is returned to the Corpus, and when the fund reaches $200,000 the income will be used in a manner to be determined by the Committee, probably support of the work through grants-in-aid. The income from the other Fund is currently used for grants.

McCallum Estate: We received no income from the estate in 1959 (only $99.70 in 1958). The income showed excess of cost of operations over income in 1959 of $1,875.77. Mrs. McCallum died in January, and this matter is being reported upon in the separate report of the Trustees of the McCallum Estate.

Evangelism

The Sub-committee on Evangelism was constantly in touch with the Division of Evangelism of the Board of Church Extension in projecting the Presbyterian Mission to the Nation. The results of some of the Committee's work is evidenced in the Pre-Synod Conference on Evangelism, shared by more than 500 men, women, and youth of our Synod. The program was outstanding.

We most heartily commend the program of the Presbyterian Mission to the Nation to all churches within the Synod. If we respond heartily and prayerfully to God's call to Our Church to be a Community of Love, to be servants of men, and to be heralds of the Gospel through the Missions of Friendship, Christian Action, and Proclamation, we may be well assured that the spiritual life of our church will be intensified and there will be added to the Church many "such as are saved".

Two Cavalcade Teams will visit across our Synod during the period of October 3-11, to inspire, we hope, our people for the 1961 emphasis on Evangelism. Each of our Presbyteries has scheduled a Cavalcade Mission to which interested persons will be invited.

We note a downward trend in the growth of the Synod. While this trend obtained for the General Assembly as a whole, including the leading Synods, such as Florida, it is our opinion that strenuous efforts should be exerted by our whole Synod if we are to fulfill the hope of a great forward movement in 1961. We again remind the Synod that whenever there is a decline in accessions by professions of faith, there is a corresponding increase of vacant churches for that year, and such was the case in 1959. The number of vacant churches increased from 124 in 1958 to 151 in 1959.

Growth

Communicants: Tables reveal that the net gain for the Synod in 1959 was 1,930 in contrast to 2,143 in 1958, (2,409 in 1957), 1.37% in contrast to 1.54 % (1.71% in 1957). The annual rate of increase was less than the average for the previous five years, 2.19%. Attention is called to the fact that the annual rate of growth is slowly diminishing percentage-wise, as is indicated below:

1954	2.64%	1957	1.71%
1955	2.91%	1958	1.54%
1956	2.16%	1959	1.37%

Since 1940 the Synod has increased from 90,905 to 143,066, or by 52,161, or 57.38%.

The number added on profession of faith in 1959 was 4,346, 412 fewer than in 1958. (Last year there was an increase over the previous year of 233.)

The number of churches reporting no professions of faith in 1959 was 151 in contrast to 124 last year. Many of these were without ministers. As of January 1, 1960 there were 85 vacant churches in the Synod in contrast to 67 last year (641 churches in the Synod—637 in 1958). The number of baptisms of adults in 1959 was 2,239, or 352 under 1958 but the number of infant baptisms increased by 85 to 2,916.

The Synod continues to grow more slowly than the average for the General Assembly—1.37% in contrast to 1.84% for the Assembly in 1959; and 31.54% for the Assembly since 1950 in contrast to 24.53% for the Synod. Among the 16 Synods, North Carolina ranks 8th for 1959 (12th in 1958) and 11th for the period 1950-1959. The Synod of Florida again led the Assembly with an increase of 4.46% (down 2% from 1958). Since 1950 Florida also has the best record among the Synods, with a percentage growth of 72.70. Alabama ranks second at 66.73%. North Carolina's growth since 1950 is only one-third of that of Florida.

The General Assembly grows faster percentage-wise than the Baptist Church in North Carolina. 31.09% since 1950 for Presbyterians and 29.94% for the Baptist denomination. The Methodist increase for the same period is only 18.87%. The Synod rate is 4.90% below the Baptists since 1950, but 6.17% better than the Methodists.

For Spiritual Birthrate, the growth by professions of faith, the Synod ranked 9th in 1959; 3.09% as compared to 3.44% a year ago, and to 3.95% for the Synod of Florida, which ranked first among the 16 Synods. In the Soul-Winning Ratio, the number of members required to win one to Christ on profession of faith, the Synod also ranked 9th, 32 persons, in contrast to 30 persons for the General Assembly, and 25 for Florida. The Synod declined in both areas in 1959.

Among the Presbyteries Winston-Salem again led the Synod in net gain, 3.83%, and for the period 1940-1959 Albemarle continued to lead with a net gain of 101.20%, against the Synod increase of 57.38%. Mecklenburg continues to be the closest competitor with an increase of 80.19%. For Spiritual Birthrate in 1959 Wilmington replaced Albemarle, with a percentage of growth by professions of faith of 3.56%. Albemarle, which has ranked first constantly for a number of years, dropped to third place. However, for the period 1950-1959 Albemarle continues in first place at 4.48%, with Wilmington second. The Synod figures were 3.09% for 1959 and 3.29% for 1950-1959. For the Soul-Winning Ratio (the number of persons required to win each soul to Christ) Wilmington also ranked first, 28.10, and Winston-Salem second. Albemarle, which led in the period since 1950 at 23.20, dropped to third place for 1959. Wilmington was second. Corresponding Synod figures were 32.32 for 1959 and 31.21 for 1950-1959.

Negro Work

It is impossible to be unaware of the profound changes taking place in the life of the Negro in America nor the challenge to the Church which the current situation presents. Greater educational advantages have alienated him from the emotionalism of his fathers and left him with inadequate opportunity to express his faith through the type of churches his new vision requires. White churches which could offer the kind of intelligent religion the Negro's new educational status needs remains largely closed to him and there is a tragic lack of trained Christian leadership to meet the need within his own race.

Economic changes are equally as drastic. With his improved financial status the Negro is moving out of the depressed areas in which he once lived and seeking better housing and more congenial living conditions. Some residential areas remain partially segregated. New Negro communities are growing up away from the old concentrations and most of these new housing areas are largely unchurched.

The shift of agricultural population to the cities is another factor. The Negro tenant farmer of other days living placidly in the country has been superseded by the urban Negro. Migration into southern cities has been even more pronounced than migration to the North. The percentage in agriculture was 21% in 1948 and 14½% in 1955. Nearly 70% of the Negro population above 14 years of age is now living in urban areas.

There are signs that the northern migration of the Negro has been reversed and the concentration of the race in the future will be largely in the urban areas of the South, where he competes for conomic opportunity in our increasingly industrialized cities. These factors and others make it apparent that the day of opportunity and responsibility is upon us. The Negro is in transition and if he is denied religious opportunity commensurate with his new status, he may well be lost to Christ and the Church.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod express appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for the salary sustentation aid provided on the salary of ministers in aid-receiving Presbyteries.
2. That churches and individuals be acquainted with the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, and that they be urged to contribute to the Fund, looking towards the attainment of the goal of $200,000.
3. That Synod express appreciation to Churches and Presbyteries which responded to the appeal made in 1959 that they "give serious consideration to Askings by the Synod for Church Extension", and that they "be called upon to meet their obligations in full to this cause".
4. That, in view of the unprecedented number of church fires, Synod again call to the attention of the churches of the Synod, the importance of carrying adequate insurance on all church properties.
5. That Synod amend the Standing Rules of Synod to the effect that representatives of Presbyteries on Synod's Council and Committees, serve terms which expire at the annual meeting of Synod.
6. That Synod endorse the Rural Church Convocation to be held at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, August 9-11, as sponsored jointly by the North Carolina Council of Churches and the North Carolina State College School of Agriculture; and urge Presbyteries to participate by sending representatives.
7. That Synod take cognizance of the proposed Memorial to the late Dr. Ernest Eugene Gillespie, for thirty years Superintendent of Home Missions of the Synod, in the Synod's Office Building, by his family; and that Synod hereby takes formal notice of this worthy gift, and expresses its appreciation and gratitude to the donors.

Evangelism:

8. That your Committee answers the overture from the Synod of 1959 in regard to making a study of its evangelism program at the Synod level by reminding the Synod that this has been done constantly by the Committee through the years, within the limits of the Standing Rules of Synod; and that the emphasis being given to Evangelism during the Centennial year, including the Pre-Synod Conference and the Cavalcades, is providing implementation to the program of Evangelism at the Synod level.
9. That every church be called upon to familiarize itself with the Assembly's program on the Presbyterian Mission to the Nation, as presented by the Division of Evangelism of the Board of Church Extension and by the Synod at the Pre-Synod Conference on Evangelism; that each church be encouraged to participate in the program by following the plans, as far as possible; and that each church appoint an Evangelistic Committee.
10. That particular emphasis be placed on the Evangelistic effort the first quarter of 1961, and that all churches be urged to conduct Evangelistic services, lasting at least one week, during that period.
11. That prayer groups be formed in all churches in the Synod—in Sessions, Boards of Deacons, Men-of-the-Church organizations,

Women-of-the-Church organizations, and Youth Fellowships, and composed of those who agree to dedicate themselves to pray daily for a revival of true religion in the hearts of our members.

Negro Work:

12. That ministers recall to their congregations the fact that following the Civil War Negroes were recognized by our fathers as the responsibility of the Church and were members of the white churches until during the reconstruction period they themselves severed this relationship. The responsibility therefore still exists and in the coming centennial year loyalty to our fathers demands that we recognize the obligations which they in their day discharged. We urge the careful study by Sessions and Congregations of the excellent article by Dr. Ben Lacy Rose. A limited number of copies are available at Synod, and others may be obtained from the Presbyterian Survey.
13. That the Presbyteries in cooperation with the Department of Negro Work of the Board of Church Extension initiate such surveys of church needs in Negro areas of our growing cities as have already been made in Shelby and Raleigh. Your Committee feels that such surveys would be particularly fruitful in Durham, Goldsboro, Greensboro, and Fayetteville; and there are many other places in North Carolina where such a survey would be helpful.
14. That having acquired such information Presbyteries be urged to take practical steps to strengthen Negro Work where need is indicated.
15. That the Synod hear as a part of this report an address by Dr. Lawrence W. Bottoms, Secretary of Negro Work of the Board of Church Extension.

Radio-TV:

16. That Synod accept the challenge of TRAV, and proceed to establish a department of Radio-TV located in Raleigh, under the supervision of the Office of Synod, and that the 1961 Budget for this Office, including the TRAV appropriation of $5,000, be $10,000.
17. That Synod endorse the Radio-TV Workshop to be conducted at Chapel Hill July 18-21, 1960, and urge Presbyteries to take advantage of the opportunity of training key persons in the field of mass media.
18. That Synod express its appreciation by a letter from Synod's Office, to the Radio Stations within the bounds of the Synod, carrying the Protestant Hour and the Sunday School of the Air.
19. That Synod hereby expresses its appreciation to Mr. Ralph Scott, who for the past three years has served as Chairman of this Committee, and whose term of office on the Committee expires at this meeting of Synod.
20. That Synod take cognizance of the prominence of the service rendered by Dr. John A. Redhead, of Greensboro, in the field of Radio-Television, and appropriately express to Dr. Redhead appreciation for the magnificent contribution he has rendered the Church-at-large through the ministry of the Word over the Radio and the Television; and further that Synod by a communication to the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro, express its gratitude to the Church for lending Dr. Redhead to the Church-at-large for his Radio-TV ministry.

RALPH SCOTT, Chairman

[1] SOUL-WINNING RATIO: Number of members required to win one soul to Christ in a year. Determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith at the end of the year into the total number of communicants at the beginning of that same year. The result is in persons, not percentage and the lower the figure the better the standing.

[2] SPIRITUAL BIRTHRATE: Growth by professions of faith, expressed in percentage. Determined by dividing the number of members at the beginning of a church year into the number of accessions on profession of faith during that same year. The higher the percentage the better the standing.

C. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

REV. C. LYNN BROWN, Chairman

Since 1955 Synod's responsibility for Higher Education has been the charge of an executive committee with subcommittees for Educational Institutions, Campus Christian Life, and Vocational Guidance. The task increases each year in dimension and challenge. The careful reading of the appended subcommittee reports will acquaint you with some of the many facets of this area.

Because of the rapid growth in the number of students for which our Church is responsible under its Campus Christian Life Program, the Synod of 1959 has authorized that a new executive committee be created: The Executive Committee of Campus Christian Life. The responsibility of Educational Institutions and Vocational Guidance will remain under the Executive Committee of Educational Institutions. We feel confident that because of the increased representation made possible under these two committees that the total work will be strengthened.

Our Synod's opportunity in this area remains unparalleled in our Church's history. With the increased enrollment in the Educational Institutions of higher learning, our Church must expand and extend its facilities and its ministry. The future of our Church for many years to come is being determined as we face the challenge of Higher Education.

Recommendations:

(1) That Synod be requested to express appreciation to the Reverend Harry E. Smith, the Reverend Sheldon F. Koesy, and Mrs. Fay Phillips for the fine service they have rendered the Synod as CCL Workers respectively at Chapel Hill, East Carolina College, and Greensboro.

(2) That Synod approve the calls to Miss Patricia R. Hall as CCL worker at W.C.U.N.C., Greensboro; and to Miss Brandon McDaniel as CCL worker at East Carolina College, Greenville.

(3) That Synod calls to the attention of all Presbyteries and churches of the Synod the 1961 Campaign for capital funds for the Consolidated Presbyterian College, and urges whole-hearted and generous support of the Campaign.

(4) That by rising vote Synod express to Dr. Marshall S. Woodson its abiding gratitude for his years of devoted and sacrificial service as President of Flora Macdonald College and as Acting President of the Consolidated College, and assure him of its prayers for his new work for the Edgar Tufts Foundation.

(5) That Synod recognize with great satisfaction the election of Dr. Ansley C. Moore to be the President of the Consolidated Presbyterian College and assure him of our prayers and cooperation in all his endeavors in the field of Higher Education.

(6) That Synod urge pastors and committees of Christian Education in local churches to hold before the youth of our churches the opportunities for vocational guidance which are available to them at the Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College.

(7) That the prayers of the Presbyterians of the Synod of North Carolina be earnestly solicited for the continued progress of the Presbyterian Guidance Center program in the Synod of North Carolina.

(8) That Synod express gratitude to Professor Rodger Wayne Decker, Director; to Professor Ernest H. St. Jacques, Associate Director; to Professor Harold F. Stephenson, Assistant Director; and to Mrs. Nancy Farmer and Mrs. Jeannette Gentry, Secretaries of the Presbyterian Guidance Center.

(9) That the Synod express gratitude to the Administration of Flora Macdonald College for providing the physical facilities and a large part of the financial support of the Guidance Center.

(10) That Synod be requested to suspend Rule 24:1A in order that the Class of 1960 of the Permanent Advisory Committee may be re-elected to serve a term of three years.

(11) That Synod (a) Accept the sum of $154,500 as its quota towards the construction of the proposed sanctuary at Chapel Hill; (b) Authorize and instruct the newly-created Executive Committee of Campus Christian Life to proceed immediately with efforts to secure funds for the support of the Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church; and (c) As soon as sufficient pledges or funds are available to afford collateral to the satisfaction of the Trustees of Synod, said Trustees are empowered and authorized to borrow up to $100,000 as needed.

(12) That Synod express by rising vote its appreciation to the Reverend Charles Lynn Brown for his excellent leadership in the program of higher education during the period he has served as chairman of this committee.

(13) That Dr. Ansley C. Moore, President of the Consolidated Presbyterian College, be requested to address Synod in connection with the report of the Executive Committee on Higher Education.

1. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

Rev. Archie G. McKee, Chairman

The ministry of Campus Christian Life finds itself on the frontier of the total ministry of the church as it faces the task of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the academic communities of the Synod. The relevance of the Gospel amid the conflicting viewpoints of the academic community and the changing scene of the campus presents the CCL ministry with an exciting challenge and opportunity. The magnitude of the "frontier" in these transition years demands sober thought, deliberate planning, and the prayerful support of the entire Synod. In these crucial years the Synod must forge ahead with dynamic and relevant CCL ministry. We have begun together a great work and have laid a strong foundation. The cry of the hour is that the awakened Synod will provide the vision, the prayer and the finance to strengthen the work and build the structure of faith so that an ever increasing number of graduates will enter the life of the communities of the South as dedicated and committed disciples of Jesus Christ.

Strides of Progress:

In the past year, definite progress has been made in the ministry to approximately 4,000 students who are enrolled at the five institutions where the CCL ministry is conducted. This Presbyterian student enrollment is approximately 57% of the enrollment of Presbyterian students in all educational institutions of the Synod of North Carolina. This percentage, of course, does not include the families of the students. To these families the CCL ministry has a definite responsibility.

In providing for the ministry to students and their families, the Synod has completed and dedicated the Student Center at Chapel Hill, North Carolina. This Center has already proved its worth to the CCL ministry at the University of North Carolina. In April the Student Center at the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church was dedicated. The CCL ministry will now have a base of operation which will enable the work among the students at N. C. State, Meredith, and Peace Colleges to grow and flourish. The plans have been completed for a Student Center at Duke University. The actual construction will begin in the Summer of 1960 with a view of occupying the facilities late in 1960 or early in 1961.

This is the last year of service for the sub-committee of CCL. The Synod will complete the step of progress begun in 1959 by the appointment of the Executive Committee of CCL. The new Executive Committee will add strength and breadth of vision to the CCL ministry in the Synod.

Personnel:

It is with much regret that the resignations of three CCL workers are accepted by the CCL Committee. Mrs. Fay Phillips of W.C. U.N.C. has resigned to return to the field of public school teaching. The Reverend Sheldon F. Koesy, East Carolina College, and The Reverend Harry E. Smith, University of North Carolina, have resigned to pursue graduate study to prepare for a continuing campus ministry. The committee expresses its deepest appreciation for the labors and ministry of these members of the CCL family. We pray the blessings of God upon them as they continue their preparation and service in His Kingdom.

The Synod's Committee and the local CCL committees at the respective institutions have joined in a call to Miss Patricia Roots Hall to the work at W.C.U.N.C. in Greensboro—and to Miss Brandon McDaniel to the work at East Carolina College in Greenville. These new workers will assume their responsibilities in the summer.

The work of the Synod's Westminster Fellowship has been ably directed by Mr. Hugh McNeill who is a student at N. C. State College and who has served as Moderator during the past year. The committee expresses appreciation to Mr. McNeill for his able leadership and dedicated service. Mr. Albert H. Keller, a student at Davidson College, will serve as Moderator of the Westminster Fellowship of the Synod in the coming year.

Finance:

The committee is grateful to the Synod for the grant in 1959 of $13,567.24 which cancelled the indebtedness of previous years. The committee is also grateful for the increased support which has been given to the important work in the past five years. The financial report reveals that a balance of $2,966.00 was on hand December 31, 1959. It is, however, with mixed emotions that this report is made. The balance indicates that the work was carried on within the limits of the budget which is always a welcome note. On the other hand, it must be reported that this was accomplished by cutting every budget to the absolute minimum, by dissolving all the cash reserves which are allowed for emergencies at the Centers, and by placing a "blackout" on all expansion of program and staff in the local centers. The committee felt that it could justify such a program of austerity for one year, but does not feel that a continuation of this severe program is at all wise in the light of the mounting responsibilities at the various centers.

The times demand an advance and an expansion of staff to perform adequately the responsibilities of a vigorous and vital CCL ministry. The calling of associate workers at the University of North Carolina and Duke University is of paramount importance and must be given high priority for additional financial support.

The development of the new facilities brings the increased cost of maintenance and operation. The Synod cannot neglect its responsibility for these facilities. Careful arrangements are being developed for the control and use of these facilities in relationship to the needs and obligations of the local congregations. These congregations cannot be left with the entire cost of maintenance and operation.

The budget for 1961, in the amount of $77,300, is an accurate description of the responsibility of the Synod for continuing and developing the Campus Christian Life Ministry. Only as the Synod responds 100% can the next Executive Committee begin to assume and discharge the challenging task committed to its care and direction.

2. REPORT OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Rev. Harry M. Moffett, Jr., Chairman

The attention of Synod is called to the major challenge offered by the needs of our schools and colleges: Union Theological Seminary, Davidson College, Queens College, and the Consolidated Presbyterian College (Flora Macdonald, Peace College and Presbyterian Junior College). A monograph on each of these institutions is appended below.

Each of our schools has its own particular area of service and its peculiar problems. The Synod must inform itself of these particular situations and seek by every means possible to undergird not only the work of these institutions but the relationships between them and the Church. A major portion of our responsibility to them is a financial one. For the past several years we have been striving to give to each of these $100,000.00 per annum. We are close to that goal in our asking but far short in our actual gifts. Last year it was suggested by this subcommittee that the goal of $100,000.00 was too low, because of the obvious needs of these schools.

This year we again underline the fact that these schools must have our support. And we urge Presbyteries and Churches and individuals to give in order that our relationship to these institutions shall be strengthened. Of particular interest to the Synod is the evident progress in the consolidating of Flora Macdonald, Peace, and Presbyterian Junior College. The work has been greatly strengthened by the coming of Dr. Ansley C. Moore to be the first President. Construction of the new campus has begun. We are looking forward to the opening in September of 1961 with approximately 600 to 800 students.

The work which the Synod has begun so unitedly and so strongly must not lag. Synod has approved a campaign for funds to undergird further the construction and work of our new college. We cannot urge upon Synod too strongly the unique and primary opportunity which is here.

C. Lynn Brown, Chairman

a. MONOGRAPHS OF INSTITUTIONS

SENIOR COLLEGES

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, Davidson, North Carolina, D. Grier Martin, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Presbyteries composing the Synods of North Carolina and Florida, plus Asheville Presbytery of Appalachia Synod. Founded in 1837. Men.

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; the Southern University Conference; the National Conference of Church-Related Colleges; the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; and is on the list of colleges approved by the Association of American Universities. Davidson has a Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. (Size of College: 912 students, 73 Professors, 12 Officers of Administration.)

Financial: Book value of property, $6,750,000; General and Scholarship Endowment, $9,500,000; For the college year ending June 30, 1960 the supporting churches of the Synod of North Carolina will have contributed $38,000 or 3.4% of the educational budget of the College according to an estimate based on payments so far plus final two payments of same period last year.

It is anticipated that the enrollment will be held to approximately 955 students for the 1960-61 college year. The College has received more than 1,200 applications for enrollment this year to fill a freshman class of 260 students.

The Trustees of Davidson College have authorized a gradual increase in enrollment to 1,000 students, and they have specified that such an increase will be made only as the resources of the college are enlarged to guarantee the quality of the instructional program. To support this effort, a multi-million dollar Ten-Year Plan of Development has been charted by the Trustees and Faculty to organize on a long-range basis, the planning, curricular studies, and financial expansion that will bring added strength, vigor, and effectiveness to Davidson during the next decade.

Already completed are a $270,000 Library addition; $250,000 E. H. Little Dormitory; and $500,000 Fraternity Court.

The $725,000 Dana Science Building was completed in January 1960, and a new $425,000 dormitory will be ready for use during the 1960-61 college year.

Next on the list of construction is a $600,000 Fine Arts Building to be named in honor of President Emeritus John R. Cunningham.

A minimum endowment increase of $7,000,000 for faculty salaries, research, study, and travel remains a continuing goal.

FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE, Red Springs, North Carolina, Charles G. Vardell, Jr., Acting President, owned and operated by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States. Founded in 1896. Women. (Men enrolled as day students.)

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; Member of the National Association of Schools of Music; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, North Carolina College Conference, and the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South.

Size of the College: Administrative Staff, 8; Faculty, 35; Students enrolled in Degree Courses, 350; Business Students, 33; Special and Studio Students, 28; Summer School Students, 300; Total Students, 711.

Property and Finances:

1. Value of property	$ 424,266.63
2. General Endowment	537,075.39
3. Scholarship endowment	170,636.61
Total	$1,131,978.63

Flora Macdonald College is a four-year college accredited, as stated above, to grant the following degrees:

Bachelor of Arts
Bachelor of Science
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Music Education

The chief aims of the college are two-fold: the liberal education of young people for Christian American citizenship; and the training of its students for certain professional callings that will enable them to be useful and self-sustaining. A partial list of these opportunities follows:

Educational work, in public and private schools.

Church work, as pastors' assistants, workers in Christian education and secretaries.

Health work, in the fields of medical technology and nursing (in co-operation with certain medical schools and hospitals).

Music, where there are constant opportunities for teachers in studios, schools and colleges; for organists and choir directors in churches; and for talented musicians in the fields of radio, television and popular music.

Home Economics, in the fields of child care, dietetics and home demonstration.

Business and office work, with special training as business administrators, teachers, secretaries and accountants.

Flora Macdonald College has a strong Christian faculty, trained in the great colleges, universities and graduate schools of America and Europe, dedicated to the cause of Christian education, and experienced in dealing with the intellectual, spiritual and social problems of the modern college student.

The effectiveness of the teaching program is shown by the quality of the graduates of the college. Many Flora Macdonald students have made brilliant records in professional and business careers. The contribution of the college in training teachers, pastor's assistants, social workers, secretaries and homemakers has been notable.

The Vardell Scholarships, now in the sixth year of operation and offering generous amounts to recipients of these scholarships, have attracted to the campus a number of students of exceptional promise.

With increased gifts from the Synod, the college has been able to keep the quality of its work high in the face of inflationary threats to a successful business operation.

The total enrollment for the year is the largest in the history of the institution, and the indications are that the number enrolled next year will be even larger.

The religious life on the campus during the year has been exceptionally fine. The program sponsored by the Student Christian Association has been most effective and the students and faculty alike have contributed to the maintenance of the spiritual vitality which has always been one of the marked characteristics of the college.

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College continues to serve the Church. The center employs four full time staff members and six part time staff members. Approximately 500 young people from the Synod will use the services of the center this year. The center cannot meet the demands for its services and further expansion is necessary.

QUEENS COLLEGE, Charlotte, North Carolina; Edwin R. Walker, Ph.D., President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synods of North and South Carolina. Founded 1857.

Academic Standing: Four-year, fully accredited liberal arts college for women. College is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Council on Education, the Presbyterian Education Association of the South, the American Association of Colleges, the American Association of University Women, the National Commission on Accrediting, the College Entrance Examination Board, and the College Scholarship Service. The Music Department is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Evening College is a member of the National Association of University Evening Colleges.

Size of the College: Enrollment in regular college session, 474; Evening College, credit students, 309; non credit students, 771; total Evening College 1080; non-college music enrollment, 137; summer session of 1959, 142; total 1833.

Financial Status: Value of property, $3,500,000. General and scholarship endowment $2,000,000. The contributions from the two supporting Synods during 1958-59 were $55,205 (North Carolina $38,526), which is 7% of budgeted operating expenditures.

General Information: The current building program of the college will be completed during the summer of 1960 when the Everett Library and the Dana Classroom Building now under construction are ready for use. A new residence hall housing 140 students was opened in September, 1959; and the college kitchen and dining room area was completely remodeled and refurnished in the summer of 1959. In October, 1960, four buildings will be formally dedicated.

An increase in scholarships and grants has been a part of the general progress of the college. Currently Queens is giving financial assistance to 96 students. A recent gift from manufacturer-philanthropist Charles A. Dana has endowed a program of scholarships for 45 upperclass students annually.

The college curriculum is undergoing study by the faculty under a grant from the Fund for the Advancement of Education of the Ford Foundation. Through this study the curriculum is being broadened and strengthened, and a seminar type of instruction called the Group Tutorial is being emphasized. Additional strength has been brought to the faculty by the appointment of a number of highly qualified professors.

The Queens Evening College, a program of adult education, has shown a 50 per cent increase in enrollment over last year; and the Queens-Charlotte Leadership Program, a joint project of the college and churches of Charlotte, continues to train lay leadership. Through elective courses, Queens students doing major work in Bible and religion can qualify for certification as Associates in Christian Education.

Surveying the recent period of progress, it is significant that in the last two years the college has added ten buildings; and in the last decade Queens has more than doubled the annual operating budget, has tripled endowment, and increased faculty salaries 100 per cent.

CONSOLIDATED PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE (Temporary Name), Laurinburg, N. C., Dr. Ansley C. Moore, President; Owned and supported by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States. Operating divisions: Peace College (Raleigh), Flora Macdonald College (Red Springs), Presbyterian Junior College (Maxton). Opening date: September, 1961. Coeducational; Liberal Arts; Four-year.

Academic Standing: All colleges are fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and by the North Carolina College Conference. Flora Macdonald College is also an Institutional Member of the National Association of Schools of Music and is recognized by the Association of American Colleges. Appropriate steps are being taken to assure the continuing accreditation of the Consolidated Presbyterian College.

During the past 12 months work crews have been busy altering the campus landscape as the way is cleared for builders. Grading of building sites and roads and installation of sewage and storm distribution systems have been completed. Heating and electrical systems are now being laid underground, and construction of the heating plant building has begun.

Some months ago the Board of Trustees agreed on an architectural style (contemporary) for the new campus and gave the architect the go-ahead on plans for the academic building, the first major building to be constructed. In April the contract for this $1,000,000 building was awarded to McDevitt & Street Co. of Charlotte.

The architect is now busy with working drawings for six dormitories. According to present plans, the construction schedule will follow this priority system:

1. Academic (Classroom) Building—now under construction
2. Dormitories (Six)
3. Student Center
4. Music Building
5. Auditorium
6. Library
7. Gymnasium and Field House
8. Administration Building
9. Chapel

Plans call for the letting of building contracts at regular intervals throughout the coming months in order to have the college ready for opening in the fall of 1961.

The architect's design for the campus has received national attention. In January A. G. Odell and Associates of Charlotte received a citation in a national competition for their design of the new college. The citation noted that the firm was designing a coeducational, liberal arts college for approximately 600 students with provisions to expand the campus to 2500 students.

Three degrees will be offered by Consolidated Presbyterian College—Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Music. The basic liberal studies will include a four-year course in Christianity and Culture with work in the Humanities, Natural Science and Mathematics, English and Foreign Language.

Work on the Christianity and Culture Program entered a new phase last fall. Two professors are working full-time on the project with the aid of a grant from the Danforth Foundation. Details of this unique curriculum may be found in the Consolidated Presbyterian College Bulletin.

In January of this year Dr. Ansley Cunningham Moore, first president of Consolidated College, arrived at Laurinburg. Since that time he has been busy co-ordinating all phases of the work of the new college and formulating plans for organization of staff, faculty, and public relations. He has visited in five of the nine Presbyteries and spoken 46 times and held 82 conferences with people about the college. In an effort to see what other colleges are doing, he has visited the campuses of Davidson, Queens, Emory University in Atlanta, and others.

The financial picture of the college is as follows: Total assets, including the property which is paid for, the amount the Synod gave and will give through 1960, and the amount we can borrow from the government, amount to $4,000,000. We need 18 buildings in the first phase of the program, and this will require approximately $3,500,000 more than we now have. The firm of Ketchum, Inc., has been employed to handle the Synod-wide financial campaign in 1961. They are at work in the Synod now making preparations for this undertaking.

JUNIOR COLLEGES

PEACE COLLEGE, Raleigh, North Carolina, Dr. William C. Pressly, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina with two Trustees appointed from each of the nine Presbyteries and two from the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, and with sixteen Trustees appointed at large. Founded 1872. Women.

Academic Standing: Member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, North Carolina College Conference, the American Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, and the Presbyterian Education Association of the South.

Size of the College: 331 students; 16 full-time, 8 part-time Faculty; 12 Staff (8 full-time, 4 part-time).

Financial: 1960 value of property $750,000; General Scholarship Endowment $250,000. The contributions from the churches for operating budget were $23,747.61 and from the Contingent Fund $6,500, a total of $30,247.61. This is 10.5% of the operating fund. The school is operating with a small surplus which is put into permanent improvements.

Peace College completed its 88th year on June 1, 1960.

The quality of academic work was good. In admitting a student, several factors were taken into consideration: (1) her scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Examination Board, (2) her high school record, (3) her reference reports, (4) her church interest, her seriousness of purpose, and her general promise of growth. For the 1959-60 school there were practically three applicants for each boarding space available.

Peace is constantly striving to secure a faculty of outstanding academic ability, who appreciate thorough scholarship, and who have a certain sympathy with and understanding of student problems, most of whom are Presbyterians, and all of whom are members of some evangelical denomination and genuinely interested in promotion of the cause of Christianity.

Peace College is striving to promote a real program of Christian Education. The Administration and Faculty are planning such a program largely by means of Chapel, Bible, and the classroom in general. A course in "Christian Beliefs" was added recently. Also since student cooperation is essential, the Peace Student Christian Association takes the lead in encouraging students to participate in all religious programs in the school and in the local church fellowship groups which students are urged to attend. Ten or fifteen students are thinking seriously of entering active Christian service. Consideration is given in planning the religious program at Peace to the fact that a large number of Peace girls will be home-makers and will have an opportunity of training their children in the Christian faith as well as serving themselves in the many phases of the local church work.

The Religious Emphasis services this year were led by Miss Bessie Lewis of the Board of Christian Education, Richmond, Virginia, and Dr. William B. Ward, pastor of Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Virginia.

A Meditation and Prayer Room in memory of the late Miss Lucy Steel, Mary McNair Professor of Bible at Peace from 1933 until her death in 1954, has meant much in the religious life of the College.

A Student Honor Government now in its fifth year is in operation.

The Peace College Women's Advisory Committee is composed of five representatives from the Women of the Church of each of the nine Presbyteries including their presidents. Mrs. Isaac Avery, Jr., of Statesville, N. C., is chairman of the Advisory Committee.

Peace College appreciates fully the financial support of the Presbyteries of N. C. and asks for their continued support and prayers as the College attempts to fulfill its purpose as a Church College.

PRESBYTERIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE (Division of Consolidated Presbyterian College), Maxton, North Carolina. Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina, founded 1929, consolidated May 28, 1958. Co-educational.

Academic Standing: Accredited by the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction for University of North Carolina; member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member

American Association of Junior Colleges; member of North Carolina College Conference; member the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; Associate member of the commission on Christian Higher Education of the Association of American Colleges; approved by United States Office of Education for the admission of foreign students.

Size of College: 310 in regular session; 107 in Summer School; total after eliminating duplicates of 377. In the regular session 209 were Freshmen; 73 Sophomores; 28 Preparatory. There were 291 men and 19 women. There were seventeen teachers, three of whom were part-time, equal to 14 2/3 full-time teachers. Nine served on the administrative staff.

Financial: According to audit May 31, 1959, the value of property was $665,104.23; general endowment $339,341.25 including scholarship endowment of $25,598.00. Total assets $1,044,636.31. Gifts received in the financial year June 1, 1958, to May 31, 1959, were: Individual gifts $1,766.75, Synod of North Carolina $28,347.58, Women-of-the-Church and specials from churches $524.86, other $8,591.39. Gifts from the Synod were 12.7% of total expenditures.

In 1959 there were thirty-eight graduates, of whom 17 were from the preparatory department. The commencement preacher in 1959 was Dr. Sidney A. Gates of Salisbury, and the address was by Dr. R. T. L. Liston, president of King College, Bristol, Tenn. Summer School will be held the coming summer beginning June 6 in Preparatory courses, and June 13 in Collegiate subjects. In 1959 there were 107 enrolled in both terms of Summer School. Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson, Moderator of the General Assembly, was the speaker at the formal opening of college. The enrollment at the opening of college, compared with previous years follows:

Preparatory and special students	40	32	25
Freshmen	110	154	162
Sophomores	41	34	69
Night Class students	5	10	22
Total	196	230	278

Pre-session faculty conferences and orientation program were elements in the opening of college. The Reverend Marion H. Currie conducted Fall Devotionals. Reverend Stuart Ritchie led Religious Emphasis Week. The Student Christian Association and the Christian Service Fellowship gave organized leadership to religious activities. There are a number of ministerial candidates and others planning full-time religious vocations. Three ordained and several lay faculty members have supplied vacant pulpits, as have ministerial students.

Speakers on the Distinguished Visitors Program included Dr. Robert D. Bass, author, Mr. William N. Neal, well-known financial executive and recent visitor to Russia, Dr. William M. Currie, speaking upon his visit to Scotland last year, and Colonel Lee B. James, a member of Von Braun's missile team, speaking on "The Exploration of Mars." Colonel James is a son of the head of our Mathematics Department. Mr. Terry Sanford, an alumnus of the year 1934, spoke at Homecoming.

The North Carolina College Conference, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the North Carolina Conference of Church-Related Colleges, and many state and regional educational conferences were attended by faculty members or students. The college participated in the program of The North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges. Two radio programs have been conducted each week. College Days in North Carolina and South Carolina High Schools have been largely attended. The Woman's Advisory Board and several church committees have met on our campus. American Education Week, Founders' Day, Homecoming Day, National Christian College Day, and the Junior-Senior Banquet were observed. Students' activities have been promoted. The International Relations Club and the Parapsychology Club have been more active than in former years. Basketball, tennis, baseball and golf have been intercollegiate sports.

The National Defense Loan Fund has been established with over $10,000 granted in loans.

Considerable attention and effort have been given to the development of the program of Consolidated Presbyterian College. The president is serving as vice-president and secretary of the Consolidated Presbyterian College. Faculty committees have met with committees from Flora Macdonald College. All matters referred to Presbyterian Junior College personnel have been given priority handling, and faculty and staff have participated in curriculum planning, consultation with the architects and educational consultants, cooperation in the Laurinburg office, public relations, financial planning, legal concerns, and other developments. A reception on the campus welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Ansley C. Moore to the merged program. The whole college family is cooperating heartily with the consolidated educational developments.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Richmond, Virginia, is owned and controlled by the Synods of North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, and Appalachia through a board of 28 trustees nominated by the Synods. One half of the trustees are ministers, and one half are church officers. The President, Dr. James A. Jones, is a 29th trustee ex officio. Founded in 1812. Men.

The Trustees of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia respectfully present this report to its controlling and affiliated courts concerning affairs for the year 1959-1960.

Trustees

Under corporation law of the Commonwealth of Virginia the election of Trustees is vested in the Trustees themselves, but they may elect only persons nominated by the Synods.

As one of the four theological seminaries of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. Union Theological Seminary regularly submits to the General Assembly of the Church a report on its work for information.

On January 6, 1960 Wyndham B. Blanton, M.D., Chairman of the Board of Trustees, died. Over many years as Seminary physician, counselor, Trustee, and Board official Dr. Blanton gave generously of his wise perception, diligent industry, and contagious enthusiasm for the welfare of the Seminary. The entire Seminary community feels an acute sense of loss in his death.

Student Affairs

During the year 293 students have been enrolled in the Seminary as follows: Seniors, 62; Middlers, 77; Juniors, 78; Specials, 20; Interns, 14; and Graduate students, 42. It is interesting to note that this compares with a student enrollment during 1958-1959 of 289 students. The students come from 55 presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., from 15 synods, from 22 states, and from 8 foreign countries. Eleven denominations are represented in the Student Body, other than the Presbyterian Church, U.S. One hundred and thirty-four literary institutions provided the collegiate and university backgrounds for the students enrolled.

The general spirit and progress of the students during the year have been good.

On June 7, 1960 the Seminary will award five Th.D. degrees; 14 Th.M. degrees; 61 B.D. degrees, and one diploma. As usual these graduates of the Seminary will go into the work of the Church as pastors, missionaries at home and abroad, and chaplains in military service. Approximately fifteen men graduating this year will continue their studies in graduate schools. Some of these men anticipate performing their ministries as teachers in colleges and universities.

Five fellowships for graduate study were awarded to members of the Senior Class. The number of such awards is lower than has obtained in other years. The Faculty has judged that the monetary size of the awards should be increased in order to make it possible for the students distinguished by such awards to pursue their theological studies in the institutions of their choice. During recent years fellowship awards have involved $1,000.00. This year, and it is planned that the same scale shall obtain hereafter, the awards were for $1,500.00 each, a minimum amount needed for graduate study.

Faculty and Instructional Program

Once again, through the generosity of the Alumni of the Seminary, it has been the privilege of the Seminary to have an "Alumni Visiting Professor". This service has been performed by the Reverend James B. Torrence, a graduate of the University of Edinburgh and pastor of the Parish of Invergowrie, in Dundee, Scotland. Professor Torrance and his family have made a splendid place for themselves in the life of the Seminary. He has taught courses in New Testament Exegesis and Biblical Theology.

Following the program of sabbatic leaves inaugurated by the Seminary some years ago Professor William B. Oglesby, Jr., the Marthina DeFriece Professor of Pastoral Counseling, has been on leave for the second and third quarters of the academic year, and his leave will continue through the summer of 1960. He has been pursuing studies in the field of his responsibility in the Faculty and completing assignments in the Graduate School of the University of Chicago.

The Seminary gratefully notes that Professor Ernest Trice Thompson has been the Moderator of the General Assembly. In his duties as Moderator he has travelled extensively throughout the Church. In order to make this travel possible the Seminary relieved him of all responsibilities for teaching during the second quarter of the academic year. The courses ordinarily taught by Dr. Thompson in the quarter during which he was absent have been offered by "recorded lectures", commented upon and directed by an instructor. It has been interesting to note the student reaction to this new device in pedagogical procedure. While such classroom technique leaves much to be desired, the general reaction has been that for this interim such teaching of the courses has been adequate.

The Trustees of the Seminary are in the process of seeking additions to the Faculty. Especially will it be necessary in the next few years to add personnel in the Departments of History, Biblical Studies, and Systematic Theology. The pressures caused by an increasing enrollment mean that the members of our Faculty cannot possibly discharge their teaching assignments with the efficiency which they covet. In the light of this condition additions will be made as resources permit and as personnel becomes available.

The Trustees are happy to report that Dr. Benjamin Lacy Rose has been granted a Fellowship by the American Association of Theological Schools to pursue his studies in Homiletics during the whole of 1960-1961. In order to provide for courses which normally Dr. Rose would teach, Dr. Paul E. Scherer, distinguished minister in the Lutheran Church, and retiring professor of Preaching in Union Seminary in New York, will be the Alumni Guest Professor for the 1960-1961 session.

In its program of curriculum improvement the Faculty of the Seminary has decided that elementary Greek will be required of all entering degree candidates before their matriculation. This requirement will become effective for the 1960-1961 academic year. In order to meet the needs of candidates who have not had Greek in college, an intensive course in elementary Greek will be offered at the Seminary in the weeks immediately prior to the opening of the school term in September, 1960. The purpose of this decision is to relieve the curriculum of the necessity of teaching beginning courses in the Greek Language, so that entering Juniors can begin their theological study at a higher level of Biblical inquiry and can have the hours in the latter part of their seminary training which they wish and deserve for elective courses. It appears that approximately half of the entering Class will have to take the beginning Greek course prior to September, 1960.

Special Activities

The Sprunt Lecturer for 1959-1960 was Dr. Daniel Day Williams, Professor of Systematic Theology in the Faculty of Union Theological Seminary, New York. His subject was "The Christian Ministry and the Care of Souls". The Auxiliary Lecturers were: Dr. Theodore Parker Ferris, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, speaking on "Preaching and The Pastoral Ministry"; and Dr. Floyd Vivian Filson, Dean and Professor of New Testament in McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, Illinois, speaking on "The Gospel in Acts". Additional guest lecturers have been brought to the Campus for convocations, for particular meetings with selected classes, and for consultations with groups of students.

One of the fundamental responsibilities of the Seminary is in the area of recruiting men for church vocations. In an attempt to hold before the youth of the Church the opportunities and obligations which are upon all churchmen for service to the Gospel of Christ, the Seminary, in cooperation with the Presbyterian School of Christian Education had a conference for high school students, enrolling approximately a hundred young men and women for the purpose of explaining the varieties of vocations which are within the Church.

Selected teams of Seminary students have visited some eighteen colleges and universities for the purpose of consulting with students about the ministry as a vocation. College and university students in groups up to a dozen have been brought to the Campus of the Seminary for six weekend visitations. Men coming to the Campus under these auspices meet with members of the Faculty, attend classes, consult with students about what it means to be involved in seminary life, and the attitudes of seminary students themselves with regard to "the call to the ministry". The Seminary happily cooperates with the other theological seminaries of the Church, with the Department of Christian Vocation of the Board of Christian Education, with the Presbyterian School of Christian Education, and with the personnel offices of the Assembly's agencies with reference to the importance of finding effective devices by which to challenge young people in our generation to invest their lives, under the prompting of God, in the enterprises of the Church.

During the year Professor James Luther Mays was inaugurated Professor of Biblical Studies and Professor John Haddon Leith was inaugurated Professor of Historical Theology.

The first of a projected series of bibliographical lectures to be scheduled at intervals over the next years was given by the Reverend Doctor J. K. S. Reid, head of the Department of Theology of the University of Leeds, England.

Continuing Education

The Seminary continues to feel a responsibility toward men who are actively engaged in the pastorate. Under the auspices of its program of "Continuing Education" 395 men have pursued specific courses of study. Three hundred and eight men are now working in the program of Directed Study, using one of the 32 courses available in this program and employing on a regular schedule the facilities of the Library and of the tape recording Library. Seventy men, directly from the pastorate, returned to the Campus for periods of two weeks of intensive study. These men were brought to the Campus in groups of five. They were given private studies in the Library. They had a conference each day with members of the Faculty about developments in theological studies generally. Seventeen men came to the Campus for a period of approximately five weeks of intensive study under the program known as "Summer Scholars".

The Seminary continues to operate its summer Clinics. The 1959 Clinics included particular training over a period of two weeks in the development of skills in preaching and in pastoral care. Eighty men from the pastorate returned to the Campus to participate in this study.

Financial Affairs

At the end of the fiscal year, March 31, 1960, the Seminary had an operating surplus of $67.73. Church contributions from the four Synods were as follows:

	Calendar Year 1959	Fiscal Year 4-1-59—3-31-60
Appalachia	$ 9,475.29	$ 9,249.49
North Carolina	44,180.96	45,594.15
Virginia	25,690.91	27,228.65
West Virginia	13,351.88	12,574.44
	$92,699.04	$94,646.73

The book value of endowment as of March 31, 1960, was $5,264,260.46, an increase in endowment during the year of $236,171.69.

The Trustees express their deep appreciation to all who support the cause of theological education in the Church, and particularly for the benefits which have accrued to Union Theological Seminary. It is the purpose of the Trustees to seek every possible way to enrich the life of the Seminary in its large responsibility to prepare men as heralds of the Gospel of Christ and as productive servants of the Church of today and tomorrow.

e. INFORMATION

The Director is endeavoring to make his office a channel for distributing information about the Schools for which Synod has a responsibility. He is available for presenting the cause of Christian Education to Presbyteries, Presbyterials, local Churches, Men's and Women's organizations.

Three schools have motion picture films which they make available to interested groups: Davidson College, Queens College, and Presbyterian Junior College.

BEQUESTS AND MEMORIALS

According to Webster, a memorial is anything intended to "preserve the memory" of a person or event. Granite preserves a name; influence preserves a memory. A memorial dedicated to the service of Christian Education is truly an everlasting memorial since it lives on generation after generation. This type of memorial is not only possible to people of large wealth but to the average man. Buildings and gifts for endowments are appropriate for people of means. Gifts of equipment for gymnasiums, offices, and music departments; audio-visual materials, furniture, and outdoor improvements are within the reach of average people. Information on specific needs will be furnished to interested persons.

FORM OF GENERAL BEQUEST

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at..., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given)."*

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR INDICATED PURPOSE

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (.......................... ....), an institution located and operating at..., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given), with the direction that the same be used for the support and operation of the (Library, Infirmary, etc.)."*

3. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN GUIDANCE CENTER

Rev. Samuel W. Newell, Chairman

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College, established in 1952, has enjoyed since its beginning the leadership of Professor Rodger Wayne Decker, Director. Through the Presbyterian Guidance Program of the Board of Christian Education, the center at Flora Macdonald is related to other such guidance centers in the various Synods of our General Assembly. Fundamental to the whole philosophy of the Presbyterian Guidance Program is the belief that each individual has the potential within himself to direct his own life, with God's help; that each person needs to learn what he can do best, what training would help him most, and where and how his talents may be used most effectively in harmony with God's will. The primary purpose of the program is to help Christian youth plan their careers intelligently and with a sense of Christian mission—whether they choose to become nurses, engineers, missionaries, mechanics, sales people, home makers, or ministers of the Gospel.

The staff of the Guidance Center is composed of the Director, Professor Rodger Decker; the Associate Director, Professor Ernest H. St. Jacques; Assistant Director, Professor Harold F. Stephenson; two secretaries, Mrs. Nancy Farmer and Mrs. Jeannette Gentry; and thirteen vocational consultants, who are associated with Flora Macdonald College or with the Red Springs community, and who serve the center without pay. Professor St. Jacques is to be on leave continuing his studies under a fellowship grant during 1960-61.

During the 1959-60 school year the center was host to 759 counselees from 98 Presbyterian churches in the Synod and 66 students of Flora Macdonald College, making a total of 825 counselees. This is an increase of 315 over the preceding year, and it was made possible by the fact that about a year ago Mr. Stephenson was added to the staff as an additional counselor. The average cost per counselee has been $20.36, which compares with an average cost in other similar centers of between $25.00 and $50.00. The center is operating this year on a budget of $16,800, but the gifts to the Synod are likely to fall about 40% short of supplying this full amount. As in the past, Flora Macdonald College continues to find it necessary to "piece out" the difference between the center's asking and its actual receipts from the Synod.

For the second consecutive year the Guidance Center has engaged in a very courageous program of self-evaluation, the results of which have been highly encouraging. Questionnaires were sent to 100 former counselees, who were asked to give a frank evaluation of their experiences at the Guidance Center, and of the center's contribution to their self-understanding. The results of this study show that those who avail themselves of the services of the Guidance Center are consistently very much helped by it.

Counselees are charged $1.00 per night for lodging at the center; out-of-Synod counselees are charged $10.00 each for the service; and non-Presbyterians who are not part of the program of a local Presbyterian Church are charged a fee of $25.00 for the first part of the program and $5.00 for each additional interview.

The budget recommended below compares with a budget of $16,800 for the preceding year. Though there are some small changes in individual items, the only significant change is the addition of $4,000 for the employment of an additional counselor in an effort to up-grade the quality of the counseling and to help satisfy the increased demands for the services of the center by young people of the local churches.

V. REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

REV. R. T. BAKER, Chairman

Your Committee on Annuities and Relief reports that it has distributed to the retired and infirm ministers of the Synod of North Carolina the following amounts from the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

September 23, 1959	$20,900 to 65 ministers
March 23, 1960	$21,800 to 66 ministers
	$42,700

Your Committee has made diligent effort to distribute these funds where the need is greatest among our retired and infirm ministers.

Your Committee would again call to the attention of the ministers of the Synod and to the Committees on Annuities and Relief in the Presbyteries the following recommendation adopted by the Synod in 1947 relating to the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

> "No minister, regardless of age, shall participate in the fund so long as he is employed in the regular exercise of the ministry." (Section 4/c, Minutes of Synod, 1947, page 544.)

Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief, reports that there were 81 beneficiaries on the rolls of the Synod of North Carolina who received $86,798.96 from Ministerial Relief Funds in 1959. Total receipts from the Synod for Ministerial Relief in 1959 were $92,619.46.

The Board of Annuities and Relief expresses thanks and appreciation for the fine support given by the Synod of North Carolina and informs the Synod that the Major Medical Plan for our Retired Personnel has been received with great enthusiasm and is already doing much good. The Synod is urged to continue giving generous support to the Board.

The present policy of making grants is as follows: to ministers who are members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund and their wives, $2400.00, all income being considered; for widows or widowers, $1500.00 on the same basis. For those who are not members of the Ministers' Annuity Fund, a minister and his wife may receive $2200.00, all income being considered; for widows and widowers, lay missionaries, and orphans, $1,400.00 on the same basis.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod urge all churches to enroll all ministers and full-time employees in the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance Plan.

2. That retired ministers, their wives, widows and retired lay employees who were members of the Employees' Annuity Fund be urged to enroll in the Major Medical Insurance Plan.

3. That in view of the vital importance of the Joy Gift to the beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief, churches be urged to place greater emphasis on the Joy Gift.

4. That the surviving dependents of any Kate B. Reynolds Fund recipient who dies between the date of distribution of checks, beginning with the September, 1960, distribution, be awarded an annuity in the subsequent distribution.

5. That the Synod engage in prayer for our retired ministers and their wives, remembering especially those who are sick.

R. T. Baker, Chairman

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES

Rev. John G. Parks, Jr., Chairman

The Committee on Assembly's General Fund Agencies met March 31, 1960 at the White Memorial Church in Raleigh, N. C.

The Committee heard with great interest a splendid report by Dr. Bob Hodges of the General Council on the work and progress of the nine agencies supported through the General Fund. From the information presented by Dr. Hodges and a study of written communications from various agencies, your Committee reports the following:

The Board of Directors of the Mountain Retreat Association has arranged for a convocation on August 12-14, 1960, with the inauguration of its new president, Dr. G. Grier Davis, being held the evening of August 13. It is hoped that as many members of this Synod as possible will attend.

The Historical Foundation desires that every minister of the church give serious consideration to keeping a personal register including entries of baptisms, deaths, marriages, etc., with a view to ultimately placing this record in the Historical Foundation.

Stillman College, selected by the Board of Women's Work as the worthy recipient of its 1960 Birthday Offering, will use the funds to erect its only classroom building, which in turn will relieve congestion in other buildings and help to accommodate the large number of students who want to attend this fully accredited four-year liberal arts college.

The American Bible Society asks that Pastors and Elders urge the Men of the Church organizations to start placing Wayside Gospel Dispensers in their communities and that Vacation Church Schools consider the providing of Finger-Fanos for illiterates or talking book records for the blind as special projects.

The Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Virginia, anticipates a student body of 250 within the next few years and will greatly benefit from the Capital Funds Campaign authorized by the General Assembly for 1963. More graduates of this school go to North Carolina to serve than to any other Synod.

Because the nine General Fund Agencies do not receive regular supplemental offerings, they depend entirely on the budgeted benevolence giving of the churches for operating needs. Our Synod gave in 1959 as follows:

Synod's Apportionment to all Assembly's Benevolences	$1,493,822
Synod's Apportionment to General Fund Agencies	220,190
Synod's Actual contributions to General Fund Agencies	136,986

It is hoped that this picture will not be repeated in 1960 and that these splendid causes of our church will not have to continue to do so much less than they could be doing.

Recommendations:

1. That the Churches of the Synod seriously study the needs of the General Fund Agencies, looking to greater support of these agencies as a means of undergirding them and making their programs more effective.
2. That pending adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. C. Grier Davis, president of the Mountain Retreat Association.

John G. Parks, Jr., Chairman

C. REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS

E. B. Crow, Chairman

Your Committee reports that it met on March 25, 1960 to discuss methods by which it may best continue the function assigned to it of furnishing information to the Synod, and to advise individual churches and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to educational institutions and other agencies of the Synod.

It was the feeling of the Committee that, since it had previously distributed informational material aimed primarily at arousing interest in the cause of Higher Educational Institutions, its next distribution should point more generally to the continuing need for such gifts by all of the agencies of the Church. It therefore authorized the distribution of a brochure entitled "Lengthen Your Shadow" prepared by the Presbyterian Foundation, Inc. (U.S.), which calls attention to a number of the causes of the Church. That brochure will be sent to the churches of the Synod and to selected attorneys, life insurance underwriters and trust officers.

Your Committee also feels that it should make it as clear as possible to the members of the Synod that it is in no sense attempting to duplicate the efforts of the various agencies, nor to work at cross purposes with any of them. This Committee would like to be looked to as a vehicle through which the members of our church may more easily reach the cause, or causes, that most appeal to them as a way in which they can best serve the Lord's Business with bequests and deferred gifts.

E. B. Crow, Chairman

D. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

REV. I. HOWARD CHADWICK, Chairman

During the past year the Permanent Committee on Christian Relations has held two meetings. The first was in Greensboro, N. C., at the Church of the Covenant on Monday, September 21, 1959, at 11:00 a. m. The second was Monday, May 9, 1960, at the White Memorial church in Raleigh, N. C., at 11:00 a. m.

The majority of time in both of these meetings was consumed with a discussion of those possible areas to which the Committee might give attention, and concerning which we might speak most helpfully and effectively to Synod. To this end the Committee makes the following report and recommendations:

Report:

1. The Synod of North Carolina, through the Committee on Christian Relations, has been represented at the following Seminars:

The Rural Church Seminar, Washington, D. C., by Mr. Columbus Mayo, Layman, Member of the Tarboro, N. C., Church.

The Churchmen's Washington Seminar, Washington, D. C., by the Rev. John D. Smith, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Morganton, N. C.

The World Affairs Seminar, Washington, D. C. and New York, N. Y., by the Rev. Howard Chadwick, Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C.

Each of these men submitted detailed reports to the Christian Relations Committee and each is available for similar reports or addresses on these or kindred subjects to various groups throughout the Synod.

2. The Christian Relations Committee of Orange Presbytery under the chairmanship of the Rev. Joseph M. Garrison conducted on November 10, 1959, at Camp New Hope, a "One-Day Institute on Christian Relations." This Institute is commended to the Synod for study by the presbyteries with a view to similar action.

3. Cognizant of its place in Synod's organization, and mindful of its obligation to Synod, this Committee is now laying the foundation for studies in the coming year which will be reported to the Synod of 1961. To this end the Committee would request the directive of Synod relative to any specific areas to which study and attention may be given.

Recommendations:

1. Alcohol and Alcoholism:

(1) That the Synod of N. C. call attention to commissioners and churches of the Synod to the comprehensive report of the Christian Relations Committee on this subject to the Synod of 1954, a copy of which was sent to each pastor and Session of Synod, and that this report be commended for re-study.

(2) That the Synod of N. C. commends to its churches the materials and services provided by the Committee on Alcoholism of the North Carolina Council of Churches, particularly in the form of one-day Institutes available for almost any community at an almost negligible cost.

(3) That the Synod of N. C. apprise the ministers that full scholarships to the Yale School of Alcohol Studies are available to any qualified minister who can take the time and make the effort, and urge as many ministers as possible to take advantage of this opportunity.

(4) That the Synod of N. C. commend her legislative and governmental officials and all other responsible for those areas where public funds are made available to assist in combatting the disease of Alcoholism.

(5) That the Synod of N. C. urge its communicants to unite in the increasing efforts to redeem alcoholics for a larger life through the use of tested and approved methods of dealing with this dangerous sickness.

(6) That, in view of the outstanding achievements of such cities as Greensboro, N. C., Charlotte, and Durham, which have established successfully Councils on Alcoholism, the Synod of N. C. urges such of its communicants as are particularly interested and qualified to take the initiative in the formation of a Council on Alcoholism in every community in the State of North Carolina of above 15,000 population where one does not already exist; that in communities smaller than this size explorations be undertaken to provide a County Council on Alcoholism; and that in communities where such councils already exist, ministers and communicants consider volunteering to implement the work of these Councils.

2. That in this election year Synod call to the attention of pastors and Sessions their responsibility to remind the members of their congregations of their Christian obligation to use the ballot responsibly according to the Christian belief and ethic.

3. That in order to improve the tense and critical race and personal relations of our day, Synod recommend to pastors and churches that lines of communication between conflicting groups be strengthened where they exist, and established where they do not exist.

4. That the Synod commend for study by pastors and Sessions the report of the Committee on Christian Relations to the General Assembly, and the Message to the Nation presented by the Moderators of the Presbyterian Churches, US and UP-USA.

5. That Synod encourage attendance at the Raleigh Churchmen's Seminar to be conducted during the year 1961.

6. That this Synod reiterate the request of the Synod of 1959 relative to the organization of Christian Relations Committees within Presbyteries.

7. That the following representatives to 1961 Seminars be approved:

Rural Churchmen's Seminar
  Mr. Charles Hunter, Charlotte, N. C.
  Mr. Robert Lee Corbett, Macclesfield, N. C. (Alternate).
Churchmen's Washington Seminar:
  The Rev. E. T. Thompson, Jr., Shelby, N. C.
  The Rev. Frank T. Lemmon, Raleigh, N. C. (Alternate).
World Affairs Seminar:
  The Rev. W. C. Neill, Aberdeen, N. C.
  The Rev. Murphy Smith, New Bern, N. C. (Alternate).

8. That pending the consideration of this report Synod hear a brief statement by Mr. Worth Williams of the Greensboro Council on Alcoholism, and an address by the Rev. B. Frank Hall on "The Christian in the Atomic Age."

I. Howard Chadwick, Chairman

E. PERMANENT HIGHER EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

(No Report in 1960)

F. PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON HOMES

Rev. Jerry C. McCann, Chairman

Preamble

Your Committee on Homes met April 25, 1960, at Presbyterian Home in High Point, with six members present. Mr. Richard Short, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Home, reported that the Forward Fund Campaign for capital improvements through March 31, 1960, had produced $463,503 (61.8 percent) in pledges on the goal of $750,000 authorized by the Synod. These percentages broken down by Presbyteries are as follows:

A	48.3	KM	34.0
C	41.7	M	36.8
F	38.0	O	166.6
G	65.0	W	18.9
		W-S	101.0

Mr. Short also pointed out that the Home's fixed assets had increased from $250,000 eight years ago to $961,000 today. In view of this it is the hope of the Board of Trustees that in spite of the fact the Forward Fund did not reach its goal, arrangements can be made to borrow sufficient money to begin construction of the much needed addition to the Home.

The Rev. Albert B. McClure, Director of the Orphans' Home, gave a general report on the work of the Home. He pointed out that the trend is to incorporate the life of the Home more into the life of the community as is evidenced by the integration of the student-body and the athletic program into the Troutman school. He indicated that the Home operated last year without debt, but stated that there is perennial need for capital improvements.

Dr. R. H. Stone, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of William Black Home, presented a written report on William Black Home bringing out the fact that the Home continues to minister to the people of the Synod in a very fine way.

It is the hope of the Committee on Homes that continued interest in our Homes will be manifest throughout the Synod, and work of these Homes will be promoted through the prayers and gifts of our people.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod express its appreciation to the leadership of the Homes and thank those in charge of the management of the Homes for their splendid services.
2. That Synod be called upon to undergird the current capital gifts program of the Presbyterian Home, and call to the attention of the Synod that Messrs. Short and Sharpe are available to present the cause of the Presbyterian Home upon request.
3. That Synod note that while Barium Springs Orphanage has been operating in the black, there is a perennial need for capital improvements.
4. That Synod take cognizance of the increasing popularity of the William Black Home which is due to its generous hospitality.
5. That pending the adoption of this Report Synod hear Mr. J. B. Watt, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Presbyterian Home, and the Rev. Albert B. McClure, Superintendent of the Children's Home.

Jerry C. McCann, Chairman

1. Presbyterian Orphans' Home

M. C. Benton, Jr., President

It is always a real pleasure to report successful and rewarding achievement. It is more pleasing, however, to note genuine optimism and a bright, happy outlook for the future. This communication is intended to do both, for the Home has been abundantly blessed this past twelve months.

Religious Life

Religious nurture has been and still is one of the major reasons for the Home's existence. It is our business to see that these children are "brought up in the admonition and nurture of the Lord". Cottage parents, on their own and together with the minister, have been conducting family prayers and religious worship in the cottages. Each Sunday morning family prayers are conducted in the dining room by the Superintendent or some member of the staff. Classes are held each year and sometimes twice a year for boys and girls who want to unite with the Church. The Senior High Fellowship meets every Sunday as does the Pioneer group. In addition to the regular Sunday morning worship services there is a service each Wednesday evening and throughout the year special weeks of religious emphasis have been observed on the campus.

School

May, 1960, will complete the first full High School cycle in the consolidated school. This year's Seniors entered as Freshmen at Troutman and have received their entire High School course in the new setting. The principal and teachers of the school give good report for the Barium boys and girls in their relationship to the school in its various activities. The transition has been much better than anticipated and, therefore, more firmly convinces us that it was and is the correct procedure for the Home. It still will take some time to find how best to meet the needs of the boys and girls in this broader and new relationship to the outside community and the superintendent and staff are still working hard to discover them.

The varsity sports program was changed from the Home to the High School at Troutman and a decision was made to transfer grades five through eight to the Troutman school next year. This decision had its effect on the life of the campus and the changeover has demanded a great many new ways of doing things and the necessity for continued new planning. Such plans and procedures always have their moments of anxiety. As the year closes, we can see no reason to regret this major decision but still consider it to be the right path for this institution to follow.

Health

Facilities of the campus Infirmary and of the doctors in Troutman and the Davis Hospital's entire services have been used during the year for the boys and girls. Also, there has been the work of the dentist twice a week in the dental program, including orthodontia. The general health of the campus is good and for that we are profoundly grateful.

Annual physical examinations were held. Regular shots were given—polio, typhoid, tetanus, and others that are recommended for the health and well-being of growing boys and girls.

Home Facilities and Number of Children

At the present time we have 175 children on the campus with facilities available for approximately 210. Three of the cottages are sixty years or older and plans are now underway to replace one of these during the coming year.

The enrollment at Barium Springs has dropped from about 260 of ten years ago to the present enrollment of 175. According to the best information, it appears that the admissions are beginning to level off and that the next few years will see a continued enrollment at about the present level. The space of the Home could be filled in thirty days if all the applications received were admitted. However, the administration is still admitting only those who are a part of the Presbyterian Church directly or indirectly and who have the full approval of the local Presbyterian Church in the community from which the application comes.

Finances

A total of $316,391 was received into the "Operating Fund" of the Home during the fiscal year ended September 30, 1959. Of this amount $190,026 or 60%, came from the Presbyteries and we are most grateful for this generous support. We are indeed grateful for all the wonderful support from every source. A schedule of receipts follows:

North Carolina Presbyterians—Synod	$190,026
The Duke Endowment	11,387
Trust Funds	15,899
Memorial Educational Fund	2,434
Dividends and Interest	20,227
Individuals and Organizations	17,350
Parents, Relatives, etc.	20,998
Sale of Farm, Dairy and Orchard Products	29,502
Other Income	8,568

Total expenses for the year amounted to $286,747 for an annual "per capita cost" of slightly over $1,600. This cost is in line with other institutions of comparable size and quality of program.

A thirty-five acre campus with more than three dozen buildings requires the time and money, particularly when the buildings are old and tremendous in size. The great struggle with the elements at times seems to out-distance the forces in the fight against erosion and depreciation. The Superintendent of this department, reports that the sewer system and septic tank are functioning well; that the water system continues to be a problem; that the heat from the central heating plant has been satisfactory during the year; and that the electric lines on the campus have been maintained. He believes the buildings in the maintenance program are about par though there are many repairs yet needing to be done. Some now fall in the emergency class. Bathrooms have been installed in Lottie Walker, painting has been done in various buildings inside and out, kitchens have been overhauled in campus dwellings and many accomplishments have been made. Furniture has been put in the various cottages where it was so sorely needed. This program will continue through the coming year until all cottages have been made satisfactory and new furniture has been placed.

The Board has approved the proposal of the City of Statesville for bringing a water line to Barium Springs and has also authorized new mains and lines on the campus.

New construction on the campus includes a swimming pool, which is now practical in view of the new water supply, and new staff apartments to replace the Boyd building. We are confident that our next report will show these facilities completed and in use.

Conclusion

This report would not be complete if it failed to properly acknowledge and thank the many members of the Board, who travel from the far corners of the State, to attend the meetings and assist in establishing policies for the Superintendent and his excellent staff. The two regular meetings were well attended and each of the operating committees, after giving much time and attention to the problems at hand, accomplished their assignments in a superior manner.

The operation of the Home at Barium Springs is a tremendous task. The financing of this program takes money. This Home holds membership in the Southeastern Conference, in the North Carolina Conference, and in the Presbyterian Association of Child Caring Institutions. It is a charter member of the Child Care Project for in-service training. It seeks every opportunity for its staff members to be in touch with present day thinking in the child caring procedures.

As stated at the beginning of this report, the Board is happy indeed and well pleased with the past year's operations. The program has been well planned and the plan well executed. The Superintendent and members of the staff have proven again to be capable, dedicated people, and have truly accomplished a remarkable job in behalf of the children.

Therefore, it is with sincere gratitude to Almighty God and with a great sense of dependence upon Him that we, concluding one year, look forward to the new year in which we find ourselves serving the Church and the great Head of the Church by ministering to the boys and girls of the home.

2. The Presbyterian Home, Inc.

J. B. WATT, President

The Board of Trustees respectfully reports the major activities of the Home for the past year.

The Board met for two regular and one call session and the Executive Committee met six times for the transaction of business during 1959.

The books were audited by the A. M. Pullen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, Greensboro, N. C., and the audit shows capital worth of $1,135,651.22 as of December 31, 1959. This report shows a gain in capital for the year of $236,319.34. Of this amount, $143,174.65 was payments received on pledges to the Forward Fund (Building Fund).

There were 20 new admissions, 13 deaths, and a total of 101 persons served during 1959.

On June 28, 1959, the earthly service of Mr. W. H. Sullivan, our beloved president and leader in the development of the Home, was brought to an end. Besides his other lasting contributions to the church, civic and business affairs, the Home towers as a permanent memorial to this man whose inspiration, generosity, warmth, determination and unselfishness so fully personifies the dignity and fullness of living and the loftiest traits of ideal citizenship.

On July 8, 1959, Mr. Milton Faszholz of the American City Bureau (fund raising firm) concluded his services on behalf of the Forward Fund Campaign for $750,000.00.

In September Mr. J. D. Beaty, Raleigh, North Carolina, and Mr. H. Jack Sharpe, Thomasville, North Carolina, were employed as follow-up men for the campaign. A report of the Forward Fund's progress as of March 31, 1960, follows:

Presbytery	Pledged	Paid	Balance	Objective	Percentage
Albemarle	$ 19,868.08	$ 7,350.45	$ 12,517.63	$ 41,183.29	48.3
Concord	32,782.38	11,926.94	20,855.44	78,670.06	41.7
Fayetteville	38,383.17	18,358.59	20,024.58	100,860.04	38.0
Granville	35,617.12	7,592.42	28,024.70	54,916.47	65.0
Kings Mountain	20,457.85	10,005.60	10,452.25	58,868.28	34.8
Mecklenburg	76,498.19	31,461.27	45,036.92	207,455.03	36.8
Orange	175,515.87	95,345.58	80,170.29	104,858.71	166.6
Wilmington	9,430.08	4,910.10	4,519.98	49,930.17	18.9
Winston-Salem	54,950.27	10,345.27	44,605.00	54,218.19	101.0
TOTALS	$463,503.01	$197,296.22	$266,206.79	$750,000.00	61.8

You will note that only two Presbyteries, Orange and Winston-Salem, have exceeded their objective. There are only 237 churches from Synod who have reported on their participation in the Forward Fund.

Plans and specifications for the new residence wing, housing 46 bedrooms, and an infirmary wing, housing 39 hospital beds, have been approved by your Board of Trustees. The Board has approved proceeding with the construction if proper financing can be arranged.

During the past two years many people have visited the Home and many others have learned about the Home. However, we recognize that there are still many who do not know of the Home. May we urge you to visit the Home individually or in groups so that you may more fully understand the work of the Home.

Mr. R. A. Short, Executive Director, and Mr. Jack Sharpe, Director of Public Relations, or any member of the Board, are ready and waiting for your call to tell the story of the Home.

The Board of Trustees wishes to take this opportunity to express its appreciation for the support that you have given them and the Home. Your continued prayers, interest and support are needed.

J. B. Watt, President, Board of Trustees

3. The William Black Home, Inc.

Rev. R. H. Stone, President

In conveying to the Synod of North Carolina a report on the affairs of the William Black Home, Inc., at Montreat, N. C., your Trustees would again express their gratitude to you and to God for the privilege of having something to do with the affairs of the institution that is rendering such a fine service to many individuals of the Synod and to some beyond our bounds.

The year 1959 was a profitable one in several particulars. For the most of the Conferences the rooms were filled and many extra came in for meals because of the excellent cuisine. There was splendid cooperation between the management and those who worked under their direction. Year by year the popularity of the institution increases.

Before the season opened some needed equipment was installed in the kitchen. Other repairs and replacements were made.

For several years the cost to the guests has remained unchanged. The 1959 season experienced a much smaller margin of profit. Due to increases in salaries, wages, food, and services, your Board for the first time in several years made a slight increase in rates for the 1960 season.

Mrs. A. H. Moore, who for the past two years has been Manager, will operate the Home again for the 1960 season. Mrs. R. H. Waltman, of R.F.D. No. 3, Matthews, N. C., has been receiving reservations again this year and gives a splendid report of the requests for rooms and meals during the approaching season. The Home will be open for guests about the 15th of June and will continue through the Conference season.

Following is the financial report which has been audited by Dr. F. L. Jackson, Certified Public Accountant, of Davidson, N. C.

The White Fund has invited two guests from each of the nine Presbyteries for the period August 4-10. During the Church Extension Conference the Home will be filled with members of the Home Mission family and the White Fund guests.

We, the Trustees, covet your prayers as we make future decisions for the maintenance and operation of the Home.

Respectfully submitted,

R. H. Stone, President
Board of Trustees, William Black Home, Inc.

G. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

REV. LAWRENCE I. STELL, Chairman

Synod's Committee on Inter-Church Relations has had as its major function, the implementing of the Synod's concern in the North Carolina Council of Churches.

This has been done by hearing reports from the Rev. Morton Kurtz, a member of our own Synod, who is the Executive Director of the North Carolina Council. Mr. Kurtz called attention especially to the work with Migrants being carried on by the Council, and to the studies in Alcohol Education just getting under way.

Reports were made by our official representatives attending the 1960 meeting of the North Carolina Council, Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, and the Rev. George Webb. A large number of other Presbyterians attended the meeting, and Mrs. Harold J. Dudley was elected President of the United Church Women of the N. C. Council. Many of our Ministers and members serve on the various committees of the Council in its varied activities.

The Committee studied the serious problem of the failure of the Synod to meet in full its budget for the support of the North Carolina Council and the serious hurt resulting, in the work of the Council.

As an immediate remedy, the Committee could propose only that the Synod urge the churches to meet their apportionment in full, as this cause has so few sources of revenue open to it, and so much responsible work to do.

The 1961 meeting of the N. C. Council of Churches will be held in the White Memorial Church of Raleigh, January 31-February 1.

Recommendations:

1. That the following be named as the official representatives of Synod to the 1961 meeting of the North Carolina Council of Churches: Rev. Lawrence I. Stell, Rev. Albert G. Edwards, Mrs. Karl Burkandt.

2. That Synod's Council and Synod be requested to make the payment of $1,036.65 to the Revolving Salary Fund in the 1960 budget for this committee obligatory only after all other obligations within the budget of the Committee have been met in full.

3. That following the adoption of this report, Synod hear from Mrs. Harold J. Dudley, President of the United Church Women of the North Carolina Council of Churches, and the Rev. Morton R. Kurtz, Executive Director of the Council.

LAWRENCE STELL, Chairman

3. HIGHLIGHTS OF THE N. C. COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The North Carolina Council of Churches' Annual Assembly was held January 25-27, 1960, at Covenant Presbyterian Church, Charlotte. Excellent speakers, good attendance, and reports of progress in several areas made this a highly successful meeting in every way. The superb facilities of Covenant Church added to the pleasure of those present.

Presbyterians newly elected to high posts were: Voit Gilmore, Southern Pines, Second Vice-President; Mrs. Harold J. Dudley, Raleigh, General Chairman of the Department of United Church Women and Fourth Vice-President of the Council; I. Howard Chadwick, Charlotte, member-at-large on the Executive Board; and George M. Webb, Shelby, Chairman of the Pastoral Ministry Commission and Program Chairman for the 1961 Assembly. Hold-over members of the Executive Board include: Mrs. P. Hunter Dalton, High Point, Secretary; Harry M. Moffett, Jr., Gastonia; B. Frank Hall, Wilmington; Mrs. R. A. Willis, Monroe; John R. Cunningham, Charlotte; Harold J. Dudley, Raleigh; Kelsey Regen, Durham; and Morton R. Kurtz, the Council Director.

Dr. Ansley C. Moore, newly elected President of the Consolidated College, Laurinburg, brought the address at the luncheon on Tuesday, January 26.

Program features of the 1959-60 year included:

Christian Education

A camping Institute for Leaders held April 26-28, 1960, at Camp Martha Love; College Work Committee sponsored the Student Christian Council which held two conferences for student leaders; Recreation Committee sponsored workshops in Charlotte and Wilmington enrolling 88 churches; 33,000 students in elementary and high schools were enrolled in Weekday Bible teaching programs; U.C.Y.M. (high school youth program) continued to grow, holding spring retreat, training conference, and coordinating work of local councils. Jerry Blevins served as Director of Youth Work for the Council.

Social Action

The Alcohol Committee sponsored three workshops in the fall of 1959 at Gardner-Webb College, Morganton, and Wilson. Two others were held in May of this year at Burlington and Morehead City. The Committee drew up a statement of purpose and plans surveys in several cities to determine the extent of teen-age drinking. The Human Relations Committee initiated interracial round-table meetings in Durham and Raleigh with others planned. Three regional institutes at Asheville, Greensboro, and Goldsboro were held in May 1960, sponsored by the Institutional Ministry Committee; the theme—"The Minister and Troubled People." World Affairs Workshops at Chapel Hill and Blue Ridge were again co-sponsored by the National and World Affairs Committee, which also drafted a statement on world issues adopted by the Annual Assembly. Questionnaires on issues of concern to church people were sent to candidates for governor by the Public Affairs Committee this spring. Used clothing for overseas relief continues to be collected by the Council. A staff person to serve the important needs of this Commission—especially in the areas of Alcoholism and Human Relations—was approved by the Assembly pending sufficient financial report.

Ecumenical Relations

The Evangelism Committee sponsored, in cooperation with the National Parks Ministry, a successful series of summer worship services for campers in Doughton Park on the Blue Ridge Parkway. The program will be continued this summer. A Church Building and Architecture workshop is set for November 8 in Charlotte, sponsored by the Inter-Church Projects Committee. The Radio-TV Committee is sponsoring a three-day workshop at the University station in Chapel Hill, July 18-20. Synod's TV committee, headed by Richard E. Hildebrandt, Elkin, is closely cooperating with this project. Leslie J. Page is giving good service as Director of Radio-TV activities.

Migrant Work

The Council's Migrant Ministry continues to serve the needs of up to 14,000 farm workers over the state with a full-time summer staff of 12 workers, two day-care centers for children, and two station wagons. Preaching, Vacation Bible Schools, prayer services, hymn sings, recreational activities, and counselling are among the services rendered. Over 700 conversions and rededications were reported last year among the migrants.

Crop

Food, medicine, and tools continue to be urgently needed in many areas of the world, and CROP can meet these needs at less cost than any other relief agency. Its supplies are distributed by church workers and missionaries. The North Carolina Council of Churches is carrying on the work of CROP in this state as a voluntary effort.

Rural Church

The Convocation of Rural Churches is set for August 9-11, 1960, at State College. This should be an outstanding event in the religious life of our state. R. T. Baker, Denver, represents Synod on the Council's Rural Church Committee which sponsors this program.

Pastoral Ministry

A fine Pastors' Conference was part of the last Annual Meeting of the Council. Dr. Albert E. Day and Dr. Eugene Smith lectured in addition to Dr. Ansley C. Moore. The theme of the conference was "Achieving Christian Oneness."

Department of United Church Women

Mrs. B. Frank Hall, Wilmington, concluded her term as head of the Women's Department at the recent Assembly in Charlotte. She turned over to her successor, Mrs. Harold J. Dudley, a strong movement, covering 50 local councils and carrying on a growing program with a total annual budget for 1960 of $23,000. The Women voted to raise money for a new station wagon to be used in migrant work.

Summary

Your state Council of Churches is steadily growing in its outreach, influence, and the variety of its program. It is still hampered by lack of adequate financial support which results in too many things being left undone or done by volunteer efforts when staff help is needed. It seeks to be a faithful witness to our unity in Christ and an effective arm of its member bodies like the Synod of North Carolina, to whom it is completely responsible.

H. COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Rev. Neill R. McGeachy, Chairman

Recognizing our prime responsibility is to serve as the medium by which, through the ". . . interchange of information as to open fields and Ministers open to change . . .", the Church "may facilitate the transfer of Ministers between the various Presbyteries," (BCO #98), your Committee has agreed to meet semi-annually. At one or both of these meetings the Executive Secretaries and/or the Chairman of Church Extension of our Presbyteries will be invited to share in the interchange of information.

Since Synod has laid on this Committee the responsibility to "Exchange information . . . as to Directors of Christian Education and other lay persons available for church employment; . . ." (see Standing Rules of Synod 23:8 b (1) (a), Minutes of Synod. 1959, p. 194) your Committee has invited the Rev. Robert Turner, Director of Christian Education for the Synod, to attend the meetings of the Committee as a co-opted member.

We would call to the attention of Synod that the Ad-Interim Committee of the General Assembly to Revise the Book of Church Order will recommend restoring the status of the Commission on the Minister and His Work so that it may function not merely as a Committee but as a Commission.

The Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His work and the Board of Annuities and Relief have scheduled a conference in Montreat, August 10-11, 1960 to which representatives of all Synods and Presbyteries Committees on the Minister and His Work and of Committees on Annuities and Relief are being invited and at which the work of these two agencies of the Church will be explained and discussed.

Your chairman, since his election, has attended the only meeting of the Assembly's Committee, which was held in Atlanta on January 6-7, 1960. Mr. Graham White, Secretary of the Assembly's Committee, attended the meeting of Synod's Committee in Raleigh on February 24, 1960. He brought to our attention two matters that we would pass on to the Synod:

(1) That the average salaries of ministers in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. was $5200 in 1959 in contrast to $2100 prior to the time he assumed his work (1950).

(2) That it is wise for commissions to urge candidates for the ministry to attend seminaries of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

This latter statement has caused a great deal of comment throughout the Church. We would say to Synod that this was not made as a reflection on the standards or education provided by seminaries outside our bounds but simply to inform the Presbyteries that "when a candidate attends a seminary outside our Church he loses contact with the Church and it becomes increasingly difficult for him upon graduation to receive a call to a church within our denomination." (From the statement made by Mr. R. Graham White to your committee, 2-24-60).

In the light of these matters, your Committee makes the following recommendations:

(1) The members of Presbyteries' Commissions be urged to read the report of the Assembly's Committee to the 1960 General Assembly, and also the actions taken by the 1960 General Assembly relating to the Minister and His Work.

(2) The General Council of the General Assembly has made a study of "The Office of the Minister." This has been approved by the General Assembly and is being sent to the Presbyteries for study. We recommend that Synod urge the Presbyteries to give thoughtful and prayerful study to this paper.

(3) That Synod again commend the Chairman and members of the Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries for their diligence and for the results their work has already produced.

(4) That Synod endorse the Conference to be held in Montreat, N. C., August 10-11, 1960 by the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work and the Board of Annuities and Relief, and authorize the attendance of those involved on the Synod level and urge the attendance of those concerned on the Presbytery level.

(5) That Synod refer to the Layman's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries the responsibility of studying the feasibility of a financial program to assure the ministers and their wives a place in our Presbyterian Home, if they so choose and if space is available after retirement.

Neill R. McGeachy, Chairman

I. REPORT ON THE PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY

By Rev. J. N. Brown, Chairman

The Presbyterian Survey is rendering a valuable service in keeping Presbyterians informed about the work of the church. Wherever it has been carefully read and studied, it has caused a greater enthusiasm for the general program of the church, and in many instances a greater effort has been put forth for the causes of Stewardship and Evangelism.

Whereas, some of the larger churches have not subscribed to the Every-Family Plan, yet the increase in new subscriptions during the last year has been most encouraging.

We therefore recommend:

1. That the Synod urge all the churches, both large and small, to enroll in the Every-Family Plan, at the reduced rate of $1.00 per year.

2. That the Synod request every Presbytery to continue a permanent committee on the Presbyterian Survey.

3. That the Synod express its gratitude and appreciation to all of the members of the committee, who have so faithfully discharged their responsibility in promoting the Presbyterian Survey Campaign in each Presbytery.

J. N. Brown, Chairman

J. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

Rev. Richard R. Gammon, Chairman

1. That the various vacancies occurring at this meeting of Synod on the several Agencies of Synod by virtue of the creation of new committees or offices, or because of the expiration of terms of office, or by resignation, death, or otherwise, be filled as follows: (See DIRECTORY).
2. That interim appointments of the Moderator since Synod last met be approved. (All included in the DIRECTORY).
3. That Synod express appreciation to those who have served faithfully as members of Boards, Committees, etc., especially those whose terms of office expire with this meeting of Synod.
4. That the Standing Rules of Synod be amended at Rule 23:9a, in order to increase the membership of the Permanent Committee on Nominations to eleven, including one woman member.
5. That the Standing Rules of Synod be amended at Rule 20:2a, in order to increase the membership of the Executive Committee on Educational Institutions to 20, including the Chairman of Higher Education, or her counterpart, in the Synodical.

K. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

REV. HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

1. That Rule 20:1a be amended by changing the number of members to 20, and adding the words "the Synodical President, ex officio and" after the word "including", line 2.
2. That Rule 23:1e be amended by adding, "and members eligible for re-election."
3. That Rule 23:7f be amended by the deletion of the words, "on CROP, Migrant Work, and Rural Church".
4. That Rule 24:1a be amended by adding to the first sentence the words, "except as otherwise set forth in these Rules".
5. That Rule 24:3d be amended by changing the word "shall" to "should", and adding the word "approximately" before "thirty days before the meeting of Synod".
6. That Rule 24:4 be amended by making the sentence read, "The Council, Committees and other Agencies of Synod may recommend to the Permanent Committee on Nominations persons to fill vacancies occurring on the Council, Committees, and Boards of Agencies and Institutions of Synod, or persons assigned to them as Executives of their work".
7. That Rule 27:4 be amended by adding the words, "until the funds are exhausted" after the word "budget", in line 7; and by adding the word "operating" after the word "all" in next to the last line.
8. That Rule 29:2 be amended by adding the words "or their agents" after the word "Committee" in the first line.
9. That Rule 30:1b be amended by substituting for the words "seventy-five cents" in line 1, "one dollar".

10. That Rule 30:1c be amended by substituting for the word "is" in the last line of the Rule, "shall be compelled".
11. That the portion of the Report which was placed on the docket for final adoption at this meeting of Synod, and not affected by the Report of the Committee at this meeting, be finally adopted.
12. That Synod suspend its Standing Rules in order to make effective immediately changes in the Standing Rules as recommended above and recommendations in other Reports to Synod bearing on changes in the Standing Rules.
13. That the Stated Clerk be empowered to make other such changes as may be necessary to bring the Rules into conformity with actions taken at this meeting of Synod.

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

L. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK

REV. J. MURPHY SMITH, Chairman

The Committee On Women's Work hereby commends the officers of the Women of the Synod for their leadership and inspiration, and the local organizations of Women's Work for the fine work that they have done during the year in the church. Following the theme of "Understanding The Bible", the Women have done much to stimulate Bible study in our local churches. In many churches the Women of the Church have encouraged and urged the entire church to study the Book of Genesis under the guidebook title "Let There Be Light." Some churches have conducted this study in place of the regular Sunday evening service, while others that do not ordinarily have a Sunday evening service, have met for this Bible study at that time. It has been interesting to see the varied methods by which the study has been presented in the different churches.

Our Committee would call the attention of Synod to the Synodical Training School, which is held the first part of June at Queens College in Charlotte. The quality of work that the school is doing, the attendance of the Women of the Synod of the school, and its importance in the life of the local Women of the Church organizations seems to be increasing all the time. It has become an important factor in the work of the women of the entire Synod.

The Synodical meeting was held in the Covenant Presbyterian Church in Charlotte last September, and was attended by the chairman of this committee. We commend the Executive Board of the Women of the Synod for the planning and conduct of such a inspirational meeting.

Recommendation:

That the Women of the Synod be thanked and commended for their faithful work and service in the church, and that the Synod now hear the report of the Women of the Church of the Synod of North Carolina as presented by its president, Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin.

J. MURPHY SMITH, Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE WOMEN OF THE SYNOD

Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, President

It is with a deep sense of gratitude to God for what He has accomplished through the Women of the Church, Synod of North Carolina, that this report is presented. It is in part a story of how 55,260 women have moved forward in every phase of the work; study, service, and gifts for Christ through His Church during the year 1958-59.

Beginning with the Annual Synodical Meeting in September '58, followed by the nine Presbyterial Meetings, and forty-three District Meetings, the Church-wide Emphasis was made central in the program of Women's Work. Reports give proof that through these channels there has been a renewed understanding of God's plan and purpose for His church around the world and that a deepened sense of fellowship has been felt for His entire "family of faith."

Using the offcial Book of the Church, the Bible, for a reader, the Presbyterian Woman's Workbook for a guide, in addition to a family study "Through Conflict to Victory," the individual woman has become seriously interested in studying for the enrichment of her own life and for the purpose of helping those so pitifully enveloped in the foggy webs of today's living.

Presbyterials differed in their methods of presenting World and Home Mission emphasis. Speakers appearing in different areas were: Dr. Sandy Marks, Dr. Darby Fulton, Miss Irece Wanderly, Mr. Charles Sydnor, Dr. Newton and Dr. James Carr. In many instances visual aids were the means of promotion. One Presbyterial gleaned best results from a School of Missions, thus tying together every department of the Church.

Church censors reveal that more women are supporting teachers in public schools, cooperating with other church and civic groups in community projects, working with Negroes, promoting better leadership through one-day conferences, assisting in vacation Bible Schools, visits have been made by some groups to the camp for migrant workers. All report observance of the special seasons designated by the United Council of Churches.

The women have responded generously to the greatest need in our world today, Christian Education. They serve as appointed and by virtue of their offices on Boards and committees. They visit schools and colleges as the opportunities arise. They give twenty-seven scholarships each year to deserving young people. Twenty-five of Synod's Institutions, one to Stillman College, two to the Presbyterian School for Christian Education. They strive to interest young people in attending church-related schools. They are seeking to learn more about the Christian Campus Life Program.

Again we would note that figures reveal only a part of the picture growth or lack of it, but the fact noted from the report of gifts proves vital interest and concern for others on the part of the Women of our Church. In addition to the apportioned amounts set up in the budget special contributions include $1,593.17 sent to Flora Macdonald, Presbyterian Junior College, and Consolidated College; $1,389.44 to camp sites for the young of our church; $2,207 to Mission Court, our furlough home for missionaries; contributions were sent through the Joy Gift to brighten the lives of those who gave so much of themselves to the ongoing program of the church, Birthday Offering largest ever $27,699.51, per capita gift still under fifty cents. $10,271.31 has been paid on the $10,000 project for the year, Synod's Office Building.

Thousands of pounds of clothing have been sent through Church World Service for people overseas. White Cross quota exceeded its full $1,684.10 askings, and a surplus of $4,114.90 was sent to help with shipping of additional supplies for medical work in the mission fields.

To the end that women may better meet the unlimited opportunities of the times there must be adequate preparation so that the most effective use of time, talents and energy may be made. To this end training for developing leadership is offered to all women in all churches through Planning Sessions, Training Classes and Retreats on the Presbyterial level; a training school and Interdenominational Christian Conference on the Synodical level; and a Conference at Montreat for leaders from 16 Synodicals. 503 assembled at Queens College for courses and methods offered there. Four received certificates and six diplomas in recognition of the completion of eight and twelve courses respectively. Representatives were sent by locals to Winston-Salem for the Interdenominational Christian Conference of Negro Women.

Eight members of the Synodical Executive Board are privileged to serve as representatives on Synod's Committees.

The Women of the Church today cherish the rich heritage which is theirs, and they are endeavoring to hold steady the high ideals, the fine principles and the loving service which has characterized the preceding 46 years through a greater dedication of their hearts, their minds, and their hands.

M. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD MISSIONS 1960

REV. HARRY H. BRYAN, Chairman

World Missions is the cause of the church that most Presbyterians in our Synod affirm to be of supreme importance and yet many relegate to a place of minor emphasis and promotion.

This is reflected in the scarcity of North Carolina young people now offering to fill the places of service in the nine areas in the world having pressing needs for missionaries. It is also reflected in the delayed and often casual planning for missionary education. Books and visual aids of the highest order are offered, missionary speakers are made available, and through oversight and poor coordination such opportunities are missed. The result is that many are not inspired who would give to the world mission of the church. When face to face with global issues, we see the Christian gospel to be of vital significance and must fit our programs in the churches to our belief in its importance.

To enable us to see the true picture of our participation, your Committee through its Presbytery and Presbyterial Chairmen expects to give publicity to a Missionary Service Roll of the sons and daughters of our churches presently overseas. We are also suggesting to churches and to individuals, the plan that the Board has adopted for "Personalized Giving." This will be particularly applicable when the supplemental offering is being stressed.

At the close of 1959 our missions abroad have sent reports of significant events and we bring these to the attention of Synod:

1. The self-determination of the Congo Church in the midst of the current independence movement proves that the consecration of the missionaries and the sturdy training given the Congolese of the Kasai have prepared the way for what is taking place. The migration of great segments of the population has uprooted institutions and long-established work but a wise and patient leadership is prepared to meet this and other problems. A minister of this Synod, Dr. Harry M. Moffett, has recently been sent by the Board of World

Missions of which he is a member, to confer with the Church that we have established in the Kasai as it faces autonomous status in the light of political independence in the country.

2. The right impression of a dynamic national church with aims and purposes appropriate to a great nation has come as a result of the 1959 celebration of the Centennial of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil. Our denomination honored itself and the Brazilian Church by arranging for worthy representation at the significant gatherings last summer. The outstanding need facing this grown-up, yet newly-invigorated church is that it assume more responsibility for the extension of the gospel in yet unreached parts of the country and for the establishment of a dynamic Christian witness in Brasilia, the fabulous new Capital of the nation.

3. Our largest work for the Chinese at present is in Taiwan, Free China. That our long-time mainland missionaries had the foresight to move into this area at the beginning of the new alignment due to Communist infiltration becomes a saga of Church history. Prayer for the church on the mainland must continue to be a strong resource, and prayer linked with service is the opportunity in Taiwan. Methods are changing to meeet new situations and we should strengthen the limited forces now assigned to this country.

4. In Japan, as in Brazil, a Centennial has just been celebrated, carrying the strong witness to the country that the plans intended. The activity and outstanding service of Presbyterian groups to relieve suffering after the typhoon, "Vera", bore equally as great a witness. The part of Yodogawa Hospital, our newest medical work in any field, was outstanding in the crisis. The main-stream of Christian advance through the organized church challenges many new members of our Japan Mission, and new missionaries who share their spirit are now strengthening the total impact. To reach more of the student population seems to be the present emphasis. We note the recent death of Toyohiko Kagawa. As a student he was led to Christ by two of our Missionaries. No Japanese of his generation has done more to make Christ known through word and deed than has Kagawa.

5. Turbulence is the word for the Church in Korea, and in recent weeks would describe the nation as a whole. Differences in polity and policy in the already autonomous church stemmed largely from comparatively minor problems. Men whose very characteristic has been that of the true martyr in great issues have bogged down in jealousy and insistence on personal rights and opinions. The statesmanship displayed by our missionaries and Board representatives has become a moving chapter in Korean church life. It should be our fervent prayer that the educational, medical, and a unified church program will regain ground lost by recent inner conflicts.

6. Signs of coming-of-age have affected the Church in Mexico and its General Assembly. We note that our own Church Assembly has met the issue forthrightly by sending experienced church leaders to that country for conference and fellowship. A member of this Synod, Dr. James A. Jones, is on the three-man Committee delegated to meet with the Mexican churchmen. Vast areas in that country where a desperate hunger for what the gospel of Christ brings remains the greatest challenge.

7. At last, we have a missionary couple of our own church being sent to make a contribution to the Presbyterian witness in Portugal.

The approach that we are making in cooperation with the Brazilian and the United Presbyterian Church, USA, has already proven wise in this almost impregnable fortress of a decadent established church.

8. In Ecuador we are also working with the same official bodies to meet a pressing problem in which our interest to evangelize has been shared for ten years, and this year for the first time a brighter outlook has emerged.

9. In Iraq we work with those long-experienced in witnessing to Moslems and we should be grateful that we can have a share with them in this crucial effort. Missionaries are again on the field and church groups now worship unmolested. Lack of effective leadership delays the formation of a national church. Our Board has recently found a well qualified couple who are offering to serve in this field.

Nine fields of endeavor—all pleading for reinforced missionary personnel. And there is a need to give adequate financial emphasis in support to our Board as it constantly endeavors to keep abreast of shifting situations in the work.

The Church has taken to heart Overseas-Relief projects of all kinds and should continue in every possible way to do its part to relieve human suffering, and to assist weakened Church groups. This is especially meaningful when the Christian witness will be strengthened thereby. Therefore it is important that our church people give for such causes through the Division of the Board of World Missions responsible for the right placing and use of such funds. Full participation in the Clothing Collections of the North Carolina Council of Churches and United Church Women is the practical plan in our area to accomplish much in cooperation with Church World Service.

Recommendations:

1. That the 1960 Yearbook and Report of the Board of World Missions, available to all Elders who request it, and mailed directly to all ministers, be thoughtfully and prayerfully read; and that the recommendations adopted by the General Assembly receive earnest consideration by Church Sessions.

2. That the Board's program of recruitment of new missionaries, and its specified date of September 1, 1960, for the mailing of names of prospects, receive careful attention in our churches.

3. That Presbyteries of the Synod accept and emphasize the askings of Synod's Budget for World Missions so that the needs for projected work in the churches and institutions overseas be more adequately met.

4. That churches in our Synod be specifically urged to have as many representatives as possible at the World Mission Conference in Montreat, July 28—August 3, 1960, so that their young people might come closely in touch with the call to mission service, and that church leaders might plan for visits of missionaries to local churches through the fall, winter, and spring months.

5. That the 1961 World Mission Season, February 1—March 5, with its striking theme, "Into All The World Together", be prepared for and fully observed in the churches, and that a strong appeal be given for a supplemental offering, not neglecting the appropriateness of self-denial for this cause.

6. That we support the total program of Over Seas Relief and Inter-Church Aid through the established plans of Church World Service, and through the Easter offering.

7. That Synod's Council be requested to Study a Pre-Synod Conference on World Missions of the Church in 1961 or 1962, with provisions similar to those now enjoyed by the Conference on Evangelism, and that representation from Synod's World Mission Committee be asked to meet with the Council for consideration of this recommendation, and then to plan such a Pre-Synod Conference.

8. That pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. Harry M. Moffett, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Gastonia.

Harry H. Bryan, Chairman

VI. REPORTS OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF THE CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

DR. FRONTIS JOHNSTON, Chairman

Since the Assembly Centennial Committee has already made plans to brief the Chairmen of Synod and Presbytery Committees on the purposes and plans for the celebration, the Chairman of the Synod Committee in North Carolina has felt it best to leave plans for the North Carolina Synod celebration flexible until this briefing is held in the early fall. The Chairman is making plans to attend this meeting as a representative of the Assembly Committee. When the date has been set all Presbytery and Synod chairmen will be urged to attend a general briefing, the purposes of which, as planned by the Assembly Committee, are educational and inspirational. It is the belief of your Committee that our final plans for the Synod meeting of 1961 can be matured and finalized best after we have benefited from this projected meeting with Assembly representatives.

The Synod Committee has two requests to make as recommendations. First, we recommend that the Committee on Program and Worship set an order for at least one outstanding speaker on the centennial theme at the 1961 meeting of Synod, and that particular attention be given, where possible, to the Presbyterian heritage and mission. Second, we recommend to the Council that Synod invite the Synodical to meet in the same city at the same time, so that joint sessions in celebration of the centennial will be possible.

FRONTIS W. JOHNSTON, Chairman

B. REPORT OF LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERS' SALARIES

J. B. BREWER, Chairman

During the past year your Committee on Ministers' Salaries has confined its work to the Presbytery level and to efforts to get this same work started in other Presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. Each Presbytery was requested to appoint two Laymen to work with our Committee Member as Chairman and our reports show that all Presbyteries have been attempting to meet all of the recommendations made to them by the Synod of North Carolina. We thought it wise to confine our work to this field during this past year and we believe that all of our Presbyteries are fully aware of all the facts pointed out in our Study and have adopted plans to adequately relieve the Minister of the responsibility for paying costs from his salary which should be borne by the Church or Churches.

Your Committee has made a great effort to get this same movement started in other Synods and Presbyteries of our Church. Your Chairman has been to Atlanta twice and conferred with Mr. R. Graham White, Secretary of the Assembly's Committee on The Minister and His Work. Mr. White reports that the work of your Committee in the Synod of North Carolina has been mentioned all over our Church, and we have received requests for information from as far away as Kansas. Mr. White believes that this same work is now beginning to be considered in all of our Synods and Presbyteries. The Synod of West Virginia appointed a Laymen's Committee over a year ago. They are making their report to the Synod of West Virginia in May. They have closely followed the plan and procedures of your Committee in North Carolina. Your Chairman has been invited to speak to the Synod of South Carolina at Charleston on May 17th and it is my great hope that the Synod of South Carolina will appoint a Laymen's Committee and begin this same work there. We know that the work is going on in Texas, Florida, and Tennessee, but we have not been able to secure definite information at this time of their progress.

It is the desire of your Committee to have this matter reach the floor of the General Assembly at its meeting next year and your Committee requests the assistance of the Synod of North Carolina in helping us get this same Laymen's movement started in all of our Synods. Letters to acquaintances in other Synods outlining the work done in the Synod of North Carolina would be of great help. Your Committee cannot consider its work complete until every Synod in our Church has an active Laymen's Committee at work on this important question of reasonable and adequate salaries and expense allowances for our Ministers.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

A. REPORT AND MINUTES OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE A. T. McCALLUM ESTATE

REV. W. B. HEYWARD, Chairman

The Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate submit the following to the Synod of North Carolina, meeting in Greenville on June 14, 1960.

The Trustees received the Audit of the Estate made by Archibald K. Lovin, Certified Public Accountant, Red Springs, North Carolina, showing the income and the expense of the Estate during the year, January 1, 1959, through December 31, 1959. During the year there was an excess of expense and annuities over receipts amounting to $1,875.77. Thus there are no funds for distribution in accordance with Item VI (G) of the will of A. T. McCallum.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Estate is being well handled.

The Trustees call to the attention of Synod the death early this year, of Mrs. Agnes T. McCallum of Red Springs, North Carolina. She was the widow of A. T. McCallum, whose Estate will continue to benefit various specified causes of the church.

The Trustees suggest that the Synod be led in a prayer of Thanksgiving to God for the lives of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McCallum, who through their piety and generosity bore such an effective and continuing witness to their faith in Christ and His church.

W. B. HEYWARD, Chairman

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECORDS

REV. E. D. WITHERSPOON, Chairman

Your Committee on Records received, and read carefully, copies of the Minutes of Presbyteries as follows: Albemarle, January 27, 1959 through October 13, 1959; Concord, July 21, 1959 through January 19, 1960; Fayetteville, July 30, 1959 through January 26, 1960; Granville, January 27, 1959 through November 23, 1959; Kings Mountain, January 20, 1959 through October 20, 1959; Mecklenburg, September 15, 1959 through April 19, 1960; Orange, July 16, 1959, through January 21, 1960; Wilmington, April 22, 1959, through December 11, 1959; Winston-Salem, May 5, 1959, through January 19, 1959.

The examination of these Minutes revealed that they were well recorded and in proper form, except in the failure of Granville Presbytery to record the terms of Ministers' calls on page 6, March 11, 1959, and page 7, July 28, 1959. (According to the action of Synod, 1956 Minutes, this is required.)

Your Committee also examined the Minutes of the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly, and the Minutes of the One Hundred and Forty-Sixth annual meeting of the Synod of North Carolina. These Minutes were found to be in good and proper order, both sets speaking of the excellent work done by the Stated Clerks of these bodies.

Your Committee wishes to commend the very excellent work of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries in keeping the Minutes of their respective Presbyteries, and offers the following recommendation:

1. That Synod express its appreciation to the Clerks of the Presbyteries for the accurate and orderly manner in which the records of the Presbyteries have been kept.

E. D. Witherspoon, Chairman

C. REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF SYNOD

W. E. Price, Chairman

Last year we reported the contingency of borrowing a maximum for the Chapel Hill Student Center of $73,000. The Synod had authorized borrowing, if necessary, as much as $100,000. We found it necessary to borrow only $58,300, and a loan was negotiated with the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, Raleigh. We are happy to report that, as a result of the Synod's Office receiving sufficient payments on pledges, the note was liquidated by January 29, 1960. The interest on the note amounted to $1,579.78.

We were authorized to borrow up to $45,000, if necessary, for the North Carolina State College Student Center at the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church. Fortunately it was necessary to borrow only $15,000 in order to meet our immediate obligation to provide the funds promised by April 1, 1960. The funds for this loan were advanced from some funds temporarily available in Synod's Office at no interest. If pledges continue good for the next several months, in order that the funds may be paid back, it is likely that it will not be necessary to negotiate a loan at interest, though the way is clear to borrow from the bank, if necessary.

We were called upon in May to transfer back to Mr. J. W. York the deed to the property originally donated by him and his associates in Cameron Village, Raleigh, in order that a new deed might be delivered to us for the new and slightly larger site on which the Synod's Office Building is being constructed.

W. E. Price, Chairman

VIII. STANDING RULES OF SYNOD

HAROLD J. DUDLEY, Chairman

SECTION I

GOVERNMENT

Rule 1:1. The Rules of Parliamentary Order adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and printed in the Book of Church Order, and the Standing Rules hereinafter provided, shall be the Rules of Order for the guidance of the Synod.

1:2. To rescind, adopt or amend a Standing Rule, the suggested change shall be introduced at a regular meeting, and adopted by a majority affirmative vote of those present at the next, or a subsequent, regular stated meeting.

1:3. To suspend a Standing Rule shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present.

1:4. Any Standing Rule, or appointment of the Synod in conflict with these Standing Rules, is hereby rescinded.

SECTION II

REPRESENTATION

Rule 2:1. Each Session shall be represented at a meeting of Synod by one representative, except as otherwise provided for in the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 80 (as revised by the 1956 General Assembly). Sessions are urged to elect Ruling Elders who will plan to attend the whole session of Synod, and to register the principal and the alternate with the Stated Clerk not later than ten days before the meeting of Synod.

SECTION III

OFFICERS

Rule 3:1. The officers of the Synod shall be a Moderator, a General Secretary, a Permanent Clerk, and an Assistant Clerk.

A. MODERATOR

Rule 4:1. The Moderator shall be elected each year, to serve until his successor is elected. A Moderator may be nominated at each Synod, to be elected at the next meeting of Synod; however, such a nomination shall not preclude other nominations from the floor at the meeting of the Synod when the new Moderator is elected. The ordinary duties of the Moderator are set forth in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 53 and 82, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 1-19.

4:2. The Moderator shall have power, in the interim of the meetings of Synod, to fill, at his discretion, vacancies occurring in any office of the Synod, except Boards of Institutions which have no limited tenure of office, by appointment until the next annual meeting.

B. GENERAL SECRETARY

Rule 5:1. The duties of the General Secretary shall be as follows: To perform the duties of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod; to serve as Central Treasurer of Synod; to act as Treasurer of the Executive Committees on Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, and Educational Institutions; to promote by co-ordinated publicity the total work of the Synod (See Rule 8); to serve as an agent of the Executive Committees on Church Extension (See Rule 9), Campus Christian Life (See Rule 20a), and Educational Institutions (See Rule 20b); and to urge a program of Christian tSewardship upon the constituency of the Synod. (See Section II, Item I, Reorganization Plan 1951 Minutes of Synod.)

1. As Stated Clerk

Rule 6:1. The duties of the Stated Clerk are set forth in general in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 54, 82, and 84, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 20 and 21.

6:2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk, when he is elected and enters upon the duties of his office, at the opening of the Synod immediately succeeding that at which he is elected, to report to the Synod in writing and in full, whatever he has received from his predecessor, in the way of Books, Papers, Records, Documents, Furniture, etc., and the condition of the same when received.

6:3. The Stated Clerk shall conduct the correspondence of the Synod and shall publish a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Synod at least once, a month before the appointed day. He shall sign all necessary certificates for the same, or for other official purposes of the Synod or its members.

6:4. He shall mail, in advance of Synod, copies of Reports, together with copies of the Program, to all Commissioners to Synod.

6:5. He shall have at each meeting of Synod accessible to the Moderator a sufficient number of copies of the printed reports of the Program Committee, a copy of the last printed Minutes of the General Assembly, and a copy of Alexander's Digest.

6:6. He shall edit the Minutes of the Synod for the printer, after their approval by the Synod, and shall transmit the Records annually to the General Assembly for review. (The word "edit" here is used to refer to corrections in spelling, punctuation, etc.) He shall cause to be published annually in pamphlet form, at least one thousand copies of the Minutes, as soon as practicable after adjournment, and distribute these among the members of the Synod and Church Sessions.

6.7. He shall cause to be published in the Appendix to the printed Minutes, the reports of the Presbyteries on Statistics, the reports of the Executive and Permanent Committees, and such reports of Trustees and Regents as may be required.

6:8. He shall forward a copy of the printed Minutes annually to the libraries of Union Seminary, Davidson College, the Presbyterian Historical Society of Philadelphia, and the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and he shall file at least three copies in the archives of Synod.

6:9. He shall be charged with the further duty of reporting to the Moderator any vacancies to be filled by his appointment, and any deaths in the Ministry that may occur, and of reporting to the Synod the expiration of the term of service of its officers and members of its committees, according to the Standing Rules. He shall present to the Synod the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries. He shall collect and cause to be preserved all historical matter relating to the life of the Synod.

6:10. The Stated Clerk shall also serve as Treasurer of the Synod for the Office of Stated Clerk. As Treasurer it shall be his duty to keep a strict and accurate account of all funds received and disbursed, showing what Presbyteries have paid or have not paid their assessments, and for what purpose the funds have been disbursed. He shall submit to the Synod annually his books, together with a report of receipts and expenditures, presenting vouchers for the same.

6:11. The Stated Clerk shall act as Secretary to the Committee charged with the distribution of the income from the Mrs. Kate Bitting Reynolds Fund for Aged Ministers of the Synod of North Carolina, and shall keep a record of all transactions connected therewith. He shall make a distribution as provided for in this Trust Fund, and the plan of distribution as adopted by Synod.

6:12. The term of office of the Stated Clerk shall be three years.

2. As Central Treasurer

Rule 7:1. The Central Treasurer shall distribute all benevolence income received from various sources to the proper Agencies of the Synod, according to the actions of the Synod, governing its benevolence program.

3. As Public Relations Clerk

Rule 8:1. It shall be the duty of the Public Relations Clerk:

8:2. to prepare a daily account of the proceedings of the Synod for the daily papers;

8:3. to make the account as full, complete and vigorous as possible, stressing those matters of interest to the general public;

8:4. to act as the representative of the Synod during the interim between its meetings in endeavoring to secure through the secular press adequate account of occurrences in the life of the Churches of Synod which are of significance and interest.

4. As Secretary of Church Extension

Rule 9:1. The Secretary of Church Extension shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee of Church Extension, have supervision of the Synod's home mission work, including that of its evangelists. He shall seek to develop and coordinate all phases of home mission work within the bounds of the Synod.

9:2. He shall serve as Treasurer of Synod's Church Extension Funds. Disbursements of such funds, payment of all salaries, grants, loans, and authorized expenditures, shall be made by the Treasurer as directed by the Committee.

5. As Secretary of Higher Education

Rule 10:1. Acting under the direction of the Executive Committee on Educational Institutions, the Secretary of Higher Education shall promote the interest of the educational institutions of the Synod, and seek to make them more effective in training the youth of the church for a greater usefulness in Christian service.

Rule 10:2. Acting under the direction of the Executive Committee on Campus Christian Life, the Secretary of Higher Education shall promote the interests of the cause of Campus Christian Life within the bounds of Synod and seek to make effective the program of work relating to student work and other phases of Campus Christian Life.

Rule 10:3. The Secretary of Higher Education shall receive and disperse such funds as are contributed respectively for the causes of Campus Christian Life and Educational Institutions.

C. PERMANENT CLERK

Rule 11:1. It shall be the duty of the Permanent Clerk to engross with the aid of the Assistant Clerk, the daily Minutes of the Synod; to read said Minutes as required by the Synod for information, correction, and approval; and to deliver such Minutes to the Stated Clerk.

11:2. The term of office of the Permanent Clerk shall be three years and his compensation shall be fifty dollars ($50) per annum.

D. ASSISTANT CLERK

Rule 12:1. The duties of this office are implicit in its name. The Assistant Clerk shall be elected annually, to serve during the Session of Synod, and his compensation shall be twenty-five ($25) dollars.

E. DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 13:1. The Director of Christian Education, whose term of office shall be for three years, acting under the general direction of the Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education shall be charged with the special supervision and direction of the Synod's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to promoting, developing, and coordinating all departments and phases of Christian Education within the bounds of Synod.

F. DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

Rule 14:1. The Director of Evangelism, whose term of office shall be three years, shall conduct his work under the direction of Synod's sub-committee on Evangelism, of the Committee on Church Extension, making annual report to the Synod through this Committee.

SECTION IV

TRUSTEES

A. OF THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

Rule 15:1. The Trustees of the Synod shall be six in number, two to be elected annually, and shall serve each for a term of three years.

15:2. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees as the Synod's agency in all matters requiring the aid or use of the civil law, to receive, take charge of, and manage to the best advantage, and account to the Synod for, according to law, all property and estate belonging, or which may accrue and enure to this Synod. They shall hold in trust, subject to the order of Synod, the said property, and all legacies and bequests which may be willed to the Synod in behalf of charitable and other objects under its control. They shall make a full report, in the premises, whenever occasion or circumstance shall require.

B. OF INSTITUTIONS

Rule 16. The Synod shall elect annually

16:1. Two members of the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary, whose term of office shall be five years.

16:2. Five members of the Board of Regents of the Orphans' Home, whose term of office shall be four years. It is further provided that no regent shall serve more than two successive terms.

16:3. Nine (9) members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Junior College for Men, Inc., whose term of service shall be three years; and three Trustees nominated by the Women-of-the-Synod; and three Trustees nominated by the Alumni Association whose term of office shall be one year.

16:4. Five members of the Board of Trustees of the William Black Home for Religious Workers, whose term of service shall be for three years, and four members of this Board shall be women. (See Rule 23:9d.) (See 1950 Minutes of Synod, pg. 393).

16:5. Seven members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Home, whose term of office shall be three years. Of these members at least two shall be women, and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times by at least one male member. The President of the Women-of-the-Synod and the Chairman of Church Extension of the Women-of-the-Synod shall be members ex-officio.

16:6. Twelve members of the Board of Directors of the Consolidated Presbyterian College, whose term of service shall be for three years; and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times on the Board by at least two members.

16:7. The Synod shall elect ten members of the Board of Trustees of Queens College for a term of four years each. Nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to the nominees submitted by the Board of Trustees. These Trustees shall be divided into four classes and shall be eligible for re-election.

16:8. The Synod shall triennially elect a Trustee of the Mountain Retreat Association.

This rate shall also apply to those guests of Synod who are approved by the Program Committee. All visitors of Synod shall make arrangements for their own entertainment, and shall be charged for meals at the prevailing rate, by the host institution or church.

30:1b. A church entertaining Synod shall be paid an amount not exceeding one dollar a meal for each member of Synod and for guests, when such church shall be serving one or two meals at the church building or other central place.

30:1c. Official representatives of Synod and guests shall be furnished with meal tickets when registering, which shall be collected at the dining-room; and the host institution or church shall be reimbursed by Synod on the basis of the meals served, as verified by the tickets, and as otherwise provided by the Standing Rules, and no institution or church shall be compelled to sustain a loss in the entertainment of the Synod.

Rule 31:1. Expenses. Per capita assessment for Synod's expenses shall be of sufficient amount to meet the expenses of the Stated Clerk's office and such appropriations as are made by Synod to be paid from this fund.

31:2. All salaried officers of the Synod, or any of its agencies, shall be elected by the Synod, and the term of office and compensation shall be fixed by the Synod.

31:3. The necessary expenses of the Executive Committees shall be paid from the funds available for the work conducted under the supervision of these Committees.

31:4. The expenses of the Council shall be borne by Synod's Office.

31:5. The necessary expenses of Permanent Committees shall be paid by the Synod from its Treasury, unless otherwise provided for.

31:6. When travel of committee members is by public transportation, the expense shall be the actual cost. When travel is by car, the mileage shall be figured at seven cents per mile.

Rule 32:1. Orders. Following the enrollment at the opening session of Synod, the Moderator shall introduce to the Synod all ministers who have been received into its constituent Presbyteries since the last Stated Meeting.

32:2. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be held on the first day of the Synod's meeting during the afternoon session and following the retiring Moderator's sermon.

32:3. The names of the Ministers of Synod who have died during the Synodical year shall be read in connection with the annual Communion Service, and an adequate memorial of each, not to exceed approximately 500 words, shall be printed in the Minutes of Synod.

32:4. The Program Committee shall provide the services of a stenographer for Committees of Synod.

32:5. The Minutes of Agencies under the control of Synod shall be made available to Synod or Synod's Council upon request.

32:6. No new matter of business may be introduced to Synod later than recess for lunch on the second day of the meeting of Synod.

[1]–Spiritual Birthrate is determined by dividing the membership at the beginning of the Church year into the accessions on profession of faith during the year and is measured in percentage, the higher the percentage the better the standing. Soul-winning ratio is determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith during the year into the total membership at the beginning of the year and represents the number of church members required to win one person to Christ. The lower the number the better the standing.

MODERATOR OF SYNOD—1961

Dr. Warner L. Hall, Minister of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, is a native of Covington, Tennessee, the son of Warner L. and Leila Perkins Hall. He is a graduate of Southwestern (1929), holding the A.B. degree; Louisville Seminary, (1932), B.D. degree; Edinburgh (1934), Ph.D. degree; Southwestern, D.D. (1956). He has served pastorates at Leland, Mississippi, 1934-1936; Lexington, Kentucky, 1936-1940; Tuscaloosa, Alabama, 1940-1946; and the Covenant Church, Charlotte, since 1946. He is Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. Hall has served as Moderator of the Synod of Alabama, and has been a member of numerous Boards and agencies of the General Assembly and the Synod. He has rendered special service in the field of Higher Education. He is frequently in demand as a speaker for schools and colleges.

Dr. Hall has rendered service both on the local level and interdenominationally. In 1956 he was exchange minister at West High Church of Scotland, Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, Scotland.

Dr. Hall is married to the former Lucy Farrow of Memphis. They have two children and one grandchild.

A. From Kings Mountain Presbytery:

1. That Synod instruct its agencies and committees that, in the preparation of their budgets each year for the following church year, they carefully survey their work and its anticipated needs, and include in the proposed budget only those amounts which are actually needed.

2. That Synod instruct its Council that, in its compilation of the budgets of the various Agencies of Synod and the preparation of a total budget for Synod's Benevolence Budget, it shall include only those amounts which are requested by the Agencies of Synod.

(Synod answered both Overtures in the negative.)

B. From Mecklenburg Presbytery (Referred to Long-Range Planning Committee by Synod's Council).

"Mecklenburg Presbytery respectfully overtures the Synod of North Carolina 'to request its Council to consider the possibility of adding to Synod's Budget an annual item for Capital Funds for use by one or more of its agencies or institutions, and to report to a subsequent meeting of the Synod' "

REPORT OF THE GENERAL SECRETARY was made by the Rev. Harold J. Dudley and included the Financial Statements of Accounts handled in Synod's Office for the Church year 1960, and statistical data.

The Stated Clerk called attention to the fact that the first reference to the city of Raleigh in the Minutes of Synod (Synod of the Carolinas) appeared in the session of October 3-7, 1794, where it is recorded:

> "Mr. John Robertson's report—Preached at Wake Courthouse. 'Small audience, the people in general are careless about preaching'. Perhaps six or eight families willing to encourage supplies."

It was also called to Synod's attention by the Clerk that Synod has met eleven times previously in the First Church, Raleigh; the first time in 1816, the year of the organization of the Church, and the last time in 1937.

The Report was adopted. (Appendix, page 59).

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION was presented by the Rev. W. D. McInnis, Chairman. Pending the adoption of the Report, Synod heard the following: Rev. Robert G. Hall on Home Missions; Rev. Eugene E. Kirkman on Evangelism; and Rev. Ben F. Brown on Radio-TV. Synod also heard Mr. Ted L. Daniel, Raleigh, Synod's Director of TRAV, in an address on Radio and TV.

The Report with its recommendations was adopted. (Appendix, page 119).

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK was presented by the Rev. Russell B. Fleming, Chairman. Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, President of the Synodical, presented the Annual Report of the President of the Synodical. By rising vote, the Synod expressed appreciation to Mrs. Godwin for her address.

The Report with its recommendations was adopted. (Appendix, page 194).

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON HOMES was presented by the Rev. Jerry C. McCann, Chairman. Pending the adoption of the Report, Synod heard Richard A. Short, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Home.

The Report with its recommendations, as amended, was adopted. (Appendix, page 182).

RECESS. Synod took recess at 4:45 P.M., being led in prayer by Rev. Harold J. Dudley, to reconvene at 7:30 P.M.

FIRST DAY—TUESDAY NIGHT SESSION

Synod reconvened at 7:30 P.M. in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh.

MEMORIAL AND COMMUNION SERVICE: The names of the Ministers who died during the last year were presented to Synod by the Moderator, who offered a prayer of thanksgiving for their lives and services and on behalf of their bereaved loved-ones, and also for deceased Ruling Elders. (Appendix for Ministerial Memorials, page 51).

Synod engaged in the following service, presided over by the Reverend Albert G. Edwards, host pastor:

ADJOURNMENT: Synod adjourned at 9:55 P.M., to meet Thursday at 8:45 A.M.

THIRD DAY—THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

SYNOD RECONVENED at 8:45 A.M. in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church, and was led in a devotional by the Rev. Albert G. Edwards.

MINUTES READ: The Minutes of Wednesday's sessions were read and adopted.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY was presented by the Stated Clerk in the absence of the Chairman.

The Report, with its recommendations, was adopted. (Appendix, page 193).

REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERS' SALARIES was presented by the Honorable Joseph B. Brewer, Chairman. The Report was adopted. (Appendix, page 200).

RESOLUTION: The following Resolution was adopted:

> That the Synod ask the Layman's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries to make a study, and report to Synod concerning: (1) The use of deferred payment plans for providing more adequate retirement security for its ministers; (2) the provision of more equitable retirement protection for lay personnel employed by the Church.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS was presented by the Stated Clerk in the absence of the Chairman. The Report with its recommendation, as amended, was adopted. (Appendix, page 177).

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES was presented by Rev. Charles W. Worth, Chairman.

Synod, by rising vote, expressed appreciation of Dr. Stuart I. McElroy who retires this year after 25 years as a Secretary of the American Bible Society.

Synod heard Dr. John R. Cunningham, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Foundation, who reported on the Foundation.

The Report, with its recommendations, as amended, was adopted. (Appendix, page 176).

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES:

Attendance: The Report of the Standing Committee on Attendance was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Leighton B. McKeithen, and was adopted, as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Attendance does not feel that we commisisoners to Synod have been as cooperative as we might have been in such matters as: Registering upon arrival at Synod; Sending in our requests to be excused for non-attendance; and Scheduling our activities in our presbyteries and local churches in such a way that they do not conflict with the dates of the Synod meeting.

The Standing Rules of Synod pertaining to the work of this Committee read as follows:

> "Functions of the Committee are to consider and to recommend to Synod disposition of all requests to be excused from attendance of Synod for a part of, or the full proceedings of the meeting."

We are aware from looking around us this morning that a large number of commissioners who were in attendance here have departed, and yet we have received only two or three requests from commissioners who were in attendance earlier asking that they be excused from today's session.

Some time ago the Synod went on record requesting that presbyteries schedule their camps and conferences and that local churches schedule their daily vacation Bible Schools so as not to conflict with the meeting of the Synod, and yet a large number of the requests to be excused from attending Synod stated these specific reasons for their non-attendance.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the following ministers who are not in attendance and have not sent in requests that they be excused from attending have their names recorded in the Minutes of Synod as having been absent from this meeting. (See pp. 20ff. where the Roll of Ministers indicates those attending Synod, those excused from attending, and those not excused.)
2. That the number of churches not represented by ruling elders in attendance at this meeting be recorded in the Minutes of Synod. (The list of such churches may be found on pp. 20ff.) The total number was 404 of 645; 257 churches were represented by neither minister nor Ruling Elder.
3. That sessions again be reminded of their breach of responsibility in not having a commissioner present or in not sending an excuse for his non-attendance.

Resolutions: The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by Rev. Julian Lake, Chairman, and was adopted as follows:

It is always a source of pleasure to express appreciation to a Church whose officers and members have gone the second mile to be hospitable to a great court of the Church. Synod is not unmindful of the fact that a certain amount of daring is involved in entertaining the Synod of North Carolina, which is not only the largest Synod, but actually has more representatives than the General Assembly itself. When the Women of the Synod are added to this as guests of a Church, well-nigh sublime courage comes into the picture.

There is even more than bravery here. The officers and members of the historic First Church of Raleigh have demonstrated graciousness and thoughtful consideration for each representative of the Synod of North Carolina. The welcome has been unusually friendly in a delightfully cool building during the worst heat wave of the summer.

The Synod congratulates the First Church on the sacred beauty of its sanctuary and the other rooms of the building freely and gladly placed at the disposal of Synod. The inspiring loveliness of the sanctuary is an illustration for all to see what can be done with an ancient building which has stood here for many years as a witness to God in this crowded downtown area of a great city.

To Mr. William P. McPherson, General Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and the other members of the Committee, to the Ministers and the staff, to the Officers of the First Presbyterian Church, and to all others, including the pages, registrars, and hostesses, we express our appreciation.

A special word of thanks goes to those who conducted the impressive Communion Service which will long be remembered. This includes the ministers; the Reverend Richard L. Morgan, devotional leader; Mr. Raymond F. Kreiner, Choir Director; Mr. Norman Acker, organist; the members of the Choir; and the elders of the Church.

We are grateful to our Moderators and to the special speakers, to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Finley for the delightful barbecue, to the staff of North Carolina State College for the use of its facilities, and to the Administration of Peace College and its staff.

We express our gratitude to the Women-of-the-Synod for their campaign to raise $50,000 for a new Student Center at Woman's College in Greensboro.

The sincere thanks of the Synod goes to the Mayor and the City of Raleigh, including the Police Department. To the Boy Scouts, the Press, and especially to the members of the Staff of Synod's Office, we express our deep appreciation.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

RESOLUTIONS were presented and adopted as follows:

(1) That the Church Extension Committee, through its Sub-committee of Evangelism, be asked to re-evaluate Synod's Program of Evangelism, and bring in recommendation for a more effective and organized program of Evangelism, and report back to Synod in 1962.

(2) That the Synod of North Carolina in conjunction with its emphasis on Stewardship of time, money, and talents, undertake a complete evaluation of its total program, in order to project a realistic program, based upon the needs discovered by the evaluation, and upon the limitations imposed upon the various parts of Synod's program by the amount of money which Synod can honestly expect to receive for its operation. This would be carried out under the supervision and direction of the Long-Range Planning Committee of Synod's Council. The Committee would use all means available, such as consultations with laymen and ministers who have participated in previous planning and execution of Synod's program by questionnaires; by perusal of programs of other Synods; and any other profitable means. The findings would be reported to Synod in 1962.

(3) That Synod express sympathy to the Lingle Family at Davidson in the sorrow which has been caused by the drowning of Miss Nan Lingle and to the family of Raymond C. Austin, Jr., Route No. 8, Charlotte, occasioned by his drowning.

TIME AND PLACE OF NEXT MEETING: Synod confirmed acceptance of the invitation to meet at St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, June 5-7, 1962, beginning at 2 P.M.

MINUTES READ: Minutes of today's sessions were read and approved.

ADJOURNMENT: Synod adjourned following the singing of a hymn and prayer by the Moderator.

C. M. Gibbs, Permanent Clerk
Warner L. Hall, Moderator

ATTEST: Harold J. Dudley, Stated Clerk

I. MEMORIALS TO DECEASED MINISTERS

REVEREND THOMAS ROBERT ALEXANDER

(1898-1959)

Thomas Robert Alexander was born in Providence Township in Matthews, N. C. January 22, 1898. In his youth he was a member of the Providence Presbyterian Church. He graduated from Davidson College in 1919 with an AB degree; from Union Theological Seminary of Virginia in 1922 with a BD degree. He received his Masters of Arts degree from Duke University in 1931. He married Virginia Dare Norwood in Durham, N. C., May 21, 1937.

He was ordained by Potomac Presbytery September 24, 1922. He was pastor at Westminister, Marshall and Aldie Churches in Potomac Presbytery from 1922 to 1927. From 1928-1929 he was pastor of the Bethlehem, Unionville and Midland Churches in Mecklenburg Presbytery. In 1933 he accepted a position in the U. S. Veteran Administration office in Washington, D. C. and served there until his death, August 7, 1959. From 1929-1931 he was at Duke University working on his Master's Degree.

Mr. Alexander served his Lord well in his life. His was a fruitful ministry while he was in the pastorate. During his pastorate and later in life, he was essentially a student and a scholar. He left the ministry because he felt his delivery was not good, and felt that he could serve in other capacities.

We and his family are comforted by the blessed assurance that he is with His Lord whom he served so acceptably while here on earth.

We commend all the members of his family to the God of all comfort and record our gratitude to God for his ministry here and elsewhere.

REVEREND CHARLES FREDERICK ALLEN

(1893-1960)

Charles Frederick Allen was born in Atlanta, Georgia July 15, 1893. After his call to the ministry, he persistently pursued his education, in order that he might be a workman who needed not to be ashamed, at Davidson College 1915-1918; at the University of South Carolina 1920; at Mercer University, Macon, Georgia 1930-31. He was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts. He studied at Columbia Theological Seminary 1919-21 and received the Bachelor of Divinity degree. Then in 1950 he was awarded the Master of Theology by Union Theological Seminary in Virginia.

He was licensed to preach the gospel April 13, 1921 and was ordained to the gospel ministry May 9, 1921 by Atlanta Presbytery. He served with distinction pastorates in Newton County, Georgia; Jefferson and group; Tattnall Square Church, Macon, Georgia; Spring Hill, Center Ridge group in Granville Presbytery, North Carolina; Goldville, S. C. group; Third Creek, Petersburg, Va.; Blacksburg, South Carolina; and the Turner Group in Mecklenburg Presbytery, North Carolina. He was Stated Clerk of Macon Presbytery, Georgia 1929-33.

Mr. Allen was married to the former Miss Lois Stiles of Mooresville, North Carolina March 2, 1918. He is survived by his wife and three daughters: Luella, now the wife of the Rev. F. J. Harmon, Cleveland, North Carolina; Mary Lois is Mrs. Wade J. David, Richmond, Virginia; and Courtney who is Mrs. R. E. Frederick of Richmond, Virginia; and eight grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at Turner's Presbyterian Church, Monroe, December 19, 1960 by Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence and Dr. W. Chester Keller. Interment was in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. Allen was a faithful minister, diligent presbyter, and successful preacher. His influence upon the lives of people, especially the youth whom he guided in his own church, through the Boy Scouts, in baseball, and through other organizations, was far beyond any statistical reports he ever handed in. He was happy in Mecklenburg Presbytery and is now in the Father's House where he has received the coveted commendation of His Lord, "Well done, good and faithful servant!"

REVEREND EUGENE BLACK CARR

We pause to honor the memory of the Reverend Eugene Black Carr, a faithful servant of the Church, who passed away on January 2, 1961, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Carr was born September 2, 1878, near Wallace, N. C., and spent most of his life and ministry within the bounds of Wilmington Presbytery. He was the son of Jacob O. and Eliza Catherine Carr. He attended a private school, which was taught by his uncle, Evander Carr. As a boy he had the ambition to be a minister, but was discouraged by his parents who doubted his sense of call until, one day, his father discovered him practicing preaching in the woods from an improvised pulpit. He was graduated from Davidson College in 1904 and received his B. D. degree from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, in 1907. His home Presbytery licensed him to preach on June 28, 1907; and he was ordained at the Teachey Presbyterian Church on October 10, 1907.

All of his active ministry, except his last two pastorates, was spent in Wilmington Presbytery. His pastorates were Southport and group from 1907 to 1909; Chadbourn and group from 1909 to 1910; Black River and group from 1910 to 1917. Then he went to South Carolina and served the McDowell Church and group for three years. In 1920 he returned to the Synod of North Carolina and spent the rest of his active ministry as pastor of the Mt. Pisgah group of Churches in Fayetteville Presbytery. He retired in 1936 to live on his farm near Wallace, North Carolina. For a number of years, he supplied nearby churches when needed.

Mr. Carr was married twice, first to Miss Bessie Eugenia McIntyre on August 30, 1905, to which union there were born four sons and two daughters who survive. Late in life, he married Mrs. Leta Croom, of Atkinson, North Carolina, who also survives.

Though it has been some time since he was in the active ministry, there are many who remember him and testify that he was a faithful pastor who was loved by all who knew him. A fellow classmate describes his outstanding characteristics as being a very devout and sincere Christian, affable and sociable in his contacts with his fellowmen and distinctly conservative in his interpretation of the Gospel and in his preaching of the Word of God.

We acknowledge with gratitude the providence of God in this ministry and extend our sincere sympathy to the members of his family.

REVEREND MARLIN B. CURRY

1904—1961

It is with deep sorrow and regret that we note the death of our friend and co-worker, the Rev. Marlin Curry, whom Almighty God called home on Saturday, June 10, 1961. Mr. Curry was a member of the Presbytery of Granville, and during his extended illness had been remembered with special prayers at several meetings of Presbytery.

Marlin Beamer Curry was born at Pickaway, West Virginia on October 23, 1904. He married Miss Eula Mae Dickerson of Pamplin, Virginia on August 23, 1932, who survives. Two daughters, Nancy and Mary Marlin, and one son, Thomas also survive. Mr. Curry received his college education at Davis & Elkin College, Elkins, West Virginia, graduating in 1929. He received his B.D. Degree from Union Theological Eeminary in 1932, and was licensed on September 6, 1932, and ordained October 9, 1832 by Green Brier Presbytery. He served as pastor of the Oak Grove Church, Hillsboro, West Virginia from 1932 to 1936. From 1936 until 1938, he served as Associate Pastor of the Old Stone Church, Lewisburg, West Virginia, and was pastor of the Northfolk and Vivian Churches in Blue Stone Presbytery from 1938 until 1942.

Mr. Curry was appointed Chaplain in the United States Army for overseas service in October 1942, serving at Oahu, Guam and Okinawa. He was separated from service at Fort Bragg in 1946, at which time he became pastor of the Shiloh Presbyterian Church, Burlington, N. C. On March 6, 1952 he became pastor of the Oxford Presbyterian Church, where he served until April 6, 1953, at which time Presbytery dissolved his pastoral relationship with the Oxford Church in order that he might return to active duty as Chaplain in the United States Army. He remained in the Chaplaincy until he became ill in 1960, and at his request, was honorably retired by the Presbytery of Granville, on July 19, 1960. Mr. Curry died at the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, and was buried at Arlington Cemetery.

REVEREND ROSWELL CURTIS LONG

About midday of November 2nd, 1960, our Heavenly Father called to his Heavenly Home our faithful friend and fellow-laborer the Reverend Roswell Curtis Long, D.D., Litt.D. He was born at Unionville, N. C. October 4, 1892, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. William Reece Long. He attended Davidson College graduating in 1913 with the B.A. degree. In 1914 he received his M.A. degree from the University of Virginia. He attended the Graduate School of the University of Chicago in 1917 and received his theological education at Union Theological Seminary of Richmond, Virginia, graduating in 1917 with a B.D. degree. He was licensed and ordained by Mecklenburg Presbytery September 4, 1917. He served his country as a chaplain in the U. S. Army during 1917-18. After serving as pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Richwood, W. Va., and later as pastor of the West Ave. Presbyterian Church in Gastonia, he became assistant secretary of the Stewardship Committee of the General Assembly in 1923. In 1927 he became the Executive Secretary of the same committee where he rendered outstanding service until 1931 when he was called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenwood, S. C. where for fifteen years he had a most happy and successful pastorate. He served as president of Lees-McRae Junior College during the period of 1946-47. He became pastor of the Westover Hills Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N. C. in 1948; this happy pastorate was terminated by his death. Under his able and vigorous leadership this church rapidly grew and became one of the larger churches of the Presbytery. During the latter part of his pastorate, the beautiful edifice which the church now occupies was built. This building came into being largely through his efforts and inspiration.

His ability was widely recognized. In 1928 the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him by Arkansas College and in 1940 Presbyterian College honored him by conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Literature. He is the author of "Stewardship Parables of Jesus", "The Story of Our Church", and "More Stewardship Parables of Jesus." In 1943 he was moderator of the Synod of South Carolina.

In 1919 he married Miss Frances Martin of Central, S. C., who survives him.

For many years he manifested great interest in the Boy Scouts of America and rendered exceptional service to the organization. Though not well during the last few months of his life, he continued to labor for the Master and manifested great zeal in His cause. In the passing of Dr. Long, the church has lost one of her most able and useful servants.

The funeral service was conducted in the Westover Hills Presbyterian Church by the following ministers, J. Cecil Lawrence, David E. Wilkinson and J. S. Garner. Interment was in Easley, S. C.

REVEREND JAMES FLOYD MENIUS, Th. M.

(1886-1961)

James Floyd Menius was born in Rowan County, North Carolina, on October 25, 1886, the son of James Matthew Alexander Menius and Martha Cook Menius. He passed away at Flemington, Georgia, on April 12, 1961 at the age of 74. He was buried in the Flemington Presbyterian Church cemetery on April 14.

He graduated from Davidson College with the A.B. degree in 1911, and from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia in 1914 with the Bachelor of Divinity degree. In 1933 he received the Master of Theology degree, also from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia.

He was first married to Miss Myrtle Goodman of Rowan County on December 24, 1914, and from this union came two children, Opal Goodman and Leonard Carey Menius, who survive him. His first wife died on June 11, 1926. On August 21, 1929, he married Miss Flora Martin of Liberty County, Georgia, who survives him and will continue to reside at Flemington, Georgia.

His ministerial career may be briefly summarized as follows:

He was ordained by Holston Presbytery as Evangelist in 1915, and served as Evangelist and as a Teacher until 1919. Also, in the period between 1917 to 1919 he served as pastor of Crestmont Community Church, Crestmont, North Carolina.

From 1919 to 1922 he served as Stated Supply of Cape Fear and Buie's Creek churches in Fayetteville Presbytery.

From 1922 to 1938 he was pastor of the Lillington Church, also of Fayetteville Presbytery. In this period he was also Stated Supply of Coats and Cedar Creek churches, of which he was also instrumental in organizing.

From 1938 to 1943 he was pastor of the First Vanguard Church in Raleigh, North Carolina.

From 1943 to 1950 he was pastor of McPherson, Comfort, and Sherwood churches in Fayetteville Presbytery. In this period he was also pastor of Big Rockfish Church from 1943 to 1946, and from 1946 to 1950, he was Stated Supply of Circle Court Church, now known as Peace Church, of which he was instrumental in organizing.

In 1950, following a serious illness, he was honorably retired by Fayetteville Presbytery.

Beginning in 1951, first as Pulpit Supply and then as Temporary and Stated Supply, he served the Vaughn Memorial Church in Fayetteville, and this relationship continued until April of 1958. Soon thereafter he moved to Flemington, Georgia.

Mr. Menius leaves a host of friends not only in this Presbytery but throughout the Assembly, and stands as an abiding witness that the things of God are true. He was a man of God, an able scholar, preacher, pastor, teacher and presbyter. His counsel was sought, his companionship cherished, and his judgment and vision honored by all who knew him.

REVEREND PAUL HOMER MOORE

(1878-1960)

Paul Homer Moore was born in York County, S. C. September 11, 1878, and died in Sidney, Ohio, October 25, 1960. He was the son of Philander E. and Emily McCully Moore. Mr. Moore united with the Bethesda Presbyterian Church, York County, November 4, 1892. He graduated from Erskine College in 1903; attended Columbia Theological Seminary for one year and graduated from Louisville Theological Seminary in 1907.

Mr. Moore married Amy La Bree, Louisville, Kentucky, December 5, 1907. To this union were born a daughter, Mrs. E. G. Couch of Cincinati, Ohio; and two sons: Dr. Benjamin L. Moore, Los Alamos, New Mexico, and Dr. Jeffrey P. Moore, Philadelphia, Penn. There are also three sisters who live in South Carolina.

He was ordained to the gospel ministry by Atlanta Presbytery July 21, 1907, and served the following churches as Pastor: Senoia Georgia, 1907-1908; Ridgeway, South Carolina 1908-1910; Flora Heights, 1910-1913, and Portland Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky, 1913-1916; Ebenezer, Rock Hill, S. C. 1916-1918. He served as Professor at Stillman College, 1918-24. Ill health followed but he continued to serve as health permitted as pastor at LaGrange Georgia, 1924-25, at Pendleton, S. C. and as Stated Clerk of Piedmont Presbytery.

He was honorably retired in 1941 but still rendered faithful service at McClenville, S. C. and Cherryville, N. C. and in other places until 1953.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord".

REVEREND JOSEPH KENTON PARKER

Reverend Joseph Kenton Parker passed away, at his home near Davidson, North Carolina, June 16, 1960. Funeral services were concluded at Centre Presbyterian Church June 17 by a group of fellow ministers, including Dr. Henry Dendy, Editor of The Presbyterian Journal.

Surviving are his wife, the former Lydie Sparrow whom he married on May 11, 1910; and children: Joseph Kenton, who is now Rev. Joseph Kenton Parker of Boone, N. C.; William Alonza Stella Fisher (Mrs. G. W. Woodfin; Charles Warner; Florence Shirley (Mrs. A. B. Wells). Another son, Lewis Barnes, preceded his father in death several years ago.

Joseph Kenton Parker was born in Amherst County, Virginia; August 7, 1883, the son of Joseph P. and Jane Randolph Peticolas Parker. He was graduated from Davidson College with honors in 1908, receiving both the A.B. and the M.A. degrees. In 1911 he was graduated from Union Theological Seminary with the B.D. Degree and was awarded the Hoge Fellowship. After a year's post graduate work he was ordained as an evangelist by Montgomery Presbytery in the First Presbyterian Church of Lynchburg, Virginia, in May, 1912.

That same year he went to Korea where he served twenty churches for over two years.

On his return to America he served one year as stated supply at Parisburg, Virginia, with the whole of Giles county as his parish. From there he went to Collierstown, Virginia, serving three mission chapels in the mountains for nearly eight years. He spent the next three years in Phenix, Virginia, serving a field of four churches.

He became pastor of Centre and Sherrill's Ford Churches September 15, 1927. A few years later he became pastor of Shearer Church. He served these three churches faithfully until his retirement about a year before his death. Always a faithful, indefatigable worker, he worked far beyond his strength during the last few years before retirement, sustained by a vast spiritual reserve and his determination to serve his Master to the end. Isaiah says, "In quietness and confidence shall be thy strength."

For the last sixteen years of his life he served as one of the coeditors of The Southern Presbyterian Journal. During this time he wrote the Sunday School Lessons for the Journal.

The courage, fortitude, and self-discipline of his life were characteristic of his last days when the faith he lived and preached sustained him in physical suffering. His sickroom became a sanctuary where parents often came for baptism of their children, and where friends came for guidance, inspiration, and comfort.

Mr. Parker possessed rare intellectual powers coupled with love for people, sincere friendliness, humility, true devotion to his Master's will, and a sunny disposition that cheered every life he touched.

REVEREND FOSTER D. SMITH

(1892-1960)

It is with regret and sorrow that we note the death of our friend and co-worker the Rev. Foster D. Smith, 68, whom Almighty God called home on Saturday, September 17, 1960.

The Rev. Mr. Smith, a native of Georgia, was at the time of his death pastor of Geneva, Oak Hill, Hebron, and Grassy Creek Presbyterian churches.

Mr. Smith received his high school training in Greensboro, Georgia and Fredericksburg, Va., after which he had theological training in Congregational Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., and Columbia Seminary, Decatur, Ga. He was a native of Madison, Ga. and spent the early years of his ministry in the North Georgia Methodist Conference.

After transferring to the Presbyterian faith he served churches in Carrollton and Villa Rica, Ga., prior to coming to North Carolina as pastor of Northside Presbyterian Church in Gastonia. He came to the Granville churches from Gastonia.

To his widow, Mrs. Alma McConnell Smith, we extend our heartfelt sympathy and consolation. May she ever cherish the memory of happy years of companionship with our beloved brother and may the comfort of the Holy Spirit replace the emptiness and loneliness caused by this separation.

We are confident that Foster Smith has received the reward of the faithful and energetic worker in God's Kingdom.

REVEREND JOSEPH ARMAND VERREAULT

(1871-1960)

On December 16, 1960, God in His infinite wisdom, love, and mercy, called to his faithful servant the Reverend Joseph Armand Verreault to enter into the joys of His Lord.

Mr. Verreault was born in St. Jean Port-juli, Quebec, Canada, March 28, 1871. His father was a successful attorney and for many years a member of the Parliament. He received his education at St. Ann College, Montreal, Canada; Levis College, Quebec, Canada; and Leval University, Quebec, Canada. For awhile he was a professor of languages. He came to the United States in 1900. He studied at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. In 1918, he was ordained a Presbyterian minister by the Presbytery of New Orleans and became a home mission Pastor to the French speaking people of New Orleans Presbytery.

In 1905, Mr. Verreault married Malvina Brunette, who became his faithful partner in the ministry of God. Of this union there were three children, Joseph Armand Verrault, Jr., John Francis Verreault, and Mrs. Laird Jacob. There were six grandchildren, one of whom, Joseph Armand Verreault, III, is a candidate for the Gospel ministry under the care of Concord Presbytery.

In 1926, the congregation of the Waldensian Presbyterian Church called Mr. Verreault to be the Pastor of this group of French speaking Waldenses. He accepted the call of this church and served faithfully as the Pastor until his retirement in 1931. His years of retirement were spent in Valdese, North Carolina with his wife and children. Mrs. Verreault was called to her heavenly home November 19, 1960.

Mr. Verreault was a living example of a consecrated minister, who was willing to accept sacrifice in order to be happy in the service of his Lord. He has left a rich heritage of faith to his children and to those of us who follow in his steps.

REVEREND CHARLES DOUGLAS WHITELEY

(1890-1961)

Charles Douglas Whiteley was born in January, 1890, in Alamance County, North Carolina. He was the son of Mrs. Minnie Forbes Whiteley and the late W. T. Whiteley. He was graduated from Davidson College in 1917 and then from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia.

His first work was as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Durham, North Carolina. Later he became pastor of the Blacknall Memorial Church also in Durham. Both of these churches are in Granville Presbytery. From there he became pastor of a group of rural churches in Orange County, and then the First Presbyterian Church in Logan, West Virginia, Kanawha Presbytery. In 1931 Dr. Whiteley accepted the call to become the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Albermarle, North Carolina. He remained as pastor there until 1940. At that time he was instrumental in the organization of the Second Presbyterian Church also in Albermarle, Mecklenburg Presbytery. Becoming their first pastor he served with continued zeal until his retirement which took place on December 31, 1959. Under his leadership that congregation has made a sacrificial work in the erection of a fine church edifice and continued service to their Lord and the community.

Dr. Whiteley passed away January 4th, 1961 in the Stanly County Hospital. His death was attributed to a heart condition. The funeral service was conducted by the Reverend Mr. James H. McClintock, pastor of the Second Street Presbyterian Church. Albemarle. It was held in this church on Friday, January 6th at 2:00 p.m. Burial was held in the Alamance Presbyterian Church cemetery at Greensboro.

In addition to his mother, a resident of Greensboro, Dr. Whiteley is survived by his widow, the former Miss Ethel Pickard of Durham, whom he married 40 years ago. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. W. O. Jones of Dallas, Texas; two sons Charles D. Whiteley, Jr., of New York and Donald Whiteley of Miami, Florida.

II. REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY, STATED CLERK AND TREASURER—1961

Harold J. Dudley, Stated Clerk

Reports of the Council, the Executive Committees of Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, and Educational Institutions, including Financial Statements; the Reports of the Permanent Committees on Annuities and Relief, Assembly's General Fund Agencies, Bequests and Deferred Gifts, Christian Relations, Homes, Inter-Church Relations, the Minister and His Work, Nominations, Standing Rules, the Centennial Committee, and the Sesqui-Centennial Committee, reflect in part the work of Synod's Office. In addition, the Reports and the financial statements on Higher Education campaigns and other causes presented in the Blue Book, fairly well summarize the total program of work of Synod.

Annual statistics have been prepared in the Office, and may be found by reference to the Index.

Budgeted Giving

Benevolence income to the several agencies of Synod for the past two years may be compared as follows:

	1959	1960	Increase Decrease
Church Extension	$ 63,509	$ 56,258	$— 7,251
Educational Institutions	273,902	268,765	— 5,137
Inter-Church Relations	2,539	3,738	+ 1,199
Campus Christian Life	38,444	41,084	+ 2,640
Children's Home	190,026	213,379	+23,353
Presbyterian Home	35,719	37,765	+ 2,046
Christian Education	29,212	36,375	+ 7,163
Guidance Center	4,416	10,521	+ 6,105
	$637,767	$667,885	$ 30,118

From the above it is quite clear that the Synod gave $30,118 more to Synod's causes last year than in 1959; however, it should be noted that the following agencies received less than the year before:

Church Extension	$7,251
Educational Institutions	5,137

Presbyteries accepted in 1959 69% of Synod's Askings for Synod's Causes in 1960, but paid only 64% of what Synod asked, though $92.5% of what they accepted. This was, according to audited reports of treasurers of Synod's causes, $667,885 in contrast to $637,767 last year, an increase of $30,118.

It should be noted that this study relates to budgeted contributions to Synod's Causes. Non-budgeted gifts to Synod's causes in 1960 totaled $506,891. The information showing what causes received the non-budgeted gifts is not available, but it is assumed that it primarily constitutes capital funds gifts. It should be kept in mind that Christian Education, Church Extension, and Inter-Church Relations received no capital gifts income.

Audit

In their proper places may be found approved summaries of Audited financial statements of all accounts which are handled in Synod's Office. (See "Auditor's Report" and also the Report of Synod's Council.)

All accounts have been audited by the firm of A. T. Allen & Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, N .C., and have been officially approved. Copies of the audits are available for perusal. Also there have been placed in your hands financial statements of other agencies of Synod, as well as proposed 1962 budgets for all the agencies and causes of Synod. These have been approved by the agencies and by the Stewardship Committee, and are recommended to Synod by the Council for adoption.

We believe that all of the assignments of the 1960 Synod have been fulfilled.

Campaigns

The Higher Education Campaign of 1956 was to have closed December 31, 1958; however, collections from April 1, 1960 through April 30, 1961 totalled $111,349 and from January 1, 1961 through April 30, 1961 $32,928. Last May we reported 97 churches with corporate pledges totalling $200,576 unpaid ($260,501 in May, 1959). This May there were 64 churches totalling $133,034 unpaid. Of these 10 have made no payments. There were 20 last May and 34 two years ago.

The unpaid balance on pledges may be summarized as follows:

	1961	1960
Church Pledges	$133,034	$200,576
Specials	------	37,500
Individuals	46,245	111,820
	$179,279	$349,896

The Campus Christian Life Campaign of 1958 was projected on a thirty months basis, and was scheduled to close by October 31, 1960. This Campaign through April 30, 1961 stood as follows:

Pledges	$273,347.46
Receipts	213,035.76
Expenses	49,049.95

A summary of the two Campaigns in relation to Campus Christian Life follows:

Amount Pledged:
1956 Campaign	$204,169.00
1958 Campaign	273,347.46
	$477,516.46

Campaign Receipts:
1956	$167,739.66
1958	213,035.76
	$380,775.42
Balance Anticipated	96,741.04
TOTAL RECEIPTS:
From Pledges	$380,775.42
Interest	3,330.85
Challenge Fund Gifts	23,000.00
Loan: Stultz Fund	15,000.00
	$422,106.27
Less Expenses through 4-30-60	49,049.95
Balance	$373,056.32
Disbursed to Institutions	314,213.50
In Savings for Duke	$ 58,842.82

Ten Year Summary

Since Synod reorganized in 1951, the total gifts have increased from $6,788,602 to $14,202,339. Benevolences have increased from $1,638,212 to $3,545,829. Per capita giving to total gifts has advanced from $59.11 to $98.09. Benevolence per capita increased from $14,27 to $24.49. The number of ministers has increased from 425 to 593 and the number of churches from 599 to 645. The Sunday School enrollment has increased from 95,258 to 132,106.

"More Men—More Money"

The constant need of the Synod, and perhaps ever has been, is for more money and more men. The Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has nearly annihilated itself for want of ministers. This has been true from the beginning. Since twenty percent of the churches are always vacant, 10,000 or more Presbyterians are ever without a pastor. It is difficult to believe that this problem is insoluble. It relates itself to recruiting and education.

The great imperative upon us is excellent leadership. An abundance of potential leadership may be found among the 8,000 Presbyterians on campuses in our State. The Synod of North Carolina has been last among the Synods to take advantage of tapping this source of leaders as ministers; however, we are awakening to the challenge and the opportunity. We must spend large sums of money to send trained workers onto the campuses of higher education. Money thus spent should pay rich dividends in the years which lie ahead. We dare not neglect this challenge.

More will be said on this subject by others during this meeting of Synod. It is a crucial matter and one that should be heeded.

On November 11 we moved into the new Office. The building is one of which we have reason to be proud. Hundreds of people have visited the building and without exception have lavished in praise. It is a worthy symbol of our Synod, and one of which we may be proud. It is providing facilities by which the Synod may be served more efficiently.

III. REPORT OF SYNOD'S COUNCIL

Rev. Roscoe Prince, Chairman

Your Council met three times during the past year, once in Charlotte and twice in Raleigh, and all of the meetings were well attended. The minutes of the meetings including minutes of sub-committees have been recorded.

Program

The 1961 Program of Synod was prepared by the Sub-Committee on Program and approved by the Council. We were unsuccessful in securing as a speaker this year the Moderator of the General Assembly.

The plans of the Sub-Committee on the Centennial, Dr. Frontis Johnston, chairman, were implemented in such ways as are reflected in the official program, which includes Wednesday, June 14 as Presbyterian Centennial Day, reaching a climax in the evening at a mass rally planned at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh. We are indebted to the agencies of the General Assembly for furnishing display materials for the occasion.

There was liaison with the Committee of the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, regarding arrangements as detailed.

Synod was invited by the President of St. Andrews Presbyterian College to hold its One Hundred Forty-Ninth sessions at the college in Laurinburg in 1962.

Permanent Office Headquarter's Building

On November 11, 1960 Synod's new Office Building was occupied by the staff. The cost of the enterprise, including improvements on the land, architect's fee, contractor's fee, equipment, furniture, and furnishings is $99,125. Synod authorized the expenditure of $100,000. The building and land are appraised at approximately $150,000. Contributions on the cost total $33,753, leaving a balance to be subscribed of $65,372. The Executive Committee of Church Extension approved in January of providing against this deficit up to $55,000 from the Permanent Reserve Fund, to be paid back over a period of time by gifts and from the Budget of Synod's Office an amount designated as rent.

The Office of the General Secretary was furnished by the family of the late Dr. E. E. Gillespie, of Greensboro.

The building is one of which we have every right to be proud, and it is being used to full advantage. In addition to the Synod's offices, we have provided two offices for Granville Presbytery, for which services we receive $85.00 per month on the utilities. In addition, we are providing for several months office space for the Albemarle-Granville Presbyteries staff officer of the St. Andrews College Campaign.

Hundreds of people have visited the office, and without exception they have been lavish in praise. We assure you that we have a symbol of our Synod now of which we need not be ashamed.

Public Relations

On March 1 Mrs. Ernestine Godfrey severed relations with us by virtue of the fact that her husband was transferred to Winston-Salem. She had rendered invaluable service since September, 1959.

We operated slightly under the prescribed budget in 1960. We spent $19,922.37 on a $20,000 budget. The Council and the Executive Committee on Church Extension shared equally the cost of operations. We are operating on a $24,000 budget in 1961. We hope that we may be able to operate under that amount by virtue of a change in mailing. However, there have been some necessary expenses involved in moving to the new office building.

We published 12 issues of the paper in 1960. We have found it practical to publish an eight-page paper, except possibly now and then because of the quantity of news, to publish a twelve-page paper. The Department of Public Relations of Synod, which includes the Presbyterian News, newspaper releases, and Radio-TV is growing in prestige and importance, and it is our conviction that we should continue our present policy of promoting the whole program of public relations.

We would remind you that the whole program of Public Relations includes Television-Radio and that this phase of the Program has been presented to Synod in the report of the Executive Committee of Church Extension.

The Department of Publicity has issued approximately 100 releases relating to the work of Synod during the past twelve months.

Financial

In view of the fact that the agencies of Synod ended 1960 in relatively good financial shape, the Council remitted full amounts which has been contributed to the Equalization Fund.

The Contingent Salary Fund served a worthy purpose, in that it provided a reserve fund to tide over the agencies of Synod which otherwise would have had to borrow money, and also assisted both the Executive Committees of Campus Christian Life and Christian Education to the extent that these causes were able to end 1960 without a deficit.

Askings & Acceptances

Synod asked Presbyteries and churches for a total of $2,621,709 for Assembly and Synod benevolences in 1961. They have accepted $1,942,632, or $679,077 less than apportioned. They were asked to give $1,509,959 to Assembly's Causes, and accepted $1,193,560 or $316,399 less than apportioned. They were asked to give $1,111,750 to Synod's causes, and accepted $749,072 or $362,678 less. The amount accepted of Synod's askings for Synod's causes is 67.3%. A year ago the Presbyteries accepted $721,474, which was 69.27% of askings for 1960.

Synod and Assembly Compared

The Synod of North Carolina again led the General Assembly (16 Synods) in total gifts, in total to benevolences, and total to Current Expenses. The grand total of gifts were $14,202,683, and $28,272 less than the year before.

The Synod asked the Presbyteries to give a total of $2,526,756 to Assembly and Synod causes combined during 1960. Total gifts reported were $2,350,522 (in contrast to $2,430,640 the previous year), or 93.03% (99.51% the year before). This may be compared as follows:

	APPORTIONMENTS		GAVE
	1960	1959	1960		1959
Assembly	$1,485,350	$1,493,822	$1,187,970	(79.98%)	$1,209,995	(81.00%)
Synod	1,041,406	948,840	1,162,552	(111.63%)[1]	1,220,645	(128.65%)
	$2,526,756	$2,442,662	$2,350,522	(93.03%)	$2,430,640	(99.51%)

Assembly Causes received 1.02% less of the askings than the year before, or a decrease of $22,025. Synod's causes received 13% less of the askings than the year before, or a decrease of $58,093. The two causes together received $80,118 less than in 1959.

North Carolina stood 11th (8th a year ago) in 1960 among the Synods in the percentage of gifts made to Assembly's Causes in relation to apportionments.

Only two Presbyteries, Granville and Winston-Salem, accepted 100% of Askings for both Assembly and Synod causes for 1961. Kings Mountain accepted in full Assembly's Askings for 1961, but not Synod's. Only one Presbytery accepted in full in 1960. Granville and Winston-Salem accepted 100% to Assembly's and Synod's causes combined in 1960. The Presbyteries ranked as follows:

1.	Granville	100.00%
	Winston-Salem	100.00%
2.	Kings Mountain	90.36%
3.	Mecklenburg	77.50%
4.	Concord	71.88%
5.	Albemarle	69.96%
6.	Orange	68.54%
7.	Fayetteville	55.32%
8.	Wilmington	45.08%
	SYNOD	74.10%

[1] Based on reports of churches as given in the 1961 General Assembly Minutes. The percentage of budgeted receipts received by Synod's Treasurer and directly by agencies was 59.13% of Synod's Askings for Synod's Causes.

Other stewardship statistics show total gifts of $14,202,339 in 1960; Benevolences—$3,545,829 (budgeted—$2,383,957; non-budgeted—$1,161,872); Current Expenses—$7,445,153; Building Expenses—$3,211,357; Combined—$10,656,510. These figures compare with the previous year as follows:

	1960	1959	Increase
Benevolences	$ 3,545,829	$ 3,566,149	$— 20,320
Budgeted	2,383,957	2,352,555	+ 31,402
Non-Budgeted	1,161,872	1,213,594	— 51,722

TOTAL GIFTS	14,202,339	14,230,955	— 28,616

Total per capita giving dropped below the previous year; likewise, per capita giving to benevolences; however, current expenses increased from $49.79 to $51.42. Following is a summary and comparison with 1959.

	1960	1959	Decrease
Benevolences	$24.49	$24.93	$— .44
Current Expenses	51.42	49.79	+1.63
Building Expenses	22.18	24.75	—2.57
Combined (Current & Building)	73.60	74.54	— .94
Total	98.09	99.47	—1.38

The Synod of North Carolina ranked 9th among the 16 Synods in total per capita giving in the General Assembly in 1960 (8th in 1959). Tennessee was first at $112.13. In Benevolence per capita, North Carolina ranked 5th (4th in 1959.) Appalachia was first at $34.13.

It is conservatively estimated that the members of the Synod of North Carolina withheld a minimum of $13,306,621 or 48.37% of their tithe in relationship to income in 1960. The income of Presbyterians in 1959 is conservatively estimated at $275,089,600.

Attached to this Report are the following documents: (1) Summary of 1962 Proposed Benevolence Budget for Assembly and Synod Causes, together with proposed distribution of same (Apportionments to Presbyteries); (2) Audit of all accounts handled in Synod's Office for 1960 (listed under the Audit); (3) 1962 Budget for Synod's Office and Program of Work; and (4) Statistical Data.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod accept the apportionment of the General Assembly for 1962, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,525,618, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 102.
2. That Synod accept the following budget for Synod's Causes for 1962, and endeavor to raise the total amount, which is $1,127,350, broken down as indicated in the Table on page 102.
3. That the total Benevolence Budget of Synod for Assembly and Synod causes for 1962 amounting to $2,652,968, be apportioned to the several Presbyteries on the basis of the following formula: 1/3 for membership; 1/3 for benevolence contributions to Assembly's and Synod's Agencies for the last three years; and 1/3 for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years, as indicated in the Table on page 103-104.

4. That the proposed Budget for Synod's Office and Program of Work for 1962 in the amount of $57,097 be approved. See page 105.
5. That the per capita assessment of 39.3772¢ for 1962 for support of Synod's Office and Program of Work be approved.
6. That the C.P.A. Audited Financial Statements of institutions and Agencies of Synod which have been examined and approved by the Committee on Finance and Audits, and endorsed by the Council, be approved by Synod, and the Committee be empowered to complete the examination of the remainder of the audits for record as soon as they are available.
7. That Synod express its gratitude to the Trustees of the L. Richardson Trust Fund for generous gifts to the Synod's Agencies.
8. That the separate Report by the Sub-committee on Records be adopted.
9. That the 149th Sessions of the Synod be held at St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, June 5-7, 1962, and that Tuesday evening be designated for special emphasis on World Missions.
10. That the following be elected as members of the Committee on Naminations, Class of 1964: Albemarle, Rev. M. J. McChesney; Concord, Rev. Wilkes D. Macaulay; Fayetteville, Rev. Leslie C. Tucker, Jr.
11. That the proposal of the Women-of-the-Synod to conduct a campaign in 1962-1963 to raise $50,000 for the Student Center at Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, be approved.
12. That Synod rescind its former action of approving capital gifts campaigns for Union Theological Seminary in 1963 and Davidson College in 1965.
13. To the Long-Range Planning Committee of Synod's Council has been referred the question of capital funds campaigns for the institutions of the Synod of North Carolina with emphasis upon the multiplicity and overlapping of such ventures.

    In examining this question, there have been conferences with institutional leaders, and a meeting of the Committee. The past history of capital funds ventures has been reviewed in the light of recent discussions by the Council and the conferences with institutional representatives. There exists on the part of the institutions a willingness to cooperate with whatever plans are set forth for the good of the Synod.

    It is the belief of the Long-Range Planning Committee that the question before us must be viewed within the context of the Christian Stewardship of life and substance and not as an isolated problem. Moreover, there is a genuine belief that the institutions of the Synod must now and again present their separate causes to the several churches. Such presentations will elicit not only financial support, but will strengthen the existing ties between these institutions and the Church.

Unquestionably, the matter of methodology in capital funds campaigns is an issue for consideration. The measure for success in campaigns has become a financial goal which must be attained, and failure to reach these prescribed goals has indicated failure; yet we cannot but observe that such a philosophy does not take into account the demonstrated generosity of the Synod in past capital fund ventures, the outreach of the "Body of Christ" in such enterprises, nor the inestimable value of the several institutions in the work of the Kingdom. The problem, therefore, is one of perspective, rather than of pledges.

To these questions there are no facile answers. None the less, it is our belief that between the years 1963 and 1967 it would not be feasible for the Synod to undertake three capital funds campaigns which would attempt to reach the entire constituency of the Synod. Moreover, we affirm the necessity for an emphasis within the bounds of the Synod upon the stewardship of life and substance which will place the question of capital funds campaigns in truer perspective.

Thus, we commend to the Council an eight year stewardship program from 1962 through 1970 per the schedule in Recommendation (1) below.

The program viewed as a whole will enable the Synod to see its responsibility over the next eight years. We reiterate the 1959 action of the Synod that the payment of pledges to capital funds campaigns be limited to two-year periods.

The Stewardship Committee of Synod is requested to engage in active leadership of the eight-year program through conferences, seminars, workshops, and other media, enlisting the Stewardship Committees of Presbyteries and churches in the endeavor. Such a program envisions a thorough consideration of the Biblical understanding of the Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure. We believe that attention must be focused upon the benevolence enterprises of the several Church Courts in such a measure as to reaffirm Presbyterian polity.

That the several institutions and agencies contemplating campaigns for capital funds in the eight-year program, or in other years, be acquainted with the situation before us, we recommend that a meeting of representatives from the governing bodies of those institutions and agencies together with their administrative leadership, be called by the Council. Such an assembly should bring about a closer working relationship among these institutions and agencies, and between them and the Synod of North Carolina.

Your Committee has concerned itself only with campaigns within its purview. We are conscious of campaigns approved by other Church courts, and by community undertakings. At this point, we can only say that each of these must be considered by the constituency upon its own merit.

We are willing to continue our studies in these and related matters, and will pursue them at the Council's direction.

This report, having been adopted by Synod's Council, is presented to the Synod with the following recommendations:

(1) That an eight-year stewardship program from 1962 through 1970, be adopted to include:

1962—Stewardship Emphasis
1963—General Assembly Capital Funds Campaign
1965—Stewardship Emphasis
1966—Union Theological Seminary Capital Funds Campaign
1968—Stewardship Emphasis
1969—Davidson College Capital Funds Campaign

(2) That Synod reiterate its 1959 action that the payment of pledges to capital funds campaigns be limited to two-year periods.

(3) That the Stewardship Committee of Synod be requested to engage in active leadership of the eight-year program through conferences, seminars, workshops, and other media, enlisting the Stewardship Committees of Presbyteries and churches in the endeavor.

(4) That in order for the several institutions and agencies contemplating campaigns for capital funds in the eight-year program, or in other years, to be acquainted with the situation before us, a meeting of representatives from the governing bodies of those institutions and agencies, together with their administrative leadership, be called by the Council.

(5) That agencies promoting capital funds campaigns and Sessions of local churches be and are hereby urged to place capital funds campaigns in church budgets only after the total amount of the benevolence askings of Presbytery have been met.

14. That Synod participate in the Consultative Conference to be held in Montreat September 18-21, and elect the following representatives: Dr. James R. Wright, Raleigh; William F. Mulliss, Charlotte; Rev. C. I. Lewis, and Rey Allen C. McSween. Alternates: J. B. Brewer, Rocky Mount and Rev. William M. Schotanus.

15. That all special "appeals" to local congregations be referred to Presbyteries Committees on Stewardship for appraisal and recommendation.

16. That all Agencies of the Church be requested to give full consideration to the entire benevolence budget in making their special appeals so that no Agency will be slighted.

17. That the appropriate recommendations from the Report of the General Council to the 1961 General Assembly, be approved, specifically, Nos. 1-5, 10-13.

18. That the calendar of special days and seasons recommended by the General Assembly for observance by the Church, be adopted, and likewise that the customary emphasis for the Orphans' Home (Thanksgiving) and the Presbyterian Home (Mother's Day), with special offerings, be approved.

19. That Synod request the Presbyteries to urge the particular churches to pay their budgeted benevolences in twelve equal monthly payments, in so far as possible.

20. That Synod, by a rising vote, express appreciation to the General Secretary and his staff for their services.

A. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. REPORT OF AUDITOR

Committee on Finance and Auditing
Synod of North Carolina
Presbyterian Church In The United States
Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

As instructed by Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary and Treasurer of the Synod of North Carolin, Presbyterian Church In The United States, we have audited the books and records maintained by him as Treasurer of the following funds:

Synod's Office General Fund
Church Extension Fund
Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Funds
Synod's Designated Funds
Educational Institutions Fund
Synod's Office Account
Public Relations Fund
Inter-Church Relations Fund
Permanent Reserve Fund
Campus Christian Life Fund
Contingent Salary Fund
Revolving Salary Fund
Presbyterian Office Building Fund
Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund
Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund

We have examined the balance sheet of the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church In The United States, Raleigh, North Carolina, as of December 31, 1960, and the related statements of income, changes in fund balances and statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

We tested the recorded transactions to the extent of tracing the receipts to the depositories and verifying the amounts recorded by appropriate transmittal papers and correspondence, and verifying the contributions from the presbyteries by direct confirmation. Church loans were also verified directly. Expenditures were supported by endorsed cancelled checks and invoices or signed receipts. These were found to be authorized in the minutes of committees and Synod's Council. Bank balances, which were confirmed by correspondence, were reconciled with balances shown on the books. We also ascertained from our analyses that disbursements were properly allocated.

Our examination included such tests of the accounting records and other auditing procedures we considered necessary in the circumstances, the books having been maintained on a cash basis. We did not verify the records of the Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund and the Presbyterian Campus Christian Campus Life Campaign Fund beyond the recorded receipts and disbursements.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church In The United States at December 31, 1960, and the results of the various funds' operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accounting principles applicable to such organizations, maintaining the books and records on a cash basis. excluding the Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund and the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund because of the limited scope of our examination regarding the receipts of these two funds.

EXHIBITS AND SCHEDULES

In presenting to you our findings, as the result of the audit, we have prepared twenty-one Exhibits and nine Schedules, as enumerated in the Index, which are attached as a part of this report, in addition to the following comments:

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES—ALL FUNDS COMBINED

December 31, 1960

Exhibit "A"

In this Exhibit, captioned as above, we show a combination of all assets and liabilities as we determined them on December 31, 1960. Excluded from the statement are funds of the Christian Higher Education Campaign Fund and the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund. Inter-fund accounts have been eliminated. Assets totaled $378,095.31. Synod's land, buildings, equipment and furnishings totaled $130,265.68. This represents the cost of equipment acquired in prior years and the cost of furnishing the new Synod's offices from the building fund. Real estate acquired by a bequest from Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton's estate is shown at an appraised value of $16,500.00, and includes three residences located on Tilden Street, Raleigh, North Carolina. Liabilities amounted to $38,297.79. The excess of assets over liabilities result in a surplus of $339,797.52. This is composed of $130,265.68 which was invested in fixed assets and $209,531.84 in fund balances. The changes in fund balances are explained in the supporting Exhibits referred to on Exhibit "A".

Synod's causes funds were handled through Synod's Office General Fund except for the loan funds, campaign and savings accounts. The bank balance at December 31, 1960 reflected an overdraft per the books. Checks were drawn at the end of the year to pay for the cost of equipment and the new office building which accounted for most of the overdraft. The funds on hand at December 31, 1960 were distributed as follows:

Funds Available:

Petty Cash	$ 200.00
Employees' Air Travel Credit Deposit	425.00
Due From Presbyterian Office Building Fund	66,695.87
	$67,320.87

Distributed As Follows:

Synod's Office Account	$ 1,217.79
Church Extension Fund	14,922.57
Educational Institutions Fund	2,677.02
Contingent Salary Fund	6,838.68
Revolving Salary Fund	6,044.04
Catechism Awards	148.25
Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church Campaign Fund	23.00
Bank Overdraft	35,449.52
	$67,320.87

Dividends accruing on capital stock were received and accounted for according to prescribed rates. All securities were examined during the audit. These securities are part of the Permanent Reserve Fund and the income derived from them was apportioned directly to the Church Extension Fund and used for grants-in-aid. The securities and the dividends received are shown in detail on Exhibit "P".

All transactions of the Church Extension Committee Loan Funds were examined. At December 31, 1960 the total of the unpaid balance of these loans and accrued interest to that date was $131,323.17. The cash on deposit was $20,308.97. The total unpaid balance of the loans and cash was $151,632.14. At December 31, 1959 the funds' assets totaled $146,236.73. We examined all notes and deeds of trust and found them on hand and apparently properly executed. Details of the loans are shown on Schedule-8 and the funds' transactions are shown on Exhibit "E".

The Permanent Reserve Fund and Educational Institutions Fund have loans to churches not included above. The details of the Permanent Reserve Fund loans are shown on Exhibit "P" where they total $25,394.39, Cash in Savings, $31,715.04, a total of $57,109.43, not including securities valued at $2,405.00.

Proceeds from a gift received from Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Stultz in 1955 have been loaned to churches from the Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account. The fund had a loan of $15,000.00 due from the Presbyterian Campus Christian Life Campaign Fund at December 31, 1960. The total fund assets were $26,637.00, and are detailed on Exhibit "H".

The total of all unpaid loans by funds was as follows:

Presbyterian Church Extension Committee Loan Fund—Schedule—8	$131,323.17
Permanent Reserve Fund—Exhibit "P"	25,394.39
Educational Institutions Fund Savings Account—Exhibit "H"	9,317.93
TOTAL	$166,035.49

Following Exhibit "A" we have prepared statements for each fund showing the financial position or cash balance at December 31, 1960 and statements of income or statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. In addition we offer the following comments:

Support of the Synod's Educational Institutions and other Higher Educational agencies was based on a net of $268,813.58 for distribution. The amounts and percentages are shown on Exhibit

"I". These distributions include designated gifts from presbyteries and churches. A contingency fund—part of Educational Institutions Fund was established in 1957 for the purpose of assisting the three Institutions involved in the consolidation of the colleges. Its share of the funds available in 1959 was $20,763.17. During 1959 $15,000.00 was appropriated, leaving a balance of $10,463.33. The fund's share of the 1960 receipts was $18,655.68. All the funds were distributed in 1960 as shown on Exhibit "H". A Permanent Advisory Committee on Higher Education was established by the Synod of 1955. The Committee's share of funds available in 1958 was $2,873.78. This was not disbursed in 1958; however, committee expenses amounted to $132.20 in 1959, leaving a balance of $2,741.58 undistributed at the end of 1959. The amount of $64.56 was disbursed for expenses in 1960, leaving a balance of $2,677.02.

Synod's Designated Funds represents an amount contributed by members of the Belk family to pay for the cost of publishing Dr. O. V. Caudill's Church and Manse Planning Book. Dr. Caudill refunded the amount advanced to him plus interest after becoming ill and could not complete the writing. The cash balance, in a savings account, at the beginning of the year was $4,564.00. Interest earned in 1960 totaled $83.73. During 1960 $3,632.70 was forwarded to the William Black Home, Inc., leaving a balance of $1,015.03 in the fund, as shown on Exhibit "G".

Synod's support of the North Carolina Council of Churches was disbursed from presbytery benevolence receipts. These funds were received and disbursed by the inter-Church Relations Fund—Exhibit "M". The budgeted amount for support to the Council and other benevolences, including expenses, was 6,236.65; however, only $3,738.43 was available and paid. The fund owed the Revolving Salary Fund $1,036.65 at December 31, 1960 for an operating deficit incurred in 1958.

The Revolving Salary Fund was established in 1957 to maintain a balance of not less than twenty percent of salaries, rent and traveling expenses in the current budgets of the designated agencies of Synod. This fund was not included in Synod's budgets for 1959 and 1960. A loan was made to Christian Education in the amount of $7,000.00 in 1959; however, this was cancelled by Synod action in 1960. The fund has a cash balance of $6,044.04 at the end of the year, and a loan of $1,036.65 made to the Inter-Church Relations Account in 1958.

The Equalization Fund, which was established in 1957, had no transactions in 1960. No distributions were necessary to meet the budget-askings of the agencies of Synod.

Synod's Office General Fund received and disbursed designated receipts for Christian Education, Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Presbyterian Guidance Center, Presbyterian Home, Inc., and Catechism awards. The details of these are shown on Schedules-1, -2, -3, -4, and -5, respectively.

The Synod's office building was completed in 1960 and is located at 1015 Wade Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina. The funds for erecting the building and receiving gifts were transacted through the Presbyterian Office Building Fund. The details are shown on Exhibit "U". Gifts and interest earned on the savings account amounted to $29,343.76 through December 31, 1960. Disbursements for various expenses, cost of land, building, and furnishings totaled $96,039.63. This resulted in an excess of disbursements over receipts in the amount of $66,695.87. The excess came from Synod's General Fund. The Statement of General Fixed Assets—Schedule—9—has been prepared to show the Synod's properties and equipment. Assets acquired by the building fund totaled $91,616.12 made up of the following:

Land and Improvements	$ 3,904.05
Building	79,530.40
Furniture, Equipment and Furnishings	8,181.67

The Synod received in 1958 and 1959 $4,406.03 which represented residue from the estate of the late Mrs. Sadie Duncan Wharton, widow of the late C. P. Wharton. This was deposited with First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Raleigh, North Carolina. The estate also included a deed for properties in Raleigh, North Carolina, which were valued at $16,500.00. These were bequests to the Home Mission Committee of the Executive Committee of Church Extension. The income from the properties is to be a perpetual fund to be applied to the salary and support of Home Mission and Evangelistic Work in the Synod of North Carolina. Net rents and interest on the savings account amounted to $1,156.75 and was received by the Church Extension Fund—Exhibit "D".

The Christian Higher Education Campaign was begun in 1956 and the records have been maintained in Synod's Office. On Schedule—6 the current year receipts and disbursements are shown and the totals to December 31, 1960. Our audit of receipts was made from summaries of subscriptions and payments. The individual pledge cards have not been added completely and compared with the general book totals. The subscriptions through December 31, 1960, after cancellations, totaled $1,703,706.06, per the book summaries. Of this amount $1,377,053.02 had been paid in cash and $81,278.04 in securities—a total of $1,458,331.06. Thus the unpaid subscriptions were $245,375.00.

Synod allowed the Campus Christian Life Committee to conduct a campaign in 1958 to raise $300,000.00 which was the amount unpledged in the Christian Higher Education Campaign and needed to implement the program of work initiated by the Committee. The campaign was supervised by the firm, Ward, Dreshman and Reinhardt, New York, New York. Campaign receipts have totaled $197,508.50. Campus Christian Life's share of the Christian Higher Education Campaign gifts was $163,333.66 to December 31, 1960. Interest earned on savings has totaled $3,330.85. The Board of Christian Education contributed $23,000.00 from its challenge funds. The disbursements include 1958 campaign expenses of $40,450.89. Capital expenditures in college areas totaled $314,213.50. The fund's balance of Cash on Deposit and on hand at December 31, 1960, was $39,886.73. Details of the year's transactions are shown on Schedule—7. The fund owed the Educational Institutions Savings Account $15,000.00.

The statements contained in this report are based on the amounts as shown in the books and records of the Synod's Office. The books were not closed until all funds for the year were received from the presbyteries in order that all receipts for the year January 1, 1960 to December 31, 1960, could be included. Likewise, some expenses for the year were paid after December 31, 1960, and the cash balancs shown herein are after including these in the disbursements.

We found a depositor's forgery bond in force for $10,000.00;

fire insurance on contents of the office $10,000.00; blanket position bond for $25,000.00 and open stock safe buglary.

We found the books and records in balance and accurately kept.

We wish to express our appreciation for the courtesies extended us and the assistance and cooperation rendered by the entire personnel, which greatly facilitated our work.

We examined the minutes of the Secretary and found the approved procedures currently adhered to.

Very truly yours,

IV. REPORTS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

Rev. Archie G. McKee, Chairman

The Executive Committee of Campus Christian Life completes its first year of service to the Synod of North Carolina with an increasing awareness of its responsibility to the Synod and the opportunities, challenge, and needs of the ministry to Presbyterian students in the educational institutions in North Carolina.

PROGRAM: In addition to the work currently conducted at Duke University, East Carolina College, Fayetteville State Teachers College, North Carolina State College, University of North Carolina, Wake Forest, and Woman's College of UNC, two new projects have been approved.

(1) The development of a Ministry to Student Nurses in the Presbyterian Hospital, Charlotte, N. C. and among the student nurses in the greater Charlotte area. This is a pilot program for which the Synod is receiving challenge funds from the General Assembly.

(2) The establishment of a Metropolitan Ministry in the greater Raleigh area. This ministry will express itself in relationship to the students enrolled in North Carolina State, Meredith College, St. Mary's, Peace, Shaw University, St. Augustine College, Rex Hospital School of Nurses, and the new Wake County Hospital School of Nursing.

Recognizing its responsibility to plan and direct leadership education for campus ministers, local Campus Christian Life Committees, and Westminster Fellowship advisors, the program committee conducted a Workshop on the Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship last fall and plans a training institute for these workers and advisors in the fall of 1961.

The increasing student population imperatively demands that the CCC Ministry reach more effectively a higher percentage of Presbyterian students and non-preference students on the college campuses. It is estimated that there are 8,100 Presbyterians in all institutions of higher learning in North Carolina this session, compared with 7,184 last year, (an increase of 916), 6,632 the year 1958-1959 and 6,270 in 1955-1956. 4,500 Presbyterian students are now enrolled in the institutions served directly by the Campus Christian Life Ministry. There are between 5,000 and 10,000 students in North Carolina institutions of higher education who give no denominational preference.

It should be kept in mind that there will be over 12,000 Presbyterian students in all of our colleges by 1975. The largest percentage of these students will be enrolled in the institutions for which the Campus Christian Life Ministry is responsible. Immediate provisions must be made to guarantee an effective ministry to this burgeoning student population.

PERSONNEL: The Reverend Phillip J. Lee was called as a Campus Christian Life pastor at the University of North Carolina and began his work in September 1960. He succeeds the Reverend Harry E. Smith who resigned to engage upon graduate study.

Officers elected to the Synod Westminster Fellowship Council are:

Miss Elizabeth Hill, Meredith College
Mr. Wendell Manuel, University of North Carolina
Miss Sandra Trickett, Queen's College

Miss Hill succeeds Mr. Albert Keller of Davidson College, who rendered a year of outstanding service and leadership in the Westminster Fellowship of the Synod.

Three student Centers are understaffed with the result that the expansion and effectiveness of the program is greatly curtailed. In each of these Centers, Duke, North Carolina State, and University of North Carolina, there are at least 1,000 Presbyterian preference students. The Campus Christian Life Manual, which is the basis for the work of the Synod, directs that where there are more than 800 Presbyterian preference students, additional personnel should be employed. It stands to reason, in the complexity of the modern University that it is virtually impossible for one worker to minister effectively to a 1,000 students. The Synod's Committee faces continuous frustration in the direction and supervision of a vigorous and vital campus ministry because of the insufficient funds provided for this work.

FINANCE: The Sub-committee on Finance has carefully studied the history of the Synod's support to the Campus Christian Life Ministry, the immediate needs for the operational expense of the work, and the projections for long range needs for both operational expense and capital outlay.

CAPITAL FUNDS CAMPAIGNS: The results of the 1956 and 1958 campaigns for Capital funds as of January 1, 1961, were:

Pledged to CCL in 1956 and 1958	$469,026
Received by CCL from campaigns	304,240	(65%)
Balance due on Campaigns of 1956 and 1958	$164,786

The importance of speeding the collection of these pledges is paramount in view of current obligations and projected long range plans. Many changes have occurred in the CCL financial structure since the campaigns for capital funds first began in 1956. We are now operating at five of our Centers in buildings whose costs were provided or shared in by Synod.

CCL Property Developed with Synod Aid

	Capital Support from Synod
	Designated	Paid	% Paid
Chapel Hill	$265,000	$215,000	81.13

East Carolina	30,000	15,000	50.00
Total	$500,000	$390,063	78.01

As of June 15, 1961, $136,330 in pledges were still outstanding against needs of $127,986. The table above does not take into account the needs of Fayetteville State Teachers College, Wake Forest, or the Charlotte area.

Capital Fund Campaign of 1960 for the Sanctuary of the Chapel Hill Church.

The Synod of 1960 authorized a campaign for $154,000 to help build the new sanctuary at Chapel Hill, and the Trustees were authorized to borrow up to two-thirds of the money pledged. The Executive Committee on CCL was then handed the responsibility of raising this money. The present status of this campaign is difficult to define because some of the pledges are "hard" and some are "soft", while some Presbyteries have not cooperated at all.

A negative response was obtained from Fayetteville Presbytery. No clear response has been obtained from either Albemarle or Granville.

ANNUAL OPERATING BUDGETS FOR CCL

The annual operating budgets have been slowly increasing during the past few years. The rate of increase, however, has not been proportional to the increase in student population or to the need as defined by the CCL committee. A large gap exists at present between the budgets authorized by the Synod and the funds contributed by the churches constituting Synod. This budgetary gap has amounted to approximately 40% of the authorized budget during the past several years.

Recent Annual Budgets for Campus Christian Life

	1957	1958	1959	1960	1961
Budgets accepted by Synod	$37,720	$45,310	$65,120	$67,615	$77,300
Payments by Churches	27,069	27,304	38,443	41,077	?
Budgetary Gap:
In dollars	—$10,651	—$18,006	—$26,667	—$26,538	?
In per cent	—28%	—40%	—40%	—39%	?

The pressure of increasing student loads implies that our receipts must be increased rapidly if we are not to lose ground.

LONG RANGE CAPITAL NEEDS—New buildings will be required at both Greenville and Greensboro within the next several years. In fact, architectural studies have already begun at Greensboro. It is also likely that structures will be required eventually at Fayetteville, Winston-Salem, and Charlotte Community College.

It seems justifiable, therefore, to state the needs for capital improvements for 1965-70 as being roughly $375,000 to be divided equally ($75,000) among WC-UNC, ECC, FSTC, Wake Forest, and Charlotte Community College.

The present operational budget requirements are $79,776 and for 1965-70 are projected at a minimum of $137,500 which means that the present level of Synod's contributions (approximately $43,000) must be doubled immediately and tripled by 1965.

SYNODICAL CAMPAIGN FOR A NEW CENTER AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE. A campaign for $50,000 to erect a new Student Center at Woman's College, UNC, will be conducted by the Women-of-the-Church from October 1, 1961 through September 30, 1963. The Finance Committee is deeply indebted to the Women of the Church for their vision to undertake this significant project.

RECOMMENDATIONS: The possibilities and the future development of Campus Christian Life ministry in an expanding student population are limited only by the insufficient funds provided by Synod for this work. The expansion and effectiveness of Campus Christian Life Ministry in the next decade rests squarely upon the hearts and in the hands of the members of the Synod of North Carolina.

Recommendations:

(1) That the annual Budget Asking be approved, accepted, and honored by the Presbyteries of the Synod of North Carolina.

(2) That all efforts be made to stimulate giving for CCL in the churches, with the aim of tripling (from $43,000 to $137,000) the annual operating budgets for CCL by 1970.

(3) That strenuous efforts be made to collect the balances due on the campaigns of 1956 and 1958.

(4) That each Presbytery appoint a Permanent Committee on CCL for the purpose of carrying the program to the membership of the Presbyteries.

(5) That the Women-of-the-Church in the Synod of North Carolina be commended and given full support and encouragement in their 1961-63 campaign for the Student Center at Woman's College, UNC, Greensboro.

(6) That Synod adopt a budget for 1962 for Campus Christian Life in the total amount of $79,776.

(7) That pending the adoption of this Report, Synod hear an address by the Rev. T. Hartley Hall, IV, Minister to Students at North Carolina State College, Raleigh.

B. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

REV. JAMES E. FOGARTIE, Chairman

The Executive Committee of Christian Education takes pleasure in presenting to the Synod a report of the year's work and a preview of the plans for the ensuing year. Your Committee is ever mindful of the responsibility placed upon it by Synod, and we appreciate deeply the confidence of the Synod and ask for continued support. It is our hope that this summary account will serve to acquaint Synod with the scope of the Committee's functions, plans, and accomplishments.

During the past year, the Committee has met several times as a whole, and has worked through subcommittees charged with particular areas of work.

Regional Director

Your Committee would be remiss did we not express appreciation for the labors of the Reverend Robert Turner, Regional Director for the Synod of North Carolina. Mr. Turner continues to give leadership in every phase of Christian Education. He possesses keen insight into the life and work of our Synod, and we rejoice in the development of the program of Christian Education under his leadership. We ask for our Regional Director the continued support and encouragement of the Synod.

During the year, the office of the Regional Director occupied new facilities in a recently-constructed educational building at the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte. Your Committee expresses appreciation to the First Presbyterian Church for splendid cooperation in making these facilities available.

Children's Work

Through the Subcommittee on Children's Work, we have endeavored to make available to the Synod a program calculated to render every possible aid to those engaged in this field. We are increasingly aware that the growth of the Church is predicated in large measure upon the foundations which are laid in the early years.

Vacation Church School Institutes have been conducted for directors and teachers in the several areas of the Synod. Such institutes were under the guidance of the Area Directors of Christian Education. During 1960, 478 Vacation Church Schools were held in the Synod with an enrollment of 33,772 pupils and 7,566 adult workers.

Within the bounds of Synod are twelve Training Centers with teacher consultants. Churches are invited to make use of these Centers as means of better preparing their own leadership. The locations of the Training Centers are as follows:

Consultant	Training Center
Mrs. Quinton Holton 116 Woodlynn Drive Charlotte, N. C.	3-Year-Old Nursery Department Paw Creek Presbyterian Church Paw Creek, N. C.

Mrs. B. J. Phipps 1918 Union Street Charlotte, N. C.	Adult Department First Presbyterian Church Charlotte, N. C.
Mrs. Robert O. Byrum Byrum Drive Charlotte, N. C.	Adult Department Steele Creek Presbyterian Church Charlotte, N. C.

An Area Laboratory School will be conducted in the Starmount Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C., July 16-21. Publicity has been sent out regarding this school and it is hoped that an increasing number of Churches will be represented. Classes for leaders in Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, and Junior Departments will be available.

At the recommendation of the Children's Work Sub-Committee, the Executive Committee of Christian Education affirmed the need for keeping all Junior Resident Camps up to recognized standards. We believe that there is wisdom in the recommendation that preference be given to third year Juniors at such camps.

Your Committee asks the cooperation of the several Churches in reporting promptly to Synod's Office activities taking place in the area of Children's Work. Such reports at times may seem tedious, yet they enable your Synod's Committee to plan more thoroughly.

Youth Work

That Young Peoples' rallies, camps, and conferences have a vital place in the life of the Church is obvious to any thoughtful churchman. Every Presbytery through its own Committee of Christian Education is seeking to provide thorough training for our young people. These media of training are effective, however, only as local Churches encourage the participation of their own young people.

A Synod's Youth Conference is planned for Davidson College June 26 through July 1. Information relative to this Conference may be obtained from the office of the Regional Director, or from any of the Area Directors of Christian Education.

Pioneer Conclaves have been conducted in most of the Presbyteries of the Synod and reports indicate a growing success in this undertaking.

A training session for those responsible for the planning of Presbytery Senior High Conferences is being planned for the fall of 1962. Likewise, a similar endeavor in the area of Pioneer Camps will be planned in conjunction with the training session for Junior Leaders in the fall of 1962.

Men's Work

The Men of the Synod continue to render effective service in enlisting the men of the several churches in the life and work of the Synod. Every effort should be made to coordinate the program of local Men of the Church organizations with that of the Synod and the Presbytery.

The Synod Men's Conference at Montreat is June 15-18, and a significant group of men from every part of the Synod is expected in attendance.

The Christian Youth Conference for Negro Young People is scheduled for June 12-17 at State Teacher's College in Fayetteville. Once more, this conference is sponsored by the Men of the Synod.

In preparation for the Men's Convention set for June 20-23, 1963, in Dallas, Texas, each Synod has been asked to secure funds to defray the expenses of this enterprise. Such an effort will eliminate registration fees for the convention. The Men of North Carolina have been asked for $9,000.00, and Mr. James Harris of Wilmington is serving as Treasurer and Promotion Chairman in this venture.

Adult Work

The need for an adequate program of work for adults is of ever-increasing importance. Working through the Sub-Committees in this field, your Synod's Committee has sought to formulate definite policies and programs for adults.

Plans are being made for an Adult Workshop, April 29-May 3, 1962, at St. Andrews College, Laurinburg, for the purpose of training leaders in Adult Work. Information relative to the workshop will be forthcoming.

Your Synod's Committee is asking each Presbytery to provide a "Twelve Hour" Adult Workshop during 1962 and 1963. These efforts will be held on weekends and are to include a study of the theology of adult Christian education, demonstration teaching with evaluation, and the study of the theory of small-group work with participation in small-group study procedures.

Leadership Education and Area Work

A sound program of Christian Education is predicated upon adequately-trained leadership. That the Churches of the Synod are aware of this pressing need is seen in the many requests that come into Synod's Office for help in this field. The following statistical report indicates the work that has been done during the past year:

Clinics		19
Vacation Church School Institutes
Teachers	10
Directors	9	19
Camps and Conferences
Junior	21
Pioneer	20
Senior High	10
Senior High Council	11
Senior High Rallies	20	82
Pioneer Conclaves		5
Church School Administration Conferences		1
Camp Training
Junior	6
Pioneer	3
Senior High	1	10
Leadership Schools		15

Through the Synod's Office, a list of persons who have taught in Leadership Schools in recent years and the courses taught may be obtained by interested Churches. Each Presbytery, moreover, is being asked to compile a list of leaders for use in the particular Presbytery.

Your Committee expresses appreciation for the able work of our Area Directors. They are Miss Helen Cole, Orange Presbytery; Miss Mary Catherine McCormick, Fayetteville Presbytery; Miss Helen Jackson, Granville Presbytery; Miss Sue Ruddock, Mecklenburg Presbytery; Miss Eloise Wells, Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries; and Miss Dorothy Ray, Kings Mountain Presbytery. We are delighted to announce that Miss Patricia Stapleton will assume her responsibilities as Area Director for Albemarle Presbytery on July 1.

During the past year, a one-day meeting was held in Asheboro for Presbytery Committee Chairmen and Sub-Committee Chairmen of Children's Work and Leadership Education. A similar venture is planned for the ensuing year.

Provision is being made for a Youth Laboratory for the training of Adult leaders of youth during 1962. Moreover, a recreation workshop will be conducted in the Synod.

Your Committee desires to alert the Synod to the Covenant

Life Curriculum Seminars to be conducted in 1962. These seminars will take place in the several presbyteries and every Church is urged to make arrangements to send ministers and directors of Christian Education to the seminars. Each Presbybytery will have a Covenant Life Seminar Committee which will be responsible for promotion and arrangements. A schedule of places and dates will be forthcoming.

Audio-Visual Department

Your Committee commends to the Synod the Audio-Visual Department of the Committee of Christian Education which is under the competent direction of Miss Beatrice Kiser. It is gratifying to note that the monthly circulation of the department averages 244 audio-visual aids. Approximately 144 Churches in the Synod used the services provided by the library during the past year, with 2,934 pieces of audio-visual material being used. Membership in this department may be secured by any Church in the Synod at an annual fee of $12.00.

Christian Action

Throughout the Church, there is a growing awareness of the important role of Christian Action. Materials available in the field are commended for use in the several Churches of the Synod.

Through the Sub-Committee on Christian Action, a list of suggested suitable graded materials for a study of alcoholism in Presbyteries, local Churches, leadership schools, and men's groups will be available.

Finance

The attention of the Synod is called to the annual audit of the Financial Statement attached to this report. Your Committee recognizes its stewardship of substance, and seeks to expend the funds entrusted to it in a careful manner. A copy of this audit was placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod.

Your Committee urges the several Churches of the Synod to make every effort to meet their benevolence responsibilities for the year. Failure to do so will hinder the work of Christian Education, not only in the Synod, but in every Church.

Recommendations

1. That all Churches of the Synod be reminded of the urgent need of relating the Christian faith to life and that Christian action be given special emphasis during the month of January.

2. That the attention of Synod be directed toward the recognition of an increasing need for greater emphasis of the Presbytery and local Church's Program for Adults.

3. That the several Churches of the Synod make every effort to facilitate the implementation of the Covenant Life Curriculum through the Seminars to be conducted in 1962.

4. That Synod adopt a budget for 1962 for Christian Education in the total amount of $90,712.

5. ,That, pending the adoption of this report, the Reverend Robert Turner, Regional Director of Christian Education, be heard briefly; and that Dr. Marshall C. Dendy, Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education, be heard to address the Synod on the Covenant Life Curriculum.

C. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF CHURCH EXTENSION

REV. W. D. McINNIS, Chairman

Preamble

The position so graciously assigned us by the Program Committee on Synod's agenda is in itself, we feel, an indication of the importance of Church Extension.

Including as it does at the Synod level Home Missions, Evangelism, Radio and Television, and Negro Work, it reaches into practically every area of our churches life. To the degree that we are interested in and support sincerely the program of Church Extension, to that degree our church prospers both spiritually and physically.

Our report, already in your hands, although detailed and somewhat lengthy, should command your intelligent and prayerful consideration. Take a long hard look for instance at the facts dealing with gains and losses under Evangelism. Gratefully do we acknowledge that we have grown from a membership of 90,903 in 1940 to 144,784 in 1960. Still those added on profession of faith were 422 fewer in 1960 than in 1959. We have 111 vacant churches as against 85 a year ago. The great Synod of North Carolina continues to grow more slowly than the average for the General Assembly.

Again consider well the challenge before us in the field of television and radio. With our department of radio and TV under the direction of Ted. L. Daniel great stride should be made in this field.

The full Committee met for the first time in the Synod's new Office building in Raleigh on May 15-16. Sub-committees met separately on one or more occasions, each. In keeping with the charter of incorporation, the Committee also convened as a corporation on May 16, 1961.

PROGRAM

Personnel: On February 1 Mr. Ted L. Daniel, formerly with Radio Station WPTF, Raleigh, began work as Director of Radio-TV, under the Synod's program of expansion in this field in collaboration with TRAV of the General Assembly. Mr. Daniel is thoroughly conversant with the field of Radio. He is rendering valuable assistance in the program of communications, and has shared much of the responsibility of preparations for the Centennial Celebration of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

The Committee loses Mr. J. B. Brewer, whose second term on the Committee expires at this meeting of Synod. He has been a valued member and will be missed.

Public Relations: While this Committee supports on an equal basis with Synod's Council the Publicity program of Synod, the Report on this phase of the Synod's work will be presented to Synod by the Council. Our Committee has taken action whereby there will be liaison between the Council's sub-committee on Publicity and our Committee.

Office Building: A full report on the Synod's new Office Building will also be made to Synod by its Council. However, since the work of this Committee is accomplished through the Staff in Synod's Office, and the General Secretary is our agent, we join with all who have expressed satisfaction with the building in expressing our gratitude to God for its completion. It was this Committee which overtured the Synod's Council some three or four years ago to move forward with plans for the erection of this structure. And it is because this Committee has certain funds, entrusted to its stewardship, available for a temporary loan without interest, that the building has been constructed.

In view of the fact that the late Dr. E. E. Gillespie served as the agent of this Committee, it is appropriate that the office of the General Secretary has been furnished in memory of Dr. Gillespie, and his portrait hung on the wall. These are the gift of the family of Dr. Gillespie.

FINANCES

1. Assembly Support: The Board of Church Extension approved of Salary Sustentation Aid during 1961 for three Presbyteries as follows:

	Approved	Requested
Albemarle	$10,065.00	$10,340.00
Wilmington	7,175.00	8,500.00
Winston-Salem	15,452.00	16,077.00
	$32,692.00	$34,917.00

This was an increase of $4,477 over 1960, but $2,225 less than was requested.

The Board had requests from all over the Assembly totaling $782,749, $96,000 more than could be granted, which is the reason for the reduction in appropriations.

Synod requested from the Board Grants-in-Aid for six churches in as many presbyteries, a total of $74,953 ($23,000 in 1960), and received grants totaling $10,000 (nothing in 1960), as follows:

Western Boulevard, Raleigh (G)	$ 7,500
Randolph, High Point (O)	2,500
	$10,000

The Board was faced with 76 requests from 55 Presbyteries for Grants totaling $909,000, which was four times the amount available.

Synod's gifts to the Board of Church Extension increased in 1960 over 1959 by $1,191.65; nevertheless, Dr. Pritchard writes:

> "Our Board's total receipts from the Synod of North Carolina for the church year ending December 31, 1960 were $193,691.26. Your Synod's full proportionate share of the Assembly's minimum askings for the support of our Board for 1960 was $294,877.00. Our Board's receipts from North Carolina were 65.69% of the minimum asked by the General Assembly. Our total receipts from all of the Synods during 1960 amounted to 63.79% of the total asked for our Board by the General Assembly. For the church year 1959 we received from the Synod of North Carolina 64.02% of the > amount asked by the General Assembly as compared with 65.69% for 1960. If our receipts from your Synod for 1960 had approached more nearly the amount asked by the General Assembly, our Board would have been able to grant more of the donation requests presented for its consideration at the February 1961 meeting of the Board."

2. Synod Support:

(1) Income and Disbursements: Our income for 1960, while not as good as for 1959, is better than for 1958. We received from Presbyteries $56,257.83 in 1960 in contrast to $63,509.15 in 1959. This was a decrease of $7,251.32. The major reason for the decrease in gifts is reflected in substantially lower income from Mecklenburg ($5,890.20 less), Orange ($2,228.11 less), and Wilmington ($1,347 less).

We disbursed in 1960 to the four aid-receiving Presbyteries for salary sustentation of Home Mission Pastors $25,877.49 in contrast to $27,922.22 the year before, or $2,044.73 less than in 1959.

We ended 1960 with a balance of $14,922.57, after making distribution of $12,000 as Grants-in-Aid. However, since January 1, we have given $2,000 in Grants, and are holding $2,500 for another project which has been approved.

The four Aid-receiving Presbyteries are asking for $2,139 less for 1962 than for 1961 (including MAF). Only Wilmington is asking for more, just $650.

Sustentation of Salaries: There are currently 40 ministers, 2 lay workers, and 2 Executive Secretaries in four Presbyteries on whose salaries the Synod shares support. These represent 44 fields and 76 churches. In addition, there are 18 vacant fields in the four Presbyteries, which when supplied, receive aid from your Committee. In all there are 62 fields (48 last year), representing a total of 102 churches (86 last year), which are served from time-to-time by the workers who are aided by Synod. Synod subsidized salaries of these workers in 1960 in the amount of $25,877, which was $2,045 less than in 1959.

Grants-in-Aid: Grants-in-Aid Appropriations were made in 1960 as follows:

(A)	Macclesfield	$ 1,000
(G)	Garner	1,000
	Western Boulevard	4,000
(O)	Northside	2,000
	Randolph	2,000
(W)	Westminster	1,000
	Delgado	1,000
		$12,000

Also approved was a grant of $2,500 for a Negro church in Greenville.

Applications are in hand for grants from 15 churches in six Presbyteries totaling $60,000 on building projects totaling over $669,700. This does not allow for any future developments, including emergencies.

The following Table shows the Grants-in-Aid program since 1950:

	Gave		Gave
1950	$21,550	1955	$ 9,800
1951	30,730	1956	1,600
1952	5,380	1957	798
1953	2,246	1958	950
1954	5,134	1959	20,400
		1960	12,000
			$110,588 TOTAL

3. Loan Funds:

There were 38 loans to churches at the end of 1960 (35 a year ago), ranging from $2,000 to $25,000. Loans are made at 4% interest, and are properly secured. Income from the Church and Manse Loan Fund is returned to the Corpus, and when the fund reaches $200,000, the income will be used in a manner to be determined by the Committee, probably support of the work through grants-in-aid. The income from the Permanent Reserve Fund is used as grants.

The Church and Manse Loan Fund as of January 1, 1961, stood at $151,632 in contrast to $146,237 a year ago, a gain of $5,395.

The Permanent Reserve Fund on January 1, 1961 stood at $57,109, which is approximately the value of the fund since earned income is transferred to the Grants-in-Aid Fund.

4. Securities: There are securities valued at $2,405 which yielded $277.20 in 1960.

5. Wharton Estate: The Wharton Estate bequest consists of three houses, valued at a total of $26,612, and $4,406.03 on savings. From rent on the houses in 1960 we received a net of $998.65 ($985.76 the year before), and from interest $180.40 ($166.71 the year before), or a total of $1,179.05 ($1,152,47 the year before), all of which was transferred in compliance with the will, to the support of a Home Mission pastor doing evangelistic work.

6. McCallum Estate: We received no income from the estate in 1960. In the annual Report to Synod by the Trustees, it is being reported that there is available this year from the estate, $2,561.48, only a small part of which will be allocated to Church Extension.

7. Total Church Extension Gifts: Total gifts to Church Extension (Congregational, Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly) decreased in 1960. This was due largely to the fact that in 1959 Winston-Salem Presbytery conducted a campaign for Church Extension which netted at least $150,000 more than in 1960. However, the grand total of gifts was approximately $829,000 in contrast to $925,000 in 1959.

8. Apportionments and Acceptances: Granville alone accepted 100% Askings by Synod for 1960, and Granville and Winston-Salem for 1961. None gave in full in 1960. The Synod average of giving to Askings was 55.21% (62.08% in 1959). Winston-Salem had the best record for 1960—giving 70.94% of what Synod asked. Albemarle was second and Mecklenburg was lowest, with Wilmington 8th and Orange 7th.

By Presbyteries this is reflected for the past two years as follows:

1959		1960
Rank	Percent	Rank	Percent
1—A	73.54	1—WS	70.94
2—O	69.44	2—A	66.07
3—KM	66.83	3—C	66.00
4—W	66.67	4—KM	64.35
5—C	62.92	5—F	60.77
6—M	61.69	6—G	56.50
7—WS	56.50	7—O	53.40
8—F	52.85	8—W	50.67
9—G	49.06	9—M	39.54
SYNOD	62.08	SYNOD	55.21

9. 1962 Budget: The Committee has endeavored to present to Synod a hard-core Budget. The only places where increases occur are for Radio-TV and Grants-in-Aid. The former is offset by the reduction in askings by the four aid-receiving Presbyteries. As has been pointed out the Grants-in-Aid requests, which come with Presbytery Church Extension Committees' endorsements, total $60,000; however, your Committee, though recognizing the need, is asking Synod for $20,000 less than this in order to assure you that the Budget is an essential one.

EVANGELISM

Gains and Losses: Tables reveal that the net gain for Synod in 1960 was 1,718 in contrast to 1,930 in 1959 (2,143 in 1958), 1.20% in contrast to 1.37% (1.54% in 1958). The annual rate of increase was less than the average for the previous five years, 1.94%. Attention is again called to the fact that the annual rate of growth is slowly diminishing percentagewise, as is indicated below:

Year	Percent
1954	2.64%
1955	2.91%
1956	2.16%
1957	1.71%
1958	1.54%
1959	1.37%
1960	1.20%

Since 1940 the Synod has increased from 90,905 to 144,784 or by 53,879 or 59.27%.

Professions of Faith: The number added on profession of faith in 1960 was 3,904, 442 fewer than in 1959. Last year the loss in contrast to the previous year was 412.

The number of churches reporting no professions of faith in 1960 was 163 in contrast to 151 in 1959. The average number of churches without a minister during 1960 was approximately 128. These are for the most part the churches which report no professions. As of December 31, 1960 there were 111 vacant churches, not counting any with student supplies, stated supplies, or temporary supplies. A year ago we reported 85 vacant churches, not counting those with supplies. There are 644 churches in the Synod in contrast to 641 last year. The number of adult baptisms in 1960 was 1,916 in contrast to 2,239 during 1959, or a decrease of 323. Infant baptisms dropped by 396 from 2,916 to 2,520.

Growth of Synod Contrasted: The Synod continues to grow more slowly than the average for the General Assembly—1.20% in contrast to 1.53% for the Assembly in 1960; and 35.45% for the Assembly since 1950 in contrast to 26.03% for the Synod. Among the 16 Synods, North Carolina ranks 9th for 1960 (8th in 1959), and 10th for the period 1950-1960. The Synod of Florida again led the Assembly in growth with an increase of 4.79%, which was slightly better than the year before. Since 1950 Florida also has the best record among the Synods, with a percentage growth of 77.49. North Carolina's growth since 1950 is only approximately one-third that of Florida.

The General Assembly grows faster percentage-wise than the Baptist Church in North Carolina, 33.11 since 1950 for Presbyterians and 32.78% for the Baptist denomination. The Methodist increase for the same period is only 13.06%. The Synod rate is 6.24% below the Baptists since 1950, but 13.48% better than the Methodists.

Spiritual Birthrate: The Synod ranked 16th (last) in the General Assembly in Spiritual Birthrate, growth by profession of faith, in 1960 (9th last year); 2.74% in contrast to 3.09% last year, and to 5.14% for the Synod of Mississippi, which ranked first among the Synods. In the Soul--Winning Ratio, the number of members required to win each soul to Christ on profession of faith, the Synod also ranked last, 36.50 persons for every profession of faith, in contrast to only 19.46 persons for Mississippi, and 32.65 for the General Assembly. The Synod made its poorest showing in years in these areas.

By Presbyteries: Among the Presbyteries Orange led the Synod in net gain, 2.68%, and for the period 1940-1960 Albemarle continued to lead with a gain of 100%, in spite of registering a net loss for 1960 of —.60%. The Synod increase for the 20-year period was 59.27%. Mecklenburg continues in second place, with an increase of 81.64%.

For Spiritual Birthrate in 1960 Albemarle led with 3.05% growth by professions of faith. Orange ranked second and Mecklenburg and Concord ranked 8th and 9th. For the period 1952-1960 Albemarle also holds first place with an average of 4.28%. Winston-Salem is second, and Kings Mountain and Concord rank 8th and 9th. The Synod percentage for 1960 was 2.73 and for 1952-1960, 3.21.

For Soul-Winning Ratio, the number required to win one to Christ, Albemarle was first, 32.73, Orange second, and Kings Mountain and Concord 8th and 9th. The Synod average was 36.65. For the period 1952-1960, Albemarle had an average of 24.54 for first place, with Kings Mountain and Concord last, and the Synod average 32.08.

Sunday School:

The Sunday School enrollment increased by 429 in 1960, or .33%. This was not as great as communicant growth, 1.20%. Six Presbyteries reported losses. Only Granville, Mecklenburg, Orange, reported gains. Mecklenburg had the largest increase in number, 660, and Granville the largest percentage increase, 422, 4.20%. Five Presbyteries reported losses a year ago, and repeaters are Albemarle, Fayetteville, Kings Mountain, and Wilmington. For the period since 1940 Albemarle leads with a growth of 112.09% followed by Mecklenburg. Kings Mountain ranks last, with a growth of only 35.45%. The Synod increase for the same period is 73.16%.

HOME MISSIONS REPORT

Rev. Robert G. Hall, Chairman

All of the presbyteries of the Synod of North Carolina report encouraging progress in the area of Home Missions. They are alert to the challenge that confronts our Synod, and they are prepared for the expected population explosion of the 1960's.

A number of new churches have been organized during the last year. Among them are: Westminster in Fayetteville; Faith and Frank Price in Wilson; First in Kernersville; St. Giles in Charlotte; Forest Hills in High Point, and Forest Park in Statesville.

All of our presbyteries are conducting surveys of rapidly growing areas, and they are purchasing property where churches will be built in the near or even the distant future. Mecklenburg Presbytery has developed a very effective program along this line. A committee of six laymen has been appointed to keep the Presbytery informed about the growth of Charlotte in certain particular areas. As a result of this systematic study, three sites have already been purchased. Albermarle, Concord, Orange, Wilmington, and Winston-Salem presbyteries have also initiated studies of strategic areas and have purchased property for future development.

Albermarle Presbytery is to be commended for its progress in the field of Negro Work. Definite plans are being made for starting a new church in the Greenfield Terrace Development of Greenville. Lawrence Bottoms of the Assembly's Committee on Negro Work is co-operating with the Presbytery on this important project.

In addition to these activities, our presbyteries report that a number of Home Missions churches have become self-supporting during the last year, and others have decreased their askings for 1961.

Evangelism

Rev. Eugene E. Kirkman, Chairman

We would call your attention to the pre-Synod Conference held in conjunction with the 1960 meeting of Synod in Greenville, N. C., where a very good foundation was laid for the Presbyterian Mission to the Nation, and for our year's work. We were especially pleased that the conference was well attended and appropriately served a very useful purpose.

Members of the committee prepared themselves further by participation in the Church Extension Conference held at Montreat, attending a Seminar on the Mission to the Nation program conducted by Dr. Lawrence A. Davis.

In the fall of 1960 our Presbyteries were hosts to a visiting team of speakers for the Cavalcade in further preparation for the Mission to the Nation program. Following are the statistics on attendance throughout the Synod.

Evangelism Committee	Leaders Dinner	Night
2055	5842	16,186
Elders Breakfast	Ministers	Youth
1494	355	350

It was generally felt throughout the Synod that the Cavalcade was beneficial in reaching the majority of our churches with the specific emphasis of the mission of friendship, the mission of Christian action, and the mission of proclamation.

The Mission to the Nation program in itself began with the service of dedication and committment on January 1, 1961. Through the first quarter of this year this program has been the subject of major emphasis and attention throughout the churches of our Synod. We hope to be able to give a detailed report next year concerning the influence of this program in the total life of our Church.

We would commend to the Churches careful efforts to follow up the Mission to the Nation program. The mission of friendship is designed for continuous participation by the Local church. The "person to person" evangelism program, in its outreaching concern for the uncommitted, is an invaluable tool in the total responsibility of the Church.

Your Committee is very much concerned about the implications of the following tabulation gained from the 1960 reports to the General Assembly:

	Profession	Other Gains	Losses	Net	Rate	*Communicants

*Does not inclule ministers.

There were 170 churches in the Synod which did not report a single addition on profession of faith. Four of our Presbyteries reported organization of new churches.

It is our hope that Synod will be increasingly concerned about the situation in several Presbyteries and local churches by a more effective program of Evangelism.

May we urge ministers and lay leaders to make evangelism an integral part of the curriculum of every organization in the Church. We are living in a time of unprecedented opportunity. In most of the world the Christians are meeting with increasing opposition and frustration. We in the South are confronted with new opportunities for strengthening the Church and the work of God's Kingdom through a dilligent and profound concern for the spiritual well-being of a constantly increasing population.

Negro Work

Mrs. Raleigh Griffin, Chairman

In this our Centennial Year, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. should accept the challenge of taking the Gospel to all people, which means all races. The 1950 census showed approximately 11 million negroes in our Southland, and only half of them had been reached for Christ. Thus, the need is great, and likewise the opportunity. Here is an area where we can show our love, demonstrate by service, and exemplify our ability to witness for Christ.

As we face this open door of opportunity we must do so with faith. Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me".

Our Southland is changing in many ways, and especially in its means of economic growth. Thus, the negro is changing. Many are not satisfied with their own churches. Many negroes have pushed up the scale educationally and economically. As this happens they seek better things in life and mature above the emotional type of religion. Many, rather than go to their own churches, listen to radio services from white churches and become acquainted with a dignified, evangelistic worship which meets their needs. A community survey might prove rewarding. As new churches or programs are planned, cooperative efforts are important in carrying out the primary task of the Church—taking the Gospel to all people.

What are Presbyterians in North Carolina doing about Negro Work?

Albemarle:

A Negro Sunday School is conducted in Rocky Mount with leadership provided by the First Church.

A Negro Sunday School in Greenville is sponsored by the Church Extension Committee of the Presbytery, partially supported by each the Church Extension Committee and the First Church of Greenville. Leadership is provided by the First Church and students at East Carolina College. The main leader among the Negroes is a teacher. This work is conducted in a concrete block building.

A very generous offer of land has been made by a group of real estate men who are developing a first-class Negro sub-division in Greenville. At this point the Presbytery has not been able to make financial arrangements to insure the building of a church. Some outside help from friends is necessary to accomplish this project.

It is the hope of the people of Albemarle to employ a Negro minister for the Presbytery.

Concord:

The First Church of Concord sponsors a Sunday School and has provided most of the needed finances and much of the leadership necessary for this work. About four years ago a new building was constructed.

The First Church, Statesville, sponsors a Sunday School. It employs a Negro elder of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., to have charge of this worak.

In 1955 the Church Extension Committee made a survey of the Negro work situation in the Presbytery. Out of this came the recommendation that, although there were found Negro Presbyterian churches (U.P.-U.S.A.) in practically every large town in the Presbytery, it would be well to consider opportunities for developing this work in Concord, Statesville and Hickory. It was suggested that a full time negro minister be employed to have general oversight of the two existing Sunday Schools and a new work to be undertaken in Hickory. It was also suggested that a nursery or child care center and other program features might be added to the work in each location so that a real service could be rendered to the Negro community. The hope is that these Sunday Schools and church centers might move toward church organization and be related in a Larger Parish.

Fayetteville:

This presbytery has one Negro church located in Fayetteville which was organized in 1955. It has its own minister, Session, and Board of Deacons. It is located near Fayetteville State Teacher's College and has an active Westminister Fellowship.

Funds for this building were supplied from the Negro Work Campaign. The pastor's salary is paid by the church and the Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery. The manse is supplied by the Presbytery.

Granville:

So far there is no established work among Negroes in the Presbytery. However, there is a movement on foot, sponsored by the Presbyterian Council of Raleigh, to establish a Negro church in Raleigh—either a Presbyterian U. S. Church, or a Federated Church in cooperation with the local U. P. Church, with the idea of relocating it and making it a cooperative program.

Kings Mountain:

There is still no established work in King's Mountain Presbytery. However, the Shelby Presbyterian Church is investigating property sites in view of starting work. Thus far efforts have been unsuccessful in obtaining desirable property. During the coming year, the Church Extension Committee plans to urge other surveys be made with the hope that something can be started in one of the larger towns during the next year.

Mecklenburg:

For quite some years there have been two organized Negro churches in the Presbytery. Both of these congregations have nice plants with ample educational facilities. Each church has a well organized nursery.

Work is also carried on in a third community sponsored by the Myers Park Presbyterian Church.

Orange:

So far the Presbytery is doing very little about Negro work—a previous effort was met with opposition from the minister of the Northern Presbyterian Church. Studies have been made and options taken; but to no avail. The Rev. Leon Anderson of Atlanta was invited to come to view the situation with the idea of beginning a work in the Presbytery and becoming its first pastor. For lack of interest on the part of the Negroes, this plan was abandoned.

Wilmington:

Wilmington Presbytery has no Negro work. There are five Negro churches within the boundaries of the Presbytery, but these belong to the UP—USA Church.

Winston-Salem:

There are three Negro churches in the Presbytery. The largest and most recent is Dellabrook in Winston-Salem. The others are in North Wilkesboro and Danbury.

The Presbytery owns a very well located tract of land in Winston-Salem on which it hopes to someday establish other Negro work. It is felt that Dellabrook must become stronger before the new project is undertaken. Progress here is slow, but fairly steady and quite sound.

TRAV

REV. BEN F. BROWN, Chairman

Radio-TV Workshop—A four-day Radio-TV Workshop, initiated by this committee, but sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches, was held at Chapel Hill, August 18-21, 1960, with an enrollment of 19. Twelve of these were Presbyterians from the following Presbyteries: Concord, Fayetteville, Granville, Kings Mountain, Mecklenburg, and Orange. Three Presbyteries, Albemarle, Wilmington, and Winston-Salem, failed to send representatives. Reports on the Workshop were gratifying.

Employment of a Director—The major work of your committee during the year has been the establishment of a Department of Radio-TV and the employment of a Director.

The full Sub-committee on Radio-TV met in Raleigh on September 19, 1960 to implement the action of Synod to establish a Department of Radio-TV and to begin its search for a Director. Dr. Ernest Arnold of TRAV, Atlanta, met with the committee. Expected resources for 1961 were $5,000 from Synod (Church Extension Committee) and TRAV, $5,000. After careful consideration and estimates it was felt that a total of $12,500 yearly was necessary to establish this office. Dr. Arnold suggested that TRAV, instead of giving $5,000 a year for three years, divide its giving as follows: $2,500 in 1960, $5,000 in 1961, $5,000 in 1962 and $2,500 in 1963. With the $2,500 not used in 1960 a total of $12,500 would be available for 1961. Action was approved and a budget in this amount was prepared.

The Secretary and Dr. Arnold were asked to give publicity to this new position and that application be made to Synod's office.

A special committee to screen applications met in Raleigh on November 29, 1960. Formal applications had been received from nine men. By a process of elimination the committee felt led to consider Ted L. Daniel of Raleigh as its first choice. Mr. Daniel was asked to visit the offices of TRAV in Atlanta, and the Protestant Radio Center in Decatur. He began work February 1, 1961.

Educational FM Broadcasting—"The FM broadcasting medium is going in only one direction—upward." That is a quote from BROADCASTING MAGAZINE, February 20, 1961. After many false starts in its near thirty year history, frequency modulation radio is coming into its own. The broadcast spectrum is filling up in many metropolitan locations. Perhaps within the next two or three years FM will become a closed shop as AM is now. Several FM stations in the Synod of North Carolina could serve as a valuable tool of communication for the Church. Such stations would not be inordinately expensive. FM is high fidelity radio and a compatible system of stereo broadcasting on FM has just been approved by the Federal Communications Commission. Educational FM stations are not subject to as stringent Federal regulation as commercial stations. Presbyterian educational FM stations in the Synod (operated on our college campuses or by groups of churches or by single churches) doubtless would have a vital influence on the community. Such stations would: (1) spread the Gospel, (2) be a cultural force, (3) be informative (educational), (4) be a method of instant communication for the church, (5) bring high quality entertainment.

Recommendations:

Home Missions

1. That the Chairman of Church Extension and the Executive Secretaries of our Presbyteries be commended for their support of the Home Missions cause.

Evangelism

2. That organizations and groups in local churches continue to undertake The Mission of Friendship regularly throughout the year as a means of inviting persons to Christ, and enlisting every member in responsible witnessing.

3. That Sessions of local churches plan regular training programs in Person-to-Person Evangelism, using new materials available from the Division of Evangelism to prepare groups of members for more faithful witness to Jesus Christ.

4. That Sessions of local churches plan Missions of Proclamation to proclaim the Gospel through Preaching Missions, Person-to-Person visitations, Inquirer's Classes and all other possible means of helping persons to become Christians.

5. That Sessions be urged to plan training classes for new members, Adult as well as Youth, using, "Toward Responsible Discipleship", by Dr. William B. Ward, and other new material available from the Board of Christian Education.

6. That Presbyteries be encouraged to do everything possible to enrich the spiritual development of its ministers through retreats and small study groups.

7. That Presbyteries seek to establish a disciplined fellowship of prayer among the ministers, both active and inactive, in such a way that the work of each minister and the ministry of every church should be undergirded in intercessory prayer in a regular manner. (This program should be implemented through the Committee on Evangelism of each Presbytery.)

8. That every minister in the Synod of North Carolina submit to careful "Self-Examination" of the role which he is playing as an Evangelist of Jesus Christ, and dedicate himself anew to the fulfillment of his calling.

9. That the Committee urge on Synod, Presbyteries, and churches that strenuous efforts be exerted to curb the constant trend downward in growth by Communicants and also to improve the growth of Sunday School enrollments. To that end, first, emphasis should be given to prayer. It is recommended also that every Presbytery through its Committees on Evangelism and Christian Education study the statistics of the Presbytery in these areas, and endeavor to devise ways and means of improving the situation.

10. That all representatives to Synod be urged to read the provocative sermon on the "Presbyterian Mission to the Nation", by the Rev. Lawrence W. Avent, minister of the Crestwood Presbyterian Church, High Point, under the title, "Something Old, Something New".
11. That all ministers acquaint themselves with the program projected by the Women-of-the-Church, entitled "Go—That You May Know", and encourage their WOC organizations to participate in this program.
12. That all ministers be urged to stress the need of ministers and to confront our youth with the imperative of the call of the ministry as their vocation.

Negro Work

13. That all churches and Church Extension Committees recognize their responsibilities in the area of Negro work, and seek to take action toward enabling the Negroes of our Synod to have the type of Christian opportunities that will help them to worship and grow spiritually in a manner in keeping with other areas of their lives.
14. That all Churches, or Presbytery Church Extension Committees, who feel that there is a need in any area for an additional Negro church, avail themselves of the services of our Assembly's Department of Negro Work in the way of surveys and advice in undertaking such work.

Radio-TV

15. That Presbyteries, Church Extension Committees, local Ministers' Groups, and other interested groups or individuals be advised that Mr. Daniel is available for consultation, addresses, workshops, and for other services.
16. That Synod encourage our Educational Institutions, churches, and groups of churches, to explore the possibility of entering the field of Educational FM broadcasting while there are still openings in this area.

General

17. That Synod express appreciation to the Board of Church Extension for the salary sustentation aid provided on the salaries of ministers in the aid-receiving Presbyteries and for the grants-in-aid in two of our Presbyteries in 1961.
18. That churches and individuals be acquainted with the Permanent Church and Manse Loan Fund, and that they be urged to contribute to the Fund, looking towards the attainment of the goal of $200,000.
19. That Synod adopt a budget for 1962 for Church Extension in the total amount of $97,802.
20. That pending the adoption of these recommendations, Synod hear an address by Ted L. Daniel on TRAV.

[1] SOUL-WINNING RATIO: Number of members required to win one soul to Christ in a year. Determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith at the end of the year into the total number of communicants at the beginning of that same year. The result is in persons, not percentage and the lower the figure the better the standing.

[2] SPIRITUAL BIRTHRATE: Growth by professions of faith, expressed in percentage. Determined by dividing the number of members at the beginning of a church year into the number of accessions on profession of faith during that same year. The higher the percentage the better the standing.

D. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Rev. William C. Bennett, Chairman

I. Preliminary Statement:

In an era of increasing secular education, both privately and publically supported, the Church must marshall its resources for the Christian orientation of tomorrow's leaders in its own educational institutions. The highest quality work must be done on our campuses if our graduates are to have any effective influence for the Christian faith on contemporary culture. The leadership and equipment demanded to enable our institutions to do their job well requires of us a cooperative support that is intelligent, dedicated, and financially generous. The Synod of North Carolina has made progress in this direction as we have carried through on the recommendations of the 1955 study with the consolidation program and the opening of St. Andrews Presbyterian College in the fall of 1961. This great venture must now be followed through by our continued concern and increased backing.

II. General Finance:

A. Educational Institutions:

In the light of the above, the Committee regrets to report that in 1960, we received $5,139 less than in 1959 for the cause of Educational Institutions, a decrease of 1.88%. The budget asking was 9% above 1959. We received only 53% of what we asked of the Presbyteries (59% in 1959). By Presbyteries this was reflected as follows:

Percentage of Askings Given

Presbytery	Rank-1960	Rank-1959
A	1—66%	1—73%
C	1—66%	4—63%
KM	2—64%	2—66%
O	3—59%	3—64%
G	4—56%	8—49%
F	5—49%	6—53%
W	6—47%	9—45%
M	7—46%	5—62%
WS	8—34%	7—50%

The goal, established at the time of the 1955 study in Higher Education, was set at $100,000.00 per institution. We have fallen far short of that. For 1960, $70,000 each was requested for Union Seminary, Davidson, and Queens, while these institutions actually received only $37,258 each. Of the $90,000 requested for Flora Macdonald, only $61,213 was given. Of the $50,000 required for Peace and Presbyterian Junior College, $37,923 was received for PJC and $33,113 for Peace. St. Andrews received $37,250, so that of the total $505,000 asked for the support of all institutions, only $268,765 or 53% was given.

Last year, the Synod provided only 6.1% of the income of our combined institutions. (For Davidson College with an annual budget of two million dollars, the percentage was even lower.) In the light of these figures, Synod must face realistically the question of how much influence it can expect to exert on its related institutions.

This year, we are requesting conservative amounts which should be met in full if Synod is to live up to its responsibility to its educational institutions.

B. Contingency Fund.

Established to assist in the interim period the institutions to be consolidated this fund has proved its merit. It has been disbursed as follows:

Flora Macdonald	$38,098.82
Peace	13,000.00
Presbyterian Junior	33,098.83
	$84,197.65

C. The 1956 Campaign for Higher Education.

Total Pledges	$1,669,416
Total Payments	1,490,137
Balance Anticipated	$ 179,279

The income share in this for St. Andrews was $1,146,880. Pledges for this are still active and being paid. In the last 12 months, $111,349.00 has been received, of which $32,928 has been received since January 1, 1961. We would remind Synod that the receipts from this campaign are divided between St. Andrews (6/7) and Campus Christian Life (1/7). As of May 1, 1961, 64 churches which made corporate pledges still owe a total of $133,934.00. Ten churches have made no payment on pledges. Unpaid individual pledges total $46,245.00.

D. Guidance Center

Of the $16,800 budget for 1960, the Presbyteries accepted $13,061 and paid $10,521, the differential being met by Flora Macdonald College.

For 1961, the Center requested $20,830, the Presbyteries accepting $14,893.

If the Center is to be accredited by the American Personnel Guidance Association, it must receive $23,360 from Synod for 1962. $2,530.00 over the 1961 asking is included for this purpose.

III. Recommendations:

Educational Institutions

(1) That the Synod through its Presbyteries, churches, and members give full support to the campaign now in progress for St. Andrews Presbyterian College, and the faculty and staff and Board of Trustees be given full encouragement as the college is inaugurated.

(2) That Synod take cognizance of the important part which the institutions being consolidated into St. Andrews College have played in the history of our Synod and Church, the splendid contribution they have made to the program of education; and that Synod especially express its gratitude to all persons who have contributed to the program of education, past and present, including faculties, staffs, and Boards of Trustees.

(3) That Synod heartily commends to churches and parents of potential students the new institution to be opened at Laurinburg next September 15.

Guidance Center

(4) That pastors and Christian Education Committees keep before the youth of the churches the opportunities for guidance at the Presbyterian Vocational Guidance Center.

(5) That the prayers of Presbyterians of the Synod of North Carolina be earnestly solicited for the continued progress of the Presbyterian Guidance Center Program of the Synod.

(6) That Synod express appreciation to Dr. Rodger Wayne Decker, Director, and to members of the staff of the Center.

(7) That Synod express expreciation to Flora Macdonald College for facilities which have been provided for the Guidance Center since its beginning in 1952, and to St. Andrews Presbyterian College for facilities it contemplates providing.

(8) That Synod approve the appointment of two members of the Sub-Committee on the Guidance Center to serve with representatives of Synod's Executive Committee on Christian Education in presenting to the churches of the Synod of North Carolina information regarding the Vocational Guidance Center; the Rev. Robert Turner and Dr. Rodger Decker to be Advisory members of this Committee.

General:

(9) That the program of bequests and deferred gifts be commended to the churches.

(10) That all individuals and churches which have open pledges on the 1956 campaign be urged to complete payments as early as possible.

(11) That the Budgets respectively for Educational Institutions and the Guidance Center, as approved by Synod's Council, be adopted by Synod.

(12) That, whereas the Board of Trustees of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, elected by the Synod of North Carolina, and charged with responsibility of carrying out Synod's directives in this Consolidation program, has been brought into court as defendant; and whereas the Board of Trustees of St. Andrews Presbyterian College is representing the interests of Synod and seeking to serve as steward of Synod's Educational resources, the Synod of North Carolina petition the Superior Court that the Synod be made a formal party defendant in the suit now pending by the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, and the Board of Managers of Peace College, Raleigh, versus the Board of Trustees of St. Andrews Presbyterian College.

(13) That, pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. John R. Cunningham on the contribution to be made to higher education by the program of Synod, as reflected in the consolidation into St. Andrews Presbyterian College; and also the Rev. John S. Brown on the subject of Recruitment for the Ministry.

1. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON SYNOD'S EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

J. Bryant Kirkland, Chairman

The role of church owned and church related colleges is becoming progressively more important. The increased number of college-age students who will seek admission to colleges during the 60's accentuates the problem of institutions of higher learning of all types in meeting the educational needs of this important population group.

The committee is impressed with the enthusiasm and dedication of the leaders of the four institutions—St. Andrews College, Queens College, Davidson College and Union Theological Seminary. Even though each institution has a somewhat different mission to perform, purposeful planning is evident on each campus.

The institutions are doing an effective job in selecting and admitting the kind of students who have promise of utilizing their opportunities as college students to acquire competencies needed to become leaders in their respective fields of endeavor. Constant evaluations of instructional programs and teaching methods are being made. Innovations are also being introduced at some of the institutions. The core program on "Christianity and Culture" at St. Andrews will command the attention of educators throughout the region as a means of enriching the learning experience of the students. Of special interest also is the attempt being made to utilize the most competent staff members as lecturers in large classes, followed with small discussion groups.

One of the most crucial problems faced by the institutions is that of obtaining and maintaining competent staff members. Despite the salary increases that have been made the institutions are not competitive with the larger private and State supported institutions for personnel. It becomes very important, therefore, for us to increase our support for these colleges. All Presbyteries, churches, and individuals should become more actively concerned with the support of all our institutions. At a time when the new consolidated college—St. Andrews—is beginning its program it is particularly important that every effort be made to insure its success.

There are 2,437 students in our own institutions this year. Last year there were 2,526, 89 more than this year. Of these 1,260 are Presbyterians (51.7%) and 1,170 non-Presbyterians. Presbyterian students in all institutions of higher education in North Carolina have increased from 5,270 for the session 1955-1956 to 8,100 the current session. There was an increase this year over last year of 916. There are between 5,000 and 10,000 students who give no denominational preference. We conservatively estimate that by 1975 there will be 11,000 Presbyterians in the state institutions of higher learning.

a. MONOGRAPHS OF INSTITUTIONS

SENIOR COLLEGES

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, Davidson, North Carolina, David Grier Martin, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Trustees of Davidson College who are elected by Presbyteries in the Synod of North Carolina and by St. Johns and Everglades Presbyteries in the Synod of Florida and by Asheville Presbytery of Appalachia Synod. Founded in 1837. Men.

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; the Southern University Conference; the National Conference of Church-Related Colleges; the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; and is on the list of colleges approved by the Association of American Universities. Davidson has a Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. [Size of College: 953 students, 66 Faculty Members (plus R.O.T.C. personnel), 12 Administrative Officers].

Financial: Book value of property, $7,437,442; General and Scholarship Endowment, $10,431,092; for the college year ending June 30, 1961, the supporting churches of the Synod of North Carolina will have contributed $39,000 or 2.9% of the educational budget of the College according to an estimate based on payments so far this year.

As a part of Davidson's Ten Year $11,500,000 development plan, over $4,500,000 has been added to the resources of the college during the past four years. More than half of this amount has been designated as permanent endowment for faculty salaries and other essential operating expenses. Gifts to the Ten Year Program have also provided funds to finance the following additions to our physical plant:

Charles A. Dana Science Laboratories	$ 724,000
Mary Reynolds Babcock Wing of the Grey Memorial Library	266,000
Richardson Hall (Dormitory)	421,700
Martin Science Building (Renovations)	50,000
Chambers Building (Renovations)	5,000
John R. Cunningham Fine Arts Building (To be completed in September, 1961)	650,000
	$2,117,300

Almost all of the $7,000,000 which Davidson must raise in the next six years to complete the Ten Year Program will strengthen the academic areas of the college. This includes library resources and personnel, instructional tools such as audio-visual aids, curriculum studies, research and study funds, the building up of several vital departments and the renovation and addittion of academic buildings and equipment. Of paramount importance in coming years, is the ever-present and all-important necessity for additional permanent endowment for the improvement of faculty salaries.

A major step in this direction has been taken by the Richardson Foundation, headed by Mr. H. Smith Richardson, alumnus and former trustee of Davidson, in a challenge grant of $425,000 for the endowment of two Richardson professorships, on condition that the college raise during the next three years a total of $1,375,000 in additional gifts for faculty endowment.

The second major project will be a synod-wide campaign in 1965-1966 for the balance of the funds needed to complete the $11,500,000 Ten Year Program.

After a period of intensive study, a sub-committee of the Faculty Curriculum Committee is now developing a two-year interdepartmental course in the Humanities which will embrace the fields of History, Literature, Religion, Philosophy, and the Arts. This project, together with Davidson's well-established Honors program for upperclassmen, increased resources for professional development and research by individual professors, and other forward-looking projects are evidence that Davidson, in its 124th year as a church-related Christian college, is firmly committed in all aspects of its program both to high spiritual ideals and high academic standards. In the face of the crucial problems which lie before all American colleges and universities, Davidson is striving to continue its role in providing dedicated, trained leadership for the Church as well as for the business, civic, and professional life of this Synod, the South and the Nation.

During the 1961-62 academic year, the College will achieve an important objective in its Ten Year Program by increasing the student body to what is for Davidson an optimum level of 1,000 men.

FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE, Red Springs, North Carolina. Charles G. Vardell, Jr., President. A division of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Lauringburg, North Carolina, Ansley C. Moore, President, owned and operated by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States. Founded in 1896. Women. (Men enrolled as day students.)

Academic Standing: Member of the Association of American Colleges; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; Member of the National Association of Schools of Music; Member of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, North Carolina College Conference, and the Presbyterian Educational Association of the South.

Size of the College: Administrative Staff, 8; Faculty, 40; Students enrolled in Degree Courses, 396; Business Students, 25; Special and Studio Students, 27; Summer School Students, 371; Total Students, 819.

Property and Finances:

1. Value of property	$ 428,722.57
2. General Endowment	548,768.46
3. Scholarship Endowment	172,046.76
Total	$1,149,537.79

Flora Macdonald College is a four-year college accredited, as stated above, to grant the following degrees:

Bachelor of Arts	Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Science	Bachelor of Music Education

The chief aims of the college are two-fold: the liberal education of young people for Christian American citizenship; and the training of its students for certain professional callings that will enable them to be useful and self-sustaining. A partial list of these opportunities follows:

Educational Work, in public and private schools.

Church Work, as pastors' assistants, workers in Christian education and secretaries.

Health Work, in the fields of medical technology and nursing (in cooperation with certain medical schools and hospitals.)

Music, where there are constant opportunities for teachers in studios, schools and colleges; for organists and choir directors in churches; and for talented musicians in the fields of radio, television and popular music.

Home Economics, in the fields of child care, dietetics and home demonstration.

Business and Office Work, with special training as business administrators, teachers, secretaries and accountants.

Flora Macdonald College has a strong Christian faculty, trained in the great colleges, universities and graduate schools of America and Europe, dedicated to the cause of Christian education, and Experienced in dealing with the intellectual, spiritual and social problems of the modern college student.

The effectiveness of the teaching program is shown by the quality of the graduates of the college. Many Flora Macdonald students have made brilliant records in professional and business careers. The contribution of the college in training teachers, pastors' assistants, social workers, secretaries and homemakers has been notable.

The Vardell Scholarships, now in the seventh year of operation and offering generous amounts to recipients of these scholarships, have attracted to the campus a number of students of exceptional promise.

With increased gifts from the Synod, the college has been able to keep the quality of the work high in the face of inflationary threats to a successful business operation.

The total enrollment for the year is the largest in the history of the institution.

The religious life of the campus during the year has been exceptionally fine. The program sponsored by the Student Christian Association has been most effective and the students and faculty alike have contributed to the maintenance of the spiritual vitality which has always been one of the marked characteristics of the college.

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College continues to serve the Church. The center employs 6 full time staff members and 5 part time staff members. Approximately 525 young people from the Synod will use the center this year. The center cannot meet the demands for its services and further expansion is necessary.

Last summer the college was host to the Young Peoples Conference of Wilmington Presbytery. This year Fayetteville Presbytery is also making use of our buildings and facilities for its annual Leadership Training School.

This year has also been especially notable for intense and consecrated activity on the part of administration, faculty and students in preparation for the coming move to the Laurinburg campus at St. Andrews Presbyterian College.

QUEENS COLLEGE, Charlotte, North Carolina; Edwin R. Walker, PH.D., President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synods of North and South Carolina. Founded 1857.

Academic Standing: Four-year, fully accredited liberal arts college for women. College is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Council on Education, the Presbyterian Education Association of the South, the American Association of Colleges, the American Association of University Women, the National Commission on Accrediting, the College Entrance Examination Board, and the College Scholarship Service. The Music Department is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Evening College is a member of the National Association of University Evening Colleges.

Size of the College: Enrollment, regular college session for 1960-61; 474; Evening College, credit students; 160; non-college music enrollment; 148; summer session of 1960: 159.

Financial Status: Value of property, $3,754,679. General and scholarship endowment $2,980,000. The contributions from the two supporting Synods during 1969-60 were $57,297 (North Carolina $41,259), which is 6.6% of budgeted operating expenditures.

General Information: In October of 1960, Queens dedicated four buildings: Harris Hall, erected in 1959-60 and named in honor of James J. Harris, member of the Board of Trustees, and Angelia Morrison Harris; Carol Hall, art building, gift of Irwin Belk and named in honor of Carol Grotnes Belk; Everett Library, completed in August 1960 and named in honor of H. H. Everett, chairman of the Board of Trustees; and the Dana Classroom Building, the gift of manufacturer-philanthropist Charles a Dana. A new system of campus lighting and the paving of new campus drives were also completed.

The scholarship program has been increased and strengthened by the appointment af Dana and Queens Scholars, students of superior ability, who are now participating in seminars which will allow them to pursue special academic interests in conjunction with their regular degree program.

The college is now engaged in an extensive self-study being conducted under the program of Institutional Self-Study and Periodic Visitation of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Such a study is required of each accredited member of the association every ten years. Included in the Queens self-study are the following aspects of the college: purpose, financial resources, organization, educational program, library, faculty, student personnel, physical plant, research, and special activities.

A recent gift of $100,000 from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation will endow a professorship, one of fifteen which the college plans to establish in the next few years.

The Queens Evening College, a program of adult education, and the Queens-Charlotte Leadership Program, a joint project of the college and churches of Charlotte, continue as important parts of the over-all program of the college. Through elective courses, Queens students doing major work in Bible and religion can qualify for certification as Associates in Christian Education.

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE (Formerly Consolidated Presbyterian College), Laurinburg, N. C. Dr. Ansley C. Moore, President; owned and supported by the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church, U. S. Opens on a new campus September, 1961. Consolidation of Flora Macdonald, Presbyterian Junior and Peace Colleges. Coeducational, liberal arts, four-year college.

Academic Standing: Fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, St. Andrews music conservatory is also an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

Curriculum. At the heart of St. Andrews' curriculum lies the Christianity and Culture Program. This core program will give the students 36 credit hours in history, Bible, philosophy and literature and the humanities. It will be taught by a team of five professors on the lecture-preceptorial method. Three degrees are offered by St. Andrews: the bachelor of arts, the bachelor of science and the bachelor of music. Majors include Bible, Christian education, English, biology, chemistry, mathematics, history, foreign languages, teaching, business, home economics, and music. Cooperative programs in engineering, nursing, and medical technology have been worked out with other institutions. Approximately 60 members of the faculty and administration will be under contract when St. Andrews opens this fall.

Physical Plant: Ten buildings will be ready for use when the college opens in the fall; the liberal arts and science building, the student center, six dormitories, the music building and the heating plant. During the summer, the library will get underway. Urgently needed are the auditorium, gymnasium, administration building and chapel. All buildings, except the gymnasium, will be centrally air-conditioned in addition to central heating. All are specially equipped for the convenience of paralytic students.

As of May 1, 1961, St. Andrews Presbyterian College has received 852 paid applications and has admitted 642 for the fall session.

Fifty-seven administrative and faculty people are under contract as of this date.

Financial Picture: Financial support of St. Andrews' building program has come from the Synod of North Carolina, through a campaign in 1956, and the Laurinburg and Scotland County Community of the college. The former has provided approximately $1,200,000 and the latter approximately $1,700,00. The total pledged by Laurinburg and Scotland County is $3,052,000, some of which is pledged for 1961-65 and some 1965-70.

In 1961, a campaign for an additional $2,250,000 is being conducted throughout the Synod and the College's immediate community will share in giving to this effort. In addition, the Synod has contributed to the operating budget of the college in its planning and formative years. Other support has come from the Ford Foundation and the Danforth Foundation for planning work. Approximately $7,500,000 is the total needed to build the campus as outlined by the architects and educational consultants, for a student body of opproximately 1,000.

JUNIOR COLLEGES

PEACE COLLEGE, Raleigh, North Carolina, Dr. William C. Pressly, President. The College is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina with two Trustees appointed from each of the nine Presbyteries and two from the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, and with sixteen Trustees appointed at large. Founded 1872. Women.

Academic Standing: Member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, North Carolina College Conference, the American Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Association of Colleges for Women, and the Presbyterian Education Association of the South.

Size of the College: 302 students; 16 full-time. 8 part-time faculty; 12 staff (8 full-time, 4 part-time).

Financial: 1961 value of property $750,000; General Scholarship Endowment $250,000. The contributions from the churches for operating budget were $30,168.14. That is 10% of the operating fund. The school is operating with a small surplus which is put into permanent improvements.

Peace College completed its 89th year on May 29, 1961.

The quality of academic work was good. In admitting a student, several factors were taken into consideration: (1) her scores on Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Examination Board, (2) her high school record, (3) her reference reports, (4) her church interest, her seriousness of purpose, and her general promise of growth. For the 1960-61 school there were practically three applicants for each boarding space available.

Peace is constantly striving to secure a faculty of outstanding academic ability, who appreciate thorough scholarship, and who have a certain sympathy with and understanding of student problems, most of whom are Presbyterians, and all of whom are members of some evangelical denomination and genuinely interested in promotion of the cause of Christianity.

Peace College is striving to promote a real program of Christian Education. The Administration and Faculty are planning such a program largely by means of Chapel, Bible, and the classroom in general. A course in "Christian Beliefs" was added recently. Also since student cooperation is essential. the Peace Student Christian Association takes the lead in encouraging students to participate in all religious programs in the school and in the local church fellowship groups which students are urged to attend. Ten or fifteen students are thinking seriously of entering active Christian service. Consideration is given in planning the religious program at Peace to the fact that a large number of Peace girls will be home-makers and will have an opportunity of training their children in the Christian faith as well as serving themselves in the many phases of the local church work.

The Religious Emphasis services this year were led by Dr. F. Crossley Morgan of Concord, North Carolina.

A Meditation and Prayer Room in memory of the late Miss Lucy Steele, Mary McNair Professor of Bible at Peace from 1933 until her death in 1954, has meant much in the religious life of the College.

The Peace College Women's Advisory Committee is composed of five representatives from the Women of the Church of each of the nine Presbyteries including their presidents. Mrs. Isaac Avery, Jr., of Statesville, N. C., is chairman of the Advisory Committee.

Peace College appreciates fully the financial support of the Synod.

PRESBYTERIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE (Division of St. Andrews Presbyterian College), Maxton North Carolina. Dr. Louis C. LaMotte, President. The college is owned and controlled by the Synod of North Carolina, founded 1929, consolidated May 28, 1958. Co-educational.

Academic Standing: Accredited by the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction for University of North Carolina; member Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; member American Association of Junior Colleges; member of North Carolina College Conference; member of Presbyterian Educational Association of the South; Associate member of the commission on Christian Higher Education of the Association of American Colleges; approved by United States Office of Education for the admission of foreign students.

Size of College: 381 in regular session; 127 in Summer School. In the regular session 254 were Freshmen; 78 Sophomores; 20 Special Students; 29 Preparatory. There were 338 men and 43 women. There were 19 teachers 3 of whom were part-time. Seven served on the administrative staff.

Financial: as of April 30, 1961 there was no debt, the value of property was $648,611.30; general endowment $362,841.10 including scholarship endowment of $29,105.99. Total assets were $1,102,362.98. Gifts received in the financial year June 1, 1959 to May 31, 1960 were: Individual gifts $2,685.13, Synod of North Carolina, $34,912.00, Women of the Church and specials from churches, $585.85, other, $10,889.10. The last item was largely from the North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges. Up to April 30, 1961 the gifts total $39,499.58. In 1959-60 the gifts from Synod were 13.8 percent of the total expenditures.

In 1960 there were 42 graduates. The 1960 commencement preacher was Dr. Benjamin Lacy Rose of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond. The 1961 commencement preacher will be Dr. John A. Redhead, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro. In 1960 the address to graduates was by Mr. Voit Gilmore, Chairman of Synod's Council and Vice-president North Carolina Council of Churches. The speaker in 1961 will be Governor Terry Sanford, an alumnus of the college of 1934.

Summer Schools will be held in 1961. Preparatory Summer School begins June 12 and Collegiate Summer School begins June 19. The second terms of both begin July 24. When the last class of the Preparatory Summer School meets on August 31, 1961 all educational activity on the Maxton campus will terminate and be transferred to the campus of St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg which opens September 15, 1961. As in 1960, the college, jointly with Flora Macdonald College, is sponsoring a College Credit Round-the-World Flying Course, which leaves Los Angeles on July 1, 1961.

The enrollment at the opening of college in September 1960, compared with previous years follows:

	1957	1958	1959	1960
Preparatory and Special Students	40	32	25	36
Freshmen	110	154	162	217
Sophomores	41	34	69	60
Night Class Students	5	10	22	9
Total	196	230	278	322

Pre-session faculty conferences and the orientation program were successfully carried out at the opening of college in the fall. Professor J. H. Allred of High Point College spoke on making our college Christian to the faculty. Dr. Chevis Ligon conducted Fall Devotionals. The Reverend Hugh Reed Montgomery led Religious Emphasis Week. The Student Christian Association, and the Christian Service Fellowship consisting of those planning full-time Christian service, have been active on the campus. Three ordained and a number of lay faculty members have supplied vacant pulpits. The college president has preached forty-five times on the thirty-four Sundays since college opened.

The Distinguished Visitors Program has made a valuable contribution to the intellectual life of the campus. Some of those speaking or performing musical numbers including chapel speakers outside the program are: Dr. Theodore Ullman, Dr. Clyde A. Milner, Dr. Malcolm R. Calhoun, Mr. Vic Hyde, Mr. Graham Scott Pearson, Dean B. R. Teare, Dr. David Cairns, Mrs. Katherine Bracken, Rabbi Jerome G. Tolochko, Dr. Harry Lewis Harvin, Dr. David B. Hawk, the Reverend William E. Link, Superintendent A. B. Gibson, the Reverend Walter P. Baldwin from Japan, Miss Mary Doris Moore from Africa, and the Reverend Jules Spack from Brazil, Reverend John R. McKinnon. Dr. Ansley C. Moore spoke at the opening of school. The Reverend Tien-Tze Wu, a native of Taiwan spoke recently.

The student activity program has moved along satisfactorily. The Student Government, Student Christian Association, Athletic Association, W. H. Belk Literary Forum, the Bagpipe staff, the Sandspur staff, the Glee Club, an orchestra, the Block "P" Club, the Christian Service Fellowship, Phi Theta Kappa Honorary Scholastic Fraternity, the Volunteer Firemen's Association, the Photography Club, the Radio Club, Future Teachers of America, Future Business Leaders of America, and other groups have functioned. The intramural athletic program has been emphasized. Wrestling and track have been added to basketball, baseball, golf, and tennis as intercollegiate sports.

American Education Week, United Nation's Day, Founders' Day, Homecoming Day, and National Christian College Day were observed. An opening reception, a Thanksgiving Banquet, a Christmas Banquet, a Birthday Dinner, and several other social gatherings have been held. The Junior-Senior Banquet is scheduled for May 13.

During the year $25,220.75 was awarded to students: in work-grants, $2,160.00, in scholarships, $9,410.75, in National Defense Loans $13,650.00.

One student, Mr. Zeno Williams, Jr., was killed in an automobile accident in December.

Representatives from the college attended the meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the North Carolina College Conference, the American Association of Junior Colleges, North Carolina Conference of Deans and Registrars, North Carolina Church-Related College Foundation, the North Carolina Church-Related College Conference, state and regional meetings of Biblical instructors, the Television and Radio Institute of the Federal Council of Churches, the Fifteenth Institute on Higher Education at Scarritt College, the World Mission Conference, the Southern Association of Junior Colleges, the Southern Association of Church-Related Colleges, and several other educational meetings.

The college president carried out the solicitation assignments of the North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges and spent a day in New York helping to make calls for the Independent College Funds of America, Inc. Our college will receive about $12,000 from these funds. He has carried on the program of an educational broadcast and an inspirational broadcast for the college each week over radio station W.E.W.O. He has attended the meetings of Fayetteville Presbytery and the Synod of North Carolina, and the Cavalcades which were held in the fall. Until the annual meeting in December, when he resigned as secretary of the Board of Directors of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, he attended all meetings of that body and the Executive Committee of the same and took minutes. In preparation for his duties as Director of Adult Education and Director of Summer School, he has made a careful study of adult education and has attended a conference on the subject at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. He has also made a careful study, on the ground, of the night class program of Queens College and Guilford College. He has prepared several reports for the Adult Education Committee of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, and hopes the Committee may be able to clear an effective program of Adult Education in time for effective promotion at the opening of St. Andrews.

The fire on February 10 was a great inconvenience. Firemen and students did outstanding work in saving the building. The fire began about 2 a.m. By 5 a.m. the contents of the building had been replaced in undamaged rooms by the students' help, and classes began at 8 a.m. using for classrooms the cafeteria, gymnasium, recreation room, and library. The insurance settlement was $35,000. The building has been repaired sufficiently to make it usable, clean, and attractive, until the end of Summer School on August 31, 1961.

A report to the Board of Managers on the history of Presbyterian Junior College is added as of historic interest as Presbyterian Junior College moves into the larger program of St. Andrews Presbyterian College.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Richmond, Virginia. is specifically related to and under the control of the Synods of Appalachia, North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia. Trustees are nominated to the Board by these Synods. Under corporation law of the Commonwealth of Virginia the election of Trustees is vested in the trustees themselves, but the trustees elect only persons nominated by the Synods.

As one of the four theological seminaries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Union Seminary regularly submits to the General Assembly of the Church a report on its work as information.

At the meeting of the Board in May 1960 the Reverend Andrew R. Bird, Jr., a Trustee from the Synod of West Virginia, was elected Chairman, replacing Dr. Wyndham B. Blanton, deceased.

The Synod of Virginia nominated Dr. W. J. Thompson, Jr., a Trustee replacing Dr. Wyndham B. Blanton. The Synod of North Carolina nominated the Reverend Warner L. Hall, replacing the Reverend Fred R. Stair, Jr., removed.

Student Affairs

During the academic year 262 students have been enrolled in the Seminary as follows: Seniors, 65; Middlers, 75; Juniors, 54; Special Students, 27; Intern Students, 11; and Graduate Students, 30. This compares with a student enrollment during the 1959-1960 session of 293 students. The students have come from 50 presbyteries of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.; from 15 synods; from 23 states and the District of Columbia; and from 10 foreign countries. Eighteen denominations, other than the Presbyterian Church, U. S., are represented in the Student Body. One hundred and ninety-two literary institutions provided the collegiate and university preparation for the enrolled students.

On May 23, 1961 the Seminary expects to award one TH.D. degree; 13Th.M. degrees; 65 B.D. degrees; and one diploma.

Five fellowships for graduate study were awarded to members of the Senior Class.

It is worthy of particular note in this connection that the enrollment in the Seminary for this year is down approximately 11%. The basic decline is in the Junior Class. There are many reasons for this condition: at the moment we are at the bottom of the birth-curve in so far as graduate student enrollment is concerned. Just now the notorious crop of "war babies" is reaching the campus of college and university. Within three or four years it can be expected that this company will begin to reach the level of graduate education and the theological institutions will feel exceptional pressure from such a condition.

Above all else, however, it appears to Union Seminary that the basic reason for this decline in enrollment has been a deficient presentation of the claims of the gospel ministry to young people of the Church. In this responsibility the several courts of the Church have not been as vigorous and discerning as the future welfare of our denomination demands. It is worthy of note that enrollment in theological institutions throughout the country is down considerably and some denominations are down more than 20% in their candidates for the ministry. It is not sufficient to make such comparisons among our sister churches and take a degree of comfort for ourselves. We should recognize that the whole Church should give its attention seriously to the matter of laying the claims of Christ upon the ablest young men in our fellowship in order to excite their response to Him as He would call them to the ministry of His gospel.

In this connection the Seminary calls the attention of its courts to the fact that during the year there was a consultation with the several committee chairmen associated with committees on recruiting and training men for the ministry in the supporting presbyteries. This was one of the most stimulating consultations recently held at the Seminary. It attempted to lay upon the hearts of these presbyters the responsibility of the presbytery in the whole area of recruiting men for the ministry, as well as supervising their preparation. Until within our polity we recognize that the total life of the Church—which certainly involves its leadership—is a solemn engagement of the presbytery, we shall have fallen short of the possibilities which our very structure of government and service encourages.

Within the past several months there has been established within the Board of Education of the General Assembly an office on "Church Vocations". Union Seminary, along with the other graduate theological schools of the Church, cooperate most heartily with this particular office and with its sister institutions in attempting to devise a compelling program of recruitment.

Faculty and Instructional Program

Through the generosity of the Alumni and the support of a benevolence foundation the Seminary has had the privilege during the year of teaching services by the Reverend Paul E. Scherer. Dr. Scherer is distinguished as a preacher and as a teacher of preaching. Lately he has been a professor in the Faculty of Union Theological Seminary in New York. He has been the Alumni Visiting Professor in Homiletics, teaching required courses to Juniors and offering elective courses to other members of the Student Body.

During the year Dr. Benjamin Lacy Rose, Professor of Homiletics, has been on sabbatic leave under a grant from the American Association of Theological Schools for "theological faculty", Dr. Ernest Trice Thompson is on sabbatic leave, continuing his study and completing the second volume of his history of the Presbyterian Church in the South. Dean Frank B. Lewis is on sabbatic leave, and on the basis of an award from a foundation is doing study in Europe.

As reported in 1960, Union Theological Seminary no longer offers "Beginning Greek' in the regular academic term. No student is allowed to matriculate as a candidate for a degree who has not studied Greek, either in college or through a concentrated period of summer study such as the Seminary now offers between mid- July and early September. During the summer of 1960, 35 men participated in an intensive study of Greek under the leadership of Professor J. Howard Macrae. While it is somewhat early to arrive at a full evaluation of this program, it is manifest that real benefits accrue to a program of theological study on such a basis. The curriculum has been relieved of the necessity of teaching beginning courses in the Greek language, so that entering Juniors begin their theological course at a common level of Biblical inquiry and have more time at their disposal in the latter part of their Seminary years for election of desired courses. It is recognized that this requirement with reference to Greek has created some adversities for some students who would have attended Union. While such adversities are regretted, the Faculty is settled in its judgment that the men who can enter their work as Juniors with this background in the Biblical languages can more readily exploit the benefits of theological study to their advantage and to their future usefulness in the life of the Church.

Special Activities

The Sprunt Lecturer for 1960-1961 was Dr. Leonard J. Trinterud, of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago. He spoke on the subject "Some Aspects of Early English Puritanism", indicating the intimate relationship that exists between the Presbyterian perspective of life and service and the Puritan movement in Great Britain. The Auxiliary Lecturers were Dr. Stanley Romaine Hopper of Drew University, and Dr. Charles L. Taylor, Executive Director of the American Association of Theological Schools.

The series for 1961 on the Sprunt Lectureship marked the Golden Anniversary of the establishment of the James Sprunt Lectureship Foundation. A special service was held on Wednesday, March 8, commemorating the establishment of this distinguished series, and a brochure has been issued to our friends and to our sister institutions covering the history of the lectureship.

During the year numerous other distinguished visitors have come to the Campus to lecture on various aspects of the ministry, the life and work of the Church in many sections of the world, and related subjects designed to increase the knowledge of the students in the areas of churchmanship and the life of the students in the duties of discipleship.

Continuing Education

A basic responsibility of the Seminary continues to be that of assisting ministers to continue their training. During 1960-1961 496 men have pursued specific courses of study under the direction of the Faculty or of the Director of the Program of Continuing Study. Sixty-nine men have returned to the Campus from the pastorate for periods of two weeks of intensive study. Twenty-one men have come to the Campus for a period of approximately five weeks of concentrated study during the Summer Scholars' Program offered in the summer.

The summer program of the Seminary continues to be a source of interest to many ministers. The 1960 Summer Clinics included particular training in the skills of preaching and pastoral care. Dr. Ralph W. Sockman and Dr. Edmund A. Steimle were assisted by members of the Faculty and by local ministers in staffing the "Preaching Clinic."

During the summer of 1961, in addition to the Preaching Clinic, a "Biblical Seminar" under the leadership of Dr. Suzanne de Dietrich, Dr. Balmer H. Kelly and Dr. James L. Mays will be offered to a select group of pastors; and a "Pastoral Counseling Workshop", led by Dr. Robert E. Elliott, Dr. Paul Irion, and Dr. William B. Oglesby, Jr., will be offered to a group interested in better pastoral training. The leaders for the preaching Clinic will include Dr. John Wick Bowman of San Francisco Seminary; Dr. Herbert H. Farmer of Cambridge University; Dr. Wade P. Huie of Columbia Seminary; the Reverend Ross Mackenzie and others.

Fiscal Affairs

The Seminary will submit the annual audit, complete financial reports, and a budget for 1961-1962 as soon as such information is available in early May.

It is already apparent that budget contributions from the four Synods for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1961 are some $10,000.00 less than during the previous year. Contributions for the calendar year are as follows:

	1959	1960
Appalachia	$ 9,475.29	$ 7,106.15
North Carolina	44,180.96	39,396.13
Virginia	25,690.91	30,524.37
West Virginia	13,351.88	14,154.76

It is anticipated that the Seminary will operate without a deficit during 1960-1961 and 1961-1962, though such operation seriously curtails the desired program of the institution.

The Trustees, Faculty, Students and Staff of Union Seminary express to their constituent courts gratitude for the intercession, gifts, and men which have been proffered in behalf of the training of people to serve as ministers of the Gospel of Christ.

e. INFORMATION

The Director is endeavoring to make his office a channel for distributing information about the Schools for which Synod has a responsibility. He is available for presenting the cause of Christian Education to Presbyteries, Presbyterials, local Churches, Men's and Women's organizations.

Several schools have motion picture films which they make available to interested groups.

---

[1] The General Assembly Statistics are reported differently since 1955 and the information on total gifts to Higher Education is not available.

f. BEQUESTS AND MEMORIALS

According to Webster, a memorial is anything intended to "preserve the memory" of a person or event. Granite preserves a name; influence preserves a memory. A memorial dedicated to the service of Christian Education is truly an everlasting memorial since it lives on generation after generation. This type of memorial is not only possible to people of large wealth but to the average man. Buildings and gifts for endowments are appropriate for people of means. Gifts of equipment for gymnasiums, offices, and music departments; audio-visual materials, furniture, and outdoor improvements are within the reach of average people. Information on specific needs will be furnished to interested persons.

FORM OF GENERAL BEQUEST

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at ...., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given)."*

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR INDICATED PURPOSE

"I give, devise, and bequeath to (..), an institution located and operating at..., and its successors, by whatever name it may be known, the following described property, to wit: (here describe the amount of money or nature of property given), with the direction that the same be used for the support and operation of the (Library, Infirmary, etc.)."*

2. REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON PRESBYTERIAN GUIDANCE CENTER

SAMUEL W. NEWELL, JR., Chairman

The Presbyterian Guidance Center at Flora Macdonald College has enjoyed since its establishment in 1952 the leadership of Professor Rodger Wayne Decker, Director. Through the Presbyterian Guidance Program of the Board of Christian Education, the Center at Flora Macdonald is related to other similar Guidance Centers in the various Synods of our General Assembly. Fundamental to the whole philosophy of the guidance program is the belief that each individual has the potential within himself to direct his own life with God's help; that each person needs to learn what he can do best, what training would help him most, and where and how his talents may be used most effectively in harmony with God's will. The primary purpose of the program is to help Christian youth plan their careers intelligently and with a sense of Christian mission—whether they choose to become nurses, engineers, missionaries, mechanics, sales people, homemakers, or ministers of the Gospel.

The work of guidance is accomplished in three phases: Orientation, conducted by Vocational Aides in local churches; Counseling and Testing, by competent Christian counselors at the Center; and Follow-Up, by church staff members and vocational aides, when the counselee returns to his home church. All three phases of the program are essential for its success. The Sub-Committee calls to the attention of the churches of the Synod the fact that pre-testing orientation in the local churches must be improved if the Center is to receive accreditation by the American Personnel and Guidance Association.

Three members of the professional staff are leaving the Center during this summer to accept important positions elsewhere: Dr. Clifford Nixon, Professor Harold Stevenson, and Dr. Ruth Nixon. Professor E. St. Jacques, Associate Director, who has been on leave for study, is returning. The Center continues to experience critical difficulties in securing the services of qualified counselors at salaries it can afford. The Center continues, too, to rely upon the willingness of devoted Christian people to accept financial sacrifice.

During the 1960-61 school year the Center was host to 896 counselees from 164 churches. This is a better distribution than has ever been achieved before.

Plans are being made for an orderly transfer of the Center to the campus of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, and the Center is accelerating its efforts to secure accreditation by the American Personnel and Guidance Association. The Administration of St. Andrews has committed itself to provide suitable facilities on the new campus.

The Sub-Committee calls emphatically to the attention of local churches the expressed eagerness of the professional staff of the Center to serve the Synod by participating in "workshops" in local churches on invitation. Ten such workshops were held during the past year. The purpose of a workshop is to bring together for a Sunday afternoon and evening the Vocational Aides of a local church, or group of local churches. Churches in the Synod are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity by communicating directly with the Director of the Center.

V. REPORTS OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

Rev. R. T. Baker, Chairman

Your Committee on Annuities and Relief reports that it has distributed to the retired and infirm ministers of the Synod of North Carolina the following amounts from the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

September 23, 1960	$24,000	to 65 ministers
March 23, 1961	26,400	to 65 ministers
	$50,400

Your Committee has made diligent effort to distribute these funds where the need is greatest among our retired and infirm ministers.

Your Committee would again call to the attention of the ministers of the Synod and to the Committees on Annuities and Relief in the Presbyteries the following recommendation adopted by the Synod in 1947 relating to the Mrs. Kate B. Reynolds Fund:

"No minister, regardless of age, shall participate in the fund so long as he is employed in the regular exercise of the ministry." (Section 4/c, Minutes of Synod, 1947, page 544)

If any retired minister should become employed in the regular exercise of the ministry he should immediately notify the Chairman of the Committee on Annuities and Relief in his Presbytery.

Mr. Charles J. Currie, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief, reports that the beneficiaries on the rolls of the Synod of North Carolina received $91,435.07 from Ministerial Relief Funds in 1960. Total receipts from the Synod for Ministerial Relief in 1960 were $87,992.02.

In an effort to relieve the minister and lay-employee of concern in time of sickness or accident the Board serves as a "grouping agent" to make available Major Medical Insurance and Life Insurance on the most economical group basis. The Major Medical Insurance has benefits up to $7,500, and the Life Insurance, coupled with the program, brings that "sense of security" to the families of our insureds in the total amount of over $13,000,000.00.

Last year the Board of Annuities and Relief made possible the participation in another "group life insurance policy," over and above and in addition to the aforementioned, providing from $1400 to $5000 in life insurance at annual rates beginning at $14.10 for $5,000 of coverage for ministers under 30 years of age.

Ministerial Relief (the benevolence dollars received by the Board through the local church budgets and the Annual Joy Gift) continues to provide for our retired ministers and their dependents who have no, or inadequate, income from the Ministers' Annuity Fund. On April 1, of this year, to meet the rising cost of living, the Board raised the guaranteed annual income, considering all sources, to $1,700 for individuals and to $2,600 for couples. No administrative expenses are paid from these benevolence dollars and every cent provided by the Church goes to our retired people in either cash or the provision of their Major Medical protection.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod urge all churches to enroll all ministers and full-time employees in the Group Life and Major Medical Insurance Plan.

2. That retired ministers, their wives, widows and retired lay employees who are respectively members of the MAF and the Employees' Annuity Fund be urged to enroll in the Major Medical Insurance Plan.

3. That in view of the vital importance of the Joy Gift to the beneficiaries of Ministerial Relief, churches be urged to place greater emphasis on the Joy Gift.

4. That the following recommendation adopted by the Synod in Greenville, North Carolina, on June 15, 1960: "That the surviving dependents of any Kate Reynolds Fund recipient who dies between the dates of distribution of checks, beginning with the September, 1960, distribution, be awarded an annuity in the subsequent distribution" be amended as follows: "That the surviving dependents or estate of any Kate Reynolds Fund recipient who dies between the dates of distribution of checks, beginning with the September 1960 distribution, be awarded an annuity in the subsequent distribution."

5. That the Synod engage in prayer for our retired and infirm ministers and their wives, remembering especially those who are sick.

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES

REV. CHARLES W. WORTH, Chairman

When the general reorganization of the Church took place a number of years ago several of the comparatively smaller agencies of the Church were brought together under the title of the "General Fund Agencies". While this arrangement was probably necessary for organizational efficiency it has tended to rob these departments of some of their individuality and distinctiveness. Changes in this set-up has been required from time to time so that whereas most of us know that there are nine activities included in this designation it is a question as to how many of us could confidently name them off hand. We list them therefore, as they stand at the present time:

Board of Women's Work
Historical Foundation of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches
Mountain Retreat Association
Presbyterian Foundation, Inc.
Presbyterian School of Christian Education
Stillman College
Permanent Committee on Television, Radio and Audio-Visuals (TRAV)
The General Council
American Bible Society

These comprise nine of the fourteen Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly. The Synod is not directly involved in the management of these agencies but is deeply concerned for them all, and contributes to the support of all through Assembly benevolent giving.

It seems therefore to your Committee that the chief responsibility of the Synod lies in the area of information and publicity to the individual Churches throughout our bounds. The carefully prepared Reports of all these agencies are included in the Minutes of the General Assembly and do not need to be reproduced here, though they have been studied by this Committee as they appear in the Assembly's "Blue Book".

During 1960 these agencies operated on 71.76% of their respective budgets, and this percentage was made possible only by generous allotments from the Assembly's Equalization Fund. Not one of them received this percentage of its budget through regular benevolence channels.

Recommendations:

1. That all ministers and sessions and Presbyteries in the Synod give special study and emphasis to these General Fund Agencies with the purpose of bringing all of our people to a better understanding and more generous support of these vital areas of our Assembly's program which extend to every part of the Church, and beyond. Only in this way can we perform important services in and for the Church which are necessary for its life and outreach in our contemporary world.
2. That the attention of Synod be called to the availability of a splendid packet of materials on the several General Fund Agencies, and a film strip, "The Anatomy of Gefunda", obtainable from the Office of the General Assembly.
3. That the attention of Synod be called to the item in the 1960 report of this Committee on the American Bible Society, to wit, the use of Wayside Gospel Dispensers in communities and vacation church schools, as a project for the Men of the Church organizations.
4. That Synod, by rising vote, express its appreciation to Dr. I. Stuart McElroy, a member of this Synod since 1929, who retires this year after serving for twenty-five years as a Secretary of the American Bible Society.
5. That pending the adoption of this report, Synod hear Dr. John R. Cunningham briefly on the Presbyterian Foundation.

C. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS

E. B. Crow, Jr., Chairman

Your Committee met on April 5 with five members present. It was called to our attention by Dr. John R. Cunningham, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Foundation, that an excellent motion picture, dealing with the whole matter of wills and gifts, is available. The title is "Treasures in Heaven".

The Committee considered a suggestion from the Assembly's corresponding Committee through Charles G. Rose of Fayetteville, a member of the Assembly's Committee, that a series of conferences in the Synod, dealing with the over-all subject of Bequests and Deferred Gifts, be conducted next fall. On learning that Synod's Council had already taken action to hold a series of Stewardship Conferences in the several Presbyteries next fall for the purpose of presenting Synod's causes, we took the following action as a recommendation to Synod:

> That Synod approve a series of conferences October 1-6, 1961, on Bequests and Deferred Gifts, and that Dr. Hunter B. Blakely and Dr. John R. Cunningham be the speakers representing the cause of Bequests and Deferred Gifts.

D. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, Chairman

The Committee on Christian Relations has held two meetings since the last meeting of Synod. This report will summarize areas of study pursued and actions taken by the Committee.

1. At the September meeting the Committee requested individual members to survey their respective Presbyteries to determine what positive and significant progress is being made in the field of race relations in implementing the previous deliverances and stated positions of our General Assembly, Synod and many Presbyteries. The following report is submitted, not to make us complacent with small accomplishments, but to give evidence that the picture is not altogether one of retrogression, and to seek to stimulate us to further and more diligent effort. This report is not intended to be exhaustive, for obviously these are only a few examples of the type of advancement noted throughout the State.

Reports from the several Presbytery chairmen indicate advancement in the following areas:

a. Ministerial associations are being integrated at a steadily increasing rate with only a relative few still non-integrated.

b. In communities disturbed by lunch-counter protests, in most instances the lunch-counters are now integrated and service proceeds without incident.

c. Numerous individual congregations report that Sessions have ruled that in the event Negroes present themselves in attendance at worship services they are to be seated in the congregation without respect to color. In some instances Negroes have been in attendance at worship services in Presbyterian and other churches and have been seated as indicated previously.

d. Several communities report integrated community worship services such as Reformation Day Services, and Easter sunrise services, Good Friday services. etc., with Negro ministers participating in each service.

e. In the school systems throughout the State there is evidence of only token integration as, in this area, "gradualism" seems to be the accepted pattern.

f. Some communities report integrated political meetings as Negroes are not only urged to exercise their voting franchise, but are being brought in at precinct levels to have a voice and vote in planning.

g. In one instance concerned white churches have responded to the call to Christian Action and have developed a new Negro church, and have assumed the support of the Negro Sunday School and the summer recreation program.

h. One community has appointed a bi-lateral committee to seek provision for recreational facilities for Negroes of the community.

i. Another community conducted an integrated Race Relations Institute, conducted once a year in the Court House, where the room is always packed, where Negroes outnumber the whites about 7 to 1, where outstanding speakers of both races are invited to speak. Community leaders and government officials back this project, and local communications media offer their cooperation.

j. In another community the Chamber of Commerce has taken the lead by appointing an Inter-racial Committee which has pioneered in providing for Negroes Reading Classes to afford greater literacy, adequate police protection for children crossing city streets particularly at schools, job opporunities, vocational training, education directed toward lowering the rate of illegitimacy, and a proposal for use of surplus foods for their needs.

k. Several communities have Human Relations Committees composed of leading citizens of both races and appointed by the Mayor or local governing agency. These committees explore ways and methods of improved race relations and engage in long-range planning designed to avert future incidents and clashes, to remind all citizens of their responsibilities expected of them as well as the rights and privileges guaranteed them.

l. The Christian Action Committee of one congregation initiated informal monthly discussion meetings with Negroes of an adjoining area to attempt an exploration of their mutual problems and areas of responsibilities. This is not a crusading group, but rather one which recognizes a problem area and which is seeking as Christian persons a better understanding of each other and more effective means of meeting mutual needs.

m. The Christian Relations Committee would commend for additional study by Sessions, Christian Action committees, and other groups the following pamphlets which delineate the effective steps taken in come communities to ward off racial clashes. The study of these pamphlets will demonstrate how such advance action worked to advantage and how indifference and neglect created problems which intelligent forethought and action might have thwarted. These are as follows:

"Lunch-Counter Desegregation in Winston-Salem, North Carolina" by Clarence H. Patrick, Wake Forest College (Chairman of Dept. of Sociology)

"Racial Violence and Law Enforcement" by George McMillan from Southern Regional Council, 5 Forsythe Street, N. W., Atlanta 3, Georgia

"Charlotte's Handling of the Sit-Ins" by Dr. John R. Cunningham

n. It is significant that the leadership in many of these efforts has been provided by Presbyterian ministers and laymen, an example of which is Charlotte, N. C. where a former Moderator of our General Assembly, Dr. John R. Cunningham, is chairman of the Mayor's Human Relations Committee.

2. In the Spring meeting on April 10 passed the following Resolution:

"Whereas the General Assembly in 1948 and again in 1959 affirmed the principle of the Separation of Church and State;

"Be it therefore resolved, that it is our belief and feeling that the granting of Federal Aid to secondary and elementary private schools of any religious group would violate this principle;

"Be it further resolved, that the granting of Federal Aid to secondary and elementary schools of any religious group constitutes a real threat to the Public School System and will be a trend toward the weakening of the Public School System;

"Be it further resolved, that the urgency of the matter be called to the attention of the Presbyteries and Presbyterials with the suggestion that they act in such a way as to encourage those who hold to the principle of separation of Church and State to make known their positions to their several representatives in Washington, encouraging them to take a strong stand at all times in support of the principle of the Separation of Church and State and a strong Public School System."

3. Received reports from representatives to the following Seminars:

Rural Church Seminar—Charles A. Hunter
Churchmen's Washington Seminar—Ernest T. Thompson, Jr. (The Rev.)
World Affairs Seminar—The Reverend W. C. Neill

4. The Committee requested the Executive Committee on Christian Education to plan for Christian Action emphasis on alcohol education, with suitable courses for all age groups, during January, 1962.

5. Reviewed with approval the successful efforts within Presbyteries, particularly Kings Mountain and Fayetteville, to hold Christian Action Institutes (KM) and Christian Action courses in connection with Leadership Schools (F).

6. Named the Reverend John D. Smith, pastor of the First Pres- yterian church of Morganton, as representative to the North Caro- na Family Life Council.

ecommendations:

1. That the Synod of North Carolina give approval to the Reso- ution concerning Federal Aid to Education adopted at the April meeting of the Christian Relations Committee.

2. That Synod reaffirm the positions of previous Synods with regard to Race Relations and urge all ministers, sessions, and congregations within our borders to continue efforts to keep open channels of communication and good will between men of all races.

3. That the Synod go on record as opposing any groups within our nation or State which indulge in irresponsible, undocumented, and malignant accusations which carelessly defame loyal and respected citizens, and, in the name of preserving democracy, plant seeds of suspicion and distrust by bearing unproved witness against their fellowmen. Synod would instruct its Christian Relations Committee to make a study of the philosophy and program of any such groups operative within our Synod and, if need be, present a report of such study—along with recommendations to the Synod of 1962.

4. That Synod name the following representatives to 1962 Seminars in the field of Christian Relations:

Rural Church Seminar—T. Clyde Auman (West End); H. L. Seagrove (Greensboro) Alternate.

Churchmen's Washington Seminar—The Reverend Frank T. Lemmon (Raleigh); The Reverend Ralph Underwood (W-S) Alternate.

World Affairs Seminar—The Rev. J. Murphy Smith (New Bern) The Rev. Paul Felker (Charlotte) Alternate.

5. That the Synod give approval to the deliverance passed by the General Assembly in the field of Christian Relations and remand the same to Presbyteries, Presbyterials, Sessions, congregations, and other groups within the Synod for study.

6. That, pending the adoption of the report, Synod hear Dr. Frank C. Laubach, world-renowned Christian missionary.

E. REPORT OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION

REV. E. LEE STOFFEL, Chairman

The Committee met at First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte October 14, 1960 and March 17, 1961. At the October meeting the Committee voted to invite the presidents of Synod's colleges to the March meeting for a discussion of the question of the relationship between Synod and its educational institutions as set forth in their charters, looking toward ways and means of strengthening the existing relationship.

At the March meeting the Committee and the presidents enjoyed a most profitable meeting and discussion. The following conclusions were reached jointly:

1. In studying the constitution of the various Boards of Trustees, the Committee has noted that a decided majority are Presbyterians and the Committee also affirms that this should continue to be so and that the constitution of the Boards of Trustees should be used as a means of strengthening the ties between the college and the church.
2. Concerning the faculties, the Committee concluded that the faculty should be oriented definitely toward the Christian Church and committed to Christ as Lord, together with having the prerequisite qualifications of academic excellance, and that all of these qualities should be manifest in the life and thought of the individual teacher. The Committee further notes that investigation and consultation with the administrative heads of Queens College, Davidson College and St. Andrews College discloses that these purposes are shared by each of these colleges. .
3. Moreover, concerning the faculty, the Committee concluded that there should be a substantial number of Presbyterians on the faculty which would strengthen the ties between the church and the college. But at the same time, the Committee would call attention to the possibility of the enrichment of the faculty from other evangelical traditions.

In addition, Dr. Ansley C. Moore reported on the status of St. Andrews College. Dr. Moore also conferred with the Committee concerning various questions upon which he was seeking advice. The Committee sought to advise him concerning the religious emphasis of the campus as well as concerning matters having to do with entrance requirements, the number of Ph. D's on the faculty, and other matters of this nature. The Committee also expressed its willingness to be available to Dr. Moore and St. Andrews College for any further help which he might require from the Committee either individually or collectively.

F. PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON HOMES

REV. JERRY C. McCANN, Chairman

Your Committee on Homes met April 25, 1961 at Synod's Office in Raleigh with six members present. The Rev. Albert B. McClure reported on the work at Barium Springs Home for Children. He stated that during the past year 225 children have been served by the Home with training or education being provided for all. The buildings on the campus are being modernized and made fire-proof and a new swimming pool is to be opened in June. He pointed out that Professor Allan Keith-Lucas of the University of North Carolina is making an evaluation of the Home in order that the Board of Regents may project plans for the future. One of the pressing needs of the Home at the present is for adequate staff personnel.

Mr. Richard A. Short, Executive Director of Presbyterian Home, High Point, reported that the capacity of the Home was increased from 90 to 105 during 1960 with the addition of ten new apartments. The ground has been broken for the construction of the new addition to the Home which is scheduled for completion about May 1962.

It was reported that Mrs. Charles G. Gambrell of New York and Charlotte is providing the William Henry Belk Memorial Fund in the amount of $10,000.00 for William Black Home. The income from this Fund is to be used to provide vacations for retired Ministers and their wives. Nineteen guests were entertained last year by virtue of the White Memorial Fund.

Recommendations:

1. That Synod concur with the Board of Regents, who hold that it is advisable that the name of the Orphans' Home be changed to "Barium Springs Home for Children", and that the Board of Regents be authorized to take the necessary steps to bring the charter of the Institution into line with this change.

2. That Synod express its profound gratitude to Mrs. Charles G. Gambrell for her generous gift, in establishing the William Henry Belk Fund to provide income for entertainment of retired Ministers at the William Black Home.

3. That Synod express its appreciation and gratitude to the Directors of the Homes for their excellent leadership.

4. Your Committee gave serious consideration to the proposition of Congregational Care for the Aged as advocated in a recent article in one of our periodicals. In view of the fact that expert opinion is to the effect that the best stewardship of the Church's money is realized by the establishment of regional Homes under Synodical control, we would recommend the following:

   That, while the Committee appreciates the concern for Congregational care for the Aged, we urge upon congregations and Presbyteries which might have such projects under consideration that they first consult with the Synod's Committee on Homes and/or the General Assembly's Division on Homes and Christian Welfare.

5. That Synod adopt the budget asking of Synod for 1962 for the Children's Home in the total amount of $210,000 and for the Presbyterian Home in the total amount of $55,000.
6. That pending the adoption of this Report Synod hear Rev. Albert B. McClure and Mr. R. A. Short respectively on Barium Springs Home for Children and the Presbyterian Home.

1. Presbyterian Children's Home

M. C. Benton, Jr., Chairman

It is a great pleasure to submit this report in behalf of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. The year just concluded has been most successful in every respect and in many ways has been marked with rewarding achievements.

Religious Life

The religious life of the campus is of primary concern for all who live and work at Barium Springs. The leadership of Rev. Hugh B. Carter assisted by Miss Rosemary Rector is most satisfactory, and the regular services of the church, the church school and youth groups are progressing in every respect. Individual work and study is carried on with the children and cottage programs and visitation are planned and successfully accomplished.

School

This year, for the first time, grades five through eight joined grades nine through twelve at the Troutman Consolidated School. This new venture is working well, although it has brought about several changes in the daily operation of the home, and has caused the administration and staff to be unusually busy in setting up a new pattern of life for the campus. The broadened community life has helped to reduce a good many of the tensions existing on the "Closed Campus". It affords an opportunity to see the reaction of the children in community life and also brings to them many new and happy relationships.

Home Facilities and Number of Children

The enrollment continues fairly steady at approximately 175 children while we have facilities available for 210.

The administration still adheres to the policy of accepting only those who are a part of the church, directly or indirectly, and who have the full approval of the local church in the community from which the application comes.

Finances

A total of $345,762 was received into the "Operating Fund" during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1960. 62% of this total came directly from the churches and we are most grateful for this generous and unselfish support. We are also truly grateful for the liberal and wonderful support from every source. A schedule of receipts follows:

North Carolina Presbyterians—Synod	$213,379
The Duke Endowment	11,845
Trust Funds	23,386
Dividends and Interest	24,551
Individuals and Organizations	9,053
Friends, Relatives and Government	26,190
Rental Income	1,012
Farm, Dairy and Orchard Products	29,823
Other Income	6,523
	$345,762

Expenses for the year amounted to $326,680 leaving a surplus of $19,082. The Annual Report and study by The Duke Endowment indicates that we spent an average of $1,603 per child during this fiscal year. This campares very favorably with other institutions of comparable quality and size.

In addition to the normal operations of the home, certain capital expenditures were undertaken this year. The water line has been completed on the campus and every building has the use of city water. The staff quarters are complete and four of the five units are now occupied. The swimming pool is nearing completion and should be available for use by June 1. The replacement of Howard Cottage is progressing very satisfactorily and should be available for occupancy before the end of 1961. The completion of all these projects are eagerly anticipated by the entire campus, students and administration, and are expected to bring much happiness to all concerned for many years to come.

Conclusion

The members of the staff of the home continue to render excellent service. It is amazing how much good work is done by the nearly five dozen people who are charged with the responsibility of caring for the children. Serving beyond the call of duty and investing in the name of the church are the labors of love from those who serve Barium Springs. Securing adequate replacements for those who retire and those who decide to make changes is exceedingly difficult.

The Superintendent should be highly commended for the exceptional job which he has done. And a special commendation should be extended for his attention and guidance in behalf of the high school graduates who wish to move on to the fields of higher education. In this respect, the "Educational Fund" is a life saver for the children. Last September there were 30 children from the home in school or training in 18 different institutions, most of which are in North Carolina.

Finally, I would take this opportunity to thank all members of the Board for their loyalty and devotion to this institution. The two regular meetings held during the year were well attended and each member contributed his full attention and talents to the problems at hand.

Presbyterian Children's Home Budget

2. The Presbyterian Home, Inc.

J. B. Watt, President

The Board of Trustees respectfully reports the major activities of the Home for the past year.

The Board met for two regular and one call session and the Executive Committee met three times for the transaction of business during 1960.

The books were audited by the A. M. Pullen and Company, Certified Public Accountants, Greensboro, N. C., and the audit shows capital worth of $1,524,785.07 as of December 31, 1960. This report shows a gain in capital for the year of $389,133.85. Of this amount, $131,770.78 was payments received on pledges to the Forward Fund (Building Fund). Included in the Capital Gain for the year is the net pledges receivable of $177,555.85.

There were 17 new admissions, 10 deaths, and a total of 102 persons served during 1960.

We are happy to report that the apartment idea has proved to be quite successful and appealing. In order to meet the requests of people interested in an apartment, ten apartments were built and completed on November 15, 1960. All of these apartments are occupied, and plans are underway for the construction of eight additional apartments during 1961.

A report on the Forward Fund's progress (Building Fund) as of March 31, 1961 is as follows:

Presbytery	Pledged	Paid	Balance	Objective	Percentage
Albemarle	$ 22,441.18	$ 14,705.05	$ 7,736.13	$ 41,183.29	54.3
Concord	34,809.21	21,884.59	12,924.62	78,670.06	44.2
Fayetteville	39,211.22	26,800.82	12,410.40	100,860.04	38.8
Granville	36,140.12	13,990.88	22,149.24	54,916.47	65.7
Kings Mountain	20,656.70	14,556.45	6,100.25	58,868.28	35.1
Mecklenburg	82,001.25	56,639.09	25,362.16	207,455.03	39.6
Orange	183,396.32	132,811.87	50,584.45	104,858.71	174.2
Wilmington	9,997.71	7,295.18	2,702.53	49,930.17	20.0
Winston-Salem	56,255.55	22,490.55	33,765.00	54,218.19	103.8
	$484,909.26	$311,174.48	$173,734.78	$750,000.00	64.6

Your Board of Trustees has most diligently worked with the plans and specifications for the proposed new residence wing and infirmary wing, and in arranging financing so that construction could be started. The new residence wing will house 46 single bedrooms and the infirmary wing will house 37 single hospital rooms. With the addition of these facilities, and the 8 new apartments, the Home will have a maximum capacity of approximately 200.

After satisfactory financing for the completion of this job had been arranged, contracts were signed on April 17, 1961 for the construction of the new facilities. The low bidder for this job was

R. K. Stewart and Son, High Point, North Carolina, in the amount of $1,011,660, with construction to be completed within 400 calendar days.

On April 18, 1961 a Ground Breaking Ceremony was held and actual construction has already begun.

When these new buildings are completed, your Board of Trustees will have incurred a mortgaged debt of not more than $750,000. In the 9 years that the Presbyterian Home has been in operation, the Capital Assets of the Home have grown from $250,000 to over One Million Dollars, not including the campaign for funds. This was possible because of the generosity of friends who made individual contributions, and through Wills and Bequests. Because of the tremendous demand and need for facilities (with over 100 applications in the file of persons wanting and needing to be in the Home) your Board of Trustees has the faith to proceed with the building of this new addition and the borrowing of $750,000.

For what you have done, we offer our humble thanks and ask for your continued interest, support and prayers.

3. The William Black Home, Inc.

Rev. R. H. Stone, Chairman

Your Trustees have the most encouraging report of progress that it has made in a number of years. The most enheartening item is the establishment of the Wm. Henry Belk Memorial Fund by Mrs. Charles G. Gambrell—(Nee Miss Sarah Belk), of New York City. The Fund is to be $10,000.00, of which considerably more than half has been paid and is invested and yielding interest. The income from this Fund is to be used to provide a week's vacation at the William Black Home for retired ministers and their wives. Five will be invited this year as the first guests of the memorial. Mr. W. H. Belk had a tender spot in his heart for the aged ministerial servants of the Church and made contributions to a number of them during the days of his flesh. His daughter in that spirit is continuing a service to the retired minister.

This will be a companion memorial to the J. Harvey White Memorial Fund—the income of which made possible last year vacations for nineteen persons.

We received a petition from a group of our 1960 guests asking that something be done to provide additional parking facilities. Yearly we wrestle with this problem and we have not arrived at a practical solution on our property without the expenditure of a sum of money we do not have. However, we have a committee attempting to make an arrangement with the Montreat Association.

The 1960 season was operated at a profit. The attached audited report will give you a picture of our sound financial position.

Following the resignation of Mrs A. H. Moore as Manager, the Board secured the services of Mrs. Ray H. Waltman, of R. F. D. No. 3, Matthews, N. C. for the 1961 season. Mrs. Waltman for several years has been receiving registrations. She reports normal registration for the current season. An excellent staff will assist her this year.

We are making some repairs and improvements prior to the 1961 opening.

The Board would again this year thank the Synod for the privilege of serving in this capacity and covets the prayers of the people of the Synod for the Home's continued usefulness and blessings to the guests who are there each year.

G. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-CHURCH RELATIONS

REV. LAWRENCE I. STELL, Chairman

During the past year, the major function of the Committee on Inter-Church Relations of the Synod of N. C. has been the implementing of the Synod's concern through the North Carolina Council of Churches. But the limit of the work of Presbyterians in that field has not been limited to the work of the committee by any means. We delight to report that the current President of the Council is Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary of Synod. Also, of course, the Executive Secretary of the Council, continues to be the Rev. Morton R. Kurtz, a member of our Synod.

Mrs. Karl Burkhandt, the Rev. George Webb, and the Rev. Howard Chadwick reported as the official representatives of our Synod to the 1961 Annual meeting which was held in Raleigh, N. C. Mr. J. B. Brewer, Moderator of the Synod, represented the Synod, officially, at the 25th anniversary Convocation in Greensboro, N. C., May 1-2, 1961.

Again, the committee notes with concern the failure of Synod to give the full amount put in the budget for the Council. Since practically the entire amount is used for salaries, it is easy to see that the failure of Synod to meet the amount set, makes it almost impossible for the Council to develop the program which is needed and which would be of real help.

Attention of Synod is called to the 1962 meeting of the North Carolina Council of Churches on January 30-31, 1962, at Burlington.

Recommendations:

1. That the following be named principals and alternates as the official representatives of Synod to the 1962 meeting of the North Carolina Council of Churches:

Principals

Rev. E. T. Thompson, Jr.
Mrs. Karl Burkhandt
Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin
Rev. Lawrence I. Stell
Rev. C. I. Lewis
Rev. Albert N. Wells

Alternates

Rev. David E. Wilkinson
Mrs. P. Hunter Dalton
Rev. B. Frank Hall
Rev. R. A. Massey
Rev. Allen C. McSween
Rev. George L. Riddle

2. That Standing Rule 23.7g be amended to read "six members" instead of "three".

3. That Synod adopt a budget for 1962 for Inter-Church Relations in the total amount of $6,700.

3. Highlights of the North Carolina Council of Churches - 1960

The Council Annual Meeting was held at White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, January 31-February 1, 1961, with the largest attendance in its history. Dr. Bernard Boyd, Canon Theodore Wedel, Dr. Benjamin Mays, Mrs. Murdock McLeod, Dr. Ralph Sockman and Dr. Carlyle Marney brought addresses. The Council dedicated a Station Wagon to be used in its ministry to migrants, approved two resolutions in the fields of human relations and world affairs, a new Constitution, and a total budget for 1961 of $63,890, including Women's Work. Dr. Harold J. Dudley, General Secretary of the Synod, was elected President of the Council. Mrs. Dudley serves as General Chairman of the Women's Department and Fourth Vice-President of the Council. Other Presbyterians on the Executive Board are Rev. George M. Webb, Shelby, Chairman of the Pastoral Ministry Commission and Annual Meeting Program Chairman; Rev. Howard Chadwick, Charlotte; Mrs. R. A. Willis, Jr., Monroe; Dr. B. Frank Hall, Wilmington; and Dr. Ansley C. Moore, Laurinburg. Executive Director Morton R. Kurtz is a member of Granville Presbytery.

Highlights of the Council's past year include:

1. The ministry to 14,000 migrant workers in our State which employs 12 staff workers, maintains Day Care Centers for children at Elizabeth City and Hendersonville, and uses two station wagons as mobile chapels.
2. Collection of 135,000 pounds of clothing—a 53% increase over 1959—for overseas relief; also contributions of $6,000 for CROP, used to send food and medicine to the hungry and ill.
3. A Rural Church Convocation at State College, August 9-11th.
4. A Church Building and Architecture Conference at Charlotte, November 11th.
5. A Radio-TV Workshop at University of North Carolina, July 18-20.
6. Co-sponsorship of World Affairs Conferences at Chapel Hill in February and at Blue Ridge in July.
7. Sponsorship of World Day of Prayer, World Community Day, May Fellowship Day and other projects through the Council's Dept. of Church Women.
8. A program of Alcohol Education, including One Day Institutes for ministers and church workers, college chapel talks, and demonstrations of alcohol's evils before high school assemblies.
9. A Youth Work program of work projects, retreats, and training conferences through UCYM and the Student Christian Council.
10. Served as a clearing house and coordinating agency for Weekday Bible Teaching programs reaching 33,000 boys and girls of elementary and high school age.
11. Supporting a Summer Ministry for Campers at Doughton Park in cooperation with the National Parks Ministry.

12. Planning for a great Convocation in First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, May 1-2, 1961, to celebrate the Council's Silver Anniversary. Billy Graham, Liston Pope, Eugene Carson Blake, Frank P. Graham, and others will bring addresses.

H. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

REV. NEILL R. MCGEACHY, Chairman

During the past year, your Committee has held two meetings, the principal function of which was the "... interchange of information as to open fields and Ministers open to change. . . ." The members of your Committee are unanimously agreed that these meetings have been most helpful and that this practice should be continued.

A joint conference, sponsored by the Board of Annuities and Relief and the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work, was held in Montreat, N. C., August 10-11, 1960. All of our Presbyteries were represented and our representatives report that they gained much from the explanations and discussions of the work of these two agencies of the Church.

The General Assembly, in enacting the Revision of the Form of Government, has increased the mandatory membership of the Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work. It has also increased the size of the quorum necessary to transact business. The Revision further provides that "The necessary expenses of this Commission shall be provided for by the Presbytery."

Your Chairman would report that he attended the annual meeting of the Assembly's Permanent Committee in Atlanta on January 10-11, 1961. By virtue of his membership on the Assembly's Committee he is serving on a joint Committee, made up of representatives of the General Council, the Board of Christian Education, and the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His Work, which is continuing to study the paper "The Office of the Minister of the Word and Sacraments" and the reports of the Presbyteries in answer to the General Assembly's request that they "study the paper and . . . answer certain specific questions which would be helpful in the further implementation of the study into the life of the Church." The results of this study will be reported to the General Assembly in 1962.

In the light of these matters your committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That members of the Commissions of our Presbyteries be urged to read the report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work and the actions adopted by the General Assembly, relating to the work of the Commissions, at its meeting in Dallas, Texas, April 27-May 2, 1961.
2. That Synod call to the attention of the Presbyteries the fact that we are now operating under the Revised Form of Church Government and Rules of Discipline (see particularly Chapter 21, The Form of Government), and urge the Presbyteries to bring their Commissions on the Minister and His Work into line with the mandatory membership and to begin making provision for the expenses of the Commission if they are not already doing so.
3. That Synod call to the attention of the Presbyteries the changes that have been made in the functions of the Commissions and urge that these be followed with care. (see particularly Chapter 21-2(1); 21-3; 21-4)

4. That Synod approve the holding of a Joint Conference in the spring of 1962, of all the Commissions on the Minister and His Work and the Committees on Annuities and Relief of the Presbyteries in order that they may become better informed as to their duties and responsibilities in their respective areas of service in the Church.

I. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

Rev. Richard R. Gammon, Chairman

1. That the various vacancies occurring at this meeting of Synod on the several Agencies of Synod by virtue of the creation of new committees or offices, or because of the expiration of terms of office, or by resignation, death, or otherwise, be filled as follows: (See DIRECTORY, pp. 6ff.)
2. That interim appointments by the Moderator since Synod last met be approved. (All included in the DIRECTORY).
3. That Synod express appreciation to those who have served faithfully as members of Boards, Committees, etc., especially those whose terms of office expire with this meeting of Synod.
4. That Standing Rule 23:7g be amended to read "six" instead of "three" official representatives to the annual meeting of the NC CC Assembly.
5. That Standing Rule 21:1 be amended by striking "President Synod's Youth Council" and substituting "a youth representative, elected by the Executive Committee on Christian Education."
6. That Standing Rule 23:4 be amended to read that the membership of the Committee on Bequests and Deferred Gifts be composed of three classes of four members each, the Chairman, and two women (15 in all).
7. That Standing Rule 23:10 be amended to include the Synodical Chairman of Christian Education as an ex officio member of the Committee on the Presbyterian Survey.

J. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY

Rev. J. N. Brown, Chairman

During the past year, the Presbyterian Survey has kept our church well informed. It has given detailed information about the program, and activities of the various committees and agencies of our church.

Wherever the Survey has been carefully read, there has been a greater enthusiasm for the causes of Stewardship and Evangelism.

More than half of the churches in the Presbyterian Church U. S. are now actively enrolled in the Every Family Plan. In six years the E. F. P. has increased the Survey's circulation by more than 500%.

North Carolina has made steady progress, and now according to statistics of May 1, 1961, ranks first in the General Assembly in the number of churches enrolled in this plan; the first in the total number of subscriptions, which is 36,920.

However, there are still many churches in our Synod that have not subscribed to the Survey, and we hope that in the near future all of our churches will see their way clear to subscribe to the Presbyterian Survey, and make North Carolina 100%. This we believe from every point of view is good business.

We therefore recommend:

1. That the Synod request every Presbytery to study its own record in regard to the Survey.
2. That the Synod urge every church in every Presbytery to enroll in the Every Family Plan at the reduced rate of $1.00 per year.
3. That the Synod express its gratitude to the chairmen of the various Presbyteries of Synod, who have been most faithful and diligent in the performance of their duties and responsibilities.

K. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

Rev. Harold J. Dudley, Chairman

1. This Committee concurs as follows in regard to recommendations of other Committees, bearing on amendments to the Standing Rules:
    (1) Inter-Church Relations—Recommendation #2 bearing on Rule 23:7g.
    (2) Nominations: Recommendation #5 bearing on Rule 21:1; #6 bearing on Rule 23:4; and Recommendation #7 bearing on Rule 23:10.
    (3) Homes: Recommendation #1 bearing on Rule 16:2.
2. That the portion of the Report which was placed on the docket for final adoption at this meeting of Synod, and not affected by the Report of the Committee at this meeting, be adopted.
3. That Synod suspend its Standing Rules in order to make effective immediately changes in the Standing Rules as recommended above and recommendations in other Reports to Synod bearing on changes in the Standing Rules.
4. That the Stated Clerk be empowered to make other such changes as may be necessary to bring the Rules into conformity with actions taken at this meeting of Synod, or for clarity and consistency in the Rules.

L. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK

Rev. Russell B. Fleming, Chairman

The Committee on Women's Work hereby commends the officers of the Women of the Synod for their leadership and inspiration, and the local organizations of Women's Work for the fine work that they have done during the year. Continuing their program begun last year of making the Presbyterian Church an Informed Church, the Women have fostered a study of the Biblical basis of our Reformed Faith. The study book entitled, "Basic Beliefs of the Reformed Faith," by Felix B. Gear, has been used as a guide. While these efforts were directed at the entire congregation, the special study of the Women through the Circles has been one of personal Christian experience. Following the theme, "Living In Christ", the Women have studied the Book of Philippians in an attempt to deepen their own personal commitment and understanding. While different approaches have been made to these studies, the desired effect has been reached—that of deepening the spiritual life of the total congregation.

Our Committee would call attention of the Synod to the 16th Annual Synodical Training School to be held next week at Davidson College. The program planned and the leadership invited reveal the seriousness with which the Women have taken the matter of vital Christian Living. The attendance of the School by the Women of the Synod, and its importance in the life of the local Women of the Church organizations has encouraged the enriching of the school plans each year.

The Synodical meeting was held in the First Presbyterian Church in Greenville last fall, and was attended by the chairman of this committee. We commend the Executive Board of the Women of the Synod for the planning and conduct of such an inspirational meeting.

Recommendations:

1. That very careful consideration be given by the Synod through the appropriate body before the Women-of-the-Synod are requested to assume independent responsibility for large financial campaigns.

2. That the Women of the Synod be thanked and commended for their faithful work and service to Almighty God through this His Church.

3. That Synod take cognizance of the presence of the Women-of-the-Synod, meeting with us during these 148th sessions of the Synod of North Carolina, and by rising vote express our appreciation for the faithful and effective work of this important organ of the Church.

4. That recognition be taken of the diligent and untiring service of Mrs. H. Lacy Godwin, retiring President of the Women of the Church of the Synod of North Carolina; and, that she now be invited to address the Synod, bringing the annual report of the Synodical.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

MRS. H. LACY GODWIN, President

Reviewing annual reports one catches a vision of the gratifying team work of officers and members and senses God's guidance and blessings on Women's Work as we seek to carry out the program based on the Assembly approved emphasis, and prepared largely by the Board and Agencies of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

Condensed reports are by no means a complete record but will indicate something of the time, energies and consecration rendered to God through this channel of His Church.

Every activity manifests growth in Christian living and the response to definite means to provide and stimulate Spiritual Growth in the home, church and community is encouraging.

Equally thrilling is the enlarged vision of World Missions. This is evinced by a stronger desire for missionary education, increased interest in individuals serving.

Again, as in the past, the White Cross challenge was accepted—filled over and above with an additional gift of $2,500.00 sent to the Board of World Missions to help defray shipping costs on supplies being sent to the fields.

The women responded enthusiastically to appeals from the Church World Service. One church alone sent seventy-five blankets and $185.00 following the typhoon in Japan.

The program of missionary itineration has proven to be the most effective means of bringing the needs on the home front to local groups. Speakers from the Board of Church Extension and Executive Committees appeared in all nine Presbyterials.

In the field of Evangelism the women have taken their rightful places alongside the men and are assuming their share of the responsibility in this Centennial Year of our Church in laying the burden of God's love and concern upon the heart of every member through its Mission to the Nation program.

Christian Education was promoted by encouraging family participation in special study seasons; the reading of church papers and periodicals.

Higher Education was stressed through efforts to keep the youth of our church and adults informed concerning the Church Schools, Vocational Guidance Centers and Campus Christian Life Program. In answer to a question: "How many young people from your churches participated in the Westminster Fellowship Program at their respective colleges?" 1959 the answer was , 1960 the answer was 662.

It is heartening to note an increased attendance at daily Vacation Bible Schools, Camps and Conferences.

Six presbyterials reported thirty-three scholarships.

Services rendered to the elderly members of the churches have been overwhelmingly gratifying.

Horizons are being widened through participation in all community church endeavors.

Never before has there been such indication of women's eagerness to learn, to become better informed and to be more efficient leaders than in the past year.

One hundred and eighty-five attended the Women's Conference at Montreat. Four hundred and nine attended Synodical Training School at Queen College. Three diplomas and eleven certificates were awarded in recognition of completion of eight and twelve courses, respectively.

One hundred and sixty-seven Negro women representing eighty different localities were in attendance at the Interdenominational Christian Conference in Winston-Salem. Twenty-four paid their own tuition, sixty-two were attending for a first time. As a result of this interest, three one-day Negro conferences were held with good attendance and great satisfaction for trainees and sponsors. Three representatives attended Boggs Academy, Keysville, Georgia.

The short nine months year on the local level caused a decrease in this year's stewardship of gifts. All contingent and benevolent apportionments have been met. Special contributions to many causes, $50,567.00.

The Synodical joins hearts and hands in special work we do with Synod. Emphasizing the importance of accepting without cuts the budget. We serve as trustees and regents on Boards of Presbyterian Home, Home at Barium, Mission Court, William Black Home, and on the Boards of Higher Christian Education. We have representatives on Synod's Committees.

We give a scholarship to a worthy student attending the Presbyterian School of Christian Education. Next year we hope to have a floating scholarship, with an endowment of $10,000. We are Friends of the Seminary, Sponsors of PSCE. We talk about Stillman, our only college for Negroes. We promote Intergroup Work, work with the migrants, and have tried to get in on the Indian work.

While there was advancement in many ways, there is yet much need for deeper consecration, more informed members, and more willing workers. We live in a time when the darkness of the world shows clearly the need for men and women with lighted minds and hearts. God grant that the growth of the preceding years serve as a stimulating reminder of the privileges and opportunities that are ours, and lead to even greater service in His name.

M. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD MISSIONS

REV. HARRY H. BRYAN, Chairman

Speaking to a group of North Carolina men who have contributed liberally to his effort to bring new life to an almost hopeless area of the world, a missionary stated his concept of missions in this way:

> "Christianity is life with a mission to solve all of man's basic problems, however complex.
> "When a church is separated from its mission to the world, it becomes concerned with its own welfare rather than with the Kingdom of God on earth and is not a fit place to gather converts.
> "When converts, however primitive and uneducated, are taught that being a Christian means becoming a part of a continuing mission to a world they become leaders of their church, their country, and their witness spreads to every land."

The strong point of this modern manifesto is the warning that a church must not be separated from its mission to the world.

Your Committee records evidence that has kept Presbyterian Churches in North Carolina in vital touch with World Missions:

I. Concentrated missionary personnel in special conferences have enabled Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh, Winston-Salem, Rocky Mount, and Wilson, to confront these communities with a full and clear concept of missions. A later conference this year is listed for Salisbury. Scores of engagements have been filled by individual missionaries in local churches and before Presbytery and Women-of-the-Church meetings and at Presbytery Workshops on World Missions.

II. Missionaries on furlough, living in our area—homes being provided by our churches in some instances—have had continuous opportunities for calling others into this service.

III. Most of your Committee, a considerable number of Women-of-the-Church leaders, and a large number of North Carolina Young People attended the Montreat World Mission Conference last July. All were encouraged by the commissioning of thirty-nine (39) new workers, a number that compares favorably with the yearly average since 1946.

IV. Promotion of the film "The Household of Faith"—some Presbyteries providing for the cost—has supplemented the theme of the year's study, as has the use of the book, "One World—One Mission."

V. Youth groups, camps, conferences and rallies have welcomed missionary presentations wherever advisors have been alert to make contacts.

VI. Presbyteries of this Synod, following the recommendation of the Assembly, are placing men who have definite commitment to the urgency of this cause in charge of World Mission Committees. From the committees have come more interest in the churches, and a positive program of support.

VII. Due to the urgency of the world situation, it is gradually reaching the attention of church leaders in North Carolina that the study and support of World Missions cannot be confined to a limited number of weeks in the year. The fact is being impressed that—

> "Missions is not a function of the church. Missions is the church and ought to be promoted on a year-round basis."

Special offerings have been received at the times appointed by the Assembly, but it has been most appropriate to use missionary speakers whenever they can visit, to hear mission sermons from ministers of the church often during the year, and to plan for a variety of study and personalized support programs on missions in all church organizations.

Your Committee also records summary statements about the nations and peoples to whom our world mission is directed. These are prepared from data available to all of us. We are thus encouraged to stronger interest in and prayer for our fellow Christians in all the world.

I. The Church in the Congo is the one stable influence in the chaotic condition that exists there today. It continues to serve the population through church and hospital and school.

II. The growing strength of Protestantism in Brazil, the assuming of responsibility in the control of and directing the established mission institutions and the opening up of a vast new frontier in the center of South America combine to make this a day of destiny for the church in that country.

III. The Christian witness in Taiwan is notably Presbyterian, due to many factors and is now true to the Church's outreach-spirit as it emphasizes work for tribal mountain groups with much to encourage.

IV. Japan stands, more than ever, at a strategic place in bringing Christ to Asia. Unmistakable gifts in national leadership must be captured thru evangelism and Christian education. The radio is now a mighty force in this endeavor.

V. The paucity of Korean church leaders, due, it is evident, to the martyrdom of hundreds of pastors and elders at the time of the war has left turmoil in that country that is slow to subside. Yet, our church's representatives continue a cooperative program and have been used to conciliate. The ministry of healing through our hospitals and the Christian Higher Education program brings a new spirit to many.

VI. The twenty-five missionaries who represent us in Mexico conduct a program of astonishing dimensions although they must work only at the fringes of the great area of need. There is progress in clarifying procedures so that the General Assembly of the Church in that land will understand our motives and purposes.

VII. Our missions in Portugal, Ecuador, and Iraq, projected jointly with other Presbyterian groups, have witnessed in a manner worthy of the dedication of the individuals who represent us. A break-through and an acceptance of the way of Christ can be anticipated as this work continues.

VIII. Tons of clothing from collection centers in North Carolina, and relief offerings at Easter and other times have been forwarded overseas with the gifts of the church-at-large. Extraneous agencies collecting money from our people cannot possibly meet the need and solve emergency problems as can Church World Service and the Board in Nashville.

With these two types of evidence before the Synod, attention is also called to the full listing of facts in the Assembly's report for 1961, soon to be distributed, and the striking articles each month in The Presbyterian Survey. Any member of Synod, any Session in North Carolina can recognize that our church is committed to a world-wide mission.

The call for new missionaries, the plans for 1961-62 study on "The Christian Mission in Latin American Countries", and all recommendations adopted by the Dallas Assembly deserve the careful attention of every Presbyterian.

Recommendations:

1. That Commissioners to this Synod upon their return home, or Clerks of Sessions, be requested to read this concise report to the Session, the Board of Deacons, and to Church organizations of men, women and young people in the hope that the urgency of the World Mission task may be effectively realized.
2. That Synod recommend to Presbyteries, where this has not already been approved, that the Chairman of Presbytery's Committee of World Missions be made a member of the Council of Presbytery.
3. That the details of the World Missions program emphasis in the 1962 meeting of Synod be worked out in cooperation with Synod's Council.
4. That pending the adoption of this Report, the Reverend William B. Moseley, Fortaleza, Ceara, Brazil, address Synod.

VI. REPORTS OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEES

A. REPORT OF LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERS' SALARIES

J. B. Brewer, Chairman

The Committee on The Minister and His Work meeting of Synod in June 1960 in Greenville made the following recommendation to our Committee.

> "That Synod refer to the Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries the responsiblity of studying the feasibility of a financial program to assure the ministers and their wives a place in our Presbyterian Home, if they so choose and if space is available after retirement."

Our Committee approached this problem with the idea that possibly a certain type of insurance program might provide the funds for our ministers and their wives to enter our Presbyterian Home after retirement. We found such plans quite expensive and it appeared that all premiums would have to be paid by Synod's office on a monthly basis. The Laymen's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries feels that the only reasonable answer to this problem is for the Minister to immediately avail himself of the privileges of joining the Social Security program. We would also urge each Church to work with the Minister and where possible for the Church to pay the Social Security cost for their Ministers. These funds would then become available each month after retirement and would supplement the funds the Minister would receive under our Ministers' Annuity Program. The combination of these two would enable the Minister and his wife to enjoy the privileges of our Presbyterian Home without needing extra financial assistance.

It has been our hope that this movement would spread to all the Synods of our Presbyterian Church in the United States. We have had correspondence with many Presbyteries and also with certain Synods and Mr. Graham White of Atlanta advised us that this movement in the Synod of North Carolina is being discussed all over our Church. Our Layman's Committee needs assistance in getting this movement organized in all of our Synods so that it will become a real Church-wide movement.

The Layman's Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries, therefore, makes the following recommendation to Synod:

> "That Synod refer to the Committee on The Minister and His work the request that they take all necessary steps to acquaint the Committee on the Minister and His Work of each Synod in the Presbyterian Church in the United States with the history and results of the movement in the Synod of North Carolina; that they request the services of Mr. Graham White of Atlanta, who will assist them greatly in this work. Also that they try to have the story of this movement in the Synod of North Carolina presented to the next meeting of our General Assembly, which might be the means of speeding up the spread of this movement throughout our entire Church.

B. REPORT OF THE SESQUI-CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

Rev. Joseph H. Carter, Chairman

Your Committee would report that it has been moving forward in carrying out the responsibilities assigned it by Synod. We have felt that we should keep our work in the background during the celebration of the Centennial of the whole Church. Now that this celebration is moving to its climax we are making preparations for the Sesqui-Centennial in 1963, and will have full and definite plans and programs to present in 1962.

A meeting of the full Committee will be held within the next thirty days when plans are to be acted on.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS REPORTS

A. REPORT AND MINUTES OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE A. T. McCALLUM ESTATE

Rev. W. B. Heyward, Chairman

The Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate submit the following report to the Synod of North Carolina, meeting in Raleigh on June 13, 1961.

The Trustees received the Audit of the Estate made by Archibald K. Lovin, Certified Public Accountant, Red Springs, North Carolina, showing the income and the expense of the Estate during the year, January 1, 1960 through December 31, 1960.

The Audit on EXHIBIT B which is a statement of balance available for distribution is as follows:

Deficit for year ended December 31, 1958	$1,603.30
Deficit for year ended December 31, 1959	1,875.77
Total Deficit at January 1, 1960	$3,479.07
Surplus from operations for year ended December 31, 1960	$6,040.55
Balance available for distribution in accordance with Item VI (g) of the Will of A. T. McCallum	$2,561.48

A check for this amount will be sent in the near future to Harold J. Dudley, Treasurer of the Synod of North Carolina.

The Trustees are satisfied that the Estate is being well handled.

The Trustees elected one of its members, Z. V. McMillan, as Treasurer, and arranged his bond in the amount of $25,000.00, previously set by the Synod and payable to the Synod. This was done in preparation for the final transfer of the holdings of the A. T. McCallum Estate to the Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Trust Fund.

MEMORIAL TO ARCHIBALD TORREY McCALLUM (1856-1926)

Presented to Synod by the Rev. Robert G. Hall

Archibald Torrey McCallum was born near Red Springs, North Carolina, on March 24, 1856. He was endowed with a strong forceful personality and a keen intellect. But above all, he was a sincere, dedicated Christian. He exerted a far-reaching influence on his church and community.

Mr. McCallum was educated in the local schools and at the University of North Carolina. Because of conditions at home and the general difficulties of the Reconstruction Period, he was forced to leave the University after one and a half years of study. He returned to his ancestral home and supervised the large farming interests of his family. Mr. McCallum proved to be an alert, progressive farmer and business man.

On January 7, 1892, Mr. McCallum married Miss Agnes Townsend of Robeson County. They established a lovely home in Red Springs that was noted for its hospitality and its fine Christian atmosphere. Mrs. McCallum survived her husband by thirty-four years. She died on January 13, 1960. Up to the very end of her long and useful life, she continued to reflect her late husband's high ideals and his interest in the church.

Mr. McCallum served his church in many different capacities. He was a deacon and a Ruling Elder in the Red Springs Presbyterian Church. He was also Chairman of the Building Committee that erected the present sanctuary in 1906. He represented his church at Presbytery and Synod on many different occasions, and he was one of Fayetteville Presbytery's Commissioners to the General Assembly which met in Saint Louis in 1921.

Mr. McCallum was a faithful and loyal supporter of Montreat, and he maintained a home there for many years. Mr. McCallum died at Montreat on August 23, 1926.

The generous legacy that Mr. McCallum willed to the Synod of North Carolina is an eloquent testimony of his devotion to the Church which Christ loved and for which Christ gave His life.

Miss Louise Purcell, a member of the Red Springs Presbyterian Church, is a niece of Mr. McCallum, and his closest living relative. She has requested that I convey this message to the Synod of North Carolina: "I rejoice to know that Mr. McCallum's estate is passing into such capable hands, and I trust that it may bear much fruit in our Master's work."

B. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECORDS

REV. R. T. HAYNES, JR., Chairman

Your Committee on Records received and carefully studied copies of the*Minutes* of Presbyteries as follows: Albemarle, January 26, 1960-December 8, 1960; Concord, July 19, 1960-January 17, 1961; Fayetteville, April 26, 1960-January 24, 1961; Granville, January 19, 1960-October 18, 1960; Kings Mountain, January 19, 1960-October 18, 1960; Mecklenburg, July 18, 1960-January 24, 1961; Orange, April 21, 1960-January 19, 1961; Wilmington, April 19, 1960-December 6, 1960; Winston-Salem, March 6, 1960-February 7, 1961.

The examination of these Minutes revealed that they were well recorded and in proper form, except for the following oversights:

1. Terms of calls from churches to ministers were not fully described in the Minutes of Albemarle and Kings Mountain Presbyteries. (See Minutes of Synod, 1956, page 163.)
2. In the Minutes of Albemarle and Concord Presbyteries, the parts of the examination of new ministers coming into Presbytery were not mentioned. (B.C.O., par. 74.)
3. The Minutes of Kings Mountain and Wilmington Presbyteries failed to report any action by the congregation relevant to the dissolution of pastoral relationships.
4. The Fayetteville (Vol. 25, No. 8, P. 317) and Granville (Vol. XLII, pp. 14-15, 29) failed to record the setting of a quorum for Commissions appointed. (B.C.O., par. 94)
5. The Minutes of Wilmington Presbytery for the Called Meeting, November 22, 1960, failed to show that the Minutes were read and approved or that Presbytery was closed with prayer.
6. Winston-Salem: An irregular action was taken at the Called Meeting March 6, 1960, page 14, in the adjourning of Presbytery without the reading and approving of the Minutes. It is questionable whether the moderator has authority to rule that "the Minutes would be read and adopted by Presbytery at its Stated Meeting on May 10." The Minutes of May 10, 1960 fail to show that the previous Minutes were read and approved. Also, it is not recorded that the Minutes of the Stated Meeting, January 24, 1961, were read and approved.
7. The Minutes of Wilmington Presbytery for the Stated Meeting, October 18, 1960, show that Presbytery voted to dispense with the sermon as a part of the examination for ordination. The Book of Church Order, Par. 139, states that no part may be omitted except in extraordinary cases, and whenever done, the reasons therefor must be recorded.

Your Committee also examined the Minutes of the One-Hundredth General Assembly and the Minutes of the One Hundred and Forty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Synod of North Carolina. These Minutes were found to be in good and proper order, testifying to the excellent work done by the Stated Clerks of these bodies.

Your Committee wishes to commend the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries for the very efficient and attractive way in which they have kept the records of our presbyteries.

Recommendation:

1. That Synod express its appreciation to the Clerks of the various Presbyteries for the accurate and orderly manner in which the records of the Presbyteries have been kept.

VIII. STANDING RULES OF SYNOD

SECTION I

GOVERNMENT

Rule 1:1. The Rules of Parliamentary Order adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and printed in the Book of Church Order, and the Standing Rules hereinafter provided, shall be the Rules of Order for the guidance of the Synod.

1:2. To rescind, adopt or amend a Standing Rule, the suggested change shall be introduced at a regular meeting, and adopted by a majority affirmative vote of those present at the next, or a subsequent, regular stated meeting.

1:3. To suspend a Standing Rule shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of those present.

1:4. Any Standing Rule, or appointment of the Synod in conflict with these Standing Rules, is hereby rescinded.

SECTION II

REPRESENTATION

Rule 2:1. Each Session shall be represented at a meeting of Synod by one representative, except as otherwise provided for in the Book of Church Order, Paragraph 17:1 (as revised by the 1961 General Assembly). Sessions are urged to elect Ruling Elders who will plan to attend the whole session of Synod, and to register the principal and the alternate with the Stated Clerk not later than ten days before the meeting of Synod.

SECTION III

OFFICERS

Rule 3:1. The officers of the Synod shall be a Moderator, a General Secretary, a Permanent Clerk, and an Assistant Clerk.

A. MODERATOR

Rule 4:1. The Moderator shall be elected each year, to serve until his successor is elected. A Moderator may be nominated at each Synod, to be elected at the next meeting of Synod; however, such a nomination shall not preclude other nominations from the floor at the meeting of the Synod when the new Moderator is elected. The ordinary duties of the Moderator are set forth in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 13-2, 3, 4, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 1-19.

4:2. The Moderator shall have power, in the interim of the meetings of Synod, to fill, at his discretion, vacancies occurring in any office of the Synod, except Boards of Institutions which have no limited tenure of office, by appointment until the next annual meeting.

B. GENERAL SECRETARY

Rule 5:1. The duties of the General Secretary shall be as follows: To perform the duties of the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Synod; to serve as Central Treasurer of Synod; to act as Treasurer of the Executive Committees on Campus Christian Life, Church Extension, and Educational Institutions; to promote by co-ordinated publicity the total work of the Synod (See Rule 8); to serve as an agent of the Executive Committees on Church Extension (See Rule 9), Campus Christian Life (See Rule 20a), and Educational Institutions (See Rule 20b); and to urge a program of Christian Stewardship upon the constituency of the Synod. (See Section II, Item I, Reorganization Plan 1951 Minutes of Synod.)

1. As Stated Clerk

Rule 6:1. The duties of the Stated Clerk are set forth in general in the Book of Church Order, paragraphs 13-5, 105-19, and in the "Rules of Parliamentary Order," 20 and 21.

6:2. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk, when he is elected and enters upon the duties of his office, at the opening of the Synod immediately succeeding that at which he is elected, to report to the Synod in writing and in full, whatever he has received from his predecessor, in the way of Books, Papers, Records, Documents, Furniture, etc., and the condition of the same when received.

6:3. The Stated Clerk shall conduct the correspondence of the Synod and shall publish a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Synod at least once, a month before the appointed day. He shall sign all necessary certificates for the same, or for other official purposes of the Synod or its members.

6:4. He shall mail, in advance of Synod, copies of Reports, together with copies of the Program, to all Commissioners to Synod.

6:5. He shall have at each meeting of Synod accessible to the Moderator a sufficient number of copies of the printed reports of the Program Committee, a copy of the last printed Minutes of the General Assembly, and a copy of Alexander's Digest.

6:6. He shall edit the Minutes of the Synod for the printer, after their approval by the Synod, and shall transmit the Records annually to the General Assembly for review. (The word "edit" here is used to refer to corrections in spelling, punctuation, etc.) He shall cause to be published annually in pamphlet form, at least one thousand copies of the Minutes, as soon as practicable after adjournment, and distribute these among the members of the Synod and Church Sessions.

6.7. He shall cause to be published in the Appendix to the printed Minutes, the reports of the Presbyteries on Statistics, the reports of the Executive and Permanent Committees, and such reports of Trustees and Regents as may be required.

6:8. He shall forward a copy of the printed Minutes annually to the libraries of Union Seminary, Davidson College, the Presbyterian Historical Society of Philadelphia, and the Historical Foundation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and he shall file at least three copies in the archives of Synod.

6:9. He shall be charged with the further duty of reporting to the Moderator any vacancies to be filled by his appointment, and any deaths in the Ministry that may occur, and of reporting to the Synod the expiration of the term of service of its officers and members of its committees, according to the Standing Rules. He shall present to the Synod the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries. He shall collect and cause to be preserved all historical matter relating to the life of the Synod.

6:10. The Stated Clerk shall also serve as Treasurer of the Synod for the Office of Stated Clerk. As Treasurer it shall be his duty to keep a strict and accurate account of all funds received and disbursed, showing what Presbyteries have paid or have not paid their assessments, and for what purpose the funds have been disbursed. He shall submit to the Synod annually his books, together with a report of receipts and expenditures, presenting vouchers for the same.

6:11. The Stated Clerk shall act as Secretary to the Committee charged with the distribution of the income from the Mrs. Kate Bitting Reynolds Fund for Aged Ministers of the Synod of North Carolina, and shall keep a record of all transactions connected therewith. He shall make a distribution as provided for in this Trust Fund, and the plan of distribution as adopted by Synod.

6:12. The term of office of the Stated Clerk shall be three years.

2. As Central Treasurer

Rule 7:1. The Central Treasurer shall distribute all benevolence income received from various sources to the proper Agencies of the Synod, according to the actions of the Synod, governing its benevolence program.

3. As Public Relations Clerk

Rule 8:1. It shall be the duty of the Public Relations Clerk:

8:2. to prepare a daily account of the proceedings of the Synod for the daily papers;

8:3. to make the account as full, complete and vigorous as possible, stressing those matters of interest to the general public;

8:4. to act as the representative of the Synod during the interim between its meetings in endeavoring to secure through the secular press adequate account of occurrences in the life of the Churches of Synod which are of significance and interest.

4. As Secretary of Church Extension

Rule 9:1. The Secretary of Church Extension shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee of Church Extension, have supervision of the Synod's home mission work, including that of its evangelists. He shall seek to develop and coordinate all phases of home mission work within the bounds of the Synod.

9:2. He shall serve as Treasurer of Synod's Church Extension Funds. Disbursements of such funds, payment of all salaries, grants, loans, and authorized expenditures, shall be made by the Treasurer as directed by the Committee.

5. As Secretary of Higher Education

Rule 10:1. Acting under the direction of the Executive Committee on Educational Institutions, the Secretary of Higher Education shall promote the interest of the educational institutions of the Synod, and seek to make them more effective in training the youth of the church for a greater usefulness in Christian service.

Rule 10:2. Acting under the direction of the Executive Committee on Campus Christian Life, the Secretary of Higher Education shall promote the interests of the cause of Campus Christian Life within the bounds of Synod and seek to make effective the program of work relating to student work and other phases of Campus Christian Life.

Rule 10:3. The Secretary of Higher Education shall receive and disperse such funds as are contributed respectively for the causes of Campus Christian Life and Educational Institutions.

C. PERMANENT CLERK

Rule 11:1. It shall be the duty of the Permanent Clerk to engross with the aid of the Assistant Clerk, the daily Minutes of the Synod; to read said Minutes as required by the Synod for information, correction, and approval; and to deliver such Minutes to the Stated Clerk.

11:2. The term of office of the Permanent Clerk shall be three years and his compensation shall be fifty dollars ($50) per annum.

D. ASSISTANT CLERK

Rule 12:1. The duties of this office are implicit in its name. The Assistant Clerk shall be elected annually, to serve during the Session of Synod, and his compensation shall be twenty-five ($25) dollars.

E. DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Rule 13:1. The Director of Christian Education, whose term of office shall be for three years, acting under the general direction of the Synod's Executive Committee of Christian Education shall be charged with the special supervision and direction of the Synod's unified program of Christian Education, with a view to promoting, developing, and coordinating all departments and phases of Christian Education within the bounds of Synod.

F. DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

Rule 14:1. The Director of Evangelism, whose term of office shall be three years, shall conduct his work under the direction of Synod's sub-committee on Evangelism, of the Committee on Church Extension, making annual report to the Synod through this Committee.

SECTION IV

TRUSTEES

A. OF THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA

Rule 15:1. The Trustees of the Synod shall be six in number, two to be elected annually, and shall serve each for a term of three years.

15:2. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees as the Synod's agency in all matters requiring the aid or use of the civil law, to receive, take charge of, and manage to the best advantage, and account to the Synod for, according to law, all property and estate belonging, or which may accrue and enure to this Synod. They shall hold in trust, subject to the order of Synod, the said property, and all legacies and bequests which may be willed to the Synod in behalf of charitable and other objects under its control. They shall make a full report, in the premises, whenever occasion or circumstance shall require.

B. OF INSTITUTIONS

Rule 16. The Synod shall elect annually

16:1. Two members of the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary, whose term of office shall be five years.

16:2. Five members of the Board of Regents of the Barium Springs Home for Children, whose term of office shall be four years. It is further provided that no regent shall serve more than two successive terms.

16:3. Five members of the Board of Trustees of the William Black Home for Religious Workers, whose term of service shall be for three years, and four members of this Board shall be women. (See Rule 23:9d.) (See 1950 Minutes of Synod, pg. 393).

16:4. Seven members of the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Home, whose term of office shall be three years. Of these members at least two shall be women, and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times by at least one male member. The President of the Women-of-the-Synod and the Chairman of Church Extension of the Women-of-the-Synod shall be members ex-officio.

16:5. Twelve members of the Board of Directors of Saint Andrews Presbyterian College, whose term of service shall be for three years; and each Presbytery shall be represented at all times on the Board by at least two members.

16:6. The Synod shall elect ten members of the Board of Trustees of Queens College for a term of four years each. Nominees shall be submitted to the Synod by the Board of Trustees, but in its selection of Trustees the Synod shall not be confined to the nominees submitted by the Board of Trustees. These Trustees shall be divided into four classes and shall be eligible for re-election.

16:7. The Synod shall triennially elect a Trustee of the Mountain Retreat Association.

16:8. The Synod shall elect three Trustees of the A. T. McCallum Estate Trust Fund, two laymen and one minister, one of whom shall be a resident of Fayetteville Presbytery, who shall serve for terms of four years. (See Section X of the Will.)

SECTION V

SYNOD'S COUNCIL

A. MEMBERSHIP AND DUTIES.

Rule 17:1. The Council shall consist of 27 members, including the Moderator, the Chairmen respectively of the four Executive Committees and of the Nominating Committee, the President of the Men-of-the-Church, the President of the Women-of-the-Church ex officio; one other woman (see Rule 23:9d); the Chairman or representative of the Stewardship Committee, or its counterpart, of each of the nine Presbyteries; nine members-at-large of three classes of three members each, whose term of office shall be for three years.. At least seven members shall be lay persons. The General Secretary shall be the Clerk of the Council.

17:2. It shall be the duty of the Council to nominate the members of the Nominating Committee.

17:3. The Council shall be the agent of Synod to confer with the General Secretary about the duties of his office.

17:4. The Council shall elect its own Chairman and a vice-chairman, who shall be of a different term of office.

17:5. The annual Report of the Council shall be presented to the Synod on the evening of the first day of meeting.

B. SUB-COMMITTEES

17:6a. Executive: To consist of the chairman, vice-chairman, and three other members; elected annually at the spring meeting of the Council; four members to constitute a quorum; to meet as directed by the Council or at the call of the Chairman. (1) Duties: to carry out policies of the Council, but without authority to decide matters of policy or of major importance. (2) Authorized to act for the Council between meetings of the Council, and to handle all minor matters, reporting actions to the next meeting of the Council.

17:6b. Stewardship and Budgets: (1) To prepare the benevolence budget of the Synod, based on the Budget Askings submitted by the General Assembly and the Synod's Agencies (Church Extension; Christian Education; Higher Education, including Educational institutions and Campus Christian Life; Homes, including the Children's, William Black, and the Presbyterian Home; Inter-Church Agencies such as the North Carolina Council of Churches, etc.); (2) To report such budgets, with recommendations, for approval of the Synod via Synod's Council before obligations shall be contracted by such agencies and institutions of the Synod; (3) To recommend Synod's apportionments to the Presbyteries; (4) to promote the Every-Member Canvass; (5) and to supervise all matters pertaining to the financial goals of the Synod.

17:6c. Program: The arrangement of the daily devotional services, the Sacramental service, stated addresses, and the entire program of business at the meeting of Synod in conformity with the Standing Rules.

17:6d. Publicity: The discovery and promotion of ways and means of enhancing the total Presbyterian Program through public relations.

SECTION VI

COMMITTEES

A. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES:

Rule 18:1. The Executive Committees of Synod are clothed with authority, within certain well-defined limits, to execute and conclude the business entrusted to their care. They shall be divided into sub-committees to which shall be assigned the particular divisions of their respective programs, and the Executive Committees shall determine the method both of division into sub-committees and the naming of Chairmen of these committees. The sub-committees, with the approval of their respective committees, may choose to serve with them in an advisory capacity such persons as shall be deemed suitable and qualified for such service, without voting power.

18:2. Each of the Executive Committees triennially shall recommend to the Committee on Nominations an additional member-at-large for Chairman of the Committee, for nomination to the Synod.

1. CHURCH EXTENSION

Rule 19:1. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 23 members (including the Chairman), as follows: The Chairman of Church Extension in the Synodical ex officio; nine Chairmen of corresponding Committees in Presbyteries; twelve at large including one woman (Rule 23:9d) from the Synodical (three classes of four members each whose term of office shall be for three years). At least eight members shall be lay persons.

19:2. Committees: This Committee, charged with the promotion of Home Missions, Evangelism, Radio, and Negro Work, shall be divided into sub-committees, the Church Extension Committee as a whole to determine the organization of the Committee into sub-committees.

19:3. Functions: This Committee shall function as follows:

19:3a. Through Home Missions: In cooperation with the Presbyteries, survey the Home Mission fields, needs, and opportunities and in general devise plans for promoting larger interest in Home Missions in the Synod; promote church and manse planning and erection; and church extension.

19:3b. Through Evangelism: Supervise the Synod's Evangelist(s), cooperate with the Presbyteries in conducting evangelistic campaigns, and foster the spirit of evangelism and developing the spiritual life of the Synod by bringing to the Synod such information and recommendations as seem pertinent and prudent.

19:3c. Through Radio and Television, in cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to promote the spreading of the Gospel by use of the Radio and Television.

19:3d. Through Negro Work: In cooperation with the Assembly's Committee, seek to encourage the Presbyteries and churches to support and promote this phase of the Church's work.

19:4. Corporation: The Committee shall convene annually as a corporation.

2. CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

Rule 20:1a. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 20 members, including the Synodical President, ex officio, and the Chairman. There shall be three classes of six members each, whose term of office shall be for three years. Members shall be chosen for their knowledge of and interest in the program of Christian Higher Education. At least six members shall be ministers, and both laymen and women should be included in the membership. Each Presbytery should be represented at all times by at least one representative, who shall endeavor to promote the cause in his presbytery.

Rule 20:1b. Organization: The Committee shall have the authority to establish such sub-committees as may be necessary for the furtherance of its work, including (1) Program and (2) Finance.

Rule 20:1c. Functions : In cooperation with the church or churches near educational institutions within the bounds of Synod, the Committee shall develop and promote the cause of Campus Christian Life, including the spiritual welfare of students in these institutions; and further, shall supervise the work of Campus Christian Life, in cooperation with the local Campus Christian Life Committees. In general, the Committee will be governed by the Manual on Campus Christian Life. The Committee shall report annually to Synod.

3. EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Rule 20:2a. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of 20 members, including the Chairman, and the Synodical Chairman of Higher Education or her counterpart, ex officio. There shall be three classes of six members each, whose term of office shall be for three years. Members shall be chosen for their knowledge of and interest in the cause of Christian Higher Education. At least six members shall be laymen, including women. Each Presbytery should be represented at all times by at least one representative who shall endeavor to promote the cause in his presbytery.

Rule 20:2b. Organization: The Committee shall have authority to establish such sub-committees as may be necessary for the furtherance of its work, including (1) Synod's Educational Institutions and (2) Vocational Guidance. The functions of these Committees are set forth in general, as follows:

(1) Synod's Educational Institutions: The Committee shall promote the general educational work of the Synod; cooperate with the Presidents and Boards of Directors of all the schools and colleges within the bounds of the Synod, and with the Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary; and receive the reports from these institutions and report upon them to Synod. In general, this committee shall study all the problems involved in the work of educational institutions and make recommendations to Synod.

Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:2b. It shall be the duty of this Committee to promote the work of enlisting and preparing those entering the service of the church.

23:2c. The Committee shall administer the Reynolds Trust Fund for Aged Ministers as provided in the plan of distribution adopted by the Synod. (Minutes 1947, pp. 543-545)

Rule 23:3. ASSEMBLY'S GENERAL FUND AGENCIES: To inform the Synod concerning the Board of Women's Work, the Bible Cause, Montreat, Stillman College, the Historical Foundation, the General Council, and the Presbyterian School of Christian Education, etc., together with other Assembly work assigned to it from time to time; membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on Assembly's General Fund Agencies in each Presbytery, one Woman, (Rule 23:9d), and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman.

Rule 23:4. BEQUESTS AND DEFERRED GIFTS:

23:4a. Membership shall be composed of the Chairman, two women (Rule 23:9d) and three classes of four members each (15 in all), who shall serve terms of three years each, and eligible for reelection. As a rule, though not necessarily, members shall be laymen, preferably persons familiar with the whole area of wills, bequests, and deferred gifts.

23:4b. Functions: The functions of the Committee shall be to furnish information to the Synod and to advise individuals, churches, and institutions in regard to programs for bequests and deferred gifts, relating to educational institutions and other agencies of the Synod.

Rule 23:5. CHRISTIAN RELATIONS:

23:5a. Membership: to comprise the Chairman of each Committee of the corresponding cause in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

23:5b. Functions: To observe and study the society of our day, and report to Synod such conditions and customs, movements and trends therein as are properly matters for consideration and witness-bearing of a Church Court, with recommendations as to what action should be taken, or witness borne by Synod concerning them.

23:5c. The Chairman of the Committee on Christian Relations shall serve as an Advisory member of the Executive Committee on Christian Education.

Rule 23:6. HOMES. a. Membership: To be composed of the Chairmen of corresponding committees in the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. b. Functions: To cooperate with the official Boards and Directors of the Presbyterian Children's Home, the Presbyterian Home, and the William Black Home; to promote the program and work of these institutions within the bounds of Synod; to receive the Reports of these institutions, studying all the problems involved in their work; and to report upon them to Synod, making necessary recommendations.

Rule 23:7a. INTERCHURCH RELATIONS: To inform the Synod of the work of the North Carolina Council of Churches and other interdenominational programs.

23:7b. Membership is to consist of 16 members, including at least one woman. At least five of the members shall be lay persons.

23:7c. The Nominating Committee triennially shall nominate to Synod a Chairman, who shall serve as the representative of Synod on the corresponding Committee of the General Assembly.

23:7d. There shall be such sub-committees as are necessary.

23:7e. Representation on the North Carolina Council of Churches shall be in accord with the Constitution of the Council, hence commensurate with the number of representatives allowed. (See DIRECTORY, in loco.) The 16 members of the Inter-Church Relations Committee shall automatically be representatives. Additional representatives shall be arranged in classses, the size depending on the number, to serve a term of three years, eligible for one additional term. The Moderator of Synod, the President of the Synodical, and the Stated Clerk should ordinarily be representatives to the Council.

23:7f. The Inter-Church Relations Committee shall appoint suitable persons of Synod to serve as representatives of Synod on the several committees of the North Carolina Council of Churches, expenses for attendance upon meetings to be borne by Synod.

23:7g. Synod shall annually elect six representatives from the membership of the Inter-Church Relations Committee, nominated by the Committee on Nominations, to officially represent the Synod at the annual Assembly of the Council, expenses to be borne by the Synod; and these representatives shall report to the Synod at its subsequent meeting through the Committee on Inter-Church Relations.

Rule 23:8. MINISTER AND HIS WORK.

Rule 23:8a. Membership shall consist of the Chairmen of the corresponding Commissions in the several Presbyteries, and four members-at-large, including the Chairman of the Committee, at least three of whom shall be Ruling Elders, to serve a term of three years each. The Stated Clerk of Synod shall serve ex officio as Secretary of the Committee.

Rule 23:8b. Functions: (1) To render assistance to Presbytery Commissions by (a) Exchange of information as to open fields, ministers open to change, and as to Directors of Christian Education and other lay persons available for church employment; and (b) Facilitating the transfer of ministers between various Presbyteries; (2) To render assistance to the Assembly's Committee and Presbyteries' Commissions in sponsoring the proper position of the minister, and the relationship of the minister and the church, as set forth in Scripture and interpreted in the Book of Church Order; (3) To report annually to Synod, making appropriate recommendations, (a) On actions taken by the General Assembly affecting the Committee and Commissions; and (b) On progress of the Committee and Presbytery Commissions; and (4) To sponsor Synod Conferences on the Minister and His Work, and to cooperate in Regional Conferences.

[For further duties and functions of this Committee, see Chapters 21, 22, the Book of Church Order.]

Rule 23:9a. NOMINATIONS: The Committee shall be composed of 11 members, including one woman (See 23:9d), one from each of the Presbyteries, and a member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. Members of the Committee shall be nominated by Synod's Council.

23:9b. It will be the function of the Committee to make nominations to the Synod of all members-at-large on the several Committees; of all other committee members and Chairmen not otherwise provided for elsewhere in these Standing Rules; and of all Trustees elected by Synod.

23:9c. In making nominations for membership on the several Boards and Committees, the Committee shall confer with the proper representatives of Institutions, Boards, or Committees, relative to persons with suitable qualifications to serve on Boards or Committees.

23:9d. Except as otherwise specified, women members of Boards, the Council, or Committees of Synod shall be nominated by the Executive Board of the Women-of-the-Synod of North Carolina, to the Nominating Committee of the Synod.

23:9e. Where membership on Synod's Committees is determined by action of other bodies, the Nominating Committee shall submit to the Stated Clerk at each meeting of the Synod, the full list of Committee membership.

23:9f. All such nominations referred to above, however, shall not preclude nominations from the floor by any member of Synod.

Rule 23:10. PRESBYTERIAN SURVEY. Membership: To be composed of Chairmen of corresponding committees in Presbyteries, the Synodical Chairman of Christian Education (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large who shall serve as Chairman. Functions: (1) To encourage and facilitate enrollment and renewal in the Every-Family-Plan; (2) To encourage the widest possible use of the magazine in all churches and homes of the Synod; and (3) To report annually to the Synod.

Rule 23:11. STANDING RULES: The Committee shall be composed of the Stated Clerk as Chairman, the Moderator, and the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations. The functions of the Committee will be to review the STANDING RULES for consistency and correctness, and to bring in recommendations for amendment when and where needed.

Rule 23:12. WOMEN'S WORK: To inform the Synod of the work of the Women of the Synod and General Assembly; membership to be composed of three members, one of whom shall be named as chairman on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee; and the President of the Women of the Synod ex officio.

Rule 23:13. WORLD MISSIONS: To promote the welfare of World Missions and Overseas Relief within the Synod, membership to be composed of the Chairman of each Committee on World Missions within the several Presbyteries, one woman (Rule 23:9d), and one member-at-large, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee.

C. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING COMMITTEES:

Rule 24:1a. Term of Office. No member of the Executive Committees or of the Synod's Council shall serve more than two consecutive terms, without a year elapsing; no member of any other Committee shall serve longer than one three-year term, without a year elapsing, except as otherwise set forth in these Rules. In case of Presbytery representatives, where the rule would be violated, such as by a Class representative being elected a Presbytery representative at the expiration of the full limit of his service, he shall be ineligible to serve until one year has elapsed, and the Presbytery should name another representative in his place. Part of a term shall not be considered as a term unless the unexpired term being filled shall be for more than one-half of that term.

24:1b. Terms of office of all Presbytery representatives serving on Synod's Council, Committees, and Boards, unless in conflict with other rules, shall expire at annual meetings of Synod.

24:1c. The terms of office of members of Boards, the Council, or Committees, who fail to attend meetings for a period of twelve months for reasons other than being providentially hindered shall be terminated automatically, and the vacancies shall be filled by the Synod on recommendation of the Nominating Committee.

24:2. Meetings. The Synod's Council and the Executive Committees shall meet at least once annually, and Permanent Committees should meet at least once annually.

24:3a. Reports. To all committees respectively shall be referred without vote, unless there is objection, all reports, documents, communications, and other matters pertaining to the several subjects upon which they are appointed, and it shall be their duty to formulate reports upon the matters referred to them, and present the same to Synod for action.

24:3b. All actions and reports of all the sub-committees of Executive and Permanent Committees and of the Council are subject to the approval of the parent Committee of which they are a part, and ordinarily the Chairman, or some appointed member of the parent Committee, shall make the combined report to Synod of all approved actions of the sub-committees.

24:3c. Committees shall make their reports as brief as is consistent with clarity, avoiding quotations from Board Reports, and such other matters as are elsewhere available in printed form, and to present orally only essential data from Reports and Recommendations.

24:3d. Committees, except the Council and the Committee on Nominations, should place, through their chairmen, copies of their Reports to Synod, in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Synod, not later than approximately thirty days before the meeting of Synod.

24:4. Nominations. The Council, Committees, and other agencies of Synod may recommend to the Permanent Committee on Nominations persons to fill vacancies occurring on Council, Committees, and Boards of Agencies and Institutions of Synod, or persons assigned to them as Executives of their work.

D. STANDING COMMITTEES:

Rule 25:1. Standing Committees of five or more members shall be appointed by the Moderator, at an early hour in the proceedings of the regular meetings of Synod as follows:

(1) Attendance: Functions of the Committee are to consider and to recommend to Synod disposition of all requests to be excused from attendance of Synod for a part of or the full proceedings of the meeting.

(2) Bills and Overtures

(3) Judicial

(4) Resolutions

E. SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES

Rule 26:1. Synod may appoint Ad-Interim and Special Committees whenever deemed necessary, for the consideration of special matters, or the performance of designated duties.

26:2. The Synod's representative on the General Assembly's Council on Higher Education shall serve a term of three years, and be eligible for one additional term.

SECTION VII

FINANCIAL RULES OF AGENCIES OF SYNOD

Rule 27:1. All agencies of Synod shall clear through the Stewardship Committee and Council all requests for funds, including campaigns.

27:2. All Treasurers of Synod's Funds (Office, Church Extension, Education, Homes, and other Agencies and Institutions) shall be bonded in an approved surety company for such amounts as the Finance and Audit Committee shall determine; and these several accounts shall be audited annually by an approved accountant; and annual reports shall be rendered to Synod.

27:3. All agencies of Synod seeking benevolence support from the Synod shall present annually to the Stewardship Committee at its meeting to formulate a budget, together with their requests for support: (1) a two-year comparison financial statement; and (2) a two-year comparison of budgets.

27:4. All Agencies of Synod shall share in an Equalization Fund, as follows: 5 percent of the budget income of each agency shall be reserved for the fund; at the end of each Church Year, Synod's Central Treasurer, under the supervision of the Committee on Finance and Auditing of Synod's Council, shall distribute the Fund to participating Agencies so that each will receive an equal percentage of its budget until the funds are exhausted; any surplus remaining in the Fund shall be divided among all contributing Agencies in the same percentage as contributed; all operating income of Agencies of Synod sharing in the Equalization Fund are to be reported to the Central Treasurer.

SECTION VIII

MEETINGS AND STANDING ORDERS

Rule 28:1. Time. The annual Stated Meeting of Synod shall be held as early in June as is practicable, and with the concurrence of Synod's Council, the first session to begin at 2 p.m. on a Tuesday, unless otherwise ordered. The Synodical year shall end April 30.

Rule 29:1. Enrollment. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall constitute a Committee on Enrollment, which shall meet at the place at which Synod is to convene at an hour just before the opening of the session.

29:2. Each member shall, on arrival, report to this Committee or their agents for enrollment. The roll thus prepared according to Presbyteries shall be reported to the Synod at the opening of Synod, at which time additional enrollment shall be made.

Rule 30:1. Entertainment. Synod's Program Committee shall arrange for the entertainment of Synod in accordance with the following regulations, namely:

30:1a. An institution entertaining Synod shall be paid at the rate of $3.50 for each representative (See SECTION II) for the first forty-eight hours, beginning with the first meal served, and at a rate not to exceed one dollar for each meal thereafter. This rate shall also apply to those guests of Synod who are approved by the Program Committee. All visitors of Synod shall make arrangements for their own entertainment, and shall be charged for meals at the prevailing rate, by the host institution or church.

30:1b. A church entertaining Synod shall be paid an amount not exceeding one dollar a meal for each member of Synod and for guests, when such church shall be serving one or two meals at the church building or other central place.

30:1c. Official representatives of Synod and guests shall be furnished with meal tickets when registering, which shall be collected at the dining-room; and the host institution or church shall be reimbursed by Synod on the basis of the meals served, as verified by the tickets, and as otherwise provided by the Standing Rules, and no institution or church shall be compelled to sustain a loss in the entertainment of the Synod.

Rule 31:1. Expenses. Per capita assessment for Synod's expenses shall be of sufficient amount to meet the expenses of the Stated Clerk's office and such appropriations as are made by Synod to be paid from this fund.

31:2. All salaried officers of the Synod, or any of its agencies, shall be elected by the Synod, and the term of office and compensation of each shall be fixed by the Synod.

31:3. The necessary expenses of the Executive Committees shall be paid from the funds available for the work conducted under the supervision of these Committees.

31:4. The expenses of the Council shall be borne by Synod's Office.

31:5. The necessary expenses of Permanent Committees shall be paid by the Synod from its Treasury, unless otherwise provided for.

31:6. When travel of committee members is by public transportation, the expense shall be the actual cost. When travel is by car, the mileage shall be figured at seven cents per mile.

Rule 32:1. Orders. Following the enrollment at the opening session of Synod, the Moderator shall introduce to the Synod all ministers who have been received into its constituent Presbyteries since the last Stated Meeting.

32:2. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be held on the first day of the Synod's meeting at an appropriate time.

32:3. The names of the Ministers of Synod who have died during the Synodical year shall be read in connection with the annual Communion Service, and an adequate memorial of each, not to exceed approximately 500 words, shall be printed in the Minutes of Synod.

32:4. The Program Committee shall provide the services of a stenographer for Committees of Synod.

32:5. The Minutes of Agencies under the control of Synod shall be made available to Synod or Synod's Council upon request.

32:6. No new matter of business may be introduced to Synod later than recess for lunch on the second day of the meeting of Synod.

[1]—Spiritual Birthrate is determined by dividing the membership at the beginning of the Church year into the accessions on profession of faith during the year and is measured in percentage, the higher the percentage the better the standing. Soul-winning ratio is determined by dividing the number of accessions on profession of faith during the year into the total membership at the beginning of the year and represents the number of church members required to win one person to Christ. The lower the number the better the standing.
